New England Patriots To Play Benefit Basketball Game

Just when many thought the New England Patriot's fervor had simmered down a bit (at least until next season), members of the AFC Championship and Superbowl contender team are about to try their hands at another sport, as they challenge local personalities to a basketball game to benefit the Life Focus Center of Charlestown.

Trading in their cleats and shoulder pads for Nike high-tops and gym shorts, these athletes, which include Steve Nelson, Rich Camarillo, Mosi Tatupo, Robert Weathers, Steve Grogan, Fred Marion, Tony Collins, Roland James, Peter Brock and Ron Wooten, will display a different kind of magic at the University of Massachusetts, Boston Harbor Campus Gym on Morrissey Boulevard in Dorchester. The tap off is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, February 20th.

Local personalities will form two teams in an effort to take advantage of the Patriots, one of local government officials and the other of the media. The governmental team has a bit of an unfair advantage as former Providence College Basketball starter, Mayor Raymond Flynn, leads the team of City Councillor Robert Travaglini and staff members from the offices of Representative Richard Voke and Senator Fran Doris. Voke and Doris may offer their hands in the coaching of their team.

The media team will include WXKS - FM KISS 108 newsman, Bill Costa; WILD - AM DJ, Willie May; Sports Center 5, WCVB-TV's Mike Darling; Boston Globe sports reporter, Mike Frisbee; and from WBCN

Opposition Voiced To Locating Sludge Facility In Charlestown

The protests of residents and elected officials echoed the Kent Community School Cafeteria on Tuesday evening, January 28th, as testimony was presented at a public hearing, unanimous in its opposition to the locating of a Residuals Management Facility (solid waste or sludge transfer and/or processing plant) in Charlestown. Representatives of Revere, Chelsea, Everett, and East Boston — who were all present at this regional hearing — voiced opposition to the selection of a site within their respective communities for sludge transfer or landfill sites.

Elisa Speranza from the Public Affairs Office of the Massachusetts Water Resources Authority (MWRA), was the moderator of the hearing. On the panel were representatives of the United States and Massachusetts Environmental Protection Agencies as well as members of the firm, SEA Consultants Inc., who had conducted the first phase of the study and prepared the draft report for the disposal of waste residuals.

At the outset of the hearing, representatives on the panel presented an overview of the problems and their responsibilities regarding the long term management of sludge. Melanie Thomas, Residuals Program Director of MWRA, told the audience that sludge is the solid from waste treatment and that a long term, environmentally sound disposal means must be found for the sludge. She stated that 500 gallons of raw sludge are discharged into Boston Harbor every hour of every day and that this practice is not environmentally or legally acceptable.

Thomas continued, stating that MWRA is in the process of developing that long term management plan for sludge and the first stage took place from July through December, 1985 when the study was prepared listing potential sites for a sludge process or transfer facility. Thomas stated that sites selected were preliminary and that the MWRA would be looking at these and other sites in detail over the next ten months. She noted that siting was not an easy task as the public had many questions and concerns.

Environmental Protection Agency spokesman, Robert Mendoza, told the gathering that EPA would be working in cooperation with the MWRA. He stated that it was the obligation of the EPA to enforce the Clean Water Act and to provide monies for a Residuals Management Facility. He said that a full Environmental Impact Statement would be prepared simultaneously with the MWRA study. Both Mendoza and subsequent speaker, Nancy Baker from MEPA, stated that they were there to listen to concerns of the residents and include these concerns in their

North Area/Central Artery Update

At a recent North Area/Central Artery community meeting, an update on some of the issues in the project was presented. This $175 million highway improvement project that involves removing ramps over City Square, constructing tunnels under City Square, and building a series of loop ramps over Boston Sand & Gravel, is currently in the Final Design stage, but there are still issues to be resolved.

At a North Area/Central Artery community meeting in November, a list of issues and questions that had been raised at previous meetings was presented. After more study by the consultants on some of the issues, decisions have been made on the following:

SECTION 1 — LOOP RAMP AREA

- The location of the Massachusetts Department of Public Works maintenance building to replace the facility being torn down behind the YMCA, has been located in the loop ramp area in Cambridge.

- The location of fences in the "infield" area is proposed to be set back from Rutherford Avenue with a four-foot high earth berm and plantings between the back of the sidewalk and the chain-link fence. However, this has yet to be approved by the Massachusetts DPW or the Federal Highway Administration.

- "Streetscape" designs, the design of the pedestrian environment, which include pavement patterns, landscaping, etc., has been developed and submitted for review.

Still under study by the Massachusetts DPW and the consultants in the Loop Ramp Area (Section 1) include:

- BRA/Boston Sand & Gravel access road alignment is currently shown bisecting the Boston Redevelopment

There will be a meeting of the "Townie Santa" Committee on Thursday evening, February 13, 1986 at 7:30 p.m. at the American Legion (Lower Hall), 27 Chestnut Street.

All are welcome to attend this important meeting to evaluate the 1985 program and discuss plans for 1986.

BUYER'S REMORSE

Your Realtor calls with great news. Your offer has just been accepted. Congratulations! You're about to become a homeowner!

Your initial euphoria may be short lived, however. You begin to have second thoughts. First, it's the mortgage. It's so much money and takes 30 years to pay off. You look over the estimated closing costs, adding up the cash you'll need for settlement, and feeling like you'll never be able to afford to eat meat again. Finally, you stare at the structural inspector's report and convince yourself that the roof will blow off and every major system will fail the day after you move in. You're in a frenzy. "What have I gotten into and how can I get out of it?"

Relax. This is normal, so normal that it even has a name — Buyer's Remorse. It's virtually always temporary, and if you have an extreme attack, don't hesitate to call your realtor. We're experienced at helping our customers through homebuying jitters with almost every property we sell.

The professionals at Century 21, Silva Realty Associates can guide you through each step of the home buying or selling process. Just stop by our offices at 142 Main Street or give us a call at 242-7470.

"Charlestown To Charlestown"

The Mayor The Rose The Tour

by John 'Fox' McLaughlin

In New England, there are three towns named Charlestown — ours, of course, one in Rhode Island and another in New Hampshire. In County Mayo, Ireland, there is also a town named, you guessed it, Charlestown. Thus the name of our committee, "Charlestown To Charlestown".

Each year in August, the International Western Rose Festival is held in Charlestown, Ireland where fair young ladies from all over Ireland, England and the United States (Boston, New York, Philly, California) vie for the coveted title of Irish Western Rose.

Committee Chairman, Arthur Hurley, on one of his annual trips to Ireland, became acquainted with Mrs.

O'Hara, the Mayor of Charlestown, who also runs a pub and inn. When she confided in him as to how she bought the office, Hurley almost fell off his chair.

The first two weeks in August are considered a holiday in Ireland. Each county has one kind of festival or another, when all their sons and daughters return home from their jobs for the holidays.

Mrs. O'Hara, the "Mayor", explained that to raise funds for the festival, the "Mayor's" seat was sold. To become a candidate, all a person had to do was declare themselves, get a committee together, and proceed to sell the most votes. Thus was born the idea to "buy" an election for "Mayor".

This will be our fourth year sending our "Mayor" and our Rose to the festival. Our new "Mayor" will be announced at the Knights of Columbus Hall on Friday evening, March 21, 1986. All are welcome to be present for the announcement.

Jamsie O'Brien, our present "Mayor", will be retiring on March 21st, when the new "Mayor" is elected. This year's "Mayor's" contest has pitted four very aggressive candidates against each other. The candidates are Joe Crilley, Ellie Marino, Fran Scadding, and Lisa Collins — all of whom will be looking for your support. Vote early and often for one lucky voter will have his or her ticket drawn and win an all expense paid tour of Ireland.

The Charlestown Rose will be selected on May 30, 1986. To be eligible to compete for the Rose, contestants must be female of Irish descent, single, and between 18 and 23 years of age.

As in the past three years, the "Mayor" and Rose will lead a delegation of "Townies" and their friends (last year a "Townie" from Texas joined the tour) on a ten day tour of the Emerald Isle, from August 6th through August 17th.

Ireland, where every county has its stories and every path has its memories, is where our tour will be taking us.

Travel arrangements will be made by Frank Gallagher and John McQuire of Classic Tours. We will be traveling to Ireland via Northwest Orient Airlines, 747 jumbo jet. All accommodations will be at first class hotels. When we arrive in Ireland, we will be greeted by our tour guide for a ten day vacation in a 1986 Van Hool coach with raised floor and reclining seats.

If you would like to join us on this first class tour of the

Emerald Isle, or have a loved one to whom you would like to give a gift they will remember long after the diamonds have faded, send the coupon in the advertisement below for a free brochure. (This year's tour is limited to 35 and thus it is suggested that you mail your request early.)

Authority lot, which is leased to the Bunker Hill Community College for parking.

The landscape design for the "infield" area is also under study by the Section 1 landscape architects, Wallace, Floyd Associates.

The consultant team for Section 2, the area north of Rutherford Avenue, has resolved the following issues that were raised at previous community meetings:

SECTION 2 - NORTH OF RUTHERFORD AVENUE

• Parking on Chelsea Street will be provided, necessitating widening the street by eight feet. This decision was made based on the preference of the Boston Transportation Department and the desires of the community.

• Noise barriers have been eliminated from both proposed locations - Route 1 and Rutherford Avenue. After a special meeting with the abutters and a 14-day public comment period in November, the Massachusetts Department of Public Works decided to eliminate the noise barriers based on comments received.

• The 84-inch storm drain under Warren Street will be accommodated by means of an inverted siphon.

Still under study in Section 2 are:

- Parcel heights, setbacks.
- Land uses for parcels.
- Parcel 5 (City Square) analysis.

• Architectural treatment of southbound ventilation building that will face City Square.

• The future alignment of the Freedom Trail.

• Future of the remains of the Great House.

These issues are some of many that have come up in recent months as the North Area/Central Artery project enters the last stages of design before construction begins.

This year the beginning of construction will start, with some preliminary work in the loop ramp area beginning this spring and the YMCA and Massachusetts Department of Public Works maintenance buildings being demolished later in 1986. Work on the temporary detour structure will begin late in 1986, and the Route 1 northbound roadway will become two-way by late 1987.

NOTICE TO ARTISTS

The Bunker Hill Tenants Task Force and the Charlestown Preservation Society, in conjunction with CBT Architects as part of a project sponsored by the Browne Fund, are seeking artists to participate in the design of public spaces and elements of art at Hayes Square and Thompson Square in Charlestown. Resumes and examples of previous work should be sent to Rebecca Krinke at CBT, 306 Dartmouth Street, Boston, MA 02116.

Change In Location For Precinct One Voting Site

Senator Francis Doris
State House
Boston, Massachusetts

Dear Senator Doris:

The Boston Election Department has recently surveyed the city's polling locations of accessibility for the handicapped and elderly, in compliance with P.L. 98-435. If any polling location does not comply with this Public Law by March of 1986, the Board of Election Commissioners must seek a written waiver from the Office of the Secretary of State.

The Boys and Girls Club, present polling location for Ward 2, Precinct 1 does not comply with this law, therefore, a new site must be chosen.

The proposed new location is the Constitution Co-Op, 42 Park Street, which provides handicapped and elderly accessibility.

Should you or any of your constituents have any objections to this proposed new site, written commentary would be appreciated so that the Board may initiate the waiver process with the Secretary of State's Office.

Respectfully,
Michael A. Joyce, Chairman
Board of Election Commissioners

Dukakis Versus The GOP Bogeyman?

To The Editor:

As a moderate-conservative, I have been on the receiving end of innumerable direct mail appeals for every conceivable conservative and right wing organization rich enough to afford a post office box and find all their appeals, directed at my fears, to be highly offensive. The demagoguery spouting forth from their mailings is often distasteful and politically nasty. However, political diatribe of this sort is equally offensive, whether we're talking liberal or conservative politics.

As a Republican voter, I can only hope that the accusations and assertions mentioned in a recent New Right-type Dukakis fundraising letter, signed by US Senator Edward M. Kennedy of a well-financed campaign to defeat Governor Dukakis, have merit. However, reality shows quite the opposite. The Republicans have yet to mention a gubernatorial candidate with a statewide constituency, and Governor Dukakis has become one of the most powerful Democratic governors in the history of the Commonwealth.

One can only assume from this recent fundraising letter for incumbent Governor Mike Dukakis that there exists a grave

Mr. William J. Geary, Commissioner, M.D.C.
20 Somerset Street
Boston, Massachusetts

Dear Mr. Geary

Since you have taken charge of the Metropolitan District Commission, we read from time to time of your record of accomplishments and decisions in this vast department, with all of its triumphs and tragedies, which far exceed your predecessors' problems in many ways, so I hope my small complaint comes in the form of a breather in your busy daily task of monumental department decisions.

First of all, I applaud your choice of rink managers in William Finn (days), and Daniel Kelly (nights), who make the Emmons-Horrigan-O'Neil Rink in Charlestown one for other managers to exemplify. Pride can only be the motive that makes men like this perform so thoroughly. To say neatness counts would hardly be expressing the entire picture of accomplishments of these managers and work crews under their wing. If my description of this manager/crew team in Charlestown has credence, then my complaint will have

Thank You

I would like to thank my family, friends, relatives, neighbors, clergy, Paul's co-workers and extend a special thank you to Father Tom Conway, Father Reilly, Father Kennedy and the Nuns of St. Catherine's for all the support they gave me during my recent bereavement. You all have a special place in my heart and I will always remember you in my prayers.

Sincerely,
Rose M. Green

cashflow problem. Money must be extremely slow coming into the Dukakis Committee and the campaign needs to create some reason to raise more campaign funds.

Kudos to Republican leaders like GOP Chairman Andrew Natsios, House Minority Leader Bill Robinson and Ray Shamie for speaking out against such a vicious fundraising letter which creates a Right-Wing bogeyman for Governor Dukakis and Senator Kennedy to vent out their political anger. These two appear to have copied both the New Right and Religious Right in appealing to the negative feelings of their potential contributors.

I am appalled that Senator Kennedy, who has been victimized so brutally for years by various conservative political action committees, would stoop to the same level as his political opponents in helping Dukakis raise additional campaign dollars.

As a Republican activist, I can only hope that the worst fears of the Dukakis scare letter bear fruit. It is high time to challenge the iron-clad grip that Beacon Hill Democrats have had on state government. The best thing for Massachusetts is for a strong two-party competitive spirit to take root and grow. Bay State Republicans must whip their party back into fighting shape and take on all Democratic comers.

Dukakis Democrats now control the state Democratic party and conservative Democrats need to be brought over to their political allies in the Republican ranks.

Republicans have to be more than bogeymen, they have to be strong political opponents willing to run for office and dare for victory.

Here's hoping the Dukakis-created Republican bogeyman letter generates additional funds into the campaign coffers of Republican candidates. How sweet that would be, giving Dukakis a taste of his own medicine!

Re: Broken Down Zamboni (Junk) credibility and stand on its merit for your judgment and final decision.

Most rink managers must develop the art of making good ice surfaces daily, even hourly at times, so to accomplish this, his best product is only as good as the "tools" he has to work with, namely the Zamboni (Ice Maker), good Zamboni, good ice, bad Zamboni, bad ice.

My story begins on the 23rd or 24th of January when the regular Zamboni at the Charlestown Rink was removed from the rink and taken to the Stoneham Maintenance Shop, for minor repairs. Whenever this situation arises, the maintenance shop usually supplies that rink with a spare Zamboni, until their machine is fixed. As this transition was taking place, someone in authority at the maintenance shop, where there were two Zamboni machines, one 1967-68, and another 1982-83 decided to send the oldest machine, (best described by the mechanic that transported the machine to Charlestown as "useless junk")!!!! When the old Zamboni arrived, they put it to the test the next morning and sure enough, it flunked the test. It couldn't collect snow, it made deep gouges on the ice, water just ran out of it — to mention but a few of the failures of this old machine. Futile efforts by the manager at the rink fell on deaf ears. It seems "the old junk machine will have to do", was the pathetic response to their plea for help! Surely, poor judgment can be forgiven when the act does not affect anyone, but, in this case, we feel there is no need to punish the children that look forward to their Saturdays, to lose even one day of fun at the rink.

As manager of the Matthew J. O'Neil Hockey Club, I was livid when I arrived at the rink. I had scheduled this game four weeks in advance, only to receive this news at 11:30 a.m., the morning before the game was to be played! Needless to say, all parties involved were arriving ready to play. Each to the man could not believe that a person of authority would knowingly send a worthless machine to do the work so essential for a rink's daily operation.

Therefore, Mr. Geary, I've said my complaint will stand on its merit and your decision to rectify this injustice, and to assure that it will never happen again, will more than resolve our problem!

We are a proud community and we believe in fairness, so let your fine managers, William Finn and Daniel Kelly, continue their work in fine traditional "Metro Style". Amen!

Sincerely yours,
Bernard J. Kelly, Manager
Eddie Johnson, Director
Matt J. O'Neil Hockey Club

Charlestown Merchants Association To Meet February 20th

On Thursday, January 16, 1986, the first monthly meeting of the Charlestown Merchants Association was held at the Knights of Columbus Hall. Norbert Lynch, Co-Chairman of the Association's Steering Committee, chaired the meeting. Attendance was less than hoped for and this was attributed to the short lead time of the meeting announcement.

It was planned to hold nomination of officers and directors at this meeting, Lynch told those present. It was suggested that due to the limited attendance, nominations be postponed until the February 20th meeting and elections scheduled for the March 20th meeting. All present agreed.

Lynch then presented a set of by-laws, as drafted by the Steering Committee, to the membership and after some discussion, they were adopted.

Lynch then introduced the temporary Treasurer, Donald F.

Breen, who presented a financial report to the gathering.

The next meeting of the Association will be held on February 20, 1986 at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 75 West School Street, at 6:30 p.m. It is planned that monthly meetings will be held on the third Thursday of each month. Programs and activities will be announced as plans are formulated.

Membership in the Association is opened to any person maintaining a business or professional interest in Charlestown. The application for membership may be filed, along with a $25 Charter Membership fee, the evening of the meeting. Members who have already filed their applications, along with business persons who submit their application at the meeting, will be entitled to nominate and be nominated for office.

Boston Police Explorer Post 1212-15

Over the past weekend, 17 youths and advisors from Charlestown were among 100 youths from the Greater Boston area who spent a very cool weekend at Sayre Reservation in the Blue Hills of Milton.

A great time was had by all. Activities included Winter Fest Olympic Games, a marathon, an outdoor clue game through the woods, a lip-sync contest, disco dancing, skating, and skiing. Lots of good food was also provided for the group.

The Charlestown Post fared very well in the competitions and are to be commended for their skill and sportsmanship-like conduct throughout the weekend.

The Charlestown Post was encamped with Post 1212-6 of South Boston. Many new friendships were established.

Our thanks to Police Officer Charlie Famolare of District C, Boston Police Department Advisor to South Boston and his Associate Advisor, Mrs. Maryann Clevenger. Thanks also to Charlestown's ever faithful Associate Advisor, Mrs. Rita Feely, and Scouting Coordinator, Cindy Blaikie, for a fun job, well done.

Appreciation is extended to Boston Police Department Superintendent Martin Mulhern and his men for the transportation and to the citizens of the town for their support and contributions.

The next meeting of Explorer Post 1212-15 will be held on Thursday, February 13, 1986 at 7:00 p.m. at 55 Bunker Hill Street.

Happy Valentine's Day to all.

Frederick Aufiero of SEA Consultants Inc. gave a brief overview of the process used by the consulting firm. He said that Phase 1 of the study, which concluded in December, included the evaluation of screening of all technologies with regard to solid waste management, as well as the identification of some 200 sites for such a facility with the subsequent elimination of sites until 12 inland, six coastal and various harbor island locations remained under consideration. He said that they expect to add and drop sites during Phase 2 of the planning process.

Aufiero stated that Phase 2, which will run from February through November 30, 1986 will include more in depth analysis of the sites giving consideration to such issues as traffic generated, odors, and ground water. He admitted that no person would like to have their town identified as a residuals management site, but told the audience that the site "would not be a 'sludge dump' with a gooey mass in some lagoon, but a state-of-the-art enclosed, quality controlled building." He said a citizens' advisory group was formed during Phase 1 and would continue to meet.

Stephen Geribo, also of SEA Consultants Inc., outlined technologies under consideration for disposing of residuals and these included landfill, thermal processes (which included incineration), beneficial reuse (composting), and ocean disposal. He stated that there was potential heat value from sludge as an energy source. Regarding the site evaluation process, Geribo went on to say that all potential sites must be available (vacant, for sale, or not in use) and include a minimum of 14 acres for inland sites.

In the criteria established for site evaluation, the first part involved public health and environmental impacts, which include 1) community impact en route, 2) community impact adjacent to site, 3) aquifer (any geological formation supplying water for wells), and 4) wetlands. Site access and site topography (with a flat site preferred over a sloping area) are the technical considerations given in site evaluation.

Presentations by the panel concluded with a description accompanied by a slide show, depicting each site currently under consideration for coastal transfer and/or inland landfill facilities, by Mark Gould from SEA Consultants Inc.

Among the sites noted by Gould, were the former Revere Sugar Refinery on Medford Street, Schiavone Company on Terminal Street, both identified as Coastal Transfer Sites, and land on the Charlestown-Everett line, across from Boston

Edison's Mystic Power Station on Alford Street, which has been listed as an inland landfill site with the potential of being a coastal site.

SEA Consultants have developed criteria in the selection of a Coastal Site, which includes: availability of the site, a minimum five acre area, deep water access to accept barges and docking, and highway/rail access. The potential uses for the Coastal Site, as listed on handout from the MWRA, were transfer facilities, dewatering, and incineration. SEA Consultants also noted that public health considerations of locating a sludge facility in a densely populated area would be taken into consideration in Phase 2 of the study.

Following the presentation by the panel, the moderator called for comments from the audience, adding that elected officials would be given priority in the order of presenting testimony.

The first speaker was Senator Francis Doris, whose senatorial district encompasses Charlestown, Everett, Chelsea, Revere and Saugus — all communities which have been named as potential sites for the waste residuals facility or landfill.

Doris opened his remarks addressing the concerns of the people of Charlestown and Chelsea — two of the communities named as possible locations for barge terminals for residuals, which, he also referred to as sewage.

Doris stated that he was familiar with the environmental problems of the area, emphasizing that this district is probably the most dumped upon district in the Commonwealth and maybe even in the nation.

Doris referred to the comments by a SEA consultant that there would be more meetings regarding the proposed sludge sites by stating that, "A SEA Consultant said tonight this is just the beginning — speaking on behalf of the people in the district, we know that when you hear from us that this will be the end."

The Senator asked

MWRA how much they spent for the Phase 1 study, to which MWRA replied that they estimate the cost at $430,000.

Referring to Charlestown, Doris pointed out that a most significant historical site (the foundation of The Great House) has recently been uncovered in City Square and consideration should be given this historic district.

Doris emphasized that the federal, state and city governments have spent hundreds of millions of dollars to upgrade these communities (Charlestown, Revere, Chelsea, Everett, etc.) and now wants to place the burden of a sludge plant on these areas.

Commending the leadership of Charlestown who helped turn around a decaying community, Doris chided the panel as having the "audacity" to select the Revere Sugar site. He said that with the closing of the sugar plant, the federal and state governments provided some monies to help retrain personnel and assist them in finding jobs and now "instead of a place on this site that will create jobs, you want to put a sludge budge terminal — Bull!"

Doris pointed out to the panel the various developments and improvements planned for the area communities, including the several million allocated to upgrade and "greenbelt" the Alford Street area on the Charlestown - Everett line, the impact on the Revere wetlands, and the creation of a waterfront park in Chelsea.

The Senator asked how the MWRA could come out with such a Phase 1 report and said, "You are using our money!"

Doris concluded his testimony by stating emphatically that the people of his district say the answer to any proposal for a sludge plant is "NO!", which was chanted by those in attendance.

Testimony followed from Thomas Nolan, Mayor of Chelsea; John McCarthy, Mayor of Everett; and George Collella, Mayor of Revere — each of whom voiced strong opposition to a sludge facility in their respective cities.

A contradiction was apparent when Mayor Collella questioned whether SEA Consultants had prioritized potential Coastal Transfer Sites. Frederick Aufiero of SEA said there was "no priority as yet," although on page 4-212 of the MWRA Residuals Management Facilities Plan Interim Report Number 2, a footnote indicates that an asterisk denotes priority sites and two of the six sites so noted are the Revere Sugar and Schiavone plants in Charlestown.

District One Boston City Councillor Robert Travaglini testified as to his concerns regarding Charlestown and East Boston — two communities he represents. Travaglini told the panel that they were mandated to improve the environment — given that fact, he questioned how they could even propose these sites.

The Councillor pointed out the proximity of the Revere Sugar site to the community school and pool and stated that the utilization of that site would "not be conducive to improving the quality of life in Charlestown — knock it off the list." He referred to The Schrafft Center currently being developed by The Flatley Company, noting the attraction of new businesses to the Center and subsequent employment of Charlestown residents in that facility.

Regarding the Schiavone site, Travaglini stated that it is too close to the high school, so "cross it off the list right now."

The Councillor then referred to potential East Boston sites, stating, "East Boston has two tunnels, airport traffic — now you want to give us sludge."

Travaglini recommended, "You give me, the Mayors, and Senator Doris the $430,000 (the estimated cost of the Phase 1 study) and in 60 days we will come up with ten sites."

The Councillor concluded by stating that he would "be named Chairman of the Boston City Council Committee on Commerce and Transportation tomorrow (January 29th) and it oversees — guess what? You will find you have a powerful adversary!"

Richard Innes, a member of the MWRA Advisory Board from Boston, brought a statement from Mayor Flynn expressing his concern about the cleanup of Boston Harbor. In the statement, Innes said there had to be equitable distribution of such facilities and Boston has to bear her fair share. He did note that Charlestown and East Boston have more than their share of regional facilities already and did refer to the major traffic concerns that already plague these two areas of the City.

In his opening statement, Representative Richard Voke told the panel that he took offense that only three of the 11 members of the MWRA Advisory Board, who would be voting on this plan, were present at this hearing. He continued stating that it was disrespectful that the remaining eight members of the Board were not present and questioned how members could vote on the location of a site not having heard from the people.

Voke referred to a health study done under his Chairmanship of the State Health Care Committee, which concluded that Charlestown has the highest incidence of cancer, by a shocking margin, of any of the 22 Wards in Boston. He indicated that the same may be true for Chelsea, but no study has been done.

The Representative noted the serious traffic problems on both sides of the bridge — with no relief in sight for a decade. He also added that high unemployment and severe economic conditions have plagued the area and the communities are just beginning to pull themselves out. He continued, stating that putting in a sludge facility, with the resulting traffic, would be detrimental to the district.

The Representative stated 400,000 motor vehicles pass through Charlestown and Chelsea each day, noting the difficulty trying to cross City Square.

Voke said, "I know no one is running to your door to have a sludge facility put in their community, yet you must weigh the areas that are already heavily impacted."

Voke concluded by offering to provide the results of air quality monitoring currently ongoing in Charlestown.

Following testimony by numerous Alderman and City Councillors from Everett, Revere, and Chelsea, residents were invited to speak.

Jim Conway, a Belmont Street resident, spoke on behalf of himself and his family, and as a homeowner whose property is in view of the Revere Sugar site. He noted the impact of bridges, roadways, and traffic, and especially the proximity of the Medford Street site to residential areas, the community school, and recreational facilities.

Conway stated, "Many in this hall have gone through open public meetings for over 30 years. We know what they did with our input and we know where our recommendations went. We will demonstrate lawfully and we will oppose any sludge plant in our community."

Conway then called for Charlestown residents to stand in opposition to the sludge plant, which they did with a resounding "NO."

Main Street resident John

Tobin advised MWRA Advisory Board members to take a close look at what the consultants are saying regarding substances that are emitted from the incineration of sludge. He referred to a position paper from the New Jersey Division of Public Interest Advocacy that reported serious problems with the incineration of solid waste, including the release of dioxins (a cancer causing agent), toxic heavy metals, and hydrogen chloride. Tobin advised the MWRA Board not to take the word of the consultants, but get an independent study done.

Kathryn Downing of Green Street voiced agreement with the speakers who pointed out the public health impact. She continued, stating that the sites being considered for the Coastal Transfer Facility in Charlestown are within view of historic areas of this community. She also said that such a facility might jeopardize the boating program proposed for The Schrafft Center.

Church Court resident Bernie Kelly told the panel that the $430,000 job by the consultants, could have been done for $50. He stated that the Charlestown sites were not appropriate and he thought "Wellesley or Brookline has lovely sites."

Kelly referred to tons of clay that were excavated during construction of the Boston Under Common Garage in the early 1960s and deposited in a mound on Rutherford Avenue. He noted the smell that emanated from that mound and said, "It was supposed to be temporary and it is still there. We don't want any of your...it!"

Ann Considine of Tufts Street reiterated the fact that these sites are near dense housing areas and called for the panel to realize the health and traffic hazards to Charlestown children who play near these areas.

An elected official from a neighboring community, cautioned that if any site within the Charlestown - Everett - Chelsea - East Boston communities is selected for a Residuals Management Waste Facility, it would affect the whole area. He then made a plea to the audience for unity in opposing the sludge plant.

Community Input Needed To Halt Locating Of Solid Waste Plant In Charlestown

Three sites in Charlestown have been named in a preliminary report by SEA Consultants, Inc. to the Massachusetts Water Resources Authority (MWRA), as possible locations for a Coastal Transfer Site for waste residuals (sludge) management. Potential sites include the former Revere Sugar Refinery on Medford Street, Schiavone Company on Terminal Street, and the area on the Charlestown - Everett line across from Boston Edison's Mystic Plant.

Strong opposition to the location of such a facility in this community was voiced at the recent public hearing.

Consideration must be given to the fact that two of the facilities listed as potential Coastal Transfer Sites and notated in the study as "priority sites", were the Revere Sugar and Schiavone locations. Further note must be made that investigation as to use of the site is ongoing and the selected site may include not only the transfer of the sludge from barge to truck or train, but also the processing of the sludge — with incineration offered as a possibility.

Community residents, organizations, and businesses should make the MWRA and the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) aware of the community's opposition to the location of such a facility within this community. Proximity to schools, housing, recreational facilities, as well as increased truck traffic and health considerations, must be brought to the attention of these agencies.

Letters protesting the location of a solid waste facility should be sent to:

Michael Gritzuk, Executive Director
Massachusetts Water Resources Authority
One Center Plaza
Boston, MA 02108

Also, letters should be forwarded, by February 17, 1986, to:

Director, Water Management Division EPA

Boston, MA 02203

O'Neil Scholarship Update

Nancy Davis of Pearl Street, Charlestown, the 1985 recipient of the Matty O'Neil Scholarship Award, reports that all is going well at the University of Massachusetts. Nancy has adjusted well to college life and enjoys the responsibility, exposure and freedom of living away from home.

Her first semester studies were quite intense and included courses in economics, nutrition, psychology, sociology and communications. Nancy achieved a "B" grade point average, which is quite a formidable task for a freshman college student away from home and friends for the first time.

Congratulations for a job well done and keep up the good work.

I want to be with you and my loved ones in your perpetual glory. Amen. Thank you for your love towards me and my loved ones. Persons must pray the prayer three consecutive days without asking your wish. After 3rd day wish may be granted no matter how difficult it may be. City Announces Procedures For Snow Emergencies

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn has announced that the City of Boston's Snow Emergency Center will be operative again this year until April 1 during declared storm emergencies. The center, located at City Hall, serves as a clearing house, fielding calls twenty-four hours a day from Boston residents requiring assistance with vehicles and walkways and providing

Construction Scholarship Being Offered

In an effort to promote professionalism in the construction industry and further the goals of students in collegiate construction programs, the Massachusetts Construction Advancement Program (MCAP) is offering $15,000 in scholarship aid to sophomores and juniors enrolled in full-time civil engineering, construction, or construction management programs. These scholarships may be used by students to help defray tuition and/or living costs for the 1986-87 academic year.

Applications have been distributed to civil engineering and building construction technology departments at Massachusetts colleges and universities offering construction oriented degrees. Additional application forms are available from the MCAP Office, 888 Worcester Street, Wellesley, Massachusetts 02181. Completed applications must be returned to MCAP by April 1, 1986. Award recipients will be selected by contractor representatives of the Associated General Contractors of Massachusetts' Education Committee, and will be announced by the end of May.

shelter for stranded individuals.

The Snow Emergency Center opens after Traffic and Parking Commissioner Richard Dimino and Public Works Commissioner Joseph Casazza, in conjunction with the Police Commissioner, declare a snow emergency if six inches or more of snow is forecast by the Weather Bureau. Public Works Department employees staff the center until a significant reduction in calls can be determined.

The following information should be kept in mind during Boston's foul weather days:

- During snowstorms, all snow related emergencies in Boston should be reported to the city's Snow Emergency Center at 725-3050.
- From now to April 1, the Highway Division of Public Works mobilizes a snow emergency standby operation consisting of three, fifteen-person shifts, twenty-four hours a day.
- During a snow emergency, public service announcements are issued through the media by the Department of Public Works, the twenty-four-hour Hot Line and the Mayor's Office.
- Snow emergency calls should go to 725-3050 rather than to individual yards so that Public Works can better monitor calls and communicate with the individual yards for more efficient operation.
- If a call is made to report an unplowed street in Boston, see if there are any cars that might block a plow. If there are, try to have it removed by the owner. If the owner can't be determined, report it to the Snow Emergency Center to have it towed.

Applications Available For Matty O'Neil Scholarship

The Matty O'Neil Scholarship Committee is now accepting applications from qualified candidates for this year's Scholarship Award.

Eligibility criteria are:

- 1.) Be a Charlestown resident since February, 1980.
- 2.) Graduate from a high school in June, 1986.

The Scholarship Award is for $1,000 for the recipient's first year of college only. The application deadline is May 1, 1986.

If you need an application, contact your school's guidance office or Ed Johnson at 241-9891.

SPEECH AND LANGUAGE PATHOLOGISTS WORKING WITH LEARNING DISABLED CHILDREN

The "learning disabled" population display a vast range of problems requiring the services of many disciplines. The National Advisory Committee on Handicapped Children explained the components of this diverse population:

"Children with special learning disabilities demonstrate problems in one or more of the following areas: listening, thinking, talking, reading, writing, spelling or arithmetic. These problems have also been called perceptual handicaps, brain injury, minimal brain dysfunction, dyslexia, developmental aphasia, etc. They don't include learning problems which are due primarily to visual, hearing or motor handicaps, to mental retardation, emotional disturbance or to environmental disadvantages."

As stated above, children with learning disabilities demonstrate difficulties in comprehending and/or producing oral and written language. Since language is a vehicle for learning, an impairment in auditory comprehension or language usage would be detrimental to the various avenues of learning. The Speech-Language Pathologist is responsible for the assessment and remediation of language comprehension and production. The assessment areas of language comprehension include receptive vocabulary, oral directions, word and sentence structure, linguistic concepts and spoken paragraphs. The expressive language assessment looks at the production of word series, confrontation naming, word associations, modeled sentences and sentence formulation.

Upon completion of the evaluation, the Speech-Language Pathologist determines the severity of the language impairment. Often times, subsequent speech-language remediation is recommended in the academic placement and/or available Speech-Language facility in the community.

When the Speech-Language Pathologist acts as the direct therapist, he/she is responsible for directing, developing and monitoring opportunities for language usage that will have a great deal of meaning. These experiences will allow for the internalization of the appropriate adult forms of language.

The Speech-Language Pathologist also often acts as a consultant to the child's school, providing suggestions for the development of the child's individual education plan (I.E.P.) as well as the classroom management.

Suggestions for the I.E.P. may include the frequency of Speech-Language therapy sessions in school, class size, a language based classroom, specific therapeutic objectives, and additional special equipment.

Classroom management ideas include allowing the child more time to process information and formulate responses. Teachers should encourage requests for repetition of instruction, or information. The rate of presenting auditory stimuli should be reduced. The number of directions presented at one time should be limited.

Learning disabled children require the services of many disciplines. It is vital that the members of the disciplines are "in communication" with each other for the implementation of a well developed educational plan. The Speech-Language Pathologist plays a vital role in the coordination of therapy goals and academic goals when working with learning disabled children who have language problems.

For further information about language/learning disabilities contact your local Speech-Language Pathology facility. The Massachusetts General Hospital Bunker Hill Health Center Speech-Language Pathology Unit services the Charlestown area and surrounding communities, and can be reached at 242-5748.

FACTS ABOUT DRUGS - F.A.D.

What kind of person turns to drugs? Of all the factors that contribute to drug abuse, the way a person feels about himself is the most significant. There are some important similarities in drug dependent people.

1. A drug dependent person suffers from guilt. What fosters guilt? Parents might criticize, punish, or discipline their child too much or there might be no boundaries in the home. Both kinds of parents foster guilt in their children.
2. A drug dependent person may have the desire to punish. Drug abuse is an effective method of punishing oneself or getting even.
3. A drug dependent person is not good at problem solving. Running away from problems starts even before a person becomes dependent. Parents do not help if they cover-up for a child or protect their child from the results of his/her own behavior.
4. A drug dependent person has not had practice in decision making. It is important for a child to express feelings, and have their opinions respected. Parents often try to control all their children's decisions, or give no guidance at all.
5. A drug dependent person is unwilling to wait for what he/she wants. Some parents never let the child wait for anything he wants. The child grows up with a "me-first, me-now" attitude.
6. A drug dependent person does not accept responsibility for his/her actions. They blame others or circumstances for their behavior.

There is a great responsibility to parenting well and with wisdom. It is a hard job. But parents needn't blame themselves for their children's drug abuse. Many other factors influence, and our kids make choices, sometimes harmful ones.

BONDING UPDATE

WHAT CAN BONDING DO?

Reshape malformed teeth.
Straighten some teeth instantly.
Restore fractured teeth.
Close spaces between teeth.

Cover stained teeth.
Splint loose teeth.
Repair existing bridges.
Reduce Cost.

SOME ADVANTAGES OF BONDING ARE: Less drilling of teeth; anesthesia is not usually required; procedure may be completed at the same visit; cost is less than other methods of esthetic care and bonding is reversible, meaning that the bonding can be removed and done over or another technique used.

REPORT ON BONDING: After several years, using bonding materials at Dental Associates, we feel that this procedure is valuable for certain conditions. Teeth do look better; fractured teeth repaired, cavities filled, defects corrected. The bonding material is being used to splint teeth and to fill in between teeth. These materials have proved themselves to be a valuable adjunct to our practice.

Matt's Eagles Claw Wounded Terriers 6-4 Huskies Weaken Crusader Armor 9-7

by Bernie Kelly

TERRIERS VS. EAGLES

As the Terriers arrived at the M.D.C. Rink for the scheduled double-header of Amateur Hockey, the "high" associated with winning was still evident as they joyfully dressed, anticipating Fitzpatrick Named M.V.P.

PRESENTS M.V.P. AWARD: Representative Richard Voke presented Charlestown's Joe Fitzpatrick with the Most Valuable Player trophy for his performance in Pope John's championship win in the recently conducted Christmas Tournament. Joe, who is a senior co-captain, sparked the Tigers' attack with eight points and 11 assists in the title tilt. Representative Voke was the sponsor of the MVP and All-Tourney Team trophies.

maybe another moment of victory at the hand of the Eagles, who were still reeling from their 9-6 loss to the Huskies the previous week.

The re-formed Terriers, which Director Eddie Johnson had transformed into a winning team, was the talk of the senior league, because of the class players Johnson had assembled to bolster the sagging Terriers and to fire up the race for the playoffs!

As Eddie Lynch signaled for both teams to face off, Captain Paul Wilkins was stalling for time to allow those missing Terriers more time to get to the rink. Time ran out for the Terriers as they started without Mark Fidler (one goal, two assists in the previous game), Bobby Hardy (one goal, four assists) and Tom O'Neil (one goal, one assist), who was hesitating to play because of an old game injury that was plaguing him, sent shivers of joy to the Eagles' bench, as they now realized the Terriers armor was cracking and their "Achilles' heel", was now exposed.

Eddie Lynch dropped the puck to start the first game between the screaming Eagles and the weakened Terriers, when Steve (the Rocket) Smith, right winger for the Terriers, took a European pass (looks one way, passes the other), from Pertti Hasanen (the Swedish playmaker), and left winger Bernie O'Donnell (C. C.) at 13:32, to make it 1-0 Terriers.

Bobby Fitz, the Eagles' Terry O'Reilly, evened the score at 5:42 with a sharp pass from Darryl Locke, followed then by Mike Doherty's goal, assisted by Jim (the Actor) Murphy and playmaker Warren Fitzpatrick, putting them ahead 2-1 at 3:02.

Jackie Sullivan put the Eagles up 3-1, with help from Mike Doherty, but before the Eagles could enjoy their goal, Kevin Connolly (Matignon) found the upper corner over Mike Giordano's outstretched body to make it 3-2, with an assist from that back checker and digger (corner man), Brian Kelliher, and John Dowd at 1:29, as the period was coming to a close.

The Terrier Captain, Paul Wilkins, tied it up at 8:01, with a slap-shot from the point, keeping his team in the game at 3-3.

Darryl Locke, with a nifty pass from Jackie Sullivan, put the Eagles back in the lead. (Look out, D.J., now there's two of them after you...!)

The third period began with an outstanding goal by Jackie Sullivan, that was set up by his shadowing playmaker and equal scoring partner, Darryl Locke, making it 5-3 Eagles at 9:20.

Kevin Connolly (Marty Pierce's boy), with help from the Captain, Paul Wilkins, made it 5-4.

At 4:45, Chris Thornton, one of the unsung heroes of the Eagles, teaming up with Bobby (the Fox) Fitzpatrick, put the Eagles ahead by two goals, with an assist from Mike Doherty, forced the Terriers into a desperate (pull their goalie) situation with time running out.

Suddenly, it happened. At 1:22, Warren Fitz hooked John Dowd from the rear while he was on a break-away on the Eagles' goalie, the referee, Eddie Lynch, called for a "penalty shot." (first of the season), amid the screams of protest from the Eagle bench, but from this reporter's view, totally agreed with the referee's call on the play. Yes, an infraction did occur!

As Eddie (the Enforcer) Lynch placed the puck in position at center ice for the "penalty shot", all the local hockey buffs were saying, "Maybe if John Dowd makes it, the Terriers have a chance as they would only be down by one goal with 1:22 on the clock, and there was still time for an upset!"

The crowd was tense as John Dowd approached the nervous Eagle goalie. A hush of silence followed by a roar of excitement and applause as Mike Giordano mustered every skill he knew and made a remarkable split save on the Terriers' top scorer. Awesome...just awesome. No, Mike, this doesn't make you "Man of the Year".

The Terriers, in desperation, pulled their goalie, Frank Saeli, and unloaded a barrage of rubber on Mike Giordano, who finished off in fine professional style at the buzzer.

NOTE: Mike Giordano has been taking some flack (jabs) from this writer, but he certainly proved himself on Saturday, upsetting this fine Terrier team. Job well done, Mike, you did it with class. There's something about a Banjo player I like!

Mayor Flynn Announces Rehabilitation Of Clougherty Pool

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn announced that the Board of Trustees of the George Robert White Fund has authorized the funds required to rehabilitate the Paul Clougherty Swimming Pool in Charlestown.

The Mayor stressed that construction work will not interrupt the seasonal opening of the pool. Planning for scheduled improvements is already in progress.

"The City appreciates the efforts of Assistant Commissioner Joe Barnes, Parks and Recreation Department, in proposing the necessary improvements for the recreational service vital to the youth of Boston," said Mayor Flynn.

The Clougherty Pool has received $1.2 million to appropriations. Virtually a complete renovation will take place, including re-constructing the diving area, locker rooms, and concessions. Electrical, plumbing, and mechanical systems are also scheduled to be refurbished.

The George Robert White Fund is a private trust donated to the City during the Curley Administration. The trust is used by the city for public facilities.

COACHES' CORNER: Rink Rats (whose names escape me) were speculating out loud that Mark Fidler was thinking of going to Europe to play hockey with a professional team — somewhere in Sweden or Italy, overlooking the Alps. Good luck, Mark, sounds great — $$$ and all those fringe benefits! Wow! Right, Joe? Terriers' Captain Paul Wilkins says, "Mark, come back all is forgiven!"

DIRECTOR'S DESK: Director Eddie Johnson, who was attending a A.H.A.U.S. Conference in New Jersey over the weekend, will review the results of the Senior team action upon his return and select new replacements for the players missing from the Terrier Roster.

CRUSADERS VS. HUSKIES

The quickest goal of the season was recorded as the Crusaders and Huskies met in the second game of the Saturday double header, when Scott Geezil, the awesome one, scored on a stunned, Tom Bryson (the Huskies' goalie), in 19 seconds at 14:41, with an assist from Jim Doherty, making it 1-0 Crusaders. Then at 13:09, (one minute, 32 seconds later), Scott Geezil lit the light again with an assist from Matt Mahoney, upping it 2-0, Crusaders.

These Crusader goals, ruffled the Huskies' fur, when a sharp goal by Jimbo O'Brien, with some fancy passing from Jimmy (the Cobra) Greene at 11:14, helped lift a sagging Huskie ego, making it 2-1 Crusaders.

At 9:27, the Cobra struck again. Jimmy Greene, with a streaking pass from the Huskie Captain (Mitchie Smart), caught the Crusader defense up-ice and hit Chuck Smith's glove side for the score 2-2 that tied it.

The Crusaders' Mike Anthony (M.C.), with assists from Paul Wrenn and awesome Scott Geezil, up 3-2 at 8:30.

At 7:50, the Huskie Captain (Mitchie Smart) made it 3-3, with an assist from Malden Catholic's Joe Burton.

The Huskie top scorer, D.J. Harrington, picked up the puck behind his net and sped the length of the ice, right through the Crusader defensemen (who were practicing their curtsies and their figure 8's), to put the Huskies out front 4-3.

Crusader blood was boiling when Billy McDonald (of Hat Trick fame), took a neat pass from the Captain (Mitchie Smart), which sent the Huskies out front 5-3 as the period ended.

D.J. Harrington opened the third period with a flashy display of speed and accuracy, assisted by the Captain (Mitchie Smart) at 14:02, making it 6-3 Huskies.

The Pope John defenseman, Ken Guitarr, gave the Crusader bench something to cheer about at 11:22, making it 6-4.

Then Big Joe Donovan, with help from Joe Fleming and Bobby (the Spider) Chisolm at 8:32, closed the gap to 6-5.

The Crusader bench was really exuberant as the awesome threesome scored — Matt Mahoney from Mike Anthony, and, you guessed it, Scott Geezil tied the score at 7:20, making it 6-6.

Defensive pressure by the Crusaders held the Huskies at bay until the Merrimack College Barrister (Mr. "X"), T. O'C., took a perfect pass from center Jimbo O'Brien, and hit the upper corner over the outstretched helpless, Chuck Smith, for the Huskies' go-ahead goal at 4:27 of the second period. (NOTE: The Huskies' motto — score when they are down and helpless, still holds — right, Tim?)

The Huskies could taste blood after the Barrister's (Mr. "X") goal, when Joe Burton put on the after-burners and scored with help from Billy (Hat Trick) McDonald and Richie (the Hun) Doherty, making it 8-6 Huskies.

With 0:28 seconds on the clock, Jimmy (the Cobra) Greene, toyed with the Crusader goalie, with help from the Captain (Mitchie Smart), to give the Huskies a 9-6 lead as the period came to an end.

The third period found the Huskies playing it safe, icing the puck a lot, while the Crusaders were trying to break the game open with rushes by the defensemen in desperation to tie or win the game.

At 10:46, the left winger for the Crusaders, Joe Fleming, found an errant pass that went to him as the defenseman fell, allowing him to go in on Tom Bryson, all alone for the only score of the third period, making it 9-7, Huskies.

Twice near the game's end, (Mr. "X") T.O'C., found an open net, but the hesitating Barrister was thwarted when the Crusader Captain, Ed Kelly, in a desperation dive, prevented the puck from going into the empty net. Within 30 seconds, the Barrister (Mr. "X"), facing another open net, this time with the defense up ice, took aim and gently sent the puck directly, but unfortunately, into the corner away from the net as the game ended. (Geez, no wonder Mr. "X" trips a lot — glasses anyone?)

Courts Get Tough On Killer Drivers

"Motor Vehicle Homicide is a tragedy that the Massachusetts Judicial System takes seriously." So states Commissioner of Probation Donald Cochran in his warning to all drivers of the Commonwealth's roads.

Cochran's office has determined that 84% of persons charged with Motor Vehicle Homicide can expect to be found guilty, and more than half of these people will be put behind bars.

In a just released study, Probation Researchers examined the criminal records of 189 persons charged with Motor Vehicle Homicide. They found that this offender is most often male, twenty-three years old and arrested in an Eastern County of Massachusetts. Eighty percent of these persons were simultaneously charged with another offense, most commonly Operating to Endanger and Driving Under the Influence of Liquor.

The Researchers expected both of these offenses to be prevalent, and Cochran added, "We found that three quarters of the persons who were found guilty of both motor vehicle homicide and drunk driving were incarcerated." He added, that all Massachusetts residents should be aware of the success this state is having in apprehending and adjudicating the intoxicated driver who kills.

In conclusion, the Commissioner was quick to point out that the person charged with Motor Vehicle Homicide is no stranger to the Judicial System. "Our study has uncovered two significant risk predictors for this offense: almost 60% of persons coming before a judge for this crime have been in court before for either Operating to Endanger or Drunk Driving. Three people in the study had nine or more previous major motor vehicle crimes while one person in the study had as many as four previous drunk driving cases. This suggests that alcohol and negligence go hand in hand.

Single copies of Motor Vehicle Homicide: The Offense and the Offender, by Enos, Puglisi, Mazzone and Bongiorano are available free of charge from the Research and Statistical Bureau, Office of the Commissioner of Probation, 1 Ashburton Place, Room 405, Boston, MA 02108, telephone 727-5306.

65 New Police Sergeants Sworn In At Ceremony

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn and Police Commissioner Francis M. Roache recently promoted 65 Boston Police Officers to the rank of Sergeant at swearing in ceremonies held at the John Hancock Hall. Mayor Raymond L. Flynn delivered the oath of office to the officers. This promotion brings the total number of sergeants on the Boston Police Force to 185.

The 65 officers have completed a year long testing process. After the swearing in ceremony the new Sergeants reported to the Boston Police Academy for two two-week sessions of intensive training prior to being assigned as Patrol Supervisors.

In his comments to the new sergeants Police Commissioner Roache said, "We are moving in new directions to improve morale in the department. It is my opinion that discipline enhances morale; good morale improves performance; and ultimately good performance provides better police service to the citizens we serve."

Among those promoted were George F. Symes, a resident of Charlestown; and Paul J. Farrahar, Joseph P. McLean, Edward C. Wallace, Patricia Murphy, and Thomas D. Steiner, Jr., all of whom were assigned to Area A prior to their promotion.
