

Wind Scripture XI: The W22 Rebellion

W22 was to guard HD1; this galaxy is the closest to the Firmament of the World.

The Nameless One created him with the sole purpose of guarding the Heavens of the Universe from any outside threats. Protectors do not have a gender, but like many spirit creatures, choose whichever fits their liking. He, along with his brother A14, worked together in the first ages of the world from any beings who dare attempt to enter the pure presence of The Nameless One. HD1 is a galaxy billions of light years from Arda. Despite the billions of light years from Arda, using an incredibly powerful telescope, it can be seen directly from Arda.

This is because this galaxy is an incredibly bright galaxy, filled with billions of stars close together, and in the center of HD1 is a supermassive black hole. From a scientific perspective, this is a marvel. Truly, here is why HD1 is so bright.

Long ago, W22 lived there; he was one of the first protectors to be created. Not only that, W22 was one of the strongest. Even Melkor himself feared him, which is why he dared not go close to HD1 or return to the Timeless Halls. Along with W22, one of the brightest stars in the Universe, W22 was charismatic and knew many stars, so the HD1 Galaxy was the resting spot for many protectors, as there was absolute peace.

One day, W22 had an interesting idea. It came to him suddenly, a small thought.

‘If you are this strong, what’s stopping you from rising against The Nameless One?’

W22 remarked to himself ‘You’re right, what is stopping me.’ W22 went to the highest point of HD1 and claimed ‘My friends look at us. We defend these lands from evil but no evil has come! Do we lack purpose?’

One protector, named T74 said to him, ‘Our purpose is to do the will of the Nameless One!’

W22 thought and replied, ‘Well if we are to do the will of The One, then let him will me to not enter his presence and ask him myself!’

W22 exited from HD1, and went to the edge of the Holy Barrier, and he met with his brother.

‘A14, let me entrance to The Throne of The Nameless One,

so I may speak with Him'

A14 stood his ground, 'We are protectors, and we do not disregard the orders of The One. I do not care if you are my brother; my orders are to protect the Heavens, for I am its DEFENDER.' This is how A14 got his name, Varyale the Defender.

'But brother, what does it mean to have a purpose if our purpose is fulfilled?' W22 replied to A14.

A14, perplexed, readies himself to fight, 'W22, I know no evil has arrived for many millennia, but the second we let our guard down all could be lost!'

W22 nodded his head, 'Indeed, but I am strong brother, what's stopping me from bringing the protectors of HD1, and turning them to my side, to rise against The Nameless One?'

A14 grew in fear, 'Do not say such this W22, that evil inclination is what caused this whole mess with Melkor, you have become LOST!' This is how W22 got his name.

Wamwa means lost.

Varyale and Wamwa began to fight. Both were equal in power but planets began to explode as their cosmic power drew from their beings.

The Protectors and visitors to HD1 notice. Wamwa begins to devise a plan. He allows himself to be hurt and injured by Varyale. After becoming wounded, W22 flies down to the protectors.

'Friends, help me! My brother has gone mad! He believes me to rise against The Nameless One! Help me please!'

The protectors of HD1 heal the wounds of W22, and help him fight. The millions of protectors are too much for A14 to handle, before he leaves he says to his brother 'You have betrayed our cause, you have become truly lost.' At that moment, he flees from the scene. W22, now at full strength, calls upon the billions in HD1.

'Look what we did! We caused the strongest protector in the entire universe to flee!

Give joy to yourselves great guardians!'

The Protectors became prideful. This is what W22 wanted them to do.

'With our powers friends, we could enter heaven, past the Firmament; we could become gods of our realities!'

T74, who was skeptical and did not help fight, replied to W22. 'Your brother himself called you Wamwa, why should we become convinced by what you say?' At that moment W22 reached out and destroyed T74, turning him into a Supernova. Wamwa replied, 'Because I am Wamwa, Lord of Supernovas, and we shall enter the lands of the Holy One!'

Varyale, who had fled, entered the most nearby galaxy, GNZ-11. Wounded, Varda tended to his wounds.

Telimektar was confused.

Varda said to him.

"Telimektar, this is A14, the guardian of the heavens, if he is wounded, this could mean evil is penetrating the holy barrier and trying to enter past the Timeless Halls!"

Telimektar, who was born in the Timeless Halls, remarked, "I see the trail that this protector left, he was coming from HD1."

Varda replied, "Yes, HD1, the farthest galaxy in the universe."

A14 awoke, 'Elbereth Githoniel, Lady of the Stars?"

Varda replied, "Yes, it is I"

A14 groaned, "W22, he has become Wamwa, he has begun a rebellion against The One!"

Varda gasped in shock. This shock brought the attention of her servant, Illmare.

"Mistress what is wrong?"

"Illmare, get your husband at once, for we are at serious war!"

"Evil has come?"

"Evil is here."

Illmare at once summoned Fiomwe.

"Illmare has told me all that has happened, is this true Varda?"

“Yes Fiomwe, you must go to HDI.”

Telimektar walked beside Varda.

“I am willing to go as well, for I know W22, his power rivals even yours my lady.”

“Then go at once, we are running out of time.” Varda said as she sent them across space.

When the three arrived in HDI, many protectors became afraid, for though these three were but maiar, these were the strongest maiar. Telimektar, son of Tulkastaz and Lady Meleste. Fiomwe Telkastaz son of Tulkas and Nessa. As well as Lady Illmare, one of the first maiar created before the world began.

Wamwa went unto the three. ‘In my brother’s defeat, the Valar sent me these three delinquents! Soon we will have broken through the Holy Barrier and will have true purpose!’

Telimektar drew his sword,
which is named Elenyor.

“You have gone blind, for do you not know what you do is what Melkor did!”

Wamwa laughed, ‘You are wrong Star-Warrior! Melkor sought to create in his own way, for WE wish to find true purpose, and the only way to find true purpose, is to be the purpose.’

Illmare grew angry, “W22,
The Lost One, you are what A14 claims, we have come to stop you, no matter if our lives are lost.”

Wamwa smiled, “Yes
Illmare, no matter.”

W22 tried to turn Illmare into a supernova, but her will was strong and she resisted it.
She would not explode!

Fiomwe drew his sword but then the billions of protectors came to Wamwa’s aid. The true battle had begun.

Illmare began to grow with tears as she started to slaughter millions and millions of galactic guardians. Wamwa would not die easily unless those who were with him were swayed once again.

Fiomwe began to talk to one who was hiding, and her name was N1.

‘Do not hurt me, I never wished this to occur! My brothers and sisters that I have known for so long, killed ruthlessly by your hands. I have nothing left to lose, kill me if you must Mighty One!’

Fiomwe was taken aback; this protector called him Melkor. He had been compared to the Devil himself.

Fiomwe knew something had to be done. “You are right N1, I am a mighty one, but I have sympathy, bring your brothers and sisters back from the lies of W22, so that they may live. At that moment, N1 blessed Fiomwe, and rose a rebellion against W22.

Telimektar was still fighting Wamwa. Illmare went to Fiomwe, "My love, I am in tears, I hate myself for hurting these poor creatures as if they were ants."

"Then, hurt them no longer, be merciful and show them the goodness that The Nameless

One shows to us daily." He replied softly.

Illmare helped N1 with bringing the protectors away from the side of Wamwa.

Fiomwe went back to Telimektar, and began to help him fight. "Do you not see what you have done? You have killed so many Telkastaz, yet you call me the evil one!"

N1 went to Wamwa, "No W22, you indeed are the evil one, and for your malevolent actions are heresy of the highest holy order!’

Many protectors agreed with Nl. Wamwa sneered, ‘Ea, Nl.’ But before W22 could explode her, Illmare grabbed ahold of him and Illmare was turned into a supernova.

The supernova of Illmare spread across hundreds of thousands of galaxies, and it was clearly seen all across space. Fiomwe cried out in sadness, for his wife was no more. The fighting stopped, and Wamwa went to Telkastaz.

‘Telkastaz, I knew you when you were first born long ago. Your lover is dead, and you have lost your purpose, we are just the same. Now come with me, enter beyond this plane, and let us ask The One himself our true purpose.'

Fiomwe, defeated, drew a single breath and spoke.

"Se la-wamwa"

Flabbergasted, Wamwa replied, 'What do you mean she is not dead! She is all across the cosmos now!'"

Behind W22, Illmare spoke,
"The Will of Illuvitar wills
me to survive."

W22 became fearful, for The Nameless One knew of his betrayal!

'Lord, I meant only to find purpose, I do not mean to usurp you! Have Mercy
LORD!'

The Nameless One drew a hand into HD1 and said, "I give mercy, but I permit them judgement unto you."

With W22 distracted, Telimektar drew Elenyor into

Wamwa's soul, and at that instant, The Lord of Supernovae W22 turned into a supermassive black hole. Protectors fled from the black hole, as to not be sucked into it. The Nameless One sent the three back to safety at GN2-11.

The Nameless One gave each of them a blessing; Telimektar requested that if he wished, he would like to return to the Timeless Halls once again at any moment. Fiomwe requested that he and Illmare find a home distant, so they live in peace for eternity, and Illmare wished to have a son. The Nameless One granted all of these for their valiance and bravery. For Telkastaz and his wife live in Palanindo, which is now the farthest galaxy in the universe.

That is the account of The W22 Rebellion, as recalled by Varda the Lady of Stars,
who saw it all occur.
