Ways to Spend a Rainy Day at the Beach

There are many stages in life. First, you date someone, then you get married and then you get blessed with babies and so on and on. I have been lucky to get through all these stages from time to time. The point is whatever your current state is, you surely want to go for a beach vacation and have some fun. To tell you a bit about how to have fun on a rainy day at the beach, I am willing to share all my experiences. Most of us probably thinks that a rainy day in a beach vacation means your vacation is ruined, but to be honest, there are many ways you could enjoy your precious time with your love partner and also your family if you know what to do on a rainy day. I like to go on vacation whenever I get some time off. Mostly I like to go to the beach. In the last couple of years I was on the Manzanita Oregon beach a few times. So, I will be talking about a few specific places and activities that I have liked the most.

Romantic Getaways Oregon Coast, if you have got your love partner with you and you want a place that is quiet and have great views of the ocean and is also romantic, I would definitely recommend the houses on Manzanita beach rentals. They have got many options to choose from. I have been to the beachfront bungalow which has 2 bedrooms and a single bathroom. It only costs about $115 per night and has great viewing of the ocean. This beachfront bungalow is very romantic and if have got one or two kids, they will be staying with you perfectly fine on the second bedroom.

So, let's assume you have got two kids and it is raining. What would you do? Take in a movie, rainy days and movies get together very well. You could either go to the theatre or you could watch TV that you get on this Bungalow. Either way, your time is well spent.

You can go outside anyway, because the rain this beach never been very heavy and you could have more fun in this way. A little lite rain on your body while you are running around and your kids are jumping around is never really bad.

Let's assume you have got more or less 20 friends with you. Where would you find this large house? The house on Manzanita rentals also has a really big house, which is known as the historic Reed house. Easily 20 people can stay together in this rather large house. This 3 storied building is perfect for having a group of people together. You could cook with your friends and no need to go outside. Even if you want to go outside and have fun, you could play beach ball with your friends.

The reason I am talking about the houses on Manzanita beach is that you get really good service from them and when you are a regular customer of a company you tend to get some advantages and priorities.
