

Sue – Theatre Royal Usher

Every moment here at Theatre Royal is memorable. Every single moment!
Because of the building itself! The people! The management! Everything!
Everything about it. The job itself – it's all memorable to me, personally.
Everything is different. It's an honour to work here. It's such a place in Brighton.
Because I was born and bred in Brighton so to work here is really special.
