Bunker Hill Post To Sponsor Annual "Law and Order" Awards Banquet

The Bunker Hill Post No. 26, American Legion will sponsor their 9th Annual "Law & Order" Awards Banquet on Friday evening March 14, 1980 at 7:30 p.m. at the Legion Hall, 27 Chestnut Street, Charlestown. Chairman of the Banquet James W. Conway, in announcing plans for this annual event stated that "Law & Order" is not dead in Charlestown.

The local Legionnaires, in conjunction with the residents of the community, set aside this day to show their appreciation to our "men in blue" who daily put their lives on the line to preserve order and to protect our lives and property. These "men and women in blue" are to be commended for their self-sacrifice and courage.

Guest speaker of the evening will be Boston Police Department Superintendent of Field Services Edward Connolly. Connolly, an outstanding member of the Boston Police Department has been cited many times for his dedication and most recently - 1979 - was cited by the Department for heroism.

In a future edition of the Patriot, we will list the names of the other Annual "Law & Order Awards" citations.

A delicious chicken pot pie dinner will be served by Dora Ferguson Caterers of Wollaston and at the conclusion of the formal program there will be dance music for your enjoyment.

Tickets are $7.50 per person and can be ordered from any member of Bunker Hill Post or by calling any of the following:

Commander Tom Cullity 242-3970, Arthur L. Hurley 241-7998, John or "Joe" Kelley 242-2279, John Hartigan 242-2134, Glenn W. Luce, Jr. 241-9281, Joe Gauthier 242-0032, Mike Walsh 242-2023, Bill Thomas MI3-0088, or Jim Conway 241-9547 or 241-9511.

So mark your calendar immediately and reserve your tickets for an enjoyable evening as well as a night to pay honor to some of our outstanding "men and women in blue."

Elderly Beware

It has come to the attention of the PATRIOT that fraudulent insurance agents are working in the Charlestown area. These people have said that they represent the Knight of Columbus Insurance Program and are attempting to obtain policy endorsements from elderly residents of the area.

Captain McCormick of Division 15 states that these "agents" have been known to have such personal information on each potential victim as the husband's former employer and any previous addresses the couple may have lived at.

So, beware! If you are contacted by any agent representing the Knights of Columbus, verify their credentials by contacting either Grand Knight Jack Pierce at the K. of C. 242-0062 or Captain McCormick at Station 15 at 247-4231.

Voke Files Bill to Increase Tax Deductions For The Elderly

Representative Richard A. Voke, a long time advocate for the elderly, has once again sponsored legislation to help relieve the economic hardships of our senior citizens. The bill filed by Rep. Voke would raise the state income tax deduction for interest earned from savings accounts held in Massachusetts banks for those sixty-five years of age or older. The proposal would increase the deduction for senior citizens to $5,000 for a person filing a separate tax return, and $10,000 on a joint return when both taxpayers are at least sixty-five years old.

While testifying at a hearing before the state legislature's Committee on Taxation, Voke stressed the immediate need for this proposal to be enacted into law. "The financial burdens upon our senior citizens are increasing daily. The state owes a moral obligation to do whatever is possible to protect the needs of all citizens, and should not be making life difficult by taxing the savings of the elderly," testified Representative Voke.

Citing the current inflation rate of 13 percent and the skyrocketing cost of heating fuel now at $1.00 a gallon, Representative Voke told his colleagues, "The elderly are always among the hardest hit by inflation and rising prices because they are forced to live on fixed incomes. The public sector must use whatever economic weapons it has available to combat the reduction of net income caused by these economic ills."

A decision on Voke's legislation will be made by the committee very soon, and if the committee recommendation is favorable, Representative Voke will introduce the measure before the full House of Representatives.

Charlestown And The 350th

Boston will be celebrating its 350 birthday in 1980 from May 1 to the end of September, and the Boston Jubilee Committee would like all neighborhoods, institutions, businesses and organizations to play a part in the celebration.

The most important part of the celebration is the Official Greeter Program in which various organizations pick a day between May and September in which they play host to all residents and visitors that come to the Jubilee 350 Reception Center at Boston City Hall. The Reception Center will have a regular staff of employees giving out tour

To Talk Of Many Things....

by Sal Giarratani

Station 15 RIP?

Was shocked to read in the papers last week that our Police Station in City Square is supposed to be shut down by mid-March to cut the city budget. Somehow, I think the whole thing is absurd and irresponsible! Charlestown needs its own Division 15 and would be ill-served if our community came under the supervision of Division One at the Government Center.

As a conservative, I'm all for government being cut down to size, all for cutting out the waste that results in higher taxes, but vital services like police protection should not be decreased to save money. It is penny wise and pound foolish and I am disappointed in Mayor White whom I voted and campaigned for with vigor last November!

Galactica: 1980

Don't know how many "Townies" tuned into that recent 3-part Galactica: 1980 on channel 5, but most I talked with had nothing good to say about it.

Most fans of last season's Battlestar Galactica were in for a big letdown.

I would have been better off watching a Star Trek repeat. ABC took a good idea in 1978-79 and then came up with a 'time travel' show that deserved to be knocked out of the sky by a Cylon attack!

Stop that "T" tax!

First the MBTA Advisory Board supports a payroll tax to serve as an alternative source of MBTA funds to the property tax, then T-Chairman Robert Foster supports something along the lines of a sales tax.

The trick is: When the tax gets oppressive enough to cause people to scream, then cut that tax and hike it elsewhere.

I want taxes cut, not shuffled around from one pocket to another. Taxpayers can't win and take it on the chin time and time again. We are threatened with fare hikes or service cuts and that's gotta be one heck of a choice. The pols must think we're all a bunch of bimpos!

The Bottom Line

Don't forget to vote in the Presidential Primary on March 4. There's plenty for Dems, Repubs and Independents to choose from: Teddy, Jimmy, Jerry, Ronnie, Big John or George!

There's nothing like an ice cold shower... That's why more people are installing Mobil Hot Water Aqua Boosters!

It's pretty easy to tell when you've run out of hot water... a scream from the bathroom is often a good indicator. Well now you can end that problem once and for all with Aqua Booster. An Aqua Booster is an economical reserve tank that simply hooks up to the coil of your present boiler. Once in place, this unit will keep 30 to 120 gallons of water—depending on tank size—steaming hot and ready to use.

Aqua Booster is constructed of top quality materials including a stone-lined tank and bronze circulator. It's easy and inexpensive to install because it comes pre-wired and requires no chimney connection.

Say goodbye to the cold water "blues", call us today for more information on Aqua Booster.

IT IS RARE, RARE INDEED, WHEN I BEGIN A COLUMN IN PRAISE OF A BOOK.

But then again "Back Bay" by William Kevin Martin, is a rarity and so is Martin. It is a book so compelling that once you open its cover you will stay with it right through its 437 pages which move with a slam and slap of a pistol shot.

It is not a good book; it is a great book in the old tradition. It is a blend of mystery and history, fact, fiction and fantasy with much of the action occurring in Boston: old Boston, Revolutionary Boston and the New Boston.

Martin, who attended the Robert Gould Shaw School and was graduated from Catholic Memorial High School and thence to Harvard, writes beautifully. He had done his research thoroughly and you are there, right there, as you follow the appearance and disappearance of a fabulous tea set crafted by Paul Revere and presented to President George Washington in 1789.

That tea set, "The Golden Eagle," is the centerpiece of Martin's story, a story punctuated with unaccountable deaths, disappearances and unsolved murders. Crown is the publisher and my congratulations to them for having the good sense to publish William Martin's first novel.

Martin lives in Roslindale with his wife the former Christine Kunz, a Tufts graduate now doing kidney research. A third Martin is due in May.

"Back Bay" will be at your bookstand on February 22nd. I give it my highest award — Six stars.

Steve Nazro, Boston Garden special events director and Bruins' fan extraordinaire, says the most unpopular member of the crack Soviet Red Army hockey team is Boris Mikhailov.

Boris is a 35 year-old forward and a veteran member of the Commie icemen. When the Soviets played the Islanders not long ago Boris emerged from the contest with a broken nose. Said some American hooligan had punched him twice in the face.

The reason Boris gets whacked so much is he has a nasty habit of rubbing it in. Whenever the Reds are ahead of their NHL competition, Nazro says, Boris will check the scoreboard and then sneer at the Americans with a sarcastic "ha-ha-ha...."

A broken nose, you say. Ha, ha, ha.

I've said it before and I re-emphasize it now:

The world champion worst drivers careening around this tired old town have to be those behind the wheels of school buses. And let me emphasize I mean the operators of the full-size vehicles, not the station wagons or mini-buses.

Absolutely atrocious!

I don't know if some of them think they're maneuvering tanks or playing at getting the mail through, but some of the drivers I've observed violate every motor vehicle law imaginable, plus a few that haven't even been thought of yet.

I know, I know, you think that because I'm opposed to those who drive the forced buses.

Taint so. I'm critical of some school bus drivers because their conduct on the highways almost defies description.

I have seen them run red lights; bounce through yellow and scream to a halt on green.

I've prayed as some have stopped to discharge tykes without even activating their flashing red lights.

I've held my breath as I've watched some swoop from side streets and without a look to the left or right go smack into the oncoming rush of other vehicles....

I've driven around others who have parked, just parked, empty, smack in the middle of major thoroughfares.

I've trembled as I've witnessed others jounce along, bounce along, without any apparent regard for the safety of young passengers.

And it's those young passengers about whom I'm concerned.

Some days, somewhere, there's going to be a terrible tragedy in which school buses are involved.

When it happens I won't say "I told you so."

Uh, uh, I'm telling you now.

Concerned Citizens Asked To Join Mental Health Committee

Residents of Charlestown are invited to attend a meeting on Monday evening, February 25, 1980 at 7:30 p.m. at the Legion Hall on 27 Chestnut Street to help establish a Charlestown Ad Hoc Advisory Committee on Mental Health Services.

With the cooperation of residents and professionals, it is hoped that a local advisory committee will be formed to express Charlestown's concerns and to serve as a means of communication and input on a broad spectrum of mental health programs.

At the meeting on the 25th, there will be a discussion on the progress of the Children's Crisis Center which will be located at the Armed Services Y.M.C.A., 32 City Square, Charlestown.

The North Suffolk Mental Health Association, sponsor of the Crisis Center, will be represented by Angela Ponte-Smith, Director of Community Residences of the Erich Lindemann Mental Health Center.

The N.S.M.H.A. will be looking to this local committee and the community in general for representatives to serve on the Advisory Board to the Crisis Center.

This an important meeting for the community, and it is hoped that residents will make every effort, not only to attend, but to participate in the process.

Boat Show Opens Saturday

More and more often, versatility is a key concept where the design of big powerboats is concerned. A preview of craft to be displayed at the 24th annual New England Boat Show, February 23rd - March 2nd, 1980 at the hugh 176,000 square foot Commonwealth Pier Exhibition Hall on Northern Avenue shows this trend very clearly.

It is no accident that a striking number of the new "big boats" at the show are convertible models. The convertible represents the practical combination of what was once two conflicting concepts the fishing boats, designed primarily for sport, and the cruiser, designed primarily for comfort.

In the convertibles nestled among the 600 boats at the Exhibition Center there are usually a cockpit and flying bridge to suit the fishermen's needs and also comfortable accomodations to suit the needs of the family.

According to Jim O'Brien, Boat Show Director, it is also no accident that so many of the new boats check in at lengths 26 feet and longer. Many families that begin their boating careers 10 to 15 years ago with smaller craft have now moved to models of this practical size - large enough to be lived on, but small enough to fit in many a family's budget. The multi million dollar galaxy of newly-designed recreational craft for 1980 at the show includes 175 sailboats, some shipped to Boston from such faraway places as Taiwan and Finland as well as from Canada, England and France. The 43 foot Albin Trawler, a $115,000 beauty and the luxurious 42 foot Yacht at over $200,000 are the biggest power boats at the show.

Enjoys Mc Gonagle's Nostalgia

Att: Charlie McGonagle

In the Thursday edition of the Charlestown Patriot I read with pleasure and enjoyment your trip down Nostalgia Lane.

Taking the trip with you around Chas'n brought many memories along with a few tears of my childhood and my growing up to adult age while living there - "MY WHAT A WONDERFUL TOWN."

I was born on Prospect St. in the shadow of the Commodant's House in the Charlestown Navy Yard - what a long time ago. I lived on Essex St., Elm St. and Monument Sq. before leaving there.

I went to school at the Frothingham which is long gone - then on to Charlestown High School then on to C llege. But while living in Monument Square that also was in the shadow of the Bunker Hill Monument - the Navy Yard and the Monument two very Historical places.

In my adult life I am a Past President of the Daughters of Isabella No. 1 - don't forget the Number one "Minnie Fleming will turn over in her grave if you do - "R.I.P."

If there are any old-time members "old-time in memories not in age" Ha Ha. left in GOOD OLD 62 - they will remember me as affiliated in every way possible with Bunker Hill Council 62. All those activities of the Daughters and the Knights together:

The elections of officers with their installations

The initiations - Oh boy - those initiations by those men glorious -Dutch Walsh, Bill Magner, Bart Coyne, John Coyne, Judge Gilmore, Warren McCully, Frank Carr, Tussy Russell (what entertainers) John Crowley, the Loftus's, Harry Sheehy, so many I could go on and on.

The Minsrel shows put on by the Knights, going down to the prison to entertain those fellows - on to Long Island Hospital for those ill people, the Musical Comedies by Leo Haley, what wonderful days were they, if the Council or the Daughters put it on - I WAS THERE.

Your picture of the Nite Before Banquet always on June 16th, the nite before - then going to the neck for the fireworks. On June 17th, the big parade with the reviewing stand in front of the bidg on High Street.

You know I went back there in December of '78' and finding the bldg. on High St., all boarded up - that did something to me - I'll never forget it. Later by chumming with two lovely ladies from Chas'n at the Senior Citizens Internship in Washington, D.C. two weeks in May of '79' - I speak of Helen Lawlor and Ethel Hazelton, I learned of the Knights new bldg. on West School St., who incidentally I have to thank for this subscription and which I look forward to each week - "THANK YOU PALS."

Thanks

St. Catherine's of Siena Society, wishes to say thank you to all that attended our dance on Friday night. To all the great young people, that had a good time and caused no trouble in or outside and for that our deepest thanks. We are very grateful to all you kids. You did not let us down but most of all you did not let yourself down. And to the older folks like myself, we can always count on you to help us out. We of the Society say thank you and God bless you all. Young and old alike. To Gloria Conway bless you, the advertisement you place in your paper was beautiful and we are sure it had a lot to do with the dance being a success.

And to Mrs. Kerrigan the florist, a thank you for the flowers, you are most generous, and they were lovely.

God Bless You All,
St. Catherine's of Siena Society Members

I have been a long time away from my favorite town but if the good Lord spares me I hope to make a similar trip like yours this coming summer with a visit to the Daughters meeting along with my seeing the new Knights of Columbus Bldg. 62.

Now last but not least - you wonder who this notorious person is guess you might call me a SINGER: Heres goes: I sign myself and I'll be seeing you soon,

A Wish Comes True For CWT

A wish come true is what last Saturday night was to Peggy Ings of the Charlestown Working Theater (CWT).

For eight years Ings had visionized the old firebarn on Bunker Hill Street as a place in which to teach and create. Last Saturday night, with deed to the building in hand, that vision came true and to celebrate, the CWT threw a benefit party inviting the whole of Charlestown.

Over 300 persons took up the invitation and gathered to watch six donated performances of mime, tap dance, blue grass music and folk singing. Ings said the benefit raised enough money to pay off past loans and cover expenses of the theater's opening night party.

Of course CWT became possible after a Community Development Corporation (CDC) grant of $21 thousand. That was enough to get the first floor remodelled and ready. "A lot more work was done than was paid for," said Ings who praised contractors for helping to refurbish to the old barn.

CWT will apply for a second CDC grant to complete the second floor of the barn for the children's theater, and a dressing room.

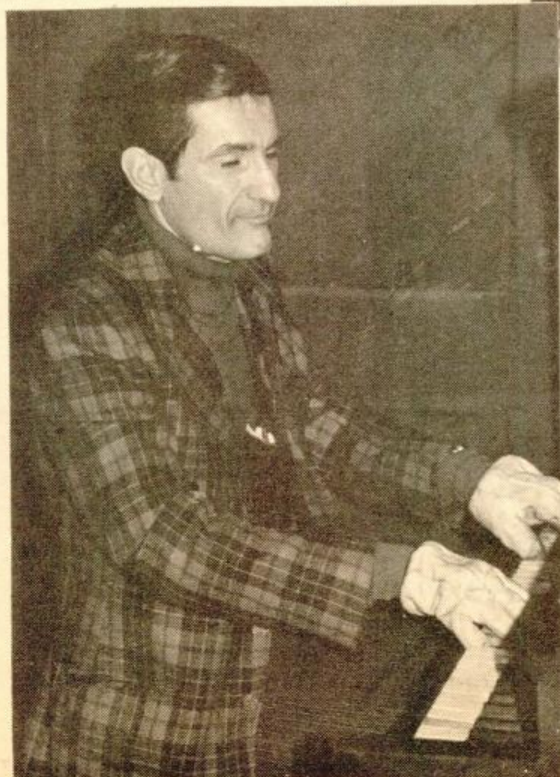

Besides standing as a tribute to Ing's perseverance, the theater is a lesson in community participation. Last Saturday would not have been possible without the volunteered work of many Charlestown residents who helped clean, paint, and remove rubbish. In addition, Charlestown businesses also helped in donating or discounting paint, food, flowers, liquor and numerous other items and services.

Three performances are scheduled for this year: Two one-act Sean O'Casey plays will be presented in March; a children's production will be ready by May and a dance concert, in which professional and non professional dancers will perform together, will be staged in June.

As always, all Charlestown residents are invited to participate in or audition for all aspects of these productions.

Boys' Club News

by Charlie McGonagle

It is impossible to weigh the importance of the Boys' Club on the Charlestown community over the years. Hardly a young man has passed through this neighborhood without having some sort of contact with the organization.

In days gone by things were not as accessible to youngsters as they are today. There were no skating rinks, community school programs, and in most cases there were no family cars. The Boys' Club offered one of the very few out-of-the-house activities for a youngster, especially during the winter months. It was a safe and worthwhile alternative to hanging on the corner.

To many boys it was a home away from home. At the Club a young man could find recognition, attention, and companionship. He was taught the value of teamwork by a staff which was always available to provide the necessary tangibles and intangibles most vital to growing up, and he was encouraged not only to practice, but to polish, his individual talents.

He was taught music by Mr. Bernard or Bob Munstedt, photography by "Buzz" Kearns, radio operation by Mr. Walsh, printing by Mr. Campbell, cooking by "Ma" Phillips, and Howie Bunkley. He learned the finer points of typewriting from Mr. Hyde and Harold Robinson, arts and crafts by Fiore Masse, and sportsmanship from Nate Hurwitz and Fred Sullivan. He was taught to box by Bill Duffy and Honey Melody, to swim by Joe Lynch, Dick Lucas, Bill Wentworth, and Larry Santapaul. He learned graciousness from Louis Zeramby. He could read books by the hour to Miss Kimball and Mrs. DeSimone, and visit Miss Eason and Minnie Towle in the health center. Jim Smith, Lenny Rosenberg, and Sam Aaronson introduced him to ring toss, bowling, and midget pool, and Steve Bethge brought the young man together with nature with his camping programs. Jimmy McEachern turned out some fine trampoline performers, while Keith Parker and Clyde Washington taught the finer points of volleyball, gym hockey, and basketball.

He met the Boys' Club through people like Jack McKettrick, Harvey Brooks, Dave Jackson, Jim Kerrigan, and so many more dedicated youth workers who have graced the Clubs' staff over the years.

Mr. Donald C. Murray of the Boys' Clubs of Boston is in the process of planning a reunion of former Boys' Club members, and he hopes to accomplish this sometime during the spring.

Asked what the difference between this proposed event and the annual Boys' Club Dinner-Dance, Mr. Murray replied, "The Dinner-Dance is a fund raiser, and because of this, it reaches to people for financial assistance. Many former members attend the Dinner-Dance, but for the most part, the people at the Dinner-Dance have a more indirect association with the Boys' Club. The Alumni Reunion will be a more personal evening. Everybody in attendance will be either a former member or a past or present staff member. It will be an attempt to get "the boys" back together again, the people who got a great deal of good from the Club during their younger years, people who played ball together, swam together."

Mr. Murray was asked if he planned to hit on any one era. "Definitely not. I think it would be great if we could have representatives from the twenties right up through the seventies. I envision something like to Old Schoolboys Association. If we can be anywhere near as successful as they have been, we will accomplish a great deal."

Mr. Murray further outlined his plan.

"I" like to get off the ground with a social night including dinner and dancing at a local function hall, maybe the Knights of Columbus. Ticket prices would be kept at a minimum. There would be no profit motive attached to the social night. A break even point would be my goal."

We asked if the night would be a one time event?

"No. I would like to make it an annual affair."

"Are you planning to form some sort of formal association of former Boys' Club members?" we asked, Mr. Murray.

"That is my ultimate goal. I would hope that the people interested in such a venture would be willing to pay a token annual membership fee of perhaps ten or fifteen dollars. Any revenue realized through the organization would be used exclusively by the Charlestown Clubhouse."

"You mean it would not go into a central Boys' Clubs of Boston account", we asked.

"No. In fact I would like to have elected officers, one of whom would be a treasurer who would open a separate bank account for the association's funds. We might use the money for needed equipment, for scholarships, for anything the association might feel funding is necessary. It would be a group of men giving something back to the Boys' Club in payment for what the Club gave to them as youngsters, and at a price quite affordable."

Woodstove Maintenance

by Joseph P. Gannon, III

Certainly is pleasant catching whiffs of wood smoke in the air as one strolls through Charlestown. However, hand in hand with the pleasure and fuel economy a wood stove brings, also goes the responsibility for safe operation.

The smoke pipe should be inspected on a regular basis during the heating system. Whenever possible, it should be dismantled and cleaned out, as well as carefully examined for defects such as corrosion, seams coming apart etc. If any defects are noticed, the pipes should be replaced.

The interior of the chimney flue should be inspected periodically through the heating season for soot and creosote build up. This is easily done with a mirror provided the chimney has a clean out and is relatively straight. Place the mirror in the clean out opening and when positioned right you are able to see all the way to the chimney's top. If the chimney does need cleaning, I suggest you try to get professional assistance. If the chimney does not have a clean out, one should be installed. If your chimney is off set, a draft gauge can be used to determine its condition.

WALK-IN SERVICE

There's Something For Everyone At Globe Jazz Festival

by Marie Girvin

Ready for some hot steamy tunes, some improvisational blues, some show-stopping tenor sax? Then you're ready for the 9th edition of the Globe Jazz Festival which will have something for everyone March 7, through the 15.

All the old jazz favorites like Benny Goodman, Sonny Rollins and Dizzie Gillespie will be there. Even the legends of Lester Young and Billie Holiday will come to life in a special tribunal concert with live re-creations and filmed performances of the tenor saxophonist and singer.

There will be something for the kids (or those still a kid at heart) who may not know there's more to music than disco. On March 8, in the afternoon, major Holley and an all-star cast with Alan Dawson will host the Children's Jazz Program. Kazoos will be passed out at this one.

And for the kids a little older, March 14 will be Jazz for highschoolers featuring outstanding local highschool jazz ensembles. Dizzy Gillespie and his group will star with the highschoolers.

Jazz Latino is a new addition to the festival and will feature Eddie Palmieri and his orchestra and Dimension Latina from Venezuela.

To balance the old timers in jazz with some of the newcomers, the festival will be featuring pianist Dave McKenna, tenor saxophonist Scott Hamilton and Carla Bley, one of the foremost exponents of Jazz's "new music."

McKenna is a year-round resident of Cape Cod with roots in South Boston where his mother, Catherine Reilly, is from.

He is a massive man, well over 6 feet tall. He's a hard-swinging jazz pianist that's been in the business 30 years. He's played with Woody Herman's band in the 50s and is a long-time friend of Zoot Sims.

McKenna's rhythmic power lies in his ingenious left hand and the singlenote melodic lines that pour off his keyboards. He places his notes so that they jar and sharpen the beat. He likes to emphasize the first note of a phrase and then, unexpectedly, the fifth or sixth, shaking up the listener's rhythmic expectations. Barroom paino is how McKenna usually describes his music which stays close to the melody.

Possibly the youngest professional performer at the festival will be 25-year old Scott Hamilton. He's from Providence R.I. but is becoming a stalwart of the New York jazz scene. His roots are in the bigtoned, deeply swinging tradition of Coleman Hawkins, Ben Webster and Lester Young.

He didn't take up the tenor sax until he was seventeen and molded a lot of his style from the collection of 78 jazz records belonging to his father.

Hamilton's fast tempos are floating melodies, with the written notes skimmed in such a way that the melody seems to create itself. He plays softly and he uses a short, gentle vibrato. When he improvises, he alternates long notes with tight, turning, runs. He indulges in occasional high notes and-booting honks, but he never falters. At slow tempos his tone thickens, and silences appear.

There is no doubt that Hamilton is a superior replace-well as the usual brass, saxophones and rhythm section. One of her keyboardist is former Mothers of Invention Don Preston while former Modern Lover drummer D. Sharpe also belongs to the group.

She's a lively witchy looking lady that has been composing since age nine. Her performing career did not begin until 1964 when she and her second husband Michael Mantler founded the Jazz Composer's Orchestra. She is most known for her surreal opera with lyrics Escalator Over the Hill which took five years to write. It appeared in 1972 with Linda Ronstadt in the cast.

DIZZY GILLESPIE

ment for the gone Hawkins, Webster and Young of yesteryears.

Carla Bley will no doubt capture the limelight of all the newcomers with her 10 piece band and its tight striking melodies.

The band consists of a French horn, tuba and two keyboards as Application forms for $3,500 Artists Fellowships in painting, printmaking and drawing, sculpture, and photography are now available at the Artists Foundation. Any artist who is a resident of Massachusetts, over 18 years of age, and not enrolled as a student is eligible to apply to the Artists Fellowship Program.

Applications must be completed and returned to the Foundation office by 5 p.m., Tuesday, March 18, 1980. Several fellowships will be awarded in each field. Applications for creative writers will be available in May, and applications for filmmakers, video artists, composers, choreographers, and craft-people will be available in September.

Applicants in painting, printmaking, and sculpture must submit up to ten slides of their work, and photographers must submit ten prints or ten slides. Panels of out-of-state artists in each field will select the fellowship recipients solely according to the quality of the work. Project proposals are not required of either applicants or recipients.

The Artists Fellowship Program is one of several programs administered by the Artists Foundation, Inc., a non-profit organization in Boston that assists individual creative artists in Massachusetts. The Fellowship Program is supported by funds from the Massachusetts Council on the Arts and Humanities.

Applications may be obtained by writing to the Artists Fellowship Program, The Artists Foundation, 100 Boylston Street, Boston, MA 02116, or calling (617) 482-8100.

Boys' Club News

"Mr. Murray, how will you contact the membership?"

"I plan to establish a mailing list from the people who attend the social night this spring. I will handle all the association's communications with the membership. A periodical newsletter would be sent out keeping people up to date with the association's work and any special events that might be upcoming. I'm enthusiastic about the association's potential, and I certainly hope we can make it work. I think we have to first determine if there is enough local interest in the formation of such an association. I think enough local interest could generate sufficient force to carry the word outside the community to former members who have moved out of town. Provided with the annual feeder system that we have, the potential for a large membership is immeasurable."

Mr. Murray's idea to form a Boys' Club Alumni Association is an attractive one. I have already approached a few people who have expressed a willingness to help get his idea off the ground. If sufficient interest in the association's formation can be found, Mr. Murray's plan will become a reality.

If you are a former member of the Charlestown Boys' Club, and would be interested in becoming a member of this proposed alumni group, just call Mr. Murray at 242-1775 and leave your name and address with his secretary. Or you could write to:

Boys Clubs of Boston
c/o Charlie McGonagle
15 Green Street
Charlestown, Ma. 02129

We would be very interested in contacting former members from the Club's earlier years. If your association with the Club reaches back into the twenties, thirties, and forties, and you are interested in helping us reach former members from your era, please send a note to the above address.

"Old Boston"

The Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs presents Boston Photographs by George M. Cushing Jr. at Boston City Hall, March 3, to 31, 1980 on the Main Gallery Wall, fifth floor.

Mr. Cushing, a native Bostonian, has taken pictures of his city since 1932. He began a commercial career in 1937 photographing interiors and objects d'art and today has a nationwide reputation in the fine arts field.

His work expanded to architecture, city streets and skyline, forming a collection that now numbers many hundred.

Here is shown for the first time Cushing's Boston, revealing his less known but considerable accomplishment of documenting the city he knows intimately.

Your Dental Health

by Jeffrey D. Cohen, D.M.D.

Water fluoridation is supported by most of the major health organizations in the world. The American Dental Association, the American Medical Association and the World Health Organization all support adding fluoride to water as a public health measure. It has been proven that fluoride helps make teeth more resistant to decay. If the fluoride level in the water, whether naturally or with the addition of fluoride, is high enough, little supplementary fluoride treatment is necessary. Fluoride is available in most tooth pastes, in some mouthwashes and by treatment.

Preventive dentistry and good oral hygiene are stressed by Dr. Jeffrey D. Cohen, D.M.D., 338 Main St. Dr. Cohen is a family dentist and provides general dental care for persons of all ages. If you need new dentures, or your present dentures are uncomfortable, call our office for an appointment. Dr. Cohen fits, repairs and adjusts dentures. Call us at 242-3550 when you need dental care. We honor most dental insurance plans and aid Medicaid patients in completing insurance forms.

DENTAL TIPS

Fluoride treatment is especially important for children whose final teeth are just coming in.

WE FINALLY FOUND A MORTGAGE RATE WE CAN LIVE WITH.

Charlestown has a residential mortgage that can make the cost of a house a lot easier to live with. It's called FLOAT. And it has an interest rate 1/2% below the traditional Firm mortgage.

The rate is guaranteed for a year, then reviewed semi-annually. So if you're not going to stay in your house for long, or more importantly, if you think interest rates might drop, FLOAT is a good bet. There's no penalty for pre-payment and you can convert to a Firm mortgage whenever you want. FLOAT. The mortgage with an interest rate guaranteed to bring the house down. It's another way Charlestown Savings helps you look out for number one. And why more people say, "That's my bank."

CHARLESTOWN HELPS ME LOOK OUT FOR NUMBER ONE. THAT'S WHY THAT'S MY BANK.
