YOUR VOTE DOES COUNT

Go to the polls on Primary Election Day - Tuesday, Sept. 15 - and VOTE. Your vote really does count!

The number of Charlestown voters going to the polls in recent elections has been on the decline. The registration for Ward 2 Charlestown in this upcoming election stands at a total of 8,638, with 4,645 Democrats, 996 Republicans, 2,959 unenrolled and 38 listed in other registrations.

This year, as you well know, the offices of governor and lieutenant governor are up for election, with competition on both the Democratic and Republican ballots.

Another race affecting Charlestown is that of Congressman from the Eighth District. With 10 Democrats in the field, each vote will be significant as the next representative is elected to travel to Washington, D.C. to occupy the congressional seat now held by Congressman Joseph P. Kennedy.

Charlestown will also help elect a member of the Governor's Council from the Sixth District. There are 10 Democrats on the ballot seeking this office.

Does your vote really count? A thinking person will immediately and emphatically say, "YES," and make every effort to go to the polls on Tuesday.

MGH*Charlestown HealthCare Center Turns Thirty

Taking care of the health care needs of six children is no easy task - from bumps and scrapes to physicals and immunizations - Margaret Smith had her hands full. But there was one place Smith trusted to take care of her family - her second family - the MGH*Charlestown HealthCare Center.

Smith has been going to MGH*Charlestown for years - not only for health care, but Smith also worked at the center for 22 years.

"I loved my job there and taking care of the people that I knew in town," says Smith. "But most importantly, the health center staff, who was like a family, has always been there for me."

MGH*Charlestown has been taking care of families like the Smiths for 30 years and will be celebrating its anniversary next week, Sept. 13-18.

The health center was exactly what Charlestown needed in 1968, when only two physicians were available in the town and many residents had few choices for their medical care. The health center opened in September as the Bunker Hill Health Center and was affiliated with the Massachusetts General Hospital (MGH). At the time, the health center offered a unique concept in combining municipal, school and public health into a program affiliated with a university teaching hospital.

"Back then, many forces converged to encourage the MGH to look beyond its walls," says Roger Sweet, MD, former medical director of MGH*Charlestown. "Our goal was to create a model of health care which would be cost efficient and form a new delivery system to address issues that were important to Charlestown."

In order to continue meeting the needs of its community, MGH*Charlestown established a community advisory board in 1986 to learn more from community representatives about the public health and medical needs of Charlestown.

According to Peggy Carolan, administrative director of MGH*Charlestown, the health center's original mission has remained throughout the changes of the past 30 years. "It has evolved into a full-service health center, offering a board range of services from obstetrics to primary care to geriatric care, and has created community service programs such as Camp Bunker Hill, a therapeutic summer day camp for children who have trouble functioning in traditional school settings," says Carolan.

"Along with those changes, our original mission has remained to improve the health of our community by understanding its needs, providing accessible preventative services, advocating for our patients, educating other health care professionals in a community-based setting and bringing available resources from the MGH and Partners HealthCare System to our patients."

Patient-centered care is something that Smith is familiar with - not only through her work at the health center, but four generations of her family have used the health center's services for their medical needs.

"Before the health center opened, you had to go to the emergency room at the hospital if you really had a problem," says Smith. "Being able to have all of your medical needs taken care of under one roof was tremendous."

Smith started working at the health center in 1969 as a nursing assistant, helping the physicians with patient care. "I loved working with the patients since I knew most of them from the community," she says. Smith took a secretarial job after five years of providing direct patient care, because of a back injury. But she still kept her fingers on the pulse of the health center.

"It was great to see the health center go from having only two physicians and two nurses to having three floors of different kinds of specialty care - from OB/GYN and dermatology to physical therapy services," says Smith. "I was fortunate to watch firsthand how the center grew. We went from seeing three patients a day to seeing more than 1,000 in a week. It was truly gratifying to work there."

Now retired, Smith misses the center's patients and staff. To occupy the void, she has become a health care "advocate," talking to neighbors and relatives about their own health care and the importance of seeing a physician regularly. And where does she refer them to go? The MGH*Charlestown Health Care Center, of course!

The 30th anniversary celebration begins on Sunday, Sept. 13 with a family festival from 1 to 4 p.m., featuring health screenings, musical entertainment by the Pipes and Drums of Bunker Hill and DJ Chris Athas, healthy food and special guest appearances by WHDH-TV Channel 7's Lester Strong, National Park Service Rangers and New England Revolution soccer players.

On Tuesday, Sept. 15, Charlestown senior citizens are invited to attend a "Tea at Two," from 2 to 4 p.m., featuring a traditional tea and entertainment by Larry Boyle. The MGH shuttle service will be available. Call 724-8012 for pick-up service.

"Lifestyles of the Fit and Fabulous" - a Health Speak discussion, will take place on Thursday, Sept. 17 from 6 to 8 p.m. Heather Sung, MD, will discuss living a healthier lifestyle and Todd English, chef and owner of Olive's restaurant, will give a presentation about low-fat cooking.

All activities are free and open to the public and will be held at the MGH*Charlestown HealthCare Center, 73 High St. For more information, call 724-8197.

THE REAL ESTATE WEEKLY

Carolyn Sideman, Monument Properties

SELECTING A REALTOR

When you've decided that it's time to buy a new home, finding a Realtor to help with your search is an important first step. Many advice books say start with the car. The bigger the car, the better the agent! While you're going to be spending a considerable amount of time in the agent's car, it's important to be comfortable with the person as well as his or her automobile.

Look for an agent who is willing to listen when you explain what you're looking for, and who knows the market well enough to find it for you within a reasonable time frame. Knowledge, professionalism and experience are all important, but a smart aggressive rookie agent may be in a position to provide service quality that rivals that of an industry veteran. If you don't know of any Realtors, ask friends for referrals. Word of mouth advertising is the best kind for any real estate professional.

It's Time We Judge for Ourselves!

The Governor's Council should be the people's voice - our opportunity to be heard in the confirmation process for judicial and other governmental appointments proposed by the governor. We all realize the importance of qualified judges. I will work to ensure that the public knows of pending appointments, and I will not vote for confirmation of any individual without the qualifications and temperament that we deserve.

I will bring my years of experience to the office and establish an internet site that will contain information about pending appointments. The site will welcome opinions which I will carefully review before making any confirmation decision. It's Time We Judge for Ourselves!

★ IRS Problem Solving Day . . .

Taxpayers are invited to an Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Problem Solving Day from noon to 7 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 17, at the IRS office located at One Montvale Ave., Stoneham. Problem Solving Day provides an opportunity for individual taxpayers to meet with IRS officials on persistent tax problems that they have been unable to resolve through normal channels.

"Taxpayers or their representatives can call (617) 565-1550 to schedule an appointment for Sept. 17," said Acting District Director Bill Caine. "Although appointments are not required, it will ensure that preliminary research will be completed and that appropriate IRS representatives will be available to provide the assistance needed," Caine noted. Those planning to attend Problem Solving Day should bring with them any relevant documentation or IRS correspondence.

Some of the problems the IRS employees will be ready to handle include: outstanding balances, non-receipt of refund checks, misapplied payments and overdue tax returns.

Taxpayers who do not want to wait until Sept. 17, or those who cannot attend that day, can always call the IRS toll-free line, 1-800-829-1040, Monday through Saturday, 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. to request that their Federal tax problem be referred to the Problem Resolution Program (PRP). The PRP office, established over 20 years ago, offers special handling to those with tax problems that cannot be resolved through normal channels.

For more information, contact Recruitment Advisor Robert E. Morris at (617) 287-5873.

★ "Let Freedom Ring" . . . The Institute of Contemporary Art (ICA) is preparing to conduct some more preliminary technical testing on the Bunker Hill Monument of a project that will be part of Let Freedom Ring.

The tests, which will involve video projection on the monument, are planned for the evening of Tuesday, Sept. 15 - weather permitting. They will be on site from about 5 p.m. until 9 or 10 p.m.

The public presentation of this project will occur on the evenings of Thursday, Sept. 24 through Saturday, Sept. 26. Final tests will be scheduled for just prior to these dates.

Let Freedom Ring's other three projects are on view from Sept. 10 through Sept. 29. Call (617) 266-5152 for more information.)

At meetings over the last several months, the ICA has shared information about the Bunker Hill project and Let Freedom Ring with the Monument Square Association, the Charlestown Neighborhood Council and the Bunker Hill Monument Association. The ICA has been fortunate to receive the assistance of the staff of the Bunker Hill Monument, Boston National Historical Park and the Boston Parks and Recreation Department as they plan these projects.

Please call the Institute of Contemporary

Art at (617) 266-5152.

★ Women In The Building Trades . . .

Women in the Building Trades will be offering workshops for women who are interested in entering the skilled building trades. Come learn about the construction industry and union apprenticeship. The workshops are scheduled for Wednesdays Sept. 16, 23 and 30 and Oct. 7.

The workshops are held from 6 to 8 p.m. at 555 Armory St., Jamaica Plain. It can be reached from the Green Street stop on the Orange Line.

★ Recruiting Men With Prostate Cancer For Study . . .

Dr. Philip Kantoff and Dr. Matthew Smith of Dana-Farber/Partners CancerCare are seeking men with a confirmed diagnosis of advanced prostate cancer and progressive bone disease following chemotherapy or hormonal treatment to participate in a nationwide study of AREDIA® (pamidronate disodium for injection). Patients and families interested in learning more about this study can call either Mass. General Hospital at (617) 724-9029 or Dana-Farber Cancer Institute at (617) 632-3466.

Prostate cancer is the second leading cause of cancer-related deaths among men. Prostate cancer has the potential to spread to the skeleton involving any bones in the body, especially the pelvis and spinal cord. These bone metastases may have severe clinical consequences, since they can lead to skeletal complications such as fractures, spinal cord compression, and bone pain. Vertebrae may fracture and collapse, causing back pain and pressure on the spinal cord nerves. This may lead to serious neurological problems.

TIARA To Meet Sept. 11

The Irish Ancestral Research Association, known as TIARA, will hold its inaugural meeting of the 1998-99 program year on Friday, Sept. 11 at 7:30 p.m. in Room 511, Fulton Hall at Boston College.

Members and guests are asked to park in the garage, walk past O'Neill Library and up the stairs to the quadrangle between Devlin and Gasson to reach Fulton. Handicap parking is at the south side of Fulton, with an elevator available.

The speaker for the evening will be Patricia Trainor O'Malley, professor of history at Bradford College. Her topic will be The Irish in Haverhill; she will be illustrating her talk with photos drawn from her new book of the same title.

Professor O'Malley is an active member of TIARA and has contributed articles to The Mizen Journal, a regional publication in Ireland which focuses on the history, archaeology and natural history of southwest County Cork, based on a large collection of family letters sent to her grandfather (Dan Donovan) and grandmother (Honora McCarthy) at the end of the 19th century.

TIARA is an organization of amateur, family and professional researchers who meet to exchange information about Irish family history. Meetings are held on the second Friday of each month. There is no admission charge and the public is welcome.

Safety Day At The Warren-Prescott School Playground

Safety Day at the Warren-Prescott School Playground, sponsored by the Boston Transportation Department, the Boston Fire Department and the Boston Youth Clean-Up Corps with support from the Mayor's Office and the Retired Senior Services, was a great success. Many children had fun while learning the importance of fire, bicycle and pedestrian safety.

The Safety Village, constructed by funds from the Governor's Highway Safety Bureau, came alive with the help of some very enthusiastic teenagers from Boston area high schools. This miniature village allowed the children to practice safety tips previously taught to them by the teenagers through stories and demonstrations. Also accompanying the Safety Village was a presentation by the Boston Fire Department. They brought a trailer that children went through to encounter some very realistic fire hazards. The children enjoyed showing off their fire safety smarts.

One of the most entertaining part of the day was meeting "Sparky," the fire dog. More than one of the children remarked that they would love to have him for a pet.

Patricia Simpson, one of the coordinators of the event, commented on how often the playground was being used for enriching and educational activities, such as Safety Day. She thanked the Community Centers camp, the Boys & Girls Club Camp and the Little Patriots Day Care, as well as neighborhood children for attending this exciting and educational day!

Boston Cares teamed up with the Warren-Prescott community for its first playground clean-up day. Many parents, students, neighbors and teachers, including the principal, Dr. Domenic Amara, pitched in along with volunteers supplied by Boston Cares Community Clean-Up Program. They did an incredible job helping to clean the playground and school grounds.

Everyone worked so hard to wash, plant, water, prune and, especially, have fun as they made the school a better place.

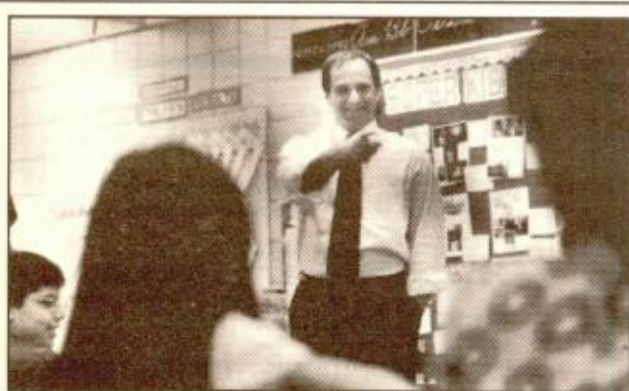

Thanks goes out to all the volunteers who gave their time and energy, especially Patricia Simpson, for coordinating the event.

LoPresti Announces Candidacy For Governor's Council

Vincent A. LoPresti of Stoneham has announced his candidacy for election to the office of Governor's Council in the 6th District.

In announcing his candidacy, LoPresti said, "I strongly believe that the average person's apathy in government is justified. Too many officials have lost touch with the voters. We need elected officials who will respond to the needs of the public while using a little common sense. Working together, we can make improvements.

As an elected official on both the local and state level, I have always made every effort to work with the public in finding solutions to their problems. I will not hesitate to use the Governor's Council as a platform to support programs that will be beneficial to our district."

LoPresti is the author of a law which prohibits undated letters of resignation by public employees in all cities and towns, thereby giving employees freedom from political arm twisting. He also authored a municipal bid law, which put an end to costly and illegal bidding on city contracts.

LoPresti served for six years as Alderman-at-Large in Somerville. He served as president of the Board during his first term and also served ex-officio as a member of the School Committee. During his service in local office, LoPresti initiated one of the Commonwealth's most successful and comprehensive drug programs, which expanded to include a human development program in the schools and a "diversion" program in the courts.

LoPresti served one term on the Governor's Council, where he initiated the practice of holding council meetings in various cities and towns. As chairman of the council's Finance Committee, he was a watchdog on fiscal matters and extra work orders.

LoPresti is married to the former Patricia Herbert. They reside in Stoneham with two of their 10 children.

LoPresti is a graduate of Burdett College and studied at Cornell University. He is an established businessman, having managed Skyline Enterprises at Logan Airport from more than 20 years and is now a consultant with Skyline.

He served on the Mass. Emergency Finance Board for four years and on the Stoneham Board of Appeals. He also worked as a field technician with the Mass. State Lottery.

LoPresti has also participated in many civic activities, including membership on the Medford Municipal Review Committee, Director of the West End House Boys and Girls Club, fund raising for the Somerville Boys and Girls Club, member of the Elks and the Heart Fund Drive.

He is a member of the Service Employees International Union, Local 254, AFL/CIO.

Pipes & Drums To Compete

The Pipes and Drums of Bunker Hill will be competing at the New Hampshire Highland Games on Sept. 19 at Loon Mountain in Lincoln, N.H.

The New Hampshire Highland Games is the largest in the United States, and bands from across America as well as Scotland and Canada come to these games to compete.

The crowd this year is expected to top 30 thousand and seems to grow every year.

The Pipes and Drums of Bunker Hill will be competing against 25 other bands and it is their debut in the competition circle. The band has been working year round to prepare for these games. It is the newest band to compete and is the only inner city youth pipe band in the country.

The band members would love to see the residents of Charlestown come to Loon Mountain to show their support for what promises to be a great weekend.

For information, call 242-5036.

Discover Origami . . . At The Charlestown Branch Library

Origami is a Japanese word that means "the art of Paper folding." Once you learn the basic origami plans, you can try ideas of your own for folding paper.

Dottie Tolini from

Paperfolders in New England, will be visiting the Charlestown Branch Library on Thursday, Sept. 17 to introduce students to origami.

She will teach basic origami techniques and help students second grade and up make their own creations which they can bring home. Classes will be at 3:30 and 5 p.m.,

Class size is limited. Call Kim Mc Cleary at 242-1248 to register.

Antique Auto Show Scheduled For Sept. 19

Bunker Hill Community College's Antique All-Wheel Show-n-Shine Auto Show and Escorted Cruise through historic Charlestown, postponed from June 13 due to a torrential rain storm, has been rescheduled for Saturday, Sept. 19, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the college's Charlestown campus, 250 New Rutherford Ave.

The Antique All-Wheel Show-n-Shine Auto Show has been designated a qualifying event by Cruisin' New England Magazine, the area's largest read antique auto magazine. Participants will be judged, and trophies will be awarded, in five categories. The first 200 registrants will receive car plaques and a T-shirt.

The day-long family event is being held in conjunction with the college's 25th anniversary celebration. The auto show will also feature prizes, food, music and an opportunity for spectators to choose their favorite entry.

Gates will open to the general public at 9 a.m. Spectator viewing will take place between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Registration for participants in the show will take place between 9 and 11 a.m. Judging will be from noon to 1 p.m., with the awarding ceremony to begin at 1 p.m.

All antique auto entrants participating in the event will be invited to join the escorted cruise, scheduled to begin at 3 p.m.

Ample free parking will be available in the college's student parking lots on New Rutherford Avenue. Admission to the event is $2, with children under 12 admitted free of charge. Show participant registration is $10, with a $15 fee for Car Corrals. All proceeds will benefit the BHCC 25th Anniversary Scholarship Fund.

For more information, call Sandra Gaeta at (617) 228-2455 or email sgae-ta@bhcc.state.ma.us.

Seventh Boston Yard Sale

If you're considering buying the lot next to your property, the City of Boston may have just the deal for you. The City of Boston is holding its seventh Yard Sale, a program created to reduce the City of Boston's inventory of vacant land by selling small parcels of tax-foreclosed real property to residential abutters for open space use. These lots may be used for a garden, landscaped open space, off-street parking, a garage, or an addition to your existing home.

...lighting the Menorah on Boston Common.

...Ambassador Flynn with wife Kathy and Pope John Paul II.

... RAY FLYNN has the best vision for the 8th District:

- to help the institutions in the district succeed by increasing federal support for Research and Development.
- to help the people in the district succeed through increased support for education - especially early childhood education.
- to link the success of the institutions in the district to the well-being of working families who live here.

... from visiting senior citizens to listening to working people in coffee shops to playing ball with young people on playgrounds, Ray Flynn knows the people of the 8th District and the people of the 8th District know him.

Dear Friend:

My entire career in public life has been dedicated to fighting for working men, women and families and promoting social and economic justice. Much of my work has gone into building strong families and strong communities by creating the best social program I know - good paying jobs.

I'm running for U.S. Representative from the 8th Congressional District because I still believe government has a responsibility to help working people and the needy. I want to link the success of the world renowned academic, medical, and business institutions of the 8th District to the success of the working men and women who live here, just as I was able to link the prosperity of downtown Boston to the neighborhoods when I was Mayor.

I'm only going to make one promise to the people of the 8th District: No one will work harder or fight harder for you, for your family, or for working people. That's a promise I know I can keep - because I have always kept it. I've dedicated my whole life to keeping it.

I would very much appreciate your vote on September 15th. If you'd like to talk about the issues you care about or volunteer to help my campaign, please call 666-3810. I look forward to talking with you and working with you to ensure the success of the 8th District and the people who live in it.

Sincerely,

Raymond L. Flynn

Townies Are Playoff Bound!!

This Saturday evening, Sept. 12, the Charlestown Townies will try to improve their position in the Eastern Football League playoff standings. A victory over the second-place Middleboro Cobras in this weekend's final regular season game should move the Townies into third place. Kick-off is scheduled for 6 p.m. at East Boston Memorial Stadium.

A last-second victory over the N.H. Wolfpack, last Saturday, clinched a play-off spot for the young Townies. After nearly four full quarters of football, it looked as if a 6-6 deadlock would have to be broken in overtime. With just under four minutes to play, N.H. punted the ball to the Townies 9-yard line. Driving 91 yards with time running out was no small task for an offense that had not mustered a point since the first quarter.

However, key play calling by the coaching staff provided a balanced attack that played right into the hands of the Townies' veteran offensive line. Fullback Jim Franklin sparked the Townies' game-winning drive with a huge 35-yard draw play on third down and 8. Quarterback Mike Mareno then hit Rick Reppucchi with a sideline pass to the N.H. 6-yard line.

Mareno would drop back on the next play but was immediately flushed out of the pocket toward the Townie bench. With time just about expired in regulation, Mareno stopped, turned back and threw a desperation pass across the field toward the end-zone and into the waiting arms of veteran tight end Dan Ryan, who was stopped on the 1-inch line. Hustling to the scrimmage line, the Townies got set for a Mareno spike that stopped the clock with four seconds remaining. The stage was set for the most dramatic touchdown in recent Townie history.

As the ball was snapped, Jimbo Murphy rambled off tackle and was stuck at the goal line by two N.H. defenders. Murphy's momentum and effort carried his carcass across the plane of the goal-line before he was pulled back. An initial no touchdown call was overruled by the head linesman who had a better view of the play. Much to the chagrin of the N.H. defenders the Townies began celebrating their first .500 season since rejoining the EFL.

The Charlestown Football Townies' 1998 season is marked with many great accomplishments. Fan and community support has been tremendous all season. The Townies would like to ask their faithful fans to join them for one more night of revelry.

This Saturday evening at East Boston Stadium, the Townies will try to prove they are legitimate contenders in the playoff hunt and will need all the support they can get to defeat the second place Middleboro Cobras. Kick-off is at 6 p.m. See you there!

"I am proud to serve as Charlestown's voice in the House of Representatives. Over the past two years, we have met with success on many issues of concern to the people of Charlestown and Massachusetts. During the next two years, I will continue to work in the Legislature on the items most important to you. I respectfully ask for your support and vote on September 15th."

The old answers just aren't solving today's problems. And yesterday's leaders just don't know how. That's why more and more people in the 8th District are supporting Chris Gabrieli for Congress. Chris Gabrieli has already made a difference in people's lives . . .

- By improving health care and making it more affordable.
- By helping build new companies and create jobs.
- By working for real education reform.
- By bringing more investment to our inner cities.

Chris Gabrieli is a new leader, who sees problems and finds solutions. He knows how to get things done - and isn't afraid to get things done.

The John F. Kennedy Family Service Center in Charlestown will be one of the nearly 45 nonprofit agency sites to receive volunteer assistance in conjunction with the United Way's Fall Community Care Day. On Wednesday, Sept. 16, close to 10 corporate workers from Stone and Webster of Boston will be on hand from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. to help paint the center's home care office, located at 27 Winthrop St. Community Care Day is the largest volunteer effort in the state.

By the day's end, more than 60 Community Care Day projects, ranging from reading to children to painting facilities and building playgrounds, will be completed by more than 1,400 corporate volunteers. "This day of personalized volunteerism provides a secure foundation for a lifetime of service, said Marian L. Heard, president and chief executive officer of the United Way of Mass. Bay. "This personal satisfaction the volunteer gains matches, and in some cases exceeds, the valuable work they do for our agencies." Throughout the course of the year, more than 40,000 people will volunteer and support the United Way's efforts. The State Street Corporation underwrites the United Way's Community Care Day.

IT'S WHAT TO WATCH

BOB D'S BEAT BY BOB DeCRISTOFORO

◆ Vote On Tuesday . . . Come Sept. 15, we have the option to do what makes this country the great nation it is - VOTE! This is the power! The polls are open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. If you really want to have a say, this is the way to do it. If you are 18 or older and registered, and I know a lot of you are, vote!

◆ Hockey, Football, Etc. . . . There are some great "happenings" this weekend, and a lot of good people have worked very hard to make them go - and they deserve our support . . . The Bryan McGonagle Ball Hockey Tournament takes place down at The Neck all weekend . . . On Sunday, the Pop Warner program opens when the teams travel to Braintree. A "Kick-Off Kookout" will take place on Saturday down at the football field, beginning at 4 p.m. . . . The Charlestown Catholic Young Adults will hold their second annual Cookout and Field Day, beginning at noon on Sunday. Call St. Mary's rectory for details.

◆ Character In Community Contest . . . McDonald's and Fox 25 want to know. If you are between the ages of 5 and 15, tell them in an essay of 500 words or less about someone who has displayed the qualities of good character - teamwork, trustworthiness, respect, responsibility, fairness, caring, self-esteem and citizenship. Your essay should demonstrate how the person helped you learn about the qualities of good character. Send your entry form (available at McDonald's) and essay to: Character In Your Community Contest, c/o Arnold Public Relations, 101 Huntington Ave., Boston, MA 02199. The deadline for all entries is Nov. 13, 1998.

◆ CYO Track Meet . . . Registration for youngsters 7 through 15 for the annual CYO Inter-Parish Track Meet is now underway. The event takes place on the Columbus Day Holiday, Monday, Oct. 12, at St. John's Seminary. Call St. Catherine's rectory at 242-1750 to sign up, and, of course, if you sign up, GO!

◆ Humanities 101 . . . For the past few years, I have received much information about the Young at Arts program at the Wang Center, now in its 10th year. All programs are free, and there are many fine opportunities for those who have the interest.

- Arts By Kids. The annual Arts by Kids

literary and visual arts contest encourages young writers and visual artists to creatively interpret the annual theme through creative writing or art pieces. The submission deadline is Nov. 3.

- Drama Club. High school students meet new friends and explore performing arts basics in the ensemble that meets biweekly. Members contribute original material based on the annual theme and help create a final production on a professional stage. The application deadline is Nov. 30.

- Song Writing. Student participants learn many ways to define a song, why people write lyrics and music, and how to create a song. The application deadline is Sept. 23.

- Critics Circle. The Critics Circle provides selected juniors and seniors a chance to learn the art of criticism from celebrated reporters, critics and actors. Led by experienced newspaper editors, Critic Circle meets throughout the year for workshops and performances. The application deadline is Sept. 22.

For information on these programs and other Young At Arts programs, call 482-9393, ext. 256.

◆ College Board . . . A college athletic trip is a great trip. With the demise of BU football, the Northeastern Huskies are the top dogs in town. Parson Field is convenient to the Riverside Green Line's Longwood stop, and Huskies have a few familiar names in Zack Falconer, who played at Boston Latin, and QB Jason Quinlan, who played at Catholic Memorial. On Saturday, the Huskies defeated New Hampshire 10-3 in their season opener and, this Saturday, "Community Youth Day," they host Lafayette. Kickoff is 12:30 p.m. Call the Northeastern Football office at 373-2672 for Youth Day details.

Merrimack College got off to a very good start, defeating John Fisher College 30-6. Townie Michael Sullivan is a member of the Merrimack Football team.

Bridgewater State gets into action on Saturday, Sept. 12, when they host Springfield College. Timmy Shea is a member of the Bridgewater team.

◆ High School Prep Notebook . . . The fall season is just a week away, and this year I do need some help. If you know any of our Townies who are playing a high school or prep school sport, let me know, even if he or she is a relative. Drop a line or two and a schedule down at the Patriot office so we can really follow our kids and their teams all-year round. We're talking about all sports - girls and guys, varsity, junior varsity or freshmen. And, don't forget our cheerleaders. This is much appreciated.

◆ EFL Football . . . The Charlestown Townies defeated New Hampshire 12-6 in a hard-nosed, hard-fought game.

The Townies will take a 5-4 record into Saturday's home contest versus second-place Middleboro at East Boston Stadium. Kick-off time is 6 p.m., and a victory would put the locals in a real solid play-off spot.

Standings are: Marlboro 8-0, Middleboro 6-2, Charlestown 5-4, Randolph 4-3, Boston 3-4, New Hampshire 1-7, Maine 0-7.

◆ Tidbits . . . Debbie Brennan's "Mayoral Campaign" office to open soon! . . .

Smile!

POP WARNER CORNER

The Townies are immediately being put to the test this Sunday in Braintree as they open the 1998 football season. Over 140 football players and 100 cheerleaders have worked extremely hard over the past six weeks and all are looking to be rewarded with five wins this Sunday.

Leading the charge is the "A Team," under the direction of coaches Dan Ryan and Mike Walsh, looking to rebuild after being eliminated in the playoffs last fall against Weymouth. Ryan Arroyo, Kevin O'Neil, Jorge Gonzalez, Lawrence Durham and Andrew Brennan have issued warnings to the entire league that they are prepared for war and any talk about rebuilding is nonsense. The A Team cheerleaders, coached by the talented duo of Sue Wrenn and Kerry Woods, are already challenging the league's elite cheerleading squads as they prepare for the league's cheerleading competition in October. Jessica Grace, Kathleen O'Hearn and Kerriann Gomperts warn all that the A Team cheerleaders "got their groove back!"

Fred Arroyo, Jimbo Murphy and Billy Flynn and their many years of coaching experience are ready to make some noise in the Bay State Conference with their talented "B Team" football squad. Leading the charge are Stephen and Scott King, Jon "Bucky" Jones, Jimmy Murphy, Steve Awbrey, John Allen, Hector Saez, Paul Hollien and Chris D'Anjou. B Team cheerleading coaches, Monique Walton and Lauren-Kate O'Hearn, have their hands full with a more than enthusiastic group who are ready to make more noise than the football team. Courtney Schievink, Meaghan Gallarelli and Charlene Owens are ready to rock the kazbah!

Coach Larry Getchell was worried about inexperience with the young "C Team," but luckily found a few diamonds in the rough. With assistants Michael Crowley, Jack Schievink, Ed Grace and the recent hiring of Freddy Arroyo Jr., in what many observers compared to the Patriots acquiring Ernie Zampese, have worked this inexperienced group into a competitive football team. Veterans P.J. Arroyo, Brent Getchell and Ruben Calderone are looked to for their experience while first-year players John Woods, Chris Dacey and Ian Box have contributed immediately and their play has been eye-catching from day one. Cheerleading coaches Tracey Buckley and Shannon McLaughlin have proven that their energy is contagious. Jacqueline Hurley, Courtney Ferreira and Kerriann Hayes are ready to bop 'till you drop with any C Team cheerleading squad in the league.

For those who don't know Coach Jack Uberti, strap on the seatbelt because he is taking the "D Team" for the ride of their football lives. Coach Uberti's "Mike Ditka" approach to football has caught fire and his able assistants, Ricky Young and Tommy Allen, can't douse the flames. Joey Burke, Neil Gillis and sure-handed John Collins lead the offense while Micah Young, Tommy Derosa, Daniel Douglas, Taylor Simpson and Timmy Buhay are becoming terrors to every defense they encounter. You couldn't ask for two better D Team cheerleading coaches than Katie Farrell and Krista Kennedy who, once again, lead the same group of girls they have been coaching for well over three years. This young and boisterous group has been entertaining fans since they were 5-years-old and are a group to be reckoned with in the years to come. Janelle Gaudette, Kristina Brown and Kaleigh Hickey are a few of the many who have been boog-a-look along with this gang of 21 outstanding cheerleaders.

The "E Team" mighty mites undoubtedly will win more than they'll lose this year under the guidance of Bobby Allen, Mike Stillman, John Harrington and Ray Ortiz. Last year, sheer determination allowed this group to compete against many teams who towered over them each and every game. Second year players, Cameron Ortiz, Pat McGrath and Michael Newhall, lead the Townies with newcomers Seamus Lynch, Michael Woods, A.J. Hanscom and Chris Crowley who have added some much-needed athleticism to this young and talented group. Janelle DiFrummolo and her 12 mighty mite cheerleaders are ready to shake, rattle and roll! The boisterous trio of Justine Collier, Courtney Libby and Mylissa Ortiz are rattling the walls of the Wiggies.

The "Kick-Off Kookout" will be this Saturday, Sept. 12, at 4 p.m. (note change in time) down at the football field. All the football and cheerleading squads will be introduced, followed by a BBQ for all parents, players and cheerleaders. For more information, call John Tagliatela at 242-2997.

CHARLESTOWN BOYS & GIRLS CLUB NEWS

15 GREEN ST.

242-1775

After a brief respite from the fun in the sun that was had in summer camps, the Boys & Girl Club will be opening on Monday, Sept. 14. Due to ongoing renovations, only the Green Street building will be open. The schedule will be Monday through Friday from 2 to 8 p.m. The staff looks forward to welcoming all of our club members back for another exciting and fun-filled year.

Mark your calendars! Open House for parents and members will be on Thursday, Sept. 24 from 6 to 8 p.m. As usual, many class sign-ups will be held at that time.

The annual trophy fun day for Charlestown T-Ball/Wack-A-Ball was held recently at the Training Field. The weather finally cooperated after a rainy season, giving us a sunny day.

Trophies were awarded to all the players with our congratulations. The players and their families were treated to an outdoor lunch, had their faces painted, listened to music by Brandon the DJ and had Hoodies provided by the Disney Hood truck.

The league would like to thank our sponsors for their generosity. They were the American Legion Post #26, Boys & Girls Club, Bunker Hill Florist; Century 21 Elite, Cong. Joseph P. Kennedy, Gov. Paul Cellucci, Massport, P&J Pest Control, Boston Sand & Gravel, Charlestown Patriot, Grant Photo, Jimmy's on Top, North American Mortgage, The Mortgage Depot and the Warren Tavern.

Special thanks go out to the following people/companies for making our Trophy Day a success. Thank you to Johnnie's Foodmaster, Peter Looney and CHAD, the Hood Disney Truck, John Russo of Awards Unlimited, City Councillor Paul Scapicchio, Julia Corrigan and Marissa Sherman for face painting, Debbie Lang and her team for cooking the hot dogs, Chipa Godding on garbage detail and most importantly all the coaches for donating their time every Saturday.

Keep an eye on future Patriots for next year's registration.

O'Connor Hosts Famine Memorial Anniversary Event

One year after then President of Ireland Mary Robinson and Cambridge activist John O'Connor dedicated America's first permanent memorial to the victims of the Irish Famine, 300 people returned to Cambridge Common for the monument's first anniversary last Tuesday evening.

Cambridge City Councillors Sheila Russell, Kathy Leahy Born and O'Connor addressed the crowd before there was a moment of silence in honor of victims of hunger across the world. A proclamation from the City of Cambridge acknowledging the anniversary was also read.

Among the crowd were elected officials and candidates for office: State Rep. Alice Wolf, State Rep. Steve Tolman, Governor's JOHN O'CONNOR, Eighth Congressional District candidate, is pictured with the Boston Fire Department Gaelic Pipe Band, who played at the First Anniversary of the Irish Famine Memorial on Cambridge Common.

Councillor Dorothy Kelly Gay, Eighth Congressional District candidate Alex Rodriguez, candidate for Governor's Council Terry McGinty and Cambridge Vice Mayor Anthony Galluccio.

O'Connor, himself a candidate for Congress, used his address to ask for a renewed commitment to end world hunger. "Cooking a meal or taking out the trash for an elderly neighbor or donating groceries to your local food bank are ways to remember the Famine. We all need to do whatever we can," O'Connor said.

In the spirit of fighting hunger across the globe, attendees were asked to bring non-perishable food items to the event. All donations were distributed to local food banks. The event also featured former Riverdance star Deirdre Goulding and her Irish dancing troupe, the Boston Fire Department Gaelic Pipe Band and refreshments.

The event was paid and authorized by the O'Connor Committee.

NEW CHILD TAX CREDIT MEANS SAVINGS NOW

Families may save tax dollars this year with changes contained in the Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997. One such family-friendly provision is the child tax credit. This year, taxpayers who have qualifying children under age 17 may be entitled to a credit of $400 per child. This increases to $500 per child in 1999 and later years. To receive this credit, two main rules concerning the definition of "qualifying child" and taxpayer income limits must be met.

- Qualifying child. This must be a child, grandchild, stepchild or eligible foster child for whom you can claim a dependency exemption and who is under 17 at the end of the year for which you are claiming the credit. The child must also be a U.S. citizen, national, or legal resident.

- Income limitations. Higher-income taxpayers face a phaseout of the credit amount when their income reaches specific limits. For example, on a 1998 joint tax return, the $400 credit is gradually reduced when family income exceeds $110,000; for singles, the credit starts phasing out when income exceeds $75,000.

- To benefit now. There is no need to wait until the filing of your 1998 individual income tax return next year to take advantage of the tax credit. The tax savings resulting from the credit can put more money in your pocket now by reducing your income tax withholding. The IRS has included the tax credit allowance in the worksheet for the 1998 Form W-4 (Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate). Consider filing a new form if adjustments are appropriate.

Contact our office if you would like details about the child tax credit in your situation. If you're likely to qualify for the credit, your 1998 tax planning should take it into account.

Charlestown Residents Steal Show At United Way Fun Run

THE FIFTH ANNUAL FUN RUN, sponsored by the State Street Corporation, was held recently to kick-off their United Way Campaign. The total number of participants in the 5K race was 562 with the winner, Sean Dillon (shown above) of the State Street Corporation coming in at 16 minutes 48 seconds. The first female runner to pass the finish line was Beth Holland (shown below) of State Street who came in a 19 minutes and 48 seconds. Both Dillon and Holland are from Charlestown.

Friends Of The Library Garden Party To Feature Irish Harp Music

The Friends of the Charlestown Branch Library invite the community to join them at a Garden Party celebrating the completion of the new courtyard at the library.

The highlight of the evening will be Irish harp music played by concert harpist Mariead Loughnane Doherty. Originally from County Tipperary, Ireland, Doherty studied harp under the auspices of the Royal Irish Academy of Music.

She has performed throughout the United States and Europe. Locally, she has played at Symphony Hall with the Chieftans, at Sanders Theater with the Revels, at Holy Cross Cathedral and at the Boston Public Library.

Special ceremonies will be held at 7 p.m. to dedicate the garden and honor those volunteers chiefly responsible for its creation, accompanied by brief readings from literature on the subject of gardens.

Food and drink will be served in the garden. The event is an open house so attendees can come and go as they wish.

The Garden Party will be held Thursday, Sept. 17, from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main St.

Call 242-1248 for further information. The party will move inside the library in case of rain.

Tuesday, Aug. 25

Police responded to a call to Charlestown High School where they were told that between 2:30 p.m. on Aug. 24 and 7 a.m. on this date, unknown person(s) had entered the student support office on the second floor. The door to the hallway was open and the intruders had entered four other offices by pulling down ceiling tiles. Shaving cream had been sprayed all over the walls, floor, furniture, a computer and a printer. Desk and file cabinet drawers had been opened. Nothing had apparently been taken. There was no sign of forced entry at the exterior doors.

A Charlestown businessman stated that between 5:30 p.m. on Aug. 24 and 9:10 a.m. on this date, someone smashed the glass window at his Main Street office

At 10:55 a.m., a Wolfboro, N.H. man was involved in a motor vehicle accident at Rutherford Avenue and Chelsea Street. A witness said the man failed to stop at a red light and was hit by another auto. It was found that the motor vehicle was not registered nor insured, and his driver's license had been suspended on June 28. The vehicle was towed for safe-keeping.

Shortly after noon, officers were called to Elm Street to investigate a call about a dispute between neighbors. The victim, a Charlestown man, said that while he was sitting at his kitchen table, a next door neighbor came out of his back door, walked toward the victim's house and threw a handful of roofing nails at the house. The man told the officers that there is an ongoing dispute between both parties.

At 1:30 p.m., police were called to St. Martin Street where a representative from a credit union told the officers that a Charlestown man had cancelled an auto and refused to pay or deliver the auto.

At 1:30 p.m., police were called to Corey Street where a man and a woman, residents of Charlestown, were being threatened by a R.I. man.

At 7:15 p.m., officers responded to a radio call to Old Landing Way where they spoke to a Charlestown woman who stated that a Somerville woman had struck her in the face with her fist. The suspect attempted to flee through the rear of the apartment. She was then placed under arrest and charged with assault and battery, trespassing and possession of a Class B substance.

An auto, reported stolen on this date from Emerson College, was recovered in the lot at the rear of Tibbetts Town Way at 8:37 p.m. The right rear fly window had been broken and the ignition was damaged.

At 10:59 p.m., officers went to Moulton Street where an Allston man stated that his auto was struck in the rear passenger door by an auto belonging to a Charlestown woman. The auto fled the scene. The victim and a witness were not injured. Police saw the auto parked on Dunstable Street with minor front right-end damage. The officer spoke to the owner who said that her daughter was driving a friend home at the time. Complaints will be sought for driving without a license and leaving the scene.

Wednesday, Aug. 26

Officers were called to 13th Street in the Charlestown Navy Yard where they were met by a construction manager who said that two rolls of bronze and brown carpeting, valued at approximately $1,500, and 25 boxes of hardwood flooring, valued at $2,500, had been taken at about 1:45 a.m. Three men in a cranberry colored vehicle with the rear door open were seen leaving the area at about that time.

At 2:15 a.m., officers observed an auto parked in the resident parking lot on Medford Street. It had been vandalized. The auto, belonging to a Centerville man had been reported stolen on Aug. 21.

At 3:05 a.m., officers responded to Parker Street on the report of a man beating his girlfriend, allegedly over their infant son. The woman was bleeding from both ears and told police that she had been punched by the man. She was transported to MGH by ambulance. The child was left in the care of his grandmother and the man was arrested and charged with assault and battery.

Police were called to the Beijing Taste on Cambridge Street where the owner told them that between midnight and 5 a.m., the plate glass front door had been taken off the frame and a second door had been forced open. A computer was damaged.

At 8:15 a.m., a Watertown man reported that his Nextell cellular phone had been taken from the loading dock at 420 Rutherford Ave.

At 10:05 a.m., officers went to Harvard Street on the report of an illegally parked car. The vehicle, which belonged to a Charlestown man, was parked in a tow zone. It was towed and a parking violation was issued.

At 12:25 p.m., the owner of a checking account told police that a Boston man used three checks, totalling almost $1,000, to pay for an unknown service with an auto sales company. The checks had been stolen from the victim's truck which was being repaired by the auto sales company. The victim was advised to seek criminal complaints at the Charlestown District Court for larceny by check.

A Charlestown woman reported that between 4 and 7 p.m., someone damaged her auto while it was parked on Salem Street.

An illegally parked jeep was found on Decatur Street that had been stolen in Cambridge on Aug. 25.

At 10:10 p.m., police saw a 25-year-old Charlestown resident at the Monument Street playground drinking from an open bottle of beer. He was charged with public drinking.

An auto belonging to a Wellesley man and reported stolen in Boston on Aug. 25, was recovered on Tremont Street about 10:40 p.m. The ignition had been damaged.

Thursday, Aug. 27

A New Hampshire man reported that he lost his money, totalling $1,170, at Austin and Main streets between 8:50 and 9:05 a.m. He said that it was in the back pocket of his coveralls and he didn't realize there was a hole in his pocket. He bicycled from that location to the North End and then back.

At noon, police responded to Carney Court to take a report on a past assault and battery. A Charlestown woman said that while her 10-year-old son was playing basketball, he was assaulted and bitten by a 6-year-old boy. The 10-year-old told the officer that he had whacked the younger boy in the face.

At 2 p.m., police went to Carney Court on the report of a woman who was threatened by a man with a boa constrictor. She stated that she and her daughter were assaulted by the man and a very large snake. The management of BHA was notified to further investigate this report of the snake.

At 3:30 p.m., police went to Monument Street to take a vandalism report at the Tenants Task Force office. A woman reported that vandalism had been done to the building's third floor where all the apartments are used for storage of screens and windows. One of the apartments had drug paraphernalia, porn magazines and other debris throughout.

A Charlestown man reported that his prescription pills had been stolen from his Bunker Hill Street apartment.

A Nahant woman stated that someone broke into her auto while it was parked at Bunker Hill and Vine streets between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. The auto was damaged and a Motorola flip phone, valued at $50, had been stolen.

At 6:40 p.m., officers responded to a call on an assault and battery. The officers spoke to a Charlestown resident who stated that while she was walking down Bunker Hill Street, she was assaulted by two Charlestown women who fled into the Bunker Hill Housing Development. She refused medical attention.

At 6:50 p.m., officers observed a Somerville man known to them to have an outstanding warrant out of the Somerville District Court for shoplifting. He was placed under arrest.

Join Strong At Health Center Celebration

Lester Strong, 7 NEWS anchor and Healthcast reporter, will be appearing as a special guest at the MGH* Charlestown HealthCare Center's Family Health Festival on Sunday, Sept. 13.

All are invited to join Strong at the beanie baby and doll clinic from 1 to 2 p.m. as he assists caregivers in providing "check-ups."

The clinic will be one of the many children's activities at the festival.

The Family Health Festival marks the kick-off of a week of activities designed to mark the 30th anniversary of the MGH*Charlestown HealthCare Center.

Bake Sale On Sept. 19

The Bunker Hill Museum Shoppe will be holding a Bake Sale between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 19.

A table will be set up in front of the museum at 43 Monument Square, which will be remembered by some as the old library. There will be lots of homemade baked goods, and proceeds will help buy a sign for the shoppe, which has some new items.

The committee is still seeking a few more volunteers for the museum exhibit area and for the shoppe. If you can spare an hour or two, please give Margie Keating a call at 242-9631.
