Well, what can I say? The Jews are evil and worship Satan. God never commanded anyone to commit MGM; that mandate is straight from Satan.

Carl [redacted]

Does Satan have a penis, and if so, is it circumcised? Inquiring minds want to know.

You want to follow rules sir:::So sir do you also put a sheet over the whole body of your wife with a hole so your penis may enter her vagina??? If you do not do that you sir are a very sinful Jew!

The way I see it is, if Jews were so dirty and nasty they had to cut the tip of their penis off, then maybe after a few thousand yrs they would learn to teach their kids to clean instead of making it a religious act forced onto everyone else.

I agree with you. My sons know their mother protected them. I think circumcision is child abuse.

It is child abuse and nothing less

I don't care if your religion "demands" you to circumcise your baby - your religion demands you to do something violent, harmful and disgusting to you son. Period.

It doesn't matter if it's done in a hospital, in a bush, in your living room or in your temple; genital mutilation is genital mutilation. It is a sadistic and most revolting form of child sexual abuse.

Every time we get close to seeing some true laws put in place that will protect children from forced genital cutting, a particular religious minority flips their lid, takes offense, and says, "How dare you insult our culture!" These same people have no idea that some of their own are the highest profile intactivists, helping to bring down circumcision at a faster rate by the year.

Modern parents don't circumcise, regardless of their ethnicity, race or religion. I know some of you would like me to say, "Ok... circumcising your son was right for your family..." but you must understand that this will never happen, because circumcision will always be violent, harmful and disgusting. The only compromise would be shooting down the barbaric practice itself, rather than you as a person. If others think you're a monster, that's not my problem...

Daniel Seely Jews have been doing this for 1,000's of years leaving boys brain dead and dead from STDs. What is your point?

An ancient superstition took over our lives before we knew about it. Circumcision is wicked beyond anything that human beings have ever done to their own children. It has traumatized our nation into surrender and compliance. It will go on forever unless we oppose it with all the compassion and outrage in our hearts.

The problem is that most modern Jews justify their religious ritual with (faulty) MEDICAL reasons. So they really can't be seen actively discouraging "the goyim" (derogatory term for non-Jews) from getting circumcisions for "medical" reasons.

5. Germany imposed a restriction on ritual circumcision. This led to protest and fear of antisemitism further infringing on the basic religious freedoms afforded to those living in Germany. After six months of back and forth a law was finally passed a law in mid December that will protect the right to perform religious circumcision in Germany.

Yesterday at 4:15 PM · Like

Yeah, I know. Germany didn't want to be the first country to ban it, because of cries of "anti-semitism".

Jews normally don't support circumcision of non-Jewish boys as circumcision is THE sign to signal that the Jews are God's chosen people. It is a sign of discrimination which does NOT work, if the entire society is circumcised.

We're smarter than the circumcisers, and we're stronger. All the proof you need is to look at the age of their victims...

They use babies as human shields for their cognitive dissonance and their religion. The medical profession uses healthy male babies for paychecks. Both are reprehensible.

I get asked a lot why circumcision documentaries aren't on Netflix or Docurama... the simple truth is that our media is run by Jews. Nothing against the Jewish faith but they sure love to cut their baby dick and they surely don't want you to know how barbaric they are...

Here is a list of documentaries you can watch to find out the facts about genital mutilation.

Fk Hitler. He gave the entire Jewish people a permanent case of Borderline Personality Disorder; as a result, they always paint themselves as the victims in such matters.

(I respect intactivist Jews more than I can say!)

I'd not only outlaw but give death for it.

She's a diehard circ fanatic with a religious (Jewish) bias. I blocked her some time ago.

She likes to screen shot stuff I say too, and then accuse me of anti-Semitism. I have this for her: When you are brainwashed from birth to believe you are gawd's favorite, and when you are brainwashed to believe that your tribal cohesion rests upon the genital mutilation of babies, then the stage is set for you to become a circumfetishist. There you go, , you nasty, bitter shrew.

Shyla Blair If I say people shouldn't suck baby penises, will you call me an anti-semite too?

Even Jews and Hasidic themselves have been accused of being anti-Semite ornot Jewish enough!!! which to some narrower "deciders/ definers" it goes by paramount to "not being pro-Isreal-ite enough" in other words, state (or just race) nationalist, or at least be one of their strong supporters and sponsor$$, what raises the question of who is really a good Semite as much as in UK who is closest to the National Front or in Ireland..... you know!

Regardless of Human rights atrocities and abuses committed in the name of God and Country (und Volk Dienst?) and if Jews alone or others should be protected under a very wobbly Human rights umbrella, with no space for others to be admitted or recognized even as humans.... to be also covered under those Human Rights FOR ALL, just like they are ignored for male infants because... exceptionalism?

It would do better for this cause trying to not tip-toeing around Jews and address them as what they are, another human group with same differences and equality to all others in the Human race and stop treating them as if some pariahs or untouchables, with no rights (or more than others) and no duties to neighbors or hosts and even to their own baby boys

It would help if we define what anti semitism is, and what specifically can and can't be said in the group. Unfortunately, anti-Semitism has become a blanket term used to encompass any criticism of Jews such that it has lost much if not all objective meaning. In fact, articles have even been written suggesting that opposition to circumcision in and of itself is anti-Semitic. Given these factors, I think a definition would be helpful. Thanks for helping out.

I can't believe it! My posts and discussions just penetrated an incredibly very Jewish family over the course of a year...the father told me if he had this information prior to the birth of his sons that he would NOT have gone through with it. WOW! 😊

so sad it is already done 😞 but so glad u were able to educate a jewish family. maybe send them the book brit shalom

Daniel Seely "That is only a small sect of extreme Judaism. Not every Jew does that, but thanks for letting your anti-Semitism hang out for all the world to see."

Now that is a firm condemnation of giving an infant felatio leading to STDs if I ever saw one.

The straps should be part of the BSM I think. It's a sure fire point of interest and people will want to know why the blue?? LOVE ITTTTTT. Now for the other protests we go to, we could use/ wear a Kipa (Jewish) and/or Doppa (Muslim) since the blue straps typically don't apply to the religious child blood sacrificers.

Circumcision is satanic blood sacrifice. Rabbis drink the blood from baby's testicles when they are circumcised because the rabbis believe it will give them immortality. Circumcision creates pain and agony in the impressionable child and this rage stays with that male all his life.

WHO TAUGHT THESE DOCTORS FORCED RETRACTION? IT CAUSES PROBLEMS THAT CAN LEAD TO A CIRCUMCISION RECOMMENDATION ... "I just wanted to share my horrible experience with you. The hospital was Liberty Hospital in Kansas City, Missouri. The lack of knowledge doctors have is unreal and unnecessary. If I had not known better my son could have had unnecessary damage due to doctors being uneducated. I saw 4 doctors that I had to fight with, saying he needed to be retracted. We had to be transferred and had to see three other doctors until they found a specialist to help my son!

Gina Raduechel Gleason

i am convinced drs or anyone doing this is satanic...have you ever seen a jewish ritual circumcision...it is just unreal

Maria N Douglas King

Omg I seen a meme of one and it disgusted me. Made me want go throw up.

Gina Raduechel Gleason

right and the sign to the jews should have been they are spreading herpes...but no...they think..."i will will drink wine before i perform oral sex on this infant and that will sterilize the herpes"...circumcision in any form is satanic...im convinced

Lois [redacted]

I had such a disturbing thought and was hoping to start a convo about it. How can Judaism, a religion that does not allow bodily augmentations such as tattoos(the theory is that you have to go into the ground the way you came out of it becaus Adam was made from the dirt or something) reconcile such a severe bodily augmentation as circumcision?

because it's a sacrifice that god himself demanded.

Because they only follow the old testament where circumcision symbolizes the ties between God and Abraham and between God and the Jews. The command is compulsory for Jews but in the new testament (which they disregard) it says that Jesus was the last blood sacrifice and circumcision is no longer necessary

And it's easy to crap all over the Bible and God when you know nothing besides hearsay.
