

Do you know what is the national dress of Pakistan?

The answer is shalwar kameez. This is ancient dress which is still in action amongst the Pakistani people. There are other Pakistani dresses which are widely used all over the Pakistan.

These dresses are kurta suit, sherwani, churidar pajama, dhoti, turban, waistcoat, lehnga, farak and the famous foot wear are khusa, chapel and kheeri.

Shalwar kameez is consisting on two parts. One is kameez and second one is shalwar. Kameez wear on upper part of the body whereas shalwar on the lower body part. This dress is loose type both shalwar and kameez.

This Pakistani dress wear both male and female. Almost skinny dress of this dress wear by women but boys still like to wear loose shalwar kameez.

Latest Pakistani dresses of Shalwar kameez are available in every garments stores. Nowadays people order online for their outfit mostly. It is easy for them and time saving habit. It is also good for business community to enhance their chances of profit. With the passage of time it got beautiful designs. Thread work on kameez increase the beauty of this Pakistani National dress.

Kurta suit is same as shalwar kameez. A little bit different from style and some work on it. Kurta suit wear on different ceremonies and occasions. While shalwar kameez is a casual dress in Pakistan.

Shalwar kameez is common use because this is one of the relax Pakistani dresses then others. It easy to wear and feeling relax.