Charlestown . . . Is Becoming A Trash Town!

Throughout the summer and continuing into this fall, complaints have been coming in to Judy Evers, regional coordinator for the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services, and to the Patriot office about trash left at the curbside well in advance of the scheduled pickup. This practice attracts animals and those persons who poke through the bags and the result is smelly, unhealthy and unsightly trash piles. Also, this trash becomes a site where others, residents and commuters, add to the pile.

Newcomers to a neighborhood have the responsibility of finding out when trash collection is in their area. It's not too difficult . . . ask your neighbor, or maybe your realtor, or our liaison at City Hall, Judy Evers at 635-3485.

Now, believe it or not, there are residential and commercial trash regulations . . . and it might be wise to review them.

Residential Trash Regulations

- Refuse containers shall not be placed out before 5 p.m. on the evening before the day of scheduled collection. They must be returned to their normal place of storage as soon as possible, and no later than 12 hours after collection

- There must be sufficient barrels with lids for storing all refuse generated in the building. They shall be of metal or durable plastic material. Disposable plastic bags may be used instead of barrels, but they must be securely tied.

- Rubbish cannot be placed out in cartons or paper bags.

- Small-size wood and brush clippings shall be securely tied in bundles not exceeding 30 inches in any diameter.

- No building or construction materials shall be put out for collection.

CNC Members And Residents Have Unanswered Questions On Auto Facility

Members of the Charlestown Neighborhood Council (CNC) and community residents, many from the Medford Street area, met at Bishop Lawton Hall at St. Francis de Sales on Oct. 6 as representatives of Massport and Boston Autoport met on the new automobile import facility ready to occupy the Moran Terminal on Medford Street.

The appearance of the summary of an Environmental Notification Form (ENF) in the Sept. 23 edition of The Environmental Monitor, published by the state's Office of Environmental Affairs, gave notice that the ENF was available for public review with comments due back to the state by Oct. 14.

This notice was the first alert that many residents had that the automobile import facility's arrival at Charlestown's Moran Container Terminal and Mystic Pier as a tenant of Massport, was ready to come off the drawing board and become a reality. The ENF gave a construction start of fall/winter 1997 with an estimated completion in the spring of 1998. The cost of the project was estimated at $2.7 million.

Peter Looney, chairman of the CNC, asked that representatives of Massport and Boston Autoport attend a previously scheduled CNC meeting this past Monday that was called for an update on the former Nancy Sales building at the corner of Medford and Terminal streets. (Note: The developers of the building and Massport are working on an agreement and they will get back to the CNC in a month.)

The CNC wanted information on the auto import facility and its impact on Charlestown. Looney said the members had a copy of the ENF and the traffic study conducted by Massport, mailed to them during the past week and little other information. At the

21-Day Countdown To Honor 'Old Ironsides'

Twenty-one days of activities to celebrate the 200th birthday of USS Constitution continues at the USS Constitution Museum in the Charlestown Navy Yard.

The museum is continuing its Gift to America program through October where free admission is provided to all visitors. The Gift to America program is the museum's thank you to Americans for the enthusiasm and devotion they have shown USS Constitution on her 200th birthday and for their support of the museum over the past 25 years.

Among the events will be:

• Friday, Oct. 10

Between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m., there will be Sea Chantey singing in the museum's galleries performed by Daisy Nell, a published songwriter and recording artist.

• Saturday, Oct. 11

Family Fun Day will take place between 10 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. The museum will kick-off its Kid's Club at 10 a.m. and there will be a History Mystery and the Constitution Scavenger Hunt at the museum between 10 a.m. and noon. It will be matinee time from noon to 3:30 p.m. with "Moby Dick" at noon and "Mutiny on the Bounty" at 2 p.m. Although the space is limited, the popcorn is free!

• Sunday, Oct. 12

Family Fun Day will feature "True Tales of USS Constitution" with performances at 11:30 p.m., 12:30, 1:30 and 2:30 p.m. Meet the heroes and heroines of "Old Ironsides" past as they tell their stories with equal parts of history and hilarity. Also on Sunday, you may have your photo taken with the heroes and heroines of Constitution's past at noon, 1, 2 and 3 p.m. The cost is $2 per photo and there is a limit of two photos per family.

• Monday, Oct. 13

Family Fun Day will feature "True Tales of USS Constitution" with performances at 11:30 p.m., 12:30, 1:30 and 2:30 p.m. Meet the heroes and heroines of "Old Ironsides" past as they tell their stories with equal parts of history and hilarity.

• Tuesday, Oct. 14

Meet an 1812 Marine as Captain Bill Moss of the 1797 Marine Detachment dressed in his period uniform, interprets uniforms, weapons and the history of the early Marines between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m.

• Wednesday, Oct. 15

Join a Navy Yard Walking Tour starting at the museum at 2 p.m. Boston National Historical Park Rangers will lead you through the Charlestown Navy Yard.

• Thursday, Oct. 16

"Treasures from the Vault," led by the museum's Associate Curator Margherita Desy and Curator Assistant Sarah Watkins, will be presented from noon to 1 p.m. There will be a special viewing of artifacts that are not currently on display. Reservations are required since space is limited to 25 participants. Call 426-1812 ext. 126 to hold your space.

• Friday, Oct. 17

Between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m., there will be Sea Chantey singing in the museum's galleries performed by Daisy Nell, a published songwriter and recording artist.

Details on upcoming events will be featured in next week's Patriot.

The museum is open daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. For further information, call 426-1812.

Friends Of Charlestown Catholic To Host 'Salute To USS Constitution'

The Friends of Charlestown Catholic Elementary School are sponsoring "An Evening at the USS Constitution Museum" in the Charlestown Navy Yard on Thursday, Oct. 23 from 7 to 10 p.m. This gala cocktail party will include a tour of the museum, refreshments and entertainment.

Tickets for this fund raiser are $40 and are available from the Ticket Co-chairs Joan Rae and Peggy Hoban; Tom Celata, Anne Kelly, Tom McNicholas, Marty O'Brien, Mary Rizzo, Jack Whelan and other members of the committee; at the three rectories; and from the ushers at St. Francis de Sales Church.

Come and join in the festivities to celebrate the 200th Birthday of the USS Constitution, meet old friends from the Homecoming last October, make new friends and also support the inter-parish school - Charlestown Catholic. This will surely prove to be an exciting and most memorable evening.

HANDLING THE SURPRISES!

Between the initial meeting of the minds and the final meeting at the settlement table, most real estate transactions encounter at least some breakdowns - often major ones. This is where having a professional handle the sale of your home makes a big difference.

Real estate professionals don't view breakdowns as problems, but as challenges to be met. Many are predictable, and by anticipating them we can minimize their consequences. We can draw on our own experience and that of our colleagues to ensure that, whatever happens, the buyers and sellers wind up with a successful settlement. When disputes arise, we use our expertise to create Win-Win situations. This approach to listing and selling real estate is what makes a difference to our buyers and sellers. We go the extra mile to make sure the countless details are handled and to keep our buyers and sellers informed about each aspect of their transaction.

If there's a move in your future, the real estate professionals at Monument Properties are ready to serve you. Please call us at 241-5900 or stop by our offices at 85 Warren St., Charlestown.

Entrance Exam For Boston's Public Exam Schools On November 15

The entrance exam for Boston's exam schools, Boston Latin School, Boston Latin Academy and the John D. O'Bryant School of Mathematics and Science, will take place on Saturday, Nov. 15 at 9 a.m. The Boston Public Schools will offer the exam, known as the Independent School Entrance Examination (ISEE), at 12 sites across the city.

Boston residents currently in grades 6, 8 or 9

(O'Bryant only) who are interested in taking the exam may obtain application materials from their school principals. Applications are also available at neighborhood branches of the Boston Public Library, at the Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston, and at the Boston Public Schools' Parent Information Centers. The exam is free to Boston residents.

Boston's three public exam schools offer four-and six-year college preparatory programs. Boston Latin School is on Avenue Louis Pasteur, near Children's Hospital. Boston Latin Academy is at 205 Townsend St. in Roxbury. The O'Bryant School is in the Madison Park Complex on New Dudley Street in Roxbury. All three schools are accessible by the MBTA.

Approximately 4,300 public and private school students compete annually for some 900 seats at the seventh grade level at the three schools, 180 seats at the ninth grade level at Latin Academy and Latin School, and 600 to 700 seats at the O'Bryant.

For further information, residents may call the External Liaison Unit at the Boston Public Schools at 635-9514 or 635-9512.

Fall Quilting Bee For Preschoolers

The Boston Parks and Recreation Department will sponsor an old-fashioned fall quilting bee for tots and their caregivers at the John Harvard Mall, Main Street, on Thursday, Oct. 16 from 10 a.m. to noon.

Each participant will be able to make his or her own square of the quilt. The pieces will be sewn together to form one quilt. This program is part of Mayor Thomas M. Menino's new ParkARTS initiative to increase arts programming throughout the Boston park system.

All materials will be provided and the program is free for children ages 6 and under and their caregivers. For more information, call 635-4505.

Public Safety Committee Meeting
Police Department will be present.

Basic Services Committee Meeting
Chairman Bill Galvin has called an information meeting by the Basic Services Committee at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 14 at the Golden Age Center, 382 Main St.

The proposed off-street parking at 36 Auburn Street/2 Auburn Square will be the topic of discussion. Frank O'Brien from the city's Public Works Department will be present to answer questions from residents.

CNC Precinct Election

Seven delegates, representing the seven Charlestown precincts, will be elected on Nov. 8 joining the seven at-large and the seven appointed delegates to make up the 21-member council.

Chairing this year's election are council members Edna Kelly and Bill McCabe. The election will be held between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 8 at the K. of C. Hall, 75 West School St.

Nomination papers are available at the Charlestown Patriot office, One Thompson Square, and at the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main St. Rules governing the completion of the nomination papers are on the form, which requires 25 signatures from residents in the precinct in which the candidate resides.

The deadline for submission of completed nomination papers is 5 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 24. They may be returned in person to the Patriot office or mailed to the Charlestown Neighborhood Council, P.O. Box 397, Charlestown, MA 02129, postmarked no later than Oct. 24. The list of candidates will be published in the Oct. 30 edition of the Patriot.

Monthly Meeting

The monthly meeting of the council, chaired by Peter Looney, will be at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 6 at the American Legion Hall, 23 Adams St.

All CNC meetings are open to the public and all are welcome to attend.

★ Townie Santa Committee To Meet . . .

If Townie Santa is meeting, Christmas can't be far behind. The first meeting to begin planning for the delivery of Christmas baskets to the elderly, needy, shut-ins of this community will be held at 7 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 13 at the Mary Colbert Apartments, 20 Devens St.

★ Boston Autoport Hearing . . . The Massachusetts Environmental Policy Act (MEPA) Unit of the Executive Office of Environmental Affairs has scheduled a public consultation session regarding the Boston Autoport Environmental Notification Form (ENF) for 9:30 a.m. on Wednesday, Oct. 15 at Moran Terminal, 100 Terminal St., Charlestown.

The comment period for this filing has been extended by the Secretary of Environmental Affairs, with the consent of the proponent, to Oct. 27 at 5 p.m.

Copies of the ENF can be obtained from George Bell at Foreign Auto Servicing, 269-2042.

Questions regarding the MEPA process or the consultation session can be directed to Richard Foster at MEPA, 727-5830.

★ Rutherford Avenue Corridor Study Meeting . . . The Boston Transportation Department (BTD) will host the second meeting of the Rutherford Avenue Corridor Transportation Study Working Group from 7 to 9 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 20 at the K. of C. Hall, 75 West School St. All interested residents are encouraged to attend.

For information, contact Ned Codd, BTD Policy and Planning, at 635-4606.

★ Design Review Committee . . . The Charlestown Preservation Society Design Review Committee will meet from 7:30 to 9 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 20 in the community room at the Mary Colbert Apartments, 20 Devens St. Among the items on the agenda is a follow-up review of the plans by developer Bruce Daniel to renovate 285 Bunker Hill St.

Homeowners with design issues may contact Ron Swenson at 242-9213 to be added to the agenda.

★ Navy Yard Neighborhood Association . . . The District One race for Boston City Council will be the focus of the October open meeting of the Navy Yard Neighborhood Association at 7 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 20 at the Armed Services YMCA, 150 Second Ave. in the Charlestown Navy Yard.

A candidates forum will be held, featuring presentations by Councillor Diane Modica and challenger Paul Scapicchio, is being sponsored by the NYNA and is open to all residents of the community.

For further information, call Richard E. Dolby and Susan G. Holaday, NYNA co-chairmen, at 242-2217.

★ Licensing Board Hearing . . . Kipo's Pizzeria Restaurant at 106-108 Bunker Hill St., Charlestown, has applied for a Seven-Day Common Victualler License to be exercised at 106-108 Bunker Hill St. in one room on the first floor with kitchen and storage in the rear. The manager is Dimostinis Kotsiopoulos and the hours of operation is 6 a.m. to midnight. The hearing will be held at 10 a.m. on Wednesday, Oct. 22 in room 809A at Boston City Hall.

★ Board Of Appeal Decision . . . A petition was brought before the city's Board of Appeal on Oct. 7 by Bruce B. Daniel seeking permission to erect a three-story rear addition with shed dormer to a three-family dwelling at 285 Bunker Hill St. Daniel made the presentation to the board.

Judy Evers, regional coordinator from the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services, told the board that the plan presented at an Oct. 2 abutters meeting is not the one presented to the board. She pointed out changes in the new plan and asked the board for a deferral until the abutters can review the new plan. Abutter Tom Hanlin supported the deferral.

Daniel told the board that there is no substantial change and the omission of the two chimneys from the plan was an oversight. He said he had presented it to the Preservation Society and they had asked him to put them in. The board approved the petition, subject to design review.

A Massachusetts General Hospital Free HealthSpeak Seminar

"Osteoporosis: Diagnosis, Prevention and Management"

Presenters: Lauren Orloff, MD;
Kris Murphy, MS, RD; Tina Biagotti, PT

Tuesday, October 21, 6:30pm - 8:30pm

Place: MGH Charlestown, 73 High Street, Charlestown

You always drink milk, so you may feel you have strong bones. Not necessarily. You may actually have brittle bones that can easily break — a disease called osteoporosis.

Osteoporosis can strike at any age and is a major public threat for 28 million Americans, 80% of whom are women. The good news is that you can do something about it.

Come to this HealthSpeak presentation. Dr. Orloff along with nutritionist Kris Murphy and physical therapist Tina Biagotti will discuss osteoporosis and how nutrition, medicine and exercise can prevent you from getting the disease, or if you already have it, how to manage it better.

So, join us and learn.

There is no charge, although advance reservations are recommended.

Please call 1-800-711-4MGH (4644) by October 17.

Light refreshments will be served.

• The Greatest Gift & Charlie and The Chocolate Factory

Meetings for The Greatest Gift will be held every Saturday from 10 to 11:30 a.m. at the CWT.

Meetings for Charlie and The Chocolate Factory will be held every Tuesday from 4 to 6 p.m. at the CWT.

All performers who registered for each these productions should attend.

• Piano Lessons

The start of this season's piano lessons has been unavoidably delayed. Currently, we are searching for the right person to teach piano. We will resume lessons as soon as possible.

• CWT Youth Chorus

The first meeting of the CWT Youth Chorus will take place on Monday, Oct. 20 at 3 p.m. At this first meeting, participants will be divided into two groups, so everyone who signed up should attend.

• CWT Adult Chorale

The Adult Chorale's first meeting will be on Wednesday, Oct. 22 from 7-9 p.m., at the First Church on Green Street, across from the Boys & Girls Club, thanks to Rev. Victor Ford for his hospitality.

• Scrooge

Rehearsals for Scrooge will take place at the Charlestown High School Auditorium. Tuesday and Thursday sessions will meet from 7 to 9 p.m., and Saturday sessions begin at 2 p.m. Special thanks to Bob McGann!

• Good News For CWT

The theater is the proud recipient of two major grants. We received a $10,000 grant from Smart Choices for Charlestown, funded by the Mass. General and Biomedical Research. We also received support from the Mass. Cultural Council. It is through grants such as these that we are able to offer free classes, youth productions, special community events and adult productions. Thanks for the support!

• Now The Bad News

We are very sad to announce that there will be no Haunted House this year. Michael Teixeira of MJT Tech, who serves as the ghoulish mastermind behind the Haunted House, is unavailable. Fear not, the Haunted House will return next Halloween, and it will be scarier than ever.

• Face Painting

Jennifer Johnson will be painting faces on Friday, Oct. 31 from 2 to 6 p.m. Face painting costs $1 per person.

• Planet Girl Returns To CWT

Planet Girl has returned with its new show "Take Us To Your Leader!" The original show is a follow-up to their critically acclaimed "Greetings From Planet Girl," named one of the best small theater productions of 1996.

Performances are Thursday through Saturday at 8 p.m., and Sundays at 7 p.m. Tickets are $14 for general admission, and $10 for students and seniors.

For information, call the theater at 242-3285.

Charlestown . . . Is Becoming A Trash Town!

The resident is responsible for picking up any loose trash from the sidewalk following collection.

Commercial Trash Regulations

No rubbish will be placed out for collection on a public street, sidewalk or alley between 7 a.m. and 6 p.m.

Rubbish may be picked up during these hours but it must be transported directly from the premises where it is stored.

Rubbish must be stored in durable containers, dumpsters, or tightly secured plastic bags.

Dumpsters must be placed on private property; have lids which are closed at all times; and be picked up regularly to avoid a health hazard.

Rubbish shall not be placed out in cartons or paper bags.

Receptacles must be returned to their normal place of storage as soon as possible.

When pickup occurs between the hours of 7 a.m. and 6 p.m., receptacles must be returned to their place of storage immediately.

Storage containers, dumpsters and storage areas must be thorough cleaned following removal of garbage and rubbish.

The business owner is responsible for cleaning up the loose trash from the sidewalk following collection.

James J. Cahill, director of Code Enforcement for the city, has been made aware of the escalating trash problem in this town. He has noted that these regulations will be strictly enforced and violators will be fined.

Evers has requested that the mayor assign a code enforcement officer to be on duty over the weekends to respond to the numerous reports of trash scofflaws. Also, she suggests that residents report the license plate number of commuters dropping off their trash here in Charlestown and they will be fined.

To report a trash violation, telephone Code Enforcement at 635-4896.

BHCC Searching For Alumni To Join 25th Anniversary Celebration

Bunker Hill Community College's Alumni Association is searching for former students and graduates to "come home" and join the celebration of the college's 25th anniversary. The 1997-98 academic year marks BHCC's 25th year of serving the educational pursuits of over 150,000 students. Exciting events are planned for students, alumni and the communities served by the college.

Kicking off the year-long schedule of events is a "25th Anniversary Halloween Dance," sponsored by the BHCC Alumni Association. It will take place on Friday, Oct. 31, from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m., at the Holiday Inn in Somerville. Tickets are $10 for active alumni and current students, and $15 for the general public. The price of tickets includes hors d'oeuvres, music, entertainment, and a chance to mingle with old friends and meet new ones. Halloween costumes are optional, but prizes will be awarded for the best costume. Proceeds from the event will benefit BHCC's 25th Anniversary Scholarship Fund.

The BHCC Alumni Association, organized in 1988, offers networking opportunities for graduates, supports college endeavors which provide scholarship opportunities for students studying at BHCC or graduates pursuing higher education. In addition, the Alumni Association coordinates the Textbook Assistance Program (T.A.P.), which loans textbooks to students in need of assistance.

The Alumni Association is offering a free ticket to all alumni who become new members of the association. The many advantages of becoming a member include: career services; BHCC library privileges; alumni art exhibits; discounts on BHCC non-credit courses; employment training; transfer credit resources; and a subscription to the "Alumni Connection," a quarterly newsletter designed to keep alumni in touch with campus news and alumni achievements. Annual membership in the Alumni Association is $20.

Join the excitement! Call BHCC's Director of Alumni Affairs, Kristine Dow, at 228-2416.

Those Who Served And Died In World War II Remembered At An Ecumenical Service At The USS Cassin Young In The Charlestown Navy Yard

Ecumenical Service And Rededication Ceremony Honors Those Who Served And Those Who Died In WW II

Brilliant sunshine, flags waving in the early fall breeze along with the strains of martial music, fifes and drums set the scene as a time for remembering and honoring those men and women who left their homes here in Charlestown over a half century ago to fight for freedom on foreign soils.

The occasion was the rededication on Sept. 27 of the town's World War II Memorial in its permanent home in the new City Square Park. It was a gathering of family members, friends and neighbors, some with photographs and yellowed newspaper clippings in hand, remem-

Hill on the fantail of the ship.

On the pier were color guards from the Charlestown High School MA-761 Air Force JROTC; Somerville Post 19, The American Legion; Wilmington Post 136, The American Legion; and the Korean War Veterans of Mass. A delegation of veterans in World War II dress with vehicles from that era were lined along the pier.

In addition to selections by the Pipes & Drums of Bunker Hill, music was provided by the Marquis of Granby Junior Ancient Fyfe & Drum Corp. from Connecticut, and the Colonial Band of Lawrence chairman William Foley, chief of interpretation, Boston National Historical Park, as the buglers of the Colonial Band of Lawrence sounded taps.

Participants and guests then lined up on the pier behind the color guard of the Air Force JROTC of Charlestown High School - some marching, others in vehicles - for a march up to Bunker Hill Monument, down by the Training Field and into City Square for the ceremony to rededicate the World War II Memorial.

Over 300 people filled the area between the new City Square Park and the Courthouse, from the tiniforeign countries or missing in action.

Color guards filled the park with waving flags and musical selections from the three units, and the voice of Kathleen Adams, filled the square. Conway was master of ceremonies, bringing speakers to the lectern and introducing guests.

The invocation was delivered by Father Mahoney and, in his welcoming of the gathering, Conway read the paraphrasing of an article on World War II veterans which had been forwarded to him by Mary Mehan (please see page 11 for complete text).

Annette Tecce, governor of the Friends of City Square Park, extended a welcome on behalf of the organization. She said that the memorial has always been in City Square and it was "an honor to have it in the park."

Commissioner Thomas B. Materazzo of the Boston Veterans Services Department, praised Charlestown veterans for remembering. He said that Conway, a Korean veteran, took on this project so the veterans of World War II would not be forgotten. He told the gathering that "by your presence, you, too, have not forgotten."

Rep. Gene O'Flaherty said that he had a greater understanding of the sacrifices made as the young men and women of his generation did not know the travails of sending family and friends off to war. He praised Voke for attaining the park for the community.

District One Boston City Councillor Diane Modica spoke as one of the generation representing the children of World War II veterans. She recalled as a youngster, seeing Hollywood's version of that war. She spoke of her uncle, Peter, as he shared his experiences and emotions as a serviceman in World War II, and her pleasure in being part of the ceremony.

Also extending greetings were Disabled American Veterans State Commander John F. Reagan; National Park Superintendent Burchill; American Legion Department Vice Commander Jim Flattes; Gold Star Mother Theresa Peterson, representing Mass./R.I. Gold Star Mothers President Florence Johnson; CDR. Darrel Milburn of the First Coast Guard District, representing Rear Admiral Larabee; and At-Large Boston City Councillor Albert O'Neil.

Mary White, first vice president of the state's American Legion Auxiliary, extended her thanks to the veterans "for the freedoms we enjoy today." Boston City Councillor Mickey Roache added his thanks, noting that "Charlestown has always been a proud neighborhood and respectful of her veterans."

Introduced by Conway were: Judy Evers, regional coordinator of the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services; Chief Daniel Nicholson, command chief of USS Constitution; Maj. Arthur Gaetjens, head of the Charlestown High School Air Force JROTC; Father DiPerri; Rev. Ford, Rector Rofinot; and Bunker Hill Post 26, The American Legion Commander Ron Taylor. Also present during a portion of the ceremony was Boston City Councillor At-Large Peggy Davis-Mullen.

In introducing the principal speaker, Richard A. Voke, Conway told of his efforts with community groups and the state Legislature to secure City Square Park. He spoke of Voke's work for veterans, particularly to save the state's Soldiers' Homes, and praised him for his "yeoman-like work on behalf of the people of Charlestown."

At the outset, Voke stated that his 18 years representing Charlestown in the Legislature "was a joy." He noted the Vietnam and Korean Memorial just off City Square and the state's Korean Memorial in the Charlestown Navy Yard. Voke told of being "pushed" and "pushing" so that this park would be a reality, singling out the efforts of Annette Tecce, Dan Kovacevic and Ken Stone. He told of "protecting money for the park through the difficult financial years of 1988-1990, adding that "the park will stand in perpetuity."

On a personal note, Voke spoke about his father who was a student at Boston University in 1941 and, when the attack on Pearl Harbor occurred, he enlisted and was gone for three years. Voke recalled the experiences his father talked about, not in a bragging fashion, but when asked, which included a battlefield commission when his father's unit was decimated. His father devoted much time to veterans when he returned home.

Voke went on to tell that over the years he learned to know veterans and the fact that they ask for little, considering "they saved Western civilization. These World War II veterans, he said, would be at least 72 and "they gave to us and now they do need health care . . . they want a little dignity, respect and a place to rest and die in peace." He concluded that "we must stand behind to see that veterans get their just reward."

Rev. James B. Canniff, pastor of St. Mary's Church, offered the benediction. Bunker Hill Post 26, A.L. Past Commander Arthur Hurley then led Brother James Curran, Edward Daly, Louise Salvato Lampassi and Grace Ann Powers Walsh to the memorial for the unveiling. All four had lost fathers or siblings in the war and, as children, unveiled the memorial at its dedication on Sept. 29, 1946.

bering loved ones who had been lost in that war and thinking of those who served.

The ceremony was a cooperative venture, under the leadership of Charlestown Veterans Committee Chairman, James W. Conway. Bunker Hill Post 26, The American Legion, was the major sponsor in cooperation with the Mass. Department of Environmental Management Division of Forests and Parks, the Boston National Historical Park, the Friends of City Square Park, the Metropolitan District Commission and Bunker Hill Council 62, Knights of Columbus.

The day began with an Ecumenical Service along side the USS Cassin Young, a World War II Fletcher-Class Destroyer at Pier One in the Boston National Historical Park. The military color guards - U.S. Marine Corps, USS Constitution from the U.S. Navy, U.S. Air Force and U.S. Coast Guard - marched onto the deck of the Cassin Young with the Pipes & Drums of Bunker with its superb vocalist Kathleen Adams who thrilled the audience with her renditions of the National Anthem and Ave Maria.

Conway welcomed the gathering and introduced the readers for the service. Rev. Daniel J. Mahoney, pastor of St. Francis de Sales Church, delivered the invocation. Reading from the scriptures were given by John Burchill, superintendent, Boston National Historical Park; Rev. Victor Ford, pastor, First Church in Charlestown, Congregational; Rev. Laurie Rofinot, rector, St. John's Episcopal Church; Brother James Curran, servant general, Little Brothers of St. Francis; Conway; and Father Mahoney. Rev. James DiPerri, pastor of St. Catherine of Siena Church, offered the benediction.

At the conclusion of the service, a wreath of red, white and blue flowers was tossed from the fantail of Cassin Young into the waters of Boston Harbor by Father Mahoney, Conway, Burchill and Co-est of infants to senior citizens.

Through the 51 years since the memorial had been dedicated, the ravages of time and traffic had taken its toll on City Square and the obelisk. The memorial was placed in the Harvard Mall during the Central Artery/ North Area (CANA) roadway construction project, at the insistence of Conway who feared its loss if put in storage.

There it sat in view of all until the new City Square Park became a reality. It was proposed by a dedicated group of Charlestown residents, funded with the guidance and tireless support of former House Majority Leader Richard Voke, designed and created by The Halvorson Company.

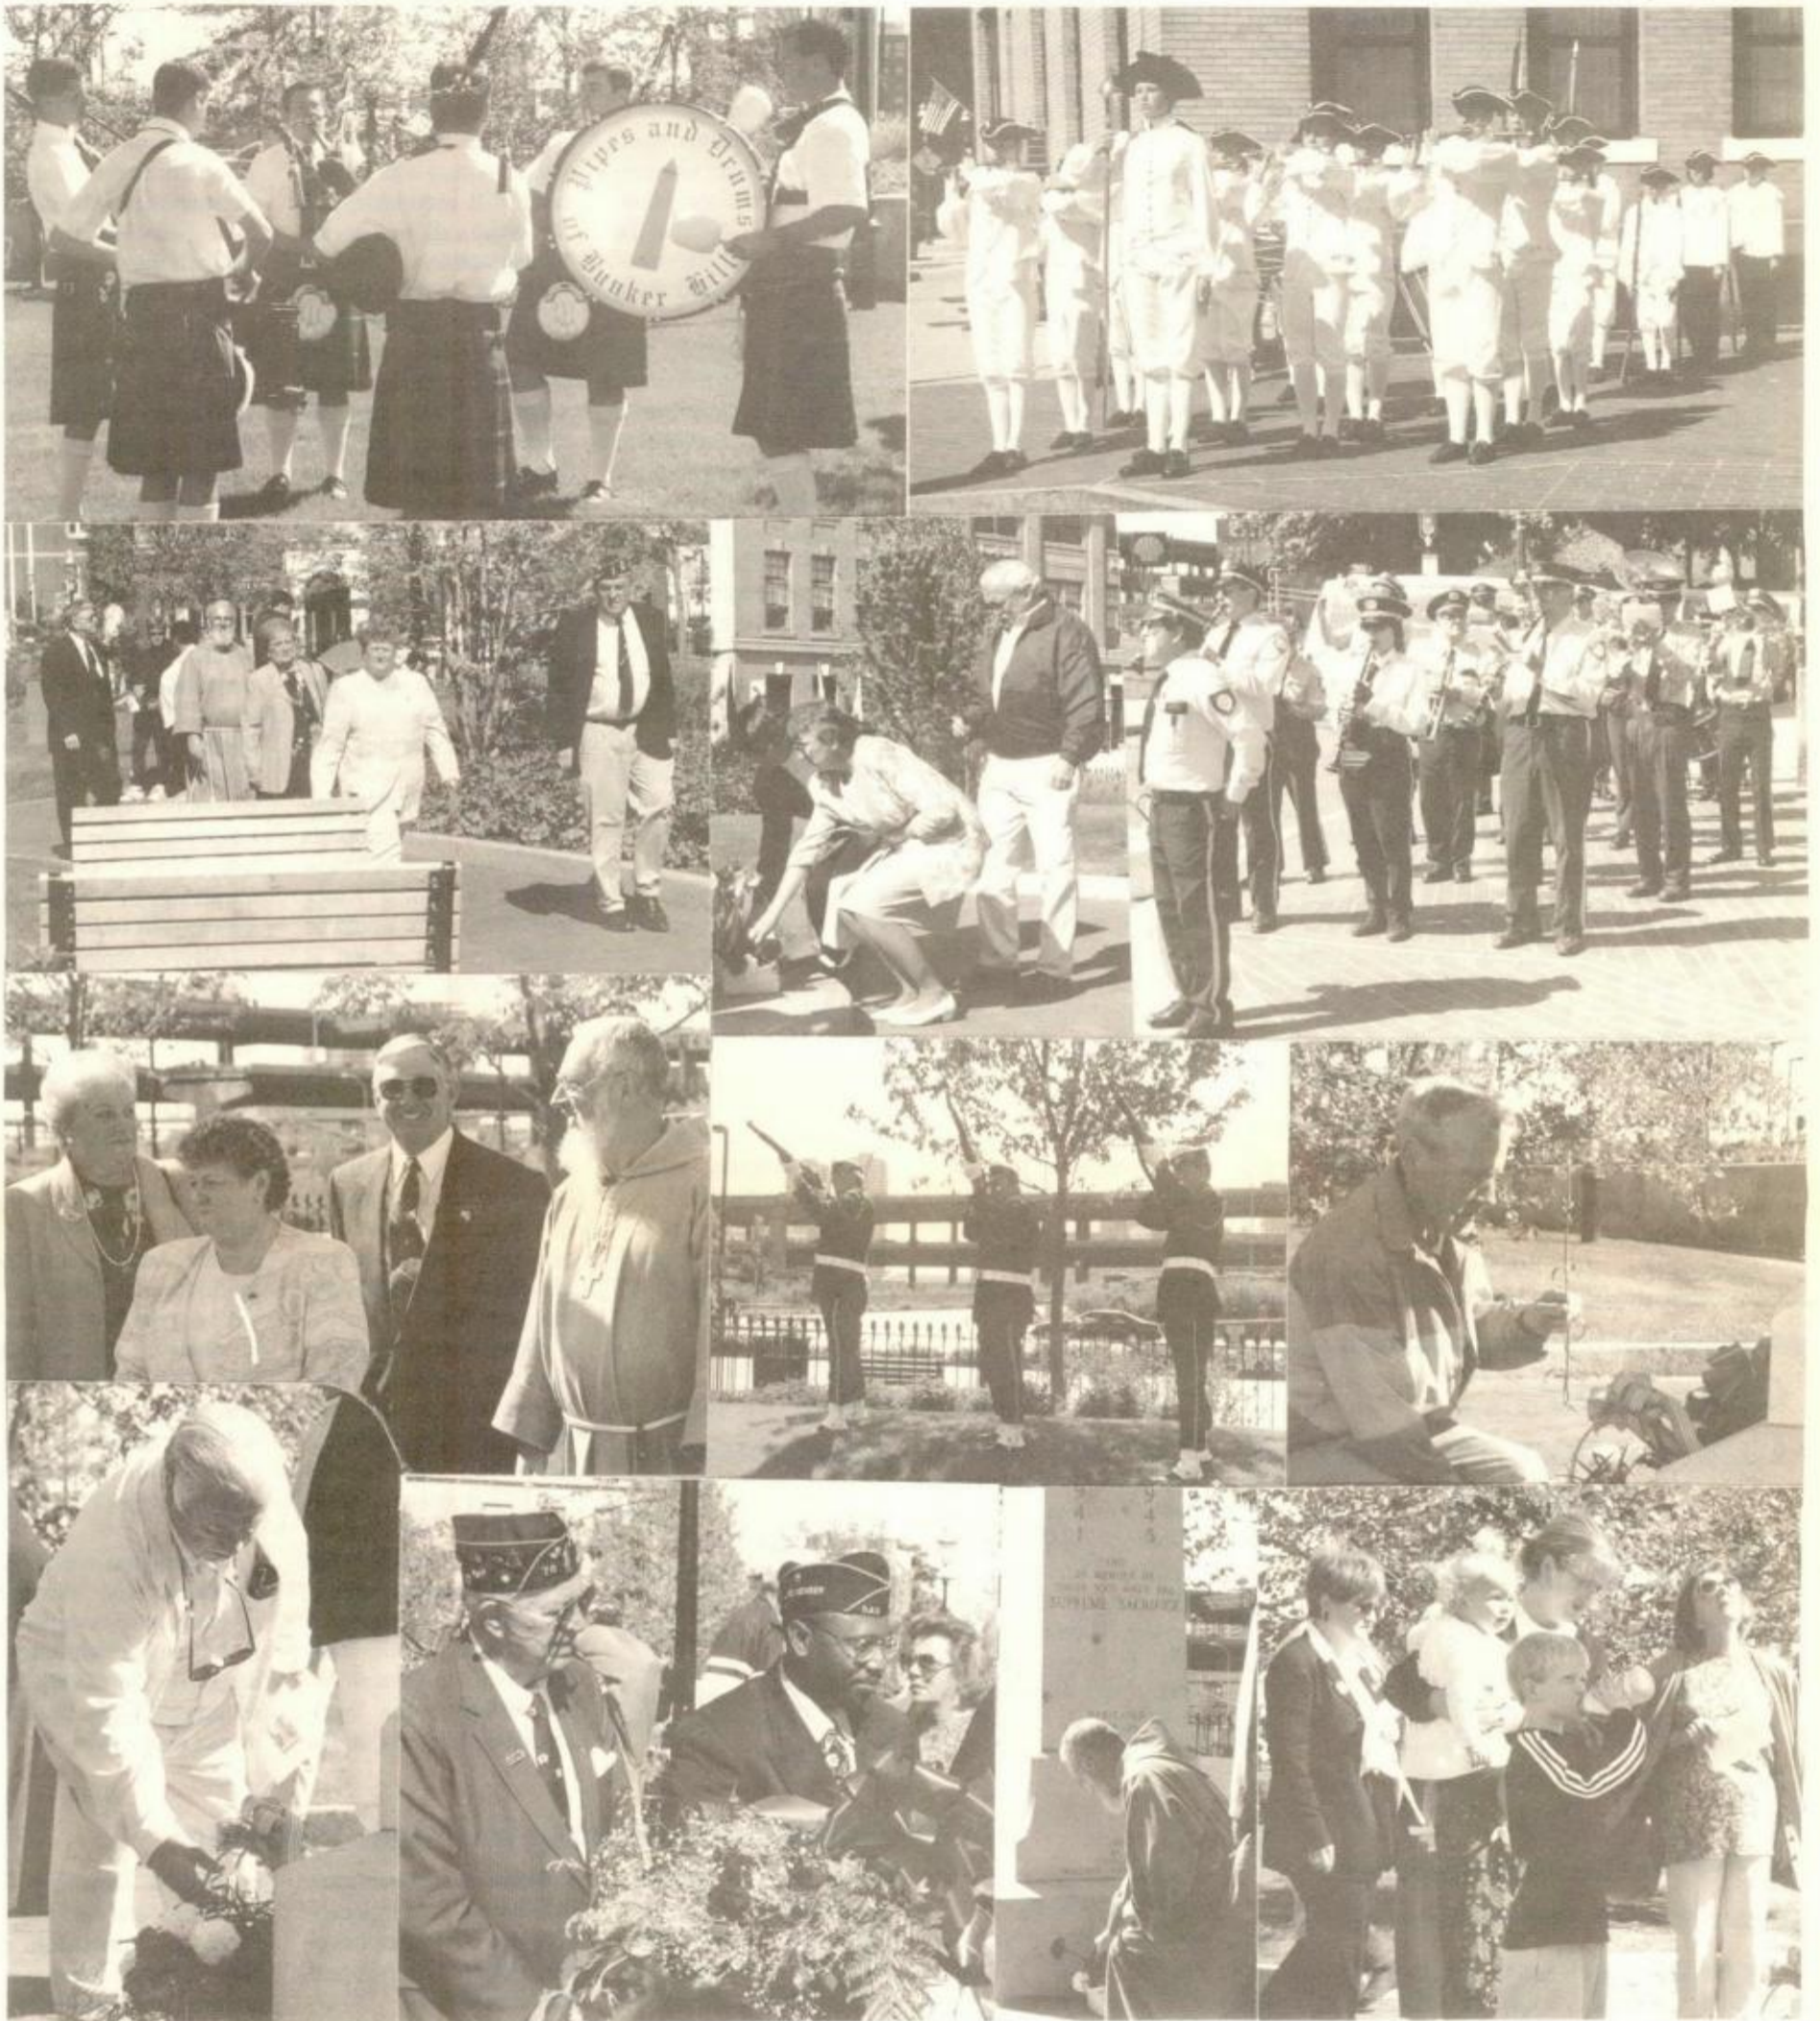

The park now includes a permanent place of honor for this memorial that is deserving of the respect of each and every individual.

While this memorial honors those who served in World War II, it also became a special place for the families of those who never came home - buried in

They Served With Honor In World War II

To paraphrase a passage by Gen. Douglas MacArthur:

The men and women veterans of Charlestown who served in World War II belong to history as furnishing one of the greatest examples of successful patriotism. They belong to posterity as the instructors of future generations in the principles of liberty and freedom.

They belong to the present, to us, by their virtues and by their achievements.

- Gen. Douglas MacArthur

The purpose of the rededication of this World War II Memorial is not to glorify war but instead to celebrate peace, and no greater peace was ever won than that achieved by the American soldiers of World War II. It is to them that Gen. Douglas MacArthur referred in the passage quoted.

Properly, this day is not set aside to pay tribute to only those who fell in World War II, but to all who answered their country's call and served, and it was a united Charlestown that welcomed them home. Yet, it is fitting and appropriate that we, on September 27, 1997, 51 years after the original dedication of Charlestown's World War II Memorial, take time to once more say thanks to these who sacrificed so much.

As young men and women, they didn't hesitate. They answered the call, they fought and they conquered the most determined, ruthless and brutal enemies in the history of modern warfare. Then the survivors returned home, got married, raised their families and made the most powerful economic force the world has ever seen.

There aren't many of them left. Even the youngest of those still alive are now in their 70s, and certainly former Senator Bob Dole would have been the last World War II veteran to make a run for the presidency.

To again quote Gen. MacArthur, "Old soldiers never die; they just fade away."

But these men and women, these veterans of World War II, have been with us so long that their fading into history leaves an uneasy void for the generation made up of their sons and daughters.

To these old soldiers, to these giants of patriotism, much is owed by many. They saved America.

(With thanks to Mary Mechan who forwarded the basis of this commentary from a Maui newspaper)

World War II Memorial Rededicated

during World War II and, as each name was called, a family member, friend or World War II veteran was invited to place a carnation in a basket at the foot of the obelisk in his or her memory. In some instances, several generations of a family took part in the rededication ceremony.

A drum roll interspersed the reading of the Honor Roll and Taps by the buglers of the Colonial Band of Lawrence echoed through the square. A rifle salute to Charlestown's World War II dead was conducted by Somerville Post 19, The American Legion.

The colors were then retired and the procession formed as participants marched to the Knights of Columbus Hall and a collation put on by that organization.

For some, it was a time of remembrance, for others, the ceremony provided a closure. Once again, Charlestown came out to honor those who fought for freedom and those who made the supreme sacrifice.

(If there are names of Charlestown men and women who died during World War II and are not included in the Honor Roll on page one, contact Jim Conway at 242-6187 or write to him at P.O. Box 376, Charlestown, Mass. 02129 and he will include the name on the list.)

CNC Has Unanswered Questions On Auto Facility

outset, Looney asked for an extension of the comment period on the ENF from the Oct. 14 deadline.

Ralph Cox, port director for Massport, explained the changes proposed to Boston's waterfront where all autos would go through Moran Terminal while all containers would be through Conley Terminal in South Boston.

He said that the run from the outer harbor into Conley with container ships is fast and easy. There are additional considerations on the trip through the harbor to Charlestown with navigation over the Third Harbor Tunnel and under the Tobin Bridge. Cox claimed that there would be less traffic impact with just auto transports.

CNC member Tom Cunha told Massport representatives that the copy of the ENF and traffic study arrived at his home too late to give him time to review it and seek out input from his neighbors. He said that copies should be made available to the community.

Looney told Massport and the representatives from Boston Autoport that the strength of the CNC was "not to make all the decisions . . . we listen to our neighbors." Member Judy Brennan expressed her concern on the process. Member Jim Conway told the representatives that people outside haven't been given the information, adding, "Massport has been a good neighbor, but has blown it here."

Deborah Hadden, manager of Maritime Environmental Affairs for Massport, told the CNC that the study shows that the Autoport will be a good thing for Charlestown.

Steven Pugliese and George Bell from Foreign Auto Servicing and Dennis Kraez from Diversified Auto Inc., whose two firms will become Boston Autoport, were present at the meeting. The company would be under a 10-year lease with Massport.

Hadden recited estimates of daily trips created by this new facility at Moran, based on the number of car carriers and the automobile traffic from 300 employees. The study reflected a one day count in October of 1996 with figures projected over 365 days. Needless to say, most in the audience were boggled by the figures and percentages. One frustrated woman asked that such information be presented to the audience in written form, preferably in advance of a meeting.

Hadden went on to say that traffic will be directed down Chelsea Street to City Square "by design and by communication" with the drivers.

Kraez explained that there would be two processing buildings on site to wash off the protective coating covering the imported cars. He said it is a closed system with 90 percent of it recyclable, and the chemicals in use are biodegradable. A tour of the facility in South Boston was offered by the proponent. However, a resident expressed concern about water pressure, noting that when the Clougherty Pool is filling, residents can't do laundry.

As to the direction of traffic, he said that carriers won't be able to take a right turn toward Medford Street by the design of the gate. Pugliese stated that drivers were fined in South Boston for varying the truck route.

Rep. Gene O'Flaherty questioned the proponents on several issues including fueling, to which Kraez replied that there would be another fueling station at the Terminal. O'Flaherty spoke of the reconfiguration of the site and concerns on the car wash. He also asked why some of the questions on the ENF had been left blank. O'Flaherty warned the proponents and Massport that he had only given the report a cursory glance and he would have more questions.

Other issues brought up were the amount of overflow from a car wash and how it would be drained; a guarantee that trucks would not go onto Medford Street; what provisions have been made for northbound routing onto I-93 if there is no on-ramp at City Square with the completion of the Central Artery Project; the work schedule which was said to be 7-5, six days a week with some trucks occasionally after 5 p.m.; relationships with unions, particularly the ILA; and jobs for Charlestown residents.

Jim Walsh from the office of Sen. President Tom Birmingham, was very angry, particularly at the traffic study which he said he had "searched two and one-half times" and couldn't find "hard numbers."

The Patriot went on record at the meeting as not having received the legal notice that the newspaper is listed in the ENF as having run.

It was agreed that the comment period will be extended and on Wednesday, Steele told the Patriot that it would be 5 p.m. on Oct. 27. Written comments, questions and concern, referring to the EOE file number, #11317, should be sent to Trudy Cox, Secretary; Executive Office of Environmental Affairs, Attention: MEPA Unit; 100 Cambridge St. - 20th floor; Boston, MA 02202.

Also, a scoping session on the ENF has been set for 9:30 a.m. on Wednesday, Oct. 15 at the Moran Terminal. This session, to be conducted by Richard Foster, is open to the public.

On Wednesday, Dorothy Steele, community liaison for Massport, said that by Friday, she would have a copy of the ENF and traffic study at the Charlestown Branch Library to be read at the library, and several copies would be available for residents to pick up at the Patriot office.

Looney has called for proponents and Massport to return to the community in November with more details on the facility, the resulting traffic and the impact on the town.

Children's Film Program At The Charlestown Branch Library

The Film Program for Children will be presented at the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main St. on Tuesday, Oct. 14 at 10:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.

"The Raccoon's Picnic" tells the story of two raccoons who discover some boys' lunches . . . "Peter and the Wolf" is the fairy tale about a boy who captures a wolf . . . and a cat tries to win many things for his master in "Puss in Boots."

A Mystery Movie will be shown only at 3:30 p.m.

Suggested good books to read are Timothy Goes to School by Rosemary Wells and Puss in Boots by Paul Galdone.

Breen Awarded Certificate In Estate Planning

Donald F. Breen, CPA, managing shareholder of the Charlestown accounting firm Donald F. Breen & Company, P.C., recently completed a series of eight seminars (64 hours) in Estate Planning sponsored by Surgent Associates, the largest provider of continuing professional education in the United States.

The program, co-sponsored by the Mass. Society of Certified Public Accountants, included such topics as Uses of Trusts, Family Limited Partnerships, Generation Skipping, Gift Taxes and Estate Administration.

Each of the eight hour seminars required Breen to complete an intensive examination, and upon completion of the final examination, he was awarded Surgent Associates' Certificate of Education Achievement in Estate Planning. The program is designed not only to promote professional competence in estate planning and trust taxation, but to advise clients who are concerned about the amount of estate taxes for which their estate may be liable.

In addition to the Estate Planning Certificate, Breen holds certificates in Education Achievement in Personal Financial Planning and Not-for-profit Accounting and Auditing.

Breen, who has practiced in Charlestown since 1984 and in Boston 20 years prior to that, is a founding member of the Charlestown Business Association and has served as its treasurer since its inception. He is a former member of the advisory board of Newworld Bank.

The firm and its shareholders are licensed by the Mass. and N.H. Boards of Public Accountancy. They have successfully completed the second AICPA peer review of their practice and by virtue of that, are a member of the Private Companies Practice Section of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

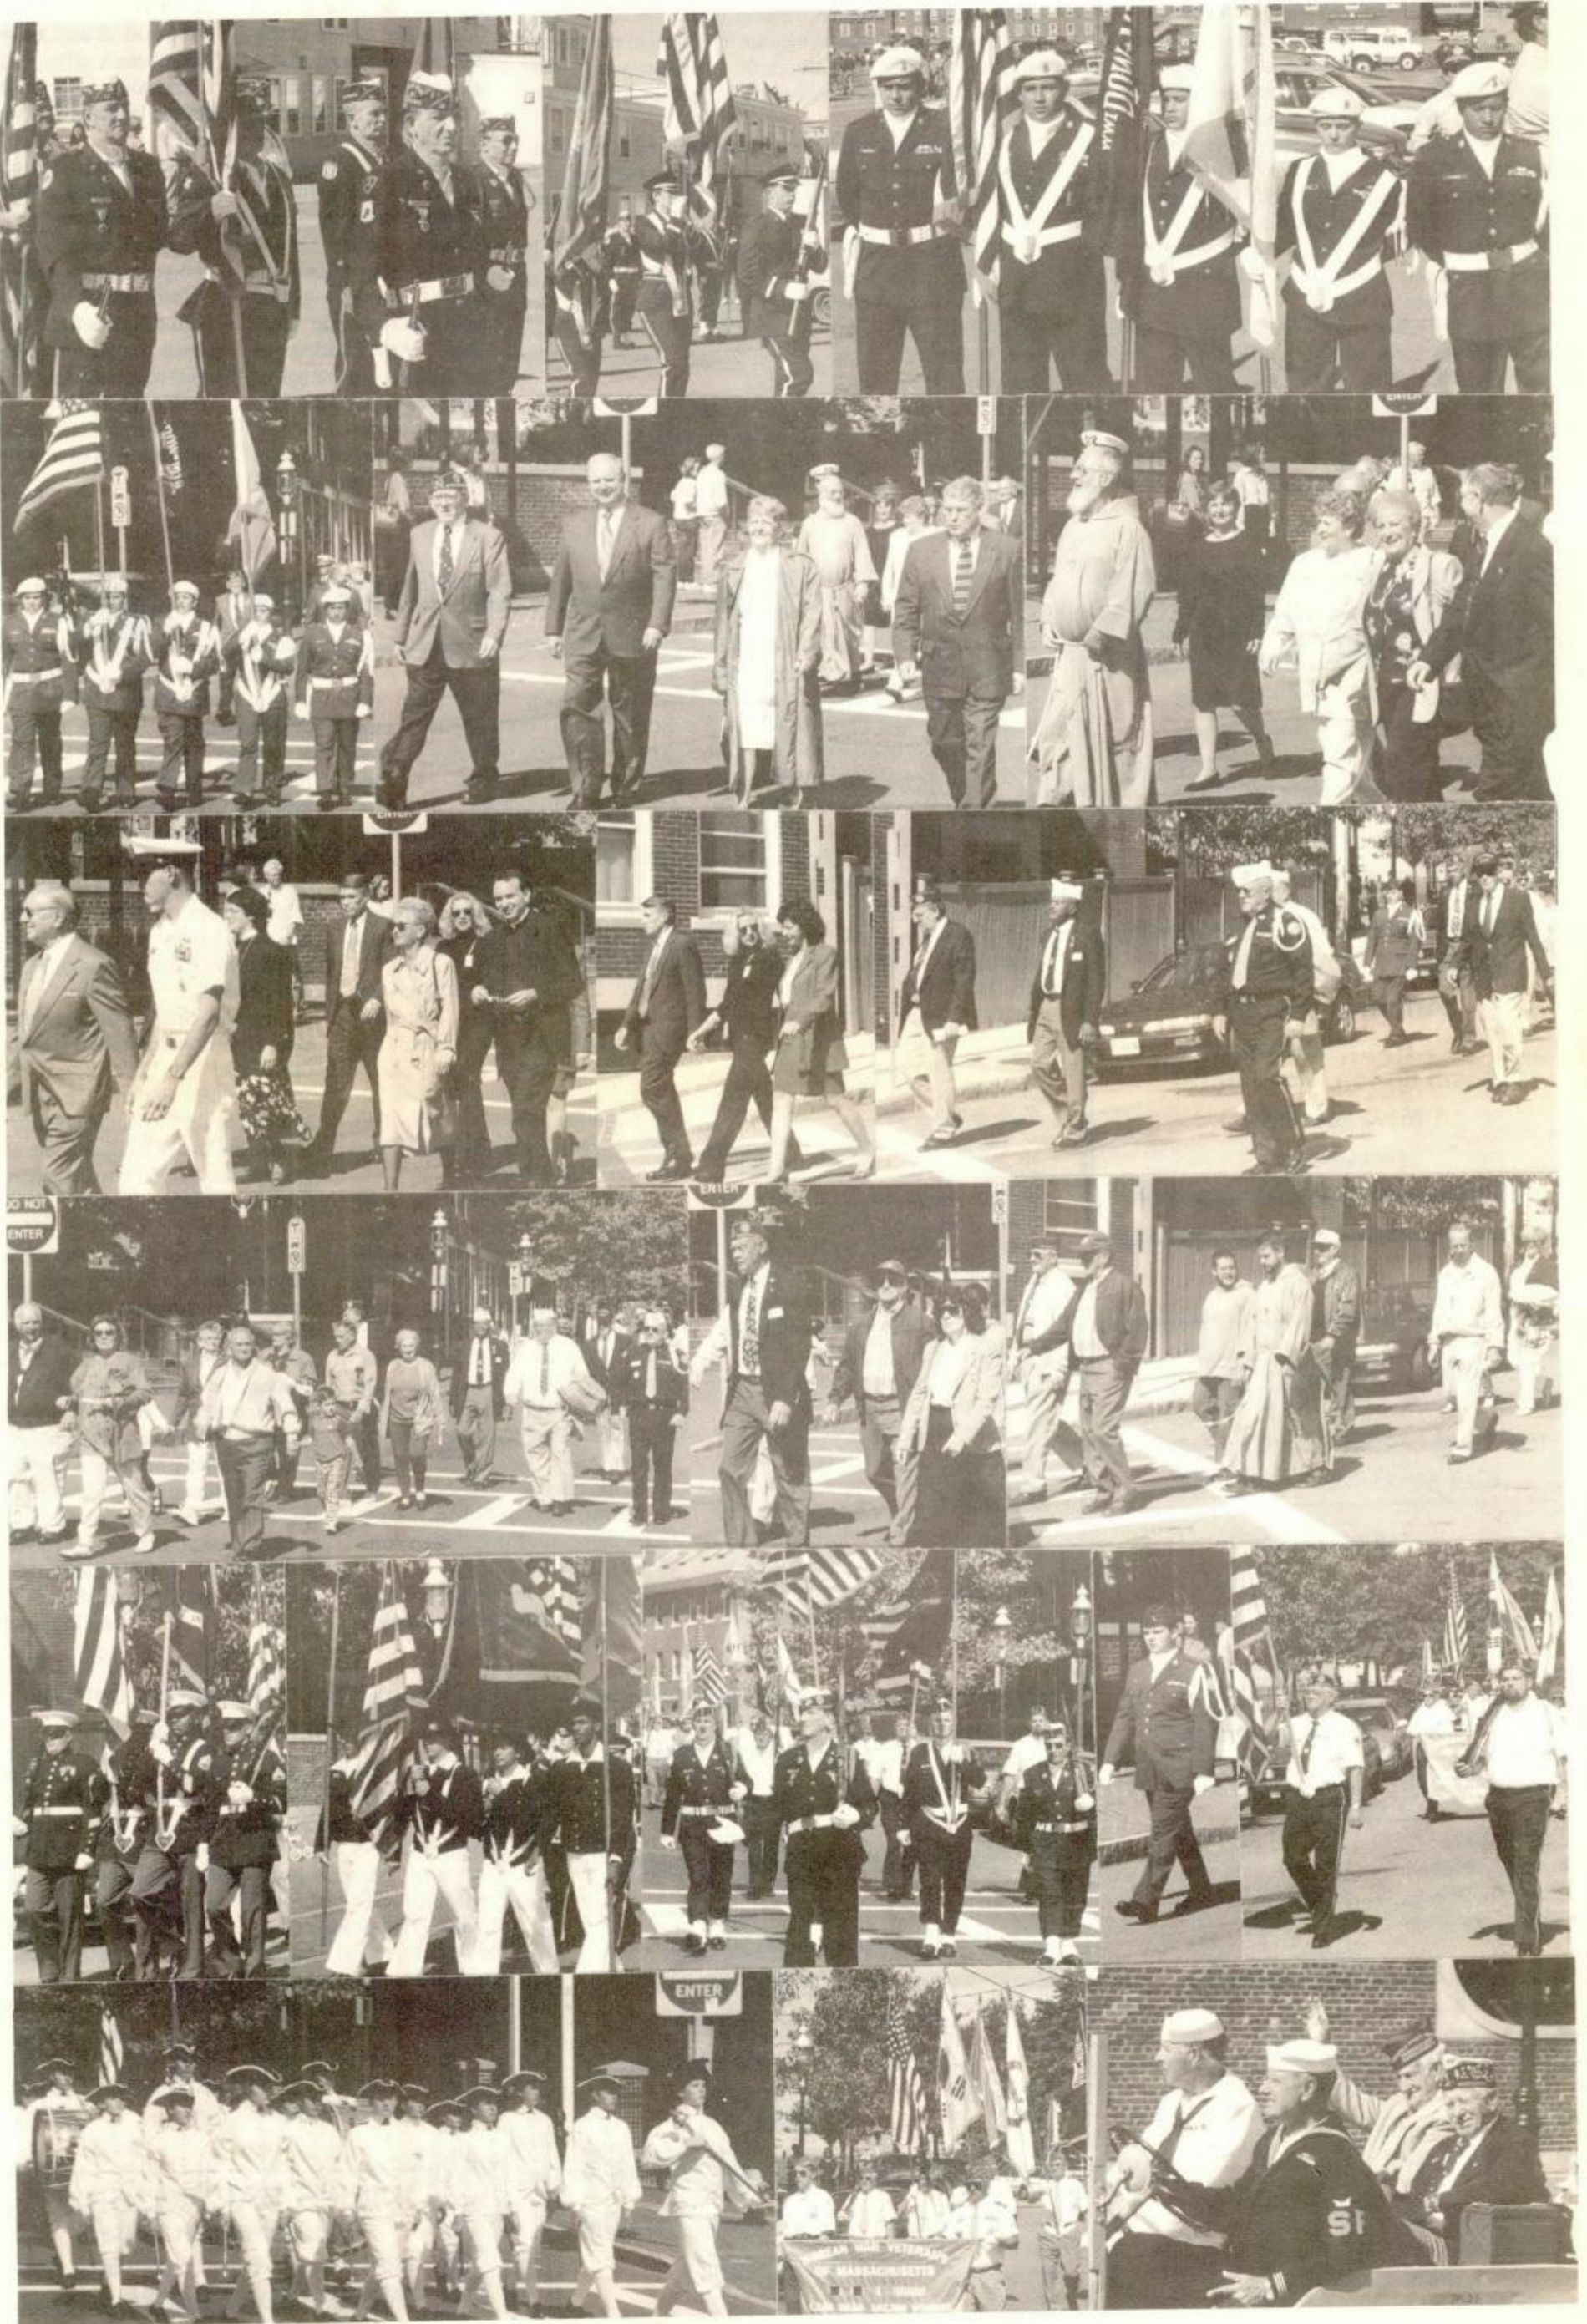

The firm is also affiliated with the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and its Personal Financial Planning Division, Mass. and N.H. societies of Certified Public Accountants, the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce and the Smaller Business Association of New England. Breen is an honored member in the National Directory of Who's Who in Executives and Professionals.

Continuing professional education courses, offered on such subjects as accounting and auditing, tax and advisory services are designed to maintain and promote professional competence, increase CPA's skills and ensure a continuing high level of service to the public. Certificate of Educational Achievement programs achieve that goal through an intensive series of integrated courses in a particular subject and offered in eight-hour courses.

POP WARNER CORNER

When the going gets tough, the tough get going! This challenge is being issued to all teams after a very tough weekend in Dedham.

Two players who are deserving of player of the week honors are Jorge Gonzalez and P.J. Arroyo. Gonzalez, a standout player on the B Team, plays many roles on both sides of the ball. What caught the eye of the officials and opposing coaches was that when a play was sent in, Jorge, being bilingual, called the play and then translated the play into Spanish. It is hard enough to read defenses or audible at the line of scrimmage, but Jorge obviously, is way ahead of his time. Keep up the good work!

The C Team struggled this past weekend, but they should all thank P.J. Arroyo. This team was on the verge of forfeiting, as a few players were either ill or had scheduling conflicts. P.J., with broken hand in tow, dressed so that his 15 teammates could play out the game. League rules state that you must field 16 players to start a game. Thanks, P.J., and hopefully his unselfishness is contagious!

As this was a down week, we rarely recognize the efforts of our cheerleading squads, who by next year will be ready for competition. The E and D teams, under the direction of Katie Farrell, Paula Hickey and Christa Kennedy, have worked very hard during the year and are always entertaining.

The E Team Cheerleaders are: Bridget Smith, Jennie Perito, Kaitrin Krol, Micaela Flynn, Alyssa Settipani, Mary-Kate Collins, Catherine Taglilatela, Makenzie Duffy, Kyleigh Watson, Elizabeth Hitchcock, Courtney Libby, Emily Perito, Kristina Brown, Sara Sherman, Mylissa Ortiz, Miranda Rodrigues, Molly Flynn, Brienna Hitchcock and J.C. (Mary) Young.

The D Team Cheerleaders are: Erin DiNova, Samantha Morrissey, Tiffany Curry, Jennelle Tucker, Keila Gonzalez, Nicole Callahan, Stephanie Junta, Kaitlin Donovan, Melissa Lugo, Jacqueline Hurley, Courtney Ferreira, Lindsey Burke, Rebecca Donovan and Nicole Evans.

The C Team Cheerleaders, under the direction of Shannon McLaughlin, Mary Crilley and their able assistants, Desiree Mix and Sharlene McNeil, are becoming one of the better squads in the league. They are: Casey Allen, Charlene Owens, Michelle Williams, Kristin Gomperts, Leesia Lawton, Annelise Hanlon, Christine Burke, Jacqueline King, Danielle Whelan, Kaitlyn Jones, Meagan D'Angelo, Kerri-Ann Hayes, Shannon Devlin, Tia Arroyo, Michelle Galvin, Rachele Hayes, Stephanie King, Roslyn Arroyo and Christine Durham.

The B Team, coached by Rhonda Kivlin, is, according to many communities, a top-rate group, and must continue to work hard to be leaders of all the cheerleaders. B Team members are: Dineen Butler, Paige Donovan, Ann-Marie Fratalia, Meagan Burke, Erin Barry, Jessica Lawton, Brittany Donovan, Shannon O'Donnell, Caitlin Durette, Kristina Harrington, Kerri-Ann Gomperts, Sheila Williams, Jessica Grace, Kristine Matarazzo, Lorraine Hollien, Alicia Castronova, Jillian Flynn, Courtney Schievink and Ashley Kivlin.

There has been a change in scheduling as we host Brookline on Sunday, Oct. 12 at the Charlestown High School Athletic Facility. The E Team kicks off at 8:15 a.m., the B Team at 10:30 a.m., the D Team at noon, and the C Team at 1:30 p.m. Come on down, we need your support.

Thank you to Judy Evers of the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services; Peter Looney, CHAD; Leo Boucher, BHA; Capt. Ron Conway, Det. Jack Pierce, Sgt. Tom Lema, Officers Ted Boyle, Billy Smith and Cecil Jones of the Boston Police Department; Ron Francis of the Municipal Police; Steve Melia and Joe Keane of the Boston Housing Police; and the 150 parents who attended last week's meeting. Pop Warner Football will continue at Charlestown High School as a result of your efforts!

- John Taglilatela

CHS vs. South Boston Football On Cablevision

The Charlestown Townies will battle the Knights of South Boston as Cablevision continues its sixth season of extensive high school football game coverage. The Boston City League rivalry can be seen on Cablevision Channel A-21 premiering on Sunday, Oct. 12 at 6 p.m.

Games from across the city are included in Cablevision's high school football coverage. Teams from West Roxbury, Boston Latin, Madison Park, East Boston, Brighton, John D. O'Bryant, and many more are featured in Cablevision's Boston Public High School football "games of the week."

The replay dates are Monday, Oct. 13 at 8 p.m., Friday, Oct. 17 at 3 p.m. and Saturday, Oct. 18 at 8 p.m.

Games Room Volunteers - Thanks to all the games room volunteers who helped out during September. Twenty-eight youths worked a total of 42 1/2 hours. Quiana Rodriguez was the top volunteer with four hours of time worked.

If you would like to volunteer, see Mary in the games room. The next volunteer pizza party will be held on Friday, Nov. 7. You must work two or more hours in October in order to attend.

★ TEEN CENTER

Bike-A-Thon - Congratulations to all the teens who participated in Saturday's event. It was a great success. The kids gave up a Saturday to show their support for the club. Once again, the teens gave something back to the club for all the club has given them. A good time was had by all! P.S. Timmy W. - how's your bike?! Go team blue!!

Field Trips - There are several trips scheduled during the month of October. If any teen is interested, please stop by the Teen Center. Any teen who has an idea for a future trip, please see Sharon or John.

Reminder - The Halloween Party will be held on Friday, Oct. 24 from 6:30 to 10 p.m. in the Teen Center. The cost is $3 and costumes are optional.

CHAD Tennis Team Beats Winchester

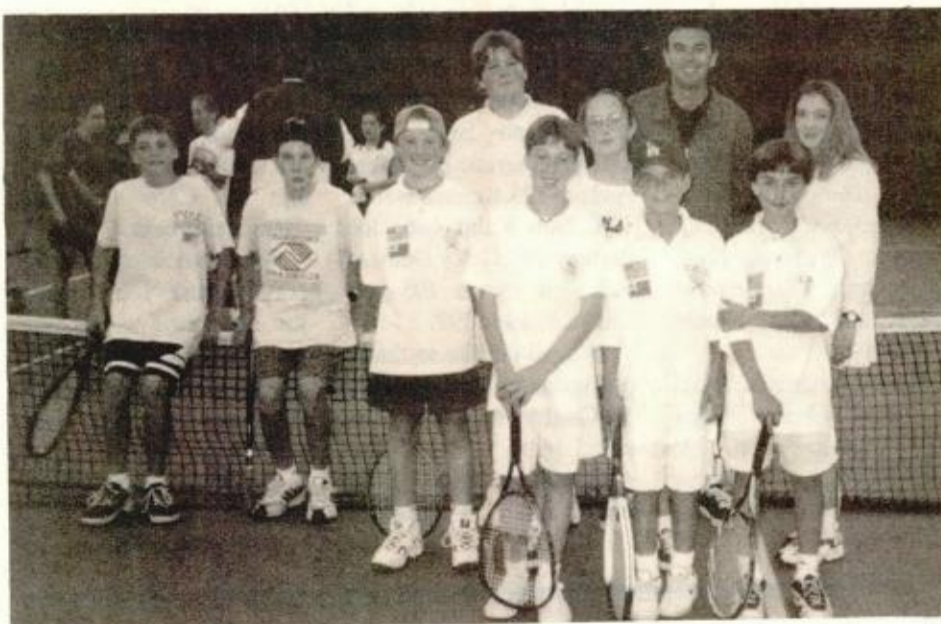

After a few weeks off, the CHAD Against Drugs (CHAD) traveling tennis squad was out on the road again last Saturday looking for some competition. They found it in the town of Winchester, where they met its junior team in an entertaining match.

The kids played a round robin tournament with the win going to the team with the most total games accumulated. This time, the local kids came away with a victory over Winchester with the total score of 33 to 21 games.

The match was played in a fun and friendly atmosphere where both teams graciously competed, on and off, for close to two hours. Once again, the CHAD kids showed a lot of improvement and enthusiasm by striking great shots from all areas of the court with confidence.

Participants in Saturday's match were: Brian Nowack, Andrew Flink, John Fabiano, Colin Smith, Roger Kueny, Tamela Benoit, Jill Gillis, Seth Stulgis and John Burockowitz.

- Daniel Cayarga

♣ Celebrate St. Joseph . . . Sister Remegia, Sister Egnita, Sister Ella Francis, Sister Elizabeth Anne, Sister Mary Lawrence, Sister St. Anne, Sister Tarbula, Sister Ann Bernard, Sister Simon, Sister Immaculata - I just went through my elementary school days at St. John's School. The good Sisters of St. Joseph had quite an impact on my life, as they have impacted so many on both sides of the bridge.

This year they celebrate the 125th anniversary of their ministry to Boston - four sisters arriving in 1873 to teach at St. Thomas Aquinas Parish School in Jamaica Plain. They came to St. Mary's in 1902 and to St. Catherine's in 1911, as they did to my own St. John's in the North End. As they begin this special year, I must add our thanks and gratitude for their past, their present and their future. You are very special people.

♣ High School Prep Notebook . . . On a rainy Friday afternoon, the Charlestown High Football Townies shut out Brighton 31-0. Mitch McCroskey had two touchdown runs, and Cedric Warren and Tommy Hobbs added one each for the Townies. Freddy, "Mr. P.A.T.," accounted for five extra points. Charlestown has a 2-1 overall record.

Anthony Potter, Jim Morse, and Tim Cullen all had touchdowns for Latin Academy, but it wasn't enough as East Boston knocked LA from the unbeaten ranks 24-22!

John Rice's 20-yard first quarter interception was just enough as Boston English defeated Burke 6-0 to remain undefeated at 4-0, and South Boston made it three straight shutting out Hyde Park 28-0. O'Bryant upended West Roxbury 28-6. Westie is still looking for a victory.

Catholic Conference powers Xaverian and Malden Catholic battled, and the Hawks continued to soar handing MC its first loss of the year, 31-12. Kevin Quinlan had both MC touchdowns.

Savio Prep picked off its first league win, and fourth straight victory downing Cathedral 33-16. Mike Burri, Paul Marks, Dave Dillion and Stephen Previte (2) all went into the end zone for the Spartans.

Boston Latin picked up its first win of the season edging Wayland 14-13 and BC High was edged by Bridgewater-Raynham 21-20. The Eagles are 0-4. Austin Prep tipped Arlington Catholic 22-20. Cardinal Spellman shut out St. Clement 32-0, and Georgetown shut out Pope John 14-0.

Arthur Cameron had another touchdown for undefeated Everett. The very big E shut out Arlington 43-0. Everett and Waltham are tied atop the Greater Boston League.

Catholic Central power Matignon rolled to its fourth straight win defeating Don Bosco in a non-league game. Matignon travels to Archbishop Williams this Saturday in what could be the league decider.

♣ Weekend Football Watch . . . Thursday, Oct. 9 - BC High at Lincoln-Sudbury. Friday, Oct. 10 - Catholic Memorial at West Roxbury and East Boston at English. Saturday, Oct. 11 - Charlestown at South Boston, Don Bosco at Fenwick, Everett at Somerville, Matignon at Williams, Malden Catholic at Bridgewater-Raynham, Brighton at Latin Academy, Pope John at Lowell Catholic, Marian at St. Clement and Savio Prep at St. Bernard. Sunday, Oct. 12 - Newton South at Boston Latin.

♣ World Gymnastic Tour . . . The notice was very late, but hustling around town Friday afternoon, I found a number of takers for the John Hancock Tour of World Gymnastic Champions featuring the 1996 USA Gold Medal Olympic Team. Thanks to the Fleet-Center Community Service Corp., a large number of Charlestownies were introduced to the world of gymnastics in a fast-moving, and very entertaining show at the Fleet-Center. Hosting the special trip was the Andy Puopolo Club.

♣ College Board . . . Division One hockey teams have begun. Preseason practice got underway over the weekend. Over at BU, close to 3,000 were in the stands to greet Hobey Baker-bound Chris Drury and the Terriers at midnight on Saturday. Up the road at BC, the Eagles flew in their annual "Maroon and Gold" game under the leadership of Captain Marty Reasoner.

On the football front, a lot of points were scored on Commonwealth Avenue this week. Unfortunately, the visitors did most of the scoring. BC was defeated by Georgia Tech 42-14, and BU, my stop, was pounded at the "pound" by Delaware 49-17. I was certainly glad the "B" train arrived quickly to get me out of there!

They did a lot of celebrating on Huntington Avenue as Northeastern downed William and Mary 33-12. There were no celebrations at Harvard or Merrimack.

For our basketball enthusiasts, be prepared. Midnight Madness is scheduled for Oct. 17!

Special thanks to our friends from Boston Against Drugs who made some tickets available for the BU football game.

♣ Columbus Day '97 . . . If you like parades, come over to the North End on Sunday for the annual Columbus Day Parade. You are all welcome! Word is that Mary Rizzo will even change her name to "Isabella" for the event!

♣ New York, Chicago, Boston, etc. . . . I've had an extra busy schedule this week. I met New York City Mayor Rudy Giuliani at Harvard University where he gave an address about the "Resurgence of the American Cities." Humanities 101 got a boost when I met Jasmine Guy and the cast of the Tony Award-winning musical, "Chicago," as they promoted the show. And I went to the grand re-opening of the "new" Old South Meeting House, which has been completely refurbished. The Old South Meeting House was the starting point for the Boston Tea Party. I even had a "chat" with Bernard Cardinal Law and the Ray Flynn family in Southie.

♣ Pro Line . . . It's hard to believe the winter season has begun as I write this at the Mugar Library on the campus of BU on a very warm October day. The Bruins didn't look too bad in their season opener versus LA - a 6-5 win. I was glad I was there to see BU standout Shawn Bates score his first NHL goal. I've watched and known Shawn throughout his BU career. After the game I caught up with Steve Heinze, his brother Andy, and their dad, who all send their best to the Vesey family. The Heinzes are good people. It's hard to believe that our friendships stretched from the high school battles of North Andover and Columbus, through Merrimack and BC, and now to the NHL. Friends you meet through school are friends for life! This is why I always stress "education" throughout Bob D's Beat, whenever the opportunity presents itself - go to school, stay in school!

I also went to the Bruins-Montreal game on Saturday. Seeing Brian McGonagle during one intermission, I mentioned that he should have brought his goalie equipment along! Most positive point of this game for me was the fact that new Bruins' Coach Pat Burns was really upset that the team lost - an emotion we haven't seen in a while.

Lest we forget throughout the year I will update you on our friends in Phoenix and Florida. Keith Tkachuk and Tommy Fitzgerald are back in action for the Coyotes 2-1-0, and the Panthers 1-1-0.

On the baseball front, I'm glad I picked up the Yankee series on the radio, because the Fox-TV announcers are bad! Only my opinion!

♣ Mayor's Cup Hockey . . . Charlestown had a very successful opening weekend in the annual Mayor's Cup Tournament. This weekend is Championship Weekend, and the games will be held at the MDC rinks, BU, BC and Northeastern.

Program Directors and coaches have the game information. Support our fine teams as they bring home the cup.

♣ Tidbits . . . Application deadline for the NFL Air-It-Out Competition is Oct. 17 . . . Was Tom Jackson cheering for the Canadiens? . . . Shane Fisher, how's the weather in Florida? . . . Timmy Warren - good move! . . . Nick Smith's new aka at Bridgewater State College - "Scoop." . . . Ian Urquhart, give Jimmy Tallent a call . . . Paula Neff, our school secretary, says hello to all her Columbus friends . . . Smile!

Thank You

I would like to thank all the people who sent me cards while I was in the hospital.

Thank you,
Mary Byrne

Thank You

Both my husband, Eddie, and I wish to thank the ambulance medics who drove us to two different hospitals, the VA and the Mass. General, at 8 a.m. on Sept. 29.

Also, thank you to our neighbors and friends for their well wishes and visits - especially, Gert and Joe Roche, Cindy Roche, Dot Shea, her friends and Anne Fyler.

May "God Bless,"
Anna Roche

Thank You, Charlestown!

Dear Gloria,

We would like to thank everyone who came down to the CYO Yard Sale on Oct. 4, and helped support the Charlestown CYO Program.

It was a very rewarding day (with some great weather, we might add!), but we know we couldn't have raised any money without the many donations of "junk" from so many people's homes in Charlestown, or without the help of our parents and adult friends. You don't know how much we appreciate it!

We would also like to thank District One Boston City Councillor Diane Modica for coming to the yard sale, and spending her time with us behind the tables. We thank Miss Modica for her generous donations and for being such a great friend to the Charlestown CYO Program.

Sincerely,

Neal Boyle, Roselyn Boyle, William Boyle,
Ashley Carr, Bobby Hoell, Colleen Hoell,
Phillip O'Neill, Michael Travis, Ryan Travis and Katelyn Walsh, members of the Charlestown CYO

Thanks For Your Support!

Now that the summer's come to an end and everyone is back in the "swing of things," the Christina Poole Community Fund Committee would like to thank everyone who was involved in making the second annual Christina Poole Softball Tournament a huge success.

Thanks again for all your support. Hope to see you all next season!

Sincerely,

The Christina Poole Committee

I look forward to a successful year for both clubs and I know we will work well together for the good of the community.

Sincerely,
Esther McCabe, president
D.O.I. #1

My Sincere Thanks

Dear Gloria,

As chairlady of "Tea With Priscilla," please allow me to extend our heartfelt thanks to you for the splendid coverage of our event on Sept. 14 in the Patriot.

Special thanks go out to the many sponsors of our event who generously gave of their special talents to support our project.

It was a wonderful day and very rewarding that so many chose to attend and help us with the latest project of the Charlestown Historical Society's Bunker Hill Museum.

The Charlestown Historical Society decided to honor Priscilla Kidder for her generosity to the Bunker Hill Museum 22 years ago for her donations of four period wedding gowns. Kidder, former owner of Priscilla of Boston, was presented with many citations and resolutions at this reception for her unselfish gifts to Charlestown via the Charlestown Historical Society and also to the Charlestown Rose.

Patricia Kaneb, the new owner of Priscilla of Boston, continues the tradition of helping the Charlestown community. As a grand finale to our reception, she provided a fashion show with three models displaying the current 1997 wedding gowns.

I hope those who attended enjoyed a slice of wedding cake as well.

Gratefully,
Marie Alves, chairlady

Since 1981, in a small village named Medjugorje in Bosnia-Herzegovina, The Blessed Virgin Mary has been appearing and giving messages to the world. She tells us that God has sent her to our world and these years she is spending with us are a time of Grace granted by God. On the 25th of each month she sends her message.

Message of September 25, 1997

"Dear children!
Today I call you to comprehend that without love you cannot comprehend that God needs to be in the first place in your life. This is why, little children, I call you all to love, not with a human but with God's love. In this way, your life will be more beautiful and without an interest. You will comprehend that God gives Himself to you in the simplest way out of love. Little children, so that you may comprehend my words which I give you out of love, pray, pray, pray and you will be able to accept others with love and to forgive all who have done evil to you. Respond with prayer; prayer is a fruit of love towards God the Creator. Thank you for having responded to my call."

tax planning"

RETIREMENT PLANNING UNDER THE NEW TAX LAW

In the area of retirement planning, the new tax law means more choices and more complexity. Here are some highlights.

- Beginning in 1998, you may be eligible for a "Roth IRA." Contributions to this new type of IRA won't be tax-deductible, but income will permanently escape tax if certain requirements are met. The new law adds another interesting wrinkle. Taxpayers with AGI of $100,000 or less can terminate their tax-deductible IRAs, pay the income tax, and roll the proceeds into a Roth IRA.

Income phase-outs for the Roth IRA are fairly high - $95,000 to $110,000 for singles and $150,000 to $160,000 for couples - which means that many taxpayers should be able to benefit. Unfortunately, the maximum contribution is only $2,000 per year, reduced by any contributions to other IRAs of the taxpayer.

- Under prior law, a couple covered by a retirement plan could make a full IRA contribution only if their income was $40,000 or less ($25,000 or less for singles). In 1998, these limits will increase to $50,000 and $30,000, respectively, and the limits will continue to increase through 2007. Also beginning in 1998, a non-working spouse may make a deductible IRA contribution of up to $2,000, even if the working spouse is covered by a retirement plan (phased out at $150,000 to $160,000 of joint income.).

- The new law allows IRA withdrawals at any age, without penalty, if the money is used to purchase a first home (lifetime limit of $10,000), or to pay college tuition for family members (no dollar limit). The effective date is Jan. 1, 1998.

- Prior law contained two 15% penalty taxes: one tax on "excess" retirement plan distributions and the other on estate taxes with "excess" retirement plan accumulations. Both of these taxes have been repealed retroactive to Jan. 1, 1997.

Monday, Sept. 29

At about 2:15 p.m., an East Boston woman reported that while visiting her mother on Tibbetts Town Way, an argument ensued over a gold bracelet, and the mother took the bracelet from her. A fight erupted and the victim's brother got involved. A hearing on the incident will be held in Charlestown District Court.

Wednesday, Oct. 1

A Charlestown woman reported that between 7 p.m. on Sept. 30 and 2 p.m. on this date, two Mass. license plates were stolen from her auto while it was parked on Corey Street. The license plate number is 496 2DF.

A Saugus woman reported that between 8 a.m. and 4:15 p.m., her motor vehicle was vandalized while it was parked on Alford Street. The door lock and the steering column were damaged.

A Florence, Mass. man stated that between 8:15 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., his auto was broken into while it was parked at 487 Rutherford Ave. The passenger-side front window was broken and a stereo system, tapes and other items were stolen.

A Somerville woman reported that between noon and 6 p.m., the rear windshield of her motor vehicle was broken while it was parked in the vicinity of 209 Main St.

Thursday, Oct. 2

A Charlestown woman reported that between 8 a.m. and 4:45 p.m., her Belmont Street apartment was broken into.

Entry was gained by forcing open a kitchen window. Among the items taken were a VCR, a receiver, jewelry and tapes.

Friday, Oct. 3

At 7:50 a.m., police received the report of a fire at H.P. Hood on Rutherford Avenue. The Boston Fire Department extinguished a fire on the first floor that had started inside a trash bin. No injuries were reported.

Police received a report that after a dispute with Ironworkers on a job site at 465 Medford St. which resulted in workers being dismissed from the site, some workers removed prefabricated stairwells. The workers said the stairwells would be returned on Oct. 6.

At about 1:45 p.m., officers responded to 240 Medford St. for found property. Found was a Red Sox bag containing nine green bags with the logo of the Coolidge Bank & Trust Co. A Charlestown High School teacher reportedly found them on Terminal Street. The Bank Robbery Task Force was notified.

At about 9 p.m., officers observed a 34-year-old Charlestown man conducting a drug transaction with two other men in the vicinity of 98 Medford St. The man was placed under arrest for the distribution of a Class A substance in a school zone. The other two men were stopped and a two tinfoil packets, believed to be heroin, were recovered.

Saturday, Oct. 4

At 3:40 p.m., officers were called to Austin Street on the report of a fight. A security officer reported that a Charlestown woman and a Medford man had been involved in an argument. According to the security officer, the two have been dating, and neither wanted police assistance.

Sunday, Oct. 5

At 12:15 a.m., officers spoke to a Charlestown woman who had flagged them down in the Navy Yard. She had seen an Oldsmobile Cutlass strike and push a legally parked Toyota for 10-15 feet into a chain-link fence, resulting in collision damage to the Toyota's bumper and header panel. The driver of the Oldsmobile was then seen parking in a private garage on 13th Street. The driver of the Oldsmobile was not found at that time, but officers observed damage to the car on the right front bumper. The Oldsmobile is registered to a Chelmsford man.

A woman reported that between 5:15 on Oct. 3 and 6 p.m. on this date, her auto, which was parked opposite 443 Bunker Hill St., was struck on the driver's side door resulting in extensive damage. The car was registered to the Honda Finance Corp. in Hadley, Mass.

'Old Ironsides' To Celebrate Bicentennial Oct. 21

USS Constitution will celebrate her 200th birthday on Tuesday, Oct. 21 with a day of events that will honor and recognize her heritage as well as her crew members.

"Constitution links the legacy of our Navy's past with the promise of our future," Chief of Naval Operations Adm. Jay L. Johnson said. "She embodies the constancy of our enduring mission: forward presence."

In 1793, President George Washington authorized USS Constitution's construction to protect American shipping. She was the most effective ship of her era winning all 33 engagements. Since then, the American people have embraced "Old Ironsides" as their lasting symbol of American pride.

According to the U.S. Navy, that same pride, will be felt during the day's events. The following is a current schedule of the day's celebrations and other information items.

8 a.m. - Anniversary Blessing (open to all)

10 a.m. - Constitution Museum launches a curriculum (open to all) noon - USS Constitution underway for turnaround cruise (by invitation only)

12:30 p.m. - 21-gun Salute off Rows Wharf (public viewing)

1 p.m. - USS Constitution arrives at the Coast Guard Integrated Service Command (ICS)

1:30 p.m. - Welcome Ceremony at the Coast Guard ICS (open to all)

2 p.m. - USS Constitution departs Coast Guard ICS

2:30 p.m. - USS Constitution arrives at Pier 1, Charlestown Navy Yard;

3 p.m. - Parade to Old South Meeting House starting from the Coast Guard ICS (open to all)

5 p.m. - Oration at the Old South Meeting House (restricted)

6:30 p.m. - Reception Dinner at the JFK Library (by invitation only).

Concert At St. John's

Cantata à Trois, Susan Harris, soprano, Carolyn Jean Smith, recorders and Ronald Dynneson, harpsichord and organ, present their debut concert, De-filed & Redeemed: Sacred Cantatas & Instrumental Music of Telemann & Bach, on Sunday, Oct. 19 at 3 p.m. at St. John's Episcopal Church, 27 Devens St. in Charlestown.

For their debut concert, the members of Cantata à Trois will present a tightly integrated program of instrumental and vocal music and readings which traces the soul's path from languishing in original sin through penitence before the face of Christ to the joy of redemption.

General admission is $8, and $5 for students. For further information, call 627-9670.

ST. JUDE'S NOVENA

May the Sacred Heart of Jesus be adored, glorified, honored, loved and preserved throughout the world now and forever. Sacred Heart of Jesus, pray for us. St. Jude, worker of miracles, pray for us. St. Jude, help of the hopeless, pray for us. Say this prayer nine times a day. It has never been known to fail. Publication must be promised. I have had my request granted.
