

Neymar and Neil Lennon in furious bust-up as Celtic manager clashes with tour's most expensive player

Celtic manager Neil Lennon and Samba movie star Neymar were embroiled in a very furious touchline war regarding words during Celtic's dissension with PSG.

(Neymar) -year-old won the free-kick for the touchline the Irishman clearly felt was somewhat very soft.

Lennon appeared to be able to direct a few furious invective at one of many PSG online players and Neymar obviously experienced he was typically the Nets boss' target.

Typically the ahead turned round to be able to deal with the Celtic manager in addition to reacted angrily just before getting restrained by teammates Leandro Paredes and Mitchel Bakker.

With the pair with least 10 yards apart, there was no risk of the duo actually returning to hits - which many might advise will be just as well for the Brazilian.

Neymar was taken at half-time, but acquired already done plenty involving destruction with a very good first half exhibiting.

Typically the world's most expensive gambler was the scourge of the Nets again in the friendly in London, getting the aid plus a goal in often the very first half.

Despite his or her expertise on the frequency though, it'd be the brave man who supported him in a set-to with Lennon.

The Best superstar has form with regard to winding up the Hoops, and contains a brilliant file against all of them too.

Ahead of Tuesday's pleasant he'd enjoyed against them all six instances for Barcelona and Paris, france Saint-Germain, winning every competition, and netting seven goals and provided eight assists.