Over 66 Percent Of Charlestown Voters Cast Their Ballots On Election Day

Some 5,942 residents of Ward Two, Charlestown, went to the polls on Tuesday to cast their ballots in the State Election. Although the trend was Democratic in this traditionally Democratic Ward, some of the Republican candidates made a significant showing. Charlestown had an increase of 643 in the number of registered voters between the September primary and Tuesday's election. This brought the total number of voters to 8,969.

The Silber/Clapprod ticket took this community by a three-to-two margin over the Weld/Cellucci bid for the state Senate seat held by retiring Senator Fran Doris, took 72 percent of the vote here in Charlestown.

Rep. Richard Voke, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, was unopposed in his re-election bid. He garnered a 70 percent vote in Pre-

Halloween Celebrated With A Charlestown Children's Parade

CREATIVE COSTUMES were the order of the day as children and their parents marched around the Bunker Hill Monument on Halloween to the music provided by members of the Tufts University Marching Band. Ghosts, goblins, ballerinas and storybook characters, along with a Bart Simpson and a Ninja Turtle or two, were only a few of the costumes making their way around the Monument. This annual event, sponsored by the Charlestown Association of Parents, has become a tradition in the community, providing a safe and fun evening for both the children and their parents. Holiday packages are being readied to send to 14 servicemen from Charlestown who will be serving their country in the Persian Gulf during the holiday season. Donations have been arriving at a steady clip, but there is still room in the gift boxes for your donation.

Bunker Hill Post 26, The American Legion began the Christmas project to show our servicemen that they are not forgotten during the Christmas season. The Post will assume the cost of mailing the packages and post members and neighborhood volunteers will be gathering this weekend to wrap the gifts and pack the boxes.

Charlestown Recycling Committee

by Peter Jones

The Charlestown Recycling Committee is a new resident organization interested in raising community awareness about the need to recycle, sharing information about current recycling options, and developing new ways to make recycling easier in Charlestown. The committee held its first meeting on Oct. 29. Among the issues discussed were the city of Boston's existing drop-off recycling programs, the city's curbside recycling pilot program in Jamaica Plain, the current level of participation by Charlestown residents and ways in which new, innovative programs could be adopted in Charlestown.

The committee welcomes new members and will hold its next meeting on Monday, Nov. 26, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. at the Charlestown Community School on Medford Street. Those who would like more information about the committee or recycling in Charlestown should contact Pete Jones at 241-0425, Kathy Callahan at 242-3512 or Janet Shea at 242-1620.

Charlestown Scouts And Cubs Raise Funds

by Fernando R. Laguarda

Boy Scouts, Webelos and Cub Scouts from Charlestown's Troop 2 and Pack 2 participated in the Boston Council's annual Bowl-a-Thon to raise funds for scouting activities in the community. Boys secured pledges from neighbors and family, helping to defray the cost of camping and hiking activities throughout the year. The Troop and Pack are planning an outing each month, as well as attendance at regional events such as a weekend Camporee in the spring and Klondike Derby this winter.

Among the Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts attending the Bowl-a-Thon were Steve King, Chris Corrado, Sean Duggin, Larry Payton, George Collins, John Crosby, Kevin McCusker and Tom Collins.

The scouting program aims to provide an exciting outdoor program for boys of all ages. Scouting offers boys the opportunity to learn new skills, plan and attend exciting events, and develop leadership as responsible citizens. Scout leaders and parents provide resources and advice along the way. The scouts are working on strategies to keep the costs of the program down and provide the most for each dollar. Examples include low-cost meal planning and self-made equipment.

Troop 2 is working toward its November outing, to be held after Thanksgiving. Any parent or boy who is interested in learning more about the Cub Scouts or the Boy Scouts should call Scoutmaster Pete Jones at 241-0425.

St. John's Church Fair

St. John's Episcopal Church will be holding its 151st Church Fair at the Parish Hall on Devens Street on Saturday, Nov. 10 from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. As usual it's expected to be a fun and exciting time.

There will be sweets, crafts, handmade items, used books, dolls, white elephant treasures and much more on sale. Flo's Turkey Dinner will be cooking in the kitchen and ready to enjoy at noon.

A BUYER'S MARKET FOR CONDOS?

Until recently, condominium units were considered to be an excellent way for high income investors to shelter income. They purchased units with little money down, and even though the rents they charged did not cover their monthly carrying costs, they did well when tax deductions were added into the equation.

With tax reform, however, limits were placed on tax savings for high income investors, and some of them are placing their condos up for sale. In our area this has created a buyers' market, making them attractive to owner/occupants and moderate income investors. If you're looking for a condo to live in, there are tremendous values in the marketplace.

Halloween In Salem For Bunker Hill Teens

by Bob DeCristoforo

Nano Arroyo and Billy Schofield spent Halloween 1990 a little differently this year.

We hopped on the 6:55 p.m. commuter rail at North Station and arrived in the Witch City of Salem around 7:30 p.m. After our get-acquainted walk around town, we visited a Haunted House, the Salem Witch Museum, and had a bite to eat.

The rest of the evening was spent viewing the eerie sights of Salem on Halloween night.

All were in agreement that Salem is the place to be on Halloween, and that a day trip in the near future wouldn't be a bad idea.

Boston and its surroundings has a lot to offer, and on Halloween we discovered one of those offerings . . . Salem, the Witch City.

Not For Nothin' . . . But Have You Heard . . .

To Set The Record Straight . . . The Charlestown Patriot did NOT endorse any candidate for public office in the Nov. 6 Election. The Republican candidate for State Treasurer, Joe Malone, used the Patriot front page logo on a political flyer creating the impression that it was the newspaper's endorsement. We were not asked nor did we give permission for such use of our logo. Any endorsement would only be printed on the pages of the Patriot. No candidate for any office received such an endorsement this year.

Congratulations . . . to Betty Codair of Mystic Street and Ray Trimble who'll tie the knot on Nov. 9th. Our best wishes for many years of wedded bliss!

Boy . . . No one asked, but can Jeannie Riley spell! Ask her how she does it. You'd be amazed!

A Dream Come True . . . After mentioning the dream of a mother coming true for the daughter in last week's column, St. Clement's High School Homecoming Queen Jennifer Gill's mom, Ann, was crowned "Queen Mom" in a private ceremony last Friday night in the back room of Sully's on Union Street. Her friends honored her with not only a jewel-studded crown, but an appropriate sash as well . . . We couldn't be happier, and so touched!

Congrats . . . to newly engaged couple Mimi Dowd and Paul Wrenn who made the big announcement to family and friends last week!

Good News . . . Alice Gardner has returned to the Recycled Teenagers Walking Club. Not only is she back, her first outing resulted in four laps around the track that equalled one mile! Good for you, Alice!

Get Well Wishes . . . go out to former "Townies" who would like to hear from their many friends back home. Patricia (Connolly) Wright, daughter of Shorty and Ollie Connolly, is hospitalized after recent open heart surgery. Send a card to her at South West Florida Regional Medical Center, Evans Street, Room 172, Fort Myers, Fla. . . . Dick Gauthier, son of Gladys, is recuperating at St. Luke's Hospital, One 13th St. at Amsterdam Avenue, New York, NY 10025 . . . Why not drop them a cheery note?!

Hungry? . . . Visit the Yankee Magazine's Great New England Food Festival at Faneuil Hall Marketplace on Friday, Nov. 9 between noon and 2 p.m. and Saturday, Nov. 10 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. The event will feature the best apple pie in New England, non-stop cooking demonstrations and plenty of free food!

Don't Get Caught . . . move that car! Street cleaning continues until Nov. 30! Watch the posted signs!

Birthday Wishes . . . to Caitlin Marie Walsh who turned 2 on Nov. 7. Mom and Dad, Kathleen and Jim of St. Martin Street celebrated the big event in style . . . and to Liz Gallas who'll celebrate on Nov. 10. Liz is the Gallas of Liz Gallas Real Estate at One Thompson Square . . . Have a great year, ladies.

Well Deserved . . . will be the awarding of the "Legislative Award" by the Massachusetts Academy of Trial Attorneys to Rep. Richard Voke at the gathering's annual meeting at the Parker House on Nov. 14 . . . Congrats, Mr. Chairman!

Nice Touch . . . Was the sight of Tom Birmingham and his people out bright and early the day after the election to thank his supporters for their endorsement of his candidacy for state Senate! . . . Congrats, Tom!

Anniversary . . . Mark Sills and Marc Perelman have just celebrated their first anniversary as proprietors of Sorelle on Monument Avenue! Best wishes!

Oh, So Cute . . . Arthur Crotty of Soley Street has won an assorted collection of large, chubby animals about his abode. Five racoons have taken up residency near the Crotty homestead. One passer-by stopped to chat with Arthur recently and was shocked when one of the little critters reached up and touched him! . . . That was Charlie Clabaugh who'll not visit the area for a while, we're told! . . . Arthur, an avid animal lover, has not taken kindly to the frisky creatures our source informs us . . . But, Arthur, we're so glad YOU have them!

Grinch Report . . . Well, at least one Navy Yard business is thinking of others as the holiday season approaches . . . Blossoms Cafe has come forward with a sizable contribution toward a Christmas tree. Thank you, Diane. A "Tip o' The Hat" to you and your staff! . . . Follow the good deed of Blossoms and we'll promptly publish the name of any and all contributors . . . What's Christmas without a brightly lit tree?! . . . Stay tuned.

Our Thoughts Remain . . . with the Military serving in the Persian Gulf, especially our men from Charlestown . . . But let us not forget all former service men and women who, when called upon, freely gave of their talents in service to this country — and most especially those who gave their all. Remember them on . . .

Veterans Day 1990

One day each year Americans come together to honor all those men and women who have served their nation in uniform.

The day was born out of war — at 11 a.m. on Nov. 11, 1918, the fighting in World War I ceased with the signing of an armistice. The uneasy peace after that event was hard won by those who fought in the trenches of Europe. Since then, American service members have been sent around the world to defend liberty in large conflicts and what some people might call "brushfires." Combat is a deadly behavior, regardless of its scale, and those people who serve us and come home to rejoin the daily lives of private citizens have earned our respect, our admiration and our gratitude.

Of course, on this Veterans Day, many of us will reflect on the current deployment of troops in the Persian Gulf region, and we pray with each passing day that they, too, will resume the normal everyday duties of military men and women around the world.

And with that service come sacrifice. Many of the combat and support troops serving as a buffer in Saudi Arabia may be our next door neighbors, our doctors, lawyers, grocery clerks and plumbers. In the American tradition of the citizen soldier, volunteer members of the Reserves and National Guard, the best and brightest, are again setting aside their careers and postponing their futures to answer their nation's call.

Their presence in that far away region demonstrates that military service is not always easy, and that the unthinkable one day can become the routine of today. It is the devotion to duty we see every day that we salute on Nov. 11.

For more than a decade veterans fought to return Veterans Day to Nov. 11 from what became a convenient Monday holiday. The people who waged that campaign knew what others forgot — the day was set aside to honor those who sacrificed for their country. That is not a weekend endeavor; it is not an occasion for mattress sales; it is not a time to go to the beach. Rather, it is an appropriate time to pull back from the workday world and reflect on the sacrifices made by brave service men and women that have made America the envy of the world. It's time to say solemnly and sincerely, "Thanks."

Veterans Day activities vary from community to community, but the meaning of the day comes through no matter where you are. There can be no more appropriate way of spending a portion of this coming Sunday than to reflect on the service, the sacrifice and the honor of those who have kept us free.

Veterans Day 1990

America's Veterans

Our Home Team

Who are America's veterans? They are the men and women who have fulfilled the greatest obligation of their citizenship. They have served their nation with honor to defend the cause of freedom and individual dignity.

Veterans were the "home team" in time of war. Now, there are 25 million of these men and women who make up the "home team" of thousands of American communities. From every walk of life, from Main Street to the White House, they continue to serve the many needs of mankind.

On this Veterans Day 1990, we salute the veterans of our nation and our community for their continued dedication to service for God and Country.

SCHOOL SPOTLIGHT

Waiting For The Trolley . . .

As part of Mayor Raymond Flynn's Boston Youth Campaign, the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services recently hosted a field day for a class of developmentally disabled high school students at Castle Island in South Boston. After two successful summer Youth Campaigns, Mayor Flynn, recognizing that the need for positive youth activities does not end when school begins, extended the program year round. The trip was one of the first events of the fall schedule.

The 30 youths came from 11 different Boston neighborhoods — including Julie Campbell, John Correia and Robert Peterson of Charlestown. They joined Neighborhood Services staff and their teachers from Charlestown High School for a trolley ride, a tour of historic Fort Independence and a picnic lunch. The trip was co-sponsored by the Office of Neighborhood Services and The Raymond Group.

CHS teachers and staff were thrilled to have a sponsor for the trip, which was the first one for this class in two years.

"The kids really enjoyed this," said CHS special education teacher Karen Prussing. "We really appreciate

"We had fun and the kids had fun," said Charlestown Coordinator Judy Evers. "It was a wonderful day."

St. Catherine's Mirror . . .

• National Night Out 1990 . . . The students of St. Catherine's School participated in the National Night Out 1990 Poster Contest with great success. Ian N. Burke, a third-grade student, was awarded a U.S. Savings Bond for his outstanding poster addressing the theme: "Our Neighborhood-Free From Crime and Drugs."

• Grand Bola Winners . . . Students wish to thank Dan O'Neil, chairman of the Grand Bola to benefit Camp Bunker Hill, for his interest in them. Each student was given a chance to win one of 100 prizes and four students were lucky winners. They are: Noushin Izadi, John Kelsey, Linh Huynh and Thuy Vu.

• Great American Smoke Out . . . In observance of the Great American Smoke Out on Nov. 15, students in the seventh and eighth grades will be participating in an educational program designed to discourage the use of cigarettes and smokeless tobacco. Each student will develop a poster based on one health fact regarding the dangers of these tobacco products. These posters will be presented and explained to the students in grades one and two.

A study of school children conducted in 1983 in Springfield revealed that over 30 percent of children have tried smoking at least once by the time they reach grade five. The study also states that 25 percent of all smokers reported having started smoking by grades seven or eight. It is the goal of St. Catherine educators to encourage our students to be smoke free.

• Altar Servers . . . Shane Fisher and Vinny Sassone were installed as Altar Servers on Oct. 28. Both boys are to be praised for their spirit of sacrifice.

• Christmas Bazaar . . . We here at St. Catherine's School are in need of volunteers, donations and prizes for our annual Christmas Bazaar which will be held on Saturday, Dec. 8 in the School Hall on Tufts Street between 11 a.m. and 5:30 p. m.

If anyone is able to assist in any way, please call the school office at 242-0169 between 8:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

• Correction . . . In the Oct. 25 Mirror column, first grader Kevin O'Neil was identified as being the son of Michael O'Neil, alumnus of St. Catherine's School. Kevin is the son of Kevin O'Neil who did not attend the grammar school.

• Working Together . . . The Oct. 19 Office Newsletter to parents and teachers included a little "extra" tidbit. Parents, teachers and students were asked to translate a sentence to win breakfast with the principal.

Nine members of the school community guessed the correct answer and joined Sister Catherine for breakfast at Mama Maria's. They were Kendall Junta, grade one; John Fabiano and Jenna Donovan, grade two; Candace Griffin, grade three; Rosetta Cannizzaro and Linda Rizzo, grade six; Kristen Murphy, grade seven; and Dennis Doris and Sister Dorothy Burns, C.S.J., grade eight.

I will leave you this week with the translation of this beautiful Gaelic phrase . . . "God and Mary Be With You," Dia's Muire Dhuit.

'Ready To Go!' Polls Edwards Students On The Race For Governor

liam Weld. Independent candidate Len Umina received no votes.

City Voices Concern Over Elimination Of Traverse Street Ramp

The city of Boston Transportation Department announces concern over the State's proposed elimination of the Traverse Street ramp from the Central Artery project.

The elimination of this ramp would force traffic to travel considerable distances on city streets to reach I-93 and Route 1, including the North Washington Street Bridge into City Square. This traffic would significantly increase congestion and would result in a large back up of traffic during the afternoon peak hours.

This congestion would restrict access and egress along the North Washington Street Bridge, which is the first response route for fire units from the North End and Charlestown's main connection to downtown. Additionally, the resulting traffic increase would negatively affect the neighborhood's air quality.

John Riordan, director of the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services, said, "Mayor Flynn is committed to mitigating the community's concerns over the elimination of the Traverse Street ramp from the Central Artery project. The city is concerned that the elimination of this ramp would place an unreasonable traffic burden on the residents of Charlestown and the North End."

"The Boston Transportation Department has reviewed the state's proposal to eliminate the Traverse Street ramp and is extremely concerned about the impact an additional 500 vehicles entering City Square during the peak hours, would have on the community," stated Commissioner Richard A. Dimino. "It is important that residents understand the implications of the ramp's removal."

Trees Planted In Two Charlestown Parks

JAMES "STRETCH" WALSH, regional administrator of the Boston Parks and Recreation Department, relates to those gathered at the Training Field for a recent tree-planting ceremony the commitment of the department for the care and upkeep of the city's parks. City Tree Warden Brian Gilbert was also on hand to assist with the tree planting and to advise the area residents on its care.

TOSSING THE FIRST SHOVELS of dirt to secure the newly planted tree in the McCarthy Playground were (l. to r.) Judy Evers, community liaison from the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services; Main Street resident Maryann Ryan; Dennis McLaughlin, chairman, Charlestown Neighborhood Council; and Mead Street resident John Greatorex who serves as voluntary caretaker of the park.

AREA CHILDREN assist John Greatorex in the planting of a new London Plane tree at the McCarthy Playground, courtesy of the Boston Parks and Recreation Department. Greatorex said: "Only God can make a tree and I hope the youngsters will allow this one to grow as tall as the others in the park."

Department Of Public Works Addresses Community Concerns

Community concerns have been voiced about Central Artery bridges, design and impacts. The Massachusetts Department of Public Works (DPW) in this and next week's editions of The Charlestown Patriot will respond to the 10 most frequently expressed concerns. This week's questions and answers focus on design and mitigation. Next week's topics include traffic and environmental concerns. If you have other concerns that you would like addressed, please call Stephen Collins, the Central Artery Charlestown liaison, at 951-6000.

Question . . . Can the project be delayed in order to allow more time for further study/input to the interchange north of Causeway Street? What would be the impact to the project if it were to be delayed?

The Charles River Bridges and interchange have been studied for over five years. During that time more than 31 options have been drawn and studied by project engineers and suggested by interested parties. The proposed Charles River Bridges offer the best solution for this very complicated interchange, which must solve several problems. Scheme Z, the proposed alternative, solves all the safety and traffic problems while having the least impact on adjoining parkland in Charlestown. Without the Central Artery/Tunnel Project, City Square traffic will not be improved, but will continue to grow more congested.

Delaying the bridge design inevitably delays the CANA construction, since both designs are connected. Also, delaying the bridge design delays the entire Artery/Tunnel Project as individual components are not separable. Federal and state agencies must give the necessary approvals to the project as a whole for construction to proceed on schedule this coming spring. The Massachusetts' economy needs the boost of the Central Artery/Tunnel Project both now for the 15,000 jobs and later for better access to and from Boston.

Question . . . The original plans for the interchange north of Causeway Street was Scheme 5A, why is this not the proposed action today?

Scheme 5A was dropped as a viable option because of major design issues that did not meet federal safety standards such as on and off ramps placed too close together and because of extensive community objection to having the new I-93 mainline highway structure closer to the community than the existing structure. Scheme 5A also included a ramp on the south bank of the Charles River which impinged on the water's edge. Scheme 5A crossed over the top of the MDC dam causing problems with dam maintenance and poor pedestrian connections between Charlestown and downtown Boston. Perhaps most important, Scheme 5A also took a portion of Paul Revere Landing Park in Charlestown.

Through redesign the proposed bridges (Scheme Z) moved 500 feet farther away from the Charlestown Paul Revere Landing Park and City Square and opened up more than eight waterfront acres for enhanced recreational usage. The redesign also improved pedestrian access over the Charles River Dam and along the riverfront.

Question . . . Why isn't Scheme T a viable option?

Scheme T, a partial tunnel combined with bridges, had the same safety problem of on and off movements too close together. Also during Scheme T's construction phase, the necessary detours of traffic on local streets would have created unacceptable traffic back-ups. The construction techniques for the proposed tunnel would have caused serious disruptions on the Charles River and would have delayed the building of affordable housing at North Point in Cambridge for a decade. Scheme T also had the problem of requiring additional ventilation buildings. Finally, Scheme T caused poor pedestrian conditions by placing ramps along Causeway Street, a major pedestrian crossing point.

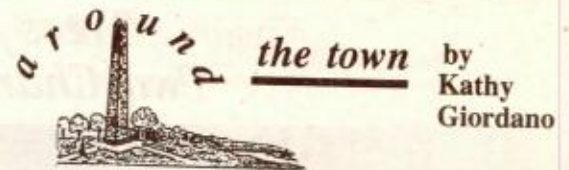

Question . . . Will the Charlestown-based ambulance service remain in Charlestown throughout the construction period?

As stated in a July, 1990 letter from Commissioner Garvey to the Charlestown Neighborhood Council, the ambulance service located in Charlestown's Sullivan Square will remain until the CANA tunnels open to traffic. However, as part of on going negotiations between the DPW and the city of Boston, the Department of Health and Hospitals has included the CANA ambulance in their request for staffing operations. In addition, they have proposed the purchase of four additional ambulances for the Central Artery/Tunnel Project.

Question . . . What is the mitigation program to date with respect to both the CANA and Central Artery/Tunnel Projects?

As part of the CANA mitigation program services include: a water shuttle service between the Charlestown Navy Yard and Long Wharf and bus service within the Navy Yard, and extra police details and tow trucks. These, plus other services, will be continued or expanded for the Artery/Tunnel Project. Also, as part of the extensive Central Artery mitigation program, there will be a specific mitigation officer assigned to the Charlestown area who will deal with all construction-related issues on a daily basis. In addition, the mitigation program will include dust, rodent and noise control. Special sign posting, lighting, cleaning and disabled access will be included in all temporary construction walkways.

Representatives of the DPW will be in Charlestown on Thursday, Nov. 15 at 7 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 75 West School St. to provide information on the Central Artery Project as it relates to this community and to answer questions from residents.

★ 16 Harvard St. — A fire of suspicious origin hit 16 Harvard St. on Saturday, Nov. 3 causing an estimated $25,000 in damage. The fire was discovered in a back hallway shortly after 8 p.m. by residents of the 3½-story building, after smoke was seen coming from the rear of the first floor. Fire investigators determined that the blaze had been set in a pile of clothing, and flames quickly spread up the staircase to the top floor.

The Arson Squad is investigating reports of a fight between two residents earlier that day that resulted in windows on the first floor being broken. A woman in her mid-20s is being sought for questioning.

One firefighter suffered minor injuries when a ceiling of a third-floor unit collapsed on him. He was treated at the scene.

★ 33 Carney Court — A fire was quickly extinguished in a bedroom of a Bunker Hill Housing Development apartment at 33 Carney Court on Tuesday, Nov. 6 at 10 a.m. A Fire Department report indicated that the blaze, which caused an estimated $1,500 in damage, was set by a youngster playing with matches. There were no injuries reported.

★ MWRA — The Massachusetts Water Resources Authority has announced that two public hearings will be held to review proposed plans to build a system of storage tunnels and pumping stations to control pollution caused by combined sewer overflows.

Combined sewers carry both sanitary sewage and rain water in a single pipe. When heavy rains overburden the pipeline, special pipes known as CSOs allow excess flow from a combined sewer to an overflow. Functioning as release mechanisms, CSOs discharge an estimated 10- to 12-billion gallons of untreated wastewater annually into Boston Harbor and its tributaries.

As part of a federal court-ordered schedule, the MWRA submitted a Combined Final Facilities Plan and Final Environmental Impact Report to the Federal Court and Massachusetts Executive Office of Environmental Affairs in September.

Comments will be heard from 4 to 9 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 14 at the Gardner Auditorium in the State House, and on Thursday, Nov. 15 at 7 p.m. in the auditorium at the U.S. Department of Transportation building, 55 Broadway, Kendall Square, Cambridge.

Written comments may be sent to: EOE Project 6956, Mass. Environmental Policy Act Unit, 100 Cambridge St., 20th floor, Boston, Mass. 02202. For further information, contact Carrie Fuchs, MWRA Public Affairs, at 241-6057 ext. 1192.

★ Marine Cargo Terminal — The Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) of the U.S. Labor Department has cited P & W Marine Services Inc. of Boston for alleged "serious and other than serious violations" of the Occupational Safety and Health Act at the Moran Terminal in Charlestown and has proposed penalties totalling $16,560.

According to David A. Crockett, director of OSHA's southeastern Massachusetts area office, the alleged violations were discovered during a programmed inspection conducted at the marine terminal between Sept. 20 and Oct. 2, 1990. Crockett noted that the alleged violations concerned a variety of safety and health standards basic to marine terminals and longshoring operations. "These citations reflect the complexity of this type of worksite," he stated, "which encompasses both land and water and the hazards associated with work involving large cargo cranes, industrial trucks, lifting platforms, fall protection over both land and water, machine guarding, electrical equipment, protective headgear, rescue equipment and access to cargo barges."

A serious violation is defined by OSHA as one in which there is substantial probability that death or serious physical harm could result. An other-than-serious violation is a condition which would probably not cause death or serious harm but would have a direct and immediate relationship to the safety and health of the employees. OSHA is empowered by the Occupational Safety and Health Act to issue standards and rules requiring employers to provide their employees with safe and healthful workplaces and job sites. The company has 15 work days from receipt of the citation and proposed penalties to contest them before the independent Occupational Safety and Health Review Commission.

★ The Central Artery — The largest federal contribution received by the Central Artery project to date, was presented to the Commonwealth on Nov. 2 by U.S. Sen. John Kerry and Congressman Joseph Moakley. A check in the amount of $751 million was presented to State Transportation and Construction Secretary Frederick Salvucci and Massachusetts Department of Public Works Commissioner Jane Garvey from the Federal Highway Administration.

Garvey stated that the federal money "keeps the project on track toward next spring's official ground breaking."

Junior Bowling League Update

Believe it or not, the Charlestown Junior Bowling League has just completed its fifth week of league competition and the children get better and better each week.

This week's superstar is Christine Lewey who bowls for Sean's Elevator. Her weekly average has been 53, but this week she really found the mark, boasting strings of 86, 71 and 68 bringing her average for this week up to 75. Congratulations, Christine.

NICOLE MARINO proves that persistence pays off. Perfect attendance certainly is a contributing factor to her rising average. She is now up to a super 57. (photo by John Dillon)

bowls for Bunker Hill Real Estate, certainly has proven that if you stick to something, good things will happen. She has had perfect attendance for the last five weeks enabling her to bring her average up from a 53.5 to a terrific 57. So, bowlers, follow Nicole's good example and maybe next week your average will be on the rise.

High average honors this week go to Janelle Ortiz of the Sean Elevator team, averaging a 73, and Winnie Sassone of the Erins team with a 72. Keep up the good work!

Three future champions captured spots in the 80s Club this week. Winnie Sassone bowled a high of 86, followed closely by Robert DiFrummolo on the Kennedy Center team and Jason Melaugh on Jenny's team, who both bowled 83.

The membership in the 70s Club is growing weekly. This week, Stephen Burke of the Jenny's team pick off 78 points worth of pins. Ian Burke of the Kerrigan's team and Billy Durette of the Kennedy Center team both finished with 74, Craig Powers of the Bunker Hill Real Estate team had a 72 and Philip O'Neill of Bunker Hill Florist's team recorded 71.

Everett Huskies Win Two GBL Championships

Two of the Everett Huskies Pop Warner Football teams captured GBL Championships this past weekend.

The D Team finished its regular season with a 13-0 win over Chelsea. This team played stronger each week and with its experience and the fundamentals taught them this year, the future looks good for the Huskies. Led by head coach Frank Nazzaro and assistants Mark Jagiello, Al Naumar, Joe Milliken, Kevin DeBenedetto and Jim Rabideau, the team did a terrific job. Team D was made up of a fine group of young men, including: Jim Rabideau, Mark DeBenedetto, Jeff Jagiello, Brian Nee and Mike Sprague, Shawn Orben, Mike Copenrath, Nick Nazzaro, Dave Matthews, Steve Bussell, Sean Dattoli, Jim Kane, George Myers, Dan Milliken, Jeremy Matthews, Justin Violette, Brendan Flanagan, Matthew Currier, Mike Juliano, Pat Kane, Lenny Gardino, Ray Brown, John Hickey, Joe DeStefano, Matt Ryan, John Passemato, Dave O'Brien, Ed Prince and Bill Henry.

The C Team beat Chelsea 19-14 in a thriller Sunday. They now can call themselves the undefeated champions and will represent the GBL in the Eastern Mass. Conference semifinals at Melrose High School Field on Saturday, Nov. 10 at 4:30 p.m. They will play Dracut on their way to the Nationals. All the coaches, from Head Coach Rob DiLoreto to his assistants John Soule, Ernie Soile, Jay Holt, Nino Lamberti, Tony Molle and the team have given themselves and anyone involved in the Huskie organization a season to be proud of. Team C includes: Anthony Nazzaro, Shaun Spaulding, Mike Denning, Rich Leccese, Nicky DeBenedetto, Marc Jagiello, Eric Costin, Joe Siracuse, Joey Paoletta, Dan O'Brien, Vinny Rutigliano, Eric Burns, Art Cameron, Rich Gardino, Eric Killam, Jim Milliken, Larry Mulcahy, Mark Scenna, Steve Silva, Derek Soper and Tim Warren. This is a well balanced and quick team that has met every challenge in league play. Congratulations!

The B Team won their championship outright by beating Chelsea, 15-6, thanks to Brian Glinner's two touchdowns and a safety. This is truly the Huskies best defensive team, allowing only 12 points scored against them while going undefeated. These champions are no strangers to hard, two-way football and should represent the GBL in fine fashion on Saturday, Nov. 10 at 6 p.m. against Acton/Boxboro at Melrose High School. The 1990 B Team, led by Head Coach Derek Washington and assistants Greg Washington, Mark Lento, Dave Stewart, Paul Luccia, Ron Smith, Mike Maietta and Mario Valeri certainly had a terrific season. The B Team includes: Paul Allen, Brian Glinner, Anthony Moreschi, Jeff Quigley, Mike Capwell, Chad Matthews, Dan Naumann, Bob DiFrummolo, Scott Sullivan, Mike Siracuse, Brian Wadman, Joe Lawler, Bill Getchell, Bob MacMillan, Bobby Yandle, Brian Houlihan, P.J. Eason and Chris Zullo. Congratulations and good luck on your next step toward the Nationals!

The Huskie A Team lost to Chelsea on Sunday, 12-7, in the season's final game. This team should be proud of the way they put forth the effort each week in typical Huskie fashion. The team was led by Head Coach Ed Romboli and his able assistants Ken Mayo, Herb Besler, Rich Perillo, John Ragucci, Ken Chisholm and Joe Massa. The members of the A Team are: Mike McNeil, Sean Berry, Steve Hiward, Sean O'Brien, C.J. Farmer, Danny Dollosa, George Rodriguez, Andy Giannasoli, Jason Skane, Steve Miele, Jovan Wolcott, Billy Huber, Paul McCauley, Mike Raso, Paul Hansen and Paul Shanley. East Boston is the GBL Champion in the A level.

The Huskies would like to thank the Everett Auxiliary Police for generously donating their time, for helping the EMT's, and for handling all the situations that came up this year.

Bunker Hill Gets New Look For Old Lot

State officials, community leaders and the public gathered recently for the dedication of the new student parking lot at Bunker Hill Community College.

The new 500-space parking lot, located at the southwest corner of the Gilmore Bridge and New Rutherford Avenue in Charlestown, is a reconstructed and repaved dirt lot that served as the student parking area for BHCC since 1973.

"After many years of having a poor parking facility for students, the college community is excited to see this project completed," said Piedad Robertson, president of BHCC. "It took a lot of work from a lot of people."

Robertson said the $300,000 project was made possible through the hard work of many, including state legislators, the Charlestown Neighborhood Council, the Boston Redevelopment Authority, the state Board of Regents, the Central Artery North Area Project group and Bunker Hill Community College officials and staff.

Special recognition was paid to state Sen. Francis Doris for his work and commitment to BHCC through the years. Doris did not seek re-election this year and will be leaving office in January.

"We're going to miss him," Robertson said to the group gathered near the parking lot for the ribbon cutting, "he is associated with a lot of good years here at the college."

Doris received a Revere Bowl as a gift from the college. He spoke to the crowd proudly about what BHCC has meant to him through the years. Doris was a student at Bunker Hill and moved on to receive his bachelor and master's degrees.

"I received the encouragement and the inspiration at Bunker Hill that helped lead me on to Suffolk and then on to UMass/Boston," Doris said. "Bunker Hill made my life so much better."

'Rumors' Opens Nov. 13 At The Colonial Theatre

"Rumors," Neil Simon's newest Broadway hit comedy starring five-time Emmy Award-winner Peter Marshall, opens Nov. 13 and continues through Nov. 18 for eight performances only at the Colonial Theatre, 106 Boylston St., Boston.

Wednesday, Nov. 14 at 7 p.m. Tickets are $16 to $38.50.

"Rumors" is the 23rd play by America's most prolific playwright and the first no-holds-barred farce of Neil Simon's career. It is the story of a couple who invite their best friends to celebrate their wedding anniversary at a black-tie, sit-down dinner. When they arrive they find the dinner is uncooked, the help has disappeared and the host is in his bedroom with a bullet through his ear lobe.

Marshall has appeared in leading roles on Broadway in "Skyscraper" with Julie Harris and "Bye Bye Birdie," "High Button Shoes," "Anything Goes," "The Music Man," and "42nd Street." He toured in the National Company of "La Cage Aux Folles" for two years and then went on to repeat his role as "Georges" on Broadway.

Co-starring with Marshall is Marilyn Cooper, who won a Tony and a Drama Desk Award for "Woman of the Year."

Performances are Tuesday through Saturday at 8 p.m., with matinees on Thursday and Saturday at 2 p.m. and Sunday at 3 p.m. A press performance is

Fourth Annual Charlestown Christmas Walk

Sunday, Dec. 9

★ CHARLESTOWN CHRISTMAS CARDS ★

The beautiful Christmas scene featured on last year's Christmas Walk Poster has been made into Christmas cards and are now for sale at various locations in our town. The card was designed by Annette Tecce of Charlestown and included in the design is a sketch of a gas light and a group of Victorian carolers under the backdrop of the Bunker Hill Monument. The cards are a joint venture of the Charlestown Business Association and the Christmas Walk Committee, and proceeds from their sale will go toward the cost of the Christmas Walk and into the Bunker Hill Community College Scholarship Fund for a Charlestown resident. Many companies have ordered them for their season's greetings and many Charlestown residents have ordered them to send to their friends and relatives.

The prices for the cards are:
90¢ each; $9 for 10 cards
$40 for 50 cards and $70 for 100 cards.

Cards ordered in lots of 200 or more can still be imprinted with a company or person's name at no cost to the purchaser. Call Thom Gilligan at 242-7845 for more information on imprinting.

Cards are available at the following locations: Charlestown Cooperative Bank, Marathon Travel, Harbor Equity Funds, Inc., Newworld Bank, Miss Porter's Limited and Otis & Ahearn Real Estate.

★ HELP LIGHT UP CHRISTMAS ★

Adopt a Pole and help make the fourth annual Christmas Walk a success.

Last year the Christmas Walk brought joy to everyone who attended. This year, we hope to make it even better with your help. You can take part in the Christmas Walk by "adopting" one of the many charming gas-lit posts along the walk route.

When you adopt a pole, it is decorated by one of our committee members with a ribbon, pine bough, bow and a card with the name of the donor. If you choose, you may adopt a pole in someone's name or as a gift.

Minimum donations are $15, however, the more you contribute, the more events and festivities we can add to the walk.

Please fill out the form below and include it with a check payable to the Charlestown Christmas Walk Inc. and mail it to:

The Creativity Of Charlestown Youngsters On Display With Pumpkin Carving And Decorating At The Boys & Girls Club

HAPPY FACES filled the games room at the Charlestown Boys & Girls Club just prior to Halloween as local children carved and/or decorated their own pumpkins. The creations ran the gamut, from simple carved faces that took more time and energy than many expected, to elaborate designs with paint and glitter. The Kiwanis Club of Charlestown sponsored the event, and newly installed Kiwanis President Ray Roy was on hand, enjoying every moment of the morning's activity.

'T' Continues Funding For Charlestown Water Shuttle

The MBTA's increasingly popular water shuttle service between the Charlestown Navy Yard and Boston's Long Wharf will continue thanks to a contract recently approved by the T's Board of Directors.

The Board also approved a contract for bus service within the Navy Yard that connects to the water shuttle. Both the bus and water shuttle services are underwritten by the Massachusetts Department of Public Works as measures to ease traffic during the Central Artery North Area project. "Since we began these services in 1988, they have grown tremendously," said T General Manager Thomas P. Glynn. "More and more people are finding the shuttle a convenient, quick, and easy way to get downtown and beat traffic. Over the past year, 150,000 passengers have used the water shuttle — a 91 percent increase over the previous year's ridership."

Glynn added that Harbor Cruises Inc., which operates the water shuttle, and Reliable Bus Lines Inc. of New Bedford, the new operator of the shuttle bus, will provide access for disabled passengers on boats and buses.

The water shuttle operates trips every 15 to 30 minutes daily, seven days a week. Boats run between 6:30 a.m. and 8:25 p.m. on weekdays, and between 10 a.m. and 6:25 p.m. on weekends.

One-way fare is $1, with a 60-trip ticket available for only $45. For customers who use other T services, any T pass may be upgraded, for an additional $30, to allow unlimited travel on the shuttle.

Under the new contract, there are incentives for the contractor to increase ridership. If ridership increases by more than 33 passengers per day, the T's subsidy (reimbursed by the MDPW) actually decreases, and the operator will receive a percentage of the fares. The shuttle currently averages 433 passengers per day — up from its previous ridership average of 227 per day.

The bus shuttle connects the Navy Yard parking garage, the main office complex, the USS Constitution and the water shuttle dock. The bus has been instrumental in the success of the water shuttle and no fee is charged to riders. The operator receives a flat subsidy to run the bus service, and the T's cost is reimbursed through the MDPW.

For more information on the water shuttle or other information on T routes and schedules, contact the T's Customer Service Center at 722-3200.

THE GREAT AMERICAN SMOKEOUT

Next to Thanksgiving, it's the most famous Thursday in November. It's the American Cancer Society's Great American Smokeout. Nov. 15 is your opportunity to quit smoking for 24 hours or to lend a hand to someone who's trying to quit. Make the Great American Smokeout an important holiday on your calendar.

It's one holiday no one has to spend alone. The Great American Smokeout is celebrated each year by millions of smokers who try to quit smoking just for 24 hours. Millions of nonsmokers join in by giving their support. If you're thinking about quitting smoking, you don't have to go it alone. Make Nov. 15 a big holiday in your life!

Smoking is related to 390,000 deaths each year. But it doesn't have to be. Join the Great American Smokeout and you just might give them up for good and live a longer, healthier life.

Did you know there are 40 million ex-smokers in the United States today? And nonsmokers now outnumber smokers by more than two to one. On Thursday, Nov. 15, join the millions who will quit for the day.

A great way to show your love for a smoker is to help him or her to give up cigarettes. "Adopt" a loved one on that day.

In 1965, 29.6 percent of those who had ever smoked had quit. By 1987, this number had increased to 44.8 percent. Thanks to the Great American Smokeout, this number will continue to grow. Join the millions of Americans who will take a 24-hour vacation from smoking. You might become a member of one of the steadiest growing populations in the United States!

At least two-thirds of smokers have tried at one time or another to quit, and at least one-third try in any one year. If you're a would-be quitter, the Great American Smokeout could just be the help you need. Join the millions of Americans who will quit for the day — and perhaps for good. You don't have to go it alone.

Quitting smoking pays. Ten years after you quit, your death rate will be approximately the same as for those who have never smoked at all. Join the American Cancer Society's Great American Smokeout on Thursday, Nov. 15. Stop smoking for 24 hours and maybe you'll quit for good.

Valve Testing And Replacement May Affect Charlestown

The Massachusetts Water Resources Authority has announced that its Waterworks Division is continuing valve testing and replacement work in the MWRA distribution system during the week of Nov. 12. The turning and switching of valves may cause rusty water and some pressure loss in Charlestown.

"Rusty water does not create a health hazard," said William A. Brutsch, director of the MWRA Waterworks Division.

MWRA Waterworks crews are working closely with city officials to coordinate the project and supply police details when necessary.

Boston Parks Department

Boston, Mass. 02118

Dear Commissioner,

We would like to take this opportunity to express our appreciation for the efforts put forth by Tony Capozzi, Louie Gaeta and Eddie Siciliano of the Parks Department's North End crew. Their work has ensured that the John Harvard Mall has remained in a condition suitable for use.

The Mall is of considerable historic significance and the importance of having good people care for it cannot be overstated. We hope they are appreciated as much in City Hall as they are in Charlestown.

Very truly yours,
Friends of the John Harvard Mall

Heaven Help Us . . . It's Time To Demand A Better Plan!

To the Editor,

Planning for Scheme Z, the massive project of interchanges and bridges across the Charles River to Route 93 races at full speed to a December "deadline." An illustration in the Oct. 25 Patriot gives us a good idea of this massive structure and the shadow it will cast as it looms over Charlestown. Described as the largest highway interchange in the world, it will also be — in the words of the Environmental Protection Agency — the "ugliest structure in New England." It has been described by the Boston Globe's architectural critic as a "grotesque monstrosity."

Designed to "ease traffic," it will actually increase the mileage vehicles travel in Charlestown as they proceed on circular ramps, e.g., from Storrow Drive north above Charlestown, around the ramp, and then back south to Boston. The theory is that this is all necessary to "keep traffic moving." The Scheme's air pollution studies, that barely meet acceptable standards, are premised on moving traffic. So Heaven help us if there is an accident or a traffic jam, since idling vehicles are known to increase the pollution levels.

The proposed structures are so massive and will have such a negative effect on the quality of life in Charlestown that a future generation will be petitioning to have it taken down, or to "Tunnel" it — as has already been proposed but rejected. The time to act though, is now, before it's built.

To compound this tragedy, we learn in last week's Patriot

To the Editor,

When I was a kid, I remember watching Zorro every Thursday evening and having a good laugh every time I saw the masked swordsman and defender of the poor carving his Z symbol into the pants of the ever so stout Sgt. Garcia, but that was fantasy produced by Disney. However, today in 1990 there is a menacing reality lurking around called Scheme Z. This interchange (Scheme Z) proposed for Charlestown as part of the Central Artery/Third Harbor Tunnel project will be the world's highest density highway interchange ... and will directly affect everyone living in Charlestown.

Think about 18 lanes of highway crossing the Charles River and looping into a 28-lane interchange. This 11-story high ramp monstrosity will shadow Bunker Hill Community College. Think about tons of toxic pollutants from buses, trucks and cars blowing down on Charlestown daily. Remember, hazardous cargo is banned by federal law from using the new Central Artery tunnel and will be routed through surface roads. Years' worth of construction vehicles will travel our residential streets and the noise, pollution and just immense size of Scheme Z will have a negative impact on those living nearest this project in Charlestown.

The cities of Boston and Cambridge have been excluded from any real decision making on Scheme Z. Right now, state government officials are working to get Scheme Z approved. I believe we do not need the world's largest highway of the latest change in plans. Surprise!! With the proposed elimination of the Traverse Street ramp, north-bound street traffic from Boston would, under the new design proposed, come across the North Washington Street Bridge into City Square, and continue down Rutherford Avenue. Drivers wishing to reach the Tobin Bridge would go to the Austin Street turnaround, where they would reverse direction and take a right onto the ramp system. Those wishing to go north on I-93 would continue on Rutherford Avenue to the present entrance onto that roadway on the Somerville side of Sullivan Square.

The thousands of additional vehicles using surface streets in Charlestown is one issue, but then we learn that hazardous cargoes, which will not be able to use the Central Artery Tunnel, would be forced to use Rutherford Avenue to reach the Tobin Bridge or I-93 North!!!

It may have taken years of planning to get to this point, but is this sufficient reason to plunge ahead with a massive project that even its authors admit has many problems? It is time for Charlestown residents to speak out, to demand a better plan. If not, future generations will ask how we allowed this monstrosity to be built in Charlestown.

Voice your concerns at the community meeting on Thursday, Nov. 15 at 7 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 75 West School St. Now is the time, before it's too late.

Alice N. Hart

It's Big . . . It's Ugly . . . And It's Coming Our Way

interchange in the Charlestown area.

There's a motto I borrowed from Post-Gazette boxing columnist Charlie Ross and that is to "keep on keeping on." If you believe the Mass. Department of Public Works needs to develop a better alternative, now is the time to call your city council representatives in Boston. For those who want to get more involved, there is a network of neighborhood groups out there working to dump Scheme Z. Charlestown residents should link up with Citizens for a Livable Charlestown.

Years ago I loved to watch Zorro righting wrong on TV, but while I was sitting comfortably in front of the television set, the bulldozers were pushing the West End of Boston out of existence. In the late 50s, it was Urban Renewal, today it's Scheme Z. Now is not the time to sit back, now is the time to get involved. Scheme Z is not yet a reality, there is still time to act.

Remember back in 1981 when the White Administration tried to close the Winthrop Street firehouse in Charlestown and deactivate Engine 50? Neighborhood people joined forces and prevailed. Thanks to the community coming together, Engine 50 is alive and well in Charlestown. Community action saved a fire apparatus and community action can save Charlestown from the nightmare of Scheme Z.

Sincerely,
Sal Giarratani

Thank You, Charlestown Voters

We would like to express our sincere thanks to the voters of Charlestown for their overwhelming support in defeating Question 3 on Tuesday's ballot.

Judy Is Always There

Dear Gloria,

At a time when the government seems to be in shambles, it is refreshing to have someone of the quality of Judy Evers working so hard for Charlestown.

Judy is always there whenever anyone in Charlestown needs her — the elderly, the children, and all citizens. Her dedication to the people of this town is outstanding and her enthusiasm and her untiring attendance at the many meetings held throughout the town make her a truly dedicated city employee. Thank you, Judy, for caring.

Sincerely,
R.K.

Thank You

Thanks.

We wish to convey our gratitude to everyone who made the Halloween march around the monument a great success. We thank the Tufts marching band for providing the musical entertainment, and the Boston Police and the Park Rangers for their cooperation. In addition, special thanks go to Rosemary Kverek, John and Marilyn Brady, and Casey Cunningham for their assistance. Finally, thanks go to the citizens of Charlestown for participating in this annual tradition.

Sincerely yours,
