

How The Olympic Games Began And Some Amazing Facts About Them

You might not care much for sports and video games, but the Olympics has a magic of its own. Professional athletes put in their best efforts and undergo rigorous training for several years. The very first Olympic games happened in Olympia, Greece. Fourteen countries got together throughout those games, and they had 241 athletes who contended in 43 various events. It was exciting with track and field events like swimming, fumbling, shooting, cycling, etc. In the beginning, they held the games every four years. But later, they were prohibited for a while, only to be reanimated about 1500 years later on. At that time, professional athletes did not trouble about style or sponsorship, and the games lasted 5 to six months.

Some Fascinating Truths About The Olympic Games In The Past

From the year 1924 to 1992, the summer and winter season Olympics happened in the exact same year. Now, they happen alternately every two years. From the year 1912 to 1948, numerous artists participated in the video games. They competed for medals in their particular fields, and it was Baron Pierre de Coubertin that designed the 5 rings of the Olympic Games. He was the co-founder of the Olympic Games. The 5 rings of the sign represent the 5 continents of the world that are populated. The first mascot of the Olympic games was Waldi at the 1972 games in Munich. In the beginning years of the Olympics, only guys took part in the video games. They included females just in the 1900 Olympics.

Some Interesting Realities About The Olympic Games of 2021

The XXXII Summer Olympic Games were scheduled for 2020 however required to postpone the video games to 2021 due to the pandemic. They have included 4 brand-new sports, karate, skateboarding, sport climbing, and browsing at the present games, and the Olympic town has a location of 44 hectares and is at Tokyo Bay. It will accommodate 18,000 athletes and other members of the Games. The largest team of professional athletes comes from the United States, and there will be 142 Open LGBT athletes. They state that the Japanese collected utilized family home appliances to make the Olympic and Paralympic medals. They were able to obtain 32 kg gold, 3500 kg silver, and 2200 kg bronze. These provided for 5000 Olympic medals. They bore in mind the security precautions for the pandemic. So, they keep the medals on a tray, and the athletes gather them themselves. If you wish to know more amazing facts about the Olympic Games, examine YouTube <https://youtu.be/5dhxV6WhIM8>.

Thank you for reading the article, you can learn more here: <https://youtu.be/s2a9AH4v8Kw>.

Information source: <https://www.swedishnomad.com/facts-about-tokyo/>