UHURU FLEA MARKET RESERVES THE RIGHT TO EXCLUDE ANY FOOD VENDOR THAT DOES NOT COMPLY WITH THESE POLICIES:

1. CHECK-IN ALL FOOD VENDORS MUST CHECK-IN BY 9 AM AT LATEST at the REGISTRATION BOOTH. You must unload into your space by 9:30 am. Have helpers and a dolly to unload your vehicle quickly. Food Vendors provide their own tables, tents and displays.

2. SPACE ASSIGNMENTS Space assignment will be given at the registration check-in booth and volunteers will assist everyone in locating their space. *Note: No generators are allowed.

3. ABSOLUTELY NO DRIVING IN THE PARK, penalties $50.00 plus damages. (Parks and Recreation Dept).

4. UNLOADING - Flea Market coordinators put up No Parking signs for vendors to use to unload on Chester Ave, 43rd St. between Chester & Regent, and Baltimore Ave. It is on a first-come, first-serve basis. We ask vendors to use these spaces to UNLOAD ONLY. Please unload all your items onto the sidewalk rapidly and then go park your car, before setting up your space, so other vendors can come and unload. There is NO double-parking on Chester Ave due to trolleys.

5. GENERAL CLEAN UP Food Vendors are required to leave their spaces clean in order to continue vending at this flea market. Do not leave charcoal anywhere in the park including trash can or in a parking space. You could bring a metal can(s) and take it with you. It is a park, please pack out all empty boxes, bags, leftover food. It is important that we leave the park neat and clean so we can return.

6. RAIN DATES are Sunday, the following day. (Please bring a tarps/plastic for a possible light rain)

Call the Uhuru Flea Market voice mail at 267-875-3532 after 5 am on the scheduled morning of the flea market to find out if a rain date has been called. We make the decision at that time.
