Carey Named Executive Director Of Kennedy Center

by Maria Girvin

A reduction in administrative overhead costs, expansion in basic service programs and compensation scheduling and personnel evaluations are three areas Leo Carey will tackle as the newly elected Executive Director of the Kennedy Center.

Life long Charlestown resident Carey won the appointment by one vote over former U.S.S. Constitution Commander Robert Gillen who is also brother of Kennedy Center Board member, Moe Gillen. Warren Tavern owner John Leonard was also in the running for the position as was a North Shore resident named John Murray.

"I'm happy to be here and surprised that I got the position," said Carey who has worked at the Kennedy Center for the past ten years as the Director of Neighborhood Employment. "I thought I was a long shot."

But now that Carey is there, he seems to have definite goals for the Center which has suffered a great deal of controversy during the past year regarding alleged misspending of funds by the former Executive Director John Gardiner.

"I want to effect an attitude change in the Kennedy Center," began Carey. "I think it has

Lackluster Election Reflected In Charlestown Vote

The 1982 Massachusetts State Election on Tuesday, November 2nd will probably go down in the record books as the most lackluster election in recent history. The Republican, Independent, and Libertarian candidates offered no real challenge to the strong Democratic Party in this state.

In Charlestown, with no contest for Representative and Senator in the Massachusetts Legislature, voter turnout was less than 60%. There were relatively few workers for the various candidates making a last minute pitch at the polls.

Attorney General Francis X. Bellotti was the top vote-getter in Charlestown, garnering some 79% of the local vote.

Ray Shamie, who faced Ted Kennedy for U.S. Senator, made a respectable showing in Charlestown capturing 1657 votes (35%) in this Kennedy stronghold.

U.S. Congressman and Speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives Thomas P. "Tip" O'Neill, Jr. who has represented this district for thirty years, took a better than two to one vote over Republican Frank McNamara in the latter's first race for public office.

There were a considerable number of blanks in the vote on the five referendum questions on the ballot, ranging from 813 blanks on the Bottle Bill vote to 1228 blanks on the question of a nuclear moratorium.

Apparently, the 1983 City of Boston election is moving into full swing as poll workers were handing out literature for potential Mayoral Candidates Dennis Kearney and James Michael Connolly, as voters exited the polling sites on Tuesday.

The unofficial vote, by precinct, for Ward 2, Charlestown may be found on page 6.

Historical Project Underway

SELECTING SLIDES for the Charlestown Living History Slide Show, participants discuss slides after they are shown on the slide viewer. The Charlestown Living History slide show project is now underway. The project staff consists of two elders and three teenagers, all from Charlestown: Mary Hartnett, Sue Burns, Chuck McNeil, Tracie

Reid, and Lisa Gillespie. The staff will work with coordinator Polly Kornblith from the Kennedy Center and project intern Tim Snook to produce a slide show about Charlestown's past and present.

Community residents of all ages will be interviewed about their experiences growing up here. Old photos and new ones will be combined with these interviews in the completed slide show. The project staff will then be available to present the slide show and facilitate discussions with local community groups.

Many local organizations and individuals have volunteered their assistance and historical resources to the project. These include the Charlestown Historical Society, the Charlestown Preservation Society, The Charlestown Branch Library, and Bunker Hill Community College.

All individuals interested in being interviewed for the project or in lending old photographs to it should contact Polly Kornblith at the Kennedy Center, 241-8866.

Work To Resume On Charlestown Streets

Mayor Kevin H. White announced that work would resume on five streets in Charlestown. The following projects will be affected:

- *Albion Place - Main Street to dead end
- *Armory Street - Main Street to dead end
- *Auburn Street - Main Street to Bunker Hill Street
- *Baldwin Street - Rutherford Avenue to Bunker Hill Street
- *Oak Street - Main Street to Russell Street.

Water System: Water, Sewer and Drain work will be paid for by the Boston Water and Sewer Commission. Street and Sidewalk reconstruction curbing, lighting installation and tree planting will also be performed.

"What we are doing is meeting our previous commitments to the city's neighborhoods. The fulfillment was delayed by the fiscal belt-tightening brought on by Proposition 2 1/2," Mayor White said.

What has allowed the city to resume the projects at this time was the city's successful reentry into the capital markets with the sale of $65 million in tax anticipation notes at the low interest rate of 6 1/2 percent. The projects were suspended two years ago when Proposition 2 1/2 was passed.

become a clinical counseling center dealing in esoteric programs. Cutbacks have been made in crucial programs such as fuel assistance, food stamps, the winterization program and job training. The programs being funded are less optimal for the community."

While Carey hedged away from naming those programs he thought were "less optimal," he did say he wanted a reduction in administrative overhead costs by 25 to 30 percent. "I have suspicions that an inordinate amount of money has gone to bookkeeping and accounting costs," stated Carey.

Carey felt the Center's line-item budget, which must be documented, did not require the experts hired by his predecessors.

Carey also said that internal changes would be made regarding compensation scheduling and personnel evaluation. "People were paid haphazardly or raises were given as an award or withheld for punitive reasons. I think we should have a gradual grading system," continued Carey.

Other programs Carey hopes to see implemented in the future include a computer tutorial program which could tutor residents on SAT preparation, GED preparation, typing skills (thus making a person more marketable in the job market), and career opportunities.

Carey would like to see Charlestown join the Boston Food Bank Program which would benefit the elderly and the poor who sometimes find themselves short of money at the end of the month.

In general, Carey sees the Center as needing to "hone up" on the services they already provide.

Although Carey had not, at the time of this writing, met with the Center's business manager, Blaine Stone, he feels the Center is on solid ground and will continue as a multi-service agency. "We may have to back-slide a little at first," said Carey.

On the deeply split Kennedy Center Board, Carey refrained from detailed comment, saying that they suffered from structural problems but that he was an employee of the Board without power to change it.

"I will certainly work closely with the Board and prepare an Executive Director's report for each meeting. I would like to help The Board move toward clarification of their by-laws" said Carey.

Carey has a B.S. in Mathematics and has completed graduate work toward a Masters in Public Management. He is married to the former Mary Marcella and they have one daughter, Allison.

Speaks At C.H.S.

The monthly In-Service Meeting of the faculty at Charlestown High School featured Father Thomas Conway, Pastor of St. Catherine's Church. Father Conway spoke in his capacity as an educator on "A+ Teaching". The approach was very positive, and the teachers were urged to encourage each other by discussing their accomplishments instead of their failures. "Try to renew the enthusiasm you had when you first entered the profession," exhorted Father Conway.

Mr. Robert F. Murphy, the Headmaster, picked up the theme of "A+ Teaching" and urged teachers to be more enthusiastic and humorous and to employ wider varieties of teaching methods.

ANTI-RAT PATROL

A group of Irish-Americans have been protesting in front of the Boston Globe plant in Dorchester every Saturday since July 31, 1982 over an editorial cartoon by Jeff MacNelley portraying a rat dressed up like a leprechaun. The Irish-American community was incensed over this blatant ethnic slur.

The numbers protesting have dwindled and the Globe may gloat if they wish but the struggle continues. Too bad numerous Irish groups throughout Greater Boston didn't respond and left the load to a small band of people marching under the banner of the Anti-Rat Patrol.

The one group which has had representatives there has been the Bunker Hill Irish Heritage Society and for that Charlestown ought to be proud but where was everyone else? Where were the Hibernians who organized the whole thing to begin with? The frontlines were deserted by those who started the protest and the ordinary men and women of Boston's Irish community took up their posts. The Globe has taken a battle but its only one battle! They know We, the people won't take ethnic bigotry on our backs and that we will keep on keeping on!

ACTION SPEAKS LOUDER

The Massachusetts Republican Party represents 16 percent of the electorate and some of its recent actions (better to say inactions) make me wonder why they haven't been broomed out of existence.

The Republican Party is dying from a lack of new blood and its beginning to look like a case of suicide. Instead of being the alternative, it has become a mirror-image of the Democrat Party.

I left the Democrats in 1978 and became not just a Republican but a Ward Committee member and eventually chairperson of it but I've become disgusted with what I've seen. This year's crop of statewide candidates was a laugh and the lack of opposition for so many State Legislative seats was inexcusable.

I'm still a Republican but finding it less palatable everyday. Republicans under Natsios and Reagan have reverted back to the days of the Robber Barons as people become secondary to the profits of Big Business interests.

Reagan is hiding behind the social issues because he has shown himself to be a political incompetent when it comes to foreign policy and Reaganomics.

Conservative Democrats were probably right not to switch over and ex-Democrats are beginning to tire of their adopted Republican Party and are returning like the Prodigal Son back to the Democratic fold. It doesn't have to be this way!

MIDDLE CLASS CONSERVATIVES

The 1980 political victory for the conservative movement was a shallow victory because the wrong kind of conservative won the presidential election. Instead of a conservative doing the bidding of the wealthy, we need a conservative willing to stand up for the middle class, those who carry the load and pay the freight for everyone else. Reagan may have been poor once, but he's forgotten his roots and simply doesn't understand the needs of the overpressed taxpayers. Reaganomics is a trickle down theory that simply doesn't work because greed isn't taken into consideration and Teddy Kennedy's ultraliberal trickle up theory is about equally useless.

Perhaps, a middle class conservative like US Rep. Jack Kemp (R-NY) should run for President because he's at least middle class at heart. His public record and commitment is to America's taxpayers much more than Reagan and you can take that to the bank as Baretta would have said!

COMING ATTRACTIONS

In the next few weeks I will be discussing several diverse subjects including the need for a new Conservative Party in Massachusetts, the 1983 District Elections, the Kennedy Center and my election challenge and the growing nationwide credit card menace.

Attorney Swartz Will Speak At Library

The Boston lawyer who has won multi-million dollar lawsuits against Fisher-Price and other toy companies will speak about "Toy Safety" to the Parents' Discussion Group, on Friday, November 5, at 10:00 a.m. Attorney Edward Swartz is known, and sometimes criticized, for his flamboyant style in the courtroom but his antics win cases and have gained him the publicity he needs to deliver his message - toys can be dangerous. In one of his most famous cases, Cunningham v.

Fisher-Price, Swartz defended the parents of a boy who had suffered brain damage as a result of swallowing "Patty", a figurine from a toy school bus.

The author of the book "Toys That Don't Care" and an annual "Ten Worst Toys" list, Swartz also has appeared on many television talk shows and been featured on "60 Minutes". Anyone interested in consumer law or toy safety should attend this meeting at the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main Street. For more information on this program or other programs of the Parents' Discussion Group, please call the library at 242-1248.

Along with "Toys That Don't Care" the Charlestown Library has a number of pamphlets available on toy safety. The United States Consumer Product Safety

Commission has published two pamphlets, "For Kids' Sake" and "The Safe Use of Electrical Toys." The Bureau of Product Safety also has a publication "Toy Safety."

Community School News

The Kent/Charlestown Community School Council election was held on Tuesday, October 26th, at the Kent Community School Building. Six members of the community were elected to two year terms on the Council. They will be seated at the next Council meeting on Monday, November 15th, at 7:00 p.m. at the Charlestown High Community School Building. New Council members include: Mark Urquhart with 46 votes, Robert Hartly and Judith Kane with 38 each, Cathy Fitzpatrick with 25 and Barbara Power with 18 to At-Large seats. Joseph Travis was elected to represent Precinct 5 with 27 votes.

The Museum of Fine Arts will conduct a ten week course in Graphic Design at the Kent beginning Monday, November 15th, at 7:00 p.m. The course will be taught by members of the Museum's Educational Department and will consist of three silkscreen sessions, three relief printing sessions, two Museum visits and two community site visits. This course is designed for the beginner, for someone who might be interested in seeing what printmaking is all about and for individuals from local agencies or organizations who might find a new way to produce flyers, raffle tickets, etc. The course will be limited to 12 people and is free. Pre-registration with the Kent/Charlestown Office is suggested.

The Kent/Charlestown will conduct a course in diving lessons geared towards developing a diving team for future events. The class will meet each Wednesday night from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. beginning November 10th. It is open to all ages and will be taught by Jim Kelly, a two-time All-American diver in high school and college. Instruction will cover all aspects of diving, beginning with the basic fundamentals of approach, take off and leading to twisting and somersaulting. Registration is now and on the 10th. Divers should bring two towels, a bathing suit and much energy.

Charlestown residents can still sign up for GED and Adult Education courses. These courses will be offered throughout the year and students will be able to enter at any point. Individual educational goals will be set up for each student once a pre-screening test has been administered to determine level of competency. In January classes will be oriented specifically to those 16 to 21 and women 35 to 50.

Trade Fair Planned

The Charlestown Board of Trade is planning to host a Trade Fair at Building 42 in The Charlestown Navy Yard. This Fair will be taking place on November 22, 1982 from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. and will provide an excellent opportunity for the business people in Charlestown to meet and introduce their services to the six hundred new tenants that now live in the Charlestown Navy Yard.

Most of the people who are living there are not aware of the various businesses that are in the Charlestown area. Anyone wishing to participate will submit a $10.00 fee, payable to The Charlestown Board of Trade and should also get in touch with Sheila Sweeney for the details before November 17, 1982.

All members are urged to come and be a part of what should be a valuable business asset in Charlestown.

Speaks On Shipyard Park

Anthony B. Casendino, a partner at CBT/Childs Bertman Tseckares and Casendino, Inc. spoke recently at a BSLA-sponsored meeting at the National Park Service Visitor's Center in Charlestown. The subject of Mr. Casendino's talk was the design of Shipyard Park which is located in the Charlestown Navy Yard. The park was the result of a collaborative effort between CBT and the BRA. Roger Erickson and Shirley Muirhead, both of the BRA, spoke on the overall Navy Yard Development. Mr. Casendino's talk, which focused on the chronological development of the park, and was illustrated with slides, was preceded by a guided tour of the Park. Among the features of the park are an open meadow area, a fountain area which incorporates nautical artifacts reminiscent of the former shipbuilding industry, a playground and waterfront floats for commuter boats and day sailors.

Doll, Miniature, And Doll House Show

The 8th New England Doll, Miniature Doll House Show and Sale will be presented Sunday, November 7 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Danversport Yacht Club, Danvers, Mass. with proceeds to benefit the Handi-Kids Program.

Collecting doll houses, dolls and miniatures has grown so rapidly that it is now surpassed only by coin and stamp collecting nationwide.

The November 7 show will feature handmade dolls, antique reproductions, doll houses and miniatures. A special feature will be "Betty Boop" — the 1930's favorite made entirely of porcelain. Also spotlighted will be a very rare 18" Kestner Googlee reproduction and a 16" original "Carrie Dear" limited edition toddler.

For the collector looking for something truly unique, Christmas doll head ornaments may provide the answer. Each of these 12 ornaments is a porcelain reproduction of a well-known doll head, and will be highlighted at the show. Admission to the show is $2.00 adults, 75¢ children. Further show information may be obtained by phoning (617) 532-0606.

To Hold Bazaar

St. Ann's P.T.O. of Somerville will be sponsoring its annual bazaar on Saturday, November 13, from 1:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. and Sunday, November 14, from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. The Bazaar will be held in the Parish Hall on 50 Thurston Street, Somerville.

REMEMBERING

At the eleventh hour, of the eleventh day, of the eleventh month, our country signed The Armistice (in 1918), ending "The war to end all wars" (World War I). Many in the same lifetime were then to also bear witness to V-E and V-J Days, signifying the end of "The big one" (World War II) ... after which came the Korean Conflict (another war, in every sense of the word) and more recently, of course, Viet Nam.

Words and phrases such as "Remember the Alamo," poppies, "Remember the Maine," "V" for Victory, "Remember Pearl Harbor," and the Green Berets, conjure up visions of the battles and heroics of individuals who participated ... those we all pause to remember each November 11th - known as "Veterans Day," since 1954.

Cities and towns throughout our nation have fashioned "Honor Rolls" listing those who made the supreme sacrifice, and legion are the thoroughfares, bridges and sites justly named in their honor; as well as monuments, movies and books which speak for the bravery of all veterans, living and deceased. A family probably doesn't exist that hasn't been personally grief-stricken at the loss of a loved one at the altar of freedom. Certainly, all living in America are the present day beneficiaries of their courage and self-sacrifice ... and we all owe!

Please allow this old Naval retiree to personally remember a sparring partner he had while serving in U.S.S. NEWPORT NEWS (CA-148), Private Kenneth Ball, USMC, of Ohio, who was the first of his unit killed on the battlefields of Korea, and our mutual "Boss," 1st Lieutenant Michael M. Spark of N.Y.C., who survived Korea, rose to full Colonel during his military career, and lost his life doing battle in Viet Nam while on a helicopter mission. "The Corps" will ever be challenged to replace those "couple of good men." Rest in peace, shipmates.

Whether you observe Veterans Day by remembering as you watch or participate in a parade, or by visiting a hospitalized Vet, a memorial site or a cemetery, be mindful that in addition to being proud to be an American, we should act American. Fly, and ever honor, the flag our veterans so ably defended, and earn the legacy of freedom they left us by always displaying good citizenship.

And never stop "remembering."

MORE ON "TOUGHLOVE"

Our recent article on this subject came to the attention of Martie Dickey of Billerica, who has kindly provided us with the names and telephone numbers of parent support groups in the communities of Wakefield, Natick, Needham, Brighton, Stoneham, Burlington, Saugus, Salem (N.H.) and Billerica. Drop us a postal card specifying the area for which information is requested and we'll be happy to oblige. A small SASE would be appreciated, but is not necessary.

For those hearing of TOUGHLOVE for the first time, be advised that it is a most effective self-help program for parents troubled by teenage behavior. If you need help in this area, it's there for the asking ... but only YOU can pick up the ball and run with it.

TAKE A BOW, S.T.O.P. PATRONS

Filling requests for materials and information as a result of our column, and otherwise "moving the mail that is helping to move the nation" (through periodic mailings to an 800 plus listing in a 37 state area) requires an enormous amount of postage. Obviously, we couldn't do it alone, and following are people who wouldn't "let George do it" by providing postage stamps in varying amounts for use in our National Mailing Program: Jean S. Hale, Sweet Home, Oregon; Shirley Schafer, Pittsburgh, Penna.; Dolores M. Lewis, Jacksonville, Florida; Marion Riley, Dorchester; Jim Nealis, Beltsville, Md.; Carl W. Jordan, Jr., Hamden, Conn.; Eddy Lunny, So. Boston; David Braden, Louisville, Ky.; Charlie Mawn, Dorchester, and Steve McMahon, Hyde Park.

THANK YOU all for caring enough to help us "keep on keeping on."

POSITIVELY NEGATIVE

"We drank for happiness and became unhappy. We drank for joy and became miserable. We drank for socialbility and became argumentative. We drank for sophistication and became obnoxious. We drank for friendship and made enemies. We drank for sleep and awakened without rest. We drank for strength and felt weak. We drank "medicinally" and acquired health problems. We drank for relaxation and got the shakes. We drank for bravery and became afraid. We drank for confidence and became doubtful. We drank to make conversation easier and slurred our speech. We drank to feel heavenly and ended up feeling like hell. We drank to forget and were forever haunted. We drank for freedom and became slaves. We drank to erase problems and saw them multiply. We drank to cope with life and invited death." (Author unknown. Our thanks to contributor Billy Kelly of Charlestown).

"We are the Champions of the Greater Boston 'B' Teams."

Charlestown "B" Team won its seventh straight game of the season by the score of 12-6 last weekend. Revere scored first on a long pass play. This was the first time that the "B" Team had been trailing all year. Showing the true champions they are, they come out in the second half and moved the ball steady up the field. When they got to about Revere's 45 yard line, they gave the ball to Jimmy Donovan. With the help of some good blocking and the rest on sheer determination, Jimmy ran for the touchdown. The extra point was missed so the score was tied 6-6. Late in the third quarter, Charlestown marched down the field again. They got to about the 30 yard line of Revere, then quarterback Ed Sullivan bootlegged left. It looked like a running play, but he stopped all of a sudden, fired a pass into the end zone to Jimmy Donovan for the winning touchdown. The defense spearheaded by Kevin McGonagle, played another outstanding game.

Friday the "D" Team played in Everett and lost a heartbreaker by the score of 6-0. They almost scored a couple of times, but just missed.

I'd like to thank the "D" Team coaches for helping all year. They are Head Coach Peter DeRoeve and Assistant Coaches Matt Stillman, Wally Landry and Lee Chiero.

In the "C" Team game on Sunday, Charlestown lost by the score 7-0. We had chances early in the game to score, but could not quite connect against Revere.

I would like to thank the "D" Team coaches Ronnie Raymond and Pat Locke.

In the "A" Team game, Charlestown lost by the score 13-0. In this, Charlestown should have done better and twice should have scored, but lost all chances of doing so on stupid penalties.

I would like to thank the "A" Team coaches Mike Connolly and John Houlihan.

The Board would like to thank all the Cheerleaders and their coaches for a job well done all year. The "A" Team girls will be in competition in Lynn on Friday night.

We are selling Pop Warner chances some days in front of Johnnies Foodmaster. So please help us out if you can. Also, players and Cheerleaders will be selling the chances.

"Thanks"

Columbus Gets What Was Needed . . . A Win!

There was a different atmosphere in the locker this week, different than the past two Sundays and certainly not what the Columbus kids are used to. A "W" had been finally put back in the column, and you could see the results and the relief in everyone's faces.

Christopher Columbus football has run into a tough time in '82 and a win NOW was just what was needed. A win was important for everyone.

The win would be a 20-7 come from behind against Newton Catholic. It was a good offensive game and it was a good defensive game, and as we've often stated, the combo produces wins.

Jim O'Brien put 6 on the board for Columbus early in the first quarter on a 35 yard run. This would be all the scoring in the first half as Columbus and Newton's defenses just held their ground.

Ricky McClellan's 50 yard pass (a beauty) to Steve Terrio tied the game and a gutsy Marc Hung put Newton ahead on the kick. Hung is a 5'5" halfback, and his performance proved what the 5'5" is made of. He is a senior and one of NC Tri-Captains.

In the fourth quarter it was all Columbus. Jim O'Brien got some fine blocking as he went 46 yards for a score with Ron Riccioli coming up with the extra two. A Scott Gillis interception helped to set up the next touchdown as Riccioli would also turn in a nice run for a 23 yard touchdown.

Happiness is winning a football game, and a hard working bunch of good kids finally got back what they needed most.

From the FRIAR-ing Pan: Columbus closed out their home season with the NC win and now are on the road with games against Arlington Catholic (November 7), Archbishop Williams (November 13) and Dom Savio (Thanksgiving). Our Underclass squad lost their first one. Cardinal Spellman came from behind to beat us 20-16 in the closing minutes of the game. Next opponent for the Under-Classmen will be Don Bosco on Friday (November 5).

In the stands: Angelo LaPaglia and his family dropped in for this one and the Bridgewater Freshman is doing fine. LaPaglia is playing on the specialty units, but feels he'll be seeing a lot more action as the season continues.

To Be Open

The Charlestown Clubhouse of the Boys and Girls Club will be open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Veterans Day, November 11. The activity schedule for the day will be similar to a Saturday.

The Little Patriots Nursery School program will be closed on Veterans Day. The scheduled alumni and adult exercise programs will be posted in the gym.

BELONGS TO GRADY.

It used to be the $100,000 World Sprint Championship. Then we asked ourselves, what's the World ever done for the New England sporting public? Has the World brought honor and credit to greyhound racing? Of course not.

But Bill Grady has. And to pay tribute to Grady, retired State Police Captain and untiring President of Wonderland Park—celebrating his 20th year of service to the local sporting scene—we've renamed our fall classic: now the $100,000 Grady Sprint Championship.

And it's going to be one heck of a race. Because 1982 has been a vintage year for sprinters, and some of the fastest dogs in the country are coming for this prestigious event. Come join us—there's plenty of excitement to go around.

$100,000 GRADY SPRINT CHAMPIONSHIP
FINAL SATURDAY NIGHT!
POST TIME: 8 P.M.

Play the Favorite. Monday through Saturday. 12 races nightly. Post time 8 p.m. Glass-enclosed grandstand and Clubhouse, climate controlled for your all-weather comfort. For dining room reservations or reserved box seats, call 284-1300. (Dinner is served from 6 p.m. on, and your table—with a great view of the action—is yours for the night.) Thank You For Your Support

To The Charlestown Patriot and The Board of Directors, J.F. Kennedy Family Service Center

I would like to take this time to thank all board members that helped support my candidacy for the Executive Director's position at the Kennedy Center. I look forward to working with you all.

Things Are Improving

Dear Editor,

Unfortunately, there will never be enough police coverage in the City of Boston and due to Charlestown's "low" crime rate, we continue to loose protection to downtown. There is also no doubt that closing our own Police Station in Charlestown has been a loss to our community. It is too difficult to report certain acts of vandalism and petty crime when you can not find a parking place by District A.

Yet, we do feel that in the Monument area things are improving. Deputy Superintendent Saia and Deputy Ebsary have worked with residents on the Square and side streets to help control car vandalism and groups of kids congregating.

The implementation of the "walk and talk" patrol officers had made a significant difference. The system is not perfect but, as residents, we appreciate the visibility and we can only say "thank you" for at least trying to improve our neighborhood and making it safer for everyone.

Several residents of Monument Square

Thank You

Dear Editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the "Townies" who voted for me in the Kennedy Center Board of Directors election.

I intend to be an active board member, representing Precinct 7 and all of Charlestown.

Sincerely,
Ellie Marino

Note Of Thanks

To The Patriot:

I wish to thank Fr. Thomas Conway of St. Catherine's Church for driving me to the hospital on Sunday, October 17th; Sister Nancy Rowen for her help; and the kindness, visits, the prayers, cards and spiritual bouquets from my friends and family. Also thanks for the visits of my good friends and the lovely plant.

Everything was very much appreciated.

Very sincerely,
Clotilda E. Dyer

Thanks For Your Assistance

To The Charlestown Patriot

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Joe Kent and Rep. Richard Voke's Legislative Aide, William Duffy for their assistance in restoring gas shut-offs that occurred to elderly and terminally ill residents of Charlestown last week. Their quick efforts helped solve what could have been a trying problem to these residents.

Again Thank You,

CARE-ING PACKETS FOR IRELAND

Would you believe that Ireland too is seeking a constitutional amendment to protect life at all stages of development and dependency? Or that in 1980 alone 3,380 girls from Erin went to England to have their babies killed?

Such is the case, and Rev. Paul Marx, O.S.B., Director of Human Life International has inaugurated a "Save the

School Of Nursing Open House

High school students interested in nursing careers, their parents and guidance counselors are cordially invited to attend the annual St. Elizabeth's Hospital School of Nursing Open House on Tuesday, November 9, 7 to 9 p.m. at the Brighton campus, 159 Washington Street.

Visitors will be greeted at St. Gabriel's Dormitory where the introductory portion of the evening's program is scheduled to take place. A slide presentation and tours of the school facilities will follow. There will be ample opportunity to meet with both faculty members and nursing students

The Open House will conclude with a social in the student dormitory, at which time information about application procedures and financial aid will be distributed.

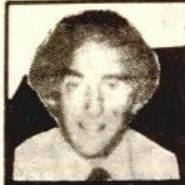

Those planning to attend are encouraged to register in advance by calling 782-7000, ext. 2363.

Irish Babies Fund" which will enable the shipment of pro-life films to Ireland as well as buying radio and TV time, training speakers and conducting seminars. Avail yourself of more direct information in this matter by writing HLI at 4 Library Court, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20003.

Here on the homefront, Massachusetts Citizens for Life has initiated a first-of-its kind project to send pro-life materials to Ireland. Packets of materials on the scientific, medical and legal aspects of abortion are distributed FREE to anyone who will send them to relatives or friends still in the Auld Sod. They are comparatively light in weight for easy and inexpensive mailing. Call Dorchester's Jane Sheehan at MCFL's Newton Office (1-617-7220) for further information, or requests for packets for you or a group.

John Boyle O'Reilly once said to his fellow Irish-Americans, "We can do more good by our Americanism than by our Irishism." Surely he'd agree here's an opportunity to do both ... while saving lives in the process. DO IT!

Views On Dental Health

by Jeffrey D. Cohen, D.M.D.

ON TOOTHPICKS

The next sentence may surprise you: Toothpicks are okay! Not recommended to be used in public, they do have value in helping to keep teeth clean and gums healthy.

The history of toothpicks is rather interesting. They were used as early as 3500 B.C., in the form of twigs, reeds and pieces of grass. A wealthy, ancient Greek would probably carry a ring with several impressive looking toothpicks dangling from it. These toothpicks might be made from gold, silver, ivory or ebony. Others were delicately carved or embedded with jewels.

Dentists object to the abuse of toothpicks, not their use. They should be used gently or they will injure your gums. A dentist should really instruct you on how to use them.

A toothpick can be a lifesaver if you've just finished a steak and can't reach that maddening spot. A soft, flat wooden toothpick, not a bobby pin or sharp instrument, can free the debris stuck between your teeth and make you feel instantly more comfortable.

A public service to promote better dental health. From the office of Jeffrey D. Cohen, D.M.D., 338 Main Street, 242-3550.
