MGM National Harbor unveils $48 million expansion of gambling spaces

July 15, 2018

BALTIMORE- (Meredith Cohn, The Baltimore Sun) - MGM National Harbor, the Prince George's County casino, hotel and entertainment complex, opens a $48 million expansion Sunday in response to strong demand, the casino operator said. The move adds a larger poker room, off-track horse betting in partnership with the Maryland Jockey Club, 285 slot machines and dining and bar options to the second floor of the $1.4 billion casino project that opened near Washington in December 2016. There is also an expansive new terrace overlooking the Potomac River that includes a smoking area.

Pennsylvania casinos begin preparing for online gambling, though local operators are mum about it

July 14, 2018

PITTSBURGH- (Gary Potstein, Pittsburgh Post-Gazette) - Three eastern Pennsylvania casinos have become the first to apply for $10 million state licenses to put their full range of gambling options online, and it will soon be clear whether the local Rivers Casino and Meadows Racetrack & Casino will do likewise. Monday is the deadline for the state's 13 casinos to seek the bundled license allowing them to provide web-based slot machine play, table games and poker, all made possible under Pennsylvania's wide-ranging 2017 gambling expansion law. It will be one of just a few states in which gamblers can create online accounts and legally play the same games as in a casino, only from home, work or anywhere else within the state's borders. States Weigh Bets on Mobile Sports Gambling

July 13, 2018

UNITED STATES- (Chris Kirkham, Wall Street Journal) - Betting on smartphones could increase total U.S. sports gambling revenue by an estimated $9 billion, but some worry about impact on casinos. Now that states are free to craft laws legalizing sports gambling, the latest question is whether to enter the potential $9 billion mobile-betting market.

Upper house mulls Japan IR Bill, aims to pass by July 22

July 13, 2018

JAPAN- (GGRAsia) - A committee serving the Japan parliament's upper house has started scrutinising the Integrated Resorts (IR) Implementation Bill but is likely to spend more hours discussing it than did the lower house. That is according to statements made to the media by representatives of the governing coalition - which is formed of the Liberal Democratic Party and its junior partner Komeito.

NetEnt 'taking action' as growth slows

July 13, 2018

SWEDEN- (iGaming Business) - Recently-appointed NetEnt CEO Therese Hillman has insisted the developer is "taking action" after a slowdown in the UK contributed towards disappointing revenue growth in the second quarter. In a trading update this (Friday) morning, NetEnt reported a 6% rise in revenue year-on-year to SEK437m (£39m/€44m/$51m) - a 0.8% decline in euro terms - while earnings before tax grew by a modest 1.2% to SEK149m. NetEnt's share price on the Nasdaq Stockholm was down around 17% this morning following the release of its Q2 results.

New Jersey gambling already earning millions more

July 12, 2018

NEW JERSEY- (Sam Newhouse, Metro US) - Sports betting was only legalized in New Jersey on June 11 but the state is already reporting significant gains from New Jersey gambling in its gaming and casino industries, the state Division of Gaming Enforcement said in a new report released Thursday. It's another concrete sign that the widely predicted boom in Atlantic City, where two new casinos opened on June 28, is taking hold and bringing new New Jersey Gambling dollars to the Garden State.
