

Journal of Economics and Business
Studies Refereed journal

Vol | 5 |

MAR | 2017 |

No | Special |

ISSN 2521-8352

Issued by the Faculty of Economics and Political Science
University of Misrata

Journal of Economics and Business Studies

Refereed journal

Issued by the Faculty of Economics and Political Science

University of Misurata

Vol | 5 |

MAR | 2017 |

No | Special |

Editor: Dr. Alhussien Ramadan Elsraiti

Managing editor: Mr. Eissa Yousef Bazina

Tel : +218919029016
P.O.Box : 500 misurata
E-mail : jebsmu@eps.misuratau.edu.ly

All publishing rights are reserved by Journal of Economics and Business Studies

Journal of Economics and Business Studies: Guide for authors

Journal of Economics and Business Studies is an academic journal published by the Faculty of Economics and Political Science, Misurata University, established in 2014.

The Journal of Economics and Business Studies welcomes contributions, book reviews, and summaries of theses, research seminars, and conferences in accordance with the following terms and conditions:

1. Journal of Economics and Business Studies is an academic journal that publishes the work that follows scientific methods and approach in writing.
2. The journal publishes research and scientific studies in the field of economic, and other related fields of knowledge, which has not been published previously, or it is not under consideration for publication elsewhere.
3. The journal publishes research in both Arabic and English languages.
4. Manuscripts should represent theoretical or practical contributions in one of the fields of economy and business.
5. Accepted and recognised scientific approaches and structures should be followed, including introduction, methodology, references, tables and conclusions.
6. All manuscripts and any supplementary material should be submitted to the Editor-in-Chief via email.
7. An abstract in English should be submitted along with the manuscript if the manuscript is in Arabic. An abstract in Arabic should be submitted along with the manuscript if the manuscript is in English. The abstract should include; research aim, research problem, research methodology, main findings, and key words, with a maximum of 300 words.
8. Reviews should include the following information: title, author, place, publisher, publication date, edition, pages, special features (maps, etc.), and the ISBN. As well as, reviews should embrace author's opinion about the reviewed book or study, the importance of the reviewed book or study, and the extent of the author's ability to cover the subject.
9. Author(s) full names, affiliations, addresses, phone numbers, and emails shall be provided. An author declaration form, clarifying that the work should not to be published elsewhere, has to be signed.
10. List of references should be provided and allocated at the end of the manuscript. All references mentioned in the reference list are cited in the text, and vice versa. The reference style used by the journal should be applied.
11. All contributions shall be assessed, and authors shall be informed with the decision within two weeks from the receipt of the reviewers' report.
12. The accepted manuscripts shall become the property of the Journal of Economic and Business Studies, and may not be reproduced without a written permission from the editorial board.
13. Authors shall be responsible for following all the instructions and rules of publication contained in this manual. Authors also are responsible for the language editing, and proofreading of the manuscript. Manuscripts not following the instructions and rules contained in this manual will not be referred to review.
14. Contributions published in the journal reflect the views of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the opinion of the journal.

Review Rules:

Reviews are conducted by experts from inside and outside the university according to the following criteria:

1. Originality and contribution to knowledge.
2. Theoretical and managerial implications.
3. Manuscript presentation.
4. Research methodology, which includes the identification and clarity of the research problem, the suitability of the study population and the accuracy of the sample selection, and the clarity of the research questions and hypotheses.
5. Realization of the relevant theories and literature.
6. Suitability of the chosen analysis methods.
7. Accuracy and objectivity of conclusions and recommendations.

8. Recency and comprehensiveness of the references.

Reference style:

Text: All citations in the text should refer to:

1. Single author: author's last name (without initials, unless there is ambiguity) and the year of publication.
2. Two authors: both authors' last names and the year of publication;
3. Three or more authors: first author's last name followed by 'et al.' and the year of publication.
4. Groups of references should be listed first alphabetically, then chronologically.
5. Citations may be made directly: author's last name, the year of publication, and page number.

Examples:

Single author	Filieri (2015) argue Or Information quality was found to significantly affect information adoption (Filieri, 2015)
Two authors	Erkan and Evans (2016) claim Or ... Information adoption are determinants of purchase intention (Erkan and Evans, 2016).
Three or more authors	Jin et al. (2009) find that Or Individuals who find the information quality high are more likely to find the information useful (Jin et al. 2009).
Groups of references	(Allan, 2000a, 2000b, 1999; Allan and Jones, 1999).
Direct citation	Hennig-Thurau et al. (2004) define eWOM as “any positive or negative statement made by potential, actual, or former customers about a product or company which is made available to multitude of the people and institutes via the Internet” (Hennig-Thurau et al., 2004, pp. 39).

Reference list:

1. References are classified in a single list regardless of their source (e.g. Journal, book, web...).
2. References should be arranged first alphabetically by the last name, and then further sorted chronologically if necessary.
3. Arabic references are placed in the beginning followed by the English references.
4. More than one reference from the same author(s) in the same year must be identified by the letters 'a', 'b', 'c', etc., placed after the year of publication.

Examples:

Reference to a journal publication	Filieri, R. (2015). What makes online reviews helpful? A diagnosticity-adoption framework to explain informational and normative influences in e-WOM. Journal of Business Research , 68(6), 1261-1270. Erkan, I., & Evans, C. (2016). The influence of eWOM in social media on consumers' purchase intentions: An extended approach to information adoption. Computers in Human Behavior , 61, 47-55.
Reference to a book	Strunk, W., & White, E. B. (2000). The Elements of Style . Fourth ed. Longman, New York.
Reference to a chapter in an edited book:	Mettam, G.R., Adams, L.B., (2009). How to prepare an electronic version of your article, in: Jones, B.S., Smith , R.Z. (Eds.), Introduction to the Electronic Age . E-Publishing Inc., New York, pp. 281–304.
Reference to thesis	Erkan, I. (2016). The influence of electronic word of mouth in social media on consumers' purchase intentions (Doctoral dissertation, Brunel University London).
Reference to a website:	Cancer Research UK, 1975. Cancer statistics reports for the UK. http://www.cancerresearchuk.org/aboutcancer/statistics/cancerstat_srepor/ (accessed 13.03.03).

Summaries of master and doctoral theses:

Summaries of master and doctoral theses are to present recent thesis that are not more than two years from the date of granting the degree, and in the field of economic and other related field. Summaries should not exceed 20 pages, and ought include:

1. An introduction explaining the significance of the topic.
2. A summary of the research problem and how it was defined.
3. A summary of the research methodology.
4. A list of the references used in the summary.

Manuscript structure and rules:

1. Manuscripts can be presented in both Arabic and English languages.
2. Manuscripts are submitted as a single A4 file in both Word and PDF formats.
3. Author's CV to a maximum of one page, and identification card need to be sent along with the manuscript.
4. Manuscripts submitted should be prepared using single-column, single-spaced 14-point fonts, with indentation of 0.5 cm for manuscripts in Arabic, and single-column, single-spaced 12-point fonts, with indentation of 0.5 cm for manuscripts in English.

5. Submitted manuscripts must not be more than 20 pages, including references, tables and figures. Book reviews must not be more than 10 pages. Manuscripts and book reviews should be prepared with margins at: Top 3.18, Bottom 3.18, Left 2.54, and Right 2.54. Number all pages consecutively. Tables and figures should be numbered consecutively in the order in which they are referred to in the main body of the text.
6. Manuscripts begin with an abstract and ends with the conclusion and reference list.
7. Manuscript's title is presented at the top of the first page, along with author's names, affiliations and email addresses. .
8. Authors should embed tables and figures in the manuscript in places that are near to the text that refers to them, and should be headed by ((Table 1) or (Figure 1) using 12-point fonts (Simplified Arabic, Time New Romans).