

Blackhat Method

Fast Cash!

New Method

Hello and thankyou for purchasing this report on a brand new Blackhat Method that has worked really well for me. Now I know you probably have heard of lots of Blackhat methods and read a dozen reports but this method that I am about to share is in fact very creative and involves just 15 minutes of your time.

Anyway, let me get into this method.

Like all Blackhat methods the first thing you should understand is that this method involves CPA Affiliate marketing.

(CPA stands for Cost Per Action, and it usually means huge companies pay you lead if you can direct people to fill an offer).

CPA is one of the most easiest ways to make money on the Internet and more and more people are easily making up to $100 a day with CPA. It just involves a bit of creative thinking..

Anyway, now you know what CPA means you will now need to be a member of some Affiliate Networks. The one's I recommend are..

Neverblue Ads

Incenta Click

<http://www.maxbounty.com/>

Clickbooth

There are lots other ones out there. Just join a few companies and once you are approved you are ready to carry out this method. It is not really difficult to get approved.

The only investment this method involves is that you buy a domain name and have your own host. Other than that there is no real cost.

Anyway, assuming you have signed up and have been approved or are a member of an Affiliate Network let me now go into the method.

The Method

I recently tried this method and made $200 in a single day with just 15-20 minutes of work. It is really easy. The method basically involves posting something at a popular forum (in the freebie section) and then directing people to fill out your CPA offers using my method.

Before you scratch your head and start worrying – do not worry. This method does NOT involve spamming. In fact on this forum people are giving away free stuff everyday on a daily basis. So let me know take you to this forum.

The forum is called SlickDeals and has a PR of 5.

In fact let me take you to the Alexa ranking of this website.

As you can see this as an Alexa ranking of just over 800 which means this website is getting thousands and thousands of visitors on a daily basis and it is the 800th most popular website on the entire Internet..

This forum is a place where people are either looking for bargains or want to buy something on a good deal. This forum also has just over 429,000 members and at the time of writing this report the forum has just over 100,000 active members!!!!

That means over 100,000 people are looking for a bargain or something to buy on this forum....now that's potential!

As you can see there are different kinds of survey offers. Some people are actually giving away money, i.e. as low as $1.00 or an incentive for a simple survey submission. Therefore, what you can do is log on to your affiliate network account and look for any survey companies that are paying good money. Once you have found one then you can put up an ad or create a thread on this section like the one shown.

Here is an example of someone paying someone $5.00 to fill in a survey. Now you do not have to pay as much as $5.00. Sometimes people can be happy to fill offers for as low as $1.00 (as I will show you later on).

<http://forums.slickdeals.net/showthread.php?sduid=0&t=944642>

$5 (via paypal) for online survey

Dear Potential Participant,

Thank you for considering participating in this research study. To participate in this study you must be at least 18-years old. You can only participate once.

You have certain rights as a research participant, which include the right to be aware of what participation will entail, and the right to refuse to participate, at any time, without penalty.

The study will involve answering questions about your attitudes and beliefs. In addition to questions, you will be asked to reflect about certain situations.

Participation is voluntary and your time will be compensated with a $5 payment. The time commitment required will be approximately 10-15 minutes. In addition, at the conclusion of the study you will have the opportunity to learn more about the study.

All data will be kept completely anonymous and confidential. This consent form is the only record of your name, and it will be kept separate from any data collected.

http://www.surveymonkey.com/s.asp..S1pw_3d_3d

Here is an example of a thread where a person is paying $5.00 for someone who fills a simple survey. Imagine if you had a CPA survey offer that paid $20.00 and you could pay people as low as $2.00 to someone to fill the offer.

Now you have to be careful with “incentive” traffic as you are not really allowed to give incentives to people but the best way to avoid this is to buy a generic domain name for example, surveyoffer4u.info and just redirect your affiliate link to the domain name.

However, with this method there is another way you can make money and this is not through survey offers. Sometimes, you can bribe or “excite” people with incentives and ask them to fill short offers for you.

For example, under the Slickdeals forum there is also a FREEBIE section and it is this section where you can easily make $100-$400 a day!

Let me take you to a thread where a guy has an affiliate link and is actually getting people to fill the offers for him!

Here is the thread

Affiliate Link

Free Game from BigFishGames and Hallmark
<https://store.bigfishgames.com/bi...0d2916e898>

Special offer exclusively for Hallmark.com e-card customers:
One Free Game from a selection of four: Mahjong Towers Eternity, Big Fish Games Sudoku, Mystic Inn, MCF: Huntsville-Detective Training.

A red arrow points from the 'Affiliate Link' box to the URL in the post content.

As you can see in this example this guy is giving a “Free Game”. Well he is not actually giving away a free game since what he is doing is simply directing people to his CPA offer (affiliate link) and getting them to download the game when they receive the email after activating their account.

People love FREE stuff on the Internet and therefore, things like this will excite them because there is a market for everything.

Let me show you another example of what someone else is doing. This is an example of someone being creative and its so exciting that when I tried it myself I had to kick myself and I had lots of juicy ideas spinning inside my head.

First of all here is the link for the thread.

The screenshot shows a forum post header for a user named 'Rcommander'. The user's profile information includes: 'L3: Novice', a progress bar, 'Posts: 148, Reputation: 173', and 'Member Since: May 2008'. The post title is 'FREE $100 Facebook Advertising Credit'. The main text of the post reads: 'Go to your facebook profile, Look for the VISA business ad. IF you don't see it, either rate the ads so they change or simply refresh it.' Below this, there is a line of text: 'Join the Visa Business Network. Get business advice and a $100 Facebook Ad Credit emailed to you.'

As you can see the title of this thread is FREE $100 Facebook Advertising Credit

The thread was created on 20th December 2008 and already it has had over 2343 views.

What this guy is saying is simply telling people to go to their Facebook profile and refresh their browser until they see a VISA Credit information ad. He is telling people to fill in the “CPA Offer” and then they get their reward. However, this guy is leaving a lot of money on the table.

Instead of telling people to go to the link he could have simply bought a generic domain name such as freeadwordscredit.info and then direct people to the affiliate CPA offer. I tried something similar myself and made a cool $200 in just less than an hour!

What I simply did was offer people something free. For example, my supermarket in ASDA sells small teddy toys for 50 cents. I offered to give 20 of these to 20 people who would in turn help complete a CPA offer for me. Now let's do the maths here.

My CPA offer would pay $18.00 for anyone who signs up to receive a free credit report.

So if I had 20 people sign up then that is $360!

And those little 50 cent teddys that I buy from my supermarket would cost me in total $10.00 – yep just 10 bucks!

On top of that postage costs would come to about $8.00 so in turn I am spending just less than $20 and I am still making $360!

If you give people of something tangible then they would sign up and be more motivated and willing to complete your CPA offer.

There are lots of other threads you can create. Here are some popular CPA offers you can use for the threads.

Thread Title – FREE Unique Fun Screensavers

As you can see here this is a CPA offer from Neverblue ads. And this is the perfect offer for people who browser SLICKDEALS forum because people on that forum love free trails and offers like this. This offer pays a whopping $11.25.

If you manage to direct 10 people to this offer you can make just over $112 in a day.

An example of a thread for this type of offer would be like the one shown below.

Print Your Own Postage – FREE TRIAL 30 DAYS!

*Hi guys. This is a great offer which gives you free 30 day trial to print your own postage. There are no hidden commitments and the sign up process is really easy. Here is the [[Your domain redirect affiliate link]].*

Now for an offer like this I would buy a domain such as “FREETRIALPOSTAGE.com or .info if it is available. To save money I usually buy .info domain names since they cost around 99 cents these days.. Do you see how powerful this forum is? People are literally creating threads on almost anything...

For example, free water bottles, free xmas card samples, free perfume samples etc.

There are lots of ways to work your way around this. One of the best ways is that if you are targeting UK or US users then you can have an offer such as ...

FREE Downloadable recipe e book (give away a free PLR rights e book) and get them to fill a simple CPA offer.

Then you can have something like...

UK Users (CLICK HERE)

USA Users (CLICK HERE)

The offer would direct the relevant audience to the offer.

Other free offers that would work well with this method would be...

FREE E-books

FREE Recipes (people on this site love all kinds of things and women would love things like this)

FREE Cell Phone Sim cards

Free Shopping Codes to save money

FREE water bottle

FREE Sample of perfume

I think you can use your own creativity here. Remember think about your audience and ask yourself “what kind of free product you can give to your audience that will entice them to complete your CPA offer”?

As you can see on Slickdeals there are all kinds of free offers for the FREEBIE SEEKER marketplace. From heading aids to Free Email alerts! The market will never be saturated with your offer. This is why you need to keep your offer realistic and avoid things like “Free MP3 Player music” unless you own the copyrights to it...

You should understand that the great thing about the SLICKDEALS Freebie marketplace is that there are people from all walks of life who are browsing the marketplace and different people like different things. People have different interests.

For example, if young women are browsing the marketplace then they are most likely to be interested in make up products. Now there are a ton of make up CPA offers which require just an email address!

Sometimes people love FREE trials and therefore, SLICKDEALS is a great marketplace for such offers. Sometimes people will be happy to pay postage and packing for a free trial.

Take this example.

CX Digital Media (Incenta Click) have a CPA offer for US traffic only that pays just over $26.00 for a simple 1 page form that a person fills in for a :-

Acai Berry Power 500 Red - Free Trial!

This product helps people lose weight as outlined in its description.

Campaign Description: The hottest new cleanse diet to hit the market is the Acai Berry cleanse! The Acai Berry is considered a "super food" for its nutritional content and its ability to help flush unwanted toxins and pounds. Make money promoting Pure Acai Berry; this offer is for a free trial sale (free bottle, just pay $4.95 S&H).

Now all the user has to do is to order this free trial and only pay for the postage.

Here is the landing page for this offer. Please note this is for US customers only. If you are based in the UK like me and wish to see this offer then use a proxy site called HIDE MY ASS – <http://www.hidemyass.com> to view the US offer.

securityMETRICS Credit Card SAFE

Now as you can see above on the landing page the user has to enter their mailing address and then their credit card information for their RISK FREE TRIAL. Many people who are on the SLICKDEALS website are normal FREEBIE seekers and therefore, will not be aware of affiliate offers like this so therefore it is up to you to direct their eyeballs to this offer. So let's do the maths here.

If 5 people signed up to this offer then you would make $130..

If you had 10 people signed up to this you would making a cool $260..

Now do you see how powerful this method is?

There is always a market for everything on the Internet and people who need a solution to their problem will be happy to pay for postage for a RISK FREE TRIAL product If it can help them eliminate their problem.

Or you can use this strategy yourself by giving away something intangible. For example, a free cheap keyring in exchange for a person's email address. This way you can create a huge list of freebie seekers who would be willing to complete ANY CPA offers of yours in future.

For example, if you take a look at this thread you will see a Watch company used a similar strategy where they were giving away a FREE keyring in exchange for people signing up to their newsletter.

Use your own creative idea here. You can either take this method one step further and buy cheap tangible items from Ebay for as little as 10 cents or 50 cents and then agree to give them away on this website..

Buying a generic Domain name for your CPA Offer

Now I am going to be honest here. Affiliate companies do not really condone the use of incentive traffic and therefore are always looking at ways to crack down on those who do. However, this is where you have to be careful. Instead you can protect yourself by buying a generic domain for your CPA offer.

For example, going back to our FREE TRIAL example then I would have bought a domain name such as FREEHEALTHTRIAL.info (which is available) at the time of writing this report.

.info domain names are cheap and you can buy them as low as 99 cents from Godaddy.

Once you have bought a generic domain name then just redirect your affiliate link to your domain name. So rather than sending people to your long-tailed affiliate link just send them to your domain name.

It is that easy – you can create a thread on almost anything and people “rep” you if they like the offer. These people are ready to fill in your CPA offer if you can give them something for free of VALUE and that is what you need to always think when creating the thread.

The Forward Email Method

The last method that I want to talk about is simply might be considered “spamming” by some but it has worked and has worked with good results.

Do you remember those quirky, funny emails that you often receive in your email inbox? You know those “forwarded emails”. Let me show you an example. The other day I was checking my “personal MSN account” for friends and family when I received this email.

Now this is part of the email I received. Anyway, these emails are forward emails that ask you to either take action or pass something on to the next person on your contact list.

When I received this email I noticed some ads at the bottom of the email.

this to everyone on your list. I like
You because of whom you are to me.
I treat you as a true friend. But if I don't get this back, I get the hint, you don't have time.

What if my CPA ads were on there?

Take a look below.

~~This is not a joke...apparently...copy~~ and paste this to 15 people in the next 10 minutes and you will have one of the best days of your life Tomorrow.

The screenshot shows the footer of an email with four promotional lines, each separated by a horizontal line. Handwritten black arrows point to the first and third lines. The first line reads: "Want To Receive A Free Iphone? Click HERE To Try It". The second line reads: "FREE GHD Hair Straightners JUST FILL A SIMPLE FORM". The third line reads: "FREE RINGTONES - CLICK HERE FOR MORE INFO". The fourth line reads: "Great search results, great prizes. BigSnapSearch.com Search now".

As you can see I have changed the ads to CPA ads. For example, want to receive a FREE Iphone? Etc.

What I usually do is take the existing email and edit it, with my own little funny email or whatever it is. You might even start a bit of controversy.

For example,

Here is an email to show your support for our troops in Iraq. Please if you have 5 minutes of your time then fill this short survey to show your support. You can use your own creativity here. The possibilities are endless.

I hope you enjoyed reading this report and I hope you try out the methods for yourself to see how powerful they are.

My favourite method is the Slick Deals one because you have potentially thousands of people who are willing to fill your CPA offer for you for some sort of incentive.

I love CPA and it is the easiest way to make fast cash.

Good Luck!
