Mercy to Mankind

“Indeed, in this [Quran] is notification for a worshipping people. And We have not sent you, [O Muhammad], except as a mercy to the worlds.” (A-anbiyāa: 106-107)

One of the main measures of our iman or faith is our love for our beloved prophet Muhammad (PBUH), in fact, our iman is not completed until our love to our Prophet exceeds our love for anything else, even ourselves. In surat Al-Ahzab, Allah said: “The Prophet is preferable for the believers even to their own selves...” (33:6). The Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) said: “None of you becomes a believer until I am dearer to him than his children, his parents and all mankind.” (as reported by Bukhari and Muslim). Some versions add: “his life, his wealth and his family”.

‘Alī ibn Abī Tālib was asked once about the level of love of the Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) in the hearts of his companions, he said: “The Holy Prophet is dearer to us than our wealth, our children, our fathers, our forefathers, our mothers and cool water at the time of severe thirst.”

Anas bin Malik Narrated: A man asked the Prophet (PBUH) about the Hour (i.e. Day of Judgment) saying, “When will the Hour be?” The Prophet (PBUH) said, “What have you prepared for it?” The man said, “Nothing, except that I love Allah and His Apostle.” The Prophet (PBUH) said, “You will be with those whom you love.” Anas Said: We had never been so glad as we were on hearing that saying of the Prophet (i.e., “You will be with those whom you love.”) Therefore, I love the Prophet, Abu Bakr and `Umar, and I hope that I will be with them because of my love for them though my deeds are not similar to theirs.

The Mecca Center President's Message

Support Your Mecca Center

Dear Supporter, Asalamu Alaikum,

I hope this message finds you and your family in the best of health and Iman.

We are nearing the one year anniversary of the opening of our new center and we thank you for your continued support and generosity as we accommodate the growing needs of our dear community. Alhamdulillah, we have settled into our new space, but we still need supporters to fulfill pledges and donate more so we can pay back our outstanding loans and expenses.

The new Mecca Center offers our community spacious facilities for prayers, halaqas, classes, lectures, meetings, interfaith and social gatherings, and sports programs. By the grace of Allah Subhanahu wa tala and your loyal generosity and support, we have come a long way. Our community has grown greatly over the years and we continue to grow with you. Our intention is to have our masjid and center be a great asset to the community, insha'Allah, and we are always striving to meet our community's needs.

We are asking for your help again before 2017 comes to a close. Please give generously; $10,000, $5,000, $2,000, $1,000, $100 or any amount you can afford. This is the perfect time to fulfill pledges and make your end of the year donations. Please keep this beautiful verse from the Qur'an close to your heart and know that sincere worship and generosity is rewarded immensely by Allah Subhanahu wa tala: "Say, "Indeed, my Lord extends provision for whom He wills of His servants and restricts [it] for him. But whatever thing you spend [in His cause] - He will compensate it; and He is the best of providers." [34:39]

The Mecca Center is thankful to have enough community support and resources to offer many programs and services, which will insha'Allah continue with your support. The Mecca Center offers a Sunday School, Quran Institute, vibrant and engaging Youth Programs, as well as a Banquet Hall for a variety of services and functions.

May Allah Subhanahu wa tala reward you all in this life and the hereafter for your generous donations and good deeds. May He continue to bless your families and our growing community.

Wassalamu Alaikum,

M.A. Hamadeh, MD
President, The Mecca Center

Allah's Messenger (PBUH) was the kindest of men in the same way as he excelled all others in courage. He said: "Allah has commanded you to show kindness to everyone, so if you have to kill, kill in a good manner, and if you slaughter an animal, slaughter it gently. If anyone of you has to slay an animal, he should sharpen the blade first and treat the animal well." Ibn 'Abbas relates that a man threw a goat on its side and then started sharpening his knife. When the Prophet saw him he said: "Do you want to kill it twice? Why did you not sharpen the knife before throwing it on the ground?"

There are many examples that highlight the character of the Prophet of mercy (PBUH), such as when he showed mercy when the people of at-Taa'if rejected him and harmed him severely for calling them to believe in the Oneness of Allah. He did not want anything from them apart from that.

Al-Bukhaari and Muslim narrated that 'Aa'ishah (may Allah be pleased with her), the wife of the Prophet (PBUH) said to the Prophet (PBUH): Was there ever a day that was worse for you than the day of Uhud? He said: "I suffered at the hands of your people, and the worst that I suffered from them was the day of al-'Aqabah, when I presented myself to Ibn 'Abd Yalaal ibn 'Abd Kulaal, and he did not respond to what I wanted. So I went, with signs of distress on my face, and I did not recover until I was in Qarn al-Tha'aalib, where I lifted my head and saw that a cloud was shading me. I looked and saw therein Jibraa'eel (peace be upon him), who called me and said: Allah has heard what your people said to you, and how they have rejected you. He has sent to you the angel of the mountains, so that you can tell him to do whatever you want to them. Then he called the angel of the mountains to me and he greeted me with salaam, then said: O Muhammad, Allah has heard what your people have said to you, and I am the angel of the mountains. Your Lord has sent me so that you can tell me what to do. What do you want? If you wish I will bring together the two mountains of Makkah to crush them. The Messenger of Allah (PBUH) said to him: "Rather, I hope that Allah will bring forth from their loins people who will worship Allah alone, not associating anything with Him."

As we are watching bloodshed every day and night around the world, we need to remember that our beloved Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) did not kill anyone except one person as the scholars said: "The Prophet (PBUH) was the most perfect of people in terms of his courage that is required of leaders in war, but he did not kill anyone with his hand except Ubay ibn Khalaf, whom he killed on the day of Uhud. He did not kill anyone else with his own hand before or after that."

The Prophet (PBUH) showed mercy for the believers, and for the non believers. He showed mercy towards his enemies. He showed his mercy to men, women, children, orphans, and widows. The Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) showed his mercy to domestic workers, animals, and even the inanimate objects. He was a mercy to mankind.

"Allah sends His Salaah (Graces, Blessings, Mercy) on the Prophet (Muhammad), and also His angels (Angels ask Allah to bless and forgive him). O you who believe! Send your Salah on (ask Allah to bless) him (Muhammad), and greet him with the Islamic way of greeting (salutation, i.e. As-Salaamu 'Alaykum)" [Al-Ahzaab 33:56]

Allahumma Sali wa Salim wa barik ala Sayidena Muhammed wa all 'aalehe wa sahbehi wa sallam.

A Message from the Sunday School Principal

Assalamu Alaikum,

With the arrival of the blessed month of Rabi' Al Awwal, the Mecca Sunday School students are busy learning about the Prophet Muhammad's character and way of life in their Islamic Studies classes. By examining the way he dealt with important moral issues, how he handled challenges, and how he responded to his enemies and his friends, we strive to instill the love of our Prophet in their hearts. Islamic studies classes are involving their students in prepare projects, essays or skits that present important teachings or events in Prophet Muhammad's life. Furthermore, we are encouraging our students to partake in a Seerah Trivia Bowl with over 200 questions about our beloved Prophet that they will be quizzed on during the competition.

The Mecca Center Sunday School feels that the remembrance of our Prophet during his month of birth is especially important in the American context, in order to promote him as a beloved role-model for our students and facilitate for them an authentic Islamic learning environment that develops their values, beliefs, and practices in accordance with the teachings of the Holy Quran and traditions of Prophet Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him). A reminder to our Mecca Center Sunday School families that the school is NOT in session on the following dates: November 26, December 24, and December 31.

A Message from the Youth Director

Salaamu Alaikum Mecca Center Family,

I hope and pray that you and your families are all doing great! Let me tell you something brothers and sisters, community work is truly something amazing. Whether its getting to know young brothers and sisters who are aspiring to succeed spiritually and academically, or simply hanging out with them and grabbing a bite to eat, every day is a blessing. As I see our youth grow, in the short time I've been here so far, I can honestly say I've seen my love and appreciation for the youth of this community grow as well.

Since I've joined, with the help of a team of mentors and a team of young leaders in our community, by Allah's grace, weve been successful in establishing weekly youth programs for middle school and high school guys and girls. But as so many of you already know, programs are not enough. What we strive for is the personal development of the youth as well as the creation of bonds of brotherhood and sisterhood that go beyond the walls of Mecca. Week in and week out, youth from across the Mecca community come to the masjid for a good time filled with good vibes, healthy discussions, heated basketball/soccer games and activites, and of course, food! We encourage you all to join us and invite your friends and family to do the same.

Lastly, it gives me great honor and pleasure to invite the entire community, young and old, to the official launch event of the Mecca MVMT on December 8. The youth of our community deserve to not only be valued and heard, but also to be celebrated for who they are and all they've done. Consider this the youth's grand opening. We truly strive to see this as a groundbreaking and pioneering experience for the entire community and the youth in particular. We are hard at work planning the event, the likes of which the mecca community has never seen and we look forward to having you with us. Please mark your calendar for an event you really dont want to miss. December 8th, 6pm at the Mecca Center.

May Allah bless you and your families with the best of this world and the next. May He swt, The One capable of all things allow us to be injectors of hope and happiness in the lives of all those around us. May we be torch bearers of the prophetic tradition of excellence of character and worship.

Your brother,

Sh. Tariq Musleh
Youth Director
