THIRD STAR

How to spend the greatest summer of your life
In the style of Third Star

James
Kimberly
Grittith

See I... The thing about life is...

What is it they say?

The thing about life is...

I'm 29 today. Won't see 30

But I'm uh... I'm okay Really. Okay

GET CLOSER TO NATURE
eat well and something good

PRANK YOUR MATES
watch tv

FORGET THE TIME
strawberries
ice cream

GO PLACES #TOYOTA

ATTEND PRIDE MARCH

BE UNAVAILABLE

I watched the sun set
below the horizon
AND disappear

Like I would

AND IT FELT KINDA sad

BECAUSE THERE'D BE MANY MORE SUNSETS

THAT I'D NEVER BE ABLE TO see

I CAN'T HELP BUT PICTURE MYSELF
AS DUST DANCING IN THE FLICKER LIGHT.
MILLIONS OF ATOMS OF CONSTANT BEING.

BUT I'M glad
I GOT TO SEE AS MANY AS I DID

This is gonna be the best summer of your lifetime and after this you won't ever miss those you'll never have because you had this one, and it bought enough memories to last for an eternity
What did you do? Everything

Sensible retreat but the tide was turning

Why would you sleep naked in a tent with me?
Cause it's like...

Look I don't wanna feel you poking me in the back

Yeah did you feel that in the middle of the night

What is that?

Oh how humorous! We're all gonna have to sleep in a tent that was made for...

fucking anorexic pygmies!

Ah come, we'll have a little cuddle

I
♦
SLEPT
♦
LATE

We've all forgotten that moment
when you realize you'll never play in the World Cup Final or... be the first man on Mars...

and all those daydreams
become fantasies rather than possibilities

THIRD STAR

And DREAMED

That it would never end

*So I raise a morphine toast to you all,
and if you should happen to remember it's the anniversary of my birth, remember that you were loved by me and that you made my life a happy one and there's no tragedy in that.*

"You've ruined this camping trip. Can we go home now?"

- Miles.

How's your book coming on?

Oh, I gave up on it. Couldn't be arsed

You should just write a diary about bangin' Chelsea chicks

I'm finally bored of meaningless sex!

Bollocks!

"...I mean breast cancer isn't funny but Mammogram is one of the funniest words ever!"

- James (original script)

"You look like shit. I thought they'd stuck you out here 'cause you'd snuffed it."

- Miles.

YOU LOVE
LOOKING AT THE stars AND

DANCING THROUGH THE cosmos

WE PUT ON a firework DISPLAY FOR YOU

DO WHAT YOU LOVE
IF YOU LOVE TO DANCE

DANCE UNTIL YOUR FEET HURT

IF YOU LOVE TO SING

SING YOUR HEART OUT

IF YOU LOVE TO RUN

RUN FPR YOUR LIFE

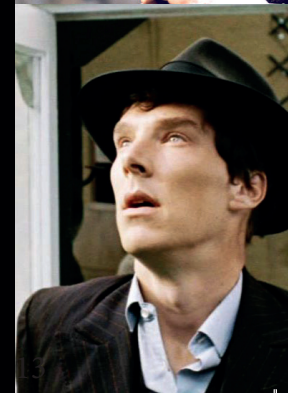

WHILE YOU STILL CAN

Original Script Ending:

I'll raise a morphine syrup to you later, while I'm selling your presents on e-bay. And if over the years you should happen to notice that it's the anniversary of my birth remember that you were loved by me, and that you made my life a happy one... and there is no tragedy in that.

CAN YOU SAY YOU'VE HAD A GOOD LIFE?
YES. BUT THEN I'VE NEVER ASKED MUCH OF IT.

What would my life be like without you in it?

I don't care to know

Because it would suck
not having anyone to mess around with

or to carry you
when you're down

THIRD STAR

Names get carved in the red oak tree

Of the ones who stay and the ones who leave

I will wait for you there with these cindereed bones
So follow me, follow me down

"Tomorrow I'm going to swim out into the bay and I'm not coming back. I know the enormity of this but I'm asking you to let me swim..."

- James.

Original Script Ending:

I'll raise a morphine syrup to you later, while I'm selling your presents on e-bay. And if over the years you should happen to notice that it's the anniversary of my birth remember that you were loved by me, and that you made my life a happy one... and there is no tragedy in that.

I'm leaving early and it all goes on without me

"I'd rather not be alone, mate..."

- James.

I want more time
