Construction Begins On Austin Block

Historic Boston Incorporated has begun the restoration of the Austin Block, known to Charlestown natives as The Stone House. The event will be celebrated on June 3, 1982 with a community party from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. outside of the building.

The concept for the project began in 1979 when a feasibility study was commissioned which showed that without some financial assistance and immediate action the building would be lost. The real estate market in Charlestown could not support the cost per square foot for construction necessary to preserve the building. Historic Boston approached the owners of the property The William Ginsburg Trust, and persuaded them to allow Historic Boston and The Boston Landmarks Commission to assemble a restoration and development plan. HBI is investing $135,000 in the restoration of the structure. This money comes from its own funds, a grant from the Charlestown Preservation Society of $5,000, and $50,000 from the Massachusetts Historical Commission. In exchange for this investment Historic Boston holds a mortgage on the building and some adjacent land. Should anyone wish to purchase the property, Historic Boston has a right to match the offer, should Historic Boston not consider the future development plans appropriate for the community.

The expected plan is to adapt the building for commercial and retail space on the first floor and residential on the second and third. Historic Boston expects the Stone House will be the keystone of the development of the entire block opposite The Warren Tavern, bounded by Main Street, Harvard Street and Hurd's Lane.

Built around 1822 of stone from Boston Harbor's Outer Brewster Island, The Austin Block was the home and office of General Nathaniel Austin, a State Senator and Sheriff of Middlesex County. Charlestown's first regular newspaper, The Bunker Hill Aurora, began in an upstairs office in 1827. The storefront originally held a West India Goods store. The Austin Block was constructed with completely open floor space, like an early New England mill building rather than a house. The ground floor facade, originally of matching stone, was replaced around 1900 with larger more up-to-date storefronts. It will be restored to its early 19th century appearance. The Stone House is unique as one of two early stone buildings in a town of wood frame and brick. Ann Beha Associates is the architect in charge. Structural Technology Inc. is providing engineering services and L.V. Mawn is the contractor.

Stars Of The Games

STARS OF THE GAMES: Sean Fitzgerald (left) and Sean Scales (right) were presented hockey cakes by Coach John Dillon. After every hockey game, three stars were picked and shamrocks were put beside their names. At the end of the season the shamrocks were added up. The race ended up in a two way tie between Sean Fitzgerald and Sean Scales. Both boys received hockey cakes for a job well done. (Photo by Dorothy Harris)

Historical Society To Meet

The Charlestown Historical Society will hold a meeting on Tuesday, June 1, 1982, at the Bunker Hill Museum, 43 Monument Square (use the Monument Avenue entrance). Members are urged to attend this meeting and participate in an open discussion and ultimate vote on the future direction of the Society in the operation of the Bunker Hill Museum.

Since its opening in June 1975 during the Bicentennial, the Bunker Hill

Museum has hosted tourists and Townies alike with over 15,000 annually visiting the Historical Society sponsored facility.

This worthwhile project has meant a great deal of hard work on the part of a very few dedicated (continued on page 3)

Annual Memorial Day Mass

The public is invited to join with the members of Bunker Hill Post 26, The American Legion and its auxiliary at its annual Memorial Day Mass honoring their deceased members and the deceased veterans of all wars, which will be held at St. Francis de Sales Church at 5 p.m.,

Sunday, May 30, 1982.

Celebrant will be Post Chaplain and Past Legion State Chaplain Rev. Leonard T. Duffy, O.F.M.

All are invited to enjoy the collation in the Bishop Lawton Hall at the conclusion of the Memorial Day Mass.

Twenty Bands Sign For Parade

The Bunker Hill Day Parade Committee met last Sunday evening to review progress on this year's annual parade which will be held on Sunday, June 13th at 12:30 p.m.

The Committee is pleased with the response from many residents and businessmen in their goal to reach the $15,000 needed to put the parade on the streets. The committee still needs the support of the community in donations and the purchasing of booster stickers and raffle tickets to help put them "over the top."

As of this date, over 20 bands and drum corps have been committed for the parade, and other units will be added as the funds are secured.

Organizations or individuals planning to sponsor a band or drum corp or planning to march in the parade, should contact Parade Chairman Jim Conway at 241-9511 as soon as possible.

organization first formed in the 1960's to preserve The Old Corner Bookstore. Today, it sees its mission as the strengthening of Boston's neighborhoods through use of its preservation revolving fund which invests its money ahead of conventional commercial developers. It expects to take greater risks with its money to ensure the preservation of historic buildings.

Historic Boston Inc. has also purchased and now owns The Hurd House in Charlestown which formerly housed Donovan's and Fallon's Pharmacy. It is currently working on plans to assure its development. The organization is also exploring preservation opportunities in other neighborhoods of Boston.

Stanley Smith, Revolving Fund Manager of Historic Boston said "We have invested in The Austin Block because it is a prominent visual landmark for anyone who lives in or knows Charlestown. The possibility of its demolition is an affront to the long historic traditions of Boston's neighborhoods.

We are working towards its development in order to enable Main Street in Charlestown to resume its place in the economy of the neighborhood and the City."

The event celebrating the restoration will include many organizations and individuals involved in the Charlestown community. The Charlestown Militia will perform, an artifact from the house will be presented to the Bunker Hill Museum, and contributions have been made to the party by, The Boston Filter Company, The Boston Preservation Alliance, The Charlestown Militia, The City of Boston Environment Department, The William Ginsburg Trust, The Ginsburg Family, Landmarks Place Incorporated, Connie McCarthy, Tom Slaman, Ken Stone, Sullivan's Pub, and Thompson Green Associates, James P. Adams, President.

The highlight of the event will be at 5:45 p.m. with the placement of new windows in the building and the removal of the board which have covered the structure for over ten years.

Rev. Sears To Observe 40th Anniversary

Reverend Isaiah Sears of The First Baptist Church will observe the fortieth anniversary of his first sermon in Charlestown as full time resident Pastor on Sunday, June 6th. He invites the people of Charlestown to share Open House with him in the Parish Hall at 5 Monument Square from 1:00 - 4:00 p.m. on that day.

He is especially anxious to greet the Clergy and members of our several churches to thank them for their courtesy and hospitality over the years. If members of the Old Charlestown Schoolboys can stop by, he would like to thank them for the privilege of being an honorary member. Brothers from the Alert Club will be equally welcome as he is deeply grateful for his key to the Club House and the relaxing fellowship to be found there.

Senior Citizens are especially dear to him since he is one of them and he will welcome the chance to express appreciation of them and their many dedicated leaders.

Innumerable other Charlestown organizations and groups have extended to him hospitality and friendship for which he is deeply grateful as well as for the privilege of sharing in the life and activity of the total community.

He will joyfully welcome all who can come by on June 6th. The people of Charlestown are dear to him. He started his ministry here forty years ago and if it is God's will he hopes to end his days here.

Memorial Day Clean-Up

On Saturday, May 29th, the Charlestown Preservation Society will sponsor a clean-up of the Phipps Street Burial ground. Phipps Street is Charlestown's oldest cemetery and contains a collection of early carved gravestones which is famous for both its high quality and diversity.

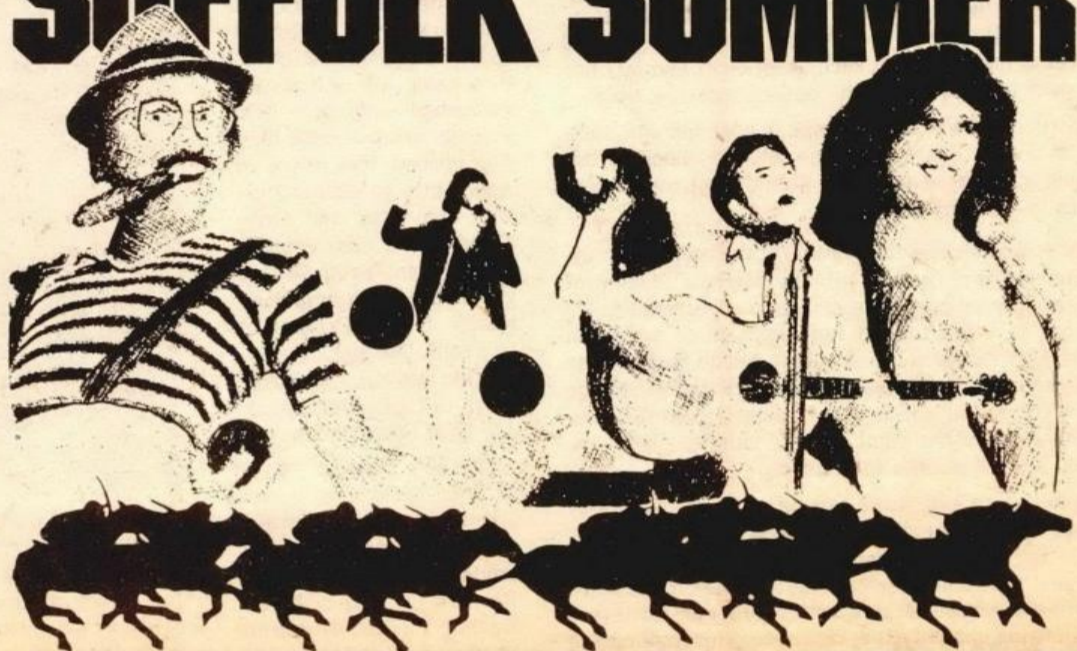

Anyone who would like to help in this clean-up effort is welcome. We will meet at the Phipps Street entrance at 9:00 a.m., Saturday morning.

The Society wishes to thank Rick Anderson from the Boston Convention and Tourist Bureau for coordinating the collection and pick up of the refuse with the D.P.W.

If you have questions or would like more information, please call Jim Bradley at 727-8470 (days) or 242-2039 (evenings). Come help clean-up Phipps Street and learn more about Charlestown's past.

Sweeney Opens Hair Salon

by Maria Girvin

One's first impression of another hair salon in Charlestown is "who needs it?" But Charlene Sweeney, who worked at Blowup before opening her own shop at 310 Main Street is undaunted by such skepticism and lets her ego take over in telling why she opened her own shop.

"Any hairdresser who doesn't hope to open her own shop someday is a fool," says Charlene who has been in the hairdressing trade three and a half years. "But you have to have plenty of confidence."

Charlene considers herself to be one of the better haircutters in Charlestown rivaled only by Michael Maney of Blowup, her former boss. She claims to "personalize" a haircut, that is, when told by her client to do what she thinks best. Charlene will create a hair design that fits her client's personality, enhances her features and is easy to take care of. But Charlene says she is also a good listener. When someone tells her what type of hairstyle they are looking for, she takes care to deliver.

Opening her store with three cutting stations, two shampoo stations and a facial station, Charlene said she has lost between 15 and 20 pounds from nervous energy. Working with one part-time hairdresser, she has been pleasantly surprised by the turnout of new and old clients. However, she is still setting up, and expects to soon offer manicuring and facial services in addition to hairstyling.

In comparing prices to the other seven hair salons in Charlestown, Charlene says her cuts and blow-dries are cheaper than Blowup and Salon 44 and her wash and sets are the lowest in town. She said many of her clients from Ultimate Touch, where she worked prior to Blowup are coming back because of affordable prices and her ability to cut, set and tease hair for many of the hair styles liked by older clients. "Older clients can't handle their hair and they come in once a week for a wash and set. If you do a good job, they don't have to touch their hair all week and they'll keep coming back," said Charlene.

As for plans, Charlene hopes to someday have a chain of salons. "There's no reason why I can't," said the very optimistic hairdresser. "I love everything about this field. Someday I'd even like to teach."

Appointments can be made by calling 242-9187. Walk-ins are also welcomed at Charlene's. Shop hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday with late hours until 9 p.m. on Wednesday and Thursday.

Through the efforts of developer Joe Flaherty and several Charlestown merchants working as a cop, a new store, Constitution Commissary has opened on the ground floor of Building 42 at The Charlestown Navy Yard.

The principals of this business are Joseph T. Flaherty, Bernard Tuttle and Joseph Rosselli.

Constitution Commissary provides a full line of groceries, dairy products and notions along with freshly made sandwiches by The Godfather, a florist service by Kerrigan's Flowers, a liquor service from McCarthy's Liquors and a drop-off cleaning service provided by Tuttle's Cleaners.

The store is managed by Barbara Kennedy of Charlestown and employs Jane Nolan, Kathy Sullivan and Beth Burton. Constitution Commissary is run in conjunction with Robert Rosselli.

Local Charlestown businessmen see this endeavor as the first step in bringing new business into the community as well as employment for Charlestown residents. Building 42 Associates, Mr. Jeff Bullen, Mr. Paul Davis and Arnold Height were instrumental in making this venture possible, along with Mr. Jack Killian from The Codman Company, the rental agent for the building.

Local Club Member Places Second In Air France Contest

In celebration of the March 28, 1982 opening of the Charles de Gaulle Airport Terminal (CDG 2) in Paris, Air France sponsored an International Children's Art Contest with a trip to Paris for the winner and a family adult. James Hendrick, age 11, of Roxbury, was awarded first prize in Boston for his drawing of what he imagined the new Air France terminal to be like. The contest took place in Air France gateway cities, with the Boys and Girls Clubs of the Charlestown, Roxbury and South Boston Clubhouses participating locally. Second Prize went to Frank Doenges, age 10, of Charlestown, and Third Prize to Cindy Varnadore, age 10 of South Boston.

The jury included David R. Ross, Director of the Institute of Contemporary Art in Boston; Robert Taylor, Art Critic for the Boston Globe; Mike Haynes, New England Patriot cornerback and private art collector; Dana Chandler, artist and Creator/Director of the African-American Master Artists-in-Residency Program at Northeastern University; and Donald L. Miller, Air France District Manager for New England.

James Hendrick, the winner from Boston, will go to Paris on Saturday,

BOYS AND GIRLS CLUBS OF BOSTON YOUNG ARTISTS: New England Patriot Cornerback Mike Haynes admires the artistic work of Charlestown's Lesley Borden, 9, and Frank Doenges, 10. Lesley and Frank were finalists in the Air France International Children's Art Contest, held in Boston on May 20. Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston members created drawings based on their perceptions of the new Charles De Gaulle Airport Terminal, which opened in Paris on March 28, 1982. Charlestown's Marla McMaster, 9, was also a finalist.

June 26, and after visiting CDG 2 will create an art work based on his impression of it. He, along with winners from around the world will contribute to a grand wall-size mural for the airport.

The new elliptical-shaped terminal exclusively serving Air France Concorde and subsonic flights throughout the world is designed to handle 10 million passengers annually, doubling the yearly capacity of CDG Airport to 20 million passengers.

The Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston, a non-profit organization, for 89 years has been dedicated to widening the horizons of urban youth. The three Boston-area clubhouses provide some 5,000 children with a home away from home and offer programs on education and the arts, acquiring job skills, participating in athletics and learning about social interaction.

Dr. Beyer To Leave BHHC

Dr. Catherine Beyer will be leaving the MGH and Bunker Hill Health Center on July 1, 1982 to join her husband who has entered a surgical practice in North Carolina.

Dr. Beyer, who is a Board Certified pediatrician, came to Bunker Hill

Health Center in 1976 as staff pediatrician. Her leadership skills were recognized early on and she became Unit Chief of Pediatrics shortly thereafter. During the year 1978 she was appointed Associate Medical Director for Bunker Hill Health Center. In 1980 she was appointed by the General Director of the MGH as Medical Director for Bunker Hill Health Center, a position which she holds to this date.

Dr. Beyer has held numerous civic and community posts, most importantly she has been a committee member of the Boston Task Force For Children and she also has been on the Board of Directors of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston. She is also an active member of the faculty of pediatrics at Harvard Medical School and is staff pediatrician at the MGH.

As Dr. Beyer moves to her new life in North Carolina, she leaves behind a legacy of accomplishment in the fields of pediatrics and medical administration. She will be very much missed by her patients, friends and associates. We all wish her well in her future endeavors.

Mike Dukakis has the Democratic Convention nod and Campaign '82 is on in earnest. Dukakis or Edward J. King, who will win the minds and hearts of the Massachusetts voter?

As a conservative Republican who voted for Ed King back in 1978, I believe the powers-that-be in the liberal wing of the Massachusetts Democratic Party really underestimate the ability of King to attract Republicans and Independents as well as working-class Democrats.

The all-new Dukakis sounds too packaged, too Madison Avenue and reminds me of the New Nixon, people voted for in 1968. You can change the package or wrappings but the contents within remain the same.

This would seem to be the ideal time for Bay State Republicans to strike for the corner office but it appears they will miss the boat again, watching it sail out to sea with a Democrat at the helm. Convention-backed John Lakian, a businessman and political newcomer will have his work cut out for him while John Sears has gone to the political well so often, he's dripping wet. Neither Sears nor Lakian will find the road to victory easy to say the least. Personally Rep. Andrew Card (R-Holbrook) would appear to be the ideal Republican candidate. He's young, experienced, has the qualifications for the office but, apparently, the powers-that-be in the Republican Party are overlooking him this year.

However, regardless of all this, the next governor will probably still be a Democrat and chances are his name will be King. The incumbent isn't all he was cracked up to be but he hasn't been that bad either. Can't believe a majority of voters would return The Duke. He had his day and most Bay Staters were glad to see him ousted. Governor King is making more than his share of mistakes, he's not perfect but he's new at electoral politics. Dukakis is smooth but smoothness can be deceiving and no one has ever run government by smoothness before. King remains in tune with the electorate which is moderately conservative and should be able to go all the way this year.

I would suggest, however, that King put more distance between himself and President Ronald Reagan. The only candidates who have to defend or explain Reaganomics are the Republicans. And I wouldn't want to be in their shoes on this issue.

YEAR OF THE UNBORN CHILD

Referring to the approximately 12 million young victims who have already perished, Congressman Mark Siljander (R-Michigan) labeled the situation "America's silent holocaust," and has introduced a resolution calling for the designation of 1982 as the "Year of the Unborn Child." (HJR 446, March 24th, House Post Office and Civil Services Committee). Fellow House members joining Representative Siljander as co-sponsors include Larry McDonald (D-Georgia), Henry Hyde (R-Illinois), and Albert Lee Smith (R-Alabama).

In introducing this bill, Congressman Siljander stated that by officially designating "a year of reflection, study, and appreciation of developing human life, we will return to a better understanding and respect for all members of our human family - including those most helpless and defenseless - our unborn brothers and sisters." President Reagan is expected to give his full support to this requested designation, as he recently asserted: "We must, with calmness and resolve, help the vast majority of our fellow Americans understand that the more than 1 1/2 million abortions performed in America in 1980 amount to a great moral evil and assault upon the sacredness of human life."

Mrs. Virginia Evers (famed creator of the "Precious Feet" lapel pin) is serving as the National Co-ordinator in this effort.

A recent press release from the foregoing Council pointed out that The Year of the Unborn Child is not an organization; rather, it is a concept whereby it is to be hoped that 1982 will serve as a reminder "that we all have a duty to protect the most helpless and voiceless of all minorities, the unborn child; that there exists a united front to establish for all time the fact that human personhood commences with conception; that the constitutional rights of the unborn shall be restored through the legislative and elective processes."

Complimenting this effort here in Mass., Senator Joseph B. Walsh has introduced a proposal by Agnes J. Smith of Dorchester for a legislative amendment to the Massachusetts Constitution (Senate No. 1711) to establish rights of the unborn. This Bill is cosponsored by Senators Francis D. Doris and Arthur J. Lewis, Jr., and has been introduced in the General Court by Representative Dan Pokaski of Dorchester.

We salute the many involved in these efforts, asking that YOU join us in letting legislators know our feelings in these matters. Someday you'll be glad you did!

READ IT AGAIN, AND AGAIN, AND AGAIN....

Any article on the destructiveness of drugs and alcohol most certainly would list the recent deaths of actor/singer John Belushi, at age 33 from speedballing (mixing cocaine and heroin), and Elvis "The King" Presley, at age 42...an addict to a wide variety of pills and drugs. And it doesn't take much research to come up with the names of some other recent notables in the entertainment world, e.g.: Jimi Hendrix, guitarist/singer (at age 27 after an overdose of sleeping pills); Janis Joplin, singer (at age 27 of heroin overdose); Brian Jones, ROLLING STONES guitarist (drowned at age 26 while under the influence of liquor and drugs); Keith Moon, drummer for THE WHO (at age 32 from an overdose of drugs); Sid Vicious, guitarist for SEX PISTOLS (at age 21 from an overdose of heroin), and it goes on and on and on!

Our point in all this is to bring back to your attention excerpts from a suicide note left recently by Paul Mayotte of Munson, and made available through the kind and generous decision of his mother and two brothers "in hopes their personal tragedy won't be repeated and that Paul's death will be a deterrent to young people starting out on drugs."

Here following then are some of his words:
"It's all over for me 'cause I've been...a fool and a user of people. I can't live with myself anymore...."

I have been warned over and over again to stop fooling around. I didn't listen. I thought I was being right and a real wise guy, that I would never get caught. Well, I'm not feeling too smart right now. I want to die....

I can't believe I did this to myself. I don't honestly know how it happened. My first beer? My first cigarette? ... I don't know.

I was a drunk and still am. Since I smoked my first reefer, I loved it. My first blow of toot. I loved it. My first seper. my first mandrax....

I've always been a pig priding myself on how ... I could drink thousands and thousands of beers and smoke hundreds of thousands of cigarettes, the worst thing ever except for the White Lady of Death (cocaine). I love that more than anything 'cause it makes your problems go away. The more you snort, the wiser you become until finally you lie, cheat, rob...

I don't have anyone to blame but me for this mess I've made of my life. I hope you will let some kids read this letter. Tom.

I was a good kid once upon a time, long, long ago. You got to get them when they are young. My Mom and Dad were so right. One bad habit leads to another. God, I wish I would have listened."

If Paul's words prevent any (even just one!) from using drugs, or are responsible for somebody stopping, his untimely passing will not have been in vain. And we know they will... thank you, Paul.

Babe Ruth League News

In Babe Ruth action last week, the Duffy Club maintained their unbeaten string with a pair of wins. The batting "star of the week" must go to John Settipani of the league who had a 5 for 5 and six RBI's against the Carr Club. Pat Sullivan picked up his third win of the season. Sean Farley, Carl Jaena and Frankie Stillman banged out two hits each in a losing cause against the Duffy's.

Local 25 moved up into second place with wins over Carr and Knights of Columbus, aided by great relief pitching of versatile Kevin McGrath, who aided his own cause in both games with a total of five hits, in addition to some offensive punch from his brother Brian who also got two hits and Ron Vitale who had a 4 for 4 day. The losers threatened in the last inning, but Mike Nelson made a sensational stop of Ted Doherty's smash to halt the rally.

Tony Hollien won his first game of the year for the 520 Club when Bill Connell hit a grand slam in the last inning to break a tie. Russell Fama moved his team out of the cellar, pitching his team to a victory, aided by the second home run of the week by Jim Hingston - also a grand slammer.

Dave LaPointe moved the defending champs, Mechanical Coordinators, over the 500 mark, beating the Eastern Division Champs, Carr Club, with the help of two hits apiece from John Lyons and Kim Karos.

Charlestown Invited To Attend Golf Classic

The Mass Bay Chapter of the March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation invites the public to attend its second annual Miller High Life N.F.L. Players Association Celebrity Golf Classic. The Classic this year will be held on July 19, 1982 at the Wollaston Golf Club in Milton.

New England Patriot Don Hasselbeck will host the event and coordinate this year's participation of the Patriots and other N.F.L. players.

Co-sponsoring the event are the Miller Brewing Company and the Burke Distributing Corporation.

Proceeds from the Golf Classic will fund birth defects research and prevention programs in eastern Massachusetts.

In addition to the New England Patriot celebrity players, former Celtics Jim Loscutoff and Bob Brannum will play along with former Celtics' Coach Tom Heinsohn and Celtics' Assistant Coach, K.C. Jones.

Each person attending will receive a continental breakfast, a N.F.L. Players Association sweater, hat and bag tag, a personal photograph with a celebrity, and more.

Companies wishing to support the March of Dimes are encouraged to purchase tee or green signs, which will be displayed during the Golf Classic.

Persons wishing to receive information about the July 19th Miller High Life N.F.L. Players Association Celebrity Golf Classic should call the March of Dimes at 329-1360 or write the March of Dimes, 865 Providence Hwy., Dedham, MA 02026.

Interested in Playing Camogie?

If you are interested in playing or learning how to play Camogie (Women's Irish Hurling), the Keltic Camogie Club of Boston is seeking new members. Please contact Breda O'Connor 282-3251, Theresa Teahan 328-7156 or Joanne Hill 396-0051 for further information. The objective of the Keltic Camogie Club is to promote and preserve the traditional Irish games and pastimes for women.

PLEASE NOTE: The following explanation was compiled and written by Bill McKeon, Umpire in Chief, after we both had gone over the rules and discussed it with the District Administrator to be sure we were doing the right thing. It is not intended to hurt anybody. It is our sincere hope. God willing, that Charlestown Little League will never, ever again be stuck with a similar situation.

According to the Official Playing Rules of Little League Baseball:

Protest: A protest shall be considered only when based on the violation of a player. The protesting manager shall immediately, and before any succeeding play begins, notify the umpire the game is being played under protest. Any protest for any reason whatsoever must be submitted by the manager on the field of play...

Appeal: If a violation occurs during a play which ends a half-inning, an appeal must be made before the defensive team leaves the field.

Batting Out of Turn: When an improper batter becomes a runner or is put out, and the defensive team appeals to the umpire before the first pitch to the next batter or before any play or attempted play, the umpire shall (1) declare the proper batter out; and (2) nullify any advance or score made because of the improper batter's advance to first base.....

The May 21st game between the Savings Bank and Boys Club was protested by the Boys Club. The claim was that the winning run was scored on a hit by a batter who batted out of turn. The protest was not allowed since it was not made according to the rules. The batter became a legal batter when the defensive team left the field of play without making an appeal and the game became an official game. It was the last of the sixth inning.

SPORTSMANSHIP AWARD

Definitions:
Sportsmanship: Conduct becoming to a sportsman and involving fair honest rivalry, courteous relations and graceful acceptance of results.

Sportsman: One in sports who is fair and generous; a person who is a good loser and a graceful winner.

Last year this award was presented to Steven Roche of the Boys Club and Al Fiore of Jenny's Pizza. Both of these young men exemplified the above definitions throughout the entire season. The award is presented by Bill McKeon who plans to make the third annual presentation at the end of the current season. The recipient is Bill's choice of an individual who best typifies the above definitions. The presentation date will be announced later in this column.

The Mayor Returns

by Charlie McGonagle

Back many years ago, on the grounds where Bunker Hill Community College now stands, the Charlestown State Prison spread its infamous wings. Along Rutherford Avenue, near what once was Chapman Street, a row of single red brick buildings housed the prison employees and their families.

Jack Crowley, the prison officer in charge of the bakery and his wife Gertrude resided in one of these homes. Phil Crowley, a son of Jack and Gertrude, grew up in what was then called the "Prison Block", and even in those early years it was apparent that young Phil would one day leave his mark of this earth.

He attended the Copley Warren Grammar School which was located on the same block where the more modern Warren-Prescott currently exists, and continued his education at the now defunct High School of Commerce. Upon

BNBL Starts June 21

The Boston Parks and Recreation Department has announced that the 15th season of the Boston Neighborhood Basketball League (BNBL), will get underway June 21 and will run through August 20.

BNBL, one of Boston's most popular basketball programs for men and women, has four divisions:

men's 19 and under; men's 15 and under; women's 19 and under and women's 15 and under. The program is free to all Boston residents.

Individual and team registrations are now being accepted. For information contact Diane Kerrissey or Joe Walsh at 725-3290.

graduation he was employed by the United Fruit Company, and the expertise he exhibited in his Spanish classes at Commerce led the management of United Fruit to send him to work in Bristo Bados, South America. One of Phil's first tasks after being assigned to South America was to arrange his vacation schedule around June seventeenth so he could return home each year for the celebration.

As a youngster in the Charlestown neighborhood, Phil's love for the game of baseball brought him to meet many of the members of the Red Sox and old Boston Braves. His association with the Old Chapman A.C., as a highly regarded center fielder, was a memorable one. His fund raising efforts brought sufficient monies together to furnish uniforms for the squad, no great accomplishment by today's standards, but in these depression days, a rare deed. The Chapman A.C. was the only fully uniformed ball club in the area.

In the mid-1930's, Paul married Grace Bowes who also had been brought up in the Charlestown area. That was forty-seven years ago, and the marriage is still going strong.

Although he had clearly passed the draft age when the early days of World War Two burned their way into the pages of History, Phil's sense of patriotism brought him to enlisting in the Armed Forces.

After the war, he and Grace moved to Everett, where he developed a keen interest in local politics. His involvement in this area led to his being elected to the City's Common Council, and soon, as his constituency began to recognize his abilities and contributions, he was elected to Everett's highest political post. Philip Crowley, a product of the Charlestown neighborhood, became Mayor, and not for just a single term, but for sixteen years. His decision to retire after those sixteen years was most certainly a disappointment to the people of Everett.

Many years have marched through the pages of time since Phil Crowley and his classmate Bill "Musty" Brickly would walk to Fenway Park or Braves Field to attend a ball game and wait around to talk with the players afterward. Many years have passed since Phil, "Musty", Spud" Murphy, John Galvin, and a whole host of local young men performed in the Annual Knights of Columbus Minstrel Show at the old Council Hall on High Street.

Some of the folks at the Knights of Columbus thought it would be a nice idea to invite Phil Crowley back to his old neighborhood on the eve of his favorite celebration to enjoy a night with old friends. Phil thought the idea was an excellent one and accepted the invitation without hesitation.

Former "Townie" and ex-Everett Mayor, Philip Crowley, will be a guest and one of the featured speakers at this year's annual Knights of Columbus Night Before Banquet to be held June 12.

Tickets are priced at $25.00 per couple with dinner being served at 7:30 p.m., followed by dancing until?

My special thanks to Jimmy Carr for gathering the information necessary to compile the above biographical sketch on Philip Crowley.

Views On Dental Health

by Jeffrey D. Cohen, D.M.D.

WHY DENTAL INSURANCE?

Consider these statistics: Of children over fifteen, 75% have some form of gum disease and an average of 11 cavities. By middle age, 2 out of 3 people will have serious gum problems and be well on the way to losing all of their teeth.

Why should such a technologically advanced country as ours be in such a poor state of dental health? The answer is: neglect! Few Americans see a dentist as often as they should and many have NEVER seen one. There are many reasons for this and one of them is money. Now something is being done about it.

While most Americans have some kind of medical insurance, dental insurance has lagged far behind, but now dental coverage is growing by leaps and bounds. Today, some 65 million (3 out of every 10 Americans) are covered by some form of dental insurance and estimates are that coverage could increase to 95 million by 1985. Labor unions have been striving for wider dental protection and are responsible for much of this increase. In these times of inflation, the average American can use all the help he can get.

A public service to promote better dental health. From the office of Jeffrey D. Cohen, D.M.D., 338 Main Street, 242-3550.

Warren-Prescott Holds Spring Pageant

by Harold Robinson

The unexpected spring snow of April 7th might have put a damper on things for the scheduled performance of the spring extravaganza for that date, but it could not take away anything when the show was presented the following week. The second grade class of Mrs. Mooney of room 204 plus the third grade classes of Miss Brenner and Mrs. Tibbetts of rooms 201 and 202 respectively, performed admirably on their appointed date, a week later. Their efforts were quite in evidence as they strutted their finery and their theatrical talents. It was a wonderful morning in the Judge John F. Gilmore Auditorium at the Warren-Prescott School.

Principal, Mrs. Kiely, welcomed all in attendance to the presentation and the curtains parted and the entertainment began. Fittingly, the opening poem, which followed the salute to the flag and the singing of "America", was, what else, but "Spring" performed by all. This was followed by the lilting lyrics of "Early One Morning." With spring in the air, despite the snow lying outside, not too deep, but crisp and even, the poems, "The Woodpecker" with Melissa Benson and Mark

Quinn and "The Rooster" with Darlene Fitzgerald and Colleen Boyden, were then recited adding much fun to the enjoyment of the assembly. The song, "Colors" was heard throughout the hall and another poem, "Early April" was presented starring Maryellen Marrs and Sally Quinn.

What would spring be without a bit of some sporting music and sure enough, "Take Me Out to the Ballgame" was sung, complete with many of the children sporting their baseball caps. The program incorporated themes for spring, Easter, Patriot's Day and simply the good times of being freed of a dreary winter.

A cute poem, "You Wouldn't Think A Rabbit" was recited and this was performed by all of the children, who, indeed, had learned their lines beautifully as well as the words and music to their many fine songs.

A touch of the Easter season was brought to mind with the song, "Easter Bonnet" with Laurie Taillon and Kathy Chan, bedecked in their glorious Easter hats. They were a sight to see strolling across the stage. Their "Easter Parade" was something to watch. The poem, "Easter Gift" was then vocalized by Pronissa

Gaines and David Tam and they performed quite well, indeed. To the delight of the younger children, especially those in the kindergarten, the ever familiar song, "Here Comes Peter Cottontail" was rendered with bunnies, Nancy Lee and Terri Lyn O'Brien performing the role of the roguish hares. They made a very cute appearance.

Moving into the historical aspects of the assembly, Linda Hong introduced the poem, "Paul Revere's Ride", the famous bit of poetry heard and learned by so many school children over the years. Linda performed the first stanza of this historical poem. Next came the song, "Paul Revere" which gave good impetus to the holiday of Patriot's Day.

Getting into lighter moments of this enjoyable show, Nancy Roache introduced the operetta "Red Riding Hood" and the narration of same was by Linette Duncan who portrayed Red Riding Hood and did so quite well to the delight of all.

Timmy and congenial Athena Woo led us into the finale of the program and introduced the song, "Magic Penny." It was a catchy melody and was well done.

Finally, the concluding number to bring a most satisfying and rewarding program to a close, everyone joined in the singing of "God Bless America." Hats off to Mrs. Smith, school music specialist who provided the accompaniment on the piano for the beautiful singing of the children.

Mrs. Kiely gave closing comments and complimented the children and teachers on a magnificent program which was quite inclusive covering all aspects of this time of year.

Ushers and usherettes were from Mr. Robinson's fifth grade class and did the usual fine job of greeting parents and other visitors to the school for this program. They included: Victor SooHoo, Christine Ross, Janet Wong, Melanie Gallagher, Barbara Pleas, Indya Porter, Diana Bissett, Thomas Simpson and Eric Foley.

Irish Update

by Marty O'Brien

The Bunker Hill Irish Heritage Society's Parade Committee has decided to cancel their fund-raiser dance tentatively scheduled for June 11, in favor of a Night at the Races on Wednesday, June 9 at the K. of C. Hall.

The BHIHS is looking for the support of its membership, now over 700 strong, in its efforts to defray the cost of sponsoring the New York City Emerald Society Band in this year's Bunker Hill Day Parade. This is a top quality band, and I'm still surprised that John McLaughlin and his committee were able to book them on such short notice. It had to be the Luck o' the Irish.

dent, for the coming year. Also, a tip o' the cap and a special thanks to Arthur Hurley for his efforts in starting this society and getting the ball rolling.

Children's Films

The Spring Films for School-Aged Children Program at the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main Street, will be held on Tuesday, June 1, 1982 at 3:30 p.m.

The featured film will be "It's A Mile From Here To Glory." All are welcome to attend.

Appointed Legal Counsel For Analogic

JULIAN SOSHNICK

Analogic Corporation, a leader in the design and manufacture of advanced analog and digital signal processing equipment, has appointed Julian Soshnick Legal Counsel for the Corporation. The rapid growth of the Wakefield, Massachusetts based Company prompted the creation of this full-time position. Mr. Soshnick's acceptance of the post continues an association with the Company dating back to its founding. In announcing the appointment, Bernard Gordon, Analogic's Chairman of the Board and President, said, "Our rapid growth has necessitated the on-board daily presence of a lawyer. It was only natural that we looked to Mr. Soshnick as our first choice. He has been associated with Analogic since its inception; he knows our personnel, products, and corporate philosophy. He is a natural for the job."

Julian Soshnick received a BA degree from Brandeis University, and a JD degree from Boston University Law School, where he was Senior Editor of the B.U. Law Review. He served four years in the military as a Judge Advocate, then returned to private practice in Boston. From 1962 through 1967 he was an Assistant Attorney General for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, gaining national prominence as a prosecutor at the "Boston Strangler" trial.

Julian Soshnick resides in Charlestown. He and his wife, Martha, (who has an MSW from B.U.), have a daughter, JoAnne, and a son, Jeffrey. Julian's chief avocations are paleontology and sailing.

Central Artery/North Area Project Update

The Charlestown North Area Task Force will be looking for the community's help in the next few days. Petitions will be circulated through many areas and signatures will be collected at Johnnie's Foodmaster. The CNATF will also be distributing postcards ready for your signature only, to be sent to Speaker of the U.S. House Thomas P. O'Neill, Senators Kennedy and Tsongas and to Governor King. This will be your opportunity to demonstrate your concern about the Federal cutback to the Central Artery/North Area Project. This must be a community effort if we are to convince the decision-makers to restore these funds vital to the future of the City Square/Waterfront area.

The CNATF is continuing its own letter writing campaign and has been reaching out to other organizations in town for support. If you are interested in becoming more involved with this problem, the group's next Meeting will be Tuesday, June 1, 1982 at 7:45 p.m. at the Mary Colbert Apartments, 20 Devens Street.

Mahoney Promoted At John Hancock

Patricia A. Mahoney of Charlestown has been promoted to death claim approver in the regional services department of John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Co., it was announced by Sylvia M. Oakes, director.

In her new position, Ms. Mahoney will examine, approve or deny incontestable death claims on policies and handle inquiries and requests from beneficiaries, agencies and attorneys.

Ms. Mahoney joined the company in 1967 as an accounting clerk in policy control services. She was promoted to accounting clerk of mid-Atlantic regional services in 1978 and collection case analyst in that division in 1981.

Receives Past Commander's Jewel

LEGION PAST DEPARTMENT COMMANDER'S JEWEL was presented to Jim Conway at the recent National Commander's Testimonial held at the Radisson-Ferncroft Hotel in Danvers. The presentation was made to Conway by longstanding friend and former Boston Parks Commissioner Frank R. "Butch" Kelley. Shown (l. to r.) are: Nat'l Cmdr. Jack Flynt of Texas, Past Nat'l. Vice Cmdr. Kelley and Past Mass. Dept. Cmdr. Conway.
