Astralean 40 mcg tablets, manufactured by Alpha Pharma, contain Clenbuterol Hydrochloride which selectively stimulates the beta 2 receptor. Astralean tablets are typically administered as a bronchodilator for the treatment and prevention of breathing problems such as asthma. Through daily consistent workouts, waist training, clean eating, daily 45m walks, and an all around clean healthy lifestyle, I have discarded so much unhealthy fat and lifestyle choices that caused me to even look like the first picture.

To get in the mood of the event I participated in a competition to try to win a pot of whey at @profit.labs I almost earned more as I didn't need to perform the full moves. I ended up doing fewer repetitions than the first place. Before performing the maximum repetition test I did three warm-up sets. - VLog of AstraLean VLog of AstraLean. Skip navigation ...
