VOLUME 26 NUMBER 28 CHARLESTOWN, MASS. PRICE 10¢ THURSDAY, MARCH 8, 1984

Vote On Tuesday, March 13th Presidential Preference/Ward 2 Committee

Tuesday, March 13th marks the Presidential Primary Day in the Commonwealth. The 13th, which has been billed nationally as "Super Tuesday", with primaries being held in nine states, will afford registered Democrats and Republicans an opportunity to cast a ballot in their respective parties for their preferred candidate for President of the United States.

Locally, residents of Charlestown will elect a Democratic and Republican Ward Two Committee, which will serve for a term of four years.

Polls will be open at 7:00 a.m., an hour earlier than in recent elections, and they will close at 8:00 p.m.

Polling sites for Ward Two, Charlestown are:

Precinct 1: Boys and Girls Club, 15 Green Street

Precinct 2: Kent Community School, 50 Bunker Hill Street

Precinct 3: Boys and Girls Club, 15 Green Street

Precinct 4: Kent Community School, 50 Bunker Hill Street

Precinct 5: Oliver Holden School, 8 Pearl Street

Precinct 6: Edwards Middle School, 28 Walker Street

Precinct 7: Sullivan Square Fire Station, Main and Bunker Hill Streets

The ballot in Tuesday's Presidential Preference Primary will be as follows:

PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY DEMOCRAT

PRESIDENTIAL PREFERENCE

(Vote for one candidate, for "No preference", or use write-in slot to left in voting machine)

Jesse Jackson

Gary Hart

Reubin Askew

George McGovern

Walter F. Mondale

Ernest F. Hollings

Alan Cranston

John Glenn

(Candidates Askew, Hollings, and Cranston have withdrawn from the presidential contest, but their names will still appear on the ballot.)

STATE COMMITTEE MAN — Suffolk, Essex and Middlesex District
(vote for one man)

Jeffrey S. Blonder, 74 Springvale Avenue, Chelsea

John R. Cronin, Jr., 452 Vane Street, Revere

Francis D. Doris, 80 Randall Road, Revere (Present State Senator)

Street Construction To Start

The Boston Redevelopment Authority (B.R.A.) street contract W-2 will be commencing early next week. This contract, which was halted because of Proposition 2 1/2, includes Baldwin, Auburn, Armory, Oak Streets and Albion Place, between Main and Bunker Hill Streets.

The contract includes new lights, trees, drainage, streets and sidewalks. Residents are asked to cooperate with the contractor, John Mahoney Construction Company, to keep cars off the streets during construction hours.

Deadline Near To Register For Surplus Food Distribution

Action for Boston Community Development (ABCD) and its neighborhood network of Area Planning Action Councils (APACs) and Neighborhood Service Centers (NSCs), reminds Boston residents that they still have one week to pre-register for the Surplus Food Program, a federally-funded distribution of free dairy and food products in March. ABCD, through its neighborhood offices, will distribute the dairy and food products to eligible Boston residents only.

Through Thursday, March 15, Boston residents will be asked to pre-register in their local neighborhood. At the pre-registration, ABCD will issue an eligibility card to households that qualify by income. This card will allow people to pick up food commodities at the late-March distribution in their neighborhood, and will provide proof of eligibility for all distributions during the following year.

If you live in Charlestown, you can pre-register at the John F. Kennedy Family Service Center, 27 Winthrop Street, Charlestown (Phone 241-8866) weekdays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Real Estate

By ETHEL McGOFF
 ETHEL MAC REALTY, INC.

NO USE WAITING

Houses cost no more in real dollars today than they did thirty years ago. This may be hard to swallow - but it's true. Thirty years ago, you could have bought today's $90,000 house for only $30,000. However, the median income at that time was $5,000. Today, that same house tripled in value - but so has average median income. In dollars earned, the purchase of a home today is no more than it was 30 years ago. True, mortgage interest rates have tripled, but so have the interest rates on money that you invest.

If you are waiting to accumulate a larger down payment - this time next year, you may well be further behind than ever. If you are renting while waiting to buy, you will be missing out on the tax benefits and you'll probably be paying more rent as well.

If you can't afford your dream house today, your best bet is to buy whatever you can, as soon as you can, however you can. It's easier to MOVE UP to the dream house than start there.

Developer Disagrees With BRA On Property Designation

by Maria Girvin
Joseph DiGangi of Eurovest and his lawyer are examining the recent tentative designation of City Square property to developer Jim Adams of Charlestown by the Boston Redevelopment Authority (BRA) to see if their rights have been violated.

In a BRA board meeting last Thursday, DiGangi's lawyer, Chris Tsouros asked the board to reconsider the designation before they voted, saying that the board was not following its own guidelines set for the area in the early 1970s. Tsouros said BRA guidelines called for a maximum density of 38 housing units; the Tontine Crescent, Adam's project, will house 61 units.

Tsouros also argued that Adam's design did not address the future of Henley Street, which according to BRA guidelines should remain open. Although Adam's project allows for Henley Street to remain open, development around the street shrinks the street to one-lane traffic.

"You (the BRA board) don't conform to your own guidelines. If you vote for the Tontine Crescent, you're breaching these guidelines," said Tsouros. "This is not issue of design or finance. It's an issue of conscience. I ask you if you're going to throw away your conscience with one vote."

Tsouros also took issue with a poll cited by BRA Director Robert Ryan which showed a majority of members from the Charlestown Preservation Society, in which Adams is a member, voting in favor of the Tontine Crescent. However, Tsouros said that of the 150 members enrolled in the society, less than 50% of the membership voted.

"If you really want to know what the community of Charlestown thinks about these projects, let us canvas the community and see what everyone thinks," said Tsouros.

The Tontine Crescent focuses on a reproduction of a Charles Bullfinch building that will provide an archway over Henley Street. Made of brick, the proposal calls for nine rental units and 52 condominiums. In addition to the building, three-decker houses along Winthrop Street will be rehabilitated.

DiGangi's proposal calls for 38 condo units built into a design of brick row houses with bays and entrances off Main Street. Plans also include a granite fountain at Main and Henley Streets, similar to one formerly at City Square.

In other board action, tentative designation of the old Boston Filter building and surrounding BRA property was given to Paramount Development Associates, Inc.

Following a brief presentation, architect Sy Mintz told board members he had met community concerns over the location of the parking garage entrance and building height on Harvard Street. The garage entrance has been moved from Harvard Street to Main Street and building height on Harvard Street has been lowered from 54 to 44 feet, through the removal of one floor.

Concerns over density, as vocalized by several area residents in a recent community meeting, were not brought up.

Paramounts designs were praised by Harvard Street resident Michael Ramella who said he had attended all community meetings concerning the parcel.

"They've (Paramount) have been more than cooperative. They've done everything they can to address concerns. As a neighbor and abutter, I am very pleased."

Children's Films

The Winter Film Program for Children at the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main Street, will continue on Tuesday, March 13, 1984 at 10:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.

This week's films are especially for St. Patrick's Day and they are "Granny Lives in Galway," in which you will follow a pair of orphans on their suspense-filled flight from England to Ireland; and "This Is Ireland" a film about the Irish people and places. Also scheduled is "Make Way For Ducklings," in which a family of mallards creates a commotion as they search for a permanent home in Boston.

Suggested readings in conjunction with these films are: Ireland: Land of Mist and Magic by Kathleen Meyer; This is Ireland by Miroslav Sasek; and Make Way For Ducklings by Robert McCloskey.

To Perform Gaelic Songs At Library

For an evening of musical entertainment, stop by the Charlestown Library tonight, March 8, at 7:00 p.m. to hear Talitha Nelson sing a medley of Irish ballads. Ms. Nelson has appeared at Passim's, Paine Hall and Sanders Theatre, where she sings in English and Gaelic.

Next Thursday evening, March 15, at 7:00 p.m. the film "Odd Man Out" will be shown. Starring James Mason as a wounded Irish revolutionary leader, this is a "classic" suspense film.

On March 22, the Charlestown Library Book Discussion Group will meet to discuss an Irish book and on March 29 the Friends of the Library will sponsor speaker Anne Cavanaugh.

For more information on any Charlestown Library program, call 242-1248 or stop by the library at 179 Main Street.

Parking Ticket Amnesty

The City Council has passed a law that provides for an amnesty period for outstanding parking tickets.

The ordinance sponsored by City Council President Joseph M. Tierney permits the city to forgive fines and penalties between March 15 and April 15 once the face value of the ticket is paid.

Presently the City of Boston is owed more than $67,000,000 in unpaid parking fines. The city annually collects more than $21,000,000 in fines.

"Based on the tremendous success of the state program, the city can collect between $10,000,000 and $20,000,000 in a month's time," Tierney said.

Provisions have been made to keep collection offices open between 8:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. weekdays and 8:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon on Saturdays.

"The millions of dollars the city will receive can be used to offset an estimated $40,000,000 deficit and keep taxes down," Tierney concluded.

City Gardens:

Houseplant Helps

by Barbara Maheigan

Plants grace most apartments and homes, bringing a little bit of nature indoors. During the cold months, these plants provide hope of spring when the weather is damp and grey. But for the past few years, several of my houseplants succumb just as the weather becomes warmer. If you have experienced this same problem, perhaps a few timely reminders will help your plants through a healthy spring.

In February and March, as the temperatures swing from cold to warm to cold, houseplants suffer added strain. Rapid changes in temperature can permanently damage plants. A fast rise or drop of more than 15 degrees F can kill sensitive plants and cause defoliation in others. Protect your plants from drafts.

The sudden changes also affect watering needs. The temperature in your home may not vary, but on a sunny, warm day houseplants on a windowsill can dry out quickly. You may discover a wilted plant, or worse, one with dried leaves. The changing weather requires a more flexible schedule for watering houseplants.

Actively growing plants must have plant nutrients to develop properly. Some houseplants become semi-dormant during winter months in response to the colder temperatures and low light. The plants still require fertilizer to stay healthy. Continue a regular schedule of feeding, but use a weaker solution, and increase the strength as the plant resumes a period of more active growth.

Caring for houseplants, like very other kind of gardening is most successful when you learn about their needs before you have a problem.

Kent School Children Receive Visitors From The Past

A TRIP INTO THE PAST was provided the children of the Kent Community School recently when Newworld Bank funded a visit by members from the Plymouth Plantation, a living replica of life during colonial times. Above, one of the plantation members tells a story to kindergarten children, complete with English accent and colonial garb. Above right: the Kent children are taught colonial manners as this colonist greets the children. Below right: a lesson in colonial dress is taught these children as one of the visitors dressed two volunteers in colonial clothing.

FAMILY COUNSELLING: Marital, child care, drug or alcohol problems are treated with strict confidentiality by licensed social workers at the Kennedy Center. No problem is too big or too small. Call 241-8866 and ask for Marge.

COLLEGE CLUB: Information about colleges, college boards, tuition, and financial aid is available through the College Club run in conjunction with the Boys and Girls Club. This program gives you a headstart with your academic career. Call 241-8866 and ask for Jack.

FOOD PANTRY: The Kennedy Center's Food Pantry, located at the Community Center at 14 Green Street, Charlestown provides food commodities to needy Charlestown residents. The Food Pantry is desperately low on cans goods. Please, any extra cans of food cluttering up your closet could be used by a hungry family. Contact Donna Lane at the Community Center, 241-8339.

AFTER SCHOOL DAY CARE: There are openings available in our school age day care program. After School Day Care provides structured social/educational activities to children after school and full time during school vacations and summers.

ADOLESCENT DRUG EDUCATION PROGRAM: The Charlestown Adolescent Drug Education Program has begun at the Kennedy Center on Tuesday evenings from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. Counselors are being trained to run this on-going ten week program to supply information to adolescents from the ages of 12 to 21 with alcohol or drug problems. Confidentiality is the cornerstone of this program and any adolescent who might be interested in drug education is invited.

SUMMER JOBS: The Kennedy Center is looking for college students seeking summer employment. The opportunities are limited and we must know of your interest now.

Charlestown youth between the ages of 14 to 21 applying for the ABCD-JFK Summer Youth Employment Program must have a social security identification to be eligible. For further information call Dan or Kevin at 241-8866.

Application for the ABCD Summer Job Program for disadvantaged Charlestown adolescents 14 to 21 will be available on Monday, March 12, 1984 at the Kennedy Center's Neighborhood Employment Center, 27 Winthrop Street. Ask for Dan or Kevin.

State Treasurer Seeks To Return Unclaimed Funds

State Treasurer Robert Q. Crane released the names of 35,000 persons who are due more than $18 million in funds they apparently knew nothing about.

A Brookline woman is due more than $77,000 representing the largest single unclaimed account on the Treasurer's books.

Since 1980 the Treasurer's Office has collected more than $90 million in unclaimed accounts and has returned nearly one half that amount to the rightful owners or legal heirs.

Under the state's Unclaimed Money Law, legally designated M.G.L. Ch. 200A, bank accounts, insurance proceeds, uncashed gift certificates, payroll checks, customer overpayments and the like that have gone untouched for at least five years are deemed to be abandoned and must be reported to the Treasurer.

"Success breeds success and this program has been among the most successful in the nation," Crane said. "Also, we are proud it has served as a model for similar programs in other states."

Crane said compliance with the law is improving. Nevertheless the Treasurer said he is disturbed at the apparent lack of effort on the part of banks and other institutions in searching for the missing owners. "How can anyone fail to locate AT&T, Exxon, The New England Patriots or the Holiday Inn?" The Treasurer asked.

Crane noted one important aspect of the Unclaimed Money Law requires that until claimed, all funds are kept in the state's General Fund where they are invested for the benefit of all residents and taxpayers here in Massachusetts.

dustrial and R&D properties throughout Massachusetts.

A graduate of Boston College, Lynch also holds a Master of Business Administration degree from Babson College.

Lynch presently serves as director of the Commercial/Industrial/Investment (CII) Council of the Greater Boston Real Estate Board and is an affiliate member of the Society of Industrial Realtors. He is also vice president of the Executive Board of the South Boston Boys and Girls Club.

Computer Program At The Library

Parents concerned about their child's or their own "computer literacy" should visit the Charlestown Library on March 9, at 10:00 a.m. when Anne Grady speaks to the Parents' Discussion Group on "Computers and Education." Ms. Grady, the Computer Education Support Specialist for the Boston Public Schools, was a math teacher at Copley Square High school for 16 years before moving to her new position at Madison Park High School. She will explain LOGO and its application to the Boston School programs, and will discuss plans for future computer projects in the schools.

The speaker highly recommends one book on computers and education Mindstorms: Children, Computers and Powerful Ideas by Seymour Papert. The book is available upon request from the Copley Square Library.

Future programs of the Parents' Discussion Group include "Garden Design" on March 16, "Exercise!" on March 23 and "Does My Child Need Counseling?" on March 30 and April 6.

For more information, stop by the library at 179 Main Street or call 242-1248.

Fitzpatrick Memorial Dance

The John David Fitzpatrick Scholarship Fund Committee will conduct a Memorial Dance in his honor at the Christopher Columbus Gym in the North End of Boston on Friday evening, March 9. The current sounds of Paul Duffy D.J. will begin at 8:00 p.m. and proceed through 12:00 Midnight. Tickets for this event are $4.00 if purchased from a Columbus student before the event or tickets can be purchased at the door for $5.00.

All friends of John, a Columbus student who lost his life in Charlestown in 1980, are cordially invited. We encourage all Alumni/ae of Columbus to contribute to this worthy cause by attending the dance. Ticket donations are being contributed to a Scholarship in John Fitzpatrick's name. This scholarship is awarded to a student graduate of Christopher Columbus High School for academic and general excellence.

Those Charlestown residents who have been awarded the Scholarship are: 1980 - Dan Coleman; 1981 - Ed Loan; 1982 - Mike Doherty; and 1983 - Kerri Farley.

For further information on the Scholarship Dance, please call the Development Office Director, David McKay at 742-2626 or Charlestown's Ed Loan at 242-5128.

Head Start Recruitment

Unlock a new world of learning, friends, and adventure for your preschooler: Enroll your child in the Head Start program run by Action for Boston Community Development (ABCD), the Head Start agency for the City of Boston. Head Start is a federally funded child development program which provides 3 to 5 year olds and their parents with extensive educational opportunities.

Head Start classes are staffed by trained teachers and their assistants. Special needs children are mainstreamed into the program and receive special attention. A child gets an extra boost from Head Start that helps them when they start school.

Also, children profit from the nutritious lunches and comprehensive medical and dental screening provided by the program. For additional information on Head Start Registration in Charlestown, contact the Kennedy Center at 27 Winthrop Street, telephone 241-8866.

Construction Scholarship Being Offered

In an effort to further the goals of students in collegiate construction programs, the Massachusetts Construction Advancement Program (MCAP) is offering $12,500 in scholarship aid to sophomores and juniors enrolled in full time civil engineering, construction, or construction management programs. The scholarships can be used by students to help defray tuition and/or living costs for the 1984-85 academic year.

Applications have been distributed to civil engineering departments of Massachusetts colleges and universities offering construction oriented degrees. Additional application forms are available from the MCAP

Office, 888 Worcester Street, Wellesley, Massachusetts 02181. Completed applications must be returned to MCAP by April 2, 1984. Award recipients will be selected by contractor representatives of the Associated General Contractors of Massachusetts Education Committee and will be announced by the end of May.

Congratulations John and Alice!

Kent/Charlestown Community School

254 Medford St. 50 Bunker Hill St.
242-2770                      242-3148

The Community School Council will sponsor "Healthworks '84" at the Kent Community School on Wednesday, April 4th, from 2:00 to 5:00 and 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. This is the fourth year for Healthworks in Boston. Healthworks stresses the importance of preventive health care.

Health screening including blood pressure, height and weight, vision and hearing and breast self-examination will be available free of charge to Charlestown residents 18 years of age and older. Blood chemistry tests that screen for diabetes, cholesterol, kidney and liver disease will be available at a cost of $8.00. These tests could ordinarily cost as much as $100.00.

The Council needs some medically trained volunteers to help with the program. Registered nurses, LPN's, nurses aides and nursing students are being sought to assist with screenings and information and referral during this five hour program. You need not volunteer the entire five hours. Volunteers can call 242-2770 weekdays between 9:30 and 8:00 p.m. for further information. Please give us a hand.

****

The Community School Program is currently registering students for Computer Literacy, Sewing and Aerobics Classes.

A ten week computer literacy course costs $40.00 and meets Monday and Wednesday evenings.

Sewing Classes, oriented to fundamentals, cost $40.00 for ten weeks and meets Wednesday nights.

Aerobics meets Monday and Thursday nights at the Kent from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. Its fee is $25.00 for ten weeks.

Further information is available through the Community School Office, 242-2770. Registration for GED and Adult Diploma Programs is on-going. Again, call 242-2770 for information.

The 1984 Channel 2 Auction has issued an appeal for volunteers from Charlestown area to serve as Go-Getters for the forthcoming June event.

Auction Manager Edythe C. Baker said "we know we have many Channel 2 (WGBH-TV) viewers in the Charlestown area who would also like to support the Auction by becoming donors. We need volunteers who can serve as our liaisons by calling on these potential donors as well as follow up on previous donors."

Assistance Offered On Overvaluation

Many elderly Boston homeowners recently received Notices of Inaction on abatement applications from the Assessing Department. These notices are in response to requests for lower property assessments. Homeowners receiving a Notice of Inaction should immediately contact the Assessing Department at 725-4287 and ask to be put on the Inaction Notice List. In four to five weeks, an appointment will be scheduled.

There is a 90 day limit from the date of Inaction Notice for a homeowner to file an appeal if the assessors fail to make a decision, or if the adjustment request is denied. Appeals are made to the State Appellate Tax Board.

In addition to calling the Assessing Department, contact Paul Brown of the Elderly Commission, at 725-3995.

Wednesday Evening Services

In order to better serve the Charlestown community on Wednesday evenings, the Bunker Hill Health Center Administration would like to announce the following changes in service effective April 4, 1984.

PEDIATRICS — Pediatrics will be open to see walk-in patients between 5:30 and 6:30 p.m.; scheduled appointments will be available until 7:00 p.m.

ADULT MEDICINE — Adult Medicine will provide service between 5:30 and 9:00 p.m. for scheduled appointments only; there will be no walk-in period on Wednesday evenings. Patients with acute problems may call on Wednesday evenings and may be seen if time is available due to cancellations.

DENTAL — Dental services will be available on Wednesday evenings until 9:00 p.m., rather than on Tuesday evenings.

PODIATRY — Podiatry services will also be available from 4:00 to 7:00 p.m.

Other evening services — Dermatology, ENT, Nutrition and Community Mental Health will continue to be provided.

According to Mrs. Baker, all Auction volunteers receive orientation training, supportive materials, staff assistance and follow through. In addition, Auction Go-Getters have priority selection for Auction Week assignments.

This year's Auction will be held June 1-9 and has as its theme "The Million Dollar Marketplace." The 1984 goal is one million dollars plus.

Anyone interested in becoming a Channel 2 Auction volunteer may contact the Auction Manager, Channel 2 Auction, 125 Western Avenue, Boston, MA 02134, telephone 492-2777.

CHARLESTOWN ECUMENICAL LENTEN SERVICES ... 1984

The Churches of Charlestown welcome everyone to their Ecumenical Lenten Services. Each Sunday evening there will be a social with refreshments at 6:00 p.m. followed by the Service at 6:30 p.m. The general theme is "The Many Faces of Forgiveness".

Date	Theme	Place	Speaker
March 11	"Forgiveness: A Call Beyond Ourselves"	First Church Green Street	Rev. Robert Boyle, St. Mary's
March 18	"Forgiveness: Can I Accept It?"	St. Catherine's Hayes Square	Rev. Sandra Boyd, St. John's Episcopal
March 25	"The Stages of Forgiveness"	St. John's Devens Street	Rev. William Ibach, Jesuit Centre
April 1	"Do I Need a Savior?"	St. Mary's Warren Street	Rev. Isaiah Sears, First Baptist
April 8	"Life Without Forgiveness"	First Baptist, Monument Square	Rev. Msgr. James Keating, St. Francis de Sales
April 15	"Going Home With the Heavenly Father"	St. Francis Bunker Hill Street	Rev. Alvin Strong, First Church

We look forward to Holy Week. On Wednesday, April 18, 1984 St. Mary's Parish presents "Triumph and Tragedy", the dramatic re-enactment of the suffering and death of Jesus at 7:30 p.m. in the church. This is becoming a central event on the calendars of many Christians. We anticipate it's being once again an ecumenical gathering, with all of us from the six churches of Charlestown sharing together this core event of our faith.

Acid Test For Hart Phenomenon

by J.J. Smith

The Walter W. Mondale-Gary W. Hart confrontation in Massachusetts on "super Tuesday," March 13, shapes up as a classic "future vs. the past" face-off — the insider against the outsider, organization against momentum.

Bay State political experts concede now what was unthinkable short days ago: that Senator Hart has a chance against Fritz Mondale when the 10-state mini-national primary takes place on "super Tuesday." There are clear-cut differences between Hart and Mondale, although they are just eight years apart in chronological age at 56 and 48.

Hart enters this vital battle with little in the way of support or organization in Massachusetts. But, sparked by his amazing New Hampshire and Iowa break-throughs the Colorado senator has that priceless commodity in sports and politics, momentum, going for him. Whether momentum can overcome Mondale strengths — money, organization, big labor support and the rest — remains to be seen in this acid test here of the Hart candidacy.

Unlike Mondale, it is tough if not impossible to slap a precise label on Gary Hart. Even his critics, however, concede that Hart does offer fresh ideas — ideas that run against the tradition dogma of down-the-line Democratic liberals.

The dynamics here are different from Iowa and New Hampshire — Massachusetts is "big time" in comparison.

JFK-like corpuscles still stream through the veins of many Bay State Democrats, and Hart has a strong identification with the slain president while Mondale is remembered by many as opposed to Kennedy. JFK inspired Hart to enter politics, he served in the Kennedy interior department and even worked for Robert Kennedy. In contrast, the former vice president opposed three Kennedys for president — with Hubert Humphrey against JFK in 1960, against Bobby Kennedy in 1968, and lastly, favored Jimmy Carter over Ted Kennedy in 1980.

Nobody saw the dimensions of the Hart victory in New Hampshire coming, and his Iowa second-place finish also stunned many national pundits and political experts.

Despite the above, Massachusetts represents a tremendous challenge to Hart. This is true even though there are whispers here, as there were in New Hampshire, that Mondale's support base is soft. Nonetheless, Mondale does have the massive organizational odds going for him and big guns as represented by Governor Michael Dukakis, Speaker Tip O'Neill, six congressmen, Boston Mayor Ray Flynn and labor.

If Mondale stumbles in Massachusetts, some big time politicians and labor chieftains will have egg on their collective faces. State AFL-CIO chief Arthur Osborne, in particular, has a lot at stake. Big labor has put itself on the line for Mondale nationwide. It failed to deliver in New Hampshire, and Osborne, as a leading figure in the Mondale campaign here, is counted upon to whip the union troops into line.

Hart's New Hampshire win did a lot for Massachusetts. It eliminated the chance that this state would lose its prominence as "super Tuesday" approaches — now the focus of attention will be here as Hart and Mondale slug it out for about 100 of this state's 116 convention delegates.

Senator John Glenn's poor showing in Iowa and New Hampshire helped shape the dimensions of the Hart-Mondale slugfest here. Whether the Ohio senator will even make an extra effort here remains doubtful, although he has a strong natural base among conservative and moderate Democrats.

New Hampshire was the first significant "sorting out" point in the nomination drive. A victory here by Hart, even a close second, will represent another giant step in the "sorting out" process.

Will a candidate who looks and speaks like John Kennedy, Hart, be preferred over one perceived as associated with special interests, Mondale? That's the big question due for an answer March 13.

Public Invited To Citywide Job Hearing

The Boston Private Industry Council, the Neighborhood Development and Employment Agency and the Massachusetts Division of Employment Security will hold a Citywide Hearing on Boston's job training programs March 9, 1984 from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. in The Forum Room, Fifth Floor, State Street Bank and Trust Company, 222 Franklin Street, Boston. The public is cordially invited to attend.

The Hearing will provide an opportunity for residents, employers, and community agencies to comment on the City's proposed employment and training programs, funded through the new Job Training Partnership Act (JT-PA) for the year beginning July 1, 1984. In addition, they may comment on the Division of Employment Security Boston Regional Plan for next year.

Copies of the Draft Plan are available at the Neighborhood Development and Employment Agency, 15 Beacon Street and the Boston Private Industry Council, 110 Tremont Street, Boston. Those who wish to comment on March 9 must reserve time in advance by calling Laura Sullivan at the PIC, 423-3755.

On Honor Roll

Dr. Edward T. Kirkpatrick, president of Wentworth Institute, announced that John Allan of 20 Chestnut Street, majoring in Computer Science and Grace Monaco of 50 Tremont Street, majoring in Mechanical Drafting Technology, were named to the President's Honor Roll for outstanding scholastic achievement during the first semester of the 1983-84 academic year.

Extended Voting Hours For Massachusetts Primaries

Michael A. Joyce, Chairman of the City of Boston Election Commission announced extended voting hours for the March 13th Massachusetts Presidential Primaries. Under Chapter 503, Section 43 of the Acts of 1983, polling places in Boston and in the other cities and towns across the Commonwealth will be open from 7:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. This represents an additional hour of voting in the morning.

Again this year, as was the case in the 1983 City Election, polling place wardens will be asking for identification from voters on a random basis. In an effort to offset any attempt of voter fraud, the wardens will be seeking some form of identification such as a valid Massachusetts driver's license a Department of Public Welfare card, or a recent utility bill.

As an additional matter, those registered voters who have asked for absentee ballots, intending to be out of town on March 13, have the option of appearing in person at the City of Boston Election Department prior to Primary Day in order to case their ballots in person. Those voters who have made application for an absentee ballot may call for an appointment or come into the City of Boston Election Department, located in Room 224 City Hall prior to 12:00 noon on March 12th and cast their votes. Hours of operation will be on Thursday and Friday, from 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. and on Saturday and Sunday from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Anyone with a question or other request for information should contact the City of Boston Election Department at 725-4635 or 725-4636.

Free Tax Assistance

Free tax assistance is available through VITA, the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance program, sponsored by Bunker Hill Community College in Charlestown, according to John Johnson, District Director of IRS in Massachusetts.

The program will run through April 17, 1984, this year's filing deadline, and is scheduled by appointment only by calling 241-8600.

VITA is designed to help low-income, elderly, non-English speaking and handicapped taxpayers prepare simple tax returns. Trained volunteers teach participants how to fill out their own income tax return.

Interested individuals should bring this year's tax package that they received in the mail, wage and earnings statements (Form W-2) from employers, interest statements from banks (Form 1099), a copy of last year's tax return, if available, and any other relevant information concerning income and expenses.

Community School Council Election

The Kent/Charlestown Community School Council will hold a special election on Tuesday, March 27th from 3:00 to 8:00 p.m. to fill eleven vacant council seats. The election will be held at the Kent Community School, 50 Bunker Hill Street.

Any Charlestown resident, 18 years of age or older, may run for a Council seat. Nomination papers are available today at the Community School Office in the Athletic Building at Charlestown High Community School. They must be returned by Monday, March 19th, at 5:00 p.m.

The Kent/Charlestown Council is a neighborhood-elected board that governs Charlestown's Community School Program. Frank Perrault, 5A West School Street, is the current Council Chairperson. A full Council consists of twenty-four seats, ten of which are elected "at-large" and fourteen from Charlestown's seven politically defined neighborhood precincts. Three at-large seats are currently open along with individual seats in Precincts 1, 2, 4, and 6 and two seats in Precincts 3 and 7.

Individuals deciding to run for the Council must pick up nomination papers in person. Twenty-five signatures of neighborhood residents are required. Those running at-large may gather their signatures throughout Charlestown. Those running from a Precinct must gather signatures from within their precinct.

The Kent/Charlestown Council meets regularly each month on the second Monday at 6:30 p.m. Council members must also participate on a Council committee. Committees generally meet once a month or as needed.

Nucci Gathers Support On Long Range School Plan

Superintendent of Schools Robert Spillane has submitted for approval, a recommended Long Range Plan to the Boston School Committee which would address major areas of curriculum and assignments in the School Department's future. Upon receiving the recommendation from the Superintendent, District One School Committee member John A. Nucci, has undertaken an effort to "solicit the maximum feasible input from those affected by this important blueprint for our schools." Nucci noted that this would include "not only those directly affected such as staff, parents, and teachers, but also the residents, opinion leaders, and taxpayers of this community who are asked to pay for the system with their tax dollars."

Nucci commented that his initial reaction to Spillane's re-districting effort which would "enhance the predictability and stability of student assignments" was favorable, and that his major concern at the present time is that "we follow, meticulously, a process which will, beyond question at a later date, be accessible and open to all concerned."

Nucci has forwarded information on the Superintendent's plan to over 50 agencies and individuals whom "might not have been involved in the normal School Department participation plans for public input." Nucci commented that "I hope that those individuals and agencies whose opinions have been solicited will take a moment to review this important document, and I welcome requests to my office from any concerned individual regarding the contents of the plan."

The plan, which has been referred to the Committee on Rules and Regulations, on which Nucci serves as chairman, will undergo a series of public hearings in the coming weeks.

Play To Open At Charlestown Working Theater

"The Plough and the Stars," by Sean O'Casey opens March 30 at the Charlestown Working Theater. The show is directed by Jim Sweeney of Emerson College and produced by Mary Curtin Stevenson of the Charlestown Working Theater.

It will run Friday, Saturday, and Sunday for three weeks, March 30, 31, April 1, 6, 7, 8, 13, 14 and 15. The CWT is located at 442 Bunker Hill Street, Charlestown, a renovated fire barn near Sullivan Square. The building is accessible to the handicapped.

Tickets are $5 and are available at the door. Reservations are advisable. For reservations call 242-3534.

The play is set in Dublin during the Easter Rebellion of 1916. It is the story of little people caught up in a big cause; with laughter, tears, love and rage.

The play includes Emerson College actors and features Steve Sweeney a comedian and actor well-known to Boston audiences. Jim and Steve Sweeney are brothers who grew up in Charlestown and feel a special pride in returning there with O'Casey's powerful tragedy.

Facts About Drugs - F.A.D.

What's the difference between a heavy drinker and an alcoholic? That is a question that some say "no difference" or others say "big difference." We do know that alcoholism is a disease and that it is characterized by symptoms just like any other disease.

It is a primary disease and is not a secondary symptom of something else. This means that an alcoholic must first deal with his alcoholism and stop drinking one day at a time, before any other disease, whether mental or emotional - can be diagnosed.

Alcoholism is progressive. The victim becomes worse with time, becoming more physically, spiritually, emotionally, and psychologically ill. There is no cure. Recovery must be based on abstinence from any mood altering chemicals. The disease can only be arrested, and if it is not arrested, the person will die from it.

What are the signs of alcoholism that we can recognize? Denial in the face of all the evidence of crises in the person's life is the most common and the most serious symptom. Making excuses for drunken behavior ("I had an empty stomach" "If you hadn't yelled at me, I would not have gotten drunk," etc. "Mood swings" or personality changes" are evident when a person drinks. The kind person becomes angry; the happy person becomes sad; the gentle person becomes violent. Blackouts are more frequent. Negative feelings about yourself grow, and there is a preoccupation and rigidity surrounding alcohol. Tolerance is a factor: the person needs more of the drug to feel good. The alcoholic drinking becomes more and more out of control. When he/she begins to drink, he/she drinks more than he/she had planned. In the last stages of the disease, there is a powerlessness over use, physical addiction occurs, and feelings of insanity and thoughts of suicide are common.

Next week, I will write about alcoholism and recovery - so there is hope! Any questions? Call Mimi White at the Boys and Girls Club at 242-1775, extension 112.

Thinking Out Loud . . .

by Sal Giarratani
HEARING ROOM 903

For nearly sixteen months, I was a member of Special Grand Jury Number 7 and I found it to be a great learning experience providing me with new insight on the grand jury process in the criminal justice system.

When I received my letter to appear at Suffolk Superior Court back in November of 1982, I had no idea I would serve until February 1984. I also had no idea that the Attorney General's office had a Medicaid Fraud Unit.

On a weekly basis we heard witness after witness testify to the facts in a series of Medicaid fraud investigations. We no-billed many of them and handed down a number of indictments against certain individuals and corporations.

After only watching Perry Mason, I never really understood the grand jury process, it took a real life situation to bring it home to me. Grand juries neither establish guilt or innocence. Their only role - and it is vital to the criminal justice system, is to ascertain whether the testimony and evidence presented by a variety of witnesses is enough for the assistant attorney general or district attorney to bring the investigation to a trial before a judge and jury for disposition.

The only thing a grand jury does, and its number one priority, is to weed out criminal cases so as not to waste the judicial system's time.

Grand juries are a safeguard to the rights of individuals under suspicion and the rights of the people represented by the state. Most of the cases I heard were Medicaid false claims allegations. One case took nearly a whole year and 114 witnesses before we, the grand jurors handed down numerous indictments. Now, a criminal trial will be held and it will be the burden of the state to prove that criminal acts were committed. Now a trial jury will determine the innocence or guilt of the party or parties involved.

It is a long and arduous road, the criminal justice system, and in the end, hopefully, right is vindicated and wrong punished. And I hope that is what I and my fellow grand jurors can take comfort in for our sixteen months of civic duty which at times was a great inconvenience to us and our employers.

Making A Best Friend

PATIENTLY, doll-makers wrap yarn around a book, "not too tightly and not too loosely" according to the children's librarian. The yard, books, scissors, and other materials were provided by the library.

THE ART OF DOLL MAKING was the recent topic focused on at the Charlestown Branch Library during school vacation week. Made from old nylons, yarn and clothes pins, children were able to make their own dolls. Above: some of the young artists show their dolls in an initial stage of creation, whereby yard is wrapped around a book.

November 18, 1960 - February 9, 1984

Jimmy, you have only been gone a short time, but it seems an eternity. Ours is not to question God why but we do.

We know you are in a better place with God, your relatives, grandfather, and friends and peace and joy and harmony, while others are living hell on earth. He takes the good and leaves a lot of bad.

Jimmy, please ask God to bestow a special blessing of strength and love for your father, mother, sister and brothers. They sure are suffering the worst pain of their lives. Also for your relatives and friends.

Jimmy, until we all meet and enjoy love and peace, we love you with all our heart, body and soul. Rest in peace.

Views On Dental Health

by Jeffrey D. Cohen, D.M.D.

WHY DO DENTISTS USE SILVER FOR FILLINGS?

The "silver" filling is not all silver, but rather a carefully researched and controlled mix of several different metals. Each component of the mixture is specifically selected for its strength, longevity and compatibility to the human body.

Over the years, many materials have been studied as possible replacements for the "silver" filling. To date, only limited success has been achieved, primarily due to the failure of these substitutes to withstand the tremendous forces generated while chewing. Tooth-colored fillings, used for many years in the front teeth, can sometimes be used instead of "silver" in areas which are not directly subjected to the biting forces. However, for overall strength and durability, the "silver" filling is still the best material available.

Billy Smith To Box Main Event In Waltham

DISCUSSING PLANS FOR THEIR UPCOMING BOXING MATCHES, Charlestown's "Mysterious" Billy Smith (l.) and South Boston's Sean Mannion (middle) talk with Waltham Mayor Arthur J.

Clark at City Hall. The boxing evening is scheduled for March 16 at the IBEW Hall in Waltham.

by Maria Girvin
Charlestown boxer "Mysterious" Billy Smith will enter the ring as the main event on March 16 at the I.B.E.W. Hall in Waltham.

Sporting a 13 win, 2 loss record, Smith, who is the New England contender for the Junior Welterweight title, will box Jack Morell of Lowell in a scheduled eight-rounder.

Smith is the favored against 25 year old Morell who holds a 16 win, 10 loss record. Morell's last fight was two months ago at Freeport Hall in Dorchester where he took Ray Fallon down in the fourth round.

This will be Smith's first home fight in several months, his last match being held in Los Angeles, California as part of the Schlitz Championship. At that time, Smith's bout against Hector Hernandez was stopped in the ninth round because of an injury over Smith's eye.

"It wasn't that bad. I didn't want to stop. I was ahead on the (score) cards, but they had never heard of me before and they wanted the hometown kid to win. We protested the fight but it didn't do us any good," said Smith.

Also coming out of South Boston's Connolly Gym, along with Smith is WBA number 2 ranked Sean Mannion of Galway, Ireland. The Junior Middleweight Mannion will give an exhibition bout against Greg Josephs of Manchester, New Hampshire.

Both Smith and Mannion have been seen on ESPN and are on their way up the ladder of professional boxing as evidenced by the show featuring the boxers as the main attraction. Promoter for the show is Tom Troy.

Also scheduled for the evening of boxing is a six-round heavyweight bout between Stan Butler of South Boston and Curtiss Whittner of Lynn; a six-rounder between lightweights Johnnie Rafuse of Malden and Hector Martinez of West Hartford, Conn; and four, four-round Star Bouts featuring Jack DeBenedetto of Cambridge, Frank McDonald of South Boston, Peter Galvin of Gloucester and Armando Pinet of Chelsea.

Tickets are available from the Shear Delight Beauty Salon, 285 Main Street; Celtic Tavern, Sullivan Square; and McCarthy's Liquors, Hayes Square.

The IBEW Hall is located at 545 Main Street in Waltham. The first bout will begin at 8 p.m. General admission is $10.00.

Girls Basketball Team Defeats Southie

The Charlestown Girls Club Basketball Team rolled their way to a 58 to 13 victory over the South Boston team on Tuesday, February 28. It was the highest scoring game of the season and improved the girls record to 3-2. The girls play back to back games against Woburn on Tuesday, March 6 at home and Tuesday, March 13 away.

For the Charlestown team, Jacquelyn Murray scored a team and season high of 24 points, scoring on numerous lay-ups and rebounds. Following Murray in the scoring department were: Mary Ellen Evers (18 points) and Kathleen Evers (16 points). Kerrie Fitzpatrick added four points to the team total.

An outstanding performance was put on by Tina Fabiano who ended the game with 10 assists and eight steals. The entire team played an aggressive defense against an improved, but stunned South squad. A lot of credit is due the girls team because they rarely get a chance to practice but always come through with outstanding games. Other players for Charlestown who played well in the Southie game were: Nancy Kelly, Patty Kelly and Colleen Hogan.

The Boys and Girls Club staff are very proud of the skill and hustle displayed by the girls' team.

Charlestown Hockey: A Tribute To The Town And Their Coach

by Bob DeCristoforo
It is quite a feeling to know that you can go to an event and feel even prouder about a town and a team that you are already proud of.

This is what happened to me on Saturday as I watched the Charlestown Hockey Townies in the quarterfinals of the first Division III Eastern Mass. Tournament played at B.U.

Defeating Bourne in the first round of the Tournament was considered by many a major upset, but to those who know Charlestown Hockey and their Coach Jack Morris, it was no surprise.

So now it was on to Boston University and a game against Holliston. The Charlestown 13 didn't win, but they sure gave us something special. Eric Johnson was magnificent in the net, stopping countless Holliston shots, and the "Townies" managed a 3-2 lead late in the third period.

We weren't surprised, but Holliston was in shock. They figured this was to be an easy game, an easy win. It was certainly a gutsy bunch of kids, who left B.U. Saturday afternoon, disappointed of course, but hopefully they will realize the CHARLESTOWN PRIDE they have.

I observe a lot, and equal

Relief From Back Pain

The exercise class will be held on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 11:30 to 12:15 p.m. The program will extend from March 20 until April 16, a total of ten classes. (No classes will be held during school vacation week in April.) The fee for the ten class program will cost $20.00.

At least some studies of back pain show that 80% of the problems are caused by muscular deficiencies, and less than 20% from pathological disorders. The exercise offered by Fitness A.M. will strengthen muscles to relieve pressure and lessen back pain. An experienced instructor will lead this program. Registration is being accepted at the Boys and Girls Club. For more information please call 242-1775.

Columbus Friars Advance, Tewksbury Tumbles 7-5

by Bob DeCristoforo, Athletic Director

We hope by the time you are reading this, the Columbus Hockey Friars will have beaten North Andover to advance into Saturday's Semi-Final game at Merrimack. This game was played yesterday, but how we got there is another story.

On Friday, the Hockey Friars defeated Tewksbury 7-5 in the first round of the Eastern Mass. Tournament at Salem State College.

The rink might be different, the crowds a little larger, and definitely the Friars' hair a little shorter, but one thing for certain, Columbus Hockey is the same, and once again we found ourselves on the good end of a real exciting hockey game.

Tribute To Town And Coach

to the pride on the ice and on the bench, was the pride in the stands. A lot of "Townies" were in the stands, as they always are in support of their kids. They have watched them grow up, and they have watched them from the beginning. They were here this day, and they will be there in future days doing what they do best: CARING!

Coach Jack Morris, is a story himself. He has been behind the Charlestown Hockey bench for years, better we might say BESIDE the Charlestown kids for years, and his work and his pride certainly doesn't go unnoticed. He teaches the kids more than hockey. He teaches them respect. He has that CARING quality.

All of the above came together on this day, when the kids from Holliston found out what it was like to come to Boston and play the Hockey "Townies" of Charlestown High and their Town.

Little League News

Charlestown Little League registration will take place on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, March 13, 14 and 15, between the hours of 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. at the Charlestown High School Gym, 240 Medford Street and at the Boys and Girls Club, 15 Green Street. Registration fee is $15.00 per family.

Five booster stickers will be given to you at that time. These are yours at $1.00 each to do with as you wish. No remittance to Little League is necessary.

Even if you played last year, you must register again. To qualify you must be 8 years old before August 1 and not 13 years old before August 1st. Boys and girls are eligible. All must bring a birth certificate.

This year we are accepting 8 year olds with the understanding that they play only in the Minor League. Maybe we will be able to get them in shape for next year when they reach nine years of age. They do not have to tryout. They will be assigned to Minor League teams after the draft.

Tryouts: Saturday and Sunday, March 31st and April 1st, 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at Ryan Playground, Sullivan Square. Should we be rained out one or both days, we will try again on Saturday and Sunday, April 7th and 8th. The draft will take place on the Monday evening after the tryouts at Memorial Hall, 14 Green Street at 8:00 p.m.

Next Little League Meeting: will be held on Monday, March 19th at 8:00 p.m. at Memorial Hall, 14 Green Street.

If you are interested, you are more than welcome to attend.

Thank you, John Curtin

Tewksbury jumped off to a quick 1-0 start, but the Friars came back with four quick goals, and goaltender Bob Cuddyer was superb in the nets.

Billy Nolan got the tying goal on a powerful shot stinging the Tewksbury netminder, and shortly afterwards Alan Caparella gave the Friars the lead on a beautiful backhander into the upper corner.

You knew Catholic League scoring leader Jim Vesey wouldn't be quiet in this showcase, and he took a nice breakaway to the net for the third red lighter.

Defenseman Bill Vraibel's outstanding puckhandling set up Columbus' fourth goal, and he went end to end, circled the Tewksbury net, and dumped a beautiful pass to Jim Vesey, who stood alone for the goal.

C.Y.H.A. News

The Pee Wee B Hockey Team will be participating in the Pee Wee II open Invitational State Tournament to be held in Fitchburg on March 23rd, 24th, and 25th. The teams and game times will be announced in next week's Patriot. We hope that many spectators will be there from Charlestown to cheer the team on.

The Pee Wee B Team

played two games last week and came up with two wins. They played Revere and won, 10-1. The next game was played against North Reading and Charlestown won that by 7-2. Keep up the good work!

Coaching positions will be opening up soon. Please consider applying for a coaching position. More about this in future issues of the Patriot.

March Is Basketball Month

The Boys and Girls Club will be conducting in-house Spot Shot and One-on-One basketball contests during the month of March.

The games are open to members ages 8 to 17. Sign up with John Brennan at the Boys and Girls Club gym as soon as possible.

Basketball Clinic

There are still openings for the New Balance/Boys and Girls Club Basketball Clinic. The clinic is held on Saturday mornings for two age groups:

Age 8 - 11, 10:15 - 11:15.
Age 12 - 15, 11:15 - 1:00.

Please contact John Brennan at the Boys and Girls Club gym for further information. The telephone number is 242-1775, extension 126.

Lecture Series At

USS Constitution Museum

On Thursday, March 15, 1984, the U.S.S. Constitution Museum, located in the Charlestown Navy Yard, will continue its Samuel Eliot Morison Lecture Series. Guest speaker will be Virginia Steele Wood, an historian from the Library of Congress, who will speak on "The Strength of Old Ironsides: The Live Oaking Industry."

This lecture is free to the public and begins at 5:00 p.m. with a reception for the speaker with the lecture to follow at 6:00 p.m. Admission is free.

For more information, phone the Museum at 426-1812.

Chris Cunniff upped the Columbus lead to 5-2, and defenseman Paul Beatty sent the Friars into the locker room with a comfortable 6-2 lead.

Comfortable?? Nothing is comfortable in a tournament. In the final four minutes of play, Tewksbury came roaring back with three goals! Bobby Cuddyer's excellence in net was the key in the end. He stopped five tremendous shots in the last minute of play.

With 24 seconds to go Bill Nolan picked up a loose puck and scored the Columbus lifesaver. Tewksbury didn't have a chance to pull their goalie in the end, but they were certainly a team that never quit.

If everything has proceeded, we'll be seeing you this Saturday night at 7 p.m. at Merrimack.

Shamrock Road Race

The second Pope John High Shamrock Road Race will take place on Wednesday, March 14 at 12:30 p.m. The three-mile course will begin at Glendale Park, Everett. Trophies will be awarded to first, second and third place male and female student and faculty winners. A $5.00 fee is required for T-shirt and application for all participants.

This event is sponsored by the Student Council Officers: Daniel Fasciano and Michele Walsh of East Boston; Virginia Melanson of Charlestown; Maureen Kenny of Everett; and Alan Woodworth of Malden. Mr. Peter MacNeil is faculty coordinator.

The election night party was well attended by well wishers of both candidates. The Halligan club was well represented. The Main Street group has been very supportive of the elections.

A busy schedule lies in the immediate future for the new "Mayor". He will meet with Boston Mayor Ray Flynn and be introduced to the Boston City Council by Councillor Bob Travaglino.

PRINCESS PROTESTS PROGRAMMING

The lack of programming, actually, and here's the story...

Motoring along Morrissey Boulevard recently, we came upon a lone woman, standing with umbrella raised to a torrential downpour, obviously picketing T.V. Channel 56. Her sign read: "Preach the Word. Jimmy Swaggart does, so let him." We stopped to find out what it was all about, and in the process met an exceedingly dedicated Christian woman, a fine American, and made us a new friend!

Her name is Princess Davis, she comes from Sharon, and she truly epitomizes all that is good and decent in our land today; or what's left of it anyway. She expressed great disappointment of the removal of Jimmy Swaggart from 56's TV fare, noting that "Channel 56 is the third station to drop the Swaggart programming which is needed and loved by many." Her call to the station resulted in their statement that "it was a management decision to cancel all religious programming because they were too controversial and political, drawing screams and discontent from viewers."

"Saturday, February 4th, was a day this citizen will never forget," she said. Just as some people look forward to their "soaps" or a football game, I looked forward to the Swaggart Program because he is not a man-pleaser-he pleases God. "Brother Swaggart," she stated, "gave some startling reports about the World Council of Churches, which includes their support of abortion on demand - terrorism - Communism, and forced busing. It opposes, among other things, prayer in public school." In these present circumstances, she urges and encourages "anyone who loves the Lord - or call yourself Christian and want to see His Gospel preached throughout the land - to write or call Channel 56 concerning the reinstatement of Brother Swaggart on Saturday mornings (9-10)."

Lack of space prevents our properly doing justice to accolades due Mrs. Davis for her sustained efforts against abortion, pornography and forced busing ... and many other ills in our society ... or for her long years of service, in a teaching capacity, at the Christian Life Center at Walpole. Our on-the-spot interview, and subsequent correspondence, allows us to conclude that Mrs. Davis can probably be best described as a "Proeternal Lifer," and we expect many will take heed by joining her noble effort Saturdays at 56.

Any having qualms concerning "unfounded" allegations re Jimmy Swaggart are invited to S.T.O.P. and "have at it" with Princess Davis. You'll be glad you did!
Is there not a cause? I Samuel 17:29

UP THE I.N.A. ...

Most likely it wasn't reported in your daily newspaper, but the Boston Unit of Irish Northern Aid held its Fourteenth Annual Banquet, Saturday evening, February 18, at John Hancock Hall, Boston.

The usual sell-out crowd was captivated by the stirring remarks of Guest Speaker Dr. John Flannery, a County Mayo native, from the town of Castlebar, and a member of I.N.A., San Antonio, Texas, and the Irish-American Unity Conference. Dr. Flannery is a lawyer, and has taught economics at the University of Texas for many years. His treatise on the co-operative philosophy of the American Cooperative Movement has been translated into Spanish and Japanese, and is widely used in the United States, South America, Australia and Japan. He is also author of a new booklet, "British Injustice in Northern Ireland, and has traveled extensively to "publicize the truth of the appalling Colonial injustices in the North today." The gathering was also privileged to have renowned Irish Patriot Michael Flannery in attendance, as well as National Officers of I.N.A., whose President spoke briefly on the Irish-American Defense Fund.

This year's local honorees were Edward "Red" Murphy of Milton (by way of "Southie"), Charlie and Ursula Steele of Lowell, and "Townie" Sally Woods, a member of Charlestown's Bobby Sands Unit since its inception. Among those gracing the head table were Representatives Marie Howe of Somerville, Charlie Doyle of West Roxbury and Paul White of Dorchester, South Boston City Councillor Jim Kelly and School Committeeman Joe Casper, Officers of Units from Springfield, Lowell, Hartford, Conn. and New York City, and Rev. Walter J. Martin, S.J., Chaplain of Boston's Seaport. Fr. Martin was the recipient of a special award as "Friend of I.N.A." Truly "a man for all seasons," we heartily endorse and share the apropos remarks of Red and Mary Murphy in his regard ... "A special note of thanks for speaking out on the plight of the Irish of Northern Ireland despite occasional barbs of criticism from those who know little and care less."

We broke bread at a table with "Southie's" Jim and Joan Cook, John and Jean Downey of Dorchester, Mike Taylor of South Boston, and three lovely colleens. It must also be noted that S.T.O.P. had its first-ever dance with a TV newscaster - Seany McManus of New York's Irish Cablevision - who conducted many interviews for later viewing. Miss McManus is a Fort Lauderdale native, and it can now be said that S.T.O.P. has given her career a new S.T.A.R.T. (Just couldn't resist the play on words!)

Kudos to our Boston Unit's President, Jimmy Maunsel, to Co-Chairmen Pat Preston and Kathleen O'Brien, to Treasurer Mary Kennedy, of Quincy, and all other members of the Committee, and to John Mackin of West Roxbury for his usual superlative Toastmaster duties.

Please, God, that we all see Ireland free and united "in our time!" Are you doing your part to make that so?

WHO WAS SHE????

With St. Patrick's Day celebrations now clearly on the horizon, we will send "Shamrock" pennies to the first ten readers who can tell us the name of the young woman named Agnes, who left her native Albania in the 1920s and, after spending some time in Yugoslavia, went to Ireland where, in 1929, she entered a congregation of nuns in Rath Farnah, Dublin, as a postulant. All the world knows they can now find her in Calcutta, India, serving His "poorest of the poor." An additional five pennies will be allotted to correct answers from out-of-town, out-of-state readers, and March 17th is the deadline - for everyone. Per usual, all names will be published ... even the "also rans." Why not talk this over with your youngsters. Maybe they'll even tell you who she is! (chuckle)

NOTE: Only one to a family, and no "repeaters," please. Send answers to S.T.O.P., POB 133, So. Boston, 02127.

BEANTOWN CHARLIE SEZ....

A recently released national study concluded that - on the average - each and every American watches 7 1/2 hours of television daily.

With the start of Lent on Ash Wednesday, March 7, however your address your Faith, we would like to remind of His words, "Could you not watch one hour with me?"

Voke Announces Passage Of Nursing Home Ombudsman Bill

Representative Richard A. Voke is pleased to announce that legislation establishing a Nursing Home Ombudsman unit within the Department of Elderly Affairs was approved by the legislative and signed into law by the Governor on Wednesday, December 8. The representative was a strong supporter of the bill and was instrumental in promoting the negotiations among his colleagues, government agencies, nursing, and elder advocacy groups.

Representative Voke, who is the Chairman of the legislature's Health Care Committee, demonstrated his support for the strengthening of the State Ombudsman early in the 1983 legislative session. To address the issue correctly, the representative appointed a sub-committee headed by his vice chairperson. They worked tirelessly throughout the year until a bill was drafted, acceptable to all parties.

Rep. Voke reported that the Ombudsman Legislation recognizes and formalizes the services provided by the Ombudsman Division of the Department of Elder Affairs.

The legislation signed recently by the governor gives state recognition and authority to the program. It grants statutory unrestricted access to the State Ombudsman and his designees, to assist residents of long term care facilities in resolving problems and complaints. Locally trained Ombudspersons will now be allowed to assist elderly nursing home residents with the resolution of problems.

Representative Voke is a strong believer in and ardent supporter of programs which benefit the elderly and residents of nursing homes. This newly created Ombudsman unit will provide needed protection to the elderly residing within Massachusetts.

My Thanks

On behalf of the Daughters of Isabella Number 1, I would like to thank everyone that worked with me on the Corned Beef Dinner, to help make it a success. The members really came forward. I would also like to thank the public who helped us by buying chances. Congratulations to the raffle winners - Mary Ellen Kelley, who won the television; Mike C. from Concord, who won the $50 certificate from Johnnie's Foodmaster; and Mr. Awbrey, who won the radio.

I hope that everyone enjoyed themselves at the dinner.

Thanks a million,
Gladys Gauthier

A Note Of Thanks

I would like to thank everyone who sent me cards and flowers and I would especially like to thank those who gave blood, or at least tried, for you will all remain in my heart, as I did in yours.

Again, I thank you for your thoughts and prayers.
With much love,

Foster Care: An Alternative To Institutionalization

The Massachusetts Office for Children has described foster parenting in the following manner: Foster parenting is basically providing a substitute home for children who must be separated temporarily or indefinitely from their parents. The length of time in foster care depends on the child's individual needs and family circumstances. Taking a foster child into one's home is much more than just providing room and board. Foster parents combine their capacity to love and understand a foster child with a commitment to help the child feel secure and wanted during this difficult time. While in some cases foster children may eventually be adopted, there are basic differences between the two. Fostering a child is not permanent and involves no legal obligation on the part of foster parents other than providing a substitute home with love, security, care and guidance.

Over 300,000 children are in foster care throughout the United States. Who are these children? Children who are abandoned by their parents. Children whose parents suffer from mental illness and cannot care for them. Physically abused children whose alcoholic parents take out their frustrations on them. Extremely active two year-olds whose parents are too depressed and confused to properly discipline them. Children who have no place to go since their single parent is being hospitalized. Infants whose teenage parents are not emotionally ready to assume the caretaking role. Or teenagers and their families who are having problems because they do not know how to live cooperatively without losing their identity. From these brief examples, we can see that foster children come from a variety of situations and backgrounds. However, they have one thing in common, their parents are unable to take care of them.

Foster care is an alternative to the more sterile alternative of institutionalization. Who becomes a foster parent? People who obviously love children. In order to become a foster parent, an adult must be sympathetic, patient, firm, and wise. Foster parenting should not be based on a whimsical decision to help a needy child. While the intention is noble, adults need to carefully think about their reasons for being a foster parent. Foster parenting can be a very trying experience at times. On the other hand, foster parenting offers a very human and enriching experience. One of life's greatest joys is to know that we have contributed to the life and growth of a child. One foster parent has had the privilege of seeing over twenty-five of her foster children grow up to be happier, healthier, and more productive.

"The thing I dislike the most in this world is myself". Quite an unusual statement and even more unusual coming from a child. However, such feelings are not uncommon for children who feel abandoned by their parents. Worse, these children tend to blame themselves for not being "good enough" to stay with their parents. A positive foster parenting experience can teach these children to love and trust themselves and others. Furthermore, it can teach these children to adjust better to their natural families. Eventually, most foster children return home.

The Department of Social Services and the East Boston Social Centers are involved in two foster care programs. The Department of Social Services is operating a foster care program for all children who might need this type of treatment alternative. Currently, Claire Bonfilio, is in charge of recruiting functions for the area. The Youth-Family Counseling Unit of the East Boston Social Centers has recently initiated a more specialized foster care program with the Department of Social Services. This program, entitled Training and Counseling Services (TACS), is designed to provide temporary foster care to teenagers in Charlestown. The program is different in that foster parents will be trained to provide emergency foster care to teenagers who would otherwise run away from home and live in the streets. The program is set up so that parents, foster parents, and children are meaningfully engaged in a cooperative treatment venture. TACS is a new idea and it was developed in order to decrease the danger of street living for teenagers who are at risk. Furthermore, the specialized family therapy orientation of Barbara Britton and Naomi Lown, staff of the program, will help to keep the families as intact as possible.

Foster care is a meaningful experience for people who have the time and energy to reach out to needy children and teenagers. To learn more about foster care opportunities in Charlestown, please contact Claire Bonfilio at Department of Social Services (569-8310) or the Youth-Family Counseling Unit of the East Boston Social Centers (567-7576). All concerned people are invited to learn more about this rewarding experience.

Irish Update

by Marty O'Brien

The month of March is the time for "the wearing of the Green." The Bunker Hill Irish Heritage Society invites you to join us in this month long celebration. Two evenings have been planned this year.

On St. Patrick's Eve, Friday, March 16, we are having a "Pub Night" at the Legion Hall on Chestnut Street. Beat the crowds downtown. Relax and listen to some ballads, sing along if you like, or play a friendly game of darts. Doors will open shortly after 6:00 p.m. Live entertainment will start around 8 p.m. Tickets are available from Sheila Brown (242-2683) and Kathy Fulton (242-0189) or at the door. If you can't be in Dublin for the big parade down O'Connell Street, this is the next best thing. Visit an Irish Pub for $4.00. We'll have plenty of cold beer.

Grace Campbell and Pat Farris of the dance committee are arranging the society's Third Annual St. Patrick's Dance. The dance will be held at St. Catherine's on Friday, March 30. Entertainment will be provided by the Shilling Showband.

Nucci Active In School Visits, Parent Meetings

District One School Committee member John Nucci completed a tour of all Charlestown's public schools this week. Nucci, who was accompanied by District Superintendent John McGourney, visited each school to speak with principals, teachers, and students on conditions at the facilities. Nucci, who began regularly scheduled Charlestown office hours in March, stated that "It is essential that I, as a District Representative from Charlestown, personally spend the maximum feasible amount of time directly hearing the concerns of the residents, and especially the parents and students, of the community. The only way to effectively represent the area is to be directly in contact with those affected by the system he added.

Nucci noted that there are both "good and bad aspects of the learning environment in this community's public schools. For example, while it is frustrating to witness the sometimes inadequate and deplorable conditions of some of our facilities, it is, by the same token, important to acknowledge those staff and students who take learning seriously and are contributing to the quality of education in the schools. I encourage more parents and residents to visit schools so that they, too, may draw their own conclusions. While the problems will be evident, so too will the positive aspects of our schools become clearer", Nucci concluded.

Charlestown residents interested in contacting their School Committeeman, are invited to call 726-6200, extension 5745.

To Perform In Unique Comedy-Dance Theater

Comedian Tony V, a Charlestown resident will be featured in "Stand-up: A Modern Dance, a dance-theater event to hit the Boston comedy scene March 30, 31 and April 6 and 7.

Tony will deliver his own material and dance an austere post-modern work, accompanied by a chorus of hecklers. Throughout the evening, conventions of stand-up work and post-modern dance will be fused by choreographer Alice Trexler, comedian, and guest dancers through parody, juxtaposition, and gesture.

Tony V is well known for his work at Boston's Comedy Connection for the past three years. He has been featured on television shows such as "Chronicle," "P.M. Magazine," "The Lenny Clark Late Show" and the cable program "Funniest Person in America." In addition to his numerous club dates in New England, New York, and D.C., he has hosted a Jerry Lewis telethon and opened for Buddy Rich and Novo Combo.

Original music for "Stand-up" has been composed by Rob DiCamillo, frequent collaborator of the choreographer.

Choreographer Trexler is a long time member of the Boston dance community who has also been active in New York and Philadelphia. She has played a key role in the unique merger of the two art forms which created "Stand-up."

Curtain time is 8 p.m. at Mobius, 354 Congress Street (two blocks beyond the Children's Museum). General admission is $5.00 with reservations, $6.00 without. For reservations or information call 643-8032 or 542-7416.

Charlestown Police Line

From the desk of Deputy Superintendent Joseph V. Saia, Jr.
Commanding Officer, Area A
Downtown, East Boston, Charlestown, Beacon Hill

On February 18, 1984, officers responded to Concord Street on a report of a breaking and entering in progress. Upon arrival, the officers were met by the victim, who told them that her husband and son were chasing a man who had tried to break into their apartment. The officers then proceeded to Green Street. When the officers arrived at Green Street, they found that the suspect had already been apprehended by the husband and son. The officers took custody of the suspect and transported him to Area A, where he was read his rights, booked, and charged with attempted breaking and entering.

On February 20, 1984, a victim reported that while he was walking his dog on Tufts Street, he was approached by four men who put a knife to his throat, and demanded money. The victim further stated that at this time he pushed the suspect away and in the process he was cut on the wrist. The victim then spotted the suspects in the basketball court. The officers approached the suspects and placed two of them under arrest. The victim positively identified these two men as the ones who had tried to rob him. The suspects were taken to Area A, where they were read their rights, booked, and charged with armed robbery.

On February 22, 1984, a member of the Guardian Angels reported that while on patrol on Medford Street, they were approached by a group of 30-40 people who began harassing them. The man further states that one of the group threw a bottle. As the Guardian Angels began to leave the scene, a car came on the sidewalk and headed towards them. The Guardian Angels then fled from the scene, leaving behind a nylon bag containing two red berets and one Guardian Angel T-Shirt.

On February 23, 1984, officers observed a man wanted for escape from the Department of Youth Services at 50 Decatur Street. The officers chased the man to Medford Street where he was apprehended. The suspect was transported to Area A, where he has held pending notification of the Department of Youth Services.

On February 23, 1984, a victim reported that while she was walking on Main Street from the Sullivan Square MBTA Station, she was approached by an unknown man who grabbed her from behind and demanded money. The victim told the culprit that she did not have any money. At this time the victim fought the suspect off of her and began screaming. The suspect fled from the scene.

On February 24, 1984, officers on routine patrol, spotted a vehicle, reported stolen on Area A the previous day, traveling on Rutherford Avenue. The officers then began to follow the vehicle and stopped it in front of 171 Alford Street. The officers observed damage to the dashboard and ignition area. The officers placed the two suspects, a Charlestown man and a Somerville man, under arrest for larceny of a motor vehicle. The suspects were brought to Area A, where they were booked and read their rights.

On February 24, 1984, as a result of information received and observations made, detectives arrested a Charlestown man for unlawful possession of a firearm. The suspect was arrested in his motor vehicle. The detectives found a 25 caliber automatic handgun in his possession. The detectives also seized five rounds of 25 caliber ammunition and five rounds of 22 caliber ammunition. While the suspect was being booked at Area A, the detectives found a packet of white powder believed to be cocaine. The suspect was also charged with possession of a controlled substance.

On February 25, 1984, officers observed a man drinking beer at the corner of Walford Way and O'Meara Court. They approached the man and placed him under arrest for drinking in public. The suspect was then brought to Area A, where he was read his rights, booked, and placed in a cell to await his court appearance.

On February 25, 1984, officers responded to 50 Austin Street on a report of a shoplifter. Upon arrival, the officers spoke to the manager, who stated that a Charlestown youth had placed merchandise in his coat pocket and attempted to leave the store. The suspect was then stopped by the manager, and a security guard. The manager further states that at this time the suspect struck him in the head and face with his fists in an attempt to escape. After reviewing the above information, the officers placed the suspect under arrest for shoplifting. The suspect was brought to Area A, where he was read his rights and booked.

The next Community Service Meeting will be held on Tuesday, March 20, 1984, at 7:00 p.m. This meeting is being held one week later than usual due to the Presidential Primary. The location for this meeting is the Kent Community School, 50 Bunker Hill Street.
