

Study 5

Read Titus 2:11-15

I. The grace of God (11-15)

Discussion Questions

- What does “the grace of God” refer to?
- Are there any hints in the text as to what the “grace of God” is? What is the biggest grace of God to us?
- Define “grace.”
- What is the relationship of these verses (11-13) with the rest of the book?

Application – Think about and thank God for how His grace has changed your life. Consider your worst sins and thank Him for His forgiveness. In addition to the remission of sins, in what other ways have you experienced God’s grace? Since God has graciously forgiven us, we should do the same for others. How can you show grace to others in day-to-day life?

II. Godly and expectant living (12-14)

Discussion Questions

- What are some examples of Jesus instructing us not to be ungodly and to avoid worldly desires?
- What were some features of the present age at that time? How about now? Which is easier to serve God in? Why?
- How does one renounce ungodliness and worldly passions? Is this a one-time thing or continuous?
- Knowing that the world around us is so evil, how can we live sensibly, righteously, and godly?
- How can you train in godliness?

- What is the blessed hope?
- Why did Jesus die on the cross to redeem us?
- How did Jesus purchase you?
- What does it mean to you that you are His possession?

Application – How can you practice renunciation of worldly desires in your everyday life? How can you train yourself so that the allure of the world fades even more? Where does the strength for denying sin come from?
