

Students Play 'Indiana Jones' For A Day

On Feb. 16, The Wang Center for the Performing Arts hosted students, parents and teachers for the culmination of their Raiders of the Lost Art program. The program was developed in collaboration between The Wang Center's Young at Arts educational outreach program and the Department of Education at the Museum of Fine Arts.

possible. From there Young at Arts and the MFA Education Department created a program that enabled 200 Boston students to attend a screening of the Indian Jones Trilogy at The Wang Center in January, visit the MFA's world-famous Nubian and Egyptian galleries, and participate in classroom workshops with Young at Arts and MFA staff to Wang Center President and CEO Josiah A. Spaulding, Jr. and Acting Director of the Museum of Fine Arts Morton J. Golden, wrote: "The screening of George Lucas and Steven Spielberg's trilogy of films chronicling the cliff-hanger adventures of fictional archaeologist Indiana Jones provides a fantastic springboard for generating excite-

The seed of this innovative new program was planted at last year's Cultural Jam, when The Wang Center's Metropolitans and the Museum Council joined forces to raise money to make an educational collaboration between the two institutions create their own archaeological projects. Their works are currently on exhibit at the Wang Center's Lower Lobby.

A thought-provoking study guide has been developed for students and teachers to accompany the program. In that guide ment about real-life archaeology and the characteristics of mythological heroes, both current and ancient. Raiders of the Lost Art combines a resource for critical discussion of the three films with activities designed to stimulate students' imaginations and help them to discover the secrets of archaeological artifacts. We hope this effort will encourage both teachers and students to utilize the resources of Boston's major cultural institutions in some creative and exciting new ways."

In addition to hosting the Raiders of the Lost Art exhibit on Feb. 16, The Wang Center gave each class a private viewing of the exhibit, backstage tour and a reception in the Metropolitan Room. Participating schools included The Edwards Middle School in Charlestown.

★ Neighborhood Council Meetings . . . Public Safety Committee

The monthly meeting of the Public Safety Committee with a community service officer from Area A of the Boston Police Department will be held at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, March 8 at the Kent Community Center, 50 Bunker Hill St.

Lowney Way Parking

CNC member from Precinct 3, Bill Galvin, has announced that the council will hold a public hearing on the possibility of creating vehicular parking on Lowney Way. This would require making Lowney Way one way. The meeting will be held at 7 p.m. on Thursday, March 10 at the American Legion Hall, 23 Adams St.

Representatives from the city of Boston Transportation Department and the Boston Redevelopment Authority will be in attendance. All interested citizens are encouraged to attend.

If you have any questions, please call Galvin at 242-3862.

Parking in Charlestown

The CNC will hold a meeting with representatives of the Boston Transportation Department relative to parking problems in Charlestown. The meeting will be held at 7 p.m. on Monday, March 21 at the K. of C. Hall, 75 West School St.

Monthly Meeting

The monthly meeting of the council will be held at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, April 5 at the K. of C. Hall, 75 West School St.

*****

The council meetings are open to the public, and all are welcome to attend.

★ Charlestown Against Drugs (CHAD) . . . CHAD will meet at noon on Friday, March 4 at the Charlestown Boys & Girls Club, 15 Green St. All interested persons are welcome to attend.

★ Bunker Hill Day Parade . . . The Bunker Hill Day Parade Committee will meet at 3 p.m. on Saturday, March 5 at the American Legion Hall, 23 Adams St.

Chief Marshal Marty O'Brien Sr. invites all to the meeting, and hopes that many will respond to give a helping hand in order to make this a great parade.

★ Old Ironside Way . . . The Boston Fire Department (BFD), under Deputy-In-Charge Kevin Mochen, responded to 59A Old Ironside Way on Monday, Feb. 28. An alarm was struck at 10:44 p.m. for fire in the brick and steel dwelling, part of the CharlesNewtown Housing Development.

According to a BFD spokesperson, the fire started in the living room and the cause has been determined as a "heat source too close to combustibles." A woman was evacuated from the building, but no injuries to firemen or the occupant were reported.

The BFD estimates the damage at $60,000, with the fire termed to be "one step above a one-alarm fire."

★ Charles River Crossing . . . Last month, the Central Artery/Tunnel Project filed the Final Supplemental Environmental Impact Statement/Report for the new Charles River Crossing design with state and federal environmental agencies. The report is available for review at the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main St.

Comments on the new river crossing must be submitted in writing by Thursday, March 10 to: Trudy Cox, secretary, Mass. Executive Office of Environmental Affairs, 100 Cambridge St., 20th floor, Boston, Mass. 02202.

Also, comments should be submitted in (continued on page 5)

Bryan J. McGonagle Hockey Tourney Begins On Saturday

The Board of Directors of Charlestown Youth Hockey is pleased to announce the first annual Bryan J. McGonagle Hockey Tournament. The tournament runs from Saturday, March 5 to Sunday, March 13 at the Charlestown MDC skating rink.

It will span nine days, consist of 45 games and involve teams from eight youth hockey organizations, including Charlestown, Belmont, Brookline, Hyde Park, Melrose, Milton, North Reading and South Boston. This is the first time Charlestown Youth Hockey has attempted to organize such an event.

The tournament honors the memory of Bryan J. McGonagle, a young man who left his mark on Charlestown Youth Hockey. At this writing, the Board of Directors has not specified how the proceeds of the tournament will be disbursed. As a general statement, however, it is fair to say that after expenses, they intend to invest the proceeds in the youth of the program in a substantial and exciting way.

The schedule of games will be posted at the rink. All championship games will take place on Sunday, March 13. There is no admission charge.

The Board would like to express its thanks to Sen. Thomas Birmingham, Rep. Richard Voke, Metropolitan District Commissioner M. Ilyas Bhatti and his staff, Jane Connolly and Angelo Tilas, Mayor Thomas Menino, Commissioner Patrick Harrington of the Boston Parks and Recreation Department and the Charlestown Neighborhood Council for their assistance in helping with this effort.

Irish Breakfast To Be Held March 6

Bunker Hill Post, The American Legion, will be serving an Irish-style breakfast on Sunday morning, March 6, at the post quarters, 23 Adams St.

The doors will open at 9 a.m. for coffee, and breakfast will be served from 10 a.m. to noon. The cost of this delicious meal, prepared by Chef Al O'Gallarelli and his crew, is $3.50.

Veterans interested in learning more about The American Legion are invited to drop by.

Boston National Historical Park Presents A Lunchtime Film Series

The Boston National Historical Park will celebrate Women's History Month with a lunchtime film series. The films will be shown in the Charlestown Navy Yard Information Center at noon on the following schedule. All the films are free. Please bring your own bag lunch.

Now through Sunday, March 6, "Gwendolyn Brooks," a thoughtful portrait of one of America's leading poets, 30 minutes.

Thursday, March 10 through Sunday, March 13, "Union Maids," an engrossing and moving documentary of the birth and building of industrial unionism in the 1930's, 48 minutes.

Thursday, March 17 through Sunday, March 20, "Eight Minutes to Midnight: A Portrait of Dr. Helen Caldicott," a compelling portrait of the Boston pediatrician, who is a major voice in the anti-nuclear movement, 60 minutes.

Thursday, March 24 through Sunday, March 27, "Georgia O'Keeffe," is shown exploring the New Mexico landscape, the prime source of her vivid colorings and starkly dramatic images, 60 minutes.

Thursday, March 31 through Sunday, April 3, "Decades of Decision: The American Revolution - Mary Kate's War," Mary Katherine Goddard published the "Maryland Journal" and "Baltimore Advertiser" during revolutionary America. In refusing to reveal the authorship of a particular letter she had published, she helped maintain the essential principles of freedom of the press, 29 minutes.

For more information, call 242-5601.

Boston National Historical Park Presents "Women Of Distinction"

The Boston National Historical Park will celebrate Women's History Month with an afternoon lecture series titled "Women of Distinction." The free lectures will be held on Sundays, March 6, 20 and 27, at 2 p.m. in the Charlestown Navy Yard Information Center. Each lecture will last about one hour.

• March 6 - "Phillis Wheatley and Anna Green Winslow: Two Voices from the 18th Century" will be presented by Jane Schwerdtfeger of the Old South Meeting Association in Boston. By exploring diaries, letters and poems written by two young Boston women, we can get a very personal picture of what life was during the American Revolutionary War.

• March 20 - "Abigail Adams: An American Patriot" will be presented by Ranger Agnes Smith of Adams National Historic Site. Abigail was not only the wife of our second President and the mother of our sixth President, she was also a prominent patriot.

• March 27 - "The Kennedy Women" will be presented by Ranger Sue Grim, of John F. Kennedy National Historic Site. A video presentation and commentary on the changing roles and contributions of the women in the Kennedy family.

For more information, call 242-5601.

A Public Forum On Perspectives On Women In State Government

by Barbara Poole

The Charlestown Women's Caucus (CWC) will hold a free public forum on Wednesday, March 23 from 7:30 to 9 p.m. at Bunker Hill Community College, Rutherford Avenue in Charlestown. The event is wheelchair accessible.

The invited speakers for the forum will be Richard Voke, now in his 10th term of office as the state Representative for Charlestown; Thomas Birmingham, a second-term state Senator representing Charlestown; Joan Menard, chairperson for the Democratic Party in Massachusetts; and Piedad Robertson, Gov. Weld's Secretary of Education.

Each of the speakers will address questions directed at them by a moderator from the CWC. Questions will be asked such as: What is the historical perspective on women's roles in government? What issues are of most interest to their women constituents? How did they get involved in politics? What are the best avenues for getting one's questions answered and one's issues addressed? There will also be a half hour of questions and answers of the panelists.

This is the second in a series of quarterly forums being sponsored by CWC and structured around the topics: local, state, federal government and the public school system. Elected officials or appointed staff at these levels will address the public forums to speak about their positions as well as how change can be better accomplished and effectuated.

The CWC is a newly formed organization with a mission to politically activate and educate women, their families and friends so that they may more fully understand and participate in government on all levels.

For more information about the forum or the CWC, please call 242-3356.

THE REAL ESTATE WEEKLY

By Carolyn Sideman, Monument Properties

BRIGHTEN UP YOUR HOME

If your house is on the market, it's a good idea to pay special attention to your windows and to maximize the amount of light they let into your home. Remember that dark homes are somewhat depressing to many people, and when your home is being shown, you want buyers and agents to feel terrific from the moment they step into your living room.

Start out by giving your windows and window treatments a thorough cleaning. During showings, you should open up your drapes and blinds to let the sun shine through. It also helps to turn lights on, even if it's a bright day. If you tend to pull down the shades to eliminate a less than perfect view, consider replacing heavy drapes or shades with translucent curtains in a light color. When prospective buyers give us feedback on the homes we show them, a light, airy feeling is often cited as a major attraction.

For solid advice on buying or selling real estate, consult the professionals at Monument Properties. Stop by our office at 85 Warren St., Charlestown or call us at 241-5900.

Boston National Historical Park Presents 'Rosie The Riveter'

Come celebrate Women's History Month with the National Park Service and "Rosie the Riveter" in the Charlestown Navy Yard! Boston National Historical Park will present two "Rosie the Riveter" programs on March 5 and 19 at 2 p.m. The programs will begin in the Visitor Information Center in the Charlestown Navy Yard and will last approximately 90 minutes. Both programs are free of charge.

The program will focus on the lives of women in the industrial work force before, during, and after World War II. Visitors will explore the history of working women in the United States through audiovisual aids and discussion with a park ranger before proceeding to the USS Cassin Young to meet "Rosie."

Visitors will have the opportunity to talk to "Rosie" about her responsibilities both on and off the clock.

For more information, please call 242-5601.

C.Y.O. & St. Catherine NEWS

by Father Ron Coyne

• CYO One-Day Ski Trip — Our last ski trip for the winter will be on Sunday, March 13. All teen-agers 13-19 are welcome to join us. We will travel with Youth Enrichment Services (YES) and the cost will be $38 per person, which includes transportation, all-day lift ticket, ski rental and a lesson. Anyone interested must sign up at the rectory, 49 Vine St., leave $38 at the rectory and pick up a permission slip which must be returned prior to the fitting on Wednesday, March 9 at 5 p.m. Buses will leave the church at 4:15 p.m. and return around 7:30 p.m.

On March 13, the bus will leave the church at 5:30 a.m. and return around 7:30 p.m. No one is allowed to go skiing if they don't attend the fitting (YES rules).

• 8th Grade Boys Olympics A Success — There were 12 teams from 11 parishes made up of 150 seventh and eighth grade boys who took part in the annual Junior Olympics which St. Catherine's sponsors each year. Two teams represented Charlestown, finishing in 5th and 7th place. The sports competition featured basketball, volleyball, gym hockey, water basketball and a superstars contest (long jump, chin-ups, tug-o-war, relay and throwing contests).

Representing Charlestown and finishing in 5th place were: Brian Dole, Jack Kelly, Kenny Lewis, Jonathan Livingston, Francis MacDougall, Michael Machado (MVP), Dave O'Brien, Danny Noonan and Eddie Prince. They were coached by Bob DeCristoforo.

Finishing in 7th place were: Son Dinh, Kevin Golden, Paul Gould, Timmy Kane (MVP), Paul Hennessey, Danny MacMaster, Marc Russell and Mike Sweeney. They were coached by Jim Tallent.

We could never sponsor this day if it wasn't for the generosity of the following teen-agers who volunteered their day to referee: Michael Carroll, Gordon D'Ambrosio, Dave Evers, Peter Golden, Dave Hurley, Jim McIsaac, Greg Poole, Mike Santosuosso and Joe Tallent.

• Girls Softball League Being Formed For The Spring — A softball league for girls 8-12, the same as Little League age, is starting up in Charlestown. The league will run from early April, weather permitting, to early June. All games will be played in Charlestown at the high school field, and will be sponsored by St. Catherine's. The season will end in time for the girls who want to play CYO softball, which begins in early June.

This new league will be an in-house league and will provide girls a chance to learn the game at an early age. It fills in the gap between T-ball and CYO softball for girls who don't play Little League.

Registration will be held on Monday, March 14, and Wednesday, March 16 from 6-8 p.m. in St. Catherine's Hall.

nesday, March 16 from 6-8 p.m. in St. Catherine's Hall. All Charlestown girls from both public and parochial schools are welcome. Please bring a copy of your birth certificate if you have not turned it in yet. The registration fee is $15 per child which includes a team T-shirt and hat. Teams will be made up according to age and ability.

All registered players will have the opportunity to participate in a free softball clinic taught by high school coaches and college-level softball players. The clinic will teach the valuable skills of pitching, hitting and fielding.

Registration is extremely important if we want to begin playing in early April.

We will need coaches, depending on the number of teams we have. If interested, please call Mary Featherston or Father Coyne at 242-1750.

• All Nighter — Our next All Nighter, open to all teen-agers from both public and parochial schools, will begin on Friday, March 11 at 6 p.m. and conclude on Saturday morning, March 12 at 6 a.m. We will travel by bus throughout the night to various activities. The cost will be $20 per person, which includes admission to all events and transportation. Teen-agers 13-19 may sign up at St. Catherine's rectory, 49 Vine St., and leave $20 to guarantee a seat.

• CYO Cheerleading Contest — On Sunday, March 6, Charlestown will be represented once again in the annual CYO Cheerleading Contest at BC High School beginning at noon. Our girls have been practicing diligently to perform before hundreds of their fans and spectators. We encourage families and friends to support this wonderful activity by your presence.

• St. Catherine's Color Guards — We welcome back the three busloads of Charlestown residents who accompanied our two color guard squads to Montreal last weekend. They traveled to Canada to compete in the Regional Contest. Both of our guards performed well and were received with great response by the audience of thousands.

Our girls will be competing at Waltham High School on Saturday, March 12 beginning at 5 p.m., Saturday, March 19 at Braintree High School and once again before a hometown crowd on Sunday, March 20 beginning at 1 p.m. at Charlestown High School.

• MAH2O Sponsors CYO Fund Raiser — Many wonderful employees of the Mass. Water Resources Authority would like to let our young people know how much they support healthy activities sponsored by the CYO. Therefore, they are sponsoring the second MAH2O St. Patrick's Social in the Preble Room at the Navy Yard on Friday, March 18, from 6 to 10 p.m. Refreshments will be served, and a cash bar will be available. All Charlestown residents and friends are welcome.

from 6 to 10 p.m. Refreshments will be served, and a cash bar will be available. All Charlestown residents and friends are welcome.

• Boston Celtics Basketball Clinic — The Boston Celtics will hold a basketball clinic for children and teen-agers on Saturday, March 12, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Boston Garden. The CYO has 25 free tickets for the clinic and will offer them to Charlestown youngsters who are interested in picking up skills to improve their game.

Those who want to go must call Father Coyne at 242-1750 to register. We will meet on March 12 at 10:30 a.m. at St. Catherine's Rectory and walk over together to the Garden. We will return around 2:30 p.m.

• Sleepover — St. Catherine's held its third annual sleepover during February vacation. We didn't get much sleep, but we had a lot of fun — and this year the pizza was hot!! The third, fourth and fifth graders made crafts, decorated T-shirts and had their own Olympics.

Special thanks goes to the teen-agers and adults who planned the activities and gave up their night to provide a night of fun for the kids. Veterans Nicole DeRoeve, Dave Hurley and Greg Staples have survived their third consecutive year and should be given an award. The other all-nighters included: Rosetta Cannizzaro, Gordon D'Ambrosio, Kevin Golden, Eileen Rooney and Phyllis "Abby" Whalen.

And finally, we couldn't have done it without the "almost all-nighters:" Son Dinh, Nancy Flynn, Marianne Lacey, Lynn Peters and Fran Taylor.

See you next year!!

• Theater Trip — St. Catherine's adults are taking another trip to the theater to see the "Will Rogers Follies" at the Wang Center on Thursday, April 21. The seats are on the mezzanine level and are $45 per ticket. The show begins at 8 p.m. This is a great price for a great show. We have a limited number of tickets, so reserve yours today. Payment reserves a ticket and can be made at St. Catherine's Rectory, 49 Vine St. Transportation will not be provided.

• Charlestown Catholic News — The Mascot Contest deadline has been extended. Any member of the student body, faculty, staff or community is invited to submit a suggestion for Charlestown Catholic's mascot. Suggestions are due Tuesday, March 8 in the school office. It is asked that each suggestion be accompanied by a reason for the suggestion. The student council hopes to receive a lot of suggestions and generate spirit through this contest. The mascot chosen will be with the school forever. Please join us in this exciting and history-making event.

★ Parents Wanted . . . The state Department of Education is putting out a call to parents of children in public schools to serve on 15 new boards which will advise government policy leaders on crucial issues in education.

All 15 boards, which were authorized to be formed by the Education Reform Act enacted into law last summer, are open to parents. The boards include: early childhood education, life management skills and home economics, educational personnel, fine arts education, gifted and talented education, math and science education, racial imbalance, parent and community education and involvement, special education, bilingual education, technology education, vocational-technical education, global education, comprehensive health education and human service programs, and adult basic education.

Parents can apply to serve on any of the 15 boards by indicating their areas of interest and experience, and writing to: Robert V. Antonucci, commissioner, Department of Education, 350 Main St., Malden, Mass. 02148, Attention: Advisory Councils. Letters can also be faxed to the department at 388-3396, and are due by March 15.

★ Graffiti Conference . . . The city of Boston will host a graffiti conference from 6 to 8 p.m. on Thursday, March 10 at the Rabb Lecture Hall of the Boston Public Library, 666 Boylston St.

The conference, sponsored by the Boston Parks Department and the Boston Police Department, will feature a presentation and video footage by the MBTA Police identifying the extent and meaning of graffiti vandalism and how other major U.S. cities deal with the problem. Other city agencies will highlight the procedures, policies and reaction to graffiti on public property.

For more information, call the Boston Parks Department at 635-4505.

★ Street Reconstruction Update . . . Any questions, concerns or complaints are being handled by Community Liaison Peter Looney at 722-4300, ext. 5674.

The Luck Of The Irish

The Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main St., will host a St. Patrick's Day celebration on Wednesday, March 16 from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. There will be stories, games, crafts and surprises with an Irish theme. The wearin' o' the green is optional.

Suggested good books to read about St. Patrick's Day and Ireland include Jamie O'Rourke and the Big Potato: An Irish Folktale by Tomie DePaola, Mary McClean and the St. Patrick's Day Parade by Steven Kroll, Saint Patrick's Day by Dorothy Rhodes Freeman, and Tim

HAPPENINGS AT The Charlestown Working Theater

The CWT is pleased to announce Sharon Kennedy's "An American Storyteller in Ireland," which will open our season on Thursday, March 10 at 8 p.m. Kennedy traveled through Ireland collecting traditional tales from 25 traditional Irish storytellers, ranging from Clare to County Armagh in Northern Ireland. "An American Storyteller" presents the story of Ireland, the characteristics of the people, Kennedy's experiences and of course, the stories themselves.

Kennedy beautifully communicates the wide variety of her collected tales, ranging from bawdy pub jokes to the mystical legends of the selchies, or seal people. She will have live musical accompaniment on the Celtic Harp, played by Barbara Russell. Russell is well known throughout New England as the area's premier Celtic harpist. She has twice won first place at the Scottish Harp Festival at Loon Mountain and in May 1993 she appeared with the Chieftains at Symphony Hall.

Kennedy has been a professional storyteller for 12 years. She has performed at all the major Irish festivals, as well as the New England Folk Festival, to name but a few of her extensive credits. She has frequently been featured on television and radio. Additionally, she produced the Brookline Storytelling series "Stories After Dark" for six years.

Tickets for this performance are $12 general admission, $10 for Charlestown residents, seniors and students with an ID. Performances are March 10-12 and March 17-19, Thursday through Saturday. Additionally we will have a special matinee performance on Sunday, March 20 at 2 p.m. This performance is free for any interested senior citizen and will include a post-performance storytelling workshop. Transportation and light refreshment will be provided. Please call the theater for information and reservations.

Once again, we have one spot available for piano lessons. These lessons are free for children ages 7-18, and are taught by Steve Lantner. It is important that the potential student is reliable and punctual, so please consider the once-a-week, half-hour lesson seriously before registering. Also, we are anxious to begin our acting classes for children ages 11-14, so please call us if you are interested in more information about this class.

*****

For more information about any of our programs, please call us at 242-3285. See you at the theater!

Brown Bag Bookies To Meet

Brown Bag Bookies, the adult book discussion group of the Charlestown Branch Library, will meet on Tuesday, March 8 at noon at the library, 179 Main St.

The book under discussion will be The Object of My Affection by Stephen McCauley. Stephen Koch says: "Stephen McCauley has written a gentle, hilarious and healing story. They both may be young and scared, but his George and Nina dance with very special grace on society's precarious outer rim. The Object of My Affection is about love in unexpected places."

Participants are invited to bring their lunches, and new members are always welcome.

• TEEN CENTER NEWS

Just A Reminder — Aerobics is every Tuesday and Thursday from 6 to 7 p.m. . . . Arts & Crafts meets from 7 to 9 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursday . . . Smart Moves every Wednesday at 4 p.m. . . . and the Teen Education room is open from 4 to 9 p.m. on Tuesday through Thursday for tutoring, SAT prep, College Club, computers, etc.

For Girls Only — There will be a For Girls Only meeting on Monday, March 14, in the Teen Center at 5:30 p.m. The subject matter will be eating disorders and proper nutrition. All girls ages 13 and over are invited to attend.

11- and 12-Year-Olds — The Teen Center is now open afternoons from 3 to 6 p.m. for 11- and 12-year-olds. There will be tournaments, arts and crafts and other activities programmed for this time slot. All 11- and 12-year-olds are encouraged to come up and check out the Teen Center.

Smart Moves — There will be a third Smart Moves discussion group beginning on Wednesday, March 23. The group will meet each Wednesday at 4 p.m. for seven weeks. Smart Moves is a teen discussion group that does exercises dealing with adolescent issues. Interested teens can sign up with Danny.

Painting Job Well Done!!! — Last Wednesday, the Teen Center was closed for cleaning and painting. Fifteen teenagers volunteered their time to help clean and paint some rooms. The teens did a great job and enjoyed some pizza and "Beverly Hills 90210." Those who helped were: Erin McDonough, Pat Healey, Mike Upton, Ian Urquhart, Steve Linnane, P.J. Hansen, Mike O'Leary, Ben Burnett, Antonio "Beef" Donahue, D.J. O'Brien, Kim Weafer, Maryellen Wood, Diane Ferriera, Christine Locke and Courtney McLaughlin.

Leah Oliver-Vass — Last Thursday night, adolescent specialist Leah Oliver-Vass led a discussion and answered questions teens had about sexuality and dating. The evening was very informative and interesting.

Friday Night Club/"Schindler's List" — This Friday night, March 4, we will be taking any teens who are interested, to see the movie, "Schindler's List." This movie has been nominated for various awards, and we feel that it is very important to see. The cost will be $4, and the club will pay the rest. Please sign up with Danny by today, Thursday, March 3. The trip is limited to 20 teens.

• PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Skating With Bobby Orr — This past Saturday, seven lucky members of the club participated in a skate-around and autograph signing session with Bobby Orr. Tammy King, Mary Felix, Bobby Yandle, Paul Hollien, Freddie Arroyo, Stephen Wadman and Kerri Dole all had a wonderful time.

72nd Nate Hurwitz Tournament — It's March Madness once again as the 72nd Nate Hurwitz Basketball Tournament begins at the Boys & Girls Club. Some of the best basketball talent in the state will participate in the month-long tourney. Applications are being accepted now. The tournament begins March 15 and rosters are being accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. For more information, call the club and ask for Joe Fitz, Derek or John.

• EDUCATION / CULTURAL ENRICHMENT

— On Friday, March 4 from 6 to 7 p.m., our very own Mayor, Erin Sullivan, and our lovely Rose, Julie Treanor, will be on hand to speak about Ireland and Charlestown. Please be at the library at 6 p.m. sharp.

— On Thursday, March 10, there will be a bagpipe presentation in the library from 7 to 8 p.m. Come on up and learn how these beautifully sounding instruments work.

Children's Films

The Film Program for Children will be presented at the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main St. on Tuesday, March 8 at 10:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.

The features will be "Dog Watch," in which Pluto guards the ship while the crew goes ashore for leave; two ice ghosts make people cold during the winter in "Two Frosts;" and Naughty Max is sent to bed without his supper in "Where the Wild Things Are."

Hugo the Clown adopts a small, stray dog in "Cannonball," shown only at 3:30 p.m.

Suggested good books to read are Brrrr! by James Stevenson and Carl's Afternoon in the Park by Alexandra Day.

BOB D'S BEAT

by

Bob DeCristoforo

■ Olympic Gold . . . The torch is out, the games have ended, and a real great Olympics is now history. I enjoy watching the Winter Olympics. It is a time when the world comes together in a very special way. I have always had a goal of bringing people together, and the Olympics just boost my intensity in reaching that goal. This Olympic spirit is the real Olympic Gold.

■ Boys & Girls Club Workshop . . . With the above in mind, my congratulations to Danny Ryan on the recent workshop he hosted at the Teen Room and to all the youth workers and the Charlestown Youth Council on bringing together teens from all around Charlestown to attend. The workshop was a great success.

■ Wanted . . . One Magnavox Television and one Hitachi VCR returned to the Bunker Hill Teen Center.

■ World Cup '94 . . . Soccer enthusiasts should make note that on Saturday, March 5, there will be a volunteer rally at the Black Falcon Terminal, near the World Trade Center, for anyone interested in being a volunteer with World Cup USA when the games are played in this area. The rally hours are from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and to volunteer, you must be 18 years of age or older, a U.S. citizen, or a valid green card holder.

■ Bunker Hill Teen Center . . . The Bunker Hill Teen Center is undergoing an early spring clean-up, and we will be adding a few new programs in the very near future, in addition to our ongoing programs. It is also important to note that Sandra and I will be taking part in all-day staff training sessions on March 4, 8, 15 and 16. The training is provided by our BHA Community Initiative Department and by Healthy Charlestown.

Special thanks to Lenny Boutilier, who is supervising the clean-up project.

■ Pro Line . . . Winnipeg dropped three games this week, and their record has fallen to 17-40-7 (41 points). The Florida Panthers have slipped a bit, mustering up only one win, but Tommy Fitzgerald's squad goes into the week tied with Philadelphia and still in a playoff spot. The Panthers are 26-25-10 (62 points).

Out in Phoenix, we see that Jimmy Vesey's totals read 16 goals and 22 assists for a total of 38 points.

■ High School Notebook . . . Tournament Time, March Madness — no matter what you call it — has begun. Many of our local teams and high school heroes that have been highlighted here each week are involved. Congratulations, you have accomplished a goal you set way back in mid-December. I will have updates each week, but check the Boston Globe and Boston Herald each day to follow progress and schedules.

Tonight in girls basketball action, Shannon McLaughlin and St. Clement's will play Tyngsboro at Burlington High at 7:30 p.m., and on Saturday, March 5, in boys basketball action, Mike Chase and Pope John play Tyngsboro at Wilmington High at 6:15 p.m.

In the Boston City Championship semi-final, Ricky Evers' hat trick wasn't enough as South Boston ko'd the Townies 7-4. (In the championship game, South Boston was defeated by Latin Academy).

■ Cheerleading Competition . . . This Sunday afternoon, March 6, at BC High School, our great cheerleaders will take part in the annual CYO Cheerleading Competition which starts at noon. They have been working very hard under the direction of Sue Wrenn, and they would like a good Charlestown turnout in the stands. As a reminder, there is a charge at the door.

■ CYO Olympics . . . Charlestown was represented by two teams in the annual Boys CYO Olympics held at West Roxbury High School during school vacation week. It was a great event and it was good to see so many of our high school boys help out with the refereeing. Jimmy Tallent also made his CYO Olympics coaching debut. The CYO Olympics is hosted by St. Catherine's.

■ Tidbits . . .

- Hello to good friends Mark Russell and Pat Duncan.
- Colleen "Buc" Walsh has become a songwriter.
- Janice Casey and Shannon Casey will not be taking part in the next WWF event.
- Derek says "Hi" to Rachel B.
- Danny "Ducky" O'Brien is looking.
- Cancun countdown: 45 days!

Smile!

• Charlestown Youth Council Update — Thanks to the Boys & Girls Club teen director Dan Ryan for setting up last week's workshop with Leah Oliver. Over 35 teens from across the town took part in Thursday's discussion on teen sexuality. The council will be meeting this week to plan future events and to update its yearly calendar.

• Volleyball Playoffs — It's do or die time for our volleyball participants. Playoff games started Tuesday to decide this year's champion. This year's race for the crown is wide open since the two-time defending champs Butt Pirate squad took a year off to give other teams a chance. This year's odds-on favorite has to be the Mahoney Club who walked through the league untouched. Standing in their way are the talented squads of the Wrenn Club and Newtowne. This season has been so exciting that no one should be counted out. Playoff odds have been released and are as follows: Mahoney, 2-1; Wrenn Club, 4-1; Newtowne, 5-1; Cricket's Crusaders, 8-1; Gallagher Club, 8-1; Chaco's Curbside, 8-1; Horse-shoe Tavern, 20-1 and Thorton's Melons 100-1.

• Girls Ball Hockey — Girls ball hockey starts again this week after taking the vacation week off. Games will be played on both Wednesday and Thursday nights throughout March at the Kent Community Center. Games begin at 6 p.m. Parents and friends are encouraged to attend.

Townie Hockey Falls Short — Big Third Period Lifts Southie

by Sean Smyth

Charlestown High hockey coach John Morris must consider himself unlucky, or something very close to that.

Every year, the Townies seem to draw South Boston in the city tourney. And every year the story is the same — play hard, but lose again.

Although this game wasn't as emotional as other match-ups between the two schools, Southie's 7-4 victory over CHS on Thursday in the first round of the city championships at Matthews Arena certainly hurt.

Charlestown was led by freshman defenseman Ricky Evers, who notched a hat trick. Evers missed the first 10 games of the season with a broken leg.

"It's been a surprise," Morris said of Evers' play over the past five games. "He's only a freshman and he missed most of the season, we didn't expect him to step up like this."

Charlestown jumped out to a quick 1-0 lead on Evers' first goal at 1:44 of the first period. Evers scored another goal in the opening stanza, but those goals were countered by a pair of scores from South Boston's Dennis Hogan, tying the game at 2-2 after the first 15 minutes of play.

The second period started much as the first did, as Keith Wallace put the Townies ahead 3-2 at 3:53. South Boston soon returned the favor though, as Shawn Powers and Hogan gave the Knights a 4-3 advantage entering the final period.

Evers would tie the game with a slapshot at 5:39. That would be the last hurrah for Charlestown, as Southie scored three unanswered goals to secure the victory.

CHS goalie Chuck Kozlowski excelled in net, making 34 saves. The Townies will definitely need Kozlowski in top form if they want to advance in the state tourney.

The Townies, (9-5, 4-5 Boston North), will now look forward to the Division 3 state tourney, which is expected to start on Saturday, March 5.

Cablevision To Air City Championship

Cablevision Channel A21 will replay last Friday's city basketball championships today, Thursday, March 3, and tomorrow, Friday, March 4 at 3 p.m. The three-hour program will include the girls basketball title game, highlights from the hockey championship and the boys basketball title game.

Announcers are Brian Wallace, as the play-by-play voice, along with color analysts Alfreda Harris (girls) and Alan Pratt (boys) with Jack Pasquarelli providing reports on the hockey game from Matthews Arena.

MONEY MATTERS by Nicholas C. Pino

"Let us assist you in your financial planning"

CAN'T BEAT A SEP FOR SIMPLICITY

Simplified employee pension plans - SEPs - are similar to Individual Retirement Accounts, but they permit employer contributions much larger than the $2,000 limit on IRAs. Beginning in 1994, an employer can set aside as much as $22,500 annually per participant (prior to 1994, the maximum was $30,000) - including themselves - for retirement purposes. But the word just isn't getting out on SEPs. Although Congress authorized SEPs in 1978 expressly for small businesses, less than 10 percent of all small companies have adopted one.

If you don't like red tape, you'll love a SEP. To set up a SEP, all an employer must do is fill out IRS Form 5305-SEP. The form has just six blank spaces. No other reports or documents are required.

Each employee must establish an IRA at a local financial institution, but employers can set up an account for them. To discourage discrimination, any employee who is over age 21, has worked for the company a minimum of three years, and has earned a least $300 (subject to inflationary adjustments; for 1993 it's $385), must participate.

Once each year, the employer decides what percent of payroll - up to 15 percent - to place into each individual's SEP account. Although the same percentage must be used for everyone, the employer can change the percentage from year to year, even skipping years. When the first SEP deposit is made, the employer must mail each worker a copy of Form 5305-SEP, along with a statement of the contributions made. That's the only requirement. Talk about simplicity. The employer doesn't even have to send a copy to the IRS.

SEPs can also be used by self-employed individuals or independent contractors. Since you get to decide how much to contribute each year, SEPs can be an excellent way to stash away funds for retirement if your income has a tendency to fluctuate from year to year.

POLICE LINE

From the desk of Deputy Superintendent Robert E. Hayden Jr.
Area A, Boston Police Department

Tuesday, Feb. 22

An attempt was made to break into a warehouse on Terminal Street by breaking a window. No entry was gained.

Wednesday, Feb. 23

At 1 a.m., officers responded to an alarm at Building 96 in the Charlestown Navy Yard where someone had smashed a window and fled with a computer terminal.

At 1:40 p.m., Officers Tyler and Witherspoon observed an automobile being driven at a high rate of speed on Medford Street where it struck several parked automobiles. It then hit a tree and the four occupants jumped out and began to flee on foot. One of the occupants, a 14-year-old resident, was apprehended after a brief chase. Two of the other occupants were identified and warrants were sought for their arrest.

During the evening, an automobile parked on Salem Street was broken into.

Thursday, Feb. 24

The restaurant at 10 City Square was broken into by a man who fled the scene after being confronted by the cleaning crew.

Friday, Feb. 25

A stolen automobile was recovered on Pearl Street.

During the day, an attempt was made to steal an automobile that was parked on High Street.

An automobile parked on Bunker Hill Street was broken into during the evening.

Saturday, Feb. 26

A resident of 58 Medford St. reported that during the early morning, someone shot a bullet through the front door.

Sunday, Feb. 27

An apartment at 130 Old Ironside Way was broken into during the evening, and a pocketbook and jewelry were stolen.

Monday, Feb. 28

At 6 p.m., officers responded to an apartment on Old Ironside Way on a family dispute where a 29-year-old resident was subsequently placed under arrest under the 209A family abuse law.

For additional information regarding arrested individuals, contact Community Service Officer
Joe McNulty at 343-4627.

- If you know of any drug activity in your neighborhood, call the Area A Detectives office at 343-4571. It is not necessary to give your name, and all information will be investigated.

- Residents are reminded that if you purchase alcohol from a local liquor store for someone under age, you are subject to arrest.

- There is strict enforcement of the Public Drinking laws in cooperation with the Charlestown District Court where fines will be levied against anyone found guilty.

My Thanks

Dear Gloria:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who came to my Mardi Gras dance on Feb. 18.

I greatly appreciate all the support that has been shown to me during my campaign for Mayor of Charlestown.

Sincerely,
Jim Mansfield

Farewell From Mayor Erin Sullivan

As you all know, my reign as "Mayor" will be coming to an end shortly. I would like to take this opportunity to say that it has been an exciting year, and even though my mayorship is ending, my wonderful memories will last forever.

I would also like to wish all four candidates in the the present race the best of luck in the upcoming election.

Gratefully,
Mayor Erin A. Sullivan

Thanks For Your Support

I would like to thank my fellow "Townies" for their support at my recent fund raiser. The event was a great success, and a good time was had by all.

I would also like to thank my family and friends for helping to set up the hall, and a special thanks to Jimmy MacDougal who was the DJ.

Be sure to keep a lookout for my next function.

Sincerely,
Joseph Fitzgerald
Candidate for Mayor of Charlestown

HEALTH UPDATE

The Massachusetts General Hospital
BUNKER HILL HEALTH CENTER
73 High St., Charlestown
242-5704

March is National Nutrition Month and the MGH Bunker Hill Health Center is helping to promote healthy eating for the young and old. A balanced and healthy diet is important for prevention of chronic disease and overall fitness in adults, and helps support normal growth in children. Everyone should strive toward good nutrition to help them look and feel more fit.

The Charlestown/Chelsea WIC program and the MGH dietary department are offering a Supermarket Tour to help WIC participants learn how to get the most from their WIC dollar. Those who sign up will be toured around Johnnie's Foodmaster in Charlestown and shown which are the cheapest and most nutritious foods they can buy using WIC checks. Cookbooks and other free gifts will be given out. The tours will be held on Wednesday, March 9 at 2 p.m. and Wednesday, March 23 at 10 a.m. Any WIC participant should sign up by calling 242-5740.

Nutrition information and recipes are available at the National Nutrition Month display in the BHHC lobby. If you have a healthy recipe you would like to share with others, drop it off in the nutrition office to be analyzed. Nutrition counseling and personal diet planning can be arranged by calling 242-5710.

Any woman who is pregnant, or who has an infant or child under the age of 5, can obtain information on the Supplemental Food Program for Women, Infants and Children (WIC) by calling 242-5740. WIC provides free nutritional counseling and nutritious foods to those who are financially eligible.

PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN

(never known to fail)
O most beautiful flower of Mount Carmel, fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. O Star of the Sea, help me and show me here you are my mother. O Holy Mary, Mother Of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to secure me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary conceived without sin pray for us who have recoured to thee (3 times). Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Say this prayer for 3 consecutive days and then you must publish it and it will be granted to you.

Put Your Old Eyeglasses To Good Use

The Charlestown Lions Club recycled over 1,500 pairs of used eyeglasses in 1993, making it possible for many who could not afford to buy eyeglasses to obtain them.

If you have any discarded or unneeded eyeglasses or sunglasses and would like to put them to good use, please give them to a local Lions Club member, drop them off at the Patriot office at One Thompson Square, or call Bud Coleman at 242-2063.

NOMINATIONS SOUGHT FOR FOURTH ANNUAL COMMUNITY AWARDS RECIPIENTS

The Charlestown Community Appreciation Awards Committee, sponsored by the Charlestown Neighborhood Council, will hold its fourth annual Community Appreciation Awards Banquet on Saturday, April 23 at the Knights of Columbus hall. After a very successful event last year, the committee is hoping that the community will once again respond to a call for nominations in the seven award categories.

The purpose of the awards ceremony is to recognize those who have helped enrich the quality of life in Charlestown, but have done so in such an unassuming manner that their deeds have gone unheralded and, in most cases, unknown to the general population. Seven award categories have been established to encompass all aspects of the community. Residents, non-residents, businesspersons and employees are urged to take the time to nominate a person, business or organization deserving of recognition.

Persons, businesses and organizations that have previously received recognition for their deeds and members of the committee and the Neighborhood Council are not eligible to receive an award.

Award recipients will be chosen by the committee from nominations received from the community. Persons who sent nominations in the past are requested to resubmit their choices for these awards. If potential recipients would be eligible for consideration in more than one category, submit an entry for each award. The number of entries received does not make that candidate more eligible for consideration. Rather, the quality and description of the good deeds performed, enhances chances of being selected.

AWARD CATEGORIES

- Youth — A Charlestown resident who is 18 years of age or younger as of Jan. 1, 1994 whose deeds have gone unheralded.
- Elderly — A Charlestown resident who is 55 years of age or older by Jan. 1, 1994 whose deeds have gone unheralded.
- Organization — An incorporated non-profit, Charlestown-based group that primarily serves Charlestown and whose goals are geared toward the betterment of the community.
- Business — A Charlestown-based business that supports and enhances the quality of life in the Charlestown community.
- Public Servant — A person who performs service within his/her job capacity, but goes beyond that job description in service to the betterment of the Charlestown community. (Example: an employee of the federal, state, county, city or an authority/government agency or community agency who may or may not be a resident of Charlestown.)
- New Resident — A person who has taken up residency in Charlestown within the last 10 years and whose deeds have contributed to the quality of Charlestown life.
- Unsung Hero — A Charlestown resident whose deed/deeds were performed within the community and have gone publicly unheralded. These deeds cannot be performed as part of his/her job performance. There is no age restriction for this recipient. The deed/deeds would result in the enhancement of the quality of life in Charlestown.

All nominations should be sent to:

Community Appreciation Awards Committee
P.O. Box 316
Charlestown, Mass. 02129

Deadline for the submission of nominations is Friday, March 25 at 5 p.m. All nominations must be signed and include a telephone number for confirmation purposes.
