

Charlestown Traffic Problems Discussed

By Maria Girvin

Charlestown traffic problems and community needs were in the beginning stages of discussion at the recent Central Artery/North Area Task Force meeting.

Issues raised by the small local attendance regarding the North Area Project, which will create two new tunnels under the City Square, were:

Access for Charlestown residents should be maintained wherever possible during construction;

 Community disruption caused by re-routing of traffic during construction should be minimized wherever possible;

- The design of the completed project should afford Charlestown full access to the expressway system;

- The design should discourage the use of local Charlestown streets for vehicles to by-pass bottlenecks on the expressway;
- Adequate access to the National Park Service property

MBTA Cutbacks Should Be Fought

We are only a few weeks into the New Year and already the MBTA has made service cutbacks, service cutbacks that directly affect inner-city transportation.

The Bunker Hill and Main Street runs which previously ran to the Downtown Crossing now only travel to Haymarket Square. It is fact that the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority is having fiscal woes. However, I question the policy of saving money only through service cutbacks.

LETTER FROM ONE OF OUR MANY SATISFIED CUSTOMERS

"GIBSON ASSOCIATES — THE BROKER WITH QUALIFIED BUYERS"

Here is what one of our customers has to say about Gibson Associates:

Dear Gibson Associates,

(Another Charlestown broker) had an exclusive on my house for 90 days. Although they showed the house to a number of people, not one offer was made. Meanwhile, I was receiving an education in the real estate business. I learned that the bottom line in selling real estate is to have QUALIFIED buyers.

The day after the exclusive ended, I called Betty Gibson. You listed the house, and the following day you showed the house. The next day an offer was made (the asking price) and the house was SOLD.

Anyone I know who wants to sell their house I'll recommend they call Betty Gibson Associates — the broker with qualified buyers.

Sincerely
A satisfied Gibson customer*

We can't promise to sell every house in a day or two at the asking price, but, in fact, in 1980 26% of our sales began with an offer within a week of listing the property, and 50% of our 1980 sales were at the asking price. For the same good service, call JOEL CLAYDON at:

Ship Model Show At Museum

Where can you see a whaling brig, a Greek coasting schooner, a New York pilot boat, the "HMS Victory," and the "USS Nantucket" all docked in one place? They will be on exhibit in the USS Constitution Museum's Second Annual Ship Model Show by the USS CONSTITUTION Model Shipwright Guild of New England. The show of almost 40 ship models opened at the USS Constitution Museum in the Charlestown Navy Yard on January 15 and runs through February 20.

The models will be judged by experts and collectors in the field of ship models and the winning models will be announced on February 10. The Museum is also asking its visitors to choose their favorite models by ballot-box voting.

The Model Shipwright Guild is two years old and in that time, its membership has grown from six founders to 125 members. Robert Matherson, Captain of the Guild, is amazed at the popularity of the Guild in such a short time, "Most of our members are from New England but we even have members in the Midwest, California, Canada and England." The purpose of the Guild is "to enhance the art of model shipbuilding through its activities, workshops and exhibits." Members meet once a month at the USS Constitution Museum where they participate in workshops and lectures.

Cutbacks Should Be Fought

It is my sincere belief that better management policies could alleviate the difficulties in the MBTA annual deficit. The last step that should be taken is cutbacks in services to the public.

The policies of the State and Massachusetts Bay Authority in the past has always been better service to more points so that more could ride the T. The cutbacks in service is one step backwards for the T. It is my opinion that if this is the future path of the MBTA's ability to react to problem solving surely the worst is still ahead.

To the residents of Charlestown, the handicapped, and elderly, who must get along with a second rate system; the only suggestion I can make is let your feelings be known. Call your representatives and the MBTA. This cutback in service was too easily done; let your voice be

Charlestown Traffic

Problems

 Adequate access should be provided to serve and foster new development on parcels created by the project.

A representative of the Louis Berger & Assoc. Consulting Firm explained to residents how the Department of Public Works (DPW) and consulting teams studied traffic in and out of Charlestown. According to him two methods were used, an automatic traffic counting machine and manual recording of traffic. The counting machine was used on expressway ramps while people were used to count vehicles and record the different types of vehicles driven at eight Charlestown locations. This was done in June, July and early fall.

Consultants predict traffic problems in City Square once construction is completed to occur at three left hand turning points: from Chelsea Street and the Tobin Bridge to North Washington Street; from Rutherford Avenue (southbound) to Chelsea Street and the Tobin Bridge; and from North Washington Street (northbound) to the ramp leading to the Central Artery and I-93. An extra left hand turn lane and a green arrow are possible solutions to easing this traffic problem in the future, according to the Berger representative.

However, it will be the traffic engineers' decisions that will ultimately solve or not solve traffic problems in the City Square area. Their decisions will be based on "level of service" factors, i.e. width of roadways, parking prohibitions or one-way streets, peak hours of use, and trucks or transit buses making frequent stops.

Also present at the meeting was Jim Allen of DPW who was a major participant in a 1976 study of traffic which included Charlestown. According to him 497 thousand license plates traveling off or onto I-93 from Charlestown and Boston Proper ramps were matched up with owners. Questionnaires were then sent out to the owners asking where they had come from and where they were going to on the particular day their license plates were recorded. Fifty-two percent of the questionnaires were returned to DPW, enabling DPW to develop a "trip table", and find out where people are going and coming from. This is helpful in planning future roadway construction in Boston to help rather than hinder traffic flow in, out, and around the city.

Future meetings are planned to further discuss Charlestown's traffic problems which have existed for 200 years because of Rutherford Ave. and North Washington Street being major throughways. As one Charlestown resident quipped, "It's time for a change."

Vacation Activities At USS Constitution Museum

Ahoy there, Moms, Dads, Kids, Everyone! Spend February School Vacation Week making Sea History happen at the USS Constitution Museum. During February School Vacation, February 16 to the 22, the USS Constitution Museum will be hosting a Family Sea Fare of workshops, films, and nautical craft demonstrations.

Activities will take place on Tuesday, February 17 and Thursday, February 19 beginning at 10:00 AM with a drop-in workshop on rope making. Participants will learn the 19th century technique of making rope which they can then turn into a rope belt. A second workshop, beginning at 2:00 PM will teach participants how to make their own "dittybags," sailors' catchalls for small articles. There will be a small fee of 50¢ charged for each workshop.

At noon on February 17 and 19, a series of short films will be shown free of charge. "Had You Lived Then" illustrates life in a whaling community in the 1800's;
"War of 1812" recounts a young American seaman's adventures during one of America's most exciting battles; Colonial techniques for building ships is colorfully documented in
"Colonial Shipbuilding and Sea
Trade;" and animation brings a Museum to life in "Closed Mondays."

Nautical crafts like scrimshaw will be demonstrated by expert artisans in the afternoons of Tuesday and Thursday. On the weekend of February 21 and 22, a skilled craftsman from the American Shipcarvers Guild will show the intricacies of wood carving.

The USS Constitution Museum is located next to CONSTITUTION in Boston's historic Charlestown Navy Yard. Museum hours are weekdays 10:00 to 4:00 and weekends 9:00 to 5:00.

For more information, call the Museum at 426-1812.

To Talk Of Many Things ....

by Sal Giarratani

Some one thousand pro-lifers from across the state joined together in Boston's Faneuil Hall this past Sunday to mourn the approximate ten million lives that have been legally aborted since January 22, 1973.

Mass. Citizens for Life, the only full-time prolife organization in the Bay State, sponsored this annual Assembly for Life. This annual gathering in Faneuil Hall-known as the "Cradle of Liberty"-is held to commemorate the preborn members of the human family not allowed entrance into life, and to work for the day when the Supreme Court decision will be made null and void by a Human Life constitutional amendment.

Phil Moran, president of Mass. Citizens, welcomed the crowd and commented, "while we are grateful for the tremendous prolife victories of the past year...and while we are mindul that we are closer to legal

Films For Children

The Winter Films For Children will present "Ben and Me" on Tuesday afternoon, January 27, 1981 at 3:30 p.m. at the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main Street.

Storytelling will follow the film program.

protection of the unborn...we must be ever alert and every ready to sacrifice still more, for the true battle for us begins upon ratification of a Human Life Amendment.''

MCFL Vice-President Joseph Reilly was the featured speaker and one of the main points of his speech was the fact that prolifers must continue the fight and put up with the liberal news media. (He did praise three Globe columnists for going against the liberal tide on Morrissey Blvd. These being Jeremiah Murphy, David Wilson and David Farrell).

Reilly said the mission of prolifers is to continue to gather more adherents. He believes the more people learn of the real facts of abortion, the more a sense of moral outrage will grow and just as moral outrage ended the Vietnam War in the 70's, the same outrage can, should and will end abortion, the Vietnam of the 80's.

Boston City Councillor Ray Flynn was there to read his proclamation declaring Sunday, January 18 as "Right to Life Day" in Boston.

After the activities, pro-life advocates attended a reception in the James Michael Curley Room at the City Hall, which was organized and sponsored by Ray Flynn.

The prolife movement is a people movement but every grassroots movement needs the support and encouragement of publicly elected officials and some of the best were up on the platform last Sunday. People like Ray Flynn, Dapper O'Neil, Reps. like Charlie Doyle from West Roxbury, Jim Craven from JP and Marie Howe from neighboring Somerville. Their ranks should be increased ten-fold and only we the people can make that happen!

Hundreds of Bay State prolifers are in Washington, DC as you read this including yours truly to join in the National March for Life. All of us are in the Nation's Capital to pledge ourselves-and all those prolifers unable to make the March- to resolving the plight of America's most helpless citizens and to mourn the millions who have already been denied life. And further to see that the killing stops forthwith!

Remember abortion is a form of genocide and once the public comes to that understanding, moral outrage will force an end to this legal destruction of life. Our task is hard because unlike the Vietnam War, the press is against us. We must educate the public at every arena and forum available, if we do this we will win!

Patty Suprey, a 1980 graduate of Charlestown High School, is a standout member of the 1980-81 Boston State College Women's Basketball team.

A four time All-Star in the City of Boston and a second team selection as All-Scholastic, Patty has been seeing a great deal of action as a guard/forward. "Patty has solid basketball skills," said Boston State Head Coach Lisa Carlson, "and she is working to develop them even more."

Coast Guard Champs In Tourney

The Armed Services YMCA in Charlestown recently concluded their Fall Basketball League. Five military teams and one civilian team participated in the eight week season. The U.S.S. Barry and the U.S.S. Manley located at Bethlehem Steel Shipyard in East Boston each entered teams, as did the U.S.S. Edson, General Shipyard, East Boston; The U.S.S. Constitution, Naval Shipyard, Charlestown; The U.S. Coast Guard, 1st Coast

Guard District, Boston; and the National Park Service, Charlestown

The U.S. Coast Guard team won the championship, with The U.S.S. Manley placing a close Second. Individual trophies will be awarded to members of the Coast Guard team, and a second place team trophy will be awarded to the U.S.S. Manley.

The Winter Basketball League will begin at the Armed Services YMCA on January 26, 1981 games, Patty has averaged 7.1 points a game. Her two best performances came in Warrior wins over Tufts when she netted 15, and in the Warriors outstanding 62-50 win over Division I Brown University, she had 9 points.

Only a freshman, Coach Carlson is understandably pleased with the prospect of having the Charlestown native around for three more seasons. 'I firmly believe that we are building a winning program here at Boston State. Last season we finished third in the Mass. State College Conference and played in the M.A.I.A.W. State Tournament, the first time the team has made an appearance in tournament play and our wins over Tufts and Brown so far this year, were great boosts to the players and the program."

A Physical Education major and Athletic Training minor, Patty is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Suprey, 341 Bunker Hill Street, Charlestown.

K. of C. Gear Up For Diamond Belt Boxing Tourney

by Maria Girvin

Are you ready for this Boxing

January's tournament finals did not finish the K. of C. Boxing shows. A new tournament of four shows will begin February 19th called the Diamond Belt Tournament and all the favorites, plus more, will be competing Constructed a little differently than the tournament which began in October, the winners of each match will be given a medal instead of a trophy. The winners will then compete against other winners eventually narrowing down to the recipient of the very coveted diamond belt buckle.

This type of tournament is traditional in some parts of the country and the Knights of Columbus are considering making it traditional for Charlestown. However, this will depend on attendance at the matches.

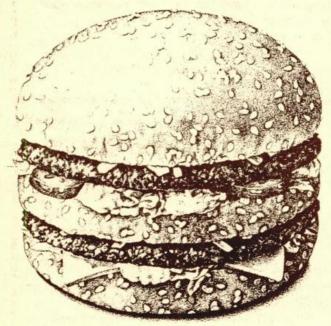

Another possible addition to the monthly fights are famous fight movies of such fighters as Joe Louis, Billy Conn, Rocky Graziano, and perhaps even Sugar Ray Robinson. K. of C.

members have already viewed a sampling of these fights but have not made a final decision. Again, this depends on what the boxing fans want for their $5.00.

However, regardless of those decisions, boxing fans can expect three hours of boxing excitement in a show consisting of at least 10 bouts, featuring, of course, Charlestown, Somerville, Worcester (who have gained quite a following of fans with their excellent boxers), Beverly, etc. In addition, boxers will be using the K. of C. fights as "tuneup" bouts for the upcoming Golden Glove competitions. What this means is that "Townies" are going to be seeing some of the best amateur boxers in the ring pounding their way to Golden Glove championship, step by step; punch by punch; match by match.

Showtime begins at 8:00 p.m., and tickets are available in ad-

School Budget Should Be Cut

January 12, 1981

To the Editor.

Now I see that the School Committee has recommended that twenty-nine (29) Schools are to be closed in the City of Boston. When I, and so many thousands of people here in Boston marched and protested the implementation of FORCED BUSING, the so-called "Liberal Social Planning Do-gooders" were calling us Racists and many other things. We have definitely been right all

Now these fakers are using the excuse of Proposition 21/2 as the reason the schools are closing what a laugh. Why don't they admit that Forced Busing has failed. For Heaven's sake, 50,000 pupils have left the schools system here in Boston, but they don't want to say that. Each week, they come out with phony figures as to how many children are attending classes, and they are nothing but confirmed liars. In 1974 we had 93,000 students attending our Schools, and the budget was $107,000,000, and now with a reduction of 50,000 kids, they want $233,000,000 to run the system.

The Mayor of this City has the final say one this request (not the City Council), and if he wants to save money on this so-called 21/2, all he has to do is to say NO to the request of $233,000,000 and give them the same amount of money they had when they had 93,000 students, not $233,000,000. He (Mayor White) keeps saying, "How am I going to comply with 21/2?" If he does what I suggest, he will have no problems.

Judge W. Arthur Garrity will never admit he was wrong, even though down deep in his heart he knows he was wrong. That is why I am 100% in favor of electing Judges instead of appointing

As I look around this City, and I have good memory for faces, it disgusts me to see people that marched with un against forced busing as Teacher Aides, Monitors, Counselors, Bus Drivers, etc. They sold their Souls for a cheap job. It's nice to see these small Beach Wagon School buses being used to go to Bingo games, Shopping centers, trips to the Cape, New Hampshire and other places. I hope they enjoy themselves because when Mr. Ronald Reagan is the next President, they will have to face us once again. For those people that come into the category that I have explained, read this article, and if you don't like the truth, I could care less. I wish that I had charge of the School Budget, I know what I would do to the lot of them. Look, just the administrative payroll at School Street is at an all time high of $11,595,142. They could start right in and dump half of these people.

Nikita Kruschev was right when he said "We will destroy this Country from within without firing one single shot." This is the way the Communists work, and don't tell me I am wrong. The kids are going to school in fear, and they are learning nothing, and I mean nothing. So in conclusion to the Social planning, liberal dogooders that read this letter, remember that very soon the party will be over, and you can start living with your conscience, and ask God to forgive you for what you have done to the children and parents of this great City and Country.

Albert L. "Dapper" O'Neil Boston City Councillor

Elderly Will Re Hurt

Dear Editor:

Please allow me to voice my opinion on the closing of the Community Schools. The people who are being hurt are our elderly. I am sure everyone must know what a great job Helen Lawler has done. The Mayor and Council should be ashamed of themselves. Being a Senior Citizen myself, I have someone with me, but some of those others enjoy going for coffee and sandwiches and company on Sunday afternoon.

Thank you, Cecilia R. Wagner

Christmas Assembly At Warren-Prescott

It is often said that there is magic in Christmas and this was beautifully brought home at the annual Christmas pageant presented by the pupils of the kindergarten classes of Ms. Connor and Miss Robbins as well as the students of the third grade classes of Ms. Bloomberg and Mrs. Tibbetts and Ms. Mullis of the E.S.D. Class. The children played to a standing room only crowd and without doubt, this 1980 Christmas program was one of the finest ever presented at the Warren-Prescott School.

The kindergarteners opened the program sporting a magnificent symphony of red and green, glittering in the lights and adorned with their cute little Santa hats, made in school as was all of their costuming. They were a tidy sight to behold and everyone in attendance knew indeed, it was the season of Christmas in the John F. Gilmore Auditorium.

ANN MARIE HANSEN in her role as "Frosty, the Snowman."

Just before the curtains were opened, the strains of "Jingle Bells" could be heard sung by the little ones. After the spirited rendition of their opening number, the kindergarten boys and girls then rendered in order, "Christmas Bells," "Santa's Helpers," and "Band of Angels."

Ten children in turn held up a number as their particular number was sung in the "Band of

DRUMMER BOY Timothy

Angels." The children were dressed as angels and included: Karen Black, Cheryl Ferreira, Carnie Kilmartin, Leah Kilmartin, Mary Bryant, Ernest Fratalia, Kenneth Ferreira, Shawn Connolly and John O'Leary and Jessica Souza.

Next for the vibrant and enthusiastic youngsters was "Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer" as Seamus Houlihan skipped merrily around the stage followed by the fleet-footed reindeer in the personages of: Karen Giordano, Kelly Moloney, Wendy Hall, Colleen Hayes, Sharon D'Urbano, Russell Corl, William Simpson, Christopher Sawyer and Paul Hooley.

Off stage a bell was heard as Maureen Wedge stopped out and said, "Listen, it must be Santa Claus." Indeed it was as the children, in great voice in unison, sang "Here Comes Santa Claus" as Michael Tibbetts skipped around the stage, by now a scenario of happiness and joy with all of the smiling faces of the little "elves."

Following that, Amy O'Callahan stepped out holding a Teddy Bear and remarked, "Oh. look, Santa brought a teddy bear." This was the setting for the poem, "Teddy Bear, Teddy Bear." The movements, the dancing and the singing from these little children set the while Timothy O'Brien played the drum. Needless to say, the applause was thunderous when the kindergarteners concluded the program. They did a superb piece of work in learning their parts and their singing was just great.

The appearance of two angels was seen at the outset played by Leo Puleio (Little Angel) and Robert Ng (Archangel). The song, "Twelve Days of Christmas" was sung. This was followed by the poem, "Christmas Cookies," with Eva Moy. The song, "Christmas Tree" was next with Magaly Rodriguez dressed as the ever present reminder of Christmas, the tree.

"Santa Claus Is Coming to Town" was nicely sung as the entire program of singing was exceptional. A very enjoyable part of the program was the poem, "The Night Before Christmas" with George Koulias as the Christmas Mouse, Father played by Yeung Yeung, Lisa Quinn playing the role of Mother, Julie Chin was the girl and Tommy Chin filling the role of the boy. Santa Claus himself was played by David Arruda. It was a delightful "Night Before Christmas."

The ever popular and favorite song of the Christmas season was then sung, "Frosty the Snowman" danced by Ann Marie Hansen who added a bit of the winter atmosphere to the procedings. A song of Hanukkah was sung called the "Draidel Song." Next was the carol, "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing." The children were faultless in their singing and recitations and evidence of their intense efforts was clearly obvious. They were all thoroughly enjoying themselves, also.

The creche (stable) scene was then presented. The angel was played by Lena Tang, the shepherds included: Michael Chin, William Lee, Mary and Barbara Grandmont, Joseph played by David Moy. The Wise Men were: Robert Mui, Edward Dancy, and Johnny Wu.

Finally, as befits the scene of the Nativity, the most popular and solemn of carols, "Silent Night" was sung.

The children from the kindergarten then reappeared on stage for the finale singing with the third graders, "It's A Small World" and most fitting, of course, "We Wish You A Merry Christmas."

Mrs. Marilyn R. Kiely, school principal was most appreciative of the efforts of the children and their teachers. She commended all on the excellence of their program. She wished all a happy and safe holiday vacation. Special thanks was accorded Ms. Eleanor Connor of kindergarten I who played the piano for the program. Children of grade 5 room 209 who served as official school greeters and ushers or usherettes were: Cleve Benson, Connie Wu, Rita Leong, Linda Chin, Justin Chow, Lisa Roache, Maria Bridges, Thomas Ho and Jonathan Furman.

Visiting Aides Jobs Open

Companionship can mean a great deal to an older, isolated Bostonian. For those who provide such companionship, new experiences of satisfaction could be had in the form of a part-time job as a visiting aide.

The city has announced CETA job openings in the Visiting Aides program, sponsored by the Mayor's Commission on Affairs of the Elderly which provide companionship and health monitoring to Boston's isolated elders. To be eligible for a CETA slot as a visiting aide, a person must be 55 or older, a resident of Boston, unemployed for 15 weeks or more, able to meet certain income requirements and be healthy and able-bodied. Visiting aides will earn $75.00 a week for 20 hours work.

Visiting aides work within their own communities and are trained in areas relevant to their job responsibilities and on issues of particular interest to the elderly. Each aide carries a caseload of 10 to 15 clients and meets weekly with them in their

In addition to providing friendly visits on a one-to-one basis and health monitoring, aides offer information, referral, follow-up services when necessary and escort services to medical appointments and shopping trips. Visiting aides also provide emotional support during periods of stress and supportive counseling during periods of transition.

Interested applications should see the CETA Intake worker at 7 Beacon St., Boston. Those with questions about the program or any of the others offered by the Mayor's Commission should call the Elderly Commission at 725-3988 or 725-3989

WEIGHT ROOM WIDSOM

Comment from one lifter to another concerning the accomplishments of a rather rotund third party. (No names please) "Did you hear about———? He bench pressed three hundred pounds yesterday."

"No kidding, won't be long before he'll be doing his weight!"

Although we have been fairly fortunate as far as losing weight room equipment is concerned an occasional piece does find its way out the door at times. A couple of weeks ago a fifteen pound dumbell disappeared. "Takes one to steal one," commented a regular.

It's a pretty sure bet that most of the equipment taken from this or any other gym, becomes a dust collector in the cellar of the thief.

Strangest visitor of the month department goes to the fellow entering the weight room looking for the hair dressing class. "I think you're in the wrong place pal," he was told.

"Are you fellows sure? I was told this was the room where you learned to do the curls."

"Muff" Maguire's record with the heavy bag? 34 wins, 0 losses, 1 draw. The most recent verdict was a split decision which went to Muff. The bag is getting closer.

ALUMNI ANTICS

The Driscoll Club, with only one blemish on it's record leads the Alumni Basketball League as it winds down to playoff time.

Although the Driscoll's are at the top of the loop, the wise observer notes that the Lumbo Club must be the league's strongest entry.

"They have to be," he reasons, "after all, they are at the bottom holding everybody else up!"

It is time now to disclose the names of suspected point shavers in the alumni league. Gerry Suprey of "The Park," Wendel Fidler of "Lumbo's", Billy "Bean" Smith of "Driscoll's", Mike "Sky" Nigro of "McGoff's", and a whole host of others who could not possibly miss as many shots as they do strictly by accident. The law of averages has to apply somewhere along the line.

Total frustration department. Twice during the current season Kevin O'Halloran has successfully attempted full court, desperation shots in the final seconds of a quarter only to have them ruled "No basket" because the time had barely expired.

NATE HURWITZ BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

Within the next week or so a brand new format for the area's oldest amateur basketball torunament, held annually here at the club, will be announced. Current plans call for a de-emphasis on adult basketball action with more time being spent on providing the youngsters an opportunity to display their wares, a move I am totally in favor of.
