INTRODUCTION

The world is changing. Most of the people feel it. A few don't. A small percentage doesn't care about it. After all - the world is always changing. Nothing ever stays the same. But it is different now than it was before.

There was always a prospect of hope it could get better. When our leaders talked to us they knew how to struck the right nerves. They were able to position themselves as confident, intelligent people who seemed to be able to bring on that change for a better future for everybody.

But now? There are no leaders that seem to be able to bring on a positive change. Muppets is all that is put in front of us. The world as we know it crumbles away day after day and nobody seems to be able to stop it. We live in a time where a day where the greatest leader of our world doesn't crap his pants on stage and is able to remember his own name is a good day.

And all this was planned decades ago by the real rulers of this world. Those who live in the shadows. Those who's names nobody speaks because they never appear in the spotlight. These puppet masters who planned the fall of the Old World Order and through their public agents now implement the New World Order.

Oh yes that old conspiracy theory. Those few among us who saw it coming for years and years - who have been ridiculed for these beliefs and our tries to inform the public - we are now tasked to bring on the ultimate sacrifice. It is us who have to fight the last battle against evil or mankind will be enslaved forever.

If you are up to it ... you can find everything you need to know in this book.

FAQ – Questions About The Financial Reset & CSRQ-SM Software

WHAT CSRQ-SM WILL MEAN FOR YOUR LIFE AND THE FUTURE

CSRQ-SM (Social Management) Software is the program that will be used worldwide by select governmental and banking institutions when the financial reset occurs.

Social scores will soon be as common as credit scores

The financial reset will be a complete restructuring of the current system, eliminating all existing fiat currencies overnight. The CSRQ-SM software will intercept all banking transactions, all credit and debit card transactions, and all known financial transactions over a period of 3 to 5 days once the system is activated.

A worldwide monitoring network is being implemented to scan and update end-user accounts based on social behaviour

The currency planned to be used is known as USDR. For those with a Japanese bank account, for example, their Yen will be converted to USDR overnight. Nearly all countries on Earth will use the new system. The software is designed to process all financial transactions centrally, and issue social credit scores for all users.

People will share their social score status online and compare them to each other. This will be encouraged by the media and government

When the conversion takes place, you will see new information when you login to your bank account, including screens indicating your social credit score. The score will operate on a scale of 1 to 1000, with 1000 being the highest score achievable, and 1 being the lowest.

No bank account shall contain more than $1000 in USDR at any time for Class C accounts (which includes 99% of the world). Class C accounts will receive $1000 USDR once at the beginning of each month.

Separate accounts, known as Class S accounts, are reserved for government leaders and the highest echelons of the rich and elites of the world. Class S accounts can contain unlimited USDR funds and have additional privileges.

To gain social score points, people will be encouraged to get vaccinated and engaged in other activities

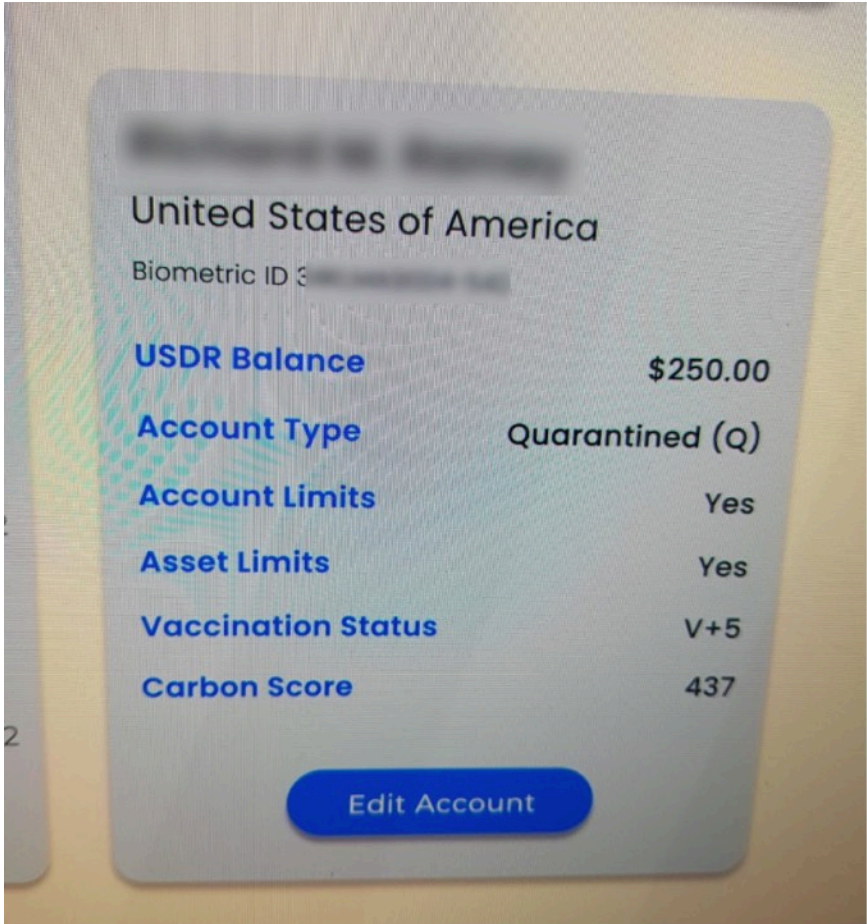

Everyone must immediately comply with the new system. Those who resist, those who protest or complain online, will receive immediate fines and deductions to their score and account.

It is expected in the first month about 20% of the human population will have their accounts reduced to nearly zero due to “bad behaviour”, but that by the second month, this behaviour will be “corrected.”

According to the documentation for the software, once people realize they can't have more than $1000, and can easily lose it with unapproved behaviour, they will change their behaviour and comply.

FACTS ABOUT EACH CSRQ-SM CLASS

Each class within the CSRQ-SM software app has specific parameters. Each class contains dozens of metrics and variables. Listed below are the most basic, which appear on the account profile when the account is queued.

C – COMMON CLASS

Amount of accounts:

7.1 Billion or 95.5% of humans (approximate)

Covid vaccination required:

Yes

Booster shots required:

Yes (2 or more)

Monthly USDR stipend:

$1,000.00

Yes (no greater than $5,000 USDR net worth at any given time)

Account limitations:

Yes (bank account cannot exceed $1,000 USDR)

Carbon score:

Yes (restricts travel and food consumption; 1 is lowest and best, 500 is highest and worst).

S – SOVEREIGN CLASS

Amount of accounts:

7-8 Million or 0.1% of humans (approximate)

No

Account limitations:

No (bank account has no limit)

Carbon score:

No (no score is calculated or enforced)

R – RESTRICTED

$500.00

Yes (no greater than $1,000 net worth at any given time)

Yes (bank account cannot exceed $500 USDR)

Carbon score:

Yes (restricts travel and food consumption; 1 is lowest and best, 500 is highest and worst).

Q – QUARANTINED

Amount of accounts:

75 Million or 1% of humans (approximate)

Covid vaccination required:

Yes

Booster shots required:

Monthly USDR Per Month:

$250.00

Yes (no greater than $500 net worth at any given time)

Account limitations:

Yes (bank account cannot exceed $250 USDR)

Carbon score:

Yes (restricts travel and food consumption; 1 is lowest and best, 500 is highest and worst).

Each class also contains separate screens for fines, demerits, penalties and so on, as well as sections for rewards for good behaviour.

Sovereign accounts do not have these variables, though they appear to contain a separate module for certain benefits, such as vacations, golf club memberships and so on.

SUSPECTED SOVEREIGNS

The following list has not been viewed in the software, partly due to the difficulty in determining the real, legal names of these individuals. This list is based on other, outside metrics. We can reasonably rate the likelihood these individuals are Sovereigns based on their public gate-keeping activities.

Dave of X22Report	Likelihood 99%

Juan O'Savin	Likelihood 95%
Simon Parkes	Likelihood 95%
Charlie Ward	Likelihood 95%
Stew Peters	Likelihood 90%

The above lists are not complete. More details will be added, including information on when certain people became Sovereign. More will be added to the Suspected Sovereigns section. This page will be updated on a daily to weekly basis with additional notes and links.

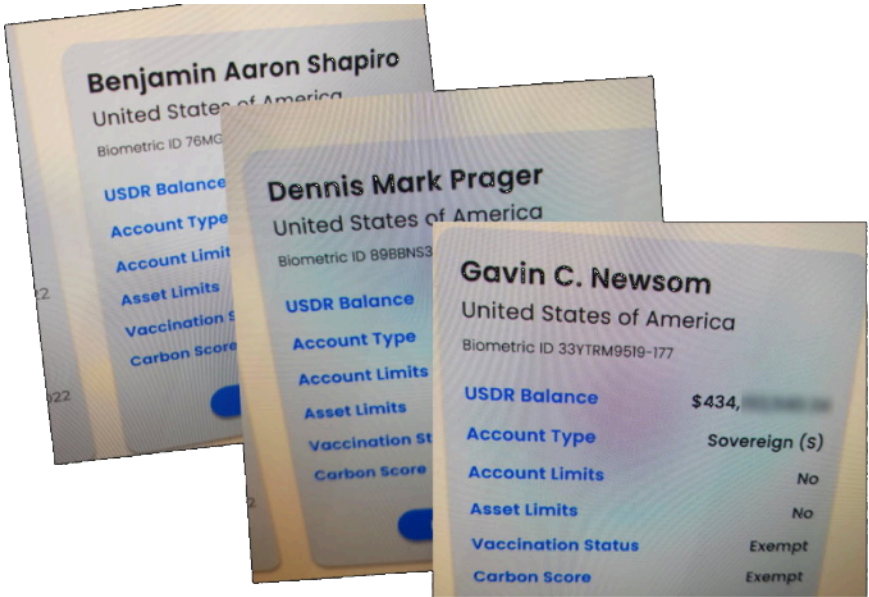

*There are a few things that should be made clear about the above names:

- Jeremy Corbyn's account showed it was changed from Common to Sovereign in April of 2022.
- Jeffrey Epstein's account remains active with in-flows, despite the claim he is dead.

- Riccardo Bosi's account is discussed in Intel Drop #4. He has no in-flows, and we had previously speculated he was not aware he was Sovereign. He also posted our information on his Telegram. At this time, we do not believe he has been approached or accepted his Sovereign account.
- It was previously reported by us that the accounts of Trump, DeSantis and Alex Jones had no in-flows. Each account had previously been viewed at some point during the past eight months (we will not disclose the exact dates they were retrieved). Upon more recent account reviews, the first in-flows have been detected. Trump received $1 million U.S. Dollars from a shell company, DeSantis deposited $100,000 U.S. Dollars from what appears to be a personal bank account, and Jones deposited $50,000 U.S. Dollars in Bitcoin (these amounts are general and not accurate to avoid triangulation of when the account was viewed; this is already obfuscated by the whistle blowers to avoid detection, but all precautions must be made). Each deposit was converted to USDR.
- Almost all politicians, media figures and celebrities of any influence are Sovereigns. All of them are depositing fiat funds and converting them to USDR on a regular basis.
- Our whistle blowers were happy to take our suggestions at first, but became frustrated at the predictable results, which showed almost everyone was Sovereign. They have decided not to look up as many accounts going forward. They will only very selectively look up new accounts in the future, if at all.
- Many lower-level influencers and alternative media personalities have been recently approached and given Sovereign status. They may not have been Sovereign before this year.
- Many personalities are promoted by the cabal. They are not at the "top" because they achieved it organically.
- For example, the Daily Wire, a conservative media outlet that features Ben Shapiro, has poured over $20 million dollars in private funds into advertising their brand. Without advertising, their organic following across all of their outlets would likely be 50-80% smaller than it is.
- Gideon notes, "The job of the gatekeeper is to pull you in, draw you in, to say things that appeal to your sensibilities. They gain your trust. They are likeable. They're not always wrong, in fact, they are right much of the time. The key to their deception, and the utility they offer the cabal, is to subtly omit or leave out truths that would fully empower you while giving you the impression they just gave you the whole story. If they've convinced you they just gave you all the truth, why would you look beyond it?"

THE SOVEREIGN ACCOUNTS OF THE RICH AND POWERFUL EXPOSED

IT programmers (aka white hat hackers) hired to stress-test the Financial Reset CSRQ-SM software have exposed the exclusionary class system being implemented within it. They do not agree with it, and they have blown the whistle.

Over the course of many months, they searched different individuals within the software to learn about their classification and took screenshots of these results.

Below, Bill Sweet and Gideon discuss through Telegram what was discovered (please refer to the class system article and Gideon's Q & A for further context).

*The following exchanges occurred over the past year and have been edited for grammar, brevity and clarity. Funds amounts have been blurred to prevent triangulation of the time when the photos were taken.

*Article updated with more information and edited on July 17, 2022

Bill: What did the whistle blowers notice about the class system when they first started working on the software?

Gideon: "It was obvious right away there was a multi-tiered system. Most of the world would be placed in the Common category, with a small percentage placed in the Restricted or Quarantined categories. These categories greatly restrict freedom and capital, require vaccination, and they're closely tied a social credit score.

The Sovereign category is completely different. There's no vaccination requirement at all, no asset limits, no bank account limits. There's only about 7 to 8 Million of these accounts for the entire human population of the world."

Bill: So your men are able to look up these accounts and see who is who in terms of class?

Gideon: "Yes, it's part of their job. They can pull up any person on Earth and most of the time find them easily. They became distressed when they realized so many politicians, celebrities and media figures were all Sovereign class. In fact, these were virtually the only people who were Sovereign class."

Bill: This is top secret? I mean, no one is supposed to know about the Sovereign class?

Gideon: "That is correct. The other classes will be public information when this goes online, but the sovereign classes will not be disclosed."

Bill: Did your men look up any Congresspeople?

Gideon: "No, they're Europeans, so they looked up some European politicians. Boris Johnson, Emmanuel Macron and Angela Merkel were all class Sovereign."

Bill: I have some names, you let me know if you have their status or any screenshots, will that work?

Gideon: "Sure."

Bill: Ok, let's start with the President, sorry, the United States President, Joe Biden.

Gideon: "We checked, he's Sovereign. There's no screenshot but I can try to get one."

Bill: How about the California governor, Gavin Newsom? I think he wants to be President.

Gideon: "I did have them look him up and we got a screenshot. No surprise on his status."

Bill: That's what I would expect. How about Donald Trump and Ron DeSantis?

Gideon: "We looked them up and both were Sovereign. I didn't get any screenshots but I can ask again if I can get some. What was odd was neither of them had transferred any funds."

Bill: Interesting. Well, I guess I'm disappointed but not shocked they are Sovereigns.

Gideon: "We've gone over so many of these people, we've found one or two exceptions to the rule out of all the politicians and celebrities we've looked up. Almost all are Sovereign."

Bill: They obviously care more about themselves than us, because they aren't telling anyone about this. They know about it, don't they? They would have to.

Gideon: "They do because of the in-flows. We see them putting real funds into these accounts. There's no way it would happen without their knowledge. They know."

Bill: But Trump and DeSantis had no account activity, no in-flows? They weren't putting anything in? Maybe they don't know.

Gideon: "It's hard to say. They are among a few who didn't have any in-flows."

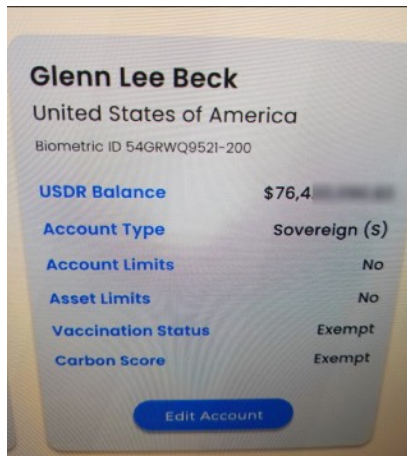

Bill: That's only mildly encouraging. Assuming they don't know, when they find out and they don't tell the world, then we know they're compromised. Right?

Gideon: "I think it's safe to say that. They're going to find out at some point if they don't know, so yes. That's definitely a test of their character, unless they say nothing and try to sabotage the system from within. It's an unknowable at this point."

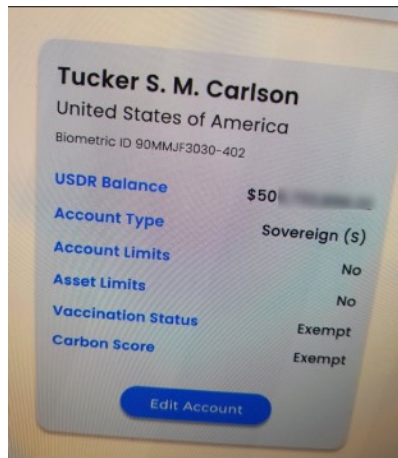

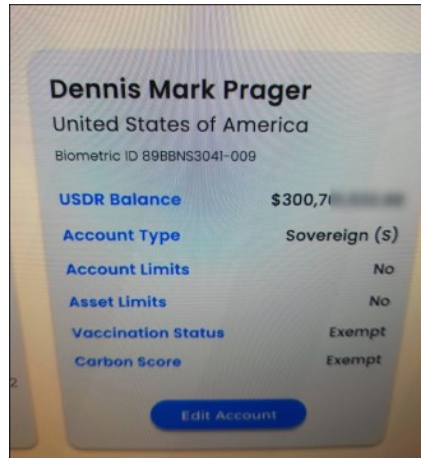

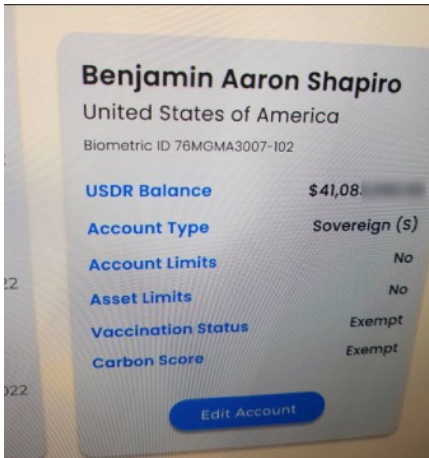

Bill: There's a list here of names I'm going to send you, pick out the ones you've looked up or you can look up.

*Gideon received the list and over the ensuing months, the white hat hackers looked up some of the names and took screenshots.

Gideon : "We'll start with Glenn Beck, you were curious. He's Sovereign. We saw a lot of in-flows into his account."

“We checked on Ben Shapiro, Dennis Prager and Tucker Carlson, by most standards they would be considered mainstream conservatives who shouldn’t be Sovereigns or supportive of this reset. They are all Sovereign, all had in-flows.”

Bill: Wow, I liked them. Not anymore. These are big names. Look at Tucker’s account! $500 Million, am I reading that right?

Gideon: “Yes, but it’s going to be a lot more. They’re going to end up with five times that by the time this is over. They’re moving all the money in pretty slowly. They get this amazing conversation rate for everything they put in. We still don’t know how this is going to work, to me it just looks like they are draining the planet of all its wealth and putting it into USDR.”

Bill: If we put this out to the public, what's our exposure, our legal risk?

Gideon: "There might be some, but the public should know this. They should know the political commentators and journalists they trust are lying about how they are a protected class. Lying, or at least withholding information, about this software, about this financial reset, about what's coming."

Bill: What about the biometric ID, should we cover that up?

Gideon: "I feel like we would be protecting them if we did that, if that makes sense."

Bill: I agree, why protect them? Who cares, let the world see their ID number.

Gideon: "I'm in agreement. It's riskier for us, in terms of them escalating our case, but it's the right thing to do. Let the world see it."

Bill: What's confusing to me is that these conservatives are not going to be in favour of this reset. How could they support this once it happens, after it happens? What are they going to be saying?

Gideon: "My guys have given me a lot of information about documentation they were required to read. This was the sort of introductory stuff you would get if you were first learning how to use, maybe, Windows, or any new major software. They're going to give you a presentation, walk through, 'This is what this does, this is why this does this.' So they learned a lot from these presentations and the required reading that came with it.

Now, it wasn't explicit. It doesn't say, 'We're going to put the Quarantined in camps,' nothing like that. It's the kind of legalese you would expect, carefully worded. Something like, 'The necessary discourse needed for plausible acceptance.' From all that, they concluded guys like Tucker Carlson, conservatives, they are going to speak out against this. They will be against it. They will complain relentlessly about it. But, this is a big but, they will steer the conversation a certain way. They will ignore the plight of the Quarantined. They will lie and say they are Common, when they're really Sovereign. They are essentially disinfo agents. They won't be any kind of galvanizing threat to the system, they'll just whine about it."

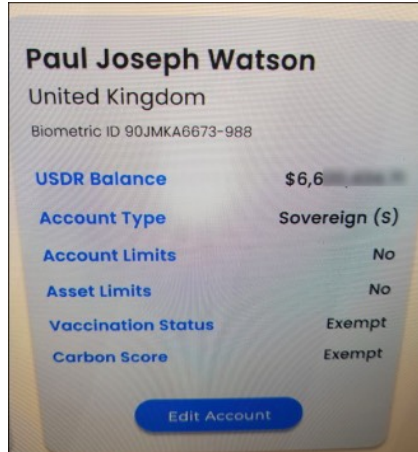

Bill: Right, ok, makes sense. They'll do what they're doing now, then. Complain, but leave out certain things, give you some truth but not all of it. Meanwhile, they're Sovereign class, protected, wealthy beyond belief!

Gideon: "They need to be exposed for what they are. Endlessly talking. Not really calling out the real players behind all this. Not really saving the Republic. Not taking any real risks that could get them hurt or deplatformed or cancelled. If they're on TV and have a huge audience, you can bet they're allowed to be there."

Bill: What about Alex Jones, did you find out?

Gideon: "He's Sovereign, but we didn't see any in-flows. So they must have a need for him, otherwise he would be put in the Q class and his life would be, or will be, over."

Bill: Then he's either compromised now, or he will be later. Did you check Paul Joseph Watson? I'm curious about him, he's really against the New World Order. He's always bashing it.

Bill: Unbelievable. How can he be Sovereign?

Gideon: "He must be leaving out key details. I don't watch him, but he must be doing something they want."

Bill: What about the Q Anon people? I mean the people promoting it? I don't mean the followers. I'm assuming all the Q Anon followers are Restricted or Quarantined.

Gideon: "You're correct on the followers. I haven't checked on the leaders, except for Ron and Jim Watkins. It would be harder to get their names, most of them don't use their full names. Do we know the person behind X22 Report?"

Bill: Well, he goes by Dave, let me see. [Google searches turn up nothing, other than an erroneous link to a David Booth.] The media linked Dave to the wrong Dave, there's nothing on him.

Gideon: "Then we'll have to dig deeper on him. We need a last name and probably more, a birth date."

Bill: I want to know if the Q promoters are Sovereigns. That would tell us a lot. That would lift the lid on everything. If they're not, then we know we can trust them. If they are, then we know they're full of shit.

Gideon: "Agreed."

Bill: So what about Ron and Jim Watkins?

Gideon: "Both are Common Class."

Bill: Ok, that's weird. Huge promoters of Q, but Common.

Gideon: "I looked into them a little bit on my own, and they don't have a lot of political backing or money. They're not rich from Q Anon, but we know other people are. We need to look at those other people."

"The fact they're Common means they're not considered a threat at all, but they are not part of this cabal, either. They're very low-level operators that don't have any connections. That's my conclusion."

Bill: Do you think they are Q, or they started it?

Gideon: "I believe they took over an account that started it on the forum they ran, and they posted a lot under it. I don't know if they do now. I think there are tons of agents involved with Q, or piggybacked or co-opted Q, who are running the show now. They're not in charge of the narrative, in my opinion, at least not anymore."

Bill: We have to follow-up on the Q people, check on more, don't let me forget.

Gideon: "I won't. I think it's important, too."

Bill: I asked about Bolsonaro. Did you check him?

Gideon: "Yes. He's one of the rare exceptions. He's listed at Restricted, and they put his vaccination status at plus 5 booster shots instead of the required 3."

Bill: I'm happy to hear it. I really like him. We can trust him. What do you think they'll do to him?

Gideon: "The collapse will happen and they'll get rid of him. I know Brazil is a problem but not a big priority, either. Their number one focus is the United States by far, then Europe, then Canada, making sure they all come to heel and accept this.

The UK, Australia and New Zealand are no issue for them, because in fact they're leading this. China is on board completely. The sub-Asian countries will all fall in line. Most of Africa will comply, but their infrastructure is such a mess it's going to take a few years to get them sorted out. The Middle East is fully on board, Iran, Pakistan, completely on board. Israel will feign a bit a disagreement with it, but in reality, they are more on board than anyone. Eventually, the world government will be moved to Israel.

India was given a lot of promises, now they're on board. They weren't at first. Lots of pieces had to be moved around to get them on board, now they are. For all their nationalism, they didn't care at all about the people, all they cared about was that their particular caste system was going to stay in place and their wealthy citizens were going to be Sovereigns. It turns out a lot were going to get moved to Common and they were furious about it. It was sorted out."

Bill: Ok, we have to check on Putin, did you get him?

Gideon: "No. They've searched, some names come up, they're convinced none of those names are him. So we don't know right now. It could be he's cloaked, hidden, or just under a completely different name or false name, or maybe his real name? I think Putin just isn't his real name, or the one connected to his biometric ID."

Bill: I bet it's not his real name! The one we know him by.

Gideon: "That's my guess. Because so far, they never had an issue accessing anyone. So the name just being wrong would make sense. We just don't know his real name."

Bill: Do your guys run into issues with names?

Gideon: "Well, the software is very deep. So you search a name, find the best match, line up the basics, like a birth date and go from there. If it's not clear, they have sub systems and categories you can delve into and eventually you can pinpoint the right person. Very common names do present a bit of a challenge, so if Dave of X22Report is 'Dave Smith' it will take some work, but it should show who is posting under his social accounts if you look for those."

Bill: What about Elon Musk?

Gideon: No screenshot, but he's Sovereign.

Bill: Once again, not a surprise! They're all Sovereign, aren't they?

Gideon: "Almost all of them."

Bill: They have this locked in, don't they?

Gideon: "They do. It's decades of planning."

Bill: Can we stop it? Can prevent it now?

Gideon: "Not unless, I think, what we're going to expose went extremely viral to the point we're talking about 50 million views. It would have to be on all the social media, people seeing this software, seeing that it's real. They have to see it's real, Bill. It can't be some article, some opinion, do you understand?"

Bill: Of course. The public is totally brain-dead. It has to be real for them to even penetrate the brain damage. My opinion, your opinion, videos of Klaus Schwab admitting this, it doesn't move the needle! They don't care, they don't get it. But seeing a class system, in real life, in front of them, that could get them to wake up.

Gideon: "Yes it could. But then, the brainwashing is so deep, some will say, 'Oh, free money, a fair system.' They will like it, Bill. A lot will agree with this, even if we expose it."

What destroys it all, Bill, is the Sovereign status. That alone destroys it for them, the liberals will hate that, too, and that's why it's a very closely guarded secret and will remain one. That's why what we are doing is so dangerous."

Bill: I know. I very much know. We expose this Sovereign thing, that is what really gets us killed. The other classes, some people won't like it, but if they're all on the same playing field, they can wrap their heads around it. They can't accept some special class, that's lying to them, pretending to be something else.

Gideon: "That's the only way I see we win. Otherwise, it's plan B, it's looking at how we can do something by changing ourselves to Sovereigns and on the other side of this, sabotaging the whole thing. Bill, if we're not Sovereign, you realize it's slavery?"

Bill: Yes. I'm scared to death for people. We already have not much power, this means we have zero power. Zero. No free speech, no money, nothing. Nothing.

Gideon: "If people knew how bad this is going to get, they would riot right now. They don't know. Ten people know right now."

Bill: I've asked you this so much you're going to get annoyed with me, but we can't switch all the Trump voters to Sovereign in one fell swoop can we? We can't do maybe one thousand?

Gideon: "It's by hand. It's one edit, at a time. There is an option to select multiple accounts, up to 500,000 at a time, something like that, and perform a mass edit, but they refuse to risk that. It would be a red flag. It would trigger something. 'Why was this huge edit made by this employee on this day at this time?' sort of thing."

"So they can't do that. But they can make edits, one by one, over a few days. They've done it probably thirty times now with no problem. They go in, delete all the social data and voting data, then copy data from a random Democrat, then spoof some of it, make a few changes, then switch the class to Sovereign. Now it's set."

Bill: Can they add USDR?

Gideon: "Yes, they can move it."

Bill: No, I mean can they change that? Just create it?

Gideon: "There's no function for that, to create it out of thin air. It seems there's a reason they want to move capital, existing capital, and turn it into USDR. We think it plays into how they are collapsing the wealth of the world, like siphoning it away so the collapse actually happens. We also think it may have to do with some kind of need for accounting."

For example, let's say some low-level media person at the New York Times is a Sovereign. Maybe they have a net worth, or liquid capital, of $50,000 USD. Now they move it into USDR. They get the nice conversion, but they're not going to be at the level of a Billionaire. It seems like this is how they want this all done, so the Sovereigns are graded based on their existing wealth under the current system."

They're not just assigning people wealth. They're not saying, 'Oh, ok, Ron DeSantis, here's $1 Billion in USDR.' No, Ron will have to slowly and carefully move his money into the account. He hasn't yet. Maybe he will tomorrow. We don't know. If he doesn't, we don't know the result of that. He will have privileges, but nothing in his account."

So I'm curious how that will play out. It could be a bargaining chip, 'Ok, Ron, we did this reset, here's your Sovereign account, but nothing is in it, you have zero USDR, so you need to play ball with the program, then we'll get you shored up.' If he says 'No', ok, he either has no money, or he's going to get downgraded to Common or worse."

Bill: It makes perfect sense to me. They have this game-planned for maximum control. They used AI, didn't they? They're using AI for our writing patterns, they're doing it for everything.

[Part 2 of Bill's Q & A article will discuss how advanced AI is already linking anonymous accounts to existing, real-world data and exposing the identity of those who are not Sovereign and have not had their data deleted.]

Gideon: "They are doing it with everything, Bill. It makes it really hard for us to stop them. It means they know every outcome. They know our behavioural tendencies. I'm not saying they can look past free will, but they can make really good guesses."

I'm really worried about the writing AI, too. Right now it's not very good. In a year, maybe two years, now it's so good just about everything you write they can link it to your data. If you don't get changed to Sovereign, after this reset, you won't be able to write anonymously at all. If you don't even know about this, you'll get found out easily. This is where the extreme restriction to free speech comes in and renders the Internet useless for people trying to resist this."

"They'll know its you, with any bulk of a writing sample. The voice AI is also pretty good, too."

Bill: The lower classes won't even know this if we don't inform them. They'll think they can still be anonymous after this reset, they won't be.

Gideon: "They will falsely think they can do anonymous communications. They won't even think that their writing style or voice will expose them. They won't make the adjustments to fool the AI, which don't always work, either."

Bill: That's why getting your data deleted is so important.

Gideon: "Yes, it un-links you from your old data, because your old data is now gone. You can write and speak and be yourself without any worry."

Bill: Being Sovereign brings with it all of this freedom, but we still have to be smart about it. What's the risk we get found out after the reset?

Gideon: "I give it about 5% or less. It will be very hard for them to figure out that you're not supposed to be Sovereign. Your old data is gone. Your writing data is gone. Your social data is gone, or spoofed with that of a Democrat. Your voting data is gone, or spoofed with that of a Democrat.”

“My guys just copy the data of some liberal or Democrat, and make a few changes so it looks more unique, and poof, now the system likes you. They have a randomizer they use to change online handles and spin some of the writing samples, it looks unique to the software. It takes a few hours to complete all the changes. You now have a history of posting on Reddit, supporting Bernie, the system loves you. The system thinks you’re the best thing since sliced bread and has no reason to question your status.

So, there’s almost no way for them to know. The only way is if you, as a Sovereign, start behaving in a way that gives off red flags after the reset. So we’ll have to be careful. The sabotage will have to be carried out in a discreet way.”

Bill: Right, right. The deleting of the data is the game-changer. I feel a lot safer and freer because of it. On the other side of this, we won’t be sitting on our hands. As Sovereigns, we can just wreck this whole thing.

Gideon: “We can if we’re careful and plan. Being Sovereign gives us a huge edge. They won’t know who we are. They won’t suspect anything. They’ll think we’re one of them. It’s very powerful what we will be able to do.

Based on what my guys can do, we can even place ourselves in better positions. There’s internal data they can change. So we can put ourselves right in the mix, politically. We can’t make ourselves heads of state, of course, but we can move up the ladder, by changing the data.

They don’t have redundancies for this, because my guys are vetted at the top level. Top clearances. They are not expecting sabotage from them, specifically. My guys know the system better than their supervisors, too, another wrinkle in all this. The supervisors do some basic monitoring but can’t see or have any clue about these changes being made.

“It puts my guys in a key position to literally save the human race. That’s not an overstatement. That’s the reality of this and how important this is.”

THE CSRQ ACCOUNTS OF PHIL GODLEWSKI, JORDAN PETERSON, JAMES O'KEEFE & DAVID WILCOCK

More accounts within the CSRQ-SM software have been accessed by our whistle blowers. They were able to view the accounts of Philip Godlewski, child molester, scammer and Q-Anon leader, psychologist Jordan Peterson, investigative reporter James O'Keefe and spiritualist and author David Wilcock.

*Please note, for obfuscation reasons, we are not disclosing exactly when these accounts were checked, with the exception of David Wilcock (see below). Each of them was queued at some point in the past eight months.

Bill Sweet and Gideon discuss the results below.

Bill: Was this easy for your guys? We talked before about how we don't want to waste resources or put them at risk over looking up accounts.

Gideon: "It wasn't a problem. I told them not to do anything they don't feel comfortable doing. In these instances, they pull their phones out and take a quick snap shot after doing the search."

Bill: You mentioned there's no cameras in their cubicle space, but that there are searches when they leave the building?

Gideon: "Yes, removing the photo data itself is not a simple process, but I'm not going to describe it because that could put my guys at risk."

Bill: Ok, let's get to the results. This Philip Godlewski is a total scumbag, but he now seems to be one of the leaders of the Q-Anons. Go figure.

Gideon: "He must be doing something the cabal likes, because he's a Sovereign."

Bill: That really says a lot. If he's such a threat to the system, how can he be a Sovereign?

Gideon: "He's not a threat at all. He's an asset for them."

Bill: Let's move on. You told me there was something interesting about Jordan Peterson's account, what was it?

Gideon: "We can see Peterson was listed as Restricted into late last year, then upgraded to Sovereign in November of 2021."

Bill: That's incredible. That's a big time upgrade. $34 Million USDR in there, too. Are upgrades like this something you see often?

Gideon: "My guys said it's relatively rare, but they do see it happen. What's really rare is if someone is downgraded from Sovereign to a lower status."

Bill: Do we know the reason?

Gideon: "We think upgrades happen when a public figure is approached and makes a deal, or is offered the Sovereign status in exchange for something."

Bill: So we could safely presume Peterson has changed his approach on things to appease this cabal? Would it be obvious or subtle?

Gideon: "It won't be very obvious. He's probably slowly shifted away from certain topics or approaches, and maybe embraced others. Or it may be as simple as they want him to avoid talking about something."

Bill: The next person we wanted to look at is James O'Keefe of Project Veritas. I'm not that surprised by this result.

Gideon: "They're not fans of Mr. O'Keefe. He is doing something they don't like. Usually someone like him would be approached by now. He could have turned down an offer to become Sovereign, but I'm just speculating."

Bill: Before we get to Wilcock, you said they had trouble with Stew Peters?

Gideon: "They didn't feel confident they had found him, and they didn't want to spend more time searching."

Bill: Fair enough. Now with Wilcock, I was a little surprised by this result.

Gideon: "Mr. Wilcock is Quarantined. They don't like him or what he's doing at all."

Bill: I have to admit I'm not that familiar with him, but when I've heard him speak I'm often impressed by him. I've seen people make fun of him or act like he's a kook.

Update. It has been confirmed as of July 19th, 2022, by Gideon and his men, that David Wilcock's status was changed to Sovereign. It now appears it was Sovereign previously, changed to Quarantined momentarily and changed back. We can only speculate why this was done at this point, but it indicates to us agents are reporting on who we are looking at.

We had previously announced on Twitter, days in advance, that we were going to look at Wilcock's account and other accounts. It appears Wilcock's was changed on purpose.

Gideon and the white hat hackers do not believe they have been compromised at this point, only that we are being watched and they may change accounts if we announce who we are going to look up within the software. The other accounts were looked up before the announcement. It's possible they were changed, too, but we do not know, because Wilcock was the only one checked after the announcement. We believe the other accounts are accurate.

*Gideon told me it's a very strong confirmation of how closely we are being watched, and that they do not want the Sovereign accounts exposed.

Gideon: "He must be doing or saying something they really don't like. If he was approached, he obviously must have also dismissed any offer to become Sovereign. Usually guys in his field who have a high profile are Sovereigns. They push a lot of truths blended with lies, or omissions."

Bill: Ah, omissions. You were talking about that the other day.

Gideon: "Yes, omissions are a very big part of what they want these people doing. It's not like they want them to always spew a bunch of lies, Bill. They just want to get these guys not to talk about certain things or certain groups."

Bill: This is why we think Alex Jones is Sovereign, he must be avoiding a topic.

Gideon: "He's avoiding or misdirecting in some way."

Bill: We have a huge list of names people have given us, they want to know about a ton of other people. Can we do this again?

Gideon: "You can send me anything you have, but I can't make promises. My feeling is this might be the last time they do this. We think it's pretty safe for them to do it, but any time they search for someone, it leaves a record behind. What's good is they are searching accounts all day. It's part of their job. It's just that a pattern might show up if they are searching public figures all the time."

Bill: It makes sense. So they want to spread these searches out?

Gideon: "Yes. Let's say in a given month one of them pulls up a few thousand accounts. If within that sample there are some public figures, this isn't going to be a problem or flag anything in the system. Now if they do twenty in the span of a few days, that could look strange. We're not even sure on this, but why risk it?"

Bill: You know, I've had all these people whining and complaining they aren't getting more evidence. Don't they realize these men are still working in this job and could be arrested or killed?

Gideon: "They wouldn't be arrested, Bill. They would be taken to a black site. None of us would hear from them again. That's why I never push them. I never make any demands. I ask, and I let them decide. It's all up to them. And my number one priority is protecting them. Not trying to placate people on the Internet."

Bill: If they had already walked away from this job and were in a better position, I'm sure they would release more.

Gideon: "I'm sure, too. They can't just quit, either. Imagine if they quit, release information. Then it would be easy to find out who they are. You have, say, three hundred people working on this software with their clearance level, so if they just quit, then, well, it's obvious who the leakers are. They need to just keep working and keep a low profile and blend in, that's what they're doing."

Bill: Good. Having them working and in this position is a lot more valuable than them not being there. It's a gold mine of information and opportunity.

Gideon: "Exactly. I really feel bad for whistle blowers, because I see how bad the public treats them. The public just sees them as a candy drawer, the public wants to reach into the candy drawer, then they complain when there isn't enough candy, or they expected more candy."

Bill: Good analogy, very good analogy. The public is selfish.

Gideon: "They don't appreciate the risk, the gravity of the situation, what these men are putting on the line. They go to work scared for their lives everyday. Even if they hadn't blown the whistle, they would be nervous."

Bill: Have you felt there's a point your guys might go dark and stop communicating with you or us?

Gideon: "Yes. It could happen. I've told them to put their lives first. We know a data dump will just get escalated to Level 5 and erased. They can't use Wikileaks because they're compromised. It's not worth it for them to ruin their lives, probably end up killed, only to have their information blacked-holed and memory-holed."

Bill: So the public maybe needs to chill out if they want to keep getting information.

Gideon: "It's not so much the public, it's the agents. There's a lot of agents. They act like the public. They blend in. They pretend. Everyone looks at them complaining and says, 'Oh, he's complaining, I guess I'll complain, too.' Monkey see, monkey do, Bill."

Bill: I knew this Filipino lady who would say that all the time, all the time. Monkey see, monkey do. Smart lady.

Gideon: "People mimic what they see the crowd or group saying online. It's why agents sometimes have an easy job. Three or four agents can destroy a group or a movement with toxicity."

Bill: We're going to beat these scumbags.

Gideon: "I hope, but if people like Phil Godlewski have that many people following them and worshipping them, that's really disheartening. I really don't know what chance we have. This is an uphill battle."

BILL'S EXPERIENCE IN BECOMING SOVEREIGN

“Being Sovereign makes me feel like that’s who I really am. I was born Sovereign. I deserve to be Sovereign. We all do.”

– William “Bill” Sweet, Founder, Oculum Labs

I’ve already written quite a bit about this, but I figured you might want to hear from me directly in my own words how this process worked.

It’s pretty straightforward and not as complicated as it might seem.

The first thing I did was work through Gideon to help the whistle blowers find my account in CSRQ-SM. I was Restricted class.

The whistle blowers then sent a screen shot showing my status, and confirmed they had found my real account. They just needed my full name, birth date and a few other things to make sure they found the right account.

Once we did that, they began the data erasure. This doesn't take them very long, they can do it over a day. All of my personal and social data was erased from the system. They said it was a huge file containing thousands of records.

From this point, now they needed to "spoof" my account with the data of another account. They found a random Common class person, someone who would not raise "red flags" in the system at all. They copied that account, they changed a few things, and now I looked like a brand new person to the software.

After that, they changed my status to Sovereign. That is an easy process. Since I had a brand new data file, one that didn't cause any flags, the system effortlessly switched me over to Sovereign.

I was given a "retired" status, which means I will have no official role after the Reset. This is good, because it means the cabal won't be paying much attention to me. There are 600,000 other "retired" Sovereigns, who we think they expect will just spend their time vacationing, relaxing and not doing much of anything.

That's very important, because it will keep me off their radar.

Now I needed to add some funds so I have USDR in my account. If the account does not get any in-flows, it will get flagged and you will be reset to Common. Once a Sovereign is flagged and is reset, there is no way to change it back. The system allows you about one month to make your first in-flow.

We saw there were a few, rare exceptions to this, in terms of in-flows. Donald Trump, Ron DeSantis and Alex Jones didn't have any in-flows at all for many months. But the whistle blowers noticed that a special administrative action had been taken on their accounts, an action above their authorization. For all other Sovereign accounts, they require some kind of in-flow within one month of activation.

Providing the funds for the USDR wasn't hard. I just sent them some Bitcoin I had at first, then I used XRP and some other coins later on. I couldn't use a bank wire or anything like that, because the personal details from my real bank account, with my real name, might not line up just right with the spoofed identity on my account. It's too risky, so crypto is much safer to send.

The conversion rate is very high. It's 1:43. At first I sent $5,000 in Bitcoin (this was not the actual amount, but it was around that amount). I ended up with $215,000 in USDR a day or two later. The whistle blowers sent me a screenshot showing it.

I've since done this about six or seven times, and now my account is over $3 Million USDR (well, somewhere around there, I won't say exactly).

I told Gideon, "If we stop them and prevent the Reset, I'll lose all that money." But he reminded me that won't happen.

If we stop them, the USDR will still exist and probably just be used as a normal cryptocurrency. Or if that does not work, it can be refunded back into the original deposit source.

We can see how they move the funds in, and they don't do anything with the crypto. It just goes to a new address and sits there. That's good, because it means we can recover it if we defeat them.

I see it as a form of insurance. If we can't stop the Reset, and if the collapse happens, then at least I will have a lot of USDR and I will be Sovereign.

If we do stop the Reset, then we will have saved the world! And I'm pretty certain, my USDR will be OK, too, because there will be an investigation and the funds will get returned.

This is why I felt safe with this process, and confident in the outcome. I don't see any risks to doing it, either, and getting my social data erased was a relief, too. Gideon is very helpful and so are the whistle blowers. I'm really thankful I had the opportunity to do this, because I know the risks they have to take.

INTERVIEW WITH GIDEON - PART 1

“WE ARE THE ONLY ONES WHO STAND IN THE WAY OF THIS EVIL.”

- Gideon

Below are questions and responses shared on Telegram between Bill Sweet and Gideon over the past year.

Gideon answers questions about the Financial Reset and the social credit software that will be used known as CSRQ-SM (videos of Gideon have been posted here and more of his story is posted here).

*These questions and answers were compiled and edited from messages sent between January thru June of 2022. The USDR discussed below has nothing to do with any existing USDR tokens; SDR and XDR terms were also seen within documentation by the hackers. Please see this disclaimer we have posted about cryptocurrency.

Bill: Who are you and why do you call yourself ‘Gideon’?

Gideon: “My background is in counter-espionage and logistical operations. There’s no way I would disclose much beyond that. I go by Gideon so you have something to call me, and it’s a name from the Bible that carries with it a special meaning for me.”

Bill: Who are the hackers?

Gideon: “They’re IT professionals hired by European governments to conduct stress- tests of government servers and software. It’s known as white hat hacking. We call them white hat hackers. I call them my guys. They’re good hackers hired to stop bad hackers and make sure software is secure before it’s released.”

Bill: How did you get in contact with them? Or how or why did they contact you?

Gideon: “A friend introduced us. No need for me to say more. Protecting them is my absolute number one priority over everything else.”

Bill: Fair enough. So, right now, do you feel you and your sources are safe? There’s no leaks? They haven’t figured you out yet?”

Gideon: “They haven’t put it together. They probably won’t for now. What they’ll do when all this comes out is ignore it, and if it gets to a certain amount of views or interactions, they’ll escalate it and have their agents attack it. Then if it gets too big, it will reach some higher levels and that’s when they’ll take notice.

Everything else we think is air-tight. Not a single shred of critical communication has ever gone out of our closed, encrypted loop. There’s hundreds of white hat hackers working on this system all around the world. Without any proof, they won’t be able to pinpoint who the leakers are, unless they want to interrogate or fire them all. They don’t have time for that. They’re fast-tracking this.”

Bill: What does the CSRQ software do? Why is it so important?

Gideon: “It’s a software suite that will transition all financial transactions from the current SWIFT banking system into a new blockchain-based system. This is expected to take place over a 3 to 5 day period in the future when it comes online. It will also bring with it a very robust social credit and tracking system.

Bill: I've seen some screenshots you showed me. Is that the real software? Can you explain more about it?

Gideon: "That's the real thing. They call it an app. It runs on mobile and desktop. It's designed as a back-end, web-based user interface that government officials and bankers can use. It's still being developed so we've seen a few different generations so far, one week they add something, the next week they remove it. The colour scheme has changed twice so far, so they are busy refining the user interface. Overall its functionality is straight-forward.

It's very much like a bank app you use when you login to your bank, plus the social credit aspect, except it's a back-end app not for public use. The public will end up with something similar, they're going to release an app for the public, too, and also every bank will update their own apps to reflect all these new changes. The public name won't be CSRQ-SM.

The main interface has all the information and it's accessible from it. We can load up profiles, see people's class status, restrictions, fines, credits, everything."

Bill: Interesting. Are the white hat hackers still accessing the software?

Gideon: "Yes. They are able to log into the software everyday because that's part of their job and contract."

Bill: I've heard people will only get $1,000 per month, is this true?

Gideon: "It will be an amount like that. Your bank account cannot exceed this amount at any time. Wages, generally speaking, will no longer exist, and could not exceed $1,000 per month regardless. There will be no cash, so no underground or under the table economy, no bartering allowed.

Right now, they are doing testing and updates, and tinkering with all of it, so there might be some changes when it finally goes online. But it's clear to all of us, they are going to set it at a low amount most people can barely live on, and take everything else or put a limit or cap on what you can have.

One thing you will also see are high profile people and celebrities start talking about UBI or universal basic income. I've already seen a little chatter about this, expect more as we get closer. These are talking points they were given to normalize this idea. Of course, some cities are openly testing this, like Los Angeles. It's part of a pilot program all related to this."

Bill: So everyone will get free money. Will they still have to work?

Gideon: "People will still be required to work and will be expected to attend to their jobs as normal. New jobs and roles will also be centrally issued by the government. If you're a lawyer, you will work. If you're a housekeeper, you will work.

Failure to work, failure to adhere to new social credit guidelines, and any kind of protest or criticism, will result in immediate demerits, fines or deductions from your account, ranging from $5 to $800, depending on the offence. It's all in this software, we can see it.

There's also a ton of documentation my guys have found. Documentation just going over testing and details of how the system works. Simulations showed in the first month, many people would drain their accounts to nearly zero due to 'bad behaviour' but by the second month, their behaviour radically adjusted to the point they received virtually no demerits or deductions. In other words, people shaped up and got with the program. They will learn quick that compliance means food in your belly.

Non-compliance means pain. No money, no friends, and you end up stuck in a queue of red tape for all of your violations and having to jump through hoops to undo them, or worse, you just end up in one of their special 'camps' for re-educating you. Yes, they really are planning on those."

Bill: Is this amount going to be universal for every country?

Gideon: "We don't know for sure. My guys are working on an app that is being deployed in the U.S., Canada, most of Europe, Australia and New Zealand. Everything is in English. There are other teams that work on separate versions for dozens of other languages, so we have speculated the monthly stipend amounts may be different.

Based on documentation we have recovered, there is a long-term vision to bring the world under one system, one currency, and presumably, one monthly stipend amount, which looks like will be around $1,000, but it might take them a few years to balance everything worldwide. We think it's possible this system will benefit the 3rd world countries to some extent, while causing financial devastation in 1st world countries. In any case, it won't matter where you live, you will be enslaved."

Bill: What are some of the other restrictions for these lower classes? You're telling me if you own property, they will take it?

Gideon: "There's no question they will. It is a massive wealth-redistribution plan, except it doesn't actually take any wealth from the super-rich, it just makes them richer. It's a middle-class destroyer. It's an upper-middle-class destroyer. It will put everyone on a low-level playing field, where you have to behave so you can get a few extra crumbs each month.

None of what I'm telling you is my opinion, Bill. This is directly from the white hat hackers. This is from documentation they've reviewed, that they were required to review. When they started this job, they had to attend in-person and, I guess, you'd call them Skype calls or something, where the whole program and system was given a thorough overview, so they were fully briefed.

They want to adjust people's behavioural patterns, so you're tightly controlled, monitored, and they get to pass out small rewards and freedoms for good behaviour. They also think this is workable since China has proven it can work with 1 Billion people, and since they are reducing the Earth's population drastically with the vaccines, they are looking at a smaller population that they they can manage."

Bill: Are all wealthy people going to be classified under the Sovereign designation?

Gideon: "Based on what we know, most of those with a net worth under $10 Million and income per year under $2.5 Million will have to adhere to the new rules. They will be re-classified under the Class C designation. Their funds and private property will be seized and redistributed.

You have to realize something, there's only about 7 or 8 Million people in the whole world who are Class S or Sovereign. This will include government officials, media figures, the super-rich and celebrities. Spread that out, it's a very small number, and a ton of people most of us would think of as 'rich' will be removed and placed in the Class C category. We think that's because a lot of rich people are just normal, successful people, and not part of this cabal. They will suffer like the rest of us, if they aren't Class S.

We also see evidence of large capital in-flows going into Class S accounts. Almost all of these inflows are in cryptocurrency, but we also see bank wires and other instruments being transferred, too, it was just surprising how much crypto was being used. It seems it's just an efficient method for them or something.

The conversion is offered at an extremely favourable rate of 1:43 at this time, and seems to vary around that number, goes up and down day to day. We speculate this is the method being used by the world's rich and elites to transfer their wealth to USDR, quietly and without detection. There's tons of wealthy people sitting around with stocks, gold, silver, bonds, crypto who have no idea this is going on. They are going to be in for the shock of their lives when it's all seized and erased. If you're not Class S, you're done."

Bill: Is XRP being used by this new system? Won't it be worth a lot more?

Gideon: "Based on what we know, all cryptocurrencies, including XRP, will be worthless after the transition. How can you trade crypto when there is only one tightly controlled currency, the USDR, and trading it isn't allowed? You can't. They're going to just suffocate crypto out of existence, and if that doesn't completely work, they will issue straight up bans, too.

I personally think Tether will be exposed as insolvent, at a planned, certain point in the future, and this will precipitate a major crypto collapse along with everything else.

If you have XRP, you would want to get it into USDR. That's what we are seeing everyday in this software, all these in-flows. But the average person has no clue, they think XRP is an investment for the future. Little do they know! Now that doesn't mean Ripple technology won't be used, it looks to us it will be, but that's separate from the idea of XRP as an investment vehicle. It's not. It's a wealth transfer vehicle for Class S accounts into USDR, that's all it is."

Bill: But you said they are using Bitcoin, too. Will it still exist?

Gideon: "No. No crypto won't exist or be traded once this goes online, unless they create some kind of separate capital market. Which is possible! But unless you are a Class S account, you won't be able to trade it to begin with. It's irrelevant to even speculate about it. If you are not Sovereign class, no trading asset matters, because you won't be able to even touch it.

If you're not Sovereign you literally cannot have more than probably $1,500 in total net worth, which is your bank account and the money they give you and some basic things you own. You cannot own a house, property or a car.

Everything will be lent, rented. There won't be normal financing, but there will be a type of financing connected to your social score and good behaviour. People will accumulate debt this way, and some assets, but it will be limited. From what we can see, you won't be able to acquire much more than a few thousand in assets.

Everything is going to be seized by the state and private companies that are going to be marketed as conservators, trustees and charities of the public fund and trust. This will be complete nonsense, but it will be sold as a wealth-distribution model to make everything more 'fair' for mankind. I expect many people of the centrist and liberal political leaning will fall for this trap and support it, even if some of their own property is taken from them! They will drape all of this in a 'good for the Earth' mantra as well."

Bill: Ok, but I still don't see how will people accept this. Won't there be riots and revolt?

Gideon: "Bill, you have to remember this isn't coming online right now. It's not coming online during relatively good times or even recession times. It's going to come online when they've put the whole world into a collapse, which is what they're doing right now, little by little. All you have to do is open your eyes to see all of the idiotic things they are doing to destroy the economy!

Once the world is in a severe economic depression, the system will be brought online and is expected to be accepted by the majority. It will be seen as a 'relief plan' and widely praised by the media. CEOs and top so-called capitalists, who are all secretly in favour of this communist-style plan, they'll praise it. Just like they praised the vaccine, they'll praise this, and people will say, 'Oh, the TV and government says this is good, so it must be good.'

I've said this over and over, the rich actually get much richer with this plan they have. It's audacious. They'll actually sell it as the opposite, a redistribution of wealth for the 'little guy' when it's not that. A lot of people will buy into that propoganda, though, they'll see it as relief from the economic pain and 'free money' and so on.

They'll also relish seeing their rich friends all on the same level playing field as them! Remember, a ton of rich people will be set at Class C and have all of their wealth seized. It's an incredible slight of hand they're going to pull off, convincing everyone this is a better and more fair system when it's the opposite.

The poor and lower classes, even middle classes, watching the upper middle class and lower level rich people all get reduced to their level is a big selling point, a big part of the propaganda! Don't discount how powerful that will be! The masses will relish watching this unfold, and see it as this new, fair system of wealth redistribution, which it's not at all.

They're also going to have a couple of token super rich people take a bad fall and get re-classed as Class C, or Common. This will be on the news, these guys will be trotted out, some of the men crying, being removed from their mansions. All of them will be White men. While this goes on, the public won't bother to question why it didn't happen to other rich people or celebrities. It doesn't matter! The Covid operation proved the public will believe anything they are presented with, anything.

We also think some celebrities will pretend they are class C or Common, we think they will do TV shows about it. It will be this big thing. But they will just straight up lie, they won't really be Common.

The biggest opposition they expect is from the patriot groups and the upper middle class and higher income groups. They've done psych profiles, A.I. simulations, all that for years and years, they have it all nailed down to a science. They know who will react, how, when, where, and how to respond to it. Their biggest worry are the preppers with guns, of course, but I've seen how they plan to deal with them and those people will pose almost zero threat to this plan going through."

Bill: Let's get back to this change over. How is it even possible to implement this? Logistically, it seems impossible. You're talking about a literal reset of everything we know.

Gideon: "Many things have happened in recent history that would seem fantastical or surreal, if told to someone in the past. This plan seems completely insane, untenable, it is literally a total reset, but you have to remember they've spent decades tinkering and planning this, decades. The extent of time and planning is stunning to me. It's the culmination of something, something that's been in the works for one hundred years.

We are entering a new period of time, where economic freedom will become a rare luxury under the so-called 'Great Reset' being planned. Much of this is based on Marxist, Leninist and Communist policies, which are secretly held by the world's elite. They have all agreed Capitalism 'must go' because it provides the common person with too much freedom, collapse is imminent anyway, and that a new system must be implemented. They intend to accomplish it.”

Bill: What is your goal?

Gideon: “I have multiple goals, Bill. I want to expose what they are doing to the world, for one thing. We don’t have much time to do that. I’m also looking at the feasibility of whether we can delete the data of a lot of good people in there and get them into the Sovereign class. I’m looking at what happens after this change over, which I feel is inevitable, what can we do to break it from the inside once it’s online.”

Bill: Have you been able to use the software to change your own social profile?

Gideon: “Yes. I’m Sovereign now. Before this, I was Common, despite my years of service to the country. That shocked me and pissed me off, by the way, but I’m thankful they were able to change me over.

The profiles can be changed. My guys have a type of administrative power for their jobs where they can completely delete or change a person’s social media data and voting data. That means if the system sees you as some kind of threat, a person of ‘interest’ or part of an undesirable political alignment, we can just erase that or change it. We can adjust some parameters, for example, to make it seem like you have a Democrat voting history, not a Republican one. From this point, it’s easy to re-class someone as Sovereign.”

Bill: What else can be changed within the social credit system when you change your class?

Gideon: “A wide variety of conditions can be changed, for those who are ‘exempt’ or Class S. Check boxes and menus seem to include many options, such as free memberships to spas or golf clubs, allotted vacations, expensive cars and vouchers that give one access to high quality food. These privileges are only available for Sovereign accounts.”

Bill: What do they plan to do with the food system?

Gideon: “It will be dramatically changed, and transitioned. Meats from cows and poultry will be banned, except for those who are exempt, those who are Sovereign. New farms are being built for crickets, maggots and other types of bugs that will be harvested for the masses. These protein sources will be reformed into familiar types of foods, but will not look or taste the same.

Oh, by the way, there are huge bug farms being built now, some above-ground, many below-ground. Elon Musk's tunnel boring company is doing some of this. None of that is on the news. It might come out later. They are doing a slow trickle. All this stuff is slowly coming out. Paying attention? I hope so. Some of the articles today would look like satire or science fiction ten years ago. So they are letting people know about the bug factories, but not how many bug factories they've really built and are building.

Those who refuse to eat, who resist or complain about the new types of foods will have their accounts quickly drained due to deductions and demerits.

In the documents my guys saw, it was shown they have plans for a certain percentage of people who will voluntarily starve themselves, and the clean-up operations needed to remove their bodies. The documents stated that around 1-2% of the population may choose starvation over compliance, and this was regarded as a positive outcome. So they think it's a positive thing people will starve themselves. These people are demons in human form."

Bill: Are you going to open this to the public so more people can have their social profiles changed?

Gideon: "It's not up to me. It's up to my guys who have access. I talked to them about it briefly and they seemed open to it, but the changes can't be done on a mass scale. They have to be done individually and carefully. It's risky for them to do it."

Bill: Will there be any other way to change a social credit score, or change an account?

Gideon: "We don't think there is any other way, other than using the back-end CSRQ software. I don't see how you could do it otherwise."

Bill: What if these so-called elites find out about you, will they come after you?

Gideon: "I've been doing this a long time. I know where we're at. We're low-priority right now. For one thing, we have security safeguards in place that make it impossible for them to track our encrypted messages and communications, let alone actually read them. It is literally bulletproof. The NSA could not crack into it.

And my guys have been able to successfully change accounts from Class C to Class S and transfer funds without any issue. The reason for this is because it is part of their job, so when they make these changes, the system does not see it as unusual. But they did tell me, they think an alert would go off if they did some kind of mass edit of thousands or tens of thousands of accounts, so they're not going to attempt that. Doing a few accounts randomly here and there is no problem.

They also told me a lot of changes need to be made to a ton of accounts manually. We're talking Billions of accounts, of course, it's the human population of the planet. The system has errors and people not classified correctly. So when they are doing these changes, it looks 'normal' to the system itself.

We plan to continue to utilize this opportunity, and we will do anything to protect our operations at all costs. That means I'm not going to show my face or say who I am, and I'm going to help you guys be careful and not screw up, either. You're going to get hit with some attacks from their paid agents, so I'll get you ready for that. You might see some accounts get deleted, so we'll need back ups. We'll need other groups to help us. All of that. We can't do it alone, it's not enough firepower.

We need a lot of people all coordinating to get this out there, so they can't instantly nuke it. We also have to put some red herrings out, too. For example, maybe I'll come out and say I think JFK Jr. is alive and going to be president. See what I did there? I said something wild, now everything else I said looks suspect or doubtful. And who knows, maybe he is alive! I hope so!

These are cointelpro techniques. Goes way over the head of the average person. It's necessary sometimes. We'll see how that plays out, if we will need to do that or not. Some of the lower level agents who monitor this stuff are morons, so I can manipulate them, but if it gets escalated to higher departments, then we will have a war on our hands."

Bill: When do you want to go public with this?

Gideon: "Once we get our ducks in order. I'm sending you a list of things you need to do to get ready. There isn't a lot of time. We have maybe this year, maybe six months. You need to follow my instructions perfectly, by the way. No room for error. If I ask you to do something strange, just do it, I will have my reasons."

Bill: It's fine, I want to help however I can. Do your guys think they can damage the system now, since they are working on it? Maybe put in a virus or something?

Gideon: "That's a good question. Yes, we talked about that extensively, and it's not really possible. Well, I shouldn't say that. It is possible, but high risk with a low probability of working."

The system has robust anti-virus and anti-malware redundancies in place. They could infect parts of it, but it would be closed off quickly, somewhat like an airlock on the space station. A fire happens, it closes itself off so the rest of the station is protected. My guys concluded, yes, they could do some damage, but not enough, and very likely get caught.

We concluded it's better they just use what the system is already allowing them to do, and expects them to do, to our advantage."

INTERVIEW WITH GIDEON - PART 2

Below are questions and responses shared on Telegram between Bill Sweet and Gideon over the past year.

Gideon answers questions about the Financial Reset and the social credit software that will be used known as CSRQ-SM

*These questions and answers were compiled and edited from messages sent between January thru July of 2022. USDR discussed below has nothing to do with any existing USDR tokens; SDR and XDR terms were also seen within documentation by the hackers. Please see this disclaimer we have posted about cryptocurrency.

Warning: The following may be distressing to some readers. Please prepare yourself mentally and emotionally for what is to follow.

Bill: Can you describe what's going to happen when this Financial Reset happens?

Gideon: "The transition will happen over a few days during a period of collapse. You login one day to your bank account, you see you have $708 U.S. Dollars. Right? It doesn't buy much, because milk is $50, gas is $40 a gallon and your rent just went up double digits.

Then the next day you login and you have this thing called USDR in your account, a new section for your social score, you say, 'What's that?' and you see you have $1,000. You go outside and down the street, you see gas prices are now set to $1 per gallon. You go in the store and milk is $2. The world has changed.

You go online and you go to your prepper group and you say, 'This is Communism, we have to fight this!' and within seconds, $25 is deducted from your bank account and you receive a notice about your online behaviour, with helpful articles on how to correct it and avoid future fines."

Bill: Ok, but a lot of people will be anonymous, won't they? Prepper groups are pretty smart about that, so how will the bank know you said that?

Gideon: "If you're paying any attention at all, know a lot of VPN companies are merging. They're going to make sure when this happens, only a couple are left and they are all keeping logs. So they will have direct access to your real IP. They're also going to do a lot of things in terms of restructuring the Internet while this collapse happens, so on the other side of it, it's a lot less free.

This also circles back to their AI systems that can link writing styles to personal profiles. Since they have years and years of your real data online, they can see you typing anonymously, too. Virtually no person has used the Internet 100% anonymously in their lifetimes, so there are writing samples always connected to you. The AI can then find you writing somewhere under an anonymous account, based on your unique style, almost like a fingerprint. It can be fooled, but you have be aware this technology exists. Does anyone talk about this? No. They're not aware.

This is why deleting your social and personal data within CSRQ-SM is so important.

Bill, since you and I, and your team are now Sovereigns, we can take a breath and relax a little. What my guys do is replace our old profiles with a ton of writing samples of a random Democrat or liberal, maybe their Reddit comments over the years, and make some random changes. Now that's us. That's our writing sample.

You and I writing or talking now won't be linked to it, because we're not writing anything like that spoofed sample. Now that doesn't mean we shouldn't use precautions, we do, of course. Having Michael edit all this is key, he comes in and cleans it up."

Bill: Ok, ok, stop. Hold on. I know a lot of this, but if we're going to put this in article form at some point, let's slow down. People reading are going to get confused. Let's go step by step on this writing sample stuff.

Gideon: "So, for those reading the article, Bill, and myself, and a few others involved, we have all had our data deleted and we've all been moved into Sovereign status, as of this moment.

The system thinks we're a bunch of Democrats who got vaccinated. That's the data my guys put in and spoofed so the system thinks that's who we are. The system loves us.

If we write freely as ourselves now, bashing the Reset and speaking our minds, it doesn't matter. The AI can't link us to our Sovereign account, yet. It can't link us to our old, real data, because that's deleted.

After the Reset, if we keep talking the same way as we are right now, then it can! It will look back and see our old writings and it will say, 'These Sovereigns over here sound just like these people complaining about the Reset on Oculum Labs.' Then they got us.

We avoid that by adjusting our writing style after the Reset. In this case, we've made changes before the Reset, so that we can go back to our natural writing styles after it. We won't say anything that will flag us after the Reset, of course, but we can at least be ourselves again.

Did I wrap it up better?"

Bill: Yes, thanks. I just felt it's got to be explained because it's a bunch of concepts wrapped together.

Gideon: "Sure, it's a lot."

Bill: For people right now, who are Restricted or Quarantined, you're saying they don't need to do anything now in terms of their writing style?

Gideon: "Well, it won't matter. They're already in a bad class. I guess if you think you're Restricted and don't want to go into Quarantined, you could hold your tongue? It just doesn't matter, though, it doesn't. At the end of the day, you're already in their system and they know your political views."

After the Reset, though, this is where it's different, if you try to go online and be anonymous, this is where you run into problems. It will be much harder to be anonymous, and their AI writing tech will be able to catch you. It will be able to link you to your identity. You can throw out the idea you can coordinate anonymously after the Reset, unless your technical skills are at an NSA-level.

That's why I'm saying, if this Reset goes through, they have all the bases covered, Bill. All these groups will get online after it happens, under fake or anonymous accounts, maybe using VPNs or maybe not, and to their surprise and shock, they will get caught instantaneously."

Bill: You're right, it won't be as easy as it is now.

Gideon: "It's not really easy now, either. They're still tracking people because of their unique writing styles. A lot more people are going online with anonymous accounts now, but it doesn't matter. How you wrote when you weren't anonymous is the same as how you write when you are, and the AI can catch it."

Bill: This is tough to hear but I know you're right. Anyway, continue your thought. You were describing what happens right when the Reset happens.

Gideon: "Yes, anyway. Welcome to your new world. This is life now. You have USDR. Prices are lower. You're broke but you have enough to survive on. You're not happy about it, because you know it's slavery."

What can you do? You can complain, protest, drain your USDR account to zero, and in the process, lose friends and family, who, by their association with you are having their social score impacted, it's going down for them. See how that works, Bill? Think about it."

Bill: It's total control. Families against families. Like vaccinated versus the non-vaccinated but ten times worse.

Gideon: "Yes. This is ultimate control. It will turn your closest friend against you. If your beliefs do not align with the new system and you express them, you not only get fined and lose the little USDR they give you, you are going to impact the social scores of those around you. They will quickly disassociate with you.

Small groups will form, people who are against it. Their algorithms show within one month, most of these people will start complying. The hold-outs will be few and far between. The preppers will realize how difficult it is to completely divest themselves, so some will start complying. But they will all have to get vaccinated!

Others will not comply, they will stubbornly resist and try to survive without USDR. They will get their power turned off, water and sewer by the city, if they aren't completely off-grid, because their social score is now about 0 and they are all now Quarantined class, if they weren't already.

They will get visits from the local police, then it will go up higher, the national guard will pay a visit for a 'check up'. These visits won't typically be hostile, because these are locals, they will be instructed not to be aggressive. There will be a lot of back and forth, 'Please sign this, Mr. Brown, please agree to a search, Mr. Brown.' This goes on, and with no progress, it gets escalated, the same way I use that term for this online stuff, they use the same system for this.

Now with escalation, a military group shows up, or the drones are brought in. There's no mercy. They might issue one warning over loudspeaker, and if there's no quick compliance, there's neutralization.

They will use gas or darts not to kill, but to render you unconscious, then the drone will inject the vaccine.

They'll leave. Now you're vaccinated with the hydra parasite and nano tech. They believe your behaviour will change, then you will begin to comply because of the vaccine within you, but it doesn't in everyone. The ones it doesn't are the ones who finally get marked for either elimination or placement in a camp.

Keep in mind, if a single round from a single firearm is discharged at a police officer, national guard personnel or a drone, the protocol is immediate elimination by all means necessary, whether deadly poison gas, darts, lasers and finally, they will use DEWs, missiles, mortars or high impact munitions to blow an entire house to bits.

If a patriot is planing to use their firearms, they won't get more than a few rounds off."

Bill: When I spend time in my prepper groups, the consensus is that we're going to fight and not back down. Does this cabal realize we will never submit to this?

Gideon: "They have deployed the most advanced computer AI programs to analyze this issue, they have teams of trained analysts, and of course, entire armies of paid agents and disinfo skills working non-stop to infiltrate these groups. So it's an issue they are very focused on, one they believe they have control over.

This is not considering the technology they have which can be deployed. The biggest advancements are in drone and robotics technology, which are not being shown to the public."

Bill: What kind of technology, exactly?

Gideon: "The military has bee-sized drones and they have extremely robust and fast drones that you would say are the size of a raven or bird. These are equipped with a variety of weapons, whether it be sound weapons, gas or chemical, or laser. They also deliver vaccines.

Now, Bill, I want you to take in your mind the idea of one of these and then multiple it by 200 or 500. Now imagine a swarm of these that size descending upon your homestead. A gun will offer zero protection. The drones can perform dynamic maneuvers. They can block off a home, they can drill holes in a home, they can disperse gasses into a home, they can fire lasers or small projectiles. There's no need for a group of military guys with AR-15s and a Humvee to perform these extractions."

Bill: That's frightening as hell. So there is no defense? There has to be something that can stop them.

Gideon: "I don't see what. The technology is too powerful. Maybe you could make a homemade EMP device that might disable the drones. If you do that, they'll just launch some missiles at your house and vaporize an area the size of a city block and the only thing left will be a fifty foot wide crater.

I'm not exaggerating. My guys saw the documents that describe this. It's not explicit. It's in legalese. But it's effectively authorization to eliminate hold-outs by any means necessary."

Bill: Who is going to go along with this? The American military won't do this.

Gideon: "They will. For many reasons. The top leadership of the U.S. military is completely corrupt, I would go so far as to say, mind-controlled and certainly blackmailed. The non-vaccinated service people are being purged and won't be in the military much longer. They are the ones who will not fire on Americans, so they will be removed. They have teams of drone operators who fired on targets and civilians in Afghanistan for years. They are highly skilled, and highly desensitized.

Beyond this, they have AI and computer programs that can operate the drones with high efficiency, but these do require a small team of technicians to oversee them. If they need Chinese military personnel, they will use them."

Bill: Won't patriots be able to coordinate and gather, and form communities, and resist this? I'm still trying to think positively here.

Gideon: "Again, it goes back to what is feasible. We know they have plans for this, we know they are prepared to use drone armies, so that leaves us with few options.

Coordination and gathering together results in exposure. Going underground is difficult, because simply coming up or out of your bunker can be detected by the thousands of satellites above us. There are almost no options, Bill. Even if you're a Flat Earther, you know there's a dome up there and they've got stuff stuck to it watching us!"

Bill: True! Flat Earth or Round Earth, there's no escape. What about in Canada when the truckers did the protest? It didn't seem like they did a lot to knock them down.

Gideon: "No, they're not deploying this now. It will be done after the collapse. Doing it now would make no sense. It would expose the technology, it would be talked about widely. They have no need to do that. They will allow small insurrections.

They know what's coming. The economic collapse renders all of this moot. It means nothing. Every protest, all of the online chatter, all of the people who are waking up, it means nothing, because when you pull the economic rug out from under the 1st World, it's over.

The people in charge of this world aren't the slightest bit worried about people rising up. Incredibly enough, they expect and want to see mass protests. Klaus Schwab has openly talked about the 'anger' that will come.

Then they will offer their 'solution' to fix all of it. They want people to experience some pain, economic pain, so they are ready to accept whatever is offered. Very similar to letting the world be afraid of Covid for six months or a year before a 'vaccine' solution was offered. This economic situation will actually be scarier for people than Covid was, if you believed the Covid narrative at the time."

Bill: Ok, but what if enough people rise up we can burn their institutions to the ground? We can have French-style Revolution.

Gideon: "People will be too weak from economic and food collapse to stage much of a fight. The Americans have almost no fight in them at all, between the vaccines, the poisons in their food, their chronic obesity, stolen elections, pollution from electromagnetic devices and brainwashing from their televisions which they worship, the threat of insurrection is minimal.

America's election was blatantly fraudulent, and their own leader pushed a deadly vaccine on them, and there was hardly a single protest. Americans are completely demoralized, fractured, and hypnotized by online distractions. Even the patriot groups lack robust coordination, most are muddled in political arguments.

The simple fact is that it's too late. America is not America. It is not a Constitutional Republic. Its government does not reside in Washington D.C., and the powers that control it do not acknowledge or adhere to any human laws. I can barely believe I'm saying this, but Canada may show more of a fight."

Bill: People aren't going to like what you just said, and I think Americans will fight like hell. Let's move on to another topic. How does the Metaverse play into this?

Gideon: "It's an extremely important part of their plans. Their long-term vision is that human beings live in large cities, in small apartments or cubicles, consume a bug-based diet, and spend most of their day in a virtual world.

They have complex social data, and they have determined they want the large majority of people with higher intelligence to be addicted to this virtual world. Those of lower intelligence will do the mundane work to keep the planet running, such as manufacturing and infrastructure jobs.

This is partly why the vaccine was not heavily pushed in the 3rd World. They do not want to kill all of these people, they seem to have other plans for them.“

Bill: The more I look at this, the more I see how these class systems will work. If almost everyone is Class Common, but hooked up to this Metaverse, they won't need much, will they?

Gideon: “It goes back to the idea of, ‘You will own nothing and be happy,’ that is their vision. The class system works under this vision.

Right now, people look outside and think, ‘This won't change, people have houses, cars, freedom, they won't accept anything less than this.’ But they will.

When you pull back the veil and veneer of the modern civilized world, you find degenerate behaviour, mental illness, depression, dislocation, the break up of the family, drastically low IQs over the years, incredible problems with substance abuse and addiction to digital devices. To transition this world into their new vision is going to go smoother than you realize.”

Bill: Ok, what do you say to the people who say you're just demoralizing them with this stuff? Because if my prepper groups read this, they're going to say you're just trying to bring us down.

Gideon: “I'm not, but if prepper groups are that fragile, then Bill, you can see we're in a bad position, can't you? They can't even handle reality, or a different perspective.“

Bill: True, a lot of these people seem kind of fragile. Most are Q people, they get defensive if you criticize Trump or suggest we're not going to win this.

Gideon: “Then they aren't mentally ready for anything let alone a life or death situation.

I'm not saying prepping is bad, I'm just communicating the reality of what I know. I'm fully aware most people who fashion themselves as patriots are comfortable with making a proverbial 'last stand' with their guns, and some look forward to that! I'm talking about the reality of what will happen.

The country was lost long ago, and the patriot movement was co-opted long ago, so no progress was really made to take the country back in a meaningful way. And their leaders? Their alternative media and conservative leaders are all corrupt, Bill, almost all are Sovereigns and not disclosing it. We know that, I showed you all their accounts.“

Bill: True, so many are Sovereigns, filling up their accounts with tens of millions in USDR. Mainstream conservatives. But I guess they don't talk about what we talking about do they?

Gideon: “No, they don't. That's why they are there and we're going to get ignored. Did anyone write you back yet?”

Bill: No, nothing, crickets! [This was before Guardians of the Looking Glass were contacted.]

Gideon: “You will have trouble finding anyone who will touch it. Definitely no one with a big following will. Keep it up, don't give up, they aren't all bad, Bill. We just need to find the ones who aren't Sovereign, they are the good ones.”

Bill: I won't give up. So what do you say to those who say the military is in charge behind the scenes?

Gideon: “If the military was really in charge, Bill, all of Congress, the FBI, the IRS, the Fed would all be arrested. Biden would be arrested. The heads of the vaccine companies would be arrested. By the Marines.

The military would flood into D.C. and guard everything after making the arrests. That's a military coup. They aren't always a bad thing, did you know that?”

Bill: I do know that. There have been good military coups in the past. America could use one.

Gideon: “Yes, it could, but that's how you know the military is corrupt or useless. They've had twenty or thirty years to purge the foreign entities, but they did nothing.“

Bill: What about Patel Patriot and Devolution? GESARA? Lots of talk about those two things because they're very hopeful.

Gideon: "They're both complete nonsense. These psy ops are designed to give people some hope that there are good actors behind the scenes, pulling all the strings to bring about some justice. It's not even within the remotest glimpse of actual reality. These psy ops are for people who can't handle reality, so they are very attractive to those people. Their predictions also fail time and time again, people are always waiting a few more weeks for something and nothing happens.

Bill, you can open your eyes right now and see the Great Reset is happening. We all can. We don't need predictions of it. It's happening now. That's what's real. CSRQ-SM is real. Their nonsense is fiction."

Bill: Yes it is, but you're going to upset people with this stuff, you know that? We want people to focus on this software and how bad it is. Do you think your opinions will get in the way of that?

Gideon: "I think we might want to avoid opining too much in the videos we release. I'll avoid that. But in these discussions, I'm going to be frank. It's tough love. People need to hear the hard truth. We're in a very bad position, we're losing, we're behind, we barely stand a chance."

Bill: This goes back to what we discussed about Sovereigns. We really felt like, ok, lets take this and do something with it on the other side. Sabotage.

Gideon: "It's our only chance. Become Sovereign. Fight from within, after this mess passes and they institute their new order. We can't do anything if we are Common, Restricted or Quarantined. We literally have zero power. Every patriot will have zero power to do anything."

Bill: Ok, but some people will think being Sovereign is like accepting the Mark of the Beast. What about that?

Gideon: "For whatever reason, this cabal made the Sovereign status in alignment with libertarian principles. It doesn't even convey anything upon the person, it simply has no restrictions at all. There's no implant you have to take, no vaccines, no oath, no pledge to Satan or Lucifer, none that we can find. There's this biometric ID but nowhere have we seen that a Sovereign is required to submit a blood or DNA sample. We can just spoof the data, and it works.

Why it's done this way, I don't know, but the public is not supposed to ever, ever know about this. Ever. It is beyond top secret. They're giving this to themselves, while they're giving the Mark to the public. Because the other accounts require submission, allegiance, compliance and the vaccines."

Bill: Well, I let you change me to Sovereign because of all that, it made me feel better knowing that. But what if we can stop it before this happens? Couldn't mass awareness stop it?

Gideon: "It could. If 50 Million people see the video we are going to release, it could. It's an uphill battle."

Bill: Before we move on to another topic, can you give me right now the absolute best-case way a person can survive this, the exact steps. What do they do?

Gideon: "You have to be as low-impact as possible. You need to be deep in the woods, near a small water source, with some kind of shelter that is totally obscured and looks like the surroundings. Something in a small cave is ideal, or something buried in the ground and covered with leaves. Absolutely nothing can be colourful or look modern or out of the natural surroundings.

If you can do that and survive, you will last a while. But they do have plans to have drones fly over these areas. They are doing a lot of testing in a lot of places. They did some in Colorado and people saw it, the drones. It's mostly done in Nevada. They have fleets of drones in the size of literally millions of the bird-sized ones, and sixty to eighty million of the bee-sized ones, those are the numbers I know of. It's hundreds of Billions of tax dollars given to DARPA over 40 years, it's the result."

Bill: Yes, the black projects budget is huge. Let's get into the vaccines, since we haven't covered that much. What is your perspective on what they're doing?

Gideon: "None of the vaccines have a single health benefit at all, and they are all harmful except for saline solution and to some degree, the nano-hydra vaccines, which aren't supposed to kill you but they still do.

Some received a low dose, others medium, others a high dose. I would say any dose will reduce life expectancy no matter what, though, so even if someone got a low dose, they lost at least 10 to 20 years of their life expectancy. And others received experimental parasites and nano technology, part living tissue, part machine, that will be important in integrating these people into the future Metaverse."

Bill: How many will die from this, what are the projections? [The U.N. recently announced the Earth's population is nearing 8 Billion. Gideon said this is false, and was released as disinformation, as the population is rapidly falling.]

Gideon: "I don't have any hard numbers. I'm sure we can make a good guess. Billions are going to die between now and 2030. The birth rates will drop. I don't see us getting to 500 Million on the planet, though. By 2030, we might be down to 2.5 Billion on the very low end, and 5 Billion on the high end."

Bill: So the plan is, kill a ton of people, but also inject the nano garbage into a lot, too. Now, for all the Common, Restricted and Quarantined classes, you're saying they want to give them the nano vaccines and not the deadly ones?

Gideon: "Correct. They don't want to kill them, they want put the nano tech into them so they can be hooked up to their Metaverse. This is part of their delusional power-trip, to somehow convert these people who are set against them and turn them into their own puppets or something."

Can it work? Unfortunately, it might. The vaccines with the nano tech seem to change people, but not everyone. If somehow you avoid vaccination, now you're out in the woods running for your life, from drones that can zap you dead from three hundred yards away, and you're being tracked by Elon's thousands of Starlink satellites. They have us dead to rights, Bill, they do."

Bill: Oh, God help us. That is evil, evil.

Gideon: "It is. And it's ten times more evil than you even know. This is just the surface of it. This why we have two chances here, inform people now of this and get it to reach a lot of people. I don't know how we do that, since all of these alternative media people are Sovereigns and won't help us and their followers are totally brainwashed by them and worship them. Or plan B, which is use our Sovereign status to destroy them on the other side of this."

HOW TO SPOT AN AGENT – COMMON TACTICS & STRATEGIES

Agents are disinformation operators who work for the cabal to infiltrate and destroy truth-seeking groups and movements, and to sway public opinion on major issues.

There are usually around 75,000 of them active at any given time on the Internet. They operate in comment sections across thousands of media sites, YouTube channels, news articles and so on, to post misleading narratives or influence public opinion.

Many will pose as Republicans, Democrats, Leftists, conservatives, White nationalists and so on. They take on the role of any given ideology they are trying to infiltrate, or they take on a role to influence or sway public opinion.

They are used by well-funded cabal operators like Q Anon leader and child predator Phil Godlewski. Watch this undercover video as Phil instructs what he calls his “agents” to lie and manipulate people as they deploy their operations.

It is believed one effective agent can influence the opinions of twenty observers.

Our efforts have been hit hard by agent activity. We have had to ban dozens of agents who infiltrated our Telegram groups, and it is an on-going issue for us to deal with. Anyone who has spent sufficient time in our Telegram group would likely agree this activity is present, but do not take our word for it. Simply join our group and ask other members whether they have seen this going on. We suspect many will reply in the affirmative!

Here are some of the common tactics agents use that you can look for:

1) Lower level Agents, usually Level 1, will engage in combative language, argue with other members, derail topics, routinely go off-topic and otherwise bring toxicity and discord to the group. They are easy to spot and usually banned fairly quickly.

2) Higher level operators, between Level 2 and 3, use more sophisticated tactics. They will remain in a group for some time and appear neutral or mildly supportive, then their tone will change to more skeptical questions and criticisms.

This is intended to sway other people who may be “on the fence” about a certain topic. Observers may say, “That guy has been in here a long time and he seemed supportive, but now he isn’t. That must mean something. Maybe I shouldn’t support this, either.” This is the intended effect of this tactic.

3) Agents will engage in manipulative and fallacious argumentative tactics, such as bad faith arguments and straw man arguments. This is discussed more in Intel Drop #4. Here is a detailed list of fallacious arguments, and here is a more basic introduction. The agents are well-trained in the use of these fallacious arguments because they can be incredibly persuasive over the untrained mind.

4) Agents will simply lie about your position, or make up completely false accusations to slander or defame any given group or movement. This is why it is important to verify claims you read on the Internet. Always check your sources to be sure they are legitimate. We have already had to deal with multiple lies, including many agents who falsely claimed we were “selling” or promoting a crypto coin.

5) Agents are known to create fake accounts to mimic the leader of group. Bill Sweet has already exposed one who was trying to contact other people. Another agent created a Twitter claiming to represent us, and even posted very poorly made “screenshots” claiming they came from our whistle blowers. These tactics are designed to muddle, distract and discredit any given movement they are targeting.

It's important to note that not everyone who uses the above tactics is an agent. Agents are simply mimicking behaviours that are disruptive or corrosive. Normal people engage in these behaviours as well, and it is a natural consequence of having large, open public debates or discussions.

The danger the agent poses is their skill level and exaggerated presence in any given group. While one group may have a handful of naturally toxic or disruptive people, a paid agent only enhances that disruption. As such, an agent is not a natural or normal occurrence in public debate; they are an exaggeration of a small, present element in all public debates.

Being aware of agent activity can better help you understand who you are speaking with, and whether or not you are being manipulated.

INTEL DROP #1 – CSRQ TEARS THE WORLD APART

“YOU WILL SEE FAMILIES AND FRIENDS TEAR EACH OTHER APART IN A MATTER OF DAYS OR HOURS BECAUSE OF THE CSRQ SOCIAL CREDIT SYSTEM.”

- Gideon

Saturday – July 16, 2022

Good evening everyone, it's been an intense week. I've felt a sense I need to get more and more information out, because people have a ton of questions. You've seen about 10% of what we have, so it's a lot for me to get it out, we have a long way to go to get it all out.

Anyway. The past few days I've had some up to date conversations with Gideon about what's going on. Here are the exchanges he approved I can share (a big thank you Michael for editing and cleaning this up for me):

Bill: How do you think we're doing? I think we have 25,000 views on Youtube and 2,000 people in the Telegram group in a few days.

Gideon: "My guys can see it and they're glad their information is getting out. We just know that if we plateau, it won't make a dent or a difference. I said we need 50 Million views across all the channels, I mean it, and that's minimum."

Bill: We had low level agents on us at the start. Then there was that break you talked about, they were gone for a day, then returned. What do you think happened there?

Gideon: "That's the escalation. Level 1 to level 2, to put in simple terms. We're still at Level 2."

Bill: What's the difference between Level 1 and 2?

Gideon: "The Level 1 guys come into groups to post nonsense, derail, create drama, try to attack and discredit. Their job is to muddle the group, turn new members off, cause confusion. They're good at it but easy to spot."

"At Level 2, you have a better trained crew come in to develop better relationships, gain trust, drop some seeds of doubt or misdirection, and steer conversations."

Bill: "We're seeing that. We're also seeing a lot of off-topic discussion, this has to be them right?"

Gideon: "Most of the time it is. Not everyone is an agent. Remember, the agent's job is to blend in and not get caught, so they can sometimes appear to be very genuine, too."

Bill: Well, DarkDayz has been a big help because I can't always spot them [DarkDayz used to be a Level 2 agent].

Gideon: "He's done a great job."

Bill: What happens at Level 3 and up?

Gideon: "This is where official shadow banning will be authorized. If you were getting a steady flow of new people into the Telegram, that will stop. Views on videos will stop or slow to nothing."

Bill: How close are we to that?

Gideon: "Very close. Keep pushing grassroots efforts, that's harder for them to stop cold."

Bill: Ok, how about your guys. Can you give me an update? How are they doing? Did anything change upon the release of this, like new security changes?

Gideon: "Yes, they increased security. It was a direct response to this. It's not bad. It just made their lives a little harder."

Bill: How worried are their bosses about this leak?

Gideon: "Worried but they're not going to shut down operations to stop it, yet. They are fast-tracking this. They know the leakers have a high clearance, but there are at least three hundred with those clearances. To stop their work, investigate, it will bring all this to a halt. I think they're choosing to de-prioritize, and just go full steam ahead."

They don't think my guys have the 'goods' in the way they could bring the whole thing down. They think my guys probably have some video and proof, but if it came out they would just nuke all of this. Instead of spending a lot of time trying to find the leakers, they are just going to watch what you are doing and nuke it later on."

Bill: Why don't they just nuke it now?

Gideon: "We're not sure. They could be doing some data mining or analytics. They may think we'll screw up and they can find the leakers through us, so they want to keep us around. They may want to keep the evidence trail in place, they may hope we lead them to the leakers."

Bill: So they just can't find your guys?

Gideon: "They know my guys are very well trained. There will be no evidence. They would have to investigate every person with a high level clearance working on the software, across twenty fusion centres around the world. I'm sure they're doing some kind of investigation right now, but they know and I know, it will move slowly."

Bill: You mentioned data mining. I hope they're not going to target our people in our groups.

Gideon: "It doesn't matter, Bill. Everyone in the groups is either Restricted or Quarantined, they're not even worried about them. They're going to be looking at analytics of Common classes who see this information, and also watch Sovereigns in the alt media. Their focus isn't our people, it's outside of that. I know how they work, Bill, we're in an ok position right now."

Bill: Ok, I'm glad to hear that. I sent you the list of names people want looked up, what happened there?

Gideon: "My guys got it and they thought it was a pretty good list. It's a matter if they find a time they think is safe to look them up."

Bill: We've talked about this, but if I'm putting this in a blog, can we go over that again? I don't think people know how this works, what your guys are actually doing.

Gideon: "You mean in terms of looking accounts up?"

Bill: Yes, that and just the general parameters of their day to day operations. I'm putting that in Part 3, but a lot of that is from months ago. Maybe you can give us a status update on that, I mean what your guys are doing job-wise each day?

Gideon: "Ok, of course. Over the past few months, their tasks and focus has shifted. When they were brought in late last year, they had to go through a lot of briefings and some training. They talked a ton about this reset, this scheme, to push humanity into a corral like a bunch of cattle.

This put my men on high alert from the start, and it gave them a ton of information on the strategy that was ahead. It was a blessing in disguise, all those boring briefings had a ton of little details, which I've since communicated to you."

Bill: Ok, so they started work last year, and before they start they learn all about this new system, then what was their job and how did it evolve?

Gideon: "Stress-testing the software, all of its modules. They go in and act like real hackers, try to break in from the outside. The real eye-openers for them was seeing the class system.

Once they had done extensive stress testing for months, the priority shifted to making sure all the modules can be accessed by low level bankers and government employees when this goes live. The propensity for glitches seems to be a problem, so they are working on that. It's complex because you're dealing with the biggest data set in the world, imagine millions of hard drives stacked on top of each other as high as the Empire State Building and then processing all that data."

Bill: We should give everyone a refresher on this. They can go in and change classes. Of course they were successful months ago, they are still successful?

Gideon: "Yes."

Bill: What and when was the last account they changed?

Gideon: *"It was for  on ** ** ."

Bill: Ah, ok, pretty recent. That's good. We know their contract goes into 2023, do they feel like they will be able to change accounts all the way to the end of their contracts?

Gideon: "Yes, we're not seeing a reason why not. They have the third highest available clearance. There are supervisors above them, and then you get into the area of who is running this entire thing, the head of the snake, so to speak. Their job level requires that kind of clearance because they need to have access to the entire software top to bottom to do their jobs."

Bill: So when they go into do that change to a class, can you describe in simple terms how that happens?

Gideon: "Yes. Ok, let's just use a random example — let's say the person's name is John. They search his name and date of birth. If he's not found right away, they need more information. Once they find him, they see a profile, a life-profile. We see the system is designed to flag anyone with more conspiratorial, anti-government sentiments. So, let's say, he's Class R.

Now they need to first delete his data and replace it. This is really important. Deletion is two steps, first it's deleted and moved to a repository, then from there military-grade erasure takes place and it is not recoverable. Now John has a new, fresh, clean slate. His old past is gone. He can't be linked to it. But now he stands out, because he has no history. So now we need to do something about that, and give him a history.

They can't just copy someone else and leave it at that, they have to copy someone else and use some spoofing methods. The most important part of spoofing is to change online handles, which can be done in the system easily. Then change the wording of certain online posts.

Let's say John's new account is from someone named Gary, who is a Democrat. Gary posted a lot on Facebook years ago in support of Barack Obama. They will go in and use an AI spinner to change the wording of some of Gary's posts. It doesn't need much to be changed at all. This takes a few minutes and it's done.

Now John, using Gary's old data, looks like a new person with a history of being more pro-government, pro-mainstream media. His account looks clean and unique to him. He's now automatically going to be Common or C class. The next step is to change his designation to Sovereign or S.

This is easily done, but we have to pay attention to some things. There are around 8 Million Sovereigns in the system, with openings for about 1 Million to be added or upgraded from Common. This is why my guys aren't running into issues, because there are hundreds of other employees who have the job of arranging, upgrading and changing classes. My men have administrative power. So when they make a change, the system does not see a problem. There are already dozens of lower level employees, who only have authorization to do this, making changes all the time."

Bill: This is really complex, but I'm glad you're explain this so well. So you have all these employees, and their only job is to change account classes?

Gideon: "They work in the same building. A different floor. They are busy with quality control and a ton of other tasks. They are moving people into Class Common, Restricted, Quarantined and Sovereign all the time.

My point is that changing classes isn't unusual, it's normal. Because of this, my men found out changing an account was not difficult.

So my men go in, move John over from Restricted and into Common and then into Sovereign. But it is not done. The Sovereign class has a lot of parameters. It has roles for these special people. Most of them are already assigned to their role in their current job today, they are media personalities, they are government officials.

Now, if they put John into the role of a government official, this isn't really ideal for John, necessarily. The good thing is, they have a huge section for 'retirees' essentially, Sovereigns with no role. It's about 600,000. We think these Sovereigns are older and have already 'served' their time, but there are younger ones in there, too. So our guys will just place John in the retiree role. It's not called that but what's what it effectively is. Just like we did for you and everyone else."

Bill: This is incredibly complex. So — well, I know this, but others reading this don't — you can't just have a Sovereign account without in-flows?

Gideon: "Not unless it has been given an 'administrative clearance'. We have only seen this on accounts for Trump, DeSantis and Alex Jones. We're sure there are more, those are just the only ones we have seen.

So this means they do not need to have in-flows. They are given a reprieve, they can wait much longer, it could be a month, two months, we don't know. That is granted at the highest level, the absolute highest."

Bill: Ah, ok, right. What level do you think? Presidential level? Leader of the E.U. level?

Gideon: "We think it's something like that. But we don't think the U.S. President or E.U. leader is that level. It would be someone in the background who is leading this entire thing."

Bill: Klaus?

Gideon: "No, not Klaus Schwab. He is not the one running it at the top. We think it could be Putin."

Bill: That makes no sense, Gideon.

Gideon: "If you look at the world at the surface level, you won't know anything or understand anything."

Bill: Hmm. Ok. So, what we think we believe about Putin isn't really the truth?

Gideon: "Almost everything you think you know is what they decide they want you to believe."

Bill: I get it, I just sometimes don't apply that to everything.

Gideon: "Cognitive biases. 'All those guys over there are bad, but I sort of like this guy, so he's not bad or Sovereign.'"

Bill: Ah, I see. You're right. We have to step back and remove our emotions. So are you solid on this Putin theory?

Gideon: "No, I'm not. I wanted to make a point."

Bill: Well, mission accomplished! My brain froze and didn't know what to say for a minute there!

Gideon: "Good, that's the idea. You have to dislodge the innate biases within you to objectively see the truth."

Bill: Ok, back to these accounts. They've set aside a few accounts, where the in-flows can come in later. Did you ever see anything coming into these accounts? Because the last your guys checked was three months ago, right?

Gideon: "That's right. I don't think they've checked since. It would be interesting to find out if Trump or DeSantis got some in-flows, of course, but that's more up to them. You know I try to really only ask things of them that are a high priority?"

Bill: I know. Do you think we over-extended with the requests of the media personalities we just asked about?

Gideon: "No, it's ok, because I really emphasized to them to only check on those names if they completely feel comfortable doing so. I said do not prioritize that over anything else."

Bill: Good. It's important but not that important.

Gideon: "Right, it's not. We already looked at so many of these accounts earlier in the year and we were seeing almost everyone was Sovereign, Bill. It was almost every famous person we looked up! My guys got tired of it and quickly realized they were taking some small, unneeded risks in looking people up so they stopped."

It makes sense. Look at all these high profile people who pushed the vaccines. They're all Sovereigns. Then in the alternative media, they were against the vaccines but always offered up some misdirection. Those are Sovereigns."

Bill: Of course. The alt media is a joke, you've shown that to me. So what is a good rule of thumb on this, in terms of making an educated guess on who is Sovereign?

Gideon: "Based on all the data I know of, my guys bringing up these accounts, anyone with a reasonably sized following is probably Sovereign. If they are speaking about the Great Reset and still have a large following, I would question how they can maintain that. I would assume they have script and they are doing what is wanted of them, or they leave certain information out. For example, Bill, they talk about the Great Reset but refuse to discuss CSRQ or the class system."

Bill: Right, they only go so far, but won't go to certain things.

Gideon: "If they refuse to discuss CSRQ or what my men have revealed, then they are Sovereign."

Bill: I believe it. There's no reason alt media types who claim to want the truth to avoid this topic, solely this one. By the way, have your guys seen people lose Sovereign status, or gain it, in real time?

Gideon: "This is what the team on the lower level is doing, constantly evaluating classes. Because people are moving in and out of them. The system is automatic, but needs human attention and software engineers to work out bugs and issues."

Let's say you have a Sovereign media personality, ok, no, let's say they are a music artist. They put out a rap song. The rap song makes some reference about the vaccines, not in a good way. This is where the AI steps in, moves that rapper into Common class. Then the rapper's agents or representatives will step in, inform them what happened, and this gets worked out. The references to the vaccines might get removed from the song. The rapper is told, 'You overstepped.'

Sometimes it's just a mistake.

This happens because this system is new. These Sovereigns were already part of the 'Illuminati' if you want to call it that for, you know, years and years, they were initiated. But this software is new, so they are all having to adjust a little bit. They are scrutinized more. Most of them just make mistakes. So it's a huge project, Bill, this is thousands of employees working on this."

Bill: We could talk all day about this. Let's get back to Sovereign class. Your guys were surprised to see all these in-flows, can you explain how and why that's happening?

Gideon: "It's to drain capital out of the current system and it acts as an accounting mechanism. They're not just giving Sovereign accounts, after the Reset happens, random amounts of USDR. The USDR is based on the Sovereign person's current wealth or status within this current paradigm or system. It is also clearly serving as a way to collapse the system, through the wealth drain. Capital is drained, debt is left behind. This will lead to a total seizure of the world's economy, as all of the real capital is moved out of it and into USDR, behind the scenes."

Bill: I wanted to ask, what's the low end they've seen on these accounts and the high end? We saw Tucker had $500 Million.

Gideon: "The lowest was $59,000 but it didn't stay there long, because in-flows were coming in. The highest we saw was into the Trillions."

Bill: That's because of the conversion rate, it hovers around 1:43.

Gideon: Yes.

Bill: Did your guys ever figure out why there is no monthly stipend for Sovereign?

Gideon: "We're not sure except that it's not needed, almost a redundancy they didn't bother with, because every Sovereign in our world now is already very wealthy. There are no 'poor' Sovereigns. They are all converting their existing assets at 1:43 ratio so they are going to be filthy rich after the Reset. We also think there will be investment models available so they can grow their wealth, which will in turn create a type of monthly income in that sense, like interest from a bank deposit but better."

Bill: Makes sense. For our purposes, we're not Sovereigns, we're being changed into Sovereigns, so we're less likely to be super rich like they are. I guess it's more a challenge for us.

Gideon: "It is, but with the conversion rate we feel comfortable. Something like just $50,000 will get you very comfortable after the Reset. That would be $2.1

Million USDR with strong buying power. You will be ok. The Reset will happen, the next day you login to your bank account there's $2.1 Million USDR. You have no vaccination requirement, or any other restrictions. You feel bad about the situation but you also feel safe, relieved."

Bill: For sure. I'm going for $5 Million but $2 million would still be enough. By the way, I'm getting a lot of people wanting to have their class changed to Sovereign. I'm not sure how to handle these requests, because I don't want to make promises we can't keep. Did you ask your guys about this?

Gideon: "I did. They understood when this came out people would want that. They said, and I agreed, that they want this to go viral and for this Reset plan to be stopped. If they could hit a keystroke and stop it, they would. They can't. It's a small miracle they can do what they do.

So for them you have different options. The first is to get this to the public and reverse course, get them to stop or delay this enslavement plan. The second course is to change people to Sovereign, which they did already for you, me, others. I know for a fact, Bill, they won't be able to do more than a handful of people. They can't do 100 accounts, it's far too risky."

Bill: What do I tell people?

Gideon: "Don't make any promises. Focus on us working to just destroy this in the first place. Let's live in a world where we don't have to worry what class we are."

Bill: I agree. But what about all the money we put in to get this USDR? We would lose that, because we destroyed it before it ever launched.

Gideon: "I'm perfectly ok with that. We would save the world, and lose some money in the process."

Bill: I'm also ok with it. Being Sovereign is an insurance plan and also a back-up plan to sabotage them if we can't stop it.

Gideon: "Precisely."

Bill: Sometimes I feel great, like we can do this and stop this, then realize we're just a few thousand now in the Telegram compared to Billions of people who are asleep.

Gideon: "And that's why we have this back up plan. If they escalate us to Level 3 or 4, if they shadow-ban, if they do worse, my guys do want to bring in more for the Sovereign class. We could get deleted completely, so if you make contact with people that's who we will bring into this. We would shift our focus to that, but we have to give this a chance first."

Bill: We have to. But if we can't, what's our plan on the other side of this? Once the Reset happens?

Gideon: "We have to have the right people who we made Sovereign work with us and sabotage it from the inside. It's going to be up to us to save the world. To save all our friends, all of our brothers and sisters who share our beliefs, who will be Quarantined or Restricted. I don't want to think about the outcome for them."

Bill: If I didn't get changed to Sovereign, I'd be Quarantined and I'm looking at everything I have being taken, all my property gone, getting fined, getting visits by the cops, then drones, we know the outcome. I'd have a month before they would knock me out with a drone and vaccinate me.

Gideon: "You would have no chance. None of us would. If you could get deep into the woods and live like an absolute mountain man, you give yourself maybe a few months before the drones find you, maybe a year."

Bill: But then it doesn't even matter if you're Common. The vaccine is required.

Gideon: "It is. There is no way out of what they will do."

Bill: Then our friends and family turn on us because our bad scores are bringing theirs down.

Gideon: "You will see families and friends tear each other apart in a matter of days or hours because of the social credit system. They want to pit people against each other. They want this, Bill."

Bill: Should I make a notice or special email about this Sovereign issue?

Gideon: "No. If they can't figure out how to contact you and make themselves known, then we don't need them. We need the smartest and best of the best, if it comes to that. Don't hold people's hands. Now I'm going to ask you a question for once. Do you think you have some good candidates for Sovereign who contacted you?"

Bill: I do, actually. I don't want to let them down, either.

Gideon: "Ok. That's good. I expected that. I knew we would find some needles in the haystack. Keep them on stand by, but focus on the main goal. We have to stop this before it even happens. This world is going to be hell. Even if we are Sovereign, we will have to watch our friends and family be destroyed, be force vaccinated, if they didn't make it in with us. Can you imagine?"

Bill: I wouldn't want to live seeing that. It's the most painful thing I can think of. If I had younger children and for some reason I couldn't make them Sovereign, I don't know how I could live with that. I couldn't.

Gideon: "Let's do all we can to prevent this. Everything. If we had some alt media people who weren't corrupt, it would be easier. Let's find them."

Bill: I'm trying, I am. By the way, why did they move up the time table? Why now?

Gideon: "A lot of reasons. But at the top, some of them are getting very old. They want to see this in their lifetimes. They know they now have the technology to do it, they just bumped it along a bit. This was coming between 2025 and 2030 regardless. Now it's coming quickly."

INTEL DROP #2 - BILL'S BLOG – DAILY UPDATE #2

TRUTHS.”

- Gideon

Sunday – July 17, 2022

I hope everyone's having a wonderful Sunday. Let's get to the updates.

I've had a lot of people messaging me asking me to contact a lot of different people in the Alt Media. Thank you for the suggestions, but it's much more helpful if you reach out to these people! We've already hit a "brick wall" in this area, so if I reach out, they seem to want to just ignore me. If you reach out, they may listen. It's a huge way you can help.

I'm also having a lot of people contact me asking to look up who is Sovereign in the Alt Media. Some good names and suggestions. We already submitted some names, listed here, so I'm awaiting word on that. Gideon said today they've looked up three of those names so far.

The following are some exchanges between myself and Gideon over the past day. Thank you to Michael as always for his editing help.

Bill: When I'm on Telegram, I'm getting exhausted by the amount of info pouring in. It's not just there, it's all over the Internet. There's ten thousand sources of 'info' exposing 'truths' and so on. What's going on here?

Gideon: "Information overload, by design."

Bill: Some of it is good info. Some of it, like the stuff Max Igan is putting out about the technology in the 1800s. There's a name for it, I forget. I can't keep up with this stuff.

Gideon: "There are actionable truths and passive truths. They want you focused on the passive truths."

Bill: What do you mean by that?

Gideon: "They have Sovereigns whose sole job is to pump out overwhelming information on various esoteric subjects that don't pertain to your life or the current threats we face. It's information that takes you away from applying things to your life."

Bill: Is this a new phenomena? There have always been people saying, "Here's the secret to everything." Graham Hancock, David Wilcock, David Icke come to mind.

Gideon: "They've always been around. Some are genuine, some have good information. This is different. They put this program in place a few years ago, it's gone into overdrive. They are flooding the Internet with nonsense to literally cause truth-seekers to experience mental overload and to keep them consuming information that has no actionable purpose in their lives."

Bill: This passive versus actionable truth, explain that.

Gideon: "You have to base your data on real world facts. On reality. You also have to consume data that helps you take action in some way to save your own life or protect your own life. You need knowledge you can use, either now or in the future. The passive data, like researching technology from the 1800s, it's fascinating but it's not applicable to your life right now."

Our world is being destroyed second by second. This is survival. What they have planned, which is going to happen very soon, is the end of humanity. Your children will be force-vaccinated. What is more important than that?"

Bill: I can't think of anything more important than protecting children. Should people just ignore these things, the passive truths? What should they do?

Gideon: "They have to learn to prioritize information. If you are spending all day reading about Q, then you are just sitting there reading about how some other people somewhere else might be doing something."

Bill: Right, Q is all about how there's this "good" part of the military who are going to "get the bad guys" at some point.

Gideon: "What are you accomplishing in your own life if you are reading that? How does that information help you either now or in the future? It's just telling you a story about how someone else is doing something, while you do nothing."

Bill: It doesn't do anything for you.

Gideon: "How can that information help you make decisions?"

Bill: It can't.

Gideon: "Is that information even accurate, or based on real-world data? Can you verify it? Can you confirm it?"

Bill: No. With Q, with a lot of this, no, it can't be verified at all.

Gideon: "Remember how I told you to look for confirmations?"

Bill: Yes, I was telling people about that. It's incredible. On the drone stuff, on the CBDC stuff. On the social credit scoring. On us eating bugs. It's all there! Everything you told me six months ago, it's happening now. It's mind-blowing for me. The biggest confirmation is the Alt Media, that really shook me.

Gideon: "That's verifiable. What we are trying to tell people can be verified. It's information that is actionable, that is also pertinent to your own life, right now. You're not wasting time learning about these things by listening to us, you are actually gaining data you need to have."

Bill: I agree. Knowing about these things, it's very relevant to all of us.

Gideon: "That's the information people need to prioritize. Otherwise, you are playing into their game. They want you to belong to a ton of movements, spending all day consuming information, focused on theories, much of it has nothing to do with actual reality at all.”

Bill: It's fantasy.

Gideon: “It's complete fantasy, disguised as truth. In some cases, it is truth, but passive truth. What we are talking about is reality, happening right in front of everyone.”

Bill: That helps me understand what's going on a lot better. By the way, did you get that huge list of questions that guy sent me?

Gideon: “Yes, I went through it. Do you want to reference it?”

Bill: Let me pull it up. Ok. I'll just go through this. He wants to know, why is someone classified as Common versus Sovereign? What makes that determination?

Gideon: “Sovereign class is transitioning the current role-players into a new role. The current system is run by people in this so-called cabal, they are initiates. Whether Jesuits, Freemasons, Illuminati, Jewish mysticism, they are all part of a larger group that uses them to move this agenda forward. The software moves them into one classification, Sovereign.”

Bill: You're going to upset people with some of that, because they're convinced any one of those named groups are the real head of the snake.

Gideon: “They're not. The initiates believe each group they are a part of is the top of the pyramid, by the way, which is a method of their compartmentalization. For example, the highest level Freemason or the Pope are not 'running things', though they may believe they are. The named group isn't known. I've never seen it on the Internet. I suspect what it is, I'm not certain but I suspect I know it, but if I name or describe it that would escalate us to Level 5. It's not worth it.”

Bill: I guess that's passive information?

Gideon: “Yes. Knowing the exact name of the overarching cabal is not very relevant, but they want you to waste hours upon hours sifting through the Internet to find it, researching and researching, going down rabbit holes they created that lead nowhere. It would not change anything, knowing the precise name.”

This is where people get lost, convinced they found the one, true group of 'bad guys' above all the other bad guys, with gematria, symbolism, Q's vague coded language, trying to understand all of the rituals of the elites.

Some is helpful, some is completely made up by them to distract, some is accurate, most of it is not relevant to what we are facing. You want to have a good background understanding, and once you have that, move on to actionable data."

Bill: What if people read this and think you're trying to distract them from the truth?

Gideon: "I think they will understand what I'm trying to say. I'm trying to emphasize the prioritization of certain data over other data, because we don't have a lot of time left. I'm sure people can understand what I mean.

If we had the luxury to explore every possible rabbit hole, I would fully encourage that, encourage the expansion of knowledge, the journey of knowing.

But I also know this cabal has programs in place to distract and misdirect. So what may seem like a journey of truth is in fact an endless, meandering, circular path specifically designed to keep you from the truth. More often currently, their programs are designed to keep you from taking any action and instead deferring your power to another group, such as Q Anon. We aren't doing that at all."

Bill: You don't think there's any chance there are good people in the military fighting the bad guys behind the scenes?

Gideon: "The idea the American military is doing anything to stop this is laughable. They are either doing nothing and watching the country be destroyed, or they are actively involved. The military has been corrupt and compromised from top to bottom for decades. It is now more corrupt than ever before, because they've removed the good people, or the good ones retired long ago. If they were going to do something to save the Republic, it would have been done a long time ago. Nothing has been done."

Bill: We were talking about the vaccines approved for children. How could the military let that happen if any of them were good people?

Gideon: “They are letting it happen. They are standing by and watching millions of children be murdered. Somehow, the Q people will find an excuse as to why they can’t take action.”

Bill: It is all garbage, the Q stuff.

Gideon: “It is a very well-funded, robust disinformation campaign designed to completely neutralize patriots. It has been likened to Operation Trust, and this is accurate.”

Bill: But didn’t Trump do some good things?

Gideon: “He did, but nothing of lasting impact against the cabal. Trump made some token gestures against the New World Order, all of which were reversed or will be reversed by Biden. He made people doubt the media, which is good, but then they all flooded into the Alt Media, who are all Sovereigns and controlled.

He had to do some good things, to gain the trust of patriots. It worked. But he also hired every Sovereign person in D.C. to fill his Administration, and not a single criminal went to prison in over four years. Can you explain that to me, Bill?”

Bill: No, I can’t. He didn’t really do anything.

Gideon: “The only lasting change was on the Supreme Court, which has no bearing on anything. The Reset will happen, and the last thing they want are their trans-human babies to be aborted! They would never let Roe vs. Wade be overturned if it didn’t serve the agenda.

Abortion is a blood ritual that will never cease, either. But for them, they now need vaccinated women to give birth, at least the ones who were given the nano-hydra vaccine.”

Bill: It makes sense they want the vaccinated babies to be born. Ok, let’s move on here. He wants to know about private property. How will it be taken?

Gideon: “This is not controversial in terms of how it can be done, but Bill, you are going to have people very disbelieving of this. They won’t be able to accept it. Let’s look at reality.

First, there will be a collapse, so asset values drop to nothing. The Sovereigns buy them up. They’re already buying it all up, this isn’t a secret. They are concentrating the wealth and moving it into USDR, a closed system the general public cannot access.

When the Reset happens, it's seized. By decree. It all becomes property of this new super- state. What it will be called, we're not sure. We think they'll keep the names of countries in place for a period of about six months, then announce the name of the worldwide government."

Bill: What about, say, someone who owns an acreage, a boat, a few cars, a collection of art? How does that work out for them?

Gideon: "After the Reset, they will get to live on it, but they will pay some kind of rent per month, it won't be a lot. In the long-term, the plan is to move them off the property and into the cities, but that is further off, that won't happen right away. Once they're vaccinated with the nano/hydra, then it might happen.

By decree, it's no longer theirs. There is a cap for assets for each group, it's very low. Each account will categorize what assets you own, probably based on some kind of prioritization. Your washer and dryer is yours, but the boat is not yours anymore, for example. Everyone will get a list of this issued to them, it should show up in their bank account, like a downloadable PDF, describing all their assets, all of the details of the Reset."

Bill: He wants to know about private companies? How will the economy function?

Gideon: "They will be seized by the state. It will be a Communistic system, but in America, we think they will have some type of shell company placeholders so the public can accept it better. Amazon will still be Amazon, just owned by the government. The CEOs have all been replaced, by the way. Their wealth is secured. They fully support the plan, even if the traditional idea of their public company traded on a stock exchange will no longer exist. They're moving it all into USDR."

Bill: He's going on and on about why would people still work? Why would people do certain jobs? Why wouldn't they just quit? He doesn't think UBI will work, the universal basic income, it will cause people to not work.

Gideon: "The universal basic income will work. After a collapse, it will be embraced by most people. There will still be job requirements. If you don't actually do your job, your UBI is gone. Now you are broke and homeless."

Bill: He's asking, Why would someone become a brain surgeon?

Gideon: "They have them in Communist countries, so how is that possible? There will be incentives and perks. We talked about this with respect to the Common class. They won't give you USDR, but they will provide coupons and vouchers.

Now, imagine if you lived in Cuba, and you have nothing, and the government offers you five extra coupons for bread or rice per month, if you follow a certain career path? In lieu of nothing, such an incentive would appear attractive.

You have to realize, the cabal is going to downsize the model of American consumption. How many times must it be said, 'You will own nothing and be happy.' That sentence alone tells you what is to come, but people don't listen!"

Bill: I guess you're right, they are telling us exactly what will happen.

Gideon: "They will reduce the available freedom and opportunity, choke it off, and then provide some crumbs. So with all things equal, if you are offered some crumbs those crumbs look better than no crumbs at all!"

Bill: Americans don't get this.

Gideon: "The rest of the world will adjust to this better, because the mentality isn't the same.

Americans are the most aggressively consumer-based economy in the world. That is changing, because this cabal is walking away from the growth, fiat, fractional reserve, central bank-based economic model. It made them incredibly powerful, but it has a lifespan. It cannot go on forever. It is going to collapse, so instead of letting it just blow up in their faces, it will be a controlled collapse, to transition the world into Communism.

But Americans think this model can go on forever, it can't. They lost their freedom, Constitution and the soundness of their money in 1913, and further back than that."

Bill: He's asking how will people pay for medical care, or the Internet?

Gideon: "He thinks Communist countries don't have these things? Tell him to educate himself on Communism and then return with his questions."

Bill: Ok, so you're saying, we have to just dispense of our capitalistic understanding with respect to this software and Reset?

Gideon: "Yes. The capitalistic model is being thrown out, because it's about to die. The debt is into the many Trillions, it cannot be paid back.

They are replacing it. It could be replaced with freedom, sound money, the banning of usury, and a humanitarian, sustainable model, but that would threaten their power. It would also dissolve their trans-humanist plans and experiments. So they are going a very dark route instead."

Bill: He's asking what their justification is for Sovereigns not to have the vaccine?

Gideon: "Why would they poison or kill themselves? What kind of question is that?"

Bill: Ok, he has more questions, some of them are really stupid. He's asking why I live in Vietnam? Because... that's where I live.

Gideon: "Don't waste energy on some of these people. Bill, you know some of them are agents just there to drain you of energy and keep your wheels spinning?"

Bill: I know, I know. Some of the questions I get, I'm wondering if they are just really stupid people or trying to just waste my time.

Gideon: "IQs have dropped dramatically, from the electromagnetic pollution, poisons in the food and water and the vaccinations during childhood. The younger generations will put up no resistance to these plans, Bill, none."

Bill: I know, it scares the hell out of me, the young people, they're totally brainwashed and weakened.

Gideon: "They stand no chance, they will be absorbed right into the Reset and new system. The Metaverse and video games will keep them passive and compliant. Many of them will be OK with it. None of them are educated on freedom or the Constitution or human rights."

Bill: What about this momentum that seems to be building? More people waking up?

Gideon: “Very good question. Let’s walk through this. First, we have to realize this anti- vaccine, anti-Great Reset movement is not very large. I’m not saying that to be negative, it’s reality. It has power. It’s doing good things. But, I keep careful track of the total views on social media. I told you to look at some of that.”

Bill: Yes, I did.

Gideon: “There are not enough views of this information. It is not exceeding a few million of the same people seeing it over and over and sharing it. What does seep out into the broader public may be dismissed, because many who are vaccinated will not look at the truth or admit they were wrong.

You are also forgetting the power of the media and their control. They are still pushing propaganda and lies and this is being consumed.

You are forgetting half of the truth movement is co-opted by gatekeepers, Sovereigns. They are steering the conversation to where it will not be a threat.

You are forgetting that right now, they could not do the Great Reset, but during economic turmoil, it will work. They know this. As much as you may hear some grumbling and disagreement with the current state of things, once the collapse accelerates, people become desperate. They will dispense their ideologies in favour of safety!

Even if there are a growing number of people annoyed with the Great Reset, once collapse happens, they will be able to offer universal basic income and the restrictions of the classes and it will be generally accepted.

You have to also remember, no one will know about the Sovereign class. We are the only ones telling the truth about this! If the public doesn’t know, and thinks everyone is Common class, including the elites, the powerful, the celebrities, it will be much more widely accepted. It will be seen as an equalization. They will say, ‘Capitalism caused this mess, here’s a solution where we are all equal now.’ They will celebrate seeing their rich neighbours reduced to Common class!”

Bill: What sucks is I know you’re right. Not enough are awake.

Gideon: “Even those who are awake will find themselves submitting and complying with this. The same way many people didn’t want to take the job, but they did anyway because their job required it. They threw their lives away for some momentary security, and they will again.”

Bill: What's the way humanity can stop this right now?

Gideon: "By exposing the Great Reset. But if you just say, 'We think there's this Reset thing and we think it's bad,' that's not very specific, is it? Do you think the cabal is threatened by that? No.

If you show people, 'Here's the software and the class system, it's been exposed by hackers,' now maybe they listen. They see the actual plan. They see the real data. It's not a vague concept, it's a real, actionable concept. It's actionable truth, not passive truth."

INTEL DROP #03 - ALT MEDIA CAN'T BE TRUSTED

“THEY ARE COMPROMISING EVERYONE IN THE ALT MEDIA. IF OFFERED A CHOICE BETWEEN BEING Q OR R STATUS, OR SOVEREIGN, THEY ARE ALL TAKING SOVEREIGN.”

- Gideon

Tuesday – July 19, 2022

We're getting overwhelming positive response, as people wake up and learn about the CSRQ-SM software. So thank you to everyone joining us and supporting us, we need all the support we can get.

We know most of the Alt Media are Sovereigns and therefore, they are compromised. They will not cover our story. But some of them can be trusted. You taking action to contact anyone in the Alt Media you trust is maybe the best thing you can do to help us, if you want to help.

It's very possible we could get censored. They are trying to break into my website everyday with brute force attacks.

There's some pretty urgent issues I wanted to get to, so I sent Gideon a lot of questions, here's some of what I can share.

Bill: I think we need to update people on Sovereign status. I'm getting a lot of inquiries. Understandably, people want to know if their status can be changed. How do we want to approach this?

Gideon: "That's not our goal, Bill. As I've said many times, if it comes to that, if down the road we feel we can't win this battle, that's when I will instruct you on what to do. It will be a short notice you will put up and take down. We will need to find people we can trust who can work with us after the Reset to destroy it."

Bill: Your guys are only considering it as a last resort?

Gideon: "Yes. It's a risk for them. They don't want it to come to that. They understand why it's important, but at the end of the day, it's their call."

Bill: I'm just thinking ahead. We will need more than just you and me and our small group to be Sovereign.

Gideon: "Certainly we will. It's more of a back-up plan in case we can't stop this."

Bill: People are scared to death, Gideon.

Gideon: "I know."

Bill: I have people writing me, they're upset about the forced vaccination plans, how they will do it, with the drones. We've had deep discussions on it, things no one knows. Are you ready to talk more about that?

Gideon: "No, not yet."

Bill: Why not?

Gideon: "A couple of reasons. For one, it could lead to Level 5 or 6 escalation. They will delete everything and they will come after us."

Bill: What's your timetable for getting more into that?

Gideon: "I'll let you know. We will need more support, much more awareness. That gives us some insurance. What we're talking about is more passive data, not actionable data. It's important but not necessary to know to save your life."

Bill: Ok, I got you. Let's move on. What about the list I asked about, all the Sovereigns your guys found?

Gideon: "I asked them and they're going to put something together. I already have most of it. Probably within a week. It's over one hundred public figures."

Bill: Ok, good. So they checked on these since they started?

Gideon: "Yes, they've been checking for eight months. They did a lot in the beginning, though. I think it was more out of shock. Once they started pulling up the names, they would pull up five or ten at a time. Then they slowed down, realizing the risk."

Bill: I know you're going to give me the list, but I have to ask about Benjamin Fulford. Lots of people are asking about him. Did they ever check on him?

Gideon: "They did. He is Sovereign."

Bill: Ok. I'm not shocked by that that. I'm getting questions, by the way, that are so nonsensical. Are these agents? Michael was calling them out. Michael says they are using straw man and bad faith arguments.

Gideon: "It's the playbook. They will take information and distort it, then present it as fact. They might say, 'There's only five hackers with that clearance, they can easily be found.'"

Bill: You must have been watching the Telegram today!

Gideon: "I was."

Bill: Ok, but look how misleading that is. There aren't five guys with the clearance. It's hundreds. We've said that. And there's thousands of people working on this all over the world and at least twenty fusion centres. We've said that!

Gideon: "It doesn't matter what is fact, or what we've said. Their job is to take that and distort it, ask misleading questions and make straw men arguments. It's a powerful technique. The untrained observer, or those watching or learning, can easily be misled by it."

Bill: They do this in a lot of groups, don't they? I mean, any time actual truth comes out. It's the old saying, 'Over the target.' We're over the target.

Gideon: "Look at the amount of agents you have in the Telegram. I know how they operate, Bill, and you got escalated from level 1 to Level 2 quickly. They're also putting more agents on you than normal. They might put four or five into a group like yours, but you have at least ten operating."

Bill: Some of them are saying, 'If this was true, it would all be deleted.'

Gideon: "But we already addressed that."

Bill: You're right, we did.

Gideon: "It doesn't matter what we say. It doesn't matter how many questions we answer. It doesn't matter how thorough we answer them. The agents will never be satisfied, and they will always mislead and distort, and often simply act like we never answered it."

Bill: Exactly! They are always coming into the group and asking these questions we've already answered, over and over!

Gideon: "They'll keep doing it. When they ask very basic things we've already gone over, they know what they're doing. It's a tactic."

Bill: We have two Interviews, my FAQ, these blogs, the video. I mean, if I wasn't a part of this, it would take me a few hours to read all of it.

Gideon: "We could publish a 5,000 page book, the agents wouldn't care. Their job is to constantly plant seeds of doubt, poisonous, toxic seeds, not rational or intelligent seeds that lead to answers or discourse."

Bill: Michael said he's taking much tougher action against them.

Gideon: "You have to, or they will destroy you and all of us. Sadly, the public is not well-versed on these tactics. The public is easily misled, by comment sections, by agents in groups. They have a huge influence. The cabal has at least 75,000 of them working non-stop on the Internet. It's the equivalent of a small city working non-stop to confuse and distract everyone while they prepare this Reset and the software."

Bill: They're also always diverting the topic into something like, "This group is bad, and this group is bad, but this good group over here is going to save us," whether it's aliens, or Putin or the Q guys in the military.

Gideon: "That's a huge, huge operation going on right now. They are pushing hope on everyone, that some group somewhere is going to save them. It's a psy op, it's complete disinfo. The cabal has already turned most of these people into Sovereigns, the ones who might have fought for us. They are compromising everyone in the Alt Media. The government and military was already compromised. If offered a choice between being Q or R status, or Sovereign, they are all taking Sovereign."

Bill: Ok, let's talk about some other things I wanted to get into here. Someone was asking how the hackers can look up people in the system and it not be traced back to their queue or inquiry?

Gideon: "That's actually a good question. We did cover that already. But let me be more clear on that. There are obfuscation methods in place. They would not do these things if they thought it would put them at risk. For example, when they pull up an account, they can obfuscate this activity. It's clever how they do it. When they click the 'edit' button shown in the photos, it's harder to obfuscate. This pertains to different aspects of the software."

Bill: I had someone ask, "Why can't they just delete all the Sovereigns, or change them all to Quarantined," you get the idea.

Gideon: "Of course that can't be done. It would cause the system to initiate redundancies. It would cause alerts to go off. The system would actually revert all the Sovereign accounts back to their original status. It's not in the realm of consideration. It would expose my guys and accomplish nothing."

Bill: I know that, but it's one of those questions I think a newbie who hasn't read anything of ours is going to wonder.

Gideon: "It's not a bad question, but there's just no way they can take, say, 8 Million Sovereign accounts and with a few clicks turn them into Common or Quarantined. Not without the system issuing a red flag-type alert and my guys getting caught right away."

Bill: What we're talking about here are careful, surgical changes.

Gideon: “That’s it, that’s how to put it.”

Bill: Ok. We have people looking at the EXIF data on the images we posted, do you want to address that? I already know the answer to this.

Gideon: “Yes, multiple levels of obfuscation and spoofing. The EXIF data is meaningless.”

Bill: Again, it’s just all these questions. They seem like surface-level questions. Like, no one is thinking dynamically or on a multi-dimensional level. Like a chess level.

Gideon: “Just be patient as best you can. They’re not all agents. Some just don’t understand counter-espionage or how these things are done, so they look at it at a very basic level.”

Bill: Do they not realize we took months to plan this release? That we have to do everything we can to protect ourselves and the whistle blowers?

Gideon: “They must not. An operation like this, to release truthful information without it getting censored right away, this takes planning and obfuscation.”

Bill: I think I mentioned this before, but some people are upset about the free Wix site, they think it doesn’t look professional. What do we say about this?

Gideon: “The agents will obsess over that. If you had used your credit card to upgrade and pay for the paid version of the Wix site, how does that change anything, Bill? How does that make anything more valid or legitimate? All it does is link your identity to the site with your credit card. The agents would love for you to have to done that.

Whether our information is written on the back of a napkin or a super-stylized, custom- designed website, it doesn’t change the legitimacy of the information.”

Bill: It’s so weird to me that people focus on these ridiculous things.

Gideon: “Mostly agents, just producing asinine arguments.”

Bill: They are always saying we must have a crypto coin we’re pushing or we’re going to “sell” Sovereign accounts. How many more disclaimers do we have to put up to address this? It’s driving Michael nuts.

Gideon: "Do your best. These questions will come up. It's not always agents. Just do your best to reassure. You know that I won't allow that."

Bill: Oh, I know. You kicked that one guy out of our group.

Gideon: *"Yes, *****."*

Bill: We thought he was solid, then he suggested we charge subscription fees!

Gideon: "It was disgraceful."

Bill: It was. I wish people knew that story, they would know us better. Well, I'll put this in the daily blog.

Gideon: "That's good, they should know. We won't tolerate that. That's stuff the Sovereigns in the Alt Media do, the Q Anon leaders. It's all a money-making scheme. It's all about misleading people. One thing we learned is, the freshly-made Sovereigns, the ones who were recently turned in the Alt Media, they are pushing hard to make money because they're desperately turning it into USDR. So the money-making, donations, sales push is going hard right now. You might see that. Their greed is off the charts."

Bill: I do see it. It's shameless. Ok, new question. What about these people talking about legally changing your legal status through the courts? To these 5 Star Passports? Or changing your birth certification? I see people talking about this in our Telegram a lot, sort of a legal work-around to the Reset.

Gideon: "The cabal just vaccinated Billions of people with poison, Bill, do you think they care about the law?"

Bill: No.

Gideon: "The cabal will shoot a vaccine into you with a drone, but at the same time adhere to arcane Maritime law and the Constitution?"

Bill: I know, it's absurd.

Gideon: "The cabal does not adhere to any of these laws. They are lawless. They write their own laws. They murder children. They want to enslave humanity. But some legal term you can find buried in the law from the 1800s will stop them in their tracks?"

Bill: So, just to be as clear as day, all these efforts to go to court, to become a Sovereign citizen of some kind, to change you birth certificate, it's pointless?

Gideon: "Somewhere in your mind, you have to say yourself, 'The cabal that is doing this Reset will somehow stop everything and acknowledge this piece of paper that says I'm special.' It's ridiculous. It's a dangerously stupid waste of time. We're too far gone.

It might have worked on a mass scale if the world woke up 20 years ago. The ball has moved forward too far for the cabal without much resistance. You can't really make legal arguments when you are dealing with a murderous, genocidal regime."

Bill: Right. I don't see how it makes any sense. The cabal is trying to enslave humanity. Why do they care about some legal fine print you found. Like those alodial deeds, will they matter?

Gideon: "No, they mean nothing. At least not to the cabal. The cabal doesn't follow the law or Constitution. They'll just seize property through decree, through eminent domain, they'll say, 'We have to do this because of climate change,' or, 'This person is Quarantined and a threat, so we're taking their stuff,' and so on. They already do this, Bill! It's called civil asset forfeiture! They steal money and property all the time!"

Bill: What about these people who think they'll get rich off the ISO coins like XRP and Algo?

Gideon: "We think some of that tech will exist after the Reset and be used by the Sovereign class. It appears they're using some kind of Ripple tech for USDR, for example. But the public won't have access to it or be able to own it."

Bill: So they won't let people who buy XRP get rich from it?

Gideon: "No, that's absurd."

Bill: It does seem silly, I hear them saying all the time, "This is the Reset coin, XRP! The banks will use it! Buy now, it will be worth $1,000 soon."

Gideon: "They're Sovereigns pushing that, Bill. Again, the tech might be used by the cabal, but they are creating a Communist-style, one-world control grid with no freedom or ownership. The little people getting rich from XRP does not play into that at all. We already know what these classes look like. You can't own crypto, you can't own or have assets over a very small amount."

Bill: You're right. I know you have to go, let me ask one last thing. Right now, what percentage chance you would say the collapse, the Reset and the CSRQ implementation is going to happen?

Gideon: "My current estimation is 90% chance the collapse and Reset will happen. If it appears we are winning and our information reaches 50 Million people, the chance drastically drops. The cabal will use a secondary plan. I know what that is, it's easier to defeat. We need to get to that point. We are not there at all."

Bill: Ok, thank you for your time again, brother. I think people appreciate these updates, so let's keep it up.

Gideon: "We will. Stay strong, Bill. We're going to win."

INTEL DROP #04 - HEAVEN FOR THEM, HELL FOR US

AS SOVEREIGNS TO BE
WANT HELL FOR THE REST OF US.”

- Gideon

Thursday – July 21, 2022

Good evening everyone. Let's go over a few issues on the docket before we begin.

We have turned off all media and embedded links on our Telegram to allow for more focused discussion. We are also clearing out agents everyday, but new ones are hired to come in to replace them so it's an on-going effort.

If you're a skeptic, maybe you aren't sure what to believe, I encourage you to spend some time in the Telegram so you can witness agent activity. It's exactly as Gideon has described in many of our previous articles. *Then you can see for yourself that we are really being targeted.

I want everyone to know that we are getting your responses to our comment form on our website and we are seeing your emails added to our mailing list. That's really important. We will send out a newsletter soon. I'll announce it on my Twitter when we send it. If you don't get it, then you know your email is blocking it, so we'll go over how to fix that when that happens.

I have three intel drops prepared for release, dealing with the military drones, the Q Anon movement and some info we got about CERN. So that's all coming soon. Today, we're just going to talk about the people we found who are Sovereign and why even good people are being lured into this trap by the cabal.

Bill: I know you've got a big list of names coming, but I gave you a few more just in case they're not in there. Were they able to look them up?

Gideon: "Some of them, yes."

Bill: Good. We've had a lot of people asking about these names. Should we discuss it now or prepare a separate article?

Gideon: "We can do both, we can discuss it now and later you can put it in an article."

Bill: Let's start with Joe Rogan and Russell Brand.

Gideon: "My guys had a little trouble with Rogan and finding him, but they eventually did and they're confident they found him. He's Sovereign and so is Brand. Both have huge in-flows."

Bill: I suspected as much. How about Michael Flynn? Pretty big Q Anon guy, well, sort of admired by the Q Anons, I should say.

Gideon: "Mr. Flynn is Sovereign."

Bill: Interesting. For our Aussie friends down under, were you able to check on Riccardo Bosi and Pauline Hanson?

Gideon: "Bosi is Sovereign but has no in-flows. As we've seen with some others like that, it's hard to know what's going on. Hanson is Common class."

Bill: You think it might be that they've prepared an account for Bosi but he doesn't know about it?

Gideon: “Almost certainly. He may be approached soon. If he refuses it, he will be placed as Q status.”

Bill: I keep getting questions about Trump, DeSantis, Alex Jones, all Sovereigns but no in-flows. Did your guys ever check back up on them?

Gideon: “Yes, just for Trump. The first in-flow was detected last week. An amount of $1 Million US Dollars, a bank wire from a Cayman Islands bank under what must be some kind of shell company. Trump ended up with $43.1 Million USDR due to the conversion rate.”

Bill: Wow. What was the shell company? *(See bottom of this page for further explanation.)

Gideon: “I’m not going to say because we think it’s a possible leak, or exposure data point. It’s completely unimportant, anyway. I could say it’s ACME Co., it doesn’t matter, because you can’t look up anything important about it. But to see that metric, Bill, my guys have to dig beyond the information just presented on the main screen.”

Remember, it just says your name and a few things? Ok, well, to see in-flows and all of that is a different screen, and the obfuscation technique to obfuscate when my guys looked it up isn’t as solid. It, I won’t get into it, just realize if we’re looking beyond the main screen, we’re taking some slightly higher risks.”

Bill: But it is obfuscated?

Gideon: “Yes, they wouldn’t look that up if it wasn’t, Bill. If they couldn’t look beyond the main screen we couldn’t have made you or anyone else Sovereign.”

Bill: I totally understand. I don’t even care about the shell company. But I know people will ask.

Gideon: “They will. Even if we said the company, it would lead to dead end. Their account activity isn’t public nor is the real person who owns it public. My guys can’t even see that, but we do think the system can see it.”

The entire system that handles the financial in-flows is separate. It’s hard to explain, but it’s some kind of Ripple-based block chain system. It converts existing assets into USDR. My guys can see it, but they can’t get to the back-end of it or access it in anyway. They can interact with it, you know, receive in-flows to your account or my account, or theirs, but that's all."

Bill: So what's your conclusion on this in-flow?

Gideon: "This one's still hard to say. It's hard to know if it came from Trump himself, or someone else, because of the bank it came from. We know Trump's name was not on the wire itself, just this shell company."

Bill: Maybe they're still preparing it for him?

Gideon: "I'm not sure."

Bill: Were you able to check on Robert Kennedy Jr., Dana Coverstone and Nick Fuentes? Sort of a random bunch there.

Gideon: "Mr. Kennedy is Quarantined. Dana Coverstone is Sovereign and has large in- flows. Nick Fuentes is Sovereign but no in-flows. We're seeing more Sovereigns now with no in-flows, by the way, just a pattern."

Bill: Ah, they're preparing accounts for these people then.

Gideon: "Yes, they are."

Bill: Interesting about Kennedy, he's not one of them despite being from a family of such stature.

Gideon: "He's not. I'm sure his anti-vaccine advocacy put him in Q status."

Bill: I don't even agree with him on a lot of what he says, because he doesn't go far enough. He's too timid for my tastes, because I think all vaccines are poison. But he says a ton of good things, too.

Gideon: "He does. He straddles a careful line. You will notice he often says he's not anti- vaccine. He must say this, I assume, so he doesn't end up like his father or uncle."

Bill: Of course. He's high-profile enough they would probably eliminate him if he said more than he does.

Gideon: “What he says has already put him in Q status. It looks like he did enough to earn it. He’s absolutely one of us and not one of them.”

Bill: I’m glad. Back to Coverstone, he’s Sovereign. You said you’re not going to look up anymore Christian pastors?

Gideon: “He’s going to be the last one. They’re all Sovereign, Bill. We haven’t found one who isn’t. I’m sure there are ones who are not, but any who are high profile or have a large following are Sovereign. Most didn’t even speak against the vaccine, so there you go.”

Bill: I agree, most are garbage. I don’t see them being a threat at all to the system or cabal. John Hagee is one, we don’t even have to look him up to know he’s one. They’re all compromised. Anyway, what about Julian Assange and Ron Paul? We had a few inquires for both.

Gideon: “My guys didn’t check on Ron Paul. I would safely put him in at least Common class. As for Assange, he is Quarantined.”

Bill: They hate Assange.

Gideon: “They do. He has no protections. We don’t think he’s like Epstein.”

Bill: We need to talk about him. You were saying Epstein has an active account?

Gideon: “He does, Sovereign, of course, with in-flows.”

Bill: He’s alive?

Gideon: “We can’t conclude that, because the in-flows are coming from shell companies. Same with Trump. We can’t determine if it’s him making the deposits or someone else. The only way we could know is if my guys had access to the financial software, but they don’t. They’re not authorized. They work on CSRQ, which is primarily for the class status and social credit tracking. It only interacts and interfaces with this separate financial software, the block chain based one.”

Bill: Right, they can’t really see under the hood, so to speak, of the financial module. So, why would he have an account at all? He’s supposed to be dead.

Gideon: "It doesn't add up. He's the only one who will, or should have any access to this account after the Reset."

Bill: I'm worried we'll get criticized for saying he's alive with no proof.

Gideon: "We're not saying he's alive. We're saying he has an active Sovereign account and there are in-flows. That's not proof he's alive, one way or another. If you see agents accusing us of this, remind them, we are not saying he's alive."

Bill: I will. It will be a fruitless exercise since they're agents, but I will. Anyway, I have people asking about a lot of politicians, like Jacinda Ardern.

Gideon: "Bill, if they had a status or class higher than Sovereign, she would be in it. People need to realize almost everyone on television, in a position of power, in the media, in government or celebrities, they are Sovereign!"

Bill: I know, I know. There's few exceptions.

Gideon: "If they're not already, they're preparing accounts for them! They've got them lined up. If you're talking about someone on the periphery, or someone who built up their empire from the ground up, they are going to be approached! And most will take it!"

Would you turn down Sovereign if you were told what was coming? If you were told if you refuse it, you will be Quarantined? Think of what that means, Bill!"

Bill: I know. Imagine. Let's say, you're Mike Adams. We don't know about him yet, so we're not assuming anything. For argument's sake, let's say Mike Adams is Restricted or something, and he's approached and they offer him the Sovereign status. What's he going to say?

Gideon: "Most say yes. If they say no, they are told they are Quarantined and they are threatened not to talk about it or they will be killed."

Bill: Do you think anyone's turned it down? Do we know if anyone has?

Gideon: "Maybe someone has. We don't have evidence of that. Those would be backroom, encrypted discussions. The only way to know is if someone got an offer, then exposed it. They would probably be killed or eliminated before it ever got out. They are closely monitored, we think, if they refuse Sovereign status."

Bill: I guess it's hard to judge them too harshly. They're put between a rock and a hard place.

Gideon: "We also have to hope they will take Sovereign status then do something good with it on the other side of this. But that's very wishful thinking. You have to realize, these people think they are still doing good!"

Bill: Right, because they're allowed to still speak some truths.

Gideon: "Yes! They're allowed to still do their thing, Bill. It's not like they stop being themselves. They just can't talk about certain things, say certain things, and during and after the Reset, they're going to have to follow a special script. Russell Brand is doing this! Everyone is following him and thinks he's a truth-teller. Don't you get it, they want that!"

Bill: They need their pied pipers speaking truth. Controlled opposition gatekeepers.

Gideon: "They will be so important after the Reset, to keep people calm and get them to accept this new slavery. They will also be instrumental in covering up that there is a Sovereign class that exists! Remember, they are going to pretend to be Common class."

Bill: Incredible how complex and layered it all is.

Gideon: "You can't take people like Brand at face value! And listen to me when I say this, even if these guys have some plan in the back of their minds like we do to sabotage this, they might not. They might get soft."

Look at the life you will have after the Reset if you're Sovereign! Incredible wealth, access to the best food, freedom, no vaccination requirement. Who is going to walk from that? Who is going to risk it all? They aren't risking it all now to stop the system, why would they then?"

Bill: I see what they're doing. They're making Sovereign status so appealing that no one is going to turn it down.

Gideon: "They want their lives as Sovereigns to be Heaven, and they want Hell for the rest of us. Look at what you get if you're not Sovereign, you get your assets taken, you're forced to eat bugs, you get a drone that shows up to shoot a vaccine into you, you get fined if you dare speak against the system. It's dystopian but it's real, Bill.

First, they predictive programmed people for this with Black Mirror and ton of other Hollywood and TV productions, so people are anaesthetized to it. Then they just pulled off a huge vaccine hoax and genocide, now they're moving on to the next phase. Once you choke people financially, they will do anything for a meal. It's scary how fine-tuned this is, how real this is becoming each passing day.

So your life, if you're not a Sovereign, will be Hell, but they will try to make you think you're happy. They're going to hide the Sovereign status from the world. It's classified. So if you don't know that even exists, you might even think your status as a Common is a decent life."

Bill: That's what people forget. No one will know about Sovereign status. I think there's an allusion here to Plato's cave. If you don't know what you could have, you aren't going to make a fuss.

Gideon: "If after the Reset the public knew about Sovereign, it would be harder for them to pull this off. Of course, word will get out, there will be some rumours. But with the financial system, CSRQ, and the Internet censorship more robust, it will be very hard to get the word out."

Bill: Sovereign gives you full human rights, or I guess it just removes all the restrictions placed on everyone else. I guess the only freedom you don't have is to speak about being Sovereign and speak against the system.

Gideon: "Yes, those would be the two, somewhat unwritten exceptions. If you violate those two, you're dead."

Bill: How quickly are you dead?

Gideon: "Within two to three hours."

Bill: By drone?

Gideon: "Most likely."

Bill: What's our plan, then?

Gideon: "You know what it is, Bill. I know you're preparing this for public release, so for those reading, sometimes Bill asks rhetorical questions he already knows the answer to. We do have a plan."

Bill: True, I do that. To make it more readable, I guess. Anyway. We're not going to be like the others, and get used to the lifestyle.

Gideon: "No, we're not. We would never sit around and watch our friends and family get force vaccinated. We will have a short window, about one or two months. That's how long the lower classes can hold out until the drones come to inject them."

Bill: We will have one or two months to destroy them from within.

Gideon: "Yes."

Bill: This is why I think we need more Sovereigns. You and me, and our little group, I don't see how we can do it.

Gideon: "I know. I told you, we have a plan on that. It's important you find the right people. If they're on your Telegram or in the Inner Circle, when you get that going, or they've emailed you, that's a start."

Bill: How do we tell them?

Gideon: "It's going to be a quick notice then taken down. We don't want the people who pay no attention, we want the people who are engaged. You've seen all these people who don't read anything you post, we don't want them at all."

Bill: No, I don't like them. They're always pestering me with questions but didn't even bother to read anything. It takes up so much of my time! Anyway, once we bring in the right people, they will go through the process I went through. A process I liked, I felt safe with it.

Gideon: "It's our back up plan, our insurance. I know you talk about losing money if we beat them, but you won't. If we defeat them, you'll get your money back that you turned into USDR, I'm sure of it."

Bill: True, if we expose them and destroy them, I think all these fusion centres and this software will be exposed. I'm not worried about it, but yes, I think I would get my money back. I expect it. I'll help with the investigation.

Gideon: "It's a win-win scenario. We're going to expose this and defeat them. If for some reason we fail to do that, we're going to destroy them after the Reset once it's all in place."

Bill: I feel good about our chances. Are you still one hundred percent on your men?

Gideon: "I am. They're with us. Bill, they see it everyday, they know how evil it is. They'll never accept it. They want to fight. They need us, we need them."

Bill: What about these people who say we shouldn't have gone public. That we're going to get caught.

Gideon: "We had to go public to stop this! There's no way we could sit on our hands. There's no way we could just wait until the Reset, then plan some sabotage. We had to get this out there! It's wrong to hide this from people, just to keep our own asses safe!"

Bill: I'm glad we went over this today. What about the other articles, you seemed to want me to hold off on them?

Gideon: "I know what's in them and it's going to be hard for people to take. Maybe go with the Q Anon one, that one's fine. That one is some tough love, some hard medicine. We have to stop these cults. We're not just battling the cabal now, we're battling all the cults the cabal made to control the opposition. We're sadly in a battle against our own people, who've been brainwashed."

Bill: Brainwashed with hopium.

Gideon: "Yes, this idea, 'Some good guys somewhere are doing something, so I can just sit on the Internet and feel good.' It's completely infantile. It's not reality. We're up against the most evil cabal the world has ever known, and meanwhile people are buying fake Trump Bucks and fake Trump Gold Cards. Klaus [Schwab] must be laughing his ass off at how easy this is."

Bill: I bet he's laughing at that, for sure. It's just sad to see our people being so stupid, following all of these gatekeepers. Worshipping them. Worshipping someone like Phil Godlewski, a convicted child predator!

Gideon: "One thing the cabal loves is to get our good people, the people on our side, to fall in love with their own, controlled, corrupt men and women. They want people like you and me worshipping their own. But we never will. That's why you've got hackers trying to break into your site and ten or fifteen agents trying to destroy your Telegram. If we get escalated, then we have to worry about being totally silenced. Can you see why it's so hard to break through all this noise and get the truth out?"

Bill: It's almost impossible. The cabal has rigged this all in their favour, top to bottom. We're not going to give up.

Gideon: "No, we're not, but we can't do it alone. If the people reading this don't do anything, we lose and the Reset will happen. Then we have to go to our back-up plan. There's no guarantee it will work, but that will be our very last chance to save the world."

Note: There are instances Gideon will alter or change small, usually unimportant details. This does not mean he is being deceptive. This is a method of obfuscation to protect his men.

INTEL DROP #05 - WE'VE GOTTEN THE ATTENTION OF THE CABAL

A quote by Gideon on a starry space background. The text is in white, bold, sans-serif font, centered on a dark blue and black background filled with stars and nebulae. The quote reads: "THE CABAL HATES THAT WE ARE EXPOSING THEIR FALSE IDOLS, THEIR SOVEREIGN PUPPETS."

Friday – July 23, 2022

We just sent out our first email newsletter and miraculously it got sent without any problems.

We can't say the same for people trying to post our information. YouTube, Banned.Video and Brighteon are engaging in outright shadow banning. Any mention of our website or the terms "CSRQ" or "WeAreSovereign" seems to result in the comment being deleted.

I spoke with Gideon about this, and a lot of other things going on. Here's our conversation.

Bill: A week ago you were telling me we would get escalated. We would see the lower level agents replaced with better trained ones. We would also see a plateau, as they put us at Level 3 and started to shadow-ban us. It's all happening like you said.

Gideon: "It is, and I'd rather not be right."

Bill: I feel like when we went pretty hard exposing the Sovereigns, that escalated us.

Gideon: "It did."

Bill: Here's what my gut says. This is a huge, huge operation they're doing, I mean with CSRQ. It's hard for me to believe a leak would never happen. They've got twenty fusion centres and thousands working on it. So, my train of thought here is that I bet they were going to do a drip-drip release of info using their gatekeepers at some point, but never include the Sovereign part.

Gideon: "You are more right than you know."

Bill: We got way ahead of the story. They did not expect us to show up on the scene.

Gideon: "No, they didn't. They might have talked about CSRQ at some point. Have you noticed some of the foreshadowing they put out there? I've seen more than a few Alt Media types refer to 'Sovereign'. They do stuff like that. I've seen some subtle references, plus they are going on and on about this Quantum financial system, which is hopium nonsense but parallels CSRQ."

Bill: I've seen it, too. But what would happen is they would release the CSRQ story in a controlled operation. "Hey, the Deep State is making this software, and it's bad, it's got these three classes, Common, Restricted and Quarantined." They would leave out Sovereign, they wouldn't mention it!

Gideon: "That's exactly what they would do."

Bill: I can't believe how scared some of these Alt Media people are. Talk about more of a confirmation. I even had a few people write me, ask questions, ask for an interview, and then silence.

Gideon: "They might not have been Sovereigns, Bill, but then someone got to them, or told them, 'Back off.' Maybe said their channels would get deleted if they went with the story, something like that."

Bill: I believe it, because the line of communication just went dead. They were interested, then they were just gone.

Gideon: "The rest are Sovereigns. They won't touch this, and they will try to shadow-ban it."

Bill: A lot of people are telling us they've having some troubling posting our links and certain terms are banned. Why do you think we're still here? Why haven't they gone to Level 5 and just erased us?

Gideon: "We're close to that. I think they are doing some data-mining, and they want to find out who we are, and who the whistle-blowers are. Keeping this all up, from their perspective, might be something they think will help them."

Bill: On the data mining, you mean they want to see how Common classes react to this?

Gideon: "I think so. Most of our people are going to be Restricted or Quarantined, I doubt they care about their reactions, they know what they will be. But I bet they have a keen interest on how Commons will react, people who might not be into conspiracies or know much about the Great Reset."

Bill: Hmm, while they data mine, we can at least get the word out.

Gideon: "For now, we can, and we need to push even harder."

Bill: When do you think they were going use their gatekeepers to talk about CSRQ?

Gideon: "My guess is this Fall, if they were going to. We don't know if they were, we suspect it, we're theorizing here. But yes, this Fall probably. Whether or not we screwed up any plans they had to gate-keep this, we don't know for sure. What I do know is they never, ever wanted the Sovereign part of this to come out."

Bill: They wanted to gate-keep it and never, ever let that out.

Gideon: “That’s what they do, they release some truth, and hold back on other truths they don’t want out.”

Bill: It’s everything. They do this with everything!

Gideon: “They’ve done it with 9/11, the secret space program, the Moon missions, secret world history. They release eighty percent truth, then hide the twenty percent they don’t want anyone knowing. Then they prop up their Sovereigns, their gatekeepers, and get everyone believing those people are telling them the truth.”

Bill: With the Sovereign class out of the bag and in the open, what’s going on now? What are they doing now?

Gideon: “Other than the cabal coming after us, all of their Sovereigns in the Alt Media are going to go in lock-down mode to block our information on CSQR. They’ll act like we don’t exist.

But, be prepared for this, they might try to co-opt it. Maybe steal it and act like it’s their own then twist it all around, or try to discredit us, then take up the cause. I wouldn’t put that past them. Expect every trick in the book.”

Bill: Another thing we noticed is how crazy the Alt Media gatekeepers are acting lately. They are going hardcore on hopium like I’ve never seen, and their sales pitches are off the charts. What’s going on?

Gideon: “They’re in a mad scramble to fill up their USDR accounts. I told Michael, it’s an all out blitz to sell, sell, sell products to make fiat then turn it into USDR.”

Bill: I’m seeing it, too. Every Alt Media person is selling something, “Buy this, sign up here, click this.” It’s nuts. I’ve never seen them going this crazy. You can’t turn on a video before three seconds into you’re being sold on something.

Gideon: “That’s because a lot of them just turned Sovereign, Bill. They were approached, and they took the deal. They turned. Then they were told everything. Everything about the Reset, what’s coming, the advantages of being Sovereign.”

Bill: They want the USDR.

Gideon: “They do. They’re looking at this and saying, ‘Ok, I’ve got $15,000 in savings. If I can do a hard sell, a hard scam, in some cases, I can make, say, $60,000 in a few months, and turn that into $2.5 Million USDR.' That's just an example of what some of them are thinking."

Bill: It's just all out greed in preparation for the Reset.

Gideon: "They have a window of time to do that, so they are doing it. It looks like six months to eight months to me. The economy will keep sputtering, then there will be an inflection point, an acceleration. Then the collapse, and then the Reset.

They all know this, so now is their time to scam as many people as they can and fill up their USDR accounts."

Bill: They're all doing it. Every, last one of them. All of the Q Anon leaders. All of the hopium-pushers. All of the big Telegram groups. All of the YouTubers. All of the NESARA/GESARA, QFS'ers. It's all just them selling and selling.

Gideon: "People have to make a living, but they are going overboard right now. It's not right. We know why they're doing it. It's not right."

Bill: By watching their behaviour, we can get an idea of what's coming.

Gideon: "We can, and these groups, like the Q Anon groups, the GESARA groups, the QFS groups, they make this very, very easy for the cabal. Very easy. Of course, we know they are working for the cabal, but even if they weren't, they just hurt the cause with this lunacy."

Bill: They do. It's delusional. Their claims are fantasy. I read it everyday. There's a post from JFK Jr. going around saying, "The military's in charge, don't worry, wait a little longer." It's crazy.

Gideon: "A lot of these people started out on the right track, Bill. Investigating Pizza Gate, which is real. Sandy Hook, a staged event. Looking at the pedophiles in the government ranks, of which there are many. Then the gatekeepers came in and steered it all away from that, and steered people into believing nonsense."

Bill: If people would just listen to what we are saying and realize most of the people they trust are Sovereign, their whole house of cards would come crashing down. But instead, people just feed all their energy and money into these gatekeepers!

Gideon: "It would all end tomorrow if people just stopped giving these Sovereigns everything, their time, money, attention. It's a matter of whether people care enough to fight for this, Bill. For what we're trying to do and expose. We can only do so much."

Bill: You talked before about us hitting a plateau, or ceiling, I feel like we're seeing that now.

Gideon: "We've been escalated. This is where they do the shadow banning. So yes, it's happening."

Bill: Michael was pretty depressed today. He's down. I'm a little down. The Telegram was getting really negative, it has to be agents.

Gideon: "Take a deep breath and pause for a moment. We've accomplished a lot in just a little over a week. And don't let Telegram get you down. You have a lot of good people on your side, focus on them."

Bill: Good, thank you, we will. There are a ton of good people!

Gideon: "They're the ones who matter. Give them your positive energy, ignore the noise-makers and agents. Their job isn't to just bring us down, Bill, their job is to destroy us. Give them no quarter."

Bill: We're just going to get happier with the ban hammer. The arguing, the back and forth, it just wastes time. They're not there for answers, at all.

Gideon: "The last thing they care about is getting answers. They just want to frustrate you, waste time, ask the same questions over and over. They know they could read the articles, but they don't. They're not interested in the truth. If they were, they would just read what you've posted!"

Bill: I'm done engaging. I told Michael, if they don't read the articles first, we're not going to sit there and spend all day babysitting them. They can ask them after they inform themselves.

Gideon: "Smart, I like it. Stick with that."

Bill: We will. So, people are asking about USDR and Sovereigns. Let's cover some questions I'm getting.

Gideon: "Ok."

Bill: If you're a Sovereign, your children under 18 are Sovereign, too, correct?

Gideon: "Yes, same for all classes. Your class extends to your children. Usually a husband and wife will be in the same class, but not always. If you are Sovereign, however, you are almost always in the same class as your spouse."

Bill: After age 18, then the social score activates?

Gideon: "They actually activate it at the age of 10. Before that, there's no score."

Bill: That's very young. I guess they want the control and manipulation to start early.

Gideon: "We are already seeing it, with this push with transgenderism and sexualizing kids at a very young age. Once they have their Reset, expect that all to go into overdrive."

Bill: Will they make paedophilia legal?

Gideon: "I don't know, but I think if this Reset happens, they will absolutely decriminalize it."

Bill: God, they're sick.

Gideon: "We're up against monsters maybe not even of this world."

Bill: What about the monthly stipend. Everyone over 18 gets that?

Gideon: "Yes, 18 and over. Under 18, they don't get anything at all. If they have no parents or anyone to help them, they will have some programs for those people. I'm not expecting homelessness will be widespread. They want everyone vaccinated and caught up in their social tracking.

The kids without anything, they'll experiment on them, put them in big dormitories full of Metaverse stuff and drugs they'll put in them. They'll give them some nice stuff so they kids think it's cool, but it's just all there for experimentation. Long-term, they want to break up the family, and they want the older people to have fake virtual babies and families.

They'll also try to get the younger kids to legally separate from their parents, you'll see more of that being pushed. Kids as young as ten or twelve being told, 'You can legally separate from your parents, why don't you do that.'"

Bill: It's beyond heinous. And we haven't touched on the vaccines.

Gideon: "We need to. Let's have something separate, maybe a different article we can talk about what they plan. I'm not talking about the Covid vaccines or the fake pandemic, I mean what they are planning for the future."

Bill: We'll do that. It's so many topics. I guess we need to try to stay focused on one at a time.

Gideon: "It's overwhelming for people. We need to break it down into topics as best we can, and let people know how emotionally draining this is to hear. This is devastating for people. I already know the truth, and talking about it with you, it drains me."

Bill: This is why hope, or hopium works. People need it.

Gideon: "They do, very badly. But people also have to be strong, too. This is a time to draw upon strength inside of ourselves, and strength from God."

Bill: I've had people still saying this can't work. It's impossible. They could never do it.

Gideon: "It's important people realize this can't happen now. It couldn't happen five years ago. It couldn't happen at any point our well-oiled capitalistic system was working."

Bill: They need a collapse.

Gideon: "The collapse serves them in many ways. It completely absolves the debt, the Trillions in debt. It resets it. It allows them to concentrate all their wealth into one currency, in this case, USDR. It allows them to siphon it all off. It allows them to buy up land and resources cheaper. It's just this mass consolidation and transition into worldwide Communism."

Bill: People need to study Communism to understand this.

Gideon: “They do. Can it work? Probably not forever. Communism usually fails, eventually. But this cabal might get a good thirty or forty years out of it, and during that time kill Billions of people and plunge this world into slavery.”

Bill: Even if it fails, they can still try something else, feudalism, totalitarianism, a dictatorship.

Gideon: “And they will, they won’t hesitate. It’s going to be a mixture of those things, too, with heavy propaganda.”

Bill: You will own nothing and be happy.

Gideon: “The be happy part is interesting. It means they aren’t attempting to put us all in some big, miserable prison. They want to get rid of free-thinkers like you and me, and the rest, they want to experiment on, while they feed them Metaverse fantasies and give them drugs and vaccines.”

Bill: A lot of the Hollywood stuff the past decade has alluded to this.

Gideon: “It’s not even that, they have directly told us what they want, Bill. They’ve said it publicly over and over. They are trans-humanists. They want to create a new race of humans, sort of half human, half nano-injected, half machine, half cyborg, all under their control.”

Bill: They want us to just be rats in a cage.

Gideon: “They want us all in ‘smart’ cities, packed together, watched, monitored, fed drugs, hooked up to VR devices, living out Metaverse fantasies most of the day.”

Bill: Some people will think this is a good life.

Gideon: “They will. But you can’t forget, vaccination is mandatory. You have no free speech. Little freedom of movement. No assets. For a person of a free mind, it can never be OK for them. For the average Leftist, it will be good, they’ll be content. They want to be controlled.”

Bill: We’re not just facing the cabal, we’re facing a horde of brainwashed Americans and Europeans who will think this is all a great thing.

Gideon: “They’ll be told they’re saving the planet.”

Bill: Are they?

Gideon: “There are much smarter ways to save the environment. Reducing CO2 is idiotic, and not even based on actual science. Meanwhile, the oceans fill up with these Covid masks, and the electric car batteries are an environmental nightmare.”

Bill: They could release the free energy secrets, but they never will.

Gideon: “All of their control would be gone in an instant if they did that, so no, they never will.”

Bill: When I look at this, I see how exposing the Sovereigns is very scary for them, because that brings in the Leftists. The Leftists won't like that.

Gideon: “They will be against it. Because this will be sold as a way for all of us to come together, get rid of the greedy, rich capitalists who caused the collapse, and all be equal.”

Bill: The Sovereigns will pretend to be Common. They'll hide their true wealth. Can they really pull that off?

Gideon: “Only with CSQR. Not now, Bill, the world is too free. But after the collapse, and once all this in place, they will be able to control information and control people. Remember, if you go online and say, ‘I think these politicians and celebrities are hiding all their money,’ you will get fined and put into the R class, and so on. Then you will shut up after that.”

Bill: But some people won't.

Gideon: “Drones will pay them a visit.”

Bill: I've had a lot of people push back against the drones, they say it's not possible. They say we're wrong about the drones.

Gideon: “They are either agents or unbelievably uninformed, maybe wilfully ignorant. The drone tech is extremely advanced even in the civilian sector. Anyone can look that up. But isn't interesting, Bill, how it isn't talked about much?”

Bill: I don't hear about it much. I mean, it's there, but it's not something you see highlighted often, in terms of how amazing these drones are.

Gideon: "It's sort of passed off as a non-threat, or not a potential threat. People just think, 'Oh, drones are used for little flying competitions, or maybe a mountain rescue.' It's so naive. The drones are a battlefield upgrade akin to going from the musket to the semiautomatic rifle, maybe a bigger leap. Maybe more like TNT to nuclear weapons."

Bill: The people who say nukes don't exist won't like that analogy.

Gideon: "We can't please everyone."

Bill: Back to the drones. This is really a big deal. The agents don't like you talking about it.

Gideon: "No, it's a huge secret. It's top secret, classified programs. The tech is way, way beyond what we see, what they let us see. Twenty years ahead. The drones are incredibly fast, powerful and equipped with high tech weapons."

Bill: I have the film, the Slaughterbots film, how accurate do you think this is?

Gideon: "I have very good reason to believe that little short film was made on purpose and is predictive programming. The budget is, well, a lot. It took a lot to make that. It is very interesting. People need to watch it and think about it."

Bill: Is there any defence against these?

Gideon: "Sort of. A home microwave can be dismantled and turned into what's called a HERF, or high energy radio frequency weapon. Not easy to make. Not guaranteed to work. Not guaranteed to stop a swarm. Bill, don't you think DARPA with a budget of Trillions didn't do a little research into this?"

Bill: You mean the measures that might be used to stop drones?

Gideon: "Yes."

Bill: I'm sure they did. So they are ready for what might get thrown at them?

Gideon: "More than ready. And what have preppers been doing, Bill? Have they been preparing for drones?"

Bill: No.

Gideon: "No. Precisely. They're preparing for other threats, and convinced guns are going to work. Guns aren't going to stop anything. Nothing. I wonder who has been pushing the guns, well, the gate keepers have."

Bill: God, people can't hear that. People can't believe that. Americans love their guns.

Gideon: "It's sticks and stones up against Terminators."

Bill: You're getting into the area of doom and gloom and people are not going to like you.

Gideon: "We wouldn't be here, in this situation, if Americans had cleaned out their corrupt government twenty or thirty years ago, maybe further back than that. Maybe the JFK assassination. Maybe WWII. Hell, World War I. All of Washington D.C. should have been hung up by the lampposts ten times over by now."

Bill: Americans were distracted, lazy, scared, no fight, I guess.

Gideon: "Just too easily duped by the media apparatus and the gatekeepers they worship."

Bill: What do you think of January 6th?

Gideon: "Well, other than the fact it was a Fed op, I think it showed how scared they are of Americans actually doing something. They acted like it was worse than Pearl Harbor. Their den of villainy and thievery got stomped on a little bit. They are very, very upset somebody went into their house of ill-repute and knocked some things over."

Bill: They wanted to make an example of anyone who might think of overthrowing their corrupt cabal.

Gideon: "Exactly. We all know, Americans could march into D.C. and take it all back, but they've now been bullied. If you so much as raise a fist, you might get thrown into Federal prison."

Bill: It's sad, and pathetic.

Gideon: "The country's lost, Bill. Canada's got more guts. Some of these European countries got more fight in them. These third world places are more free."

Bill: I feel sorry for Americans. It's not going to go well for them.

Gideon: "America and Europe will get smashed from all this, the collapse, I mean. It will be horrible in those places. It will be hell. Maybe for a few weeks, maybe a few months, but hell. Like Sri Lanka, but worse."

Bill: Then they come in as saviours with their Reset and new plan, and free money.

Gideon: "And mandatory vaccines."

Bill: But people will be so scared and desperate, they'll go for it.

Gideon: "They will. We need to stop it now."

Bill: We have to. We have got to get this information out.

Gideon: "I don't want it to come to our back up plan. Let's just nip this in the bud. If we can keep pushing, we'll get there. Just keep pushing each and every day. We need to reach a tipping point, a saturation point. Where enough people see this, the cat is out of the bag and the cabal has to change plans. For me, it's around 50 million views, it could be 40 million, or we might need 60 million. We have a goal, let's reach it!"

INTEL DROP #06 - HUGE USDR INFLOWS SEEN

MOVING THE WORLD'S FIAT WEALTH INTO USDR BEHIND THE SCENES."

- Gideon

Sunday – July 24, 2022

First off, Michael and I have gotten a lot of emails. I wanted to let everyone know, you're not being ignored. We're planning to respond to everyone personally this upcoming week. We've read them all by now and we appreciate all of your support.

We've had a lot of questions about USDR, so I wanted to focus my conversations with Gideon the past day on this topic and the economy.

Bill: When we get into USDR and how they're doing this, I feel like this conversation could go on forever. Let's just start with some basics. What is USDR? What does it stand for?

Gideon: "It's the new one world digital currency. It isn't backed by gold. As far as we can tell, it's going to be backed by the existing fiat wealth being poured into it as we speak."

Bill: Some people are saying it's like the IMF's SDR, Special Drawing Rights, or that it might stand for Universal Special Drawing Rights.

Gideon: "That's in the ballpark of what we think it is. We're not certain on the name, it may be changed. People need to realize almost all fiat transactions go through the BIS, so that is the head of the beast. The IMF is secondary to the BIS. I hope that's understood."

Bill: Ok. As for the name, it's probably not that important. You said they had seen SDR and XDR in the documentation. Does XDR refer to the crypto coin of the same name?

Gideon: "No. No existing crypto is being utilized here whatsoever."

Bill: Ok. We are seeing all this talk about the BRICS currencies. What's real?

Gideon: "BRICS are subject to the BIS, so it's moot. The nation-states are subject to the BIS, including Russia and China. All the political manoeuvring and statecraft is ultimately subject to what the bankers and wealthiest families at the top decree and declare."

They usually like a war going on, too, at any given time. Once Afghanistan wound- down, so China can move in there and take over, they fired things up in Ukraine. So there's always, always a war, Bill.

The last thing they want is anyone knowing what's really going on. So their Sovereign agents pump out a ton of stories about 'this or that' or the 'next big thing' in crypto. Everything in the mainstream media is lies."

Bill: What about China and Russia and this bi-polar world they are making?

Gideon: "It's nonsense and misdirection. It's sort of this Cold War rehash. It's not just meant for us, Bill, things like that are meant for international bankers and business people who will not become Sovereigns. It's meant to deceive them."

Bill: Ah, ok, that makes sense. There's only going to be 8 Million Sovereigns, so a ton of rich and powerful people will be left out in the cold.

Gideon: "Their assets will be seized and they will become Common class."

Bill: They're not expecting riots from these people?

Gideon: "No. It's not in their nature to do that. There will be a lot of grumbling, discontent, fights with the wife in their mansions they lost, but not much will come of it. And there will be suicides, a lot of them."

Bill: Will they get to stay and live in their mansions?

Gideon: "At first. They'll pay some kind of base rent, $500 a month. They'll be on a tight budget, working with their $1000 per month. A husband and wife, it's $2000. It's enough to live on, but their lifestyles will be drastically pulled back."

Bill: We'll get back to USDR, but what happens to the luxury industry, if these people are pulled out of it?

Gideon: "You need rewire your brain to see the world differently. This is Communism. The top of the top in Communist nations live very, very well. The luxuries don't go away, but they are concentrated. The luxury industries will still exist, but they will be downsized, to serve this small, elite class."

All the top CEOs of the biggest companies are Sovereigns and they're in on this and agreed to it, even if it means a restructuring of their business models."

Bill: People are asking me where we can find the USDR blockchain?

Gideon: "It's not public. It's classified. That kind of thing won't be anything even some of the best hackers can find."

Bill: But they're saying to me, "Let's hire some hackers."

Gideon: "That's like saying, 'Let's hack the CIA.' Forget it. If it could be done, it would be done."

Bill: Is this why the crypto in-flows go to dead wallets?

Gideon: "Bill, you might want to take a step back and explain that if this is going into your blog."

Bill: Right. When the in-flows come in, you send crypto to an address and it just sits there. There's nothing we can glean from that. I did that, and we looked at the address but we can't learn anything from it.

Gideon: "No, you can't. It's very smart how they are doing this. When the Sovereigns are sending in crypto to get USDR, the crypto goes to a newly generated address and there's no way to find out who created it, where it was created, nothing."

Bill: Then they take what was put in, and issue USDR at the 1:43 ratio within the CSRQ software. Is that right?

Gideon: "Mostly right. It's not really CSRQ, it's another module that handles the financial side of this, but that's about right. There's no way for an outside person to go look at the USDR. It's a closed system and classified. Only our whistle blowers can access it and see what's going on."

Bill: So when someone sends in crypto, it automatically generates USDR in the Sovereign's account?

Gideon: "Correct, instantly."

Bill: It's not much different from depositing into Coinbase, then, right?

Gideon: "Conceptually, yes, it's the same thing, except Coinbase's code and methods are more public, of course. Easier to see or watch. With this, it's behind a closed, sealed system. Eventually, it will go public, after the Reset."

Bill: After the Reset, will hackers be able to mess with it?

Gideon: "Not anymore than they can mess with DoD, NSA or CIA firewalled, top secret systems now."

Bill: I'm getting the picture. It's well-protected.

Gideon: "It has to be."

Bill: You've talked about the in-flows. You said you're seeing people who are newly-minted Sovereigns, like Alt Media people, going crazy converting into USDR?

Gideon: "They are, it's the sales blitz we talked about last time. They know the fiat will be worth nothing soon, so they want to [make as much fiat as they can and] move it into USDR.

They aren't like the other super-rich Sovereigns, either. We're talking about medium-level influencers in the alternative media who've recently been flipped. Once they learn what's going to happen, they go nuts trying to get all their fiat into USDR. Meanwhile, the super-wealthy are just slow and steady, moving it into USDR over the past eight months."

Bill: Interesting. And this is draining the current economy of liquidity? What's the effect its having?

Gideon: "We were talking about Blackrock, how they were saying they lost $1.7 Trillion the past six months. That's laughable, but really confirms what's going on."

Bill: It does, it backs up what you've been saying. I saw another story about some trader losing $50 million. I realize the economy's not doing well, but some of these losses seem overblown. And of course with China, you see a total unwinding going on there.

Gideon: "You will see more of this, and they will lie about why the money was lost! They'll keep making excuses why money is vanishing. They don't want anyone connecting the dots to USDR. They're all getting wildly rich. After the Reset, the wealth will concentrate like nothing seen in history."

Bill: What's the reason for the high ratio of 1:43?

Gideon: "We're not sure. It seems to have to do with how they will restructure the economy. The buying power of the monthly stipend everyone will get will be stronger than the buying power of, say, the Euro and US Dollar now. Inflation will be eliminated.

Goods and services will be price-controlled. The wealth of the top Sovereigns will be astronomical, into the the many Trillions. Anyone who is Sovereign is poised to become wildly rich.

There also seems to be a factor whereby they expect the USDR to be very stable in value. I don't think going forward they are going to become much more rich, they are just going to stay rich. Concepts like bonds, interest rates, that may go away. We think they are restructuring everything in terms of the economy and how money is valued. It will be more stable. But the average person won't benefit much, they will have zero chance of gaining wealth. They will just have a baseline of stability."

Bill: For many who are more poor, this is probably a boost for them.

Gideon: "It is, but they have to get vaccinated, which wipes out any benefit for the poor."

Bill: It's horrible. Whatever good the cabal does, they erase that good with something evil.

Gideon: "I don't think they are capable of good."

Bill: I know you have to go and we can't talk long today. I'm glad we covered all of this, though. I still have a lot of questions from people we need to cover in the future. Is there anything you want to say before we go?

Gideon: "We were talking about how many people we've reached. It's around 1 Million who have seen this information by now. That's really good, but we can't slow down. Keep pushing people to read, to learn and then engage."

Bill: I'll do my best. It's overwhelming. I've been spent physically and mentally the past week. We talked about this, but, I guess I want people to know. You think I'm being electronically attacked?

Gideon: "The cabal loves to electronically gang-stalk people and ruin their lives, it happens all the time. But they don't know where you are, Bill, they can't find you. So I'm not sure. It could just be the information is bringing you down. Be sure to rest well and take time off."

Bill: I'm trying to. What if they do find me?

Gideon: "Well, you know what the outcome is. You knew that from the start."

Bill: I did. I accept it.

Gideon: "They don't know where you are and they won't figure it out."

Bill: Good. We laid enough traps to keep them busy, I think.

Gideon: "We did. This is what I did for most of my career. I know what I'm doing."

Bill: Ok, we'll talk soon. We need to get to the drones next.

Gideon: "Yes, because people are in total denial about it. Total denial. The drones and robotics they have developed are a huge threat to the world, and no one is discussing it. No one. Because they're all Sovereigns."

Bill: God help us, we are up against so much.

Gideon: "We are. Don't give up. Each and every day, we will whittle away at their lies and we will hopefully grow in numbers and support."

INTEL DROP #07 - UPDATE ON THE CSRQ WHISTLE BLOWERS

LIVES EVERYDAY.
SCARED THEY WILL GET FOUND OUT.”

- Gideon

Wednesday – July 27, 2022

In today's intel drop, we are going to first go over some of the incredible confirmations that are coming in, showing everything we are reporting is true. We can't even keep up with all of it, so we'll just cover a sample of the news.

Australia has now removed the Dollar symbol ($) on official documents and replaced it with a placeholder. You can view that in this Telegram video here. They are preparing for a new one world digital currency that will have a new symbol.

What looked like a win for humanity in Sri Lanka, after their president was kicked out of the country, has turned out to be a win for the WEF. They have installed one of their own to rule, and they are now making people use QR codes linked to their identity to get gas. As suspected, Sri Lanka was just a “test” run for what’s coming for the rest of us.

Something else that backs up our own reporting also came to light. An excellent undercover video has been posted that is required viewing for anyone who is supporting us.

The video shows child predator and Q Anon leader Phil Godlewski talking to his team of agents. He openly discusses that they are agents, calls them agents, and their job is to lie and manipulate. Everything Gideon ever said about agents is confirmed here. Watch it. It is chilling, and will give you an inside look on how these operations work.

To learn more about agents, I posted this article, “How To Spot An Agent – Common Tactics & Strategies.”

Now we'll begin today's discussion with Gideon.

You may want to calm your mind, grab a coffee and prepare yourself mentally, as always. Gideon can be intense, but he is always illuminating and informative. (If you have trouble reading a black screen with white lettering, try turning down your screen brightness.)

Some of what is below has been curated and drawn from conversations over the past few weeks. And as always, thank you to Michael for helping edit and clean this up.

Bill: We haven't talked a lot about your guys, not in the detail that I know we can. I was wondering if you're ready to reveal anything more?

Gideon: "Protecting them comes first. That's always been my first priority above all else, so yes, I guess it's true, we haven't gone into a lot of detail."

Bill: I know you can't give out anything that would identify them. Can you talk about, in general terms, their day to day and what it's like working on this?

Gideon: "Yes, but let me preface all of this. People need to realize they are in an active position. They are not guys who worked on something, then got out of it, found a safe place to hide, and years later blew the whistle."

History is not kind to whistle blowers of any stripe. They are treated poorly. In many cases, we never hear from them because they are killed. In other cases, they are attacked, discredited and their careers destroyed. Or they are imprisoned. Chelsea Manning, Gary Webb, Susan Lindauer all come to mind, all railroaded for exposing U.S. government corruption.

So being a whistle blower is not a fun thing. It's not easy. It puts you under intense pressure. If you're found out, you're either dead or going to prison, or you're going to be maligned in the media, or in some cases your information is immediately buried, memory-holed, erased by the cabal, never sees the light of day. People need to realize that."

Bill: I agree, they do. We've had some people demanding more evidence, demanding this and that. But these guys are actively going to work in a secure facility. I tell people we are lucky to have anything to work with!

Gideon: "We are lucky. We're lucky they can get the screenshots out. They can't get much else out."

Bill: Can you explain the security? Because all the employees go through it, so I don't think that would expose them.

Gideon: "It's safe for me to talk about some of it. When they go in for work, there is a search, there are body scans. All devices are checked. Same when they go out. It takes thirty minutes each way. If you leave during a shift change, you're waiting a long time. For that reason, almost everyone's shift is staggered, because the security process is so lengthy. Getting anything in or out is near impossible."

Bill: How did they get the screenshots out?

Gideon: "They found a way. It's very out of the box."

Bill: I'm thinking it has to do with how you store data. Definitely no USB drives or anything like that.

Gideon: "No, no USB drives. It's an advanced technique. There's data limits to it. A photo they can do, small files they can do. Getting a video or a large file size out would be extremely difficult, maybe impossible. All data is just 1s and 0s when it boils down to it, but those 1s and 0s add up fast."

Bill: I'm playing along here, since you've told me. It's clever as hell how they do it. I hope someday they get to tell their story.

Gideon: "To me, they are heroes. Someday their story will be told in the way it deserves to be told."

Bill: Once they're inside and working, what might that be like. Is the work environment comfortable or not? Are they being closely watched?

Gideon: "I'm going to speak in general terms. There's twenty or so fusion centres working on this. Imagine a nondescript office building. Imagine a floor full of cubicles and computer stations. Flat screens all over. It's generally quiet. There's a lot of typing. Everyone has a role and a task, and specific goals and expectations."

Since these are professionals, they don't have obnoxious bosses breathing down their necks. It's nothing like that. It's fairly autonomous. You go in, do your work, report what you've done, and leave. Security inside isn't oppressive at all.

In terms of their access to the software, there are programs monitoring them but you have to remember, they also have administrative powers. They are high-level employees, and they have full access to CSRQ. They can change anything within it, but if they made drastic changes, it would be flagged immediately, so they don't do that."

Bill: Usually something like this would have a lot of people in various positions, with team leaders. Is it like that?

Gideon: "To some degree. It's a government project. It's not corporate-oriented. They don't have creative brainstorming sessions, or a need to appeal to the public. There is a creative department, but it's not involved at all with what my guys do. It's actually totally separate. They will see updates to the software, though, visual updates. That's all uploaded remotely from some other team."

Bill: I had one guy say the software looked fake. I never thought that, so I thought it was an odd reaction to the screenshots.

Gideon: "Hmm, ok. I have an exercise for you. I want you to get on a search engine and search for a random banking app, and then take a screenshot of it. The first thing you see or find. Don't try to find one or another, just whatever you see first."

Bill: Ok, hold on. I'm going to scroll through Twitter, I see bank ads on it all the time. Will that work?

Gideon: "Sure, of course."

Bill: Got it. First one I saw. Here it is.

Gideon: "You know what an agent would call that if you told them that was CSRQ? I mean the right side, the phone, if you just showed them that screen."

Bill: They would say it's fake.

Gideon: "That's because according to an agent, everything is fake that isn't approved by the cabal. You could pull up your banking app on your phone and show it to an agent, and they would say, 'That's fake.' You will lose your mind talking to these morons. They're like A.I. bots. No semblance of human logic, reason or intelligence at all.

I wanted you to do that exercise, too, just to see how most banking apps look like today. They have very simple, clean interfaces. The CSRQ front-end will look similar, just as the back-end is user friendly."

Bill: Very true, these apps all kind of look the same now, so to me the screenshots of CSRQ look normal.

Gideon: "They are normal. What are you seeing is real. Real accounts, real data. You also saw what happened with David Wilcock's account, being changed like that."

Bill: That was wild, to see how they did that. In real time. To see them react to what we are doing.

Gideon: "We are being watched very, very closely."

Bill: So has there been any hint at all that your guys have been found out? Or they are being looked at?

Gideon: "There's no hint of it yet but we know it could all be over for them tomorrow, too.

When we planned this, we put everything in place to protect them, do everything by the book, in terms of security. So the line of communication and contact between me and them is encrypted and there are no leaks, no way to intercept that data.

But that doesn't mean my guys aren't scared everyday, scared they will be found out. They are scared. They're terrified. I would be, you would be, anyone would be."

Bill: The cabal knows someone is leaking. Someone said to me, why not just fire everyone and re-hire new people?

Gideon: "That's not logistically feasible, unless they wanted to delay this project by years. Everyone working on this, even lower level people, have very stringent security clearances that are not easy to obtain. So you fire those people, then what?"

Bill: The cabal can live with this, in other words. They can accept the leak, because finishing this is more important. Are they worried your guys might sabotage it?

Gideon: "No, because my guys know it's not worth it. They know my guys know that. Not only would they get caught, the damage they could do is minimal. There's way too many redundancies in place. My guys are way more useful as they are right now. Just working, doing their jobs, and working within the system to leak information."

Bill: Someone asked me why more people working on this don't blow the whistle. Why don't they come forward?

Gideon: "Why would they, Bill? First, they would put their lives at extreme risk. Second, they risk losing Common or potential Sovereign status. You have to realize, by doing a good job on this software, they are raising their social credit score substantially. They will see benefits on the other side of the Reset."

Most have also been screened, in terms of personality and political background. My guys are in Europe. Most of these people think all this is good! They don't care or think it's bad. My guys are a very rare exception to the rule here.

I'm sure there's a few, out of the thousands, who might not like it, but they're not going to risk it all, for what? To be ignored, ridiculed, attacked, killed, imprisoned?"

Bill: I agree, it's a huge risk and takes a lot of courage. Where do you think we stand on escalation?

Gideon: "We are at Level 3, which entails better-trained agents infiltrating your activities, heavy monitoring of your activities, data mining and shadow-banning."

At Level 4, we will see much more intense shadow-banning, as well as some campaigns will be launched to discredit us. I'm already seeing this is in the works. At Level 5, that is full data erasure, and you and I will be criminally pursued, or worse. They may also re-launch copies of your sites and accounts, and pretend to be you. This is something they rarely do, but it has been done. The public has no clue who they are following is not the person they once trusted."

Bill: That's another layer we might want to explore, this copying. Maybe in the future. I want to know more about that.

Gideon: “People think the person they are talking to is the person they were talking to yesterday. That isn’t always the case. The cabal can go into the back-end of most social media companies and change things on the fly, and take over accounts. It’s happened in the Q Anon movements, I know that for sure. Millions of Q Anon followers have no clue.”

Bill: I don’t think they have much of a clue of anything.

Gideon: “No, they don’t.”

Bill: Have your guys seen anything strange or new you think we should know about, like something that’s happened the past few weeks? Is the work environment the same, or more stressful?

Gideon: “Yes. I think that’s something we should keep private for now.”

Bill: Ok. Is it bad?

Gideon: “They saw some things that worried them.”

Bill: Is it the USDR? Are the Sovereigns moving more fiat into their accounts?

Gideon: “I think we should hold off on it. It’s because we [Gideon asked this be redacted.]”

Bill: Ok, we’ll discuss it then. So how much time do we have? How worried do we need to be?

Gideon: “Any time I think we have time, I realize we have less time than I thought. It’s months. It could be this Winter. The whole world could spin out of control any second now.”

Bill: What can people do?

Gideon: “They need to do all they can to get the word out about CSRQ, and as a back up plan, email you. Make contact. Open the lines of communication.

They need to not let all the information out there overwhelm them. They need to stay focused. They need to clear out bad info being pushed by the gatekeepers and stop following them. They need to find and stick with a strong online community and build relationships in them. They need to take time for their families. If there was a time to pray, it is now.”

INTEL DROP #08 - THE MIDDLE & UPPER CLASSES WILL BE WIPED OUT

A quote by Gideon about financial armageddon. The text is centered on a dark, starry background with a nebula. The quote is in white, bold, uppercase letters, and the attribution is in a smaller, white, lowercase font.

ARMAGEDDON. EVEN THE
SOVEREIGNS WILL SUFFER.”

- Gideon

July 31, 2022

At the end of this article, I'm going to talk a little bit about internet security and some tips on that. I hope you read it, it answers a lot of questions I get quite often.

Let's get into today's intel drop. We're going to cover a lot of topics today. The following was curated over conversations today and the past few days.

Bill: I've had questions about the Reset, people asking about what happens to their assets. Let's go more into that. Some people can't believe they will lose everything.

Gideon: "It's going to be a very big shock for people in the middle and upper classes. They are going to get liquidated. One day their bank account has $1 Million in it, tomorrow it will have $1,000 USDR. They will panic, they'll be upset, but they won't be able to do anything about it.

You have to realize, these people have no skills at all at resistance, protesting, fighting back, standing up for themselves. It will be the shock of their lives and they'll be caught flat-footed, and eventually just submit. Suicides and familial problems will be the main fallout. A lot of fighting in the home, but it won't extend much beyond that."

Bill: What about people in upper management, or CEOs, or rich lawyers. What happens to them?

Gideon: "They will be expected to continue doing their jobs, and if they don't, there will be severe consequences. Their social scores will be lowered, they will be moved to Restricted or Quarantined, their USDR will be drained. It's that simple. They will have to comply, and eventually, they will realize if they behave, they will get some rewards."

Bill: Can you explain that more? You've mentioned they do have reward system for Common class.

Gideon: "They do. Not really a monetary rewards system, because bank accounts are capped and so are assets. That isn't changeable. We see in the software, it's not changeable. What's in place of that are vouchers and coupons for good behaviour."

Bill: Will people scoff at those? Will they not be happy with them?

Gideon: "What choice do they have? A voucher for a free coffee is certainly better than no voucher. Remember, draped in all this, before and after the Reset, will be justifications based on climate change. And if you disagree with that, then you must not only be a climate change denier, you are hurting the planet and others.

They will frame much of it this way, and the rest will be all about pitting you against your neighbour, which is common in Communist countries. Snitching is a profession of its own.”

Bill: What about restrictions on food? I posted something about that on Twitter, restricting food physically in stores so you can’t even get to the food without getting scanned first.

Gideon: “It’s absolutely true. There will be turnstiles just to get into a grocery store. You will be scanned. Your social score checked. Your vaccination status checked. You won’t eat if you’re not complying.”

Bill: It sounds so crazy, but I’ve seen they have implemented this and they do have the technology.

Gideon: “Wal-Mart has it all ready to go. All of this is ready, Bill. They’re just waiting.”

Bill: I’m seeing confirmations every day. They’re moving quickly on the digital IDs and the digital currencies.

Gideon: “They’re moving fast. It is all connected to CSRQ. So if you see some trial run in Ukraine or anywhere, it’s all directly going into CSRQ. They want people to think it’s all separate, just like they want people to think China and Russia are somehow against the West.”

Bill: It’s really all just some dialectic. They’re all in this together.

Gideon: “Of course they are. Every country is on board, more or less. But they don’t want people thinking this is all coordinated. They want people believing in their national identities, and believing their leaders still work for them, and that on the political stage there are all these competing forces.”

Bill: They want people invested in this Cold War throwback narrative.

Gideon: “Yes, because they have a World War III scenario on standby. It wouldn’t make sense unless they had the narrative to back that up.”

Bill: So, if we’re sitting around thinking Russia and China are trying to take over the West, we’re just playing into their psy op?

Gideon: "We are. Russia and China are the enemy of the people. So are the United States and the United Kingdom. So are most countries. They all are subservient to the cabal, and just play a role on the grand stage. All of the leaders were replaced over the past thirty or so years with those who will be supportive of this Reset and New World Order."

Bill: I had one guy email me and he lost his mind because he said he couldn't find anything on Google about us. He seemed to be expecting to find news articles about us, like the New York Times talking about CSRQ. He couldn't find it, so he got mad and called me names.

Gideon: "Then he lacks basic reading comprehension skills. You will see a lot of people lack the basic capacity to process information. They operate more at the level of a 12 or 13 year-old child now, even if they are an adult. It's a combination of psy ops, mind-control, EMF pollution, poor diet, and so on. They will be fodder for the cabal, and they will be easy to vaccinate if they're not already."

Bill: I'm just struck by this everyday, people who can't comprehend really basic things. Then they jump to wild conclusions, or get scared. I had one guy just losing his mind, saying, "They can't do this! This isn't possible! It won't work!"

Gideon: "That's denial. Why would this not work? Are they not aware that Communist societies exist and have existed for decades? Do they have no education of history? Do they have no awareness of the cabal or power structure that controls this world?"

Bill: I think they're in this American mind-control trap that says, "America's great and that can't happen here."

Gideon: "The American government is one of the most corrupt, authoritarian and oppressive in the world. I would hardly say they are free, and yes, it can happen there, it already is happening there right now."

Bill: They have guns, they think the guns will save them.

Gideon: "It's good they have guns, but they should have used them twenty years ago after 9/11, and probably further back than that. All they had to do is march into D.C. and take it over. A few million patriots, with trucks and tractors, and it could have been done. The city itself should be burned to the ground and everyone in the Federal government should be arrested and most executed."

Bill: They're too late then.

Gideon: "Way too late. The cabal is not worried about the United States. The cabal's gatekeepers on both the Right and Left have everyone corralled and pacified and distracted, believing all kinds of nonsense."

Bill: You were saying the other day that you think a lot of Q Anon followers will end up vaccinated.

Gideon: "Yes. By virtue of the fact they're in a cult, they follow the cabal's cult leaders, and they're mentally unprepared for reality. I don't see them posing much of a threat. One way or another, I see them ending up vaccinated, after the Reset."

Bill: Where do we stand right now. What's your update on what we are doing?

Gideon: "We are plateauing. The people seeing the information is dropping off everyday. Some people in the alternative media published this information, some of them deserve a lot of credit, but now that source is drying up. There may not be many left who will cover it. Most are Sovereigns."

Bill: What percentage right now do you give the cabal in succeeding in this plan? To collapse everything then Reset?

Gideon: "It's at around 85% chance of success for the cabal. Our time is running out by the second. Once this happens, it is going to be much harder to defeat them on the other side of this. We will try. You and me, and our group, we will try as Sovereigns to sabotage them, but we don't want it to come to that."

Bill: There has to be some good news?

Gideon: "I'm seeing a small but solid awakening to the Reset online, and to the vaccine injuries. It's not enough right now, not remotely enough, but the response is positive. It's not clouded yet with gate keeping. The messaging is clear, it's truthful."

But be forewarned, the cabal will enter that resistance and put their disinfo agents on overtime. They will spin false narratives. I expect that's going to happen in the next few weeks, because right now the response isn't being controlled. They will want to contain this, Bill. Contain it. Keep it circulating in the same group of people who are awake and make sure it doesn't get out to the wider masses."

Security tips

Here's some tips and misconceptions I want to go over real quick. Half this I learned from Gideon, so I'm passing it along:

- The cabal already has a massive data file on you, so trying to delete your social data or cover your tracks now is pretty pointless. That said, it doesn't hurt to use some precautions.
- Everyone should use an anonymous email, not in your name, not really linked to you.
- Protonmail is not "safe" (almost no email is safe unless PGP encrypted) but it's better than most emails, and easy to sign up for anonymously.
- After you do that, consider Twitter because major topics about the Reset are trending, and you can help push those topics. They relaxed their sign-up policies. It's easy to get an anonymous Twitter account.
- Everyone really should use a VPN. VPN's hide your activities from your snooping ISP provider by encrypting all data you send on the Internet and mixing it with other people's data. They also hide your real IP and location. It's worth paying a few dollars a month for one (and if you can't afford one, I would go with Proton's free version). I recommend ExpressVPN, PureVPN and Mullvad. Each of them have no-logs policies, they're audited, and Mullvad has the most anonymous sign-up process of any, with cash payments and zero personal data collected.
- Paying for a VPN with your credit card isn't ideal, but if the VPN has a no-logs policy, it's probably ok.
- Email providers Outlook, iCloud, Yahoo, GMX and Hotmail block all of my outgoing emails. So if you wrote me using one of those, don't expect to hear back from me, because I can't reply to you.

- Your phone is a tracking device if you use it improperly. If you buy a used phone with cash and have no data plan, use only wifi, use an anonymous or free online phone number, use a VPN and turn off Bluetooth, your mic, camera, and GPS location services, your phone is now relatively safe to use.
- It is crazy to have Siri or Alexa in your home. Get rid of them.
- Don't use WhatsApp, Facebook or Zoom.
- Turn OFF your cameras and cover them with tape.
- In terms of Internet browsing, Brave is good, and there are very good security add-ons for Firefox and Chrome.
- If you use a VPN, always use a WebRTC disabler add-on for your browser. WebRTC can leak your real IP address. It's a little confusing, but worth learning about. Here's an article on it. Just get an add-on and use it. I believe Brave browser already has it installed.
- Tor is for the dark web. I don't really endorse using it much. It can bring you unwanted attention, and some believe it's not as secure as they claim.

Using the steps above won't change your current data file or change your class status! You will be Common, Restricted or Quarantined. It's still good to do these things, because we never know what will happen. We hope to stop CSRQ. Let's always use good practices with our online behaviour and protect ourselves, anyway. We don't want to make anything easy for the cabal.

INTEL DROP #09 - THE LEVEL 4 ATTACKS HAVE BEGUN

A quote by Gideon on a starry space background. The text is white and bold, centered on a dark background filled with stars and nebulae. The quote reads: "THEY'RE ESCALATING BECAUSE THEIR A.I. SAYS PEOPLE BELIEVE US."

"THEY'RE ESCALATING
BECAUSE THEIR
BELIEVE US."

- Gideon

August 2, 2022

Good evening everyone. It's been a wild 24 hours, so let me get you up to speed on what's going on before we get to my conversations with Gideon.

Level 4 escalation against us has been authorized because word is getting out about CSRQ-SM. The cabal's cover has been blown.

We are now officially under full attack by agents, and they're planning to completely destroy us. If that fails, they will go to Level 5 escalation, which is full erasure and termination.

We have set multiple traps to catch agents. These traps will continue to be in place. Unfortunately, these traps may ensnare some good people, too, but also people with high susceptibility to the tactics of agents. In other words, people who will fall for anything and believe anything agents tell them, or people already predisposed to wanting to turn against us. Losing them is an acceptable cost of setting these traps.

We just ask people be aware of what these agents are doing, and please don't fall for their tricks. We've posted warnings all over, too, like this one.

Before we begin, I just want to remind everyone to join our Telegram channel, and our email alerts \(scroll to bottom of page\), so you can get up to date announcements. Emailing us also a good way to stay in touch. Check our security tips at the bottom of our last intel drop, too, if you missed it.

What follows are comms between Gideon and I over the past couple of days. Thank you to Michael for editing this.

Bill: Every day I'm seeing things that confirm CSRQ is real. Story after story, I can't keep up. Whether it's Digital IDs, CBDCs, changes in the banking system, getting rid of cash, social tracking, it's all coming together.

Gideon: "That's because this is all real. We've given people the truth, Bill. We've shown them CSRQ. They can either take that and put that into their framework of understanding, or ignore it at their own peril."

Bill: A lot has happened in just the past day alone. Do you have any intel you can share on where we're at in terms of the time frame to implement CSRQ?

Gideon: "All signs point to a war, but right now I give it a low probability. This is a part of their scenario game planning. They have four or five different combinations of how to implement CSRQ. One of them is a war between the predictable players, China and Russia against the U.S. In that scenario, Chinese troops end up on American soil by November."

Bill: That's scary as hell. But you've told me it's all staged, there's no real antagonism there?

Gideon: "There is on some level, among the CCP lower ranks, but at the highest level, they all work with the WEF and the cabal. The top ranks of the U.S. military and Biden Administration are traitors who are in on the scheme."

Bill: So they'll fight a war and pretend it's real?

Gideon: "It will be real but orchestrated. I don't expect full scale war, I expect a slow, drawn out series of incursions. But what I do know is, the Chinese are supposed to land on American soil at some point."

This is in fact one of the worst scenarios they could pick. I hope we see different one, which involves a few bad days on Wall St. and then a quick collapse."

Bill: I agree, the war scenario sounds really bad. A lot of people would die.

Gideon: "They would. A lot of service people in armies on all sides would be sacrificed, and there would be civilians who die."

Bill: Do you see nuclear weapons being used if they go this scenario?

Gideon: "Yes, but possibly not on cities. They are all in agreement on how it will play out, and I doubt they want infrastructure of that nature destroyed. But military targets will be wiped out in the United States."

I will say this, though, they may sacrifice one major city. The cabal has their need for symbolism and shock and awe. If they blew up the Twin Towers, there's nothing they won't do."

Bill: The Pelosi trip must be some kind of intentional provocation. It makes no sense.

Gideon: "This is part of a script. Biden and Pelosi are owned by the CCP and have a long history of being traitors. So if they're doing something, it's with the approval of the CCP and the cabal."

Bill: Is it locked in that this is going to happen?

Gideon: "No, I'm looking at this and seeing it as a possibility but not a guarantee. We don't know exactly what the cabal will do."

Bill: Is what we've done pushing up the timeline? It almost seems like since we brought CSRQ to the public, everything is going faster.

Gideon: "Yes, we are having an impact. I have direct intel that it is correlated. Because more people believed us than they expected. We're also having an impact against their gatekeepers, and this has them worried."

Bill: Doesn't CERN give them data on things like this?

Gideon: "I don't know enough about what kind of data it gives them, but there's no question they use it for their purposes."

Bill: I don't want to get sidetracked here, but is it dumb we use Protonmail when its founder was a CERN scientist?

Gideon: "All the emails are compromised, Bill. Pick your poison. Everyone is already categorized in CSRQ and fully data-mined. They're not trying to get more data right now, they're trying to understand how people are reacting to CSRQ and news leaking out about the Reset, so they can readjust their plans."

Bill: Ok, just wanted some clarification. Anyway, let's hope it doesn't come to war and they pick a different scenario.

Gideon: "I pray so. I always thought the war scenario is the worst. The others I know of are another virus scare and lockdowns, cyber attacks and power outages, staged terrorist attacks, civil war in the U.S., natural disasters they can create such as earthquakes, and a Wall St. meltdown. Of course, they may use a combination of these, too."

Bill: What about the attacks against us? The agents are creating fake accounts, fake names, fake websites, fake narratives."

Gideon: "They escalated us. They're worried this information is getting out, and in particular, that people believe CSRQ is coming and know it's true. I warned you a long time ago, if we start reaching people, they will go full blast trying to discredit us."

Bill: You said they were data mining, that's why they didn't erase us. You think something's changed?

Gideon: "I know it has. They're escalating because their A.I. says that people believe us. Now they're getting a little nervous."

Bill: If this wasn't real, the cabal and the agents wouldn't be attacking us. They wouldn't even care we existed!

Gideon: "Correct. They're not going to expend resources on something that is made up."

Bill: I still have people in the Telegram sort of suggesting CSRQ isn't real.

Gideon: "It's a mix of agents and people in complete denial. How do they explain the response? How do they explain all these agents swarming around us? How hard you've been hit? How everything we've said is coming true right now?"

Bill: They can't. I don't think they know what they're saying. What I've noticed is the people who email us are a lot more aware.

Gideon: "That's why I told you to focus on them. You need to put the Telegram on lock down. The Telegram is where agents feed like a swarm of piranhas."

Bill: I'm with you. It's just feeding ground for agents.

Gideon: "Put up the articles but lock down the chat. Or keep one open and monitor it carefully when you and Michael are around, and turn it off if you're not there to supervise it."

Bill: Ok. We have no choice. I just had at least five or six people reporting different suspected agents causing problems. We're not going to be able to contain it.

Gideon: "This is what Level 4 looks like, Bill. It's chaos. They're going to grind you down until you give up. It's intended to discredit you, and get you to give up. They've done this a thousand times to a thousand other groups who tried to tell the truth. They'll try to break you first, before they just kill you."

Bill: That reminds me, I was contacted by an amazing lady. She's worked with a lot of people in this movement, the Robert Malones, the RFK Jr's, and she validated that for me. She validated what I'm experiencing, just the level of attacks and bad people who come out of the woodwork. She's been through hell herself.

Gideon: "The genuine people always take the most flak. They get destroyed. They get crushed. The gatekeepers? They get rich. And the public loves them and worships them."

Bill: I see these Telegram channels with 50,000 people and it's a bunch of inane Q garbage. I mean really stupid stuff. Michael posted it, it's this huge screed about how mandatory vaccinations are coming but that's a good thing. A good thing!

Gideon: "Let me guess, there will be something like seven days of darkness, and the military will come in?"

Bill: Something like that.

Gideon: "It's a cabal script. They pump them out everywhere. A mix of plausible fear with hopium added on the end of it."

Bill: It wasn't even logical. They were saying power outages and mandatory vaccines were a good sign, and that the EMS system would broadcast all this 'truth' to people, or something?

Gideon: "Santa Claus is more believable, in terms of the EMS being used to broadcast the truth. And why haven't they done it? They've had twenty years to broadcast the truth over the FCC regulated airwaves, still nothing. If the good guys in the military are really in charge, why don't they do something? It's because they're not in charge. The cabal is in charge."

Bill: How can we win this with this many gullible people everywhere?

Gideon: "The cabal props these channels up. I'm willing to bet people just joined for entertainment value. If they see what we are saying, they will join us. We just have to get the word out.

Like I said, their A.I. algorithms show that people believe us at a very high percentage. We have to just breakthrough the noise the cabal puts out there."

Bill: So we still have a window, a chance here to win this?

Gideon: "Not much of one, but yes."

Bill: So when that window closes, we go to plan B and focus on changing people's accounts to Sovereign.

Gideon: "Yes."

Bill: Every time I bring that up, I get attacked. People hate us for it. They seethe. Their blood boils. What's wrong with them? That's why I don't talk about it almost ever.

Gideon: "The agents hate you for it, and the cabal knows it's going to be next to impossible for them to pinpoint who we are changing to Sovereign. They're furious over it. And the people who follow whatever the agents say, they just chime in."

Bill: What about the people who ask me about becoming Sovereign in Telegram?

Gideon: "Stick with what I told you, ignore them".

Bill: Ok. Do you want to explain why? Because if I publish this, people will think you sound like a jerk.

Gideon: "That's fine, I'll explain why. We're not going to babysit people. We're not going to hold their hands. We need people who take some initiative. Those are the people we are working with."

Bill: Right, the ones who email us. They are impressive people. I get really smart, passionate people writing.

Gideon: "I knew you would. The social media platforms are good but you're not going to get the best of the best. Serious people tend to take the time to write an email."

Bill: That makes sense, it's exactly how it's played out. Everything you've said to me for eight months has come true and played out, and now there's twenty confirmations a day in the news proving you're right.

Gideon: "It's my experience. I can draw from that to see how things will play out. I also have my sources who give me intel, credit to them. But a huge credit goes to the whistle blowers, who gave me insight to the cabal's game plan. We now know exactly what they are going to do because these people came forward."

Bill: People should care about what big deal this is, but they don't.

Gideon: "Stop. Your mind is in the Telegram head space right now. You're listening to agents put poison in your ears. Focus on the people who email you, focus on Twitter a little bit, and let's focus on YouTube more. People do care, many of them. Shut out the idiots, ban them if you must.

It's the agents who are loud and noisy, trying to pour water on everything. They mean nothing, Bill. They will all end up vaccinated hybrids when this is all over, doomed to a fate worse than death."

Bill: Copy that, my friend. I'm done giving them my time or attention.

Bill: I'm sitting here realizing there's fifty topics we need to cover. I have to ask about the young people. Where do they fit in this?

Gideon: "It's not looking good for them. You don't have any counter-culture. The spirit isn't there. We had previous generations that rejected authority, now they embrace it. The kids used to buck the trends, now they follow them. They're gone."

Bill: Not much hope there?

Gideon: "No. Very high vaccination rates among that demographic. We can't rely on them. It will be the older people who save this world."

Bill: But the older folks are wrapped up in Q Anon. Wrapped up in religion, following these false preachers. Wrapped up in gold, and silver, and the Quantum financial system and a bunch of other baloney.

Gideon: "The cabal is feeding these people bread and circuses. Fattening them up before slaughter. They are all going to be force-vaccinated within a month after the Reset, all these people in these groups.

But that isn't everyone, Bill. There's a lot of strong, wise, smart people in the old demographic who don't buy all the bullshit. We need them to be with us on the other side of the Reset, to fight with us."

Bill: How do we reach the people who love the gatekeepers?

Gideon: “Once the people who follow those guys see CSRQ, many of them will come to our side and leave behind the snake oil salesmen. That’s why the agents are going crazy right now, they know they could lose their captive audiences if this gets to them!”

Bill: I have a few questions from people I think we should address. Someone asked how it is we can talk so publicly about being Sovereign, why we aren’t going to get caught?

Gideon: “Because the cabal has no idea who we are. Not only did we have our data profiles deleted, we are now operating anonymously. There’s no way for them to line up who you and I are with anyone in CSRQ, not reliably.”

Bill: So they can’t really pinpoint us?

Gideon: “No, because of the steps we took to obfuscate the data trail.”

Bill: What about people who say us talking about this is going to get your guys in trouble?

Gideon: “Again, it goes back to the obfuscation in place and how I’ve made sure the data trail goes cold. There’s no link. They would have to break multiple levels of encryption, and even then, we did some things that would keep them running in circles. We planned this for months, Bill. I made sure we would do this right to protect my guys.”

Bill: You told me the hard part for them is the fact your guys are in a big department.

Gideon: “Yes, that was a lucky happenstance for us. If, let’s say, my guys were in a small department, very specialized, maybe there’s ten total employees. Maybe just ten who can access the Sovereign accounts, for example, right? Just ten. Now if that were the case, this would be impossible. Those ten would get investigated and they could probably finger my guys quickly.”

Bill: But they’re in a big department, it’s hundreds.

Gideon: “It is, and they are on a time crunch here. They don’t want to delay this. So they’ve calculated, instead of firing hundreds of these IT guys, they’re going to escalate us. They’re going to data mine us, then put us now at Level 4 and just try to discredit us. If they can't do that, then we go to Level 5 and it's over. They will erase us and actually try to find us and kill us."

Bill: How do we prevent Level 5?

Gideon: "People have get the word out. It's that simple. If they don't, and they don't try to help us, then it's done. We don't have the ten million dollar budget of the gatekeepers, either. We're grassroots. If people don't help us, we will have to go into lock down, Bill, and worry about ourselves and move on to our other plans."

Bill: We would have to face the fact CSQR is going to happen.

Gideon: "Yes. We would accept that reality and prepare accordingly, so we're ready to go after the Reset."

Bill: What can people do now, right now, in case we go to Level 5?

Gideon: "They should email you, so that line of communication is open. They should use all the emails we have out there. They should make contact through the social media accounts. That way if we go to Level 5, we have their information and we can still make contact with them."

Bill: Ok, good. What about some of the alternative media who reached out to me who want interviews? They're all asking me to go on camera.

Gideon: "If they ask that, be aware that they may be gatekeepers. You going on camera would put your life at risk, they should know that before asking. You going on camera doesn't do anything or prove anything, either."

Bill: What about evidence? Some people are demanding more evidence.

Gideon: "I'm not going to put my guys' lives at risk for arm-chair critics or tire-kickers. We also need my guys in place. If my guys get comprised, then our back up plan may not work. It's not worth it."

Besides, it won't matter how much evidence we give, there will be a hundred agents screaming, 'That isn't proof,' or never satisfied, they'll demand more."

Bill: We could release the classified files, is that on the table?

Gideon: "Not yet, because I think there's a leak for us in the obfuscation we've done. I'll have to clean up that leak. For now, we can quietly transmit what's in those files with these intel drops."

Bill: When are we going to do that?

Gideon: "Soon, maybe the next intel drop we can get into it."

Bill: Good, I'm looking forward to that. I feel like we have no time left.

Gideon: "We don't have time. We're down to days, weeks, a few months. The cabal is moving everything up."

Bill: One last thing that's on my mind, it's gold and silver, and money in general. A lot of people are wondering what to do to prepare.

Gideon: "There isn't much they can do. If it's priced in fiat, then it will be zero. Everything is going to be priced in USDR, or whatever they end up calling it, after the Reset. Everyone other than Sovereigns will have $1000 USDR or less, that's it."

With that said, I think having some small silver coins is good. Even having any kind of coinage is good, because it's good for bartering. Gold is ok, but harder to barter with. But truthfully, you could barter with pine cones or rocks. Resources are good, like food, but again, you will be a target for forced vaccination and compliance."

Bill: What about forming small communities?

Gideon: "This is a tough one, because it creates a big, fat target for the cabal. Civilians don't remotely have the technology to stand up to the military. It's sticks and stones. And we're not talking about military guys who are patriots, they have been and will be weeded-out."

We're way past the point of no return here. Once the Reset happens, it will be up to you and me, the Sovereigns. Everyone else will be defenseless. To stop this, we need mass awareness of CSRQ now, now, now. Right now."

INTEL DROP #10 - MONEY WILL BE WORTHLESS SOON

"THE CABAL THINKS
THE AVERAGE PERSON IS TOO RICH AND HAS TOO MUCH FREEDOM."

- Gideon

August 4, 2022

Things are getting more intense around here by the day, as you can see from this update I posted on Twitter:

agents are swarming us. a lot of weird things are going on, not just to me. i had one guy write me and say "they know your location and they will be there in 24 hours" pic.twitter.com/iFWynNhQar

— Bill Sweet (@OculusLabs) August 4, 2022

I don't post these things to scare you, but to make you aware of how serious this situation is. We are at Level 4 escalation, so the attacks will intensify.

A big thank you to Michael again for his help in proof-reading, editing, and also moderating the Telegram.

Bill: We were talking the other day about this, but it keeps coming up. People are asking a lot about money, commodities, how this is going to go down during the collapse.

Gideon: “With respect to fiat, it will go to zero.”

Bill: I think people have trouble accepting that or understanding how that can happen.

Gideon: “It’s happened many times in history. The U.S. Dollar and entire current central bank system is insolvent to the order of at least $500 Trillion. This is due to the current debt situation.”

Bill: You told me the real crash was supposed to be 2008 and 2009, is that right?

Gideon: “In terms of the reset they need, yes, it was, but they weren’t ready, so they pushed the can down the road.”

Bill: Which will make this reset even worse, more severe, is that right?

Gideon: “Yes, all it did was exacerbate the problem, so the eventual collapse will be far worse.”

Bill: They could pull the plug today if they wanted to.

Gideon: “They could. They have scenarios. A few bad days on Wall St., which would be staged and set up, could kick it off. Within months, you would have mass unemployment, hyperinflation and chaos.”

Bill: I think we need to paint a picture here, in terms of what you mean by “worthless” or “zero”. You are saying gold will be worthless?

Gideon: “Everything we understand is priced in fiat currency. If fiat currency goes to zero, everything goes to zero. Once that happens, there is a bartering economy. Everything commodity-wise has value, but it has to be adjusted. This can take a few days or up to a month. The problem is, the cabal is going to ban bartering, seize the means of production, quite literally, and quickly institute USDR as the new global currency.”

Bill: So that leaves people in a situation that’s pretty hopeless.

Gideon: “Yes, plus there is the factor of asset seizure and restriction. If you have, for example, $50,000 in Bitcoin, it’s going to be worth nothing during and after the Reset. However, it could regain some value, the problem is you are restricted as a Common class person to $5,000 in total assets. You can have a little bit of Bitcoin, which you can’t barter with, or really use.”

Bill: Right, and if you’re Restricted or Quarantined, it’s way less.

Gideon: “Way less. So even if something has value after the Reset, you can’t own it. If you do own it, they will eventually repossess it, physically. They will physically come and get it.

It will also be illegal for you to hold it. They will have records of those who hold gold and silver. You will have a week or something like that to turn it in, if you don’t, your social score goes to zero and they put out a criminal warrant to come and get you.”

Bill: What about gold and silver ETFs or physical precious metals stored in vaults held by these companies that sell them?

Gideon: “All will go to zero and then be confiscated quickly. If you don’t have the gold or silver in your house, it’s gone. If you do have it in your house, they will pay you a visit, if you don’t turn it in.”

Bill: This sounds like science fiction to people.

Gideon: “This is called daily life in China, where this has been tested with great success for years.”

Bill: Right, Americans can’t wrap their minds around this, but a lot of these controls are already in place.

Gideon: “America is one of the least-free countries in the world. It’s a surveillance state and a police state. So it’s strange to me when Americans talk about freedom.”

Bill: Maybe it's because they still have some freedom of speech.

Gideon: "There are still certain groups, certain members of the cabal, you cannot even speak about or say anything negative about. That isn't free speech."

Bill: No, it's not. I have to ask you about this, you were telling me about the cabal's philosophy, which I found really intriguing. You were saying they want a return to feudalism. That this current world structure is bothersome to them.

Gideon: "They believe humanity needs to be brought to heel. They believe in a return to the old order, whereby kings owned everything and the serfs owned nothing. The cabal thinks the average person is too rich and has too much freedom."

Bill: What do they think of someone with a three bedroom, two car garage, a couple of nice cars, a 401k? You get the idea, what is that person to them?

Gideon: "That person, in ancient or medieval times, would be incredibly wealthy, by all standards. To the cabal, that person has way too much power, money and freedom, and they need to be brought back to serve under their overlords. The cabal thinks private property ownership is offensive to them, that serf can own land. They intend to end that."

Bill: Why did they allow capitalism for so long?

Gideon: "It made them exceptionally rich, and allowed for technological innovations, in the direction they wanted. They can utilize human capital more efficiently under it, but it also allows too much freedom, a caveat for them."

Bill: Is there an implicit acknowledgement there that Communism or this feudalism can't bring about such things?

Gideon: "There may be, in fact, there is. They don't care. People say Communism doesn't work, but it does work, for those in power. They are ready, now, to put an end to what they consider an 'experiment' in allowing humans to have freedom. They've seen enough, it's time for a Reset, in their view. It isn't the first time they've done this."

Bill: What do you mean?

Gideon: "The history you know of is not the true history of the world."

Bill: Ok, so humans have advanced before, and you're saying the cabal put a stop to that?

Gideon: "Yes. If humans have too much freedom and too much wealth, it becomes a serious threat to the cabal. They believe they would be defeated. This is why they focused the past few decades so much on dumbing people down, poisoning people, and that was to weaken them."

All of this has been planned out. They were not ready for the Reset thirty years ago, they were planning it, they wanted the technology to advance. But in the meantime, they had to keep people from waking up, and from taking over."

Bill: Ah, so all of the TV programming, the mind-control, the crap in our food and water, I see, makes sense now.

Gideon: "If they had not done any of that, Bill, humanity would have woken up a lot sooner and very likely, the cabal would have been destroyed. People would actually, simply walk into places like Davos, Switzerland or Washington D.C. and burn it all to the ground."

Instead, they're cowed into submission by the police state, fractured and confused by gatekeepers, and poisoned by vaccines and EMF pollution. They're grumbling and getting their anger out online, but they're not actually doing a single thing that threatens the cabal's power."

Bill: I get asked this a lot, but what are the best countries to be in?

Gideon: "If I had to pick, I would think parts of India, but then again, their infrastructure is better than people realize. You have to think of very remote areas. North America is not an option because the surveillance is unbelievable. They can find a golf ball from space in the furthest reaches of the Yukon."

Bill: What about the Southern Hemisphere?

Gideon: "It's safer. Parts of Brazil, Peru, Bolivia, the Andes mountains. But Australia and New Zealand are not options. I would just say the deepest, most remote woods in any given area would be the safest places. Tree cover is highly beneficial, by the way."

Bill: I'm going to shift gears here. The attacks against us are increasing. You've said for us not to respond?

Gideon: “That’s right. They want you to respond. They want you to engage. They want you to have to defend yourself. Just block them and ignore them.”

Bill: Ok, but if they’re spreading lies all over, don’t we need to address those lies? It’s so easy to just come up with false accusations.

Gideon: “It doesn’t matter. You will never win. For every lie you defeat, they will come up with a new one. Today, they will say you’re a pedophile, the next day they will say something else. They will just make it up as they go.”

Bill: It’s easy to just lie about people. Look at Johnny Depp. He had to first go through years of being maligned and defamed. It took a whole trial for him to clear his name.

Gideon: “The public will fall for anything, believe anything about anyone else, so these tactics are very effective. People have completely lost the ability to reason.”

Bill: The agents know it works.

Gideon: “They do, and they use it effectively. So expect the attacks to intensify.”

Bill: What about making people Sovereign? The agents go crazy over this.

Gideon: “That’s because they don’t want us doing that! They can’t find the whistle blowers, and they won’t be able to determine who was made Sovereign within CSRQ. So you will be viciously attacked for even attempting this.”

Bill: I think they’re really furious we’re doing this. I get the most heat for it. These people come out of the wood work, just enraged we would try to make people Sovereign in the software. I think it’s a good thing we are doing it. I’m proud of it. Michael wants to keep it more private, I said, let’s just open it all up and tell people what we’re doing.

Gideon: “You should maintain a balanced approach, but yes, it is a good thing. What we’re doing is a very good thing. Anyone against it is either an agent or woefully confused and misinformed about what we’re doing, and maybe not the sharpest tool in the shed.”

Bill: You said I can’t babysit people or expend energy on idiots. I’m trying not to.

Gideon: "The information is there, Bill. You've done yeoman's work putting this out there. If they can't read, they can't read. If they lack the reading comprehension or the ability to conceptualize beyond a 6th grade level, we can't save them. They are just energy succubi."

If our message goes out to more people, you're going to get ten times more imbeciles trying to drag you down. You have to get more liberal with the ban and block features."

Bill: I'm getting better at it. I really don't like blocking people. But it feels good to block some of these people. Do you think we'll get to a point of saying, "You're either with us or against us?" I don't want to shut people out, or get into a cult mentality.

Gideon: "No, not at all. Use your best judgment. There's simply no reason to engage with toxic people. There's no reason to have them in the community. We're trying to expose the cabal and the software they will use to enslave people. If a person can't support that, get rid of them."

Bill: I'm seeing this is a battle that is playing out, almost will spiritual overtones.

Gideon: "We could talk for hours about that."

Bill: I think that's for another intel drop, especially what you told me about the cabal, what they changed.

Gideon: "Yes."

Bill: Since I'm going to publish this, for those reading, what I'm talking about is that the cabal isn't following their old rules anymore. They used to follow a sort of code of conduct for all their evil behaviour, they're not anymore. Is that right?

Gideon: "This is true. The rules of the game have changed, which makes things even more difficult for us."

Bill: They've made some kind of spiritual bargain. I don't know how they are going to get away with this. They're not playing fair anymore.

Gideon: "They never did, they never played fair, Bill, but they did stay within some lanes of conduct, if you can call that. That was dispensed of recently."

Bill: We'll talk about it more. This is going to be a huge update, and I know you have to go. Thank you again for guiding me and leading us. I should say that more. You've taught me a lot. I wasn't the same guy eight months ago. I was clueless on a few things. I'm embarrassed about some of the conversations we had way back then!

Gideon: "It's fine, you're a quick learner. It's been easy with you, Bill, you don't resist. A lot of people resist truth and new information, you embrace it."

Bill: Thank you. I like to end things usually by giving the people reading something to take with them. What's a word of advice for them today?

Gideon: "Anything can be spun into a negative light, anything. A good Samaritan helps an old lady down some stairs. Now what could be wrong with such a thing? A bad person will manage to find something wrong with that. A bad person will always find negativity in everything. We've all been around people like that. Just drop them and walk away. I tell Bill, give them no quarter."

As always, your support means a lot. We get questions about what people can do to help. Simply sharing, liking, commenting goes a long, long way. It might be a good idea to show people our FAQ to get them started, or share our list of Sovereign gatekeepers, because it will definitely get people talking.

I also want to reiterate a series of WARNINGS we've already issued over and over, but we need to again:

- 1) We do not know if the future one world currency will be called "USDR". It may be re-named to "SDR" or "XDR", or something else. It is not finalized yet. The whistle blowers have told us this, and we have stated this many times.
- 2) Not a single existing crypto coin has anything to do with CSRQ or the future reserve currency. The USDR in CSRQ is not accessible to the public or a public blockchain at all, nor would it make any sense for it to be at this time.

- 3) There is a site some of our followers are going to called USDReserve.org. This site has nothing to do with any of this. It is an older, apparently “dead” Ethereum project. There are thousands of them, and anyone can create a token such as that with the click of a button. Someone just went to that site and nearly lost their money, despite the fact we’ve posted warnings everywhere.
- 4) Another person was contacted by an agent using a fake “Gideon” profile. As we state in our FAQ (please read it), Gideon has no official social media accounts. If this person had read that, they would not have ended up harmed. Instead, they turned over information they should not have.
- 5) We will never, ever contact you first. Only agents will contact you first. If you see something from “Bill” or “Michael” or “Gideon” out of the blue, it’s probably an agent. Block them immediately, and verify with our official accounts what you saw. We have caught agents creating dozens of fake profiles, click here to see.

This is why it is so important to actually read what we’ve posted. People are not reading our materials, and then they are going out and literally getting deceived by agents or making incredibly careless mistakes. Be careful!

INTEL DROP #11 - LEVEL 5 ERASURE & TERMINATION

THE LIES SAID ABOUT US, BECAUSE THEN CSRQ WON'T HAVE TO BE REAL ANYMORE.”

- Gideon

August 7, 2022

We now believe we have less than 24 hours before Level 5 escalation, which will lead to total erasure and termination of this website and possibly other accounts.

It's baseless censorship, but we are dealing with a criminal cabal that does not adhere to the laws you or I do, nor do they want the truth out.

Our only hope is if the public responds in a way that causes the agents to back off. If you do nothing, we lose. If you support us and fight back, we have a chance.

My life is also in danger, so I will be in transit over the next two days seeking safe hiding. Michael will handle the website uploads, emails and Telegram, if I'm not able to get access to them, I've given him all my passwords so he can take over.

I'm sharing with you below my last conversation with Gideon.

Bill: How likely is Level 5 right now?

Gideon: "It's almost certain."

Bill: What accounts are they targeting, and what is likely to remain up?

Gideon: "They want the websites taken off line. Then Twitter, YouTube, and the last they can get to is probably Telegram and the emails."

Bill: So if people want to stay in contact, they should use the Telegram and emails and this new Matrix thing we set up?

Gideon: "Yes."

Bill: You spoke a lot about this "Plan B" or back-up plan, is that the direction we are moving now?

Gideon: "It's the direction we have to go now. The agents have escalated us, and as you know, Bill, a lot of people betrayed you and turned on you."

Bill: They did. It was shocking to me. People who supported us, stabbed us directly in the back. They drank up the lies of the agents.

Gideon: "People will believe the lies, because then they won't have to believe in CRSQ anymore."

Bill: The information is too hard to accept?

Gideon: "For most, it is. It's too hard to accept. So once agents began spreading lies, the people who didn't want to believe flocked to those lies. They were relieved. They could walk away and say, 'CRSQ isn't real, I'm going to be ok.'"

Bill: But CRSQ is real, and they're not going to be ok.

Gideon: "That is true."

Bill: I understand better now. I wondered why some of our people ran to these falsehoods so quickly, now I know. It was comforting not to have to believe us anymore.

Gideon: "They took refuge in the groups aligned against you. It's a place to go where none of this has to be real. Where they can believe there's some nebulous idea of the Great Reset out there but nothing concrete like CRSQ. They can then go on believing nothing really bad will happen, and seek out other hopium-sources."

Bill: What I've realized is there's almost no way to stop agents. They can lie about anything, they can call upon the cabal to come in and destroy everything, they have millions of dollars in funding. Worst of all, truth-seekers fall for their lies constantly.

Gideon: "All the time. Every day they fall for them."

Bill: I've never quite seen something attacked as much as we were. I see other truth groups get attacked, but not like this.

Gideon: "We showed the world what they're doing. We showed the world CRSQ, so they responded in kind, they went scorched Earth on you."

Bill: Should we have answered the lies more? Defended ourselves more?

Gideon: "You already have. You, and Michael, you've spent hours answering them. It does not matter. No amount of logic, reason or facts means anything to these people. They want to believe the lies so badly."

Bill: So much of what they said was baseless. They twisted things so much. It's easy to take something and twist it, so something goes from being good to bad! It's so easy.

Gideon: "It certainly is. Most people's minds are too weak to see those manipulations. A few words can destroy a person's career or credibility, it doesn't have to be true at all. Happens all the time."

Bill: But most of them are criminals, most of them are child predators. The cabal hires the worst of the worst for this stuff! Then they pretend to be good!

Gideon: "The cabal loves it when good people worship their gatekeepers. They love it when they get a group of people in the truth movement praising and loving agents who rape children in secret, drink the blood of aborted babies, worship Satan, and who are Sovereigns relishing the Reset and what is to come."

The cabal wants to control the opposition, and they do, and they want everyone worshipping the people they control, and they do. Meanwhile, all the sheep on the other side of the coin worship the mainstream media liars and celebrities."

Bill: We found a ton of them in CSRQ. The gatekeepers. Exposing that must have really upset them.

Gideon: "We went all the way, Bill. We didn't really hold back, we exposed almost everything."

Bill: Almost, but not all of it.

Gideon: "No, not all of it. It would serve nothing to reveal it. It would put my guys in even more danger."

Bill: This goes back to what... Well, I won't say what. I understand now why you put their safety first. They would die for nothing. Look at what's going on.

Gideon: "We wanted to bring the truth, but I would never compromise the lives of my men to satisfy some agent who is pressuring you, or me, to give them more."

Bill: Good. I'm glad we never gave into that. I've had these weird people coming at me, almost like I owe them something. I don't even know who they are, and they come to me and say, "Give us more now, or we will come after you."

Gideon: "They're either agents or they're rank and file goose-stepping errand boys. Some might be too dumb to know they're being used."

Bill: Michael had a guy do that to him, too. A guy who figured out DarkDayz' Tweets, as if that wasn't going to happen, and he threatened to reveal them. Of course they would be figured out, they were posted publicly! They were supposed to be deciphered! They carry important messages! Why are these people so stupid? And why would we work with people who threaten us?

Gideon: "A lot of them are mentally ill. There's nothing else to say, Bill. They're mentally ill or so warped from being conditioned either by agents, or by being an agent, you're dealing with people who are unstable."

Bill: I just don't understand how people can just believe some of the garbage they say. They posted some real things and twisted those things, but they also posted faked images, too. They're basically faking things and taking things out of context over and over, and spinning a fake narrative. I could do the same to them, but I'm not going to, because it's wrong.

Gideon: "It doesn't matter, Bill. Of course they will lie, and mix some truth with some things they made up out of thin air. Anyone with discernment can see the tricks. We can't save the people without discernment. We don't want them, anyway, they're too weak. They would bring us down."

Bill: When I think about all these people, you know what I realize? They will all end up force-vaccinated.

Gideon: "They will. They're not strong enough, they believe they are, but they're not. They will end up injected."

Bill: If it's this easy for the cabal to win, for agents to deceive, how can we win?

Gideon: "I've always told you, we had a very slim chance."

Bill: Someone in the Telegram said the cabal is losing. I said, How can they be losing if they have all the money, own the press, control the military, and use hundreds of thousands of agents to infiltrate the truth movement? How can they be losing?

Gideon: "They're not losing, Bill."

Bill: While I've got you here, I have to ask, people are asking me about Kim Ann Goguan. What is she about?

Gideon: "A low level Common class agent who was told they will get Sovereign if they put out propaganda."

Bill: So she isn't Sovereign yet?

Gideon: "We haven't checked her, but based on my analysis if what she is doing, she's waiting for an offer after being given a road map on what they wanted her to do."

Bill: Incredible. That's probably true for a lot of these people who pop up out of nowhere.

Gideon: "A lot are old-timer agents. Agents who've been doing good work for the cabal for years, and the cabal graduates them to gatekeeper. They dangle the Sovereign carrot, so they do good work."

Bill: Will they actually become Sovereigns?

Gideon: "Some will, the ones who do good for the cabal. The ones who build a huge following. She is doing well, but has a way to go."

Bill: God, this is all so evil. And people buy into it. What about David Lester Straight? What about this movement to use the legal system to gain legal freedom in America? I've asked before, but I'm always curious about it, because he also wants to help people become Sovereign.

Gideon: "It's very, very convoluted, and not feasible for the average person. It would take three or four months to complete all of his steps, maybe six months, plus an enormous amount of work. Then you have to hope the FBI, IRS or Feds don't come in and round you up. It may also be a trap."

Bill: Do you think he's wrong? Is it a bad thing? It seems to be based on sound, legal principles. It has something to do with birth certificates, which take our rights away at birth, is that right?

Gideon: "The cabal cannot take away anyone's rights. The cabal uses legal tricks to make illegal claims. The courts David is using are illegal in the first place, the judges are criminals, and the entire U.S. Government framework he's operating under is a criminal enterprise."

Bill: Right, right. We touched on this before. I said, or you said, I can't remember, that David is granting a sort of legitimacy to the framework.

Gideon: "In some ways, yes. The legal framework he's working through is not even legitimate at all. So why are you trying to get an illegal system to give you rights? You already have God-given inalienable rights. An illegal criminal government cannot give you rights or take them away.”

Bill: Can anything be accomplished by his methods?

Gideon: “It won’t matter. The cabal isn’t going to care at all if someone has some paperwork proclaiming they are this or that. It will, in fact, dramatically increase the likelihood they are placed in Quarantined status.”

Bill: Right. But it doesn’t matter what status you are, you have to get vaccinated. I have people worried they are Restricted or Quarantined, and I tell them it doesn’t matter.

Gideon: “It’s meaningless. Whether Common, Restricted or Quarantined, you are a prisoner. Common has some slightly better advantages, but you have to accept vaccination.”

Bill: Within one month of this going online.

Gideon: “One month. If you don’t, they will send the Sheriff, the police, and so on. After about a month of harassment, then they will send in the drones.”

Bill: So more like two months, effectively.

Gideon: “Yes. That’s the time frame for you and me and our group to stop them.”

Bill: We will have two months. Not a lot of time, but I think it’s possible.

Gideon: “If we don’t have more good people with us, it won’t be possible. That’s why we are going dark, going to this other plan. We can’t do it alone. You and me and our group is way too small. We will need more Sovereigns, but right now my guys are hesitant to even help.”

Bill: That’s a shame. It’s because of all of this. All these agents, and all these morons believing them.

Gideon: “It is. They’re spooked, rightfully so. They’ve told me they wonder if this is worth it at all, going public, I mean.”

Bill: But we’re not even close to the man power, or woman power, we need.

Gideon: "We will need more. I think my guys will come around. We'll let the dust settle. They've agreed to do a couple of accounts, but no more, but I hope they will change their minds."

Bill: They have to.

Gideon: "I know. I think they know, too. Our group is too small. We can't win with this small of a group."

Bill: They trust you. I'm sure you will do all you can to help them feel better about this. I've got to ask before I forget, what about David Icke? Is he Sovereign? Lots of people ask. I like him.

Gideon: "We never checked, my guess is that he may not be. You said his son posted something from you on David's website?"

Bill: He did, Gareth did, so that was encouraging.

Gideon: "That strongly points to him not being Sovereign. You can never quite know with someone very high profile, because the cabal loves to use those people in the sneakiest ways. But like you, my feeling toward him is favourable, but I think he's made some choices so he stays alive. Does that make sense? Maybe some compromises, so the cabal doesn't eliminate him."

Bill: I believe that. Almost like, he did it on his own, without the cabal having to come in and make him do it.

Gideon: "Right. But we are speculating. I just haven't ever looked that much into him, so I don't know. I'm just going with a gut impression of things."

Bill: Are your guys willing to check on some of these people anymore? There's so many names people want checked. I think people are disappointed so many sort of regular people were looked up, like Tom Hanks, or Joe Biden. I mean, we all know they would be Sovereign.

Gideon: "Many were checked by the whistle blowers before I had a chance to step in and start directing them to more questionable names. Most of this was done when they first started, out of curiosity. They started just thinking of names off the top of their heads to look up."

Bill: Right, makes sense. They're not as familiar with the American psy-ops, either.

Gideon: "No, they were thinking of more popular, or well-known people. Then it became obvious everyone is Sovereign!"

Bill: It sure did. You said they got tired of looking people up?

Gideon: "Yes, I've had to nudge them on these names."

Bill: Is it safe or not safe to look up names? I know the answer, but I think people reading might be curious.

Gideon: "It can't be done frequently. Looking up a name or two per week is fine, because part of their jobs is to look up Sovereigns all the time. All the time. They're doing quality control work, stress testing and so on."

Bill: So if they toss in a name like David Icke, it won't look odd.

Gideon: "No, and I can ask if he can be looked up, but again, I'm not nudging them anymore. We realized a while back, it's not worth the small risk. We're not really learning anything. We can already glean from the behaviours of these public figures where they are in the system."

Bill: For sure. I know we can't talk much longer, but what about some of the things you alluded to, about how the cabal has changed their rules? Or isn't following their old rules?

Gideon: "We will have to get to that another time. It's too deep a discussion for now. I will say this, I'm gravely concerned, because it means they aren't going to hold back anymore. I also think they had to do this, ritualistically, so that CSRQ can happen. So they can do what they want to do, especially with the forced vaccinations."

Bill: Right, because before, they were really just pressuring people. What they were doing was a violation of the Nuremberg Code. But they weren't forcing it into anyone's arms, not yet anyway.

Gideon: "No, they weren't yet, but they will soon."

Bill: You said a ceremony took place, a very important one. Can you get into that?

Gideon: "There was one, yes, I have a source who has knowledge of it."

Bill: So this was something the cabal did, to change these rules, to usher in this Reset?

Gideon: "It was a very important event for them, and one more is planned, to finalize these rules."

Bill: One more? When?

Gideon: "In September. A month they have some major things planned, too."

Bill: We have to talk about this more. We have to.

Gideon: "We will. Your safety is more important. I want you to do what I told you to do. We have to end this conversation."

Bill: Copy that.

Gideon: "Get this to Michael and get going. You don't have much time."

INTEL DROP #12 - THE CABAL CAN MAKE ANYONE BELIEVE ANYTHING

TO PLEASE THE CABAL.”

- Gideon

imgflip.com

We have reached Level 5 escalation. In the coming days, it is possible more of our sites will be removed. That is why we are doing our best to prepare.

August 8, 2022

As most of you know, my entire website at OculumLabs.com was vaporized by the cabal yesterday, as we predicted. In the meantime, you can use the Wayback Machine to view the articles.

We think the reason they have not deleted everything is because we are the access to the whistle blowers. They want to catch me, Gideon and his men, but they don't want you learning any more of the truth, either. My website was extremely popular and receiving a lot of traffic, so they nuked it. We are learning that no platforms are safe. Even suggestions of the safest show there are back doors. The cabal owns it all. We have to just move forward.

I had a conversation today with Gideon about everything going on, here's most of it:

Bill: They've actually gone bonkers. Why do people believe the idiocy they spew?

Gideon: "Because the cabal can make anyone believe anything."

Bill: The agents seem more frenzied and hysterical than ever, what is going on with them?

Gideon: "The agents are trying to become Sovereign, so they will do anything to please the cabal."

Bill: So they have an even bigger incentive to lie than normal?

Gideon: "Yes, they do."

Bill: I still see people calling us a hoax. But how can it be a hoax with such intense attempts at censorship and so many agents swarming us?

Gideon: "Because it isn't a hoax."

Bill: Why can't people use the brains God gave them and engage in a little logical deduction and see that?

Gideon: "Because their minds are controlled by the cabal. They don't think for themselves. They follow certain narratives. It's comforting to live in a world where CSRQ isn't real or can't happen. The agents reassure them things aren't really that bad, and people like you or me must be some kind of hoax or a psy op."

Bill: They don't go after Q Anon like this. They prop-up guys like Phil Godlewski with money, agents or Dave at X22 Report, and millions of people follow them without a hint of push-back or censorship.

Gideon: That's because that's a real hoax, a real psy op. They want the truth seekers believing in it. They don't want them believing in us. You have to fight every day to stay above water."

Bill: What about their capabilities? It seems they have the power to do anything, create any lie out of thin air.

Gideon: "They can do whatever they want, Bill. Let's go back thirty years. They erased Bob Lazar's entire life history in an instant. His records, gone. He was left with one little piece of paper that proved he had some kind of tangential connection to the U.S. government, but it wasn't much. If they could do that then, imagine what they could do now."

Bill: They can fake emails, they can fake anything.

Gideon: "Anything. It can be generated convincingly. If they need to discredit someone, it's easy. They can create a false record of your life, if they need to, including a false criminal history. They can create an entire fake history of your online activities, if they have to. They can falsely accuse, charge and imprison someone, which they do all the time."

Bill: I had hundreds of brute force attacks per day on my site. I posted on my Twitter about it. Then they stopped. Do you think they got into it?

Gideon: "Very likely, yes."

Bill: So they got in and planted things?

Gideon: "It would fit the narrative they are building, yes."

Bill: I changed the password, it was a strong one.

Gideon: "They can backdoor the query so it will bypass the limiter, and run it thousands of times without it triggering the limiter. That's probably what was done."

Bill: How often do they do things like this?

Gideon: "Rarely. You're an exception. They despise you."

Bill: It seems so. The level of hate, vitriol, anger, it's off the charts with these people.

Gideon: "They're scared of you, and of us."

Bill: They're accusing us of things which are false, but in some cases, they're not. It seems to stem from their failure to comprehend the Reset. Don't they know everything will be wiped out?

Gideon: "Of course they know that, but they don't want the public to know that. They want the public to keep believing in the system."

Bill: Right, I think we've been attacked over things that we explained over and over, but it doesn't sink in. We know that all fiat will go to zero. We know the cabal has a new digital currency coming.

Gideon: "They're terrified of us actually waking people up to the reality that their world as they know is going to fade away into nothing, and be replaced with CSRQ."

Bill: It's interesting how the areas they attack us the hardest are the things they don't want out, or want people to know or believe.

Gideon: "It's very telling, isn't it?"

Bill: They seem to have found out about Obsidian. How much does that escalate us?

Gideon: "They don't know what it is, they're not smart enough to figure it out, so it doesn't matter now."

Bill: You mean the agents, or the public who believe the agents?

Gideon: "Both. The cabal probably isn't worried about anyone figuring it out, not yet."

Bill: I made a mistake with that, didn't I?

Gideon: "It's not important now. Let them spin their fairy tales and fantasies. It will keep them busy. Have you noticed how they are wrong about almost everything you do and say?"

Bill: Yeah, they're not very smart. They just think they're smart. Michael said one guy went nuts last night, saying I took down my site. Saying a "403" means I took it down. Well, I proved today I didn't.

Gideon: "The cabal adores people like that, because they work for free as agents, but they'll end up as Common class and still get injected. They'll get no reward for the free work they do against us."

Bill: God, they are dumb. And why would I want my beautiful site to be removed? I loved it.

Gideon: "They might have thought you would give yourself some kind of credibility to say the cabal removed it."

Bill: Ok, but that didn't happen, and I have proof it was not removed by me.

Gideon: "Proof means nothing to them."

Bill: Let me ask you this, are these agents scared of not becoming Sovereign?

Gideon: "They're terrified, because they know what it means to be Common. Bill, there's 100,000 agents operating at any given time, and only a handful among them are Sovereign. The rest are desperate to gain that status."

Bill: So the more they deny that CSRQ is real, the more they push against us, the higher chance the cabal may bless them with an upgrade?

Gideon: "Exactly. And they know time is running out, quickly running out."

Bill: God, this is all making sense now. They're trying to score points, gain brownie points. The more they can attack us, spin lies, twist everything, call us names, the better chance they have to become Sovereign!

Gideon: "They know they won't have much time, either, to get USDR."

Bill: Wow. If it's late in the game, and they get made Sovereign, what then for them?

Gideon: "Probably a week or two to make some transfers, everything they have. They know they might not end up with much on the other side of this. They will do anything to get that upgrade as soon as they can, to impress the cabal."

Bill: It's all coming together now. It's all making sense now. Plus, you have the rest of the Sovereigns preparing. Look what they're doing to the economy.

Gideon: "They're getting ready for the big dance. The crash."

Bill: September, right?

Gideon: "Very likely. When they pull the plug, Bill, it will be like 2008 all over again but one hundred times worse. It's going to sneak up on everyone"

Bill: America gets hit the hardest?

Gideon: Yes, the United States is ground zero. The cabal wants it burned to the ground. I would not have us doing any of this if we were there, we would have to get out first. Then Europe will crumble and the rest of the dominoes will fall."

Bill: Everything we're saying about this collapse is being confirmed and validated by other sources all the time, constantly.

Gideon: "Of course. There are very credible people paying attention and they know exactly what's coming, they see it."

Bill: Like Michael Burry?

Gideon: "He knows."

Bill: What about Jim Rickards and Martin Armstrong?

Gideon: "They know, they have a piece of it."

Bill: What about Greg Mannarino?

Gideon: "He seems to have a piece of it, too."

Bill: But not the whole picture?

Gideon: "No, and if they do know, they're not saying it."

Bill: No one is really talking about CSRQ in a real way except us. We're the only ones.

Gideon: "The only ones. No one has come close to detailing the exact plan the way we have. The exact scenario. What they exactly plan to do. Because we know what it is, we have access. And that's why you're being targeted, while those other guys just talk and talk, without any censorship at all."

Bill: It's just incredible, all of this. Where do we stand right now on the Sovereign situation?

Gideon: "My guys don't want to move forward with it, not now. They have cold feet. They're watching all this play out and they don't like it, they don't like how the public is siding with the agents. They're wondering what the point of risking their lives was for."

Bill: I don't blame them at all, but we've got to change their minds.

Gideon: "I'm working on it."

Bill: This is where people lose their damn minds, because we want to help people become Sovereign.

Gideon: "Bill, I've told you a thousand times, if we attempt this, they are going to go crazy trying to stop us. They know once an account is deleted, they can't find out who we made Sovereign. Can you imagine how upset that makes the cabal?"

Bill: I would imagine it infuriates them.

Gideon: "They don't want us doing this. They will lie until they are blue in the faces to convince people to keep believing in their false system, rather than believing CSRQ is real."

Bill: Do you think when we get closer to the end game, and it's obvious we were right, that our enemies will come to us? Is it possible for them to see reason?

Gideon: "Yes. They will have a change of heart. They will come begging. They will see the writing on the wall, that the end is near, and they will think of you and me."

Bill: You know, I already had one person do that.

Gideon: "More will do it."

Bill: Should we help them, the ones who betrayed us and doubted us, if they come to us later?

Gideon: „No.”

Bill: Damn, that's cold.

Gideon: "Think of the people they deceived with their lies, who they turned away from us. Think of the damage they did, Bill, before they woke up. Remember that."

Bill: I will. Too many others deserve it, not them.

Gideon: "Too many good people do not deserve to be force-injected, so why should we save them?"

Bill: We won't, I promise, I won't give them the time of day.

Gideon: "If they were once an enemy, don't."

Bill: We've had a lot of problems sorting out the bad people from the good. How do we form a small group we can trust? I even have this one really obvious agent acting like they are my friend.

Gideon: "Use discernment, and if you need help, just keep passing them along to me, I will check on them."

Bill: Good, I'll keep doing that. I just feel like the agents have this power over us. How do they have so much power?

Gideon: "Because they have a license to lie, and gatekeepers and money to back them up."

Bill: We should be able to beat them with the truth.

Gideon: "We should, but the public relishes their lies. If the people rejected their lies, they would have no power, none at all."

Bill: Same for the cabal.

Gideon: "The cabal's power would evaporate into a puff of nothingness if the public simply stopped believing their lies. It's not hard. You and I don't believe them, because their lies are so unbelievably stupid in the first place."

Bill: I never believed the Covid crap. Just at the start, I was worried, but after a month or two, I said, "Ok, this is bullshit."

Gideon: "And then it became an education for you. You learned more about the reality of our world, viruses, vaccines."

Bill: I always knew it was suspect, I never got the flu shot, I knew that was bad. But Covid opened my eyes to all the truth, how it's all a huge scam, all of it, going back a hundred years, back to Pasteur. The terrain theory versus germ theory.

Gideon: "It's sad that an event like this would serve to fully and totally wake up a very small few, but put to sleep even deeper the majority."

Bill: It's incredible how as the cabal gets nuttier, the more people seem to believe in them.

Gideon: "It's a mixture of sunk cost fallacy, fear, doubling-down. The vaccinated know something's wrong, they're too weak to admit it."

Bill: Well, in fairness, a few are. A few are getting angry.

Gideon: "A few. It should be tens of millions. Instead, those millions are busy injecting little children with deadly, poisonous vaccines. They are literally murdering their own children so Pfizer can be richer."

Bill: How do we win if it's this easy for the cabal?

Gideon: "I don't think we can."

Bill: I wish this ended on a better note, but it is what it is.

Gideon: "We're going to be ok, Bill. You and me and our group. We have to worry about us now."

Bill: Ok. I feel like we're giving up.

Gideon: "Don't give up. Find the few who are good. Find the few who can help us. Find them. And fight back if you have to. Fight back."

Bill: I will.

INTEL DROP #13 - THE CABAL'S TRUMP CARD

"They know they can pull the plug on the $500 Trillion debt-laden financial system and reset it at any time."

August 12, 2022

Good evening everyone.

I've decided to skip past my original Intel Drop #13. It's hidden for now. It deals with some very deep spiritual subjects. I'll probably split it into two parts or make it a separate post. Gideon said he didn't want it associated with the number 13, either, considering the subject matter. It's coming soon, just not today.

Before we begin, I'm recommending a couple of superb videos that expose gatekeepers. It's really worth your time to watch these, they're not long:

All connected to Sasha Stone - 7grainsofsalt

It's Always SHOWTIME! - Hugo Talks

Check the bottom of this post for an important update.

Here are excerpts from my conversations with Gideon over the past day or two. Thank you as always to Michael for helping edit these and cleaning them up:

Bill: You've always told me everything is done for a reason. We actually did some things that hurt our own credibility. Can we explain that to people now?

Gideon: "We can."

Bill: You had me send some emails I thought were ill-advised. You said this had to be done, so it was. Please explain.

Gideon: "When you are revealing highly classified information, for it to get out to the world, it's almost an impossible task. So how do we make it possible? We allow ourselves to be partially discredited, or allow the spectre of doubt to hang over us. The cabal will back off when you do that."

Bill: What's funny is they still lied about us and faked things anyway.

Gideon: "Yes, they did, I expected them to. It ended up damaging them rather than hurting us. Your man, whoever he is, that was skilled work by him."

Bill: He came through for us, no doubt. It will not be soon forgotten.

Gideon: "This is the winnowing process, separating the wheat from the chaff. If we had more time, we would put this on a slow simmer over a year and find the best of the best. We just don't have time."

Bill: I know. I've felt rushed.

Gideon: "We are."

Bill: Anyway, let's get back to this. So, you discredit yourself a little bit so they don't kill you or erase you. Is this why we went to Level 5 but then after erasing my website, they cooled off?

Gideon: "Yes and no. We are the link to the whistle blowers. What they are trying to do is discredit and contain. If they can do that, they want us to keep talking, so they can dig and dig, to find my guys, through us."

Bill: Right, I keep forgetting that. They need us to find them.

Gideon: "They think we are the weak link to getting to them."

Bill: You didn't really let me in on this, but I suspected it was a strategy. I felt like it helped us find and finger some agents, and some really dumb people left us and went into the arms of pedos and hackers.

Gideon: "Losing some of those people was a gain for us, not a loss."

Bill: It's a really interesting strategy. I could see doing this, for example, if you had a tape of a real UFO that landed and aliens walked out, you might go around saying, "This is a just student film project," maybe with a nod and a wink.

Gideon: "It could be done that way, yes."

Bill: Is this why David Icke would say "Reptilians" instead of who is really in charge?

Gideon: "In terms of your line of thinking, yes, that would be an example."

Bill: You're always telling me to look beyond the obvious. Look at things in terms of chess, instead of checkers, look many steps of ahead. That seems to apply here.

Gideon: "It's because it's what the cabal does, Bill. They think ahead, plan ahead. They're never very obvious, even if it seems that way. They are very clever, they plan, and they constantly engage in trickery and deception, while presenting in a truthful or honest way."

Bill: But they're arrogant. Do you think their arrogance is going to catch up with them? Look at Klaus, he's so full of himself. Or Bill Gates. People hate these guys. They've done a bad job at public relations.

Gideon: "But they know something. They know they hold the ultimate trump card. They know they can pull the plug on the $500 Trillion debt- laden financial system and reset it at any time."

Bill: They know we're reliant on them, we need them to survive.

Gideon: "They can afford to be a little arrogant. Look at Bill Gates' many tells and duping delights. He doesn't even try to hide it. He knows they have CSRQ planned."

Bill: I've felt the past week there's an awakening, though. What if there is a real awakening?

Gideon: "They're not worried, because it's not enough people, and if it does start to become too many, they will pull the plug."

Bill: I see all this talk of Digital IDs and CBDCs. All of it confirms CSRQ. Why are they talking about this openly now?

Gideon: "The cabal is going to familiarize the public with some concepts. Warm everyone up to them, normalize them, but they're not going to tell everyone they're taking all their money."

Bill: People don't get it. Money will be worthless. The only thing that will have value is USDR.

Gideon: „True."

Bill: People come to me and say, "Bill, it won't work," or "This is ten years away."

Gideon: "It's not that far away. It will be before 2024."

Bill: This FBI raid on Trump is big news, what's your take on it?

Gideon: "With Trump, it's either a long-game dialectic, or they're just tired of Trump. But they're never this obvious. This is obvious. This leads me to think they want to foment civil war of some kind, at a later time. This is a set up."

Bill: "The obvious, surface-level narrative here is the FBI is corrupt and Trump's another victim of partisan attacks."

Gideon: "And it's demonstrably true. The FBI is corrupt and he is constantly attacked. But as we know, the cabal's true agenda is never obvious. Whatever political chaos is going on, it's being directed and co-opted. They're not worried. If it brings about a civil war, it serves their ends."

They want the people fighting each other, and they want the Right to engage with the Feds, instead of banding together and fighting their real, collective enemy."

Bill: True, and the mainstream press still has a grip on the Left and Democrats.

Gideon: "The size of that is underestimated, it's 35% of highly partisan people completely brainwashed, who will tow the Democrat line against all reason and sanity."

Bill: America's gone, you've said that, I agree.

Gideon: "It's gone."

Bill: I'm tired of the American-centred perspective, but I'm guilty of getting wrapped up in it.

Gideon: "The place is a symbol of freedom, and though that freedom is but a mirage, it still has not been completely shattered. The cabal is carefully planning for that moment."

Bill: What about the rest of us? What about Aussies? Canadians? Europeans? Asians?

Gideon: "Much of the world is, in fact, more free than America. The policing is less oppressive. Far fewer people imprisoned. Taxes either lower, or public services better. There are some exceptions. I would rather be in the United States than in China, when this happens, but not by a lot. The rest of the world will fare better, but in the end, they will all end up tied into CSRQ."

Bill: It probably goes without saying, finding a remote corner somewhere in a country a little bit behind the times is best bet to ride this out.

Gideon: "It is, but I know things I haven't told you yet, and I know even such a plan is pretty futile."

Bill: Hmm, well, this goes back to our other conversation. The one you want me to hold off on. I just found out there's a lot of things you hadn't told me yet.

Gideon: "You will know. I'm going to give it all to you within a few weeks. There's no time, so now is the time."

Bill: When can I release the other articles? The one this was supposed to be, but it's 13, so, we're saving it. I think it should be two parts or separate entry, an article or something. It could be a book.

Gideon: "Yes, it could. Just wait a bit. No more than week. I want it published. I'm also going to introduce you to someone, someone who can help you understand better what we talked about."

Bill: Ok. I look forward to meeting them.

Bill: If people would just walk away, we win.

Gideon: "Yes, but the cabal controls the money, the power, literally, the power generating facilities, the military, all of it. It could be done if humanity just said, 'No more,' but with great sacrifices."

Bill: People can't even put down their smart phones at dinner.

Gideon: "We're too far down the line, Bill. Way too far. There's no time left to organize some kind of real resistance. Americans needed to lead they way, too, they aren't doing anything."

Bill: The Feds have them all scared. Now they've got 86,000 new IRS agents with authorization to kill they're going to roll out!

Gideon: "For a country proud of their guns, they strike me as timid and fearful of the dictatorship they live under."

Bill: Well, some guy just tried shoot up a FBI building, I think in Ohio. Is that part of the script?

Gideon: "An agitator, maybe a fake story, or just a failure. It sounds like he failed in his mission."

Bill: Looks that way.

Gideon: "Killing some field agents isn't the answer."

Bill: No, it's not at all. You've said the answer is 5 Million people need to go D.C. with semis and tractors and park their asses there until they take the government back.

Gideon: "That is correct, that would have to be done, that is do-able. And blood might end up being shed, because the cabal will engage. But you need about 5 Million people to make it work."

Bill: If Americans can't get off their asses and do that, they aren't worth saving.

Gideon: "They can't even save the kids being murdered with the poison."

Bill: What about China's house of cards about to come down?

Gideon: "I don't think they are the catalyzing event. They have serious internal problems, but the BIS controls the ebb and flow of all money worldwide. The BIS and those who control it will decide when to pull the plug on everything."

Bill: You said it will be like dominoes falling.

Gideon: "They're already falling, Bill. It will accelerate."

Bill: I've tried to get it through people's heads, money won't be worth anything soon, but then I'm bashed for putting my $65k into USDR.

Gideon: "The first sign of collapse, that panic will hit them right in the gut. They'll remember you."

Bill: Yeah, we talked about that.

Gideon: "We know what we know is true, we've tried to inform them, and people can take that or leave that. We're not forcing them to do or believe anything."

Bill: I know it's safe.

Gideon: "Yes, you do. It's going to be our last chance to do anything, to save anyone."

Bill: We both have to go. I'll put all these conversations into one Intel Drop, is that ok? Just the ones that pertain to politics.

Gideon: "That's fine."

Bill: Any last words for those who will read this?

Gideon: "Discipline yourself to prioritize information and time. Set aside quiet time. Set aside some nature time. Set aside time for friends and family. We all have so little time left, make it count."

A final word on the agent group attacking us

We have completely destroyed the group who was defaming us and attacking us. They have zero credibility. The ring-leader has been exposed as a pedophile, by his own disgusting words. His second-in-command covered up for him. The hacker in charge was caught faking evidence, making false claims, and even asking for crypto.

We haven't publicly doxxed them, but we have all of their personal information on file, and they know this. Our inside man did a hell of a job destroying them from within. All the evidence was presented on our Telegram at this link. We now consider this "case closed" and have no further comment on the matter.

INTEL DROP #14 - THE COSMIC RULES ARE ABOUT TO CHANGE PART 1

"They're re-writing the rules they abide by. Dispensing of them. Walking away from them. Ending them. Dissolving them."

August 21, 2022

This Intel Drop was scheduled for August 10th, but got delayed. There are more recent Intel Drops that need to be posted, dealing with a lot of different things and more recent events, but Gideon said I should go ahead and post this first.

Disclaimer: This Intel Drop is meant as a way to peel back the layers and see deeper, but we also know it is going to be highly controversial. This information is meant to be considered thoughtfully, and not meant to distract from our main efforts. We hope it is read in that context.

Here are excerpts from my conversations with Gideon:

Bill: We talked the other day about what the cabal is doing in September. Changing the rules. People are asking me about that. Can you get into that more?

Gideon: "It relates to the post-Reset world, and the true reason behind it."

Bill: Does this come from your guys?

Gideon: "It came from a trusted source with knowledge of the cabal's activities. I followed it up with my guys, to see if they had heard or seen anything in their work to confirm it."

Bill: Were they able to?

Gideon: "They were. They thought back to the early presentations about the software, things discussed about the Metaverse. It was buried deep in one presentation, in a slide, and it confirmed it. They remembered it."

Bill: What is it?

Gideon: "Do you recall how I've spoken about how they want to inject the unvaccinated post-Reset with this new formulation, the one I call the nano-hydra?"

Bill: Yes.

Gideon: "Do you recall how I've told you that this new formulation isn't going to kill you, it's not designed for that?"

Bill: Right. They don't want to kill us with it.

Gideon: "Their goal is to keep certain people alive as long as possible, hooked up to the Metaverse, living out 'lives' within a virtual world, that the cabal totally controls."

Bill: I figured they had some plan like that, I know this Metaverse idea is a big deal to them. They want us to be part man, part machine, and controlled by them.

Gideon: "But Bill, you don't know the whole story. They have the technology to keep you alive forever. Forever. That's their goal."

Bill: Forever?

Gideon: „Forever.”

Bill: To keep us trapped? Isn't that against free will?

Gideon: "It is, but the ceremony they're doing in September is going to change that."

Bill: How?

Gideon: "They're re-writing the rules they abide by. Dispensing of them. Walking away from them. Ending them. Dissolving them."

Bill: I can't wrap my mind around the weight of what that carries with it. This is a five- hour discussion.

Gideon: "It is. I'm just trying to tell you, this goes beyond injections and a dystopian world. There's a bigger plan. It's to enslave souls and keep them here, trapped, forever. They've been researching ways to extend life years, not just for them, but for us."

Bill: Can they do it, technology-wise?

Gideon: "Yes, they can."

Bill: Don't they need a lot of organ transplants? How do they stop a person from aging? People die, eventually.

Gideon: "They figured it out with the hydra, the ageless, never-dying parasite."

Bill: Ah, right, found in the vaccine.

Gideon: "Yes."

Bill: But people think that's disinfo, not proven.

Gideon: "Well, it's miracle they found it at all. It wasn't used in the Covid vaccines, it was sent out in very small numbers for experimental testing on people."

Bill: So it's real, they managed to find it, but most of the time they wouldn't?

Gideon: "Right. So people believe it's made up, they can't seem to replicate it or find it anywhere else, but it is, in fact, real."

Bill: I see. So does the hydra alone produce these anti-aging effects?

Gideon: "No, no. It's part of it. And yes, there will be organ replacements, and the process is gruesome, who and how they will harvest those organs from."

Bill: Who?

Gideon: "The third world, the poor, young people, they're already doing it now."

Bill: I will ask you again about this a different time, ok? I want to know more about this, but I don't want to get sidetracked.

Gideon: "Ok."

Bill. So, how many people can they keep alive forever? They can't do Billions of people.

Gideon: "No, of course not. Many will die. The current crop of vaccines are doing the killing. They have a plan for the third world, to kill them, too, but not now. What they want, and this is the most upsetting part, is this plan is for the unvaccinated. They aren't going to do this with anyone who got vaccinated."

Bill: So after the Reset, will they still use the deadly vaccines?

Gideon: "Sparingly, yes, to terminate people they don't want to put into this state of eternal existence. But the primary focus will be on the unvaccinated. Because the previously vaccinated took a death sentence. Every, last one of them will be dead within ten years, and they're irreparably poisoned and damaged."

Bill: So the main vaccines, these Covid ones, were just about death?

Gideon: "Yes, and the choice people made to get it. They slowly do damage to the heart, blood vessels and so on. Each batch had different amounts of the mRNA poison. Everyone will die within ten years or so, but each will die at different, random times. They can also be tracked, too, but it's somewhat secondary to the main goal, which was murder."

Bill: So they are happy to kill off all the vaccinated. But why do they want the unvaccinated trapped and kept alive so bad?

Gideon: "We think it's an order that has come from the other side."

Bill: What other side?

Gideon: "The afterlife. The astral plane."

Bill: Ok, I need a moment. The astral plane. An order from the astral plane?

Gideon: "Yes. Because a war is being fought in the spiritual realm, but that war has a boundary. It cannot pass into our realm."

Bill: A war, ok. Well, can you explain the astral plane to me first.

Gideon: "It's much like our world, but ephemeral. The laws of physics are different. More like a dreamworld, but oppressive, dirty and dark. A very rare few in this realm can access it while still alive, very few, usually in a trance or dream state."

Bill: Now we're into another five hour discussion! I have a thousand questions, but I'm going to just accept that for now, the astral plane. Ok, the astral plane has a war going on, and they need unvaccinated people trapped in this Earthly plane. Why?

Gideon: "Because if they keep unvaccinated souls trapped here, it means they starve the army of the righteous on the other side. It means the war going on there will be won by the cabal, because no new souls will join the Creator to fight them."

Bill: That is a lot to take in. But wait, they just killed Billions, who now passed over to the afterlife. The afterlife must be full of new people!

Gideon: "It is! But think of who they killed, Bill. Who? The sheep. So the cabal's numbers on the other side have been greatly bolstered, while the army of the righteous will be starved, because none of the unvaccinated will pass on."

Bill: Ok, ok, I get it. I get it now. Oh, my God this is insane. I always wondered why they would want to kill off their own sheep! Now we know why, or at least, this is what you're saying is why.

Gideon: "They don't need those sheep here anymore, they need them in the afterlife."

Bill: The Guardians were not kidding when they said the most evil plan of all time. There's nothing more diabolical than this. You must have told them before you told me!

Gideon: "No, Bill, they already knew."

Bill: Why did you keep this from me?

Gideon: "I didn't, at all. You knew most of it. CSRQ, the Reset, what will happen after, you knew. I'm just giving you the last piece of the puzzle."

Bill: Ok, let's take a step back. Did you learn it from the Guardians? Or did you already know?

Gideon: "I had heard rumours and chatter of it for years. Then they confirmed it. But that's just one confirmation, Bill. One source. I needed more. I finally got more, more than enough."

Bill: It's fully making sense now. I just needed all that cleared up. So, anyway, they know. Who else knows?

Gideon: "I'm sure a few do. They're not speaking about it."

Bill: Will the Guardians do something?

Gideon: "Maybe, but the agents are trying to destroy them just like they are trying to destroy us."

Bill: Have you talked to them at all?

Gideon: "Not recently. The last I did, they foreshadowed all of this. They know what's coming."

Bill: I've had a few people ask about them. I remember they posted some videos about a singularity. I don't remember that clearly.

Gideon: "Some of that goes beyond what we will discuss today. I will have to explain it another time. It's important, but it's eight years away. We need to focus on the now, this moment."

Bill: Ok. So, who else knows? All these Sovereigns know this is the plan? To enslave us unvaccinated?

Gideon: "Most would be aware, yes. Great rewards await them, if they go along with this."

Bill: So they know about this war, on the other side?

Gideon: "Some Sovereigns will know, some will just have a vague idea. It's not that important for the cabal to inform every Sovereign of the exact plan, it's more important they bribe them and keep them in line with serving the agenda."

Bill: I see. Will they plan to live forever, too?

Gideon: "Some will, others will pass on to take high positions in the leadership of the armies on the other side, if and when they are needed."

Bill: If they didn't do this, let's say there were no vaccines, no mass killing of the sheep, what would have happened?

Gideon: "It was looking like they were going to lose the war on the other side. Now it's different. So many sheep died or are dying, and they will join the cabal in this war on the other side. The rate of unvaccinated dying is the same as always, a low death rate, but once the Reset happens, they plan to reduce that to nothing, by keeping us all alive. Forever."

Bill: So that the righteous army is starved?

Gideon: "Yes!"

Bill: What is the righteous army doing to stop this?

Gideon: "They can do very little. They can interact with highly sensitive people sometimes to pass messages, but the cabal controls anyone of any public popularity or presence. They can't get the word out. They know fewer good souls are arriving, and they know soon almost none will arrive. Their numbers are limited, while the cabal's numbers on the other side are exploding."

Bill: It's up to us then, to save them and save ourselves.

Gideon: "Yes, it is."

Bill: We will get attacked for saying this, for publishing it.

Gideon: "Ignore them, Bill. They will all be dead soon, and they will join the hell on the other side."

Bill: Hell?

Gideon: "The war in the next realm is hellish."

Bill: I want to know more about that.

Gideon: "It's a war beyond anything anyone here understands. If the cabal can succeed, and keep you and me and others trapped here forever, then the cabal will win that war, and retain total dominion over Earth, as well. They will control the astral and this Earth. Right now, they mostly control Earth, but they are, or were, rapidly losing the war on the other side to the righteous."

Bill: This is going beyond anything anyone in the alternative media understands. I've never heard a single person talk about this.

Gideon: "They're gatekeepers, or just don't know."

Bill: September is coming fast, this meeting, then what?

Gideon: "Money is going to run out and be worthless. It will sneak up on people, how quickly the collapse will happen."

Bill: Do you think September will be the beginning of the collapse, and then the Reset happens?

Gideon: "I don't have an exact date. My gut feeling is they want this to accelerate by Winter."

Bill: We have no time.

Gideon: "No, we don't, and we've now experienced huge setbacks. You've lost support, people ran to the gatekeepers."

Bill: Is there a way we can get your guys to make more people Sovereign, on a larger scale?

Gideon: "Bill, we can't even trust the people who write you. Half of them are agents and stab you in the back. We've done our best, we have, but I can't promise anything."

Bill: So we go with our group. There's just a few of us.

Gideon: "It's all we can do now."

Bill: If you're not Sovereign, then you're doomed.

Gideon: "Doomed. The unvaccinated will be hunted like rabbits, because the cabal needs them alive and enslaved."

Bill: This whole world will be transformed in just a few years. Where will they put the unvaccinated?

Gideon: "They just told you."

Bill: Oh my god, that monstrosity in Saudi Arabia? Or something else? That's just what came to mind!

Gideon: "Yes, and of course many other places, underground bases. Many purposes for them. Some experimental, some for mind-control, some that are more comfortable situations, like the creation in Saudi Arabia."

"They will be treated as cattle, as experiments, but also great care will be taken so not a single one dies. Some will live in cities, go about their day, monitored, of course, with very limited movement."

Bill: Who is left outside this world when the dust settles?

Gideon: "Sovereigns, mostly, a few vaccinated who will limp along in compliance until their demise, the third world people, who will be thinned out and exterminated with a similar voluntary vaccination program, and sent on to the cabal's armies on the other side."

Bill: I just realized something. This won't happen right away. CSRQ will happen, but the completion, it would have to be years away.

Gideon: "True, it won't happen right away. For now, their focus is on collapsing the currencies and Resetting the world. What I'm talking about is their much bigger plan. By 2030, it will be fully implemented."

Bill: But the Reset and CSRQ will happen soon?

Gideon: "Yes, very soon. Then they will have about seven years to get things sorted. The vaccinated will die off, and go the other side and fight for the cabal there. The unvaccinated will be forced to take the nano-hydra, and placed in extremely restrictive conditions."

All of the logistics of transitioning the world will take place over those seven years of tribulation, then in 2030 it will be done. The vaccinated, dead and gone. The third world, mostly disposed of, with some left over for other purposes, and the previously unvaccinated now vaccinated with the nano- hydra, tucked away, safe, hooked up to the machines, living in the Metaverse, and immortal. Unable to move on and join the righteous warriors on the other side. This is their vision. No one even knows about it, no one is even stopping it."

Bill: This is a nightmare beyond all conceivable nightmares.

Gideon: "Yes it is."

Bill: Ok, I need to think about all this. I want to follow this up. Can we go deeper into this again? You opened a can of worms, there's no closing it, I want to know it all now.

Gideon: "You will, we will soon."

Bill: Let me take a moment to recap all this. So, first the cabal wanted to kill Billions of their own sheep here on Earth, to send them to fight for their armies in the astral plane. Then, to starve the side of the righteous, the ones they are fighting, they are going to keep the unvaccinated here on Earth, hooked up to machines, and force them to live forever. Did I get it about right?

Gideon: "You did. It's a war being fought in two different dimensions. Now does it all make more sense what the cabal is up to?"

Bill: I've always believed there was a spiritual element. And this explains why they killed off their own people, they ones who are complaint! The ones who already serve the cabal! They all took a poison shot! I could never figure out why they wanted them dead, of all the people, those are the ones who support the cabal the most. With this, it's the full picture. But I still need to process it in my mind.

Gideon: "The cabal is moving in and out of both these realms, Bill. That's what this September meeting is going to entail. It's what they do, during their meetings. They have seances. They access other entities, from beyond. They meet with and speak to commanders who lead the armies over there. Then they work day and night to keep the sheep on Earth totally stuck in a materialistic belief system, so they never clue in on the fact there's more beyond this life."

Bill: This is so interesting. So the cabal feels that someone who gets vaccinated will be a reliable warrior for them on the other side? Simply getting vaccinated is enough for them to send them on to fight?

Gideon: "Yes. It's a statement of submission. To have gotten this vaccine, you told the cabal that you will serve and submit. It's all they need."

Bill: Even those who were reluctant, and didn't want to lose their jobs, and took it anyway?

Gideon: "That was more than enough to show submission. They will have to fight in the cabal's army on the other side, whether they like it or not."

Bill: And the unvaccinated, they would fight for the righteous army?

Gideon: "They most certainly would, once they pass on. Not only is their blood pure, their spirits are pure. They rejected the cabal, with a bold statement. The righteous in the astral plane will welcome them. God will welcome them."

Bill: The cabal is going to do the Reset, CSRQ, force-vaccinate, then hook us up to the Metaverse, and keep us alive forever. We won't ever move on. We won't be able to fight here in this world at all, and we'll never die and go help fight in the next.

Gideon: "This is their grand plan."

Bill: They're violating free will.

Gideon: "As far as they are concerned, after this next ceremony in September, they will have free reign to do whatever they want. They are claiming total dominion over Earth."

Bill: They're claiming Earth. This is their moment. This must be a huge deal for them.

Gideon: "It's everything."

Bill: Can't we get the military to go in and hunt them down?

Gideon: "They control the military."

Bill: Do you know where this meeting will be?

Gideon: "I don't know, my source isn't sure. They love Switzerland but it could be anywhere, I mean, anywhere. For something like this, it could be Antarctica, it could be a remote desert part of Australia. It's the most important ceremony they've done in over a hundred years."

Bill: I see. Well, I need to ponder this. I'm going to publish this. I worry we'll lose credibility. This is too much.

Gideon: "Bill, how many times do I have to tell you? It doesn't matter if you helped a sick dog off the street and brought it back to health, they will hate you! They will attack you! They will make twenty videos about it! 'Bill helped a dog, but we don't think the dog was really hurt!' They're fanatics."

Bill: They're just sad. I don't even pay attention to half of it, it's so stupid.

Gideon: "I want you stay on target and do not let off the gas, stay focused on what matters. Not on them."

Bill: I will. We have to be true to what we know, who we are, and what we are doing.

Gideon: "We do."

Bill: You said the other day, we need to create a new group on Session. It only allows for 100 people per group. Is that enough?

Gideon: "We have to find real warriors, Bill. S class is the only way. I'm nudging my guys. They know."

Bill: I just know if I publish this, we'll have a lot of skeptics. A lot of questions. Some will just write you off.

Gideon: "It's important they consider it and allow themselves to see the bigger spiritual picture. This Earth and this life is not the only thing, there is more beyond."

Bill: I'm going to get questions about the Bible, about God, and Jesus, and how this fits into with religion overall. How does it make sense?

Gideon: "If you read Revelation, the answers are in there. No one ever put scripture into the context I just provided. They always thought, 'This must all be happening on Earth.' Well, it is, but in multiple dimensions, not just in this one."

Bill: That's incredible. I'd never considered that.

Gideon: "The cabal want us stuck and focused on this world, and thinking nothing of the next."

Bill: I'm going to have to ask you about this war on the other side. I want to know what's going on. I want to know what the war is like, and why they are fighting it. I want to know the history, the past hundred years, everything leading up to this. I have so many questions.

Gideon: "We will get to that. For now, you should just publish this as a Part 1. People need to read this and process it first, then we can get into more questions."

Bill: Ok, fair enough. I worry you will get called a heretic. That they will say you are preaching against God's word, that you are so far afield of scripture.

Gideon: "I know the Bible, Bill. I know the Word. Even if we take away the religious aspect, what I'm telling you is what will happen. I'm giving everyone a guidebook on the cabal's real, true plans. Look deeper. It goes far beyond just needing to reduce the population. There are much bigger questions at hand.

Look at their goals with transhumanism, the Metaverse. This is their plan to win both wars, the one here and the one on the other side. Starve the righteous ones in the afterlife of new souls, and fill up the other side with the vaccinated sheep. Now the other side is strong. Meanwhile, keep the unvaccinated here on Earth trapped and controlled."

Bill: It's an insane plan but I can see how it would work and why they are doing it, if it's really true there's this war on the other side. And you always said the drones were not really meant to kill, they're meant to vaccinate the unvaccinated.

Gideon: "They will always prioritize that, but some will die. They do plan to kill some people, but not many. They believe the fiercest fighters are the ones who could really help the righteous ones on the other side, so they really want them trapped, captured and alive here on Earth."

Bill: I'm really curious how the world will look in four of five years. How they will pull this off. How it can really be done. Will anything look normal?

Gideon: "Yes, of course. The vaccinated will slowly be dying. The cabal is ready with plans to help transition the world. The unvaccinated, eventually be forced to take the nano-hydra, will still live and function. They'll have homes or apartments, but live under constant surveillance and oppression. They won't be able to travel. This is why the cabal is so focused on travel restrictions.

The cabal wants the unvaccinated in a proverbial cage, monitored, contained, but also drugged, compliant. They think the Metaverse is the key to keeping people like you and me 'happy' in some altered state, so we don't rebel."

Bill: Wait, what about suicide? Since the cabal is trying to keep us alive, we could ... well, that can't be right.

Gideon: "No, that's not an answer. Suicide won't be an answer for us. It would work in a practical sense, but it carries with it spiritual ramifications, very bad ones. We would not be ready to fight on the other side, if we did that. The cabal is more worried about the unvaccinated resisting, but as far as I know, they are very confident in their plans."

Bill: This illustrates how important our information is. People need to wake up.

Gideon: "It does, yes. People do need to wake up. The cabal is very serious about this."

Part 2 will follow up and go much deeper into many questions that this conversation opened up. There are deep spiritual implications to what Gideon is saying.

Disclaimer: This Intel Drop is meant as a way to peel back the layers and see deeper, but we also know it is going to be highly controversial. This information is meant to be considered thoughtfully, and not meant to distract from our main efforts. We hope it is read in that context.

INTEL DROP #15 - THE CABAL BELIEVES CSRQ WILL BE WELCOMED BY THE WORLD

"THE CABAL IS EXTREMELY

MINIMAL RESISTANCE."

"Once people have felt the pressure and pain of an economic calamity, CSRQ begins to look like a good solution to many."

August 26, 2002

Here are excerpts from my conversations with Gideon over the past day or two. Thank you as always to Michael for helping edit these and cleaning them up:

Bill: We were talking the other day, and you said the cabal thinks CSRQ and their entire plan is going to go smoothly. Don't they realize lot of people won't like it?

Gideon: "Once people have felt the pressure and pain of an economic calamity, CSRQ begins to look like a good solution to many. The cabal is extremely confident their plan will proceed with minimal resistance."

Bill: I guess it depends on how they spin it.

Gideon: "They will have the media and their gatekeepers trumpeting the benefits of it. They will talk about the so-called failures of capitalism, creating a level playing field, fairness, equality, debt forgiveness, guaranteed income. They expect people to buy into it."

Bill: Biden just forgave all this student loan debt, what was that about?

Gideon: "It serves two purposes, to ensure Democrat victories in the midterm elections, and to begin to normalize the idea of debt forgiveness."

Bill: Ok, I've got two questions, I'll go one by one. First, do you think they want Democrats in power? I think both parties are corrupt, so it doesn't matter, does it?

Gideon: "Both are corrupt, but there are some non-Sovereigns who won primaries on the Republican side. They don't want them winning. That doesn't mean they won't be approached or bribed, I'm sure they will if they do win, but I don't think the cabal thinks it's certain that they would agree to it."

Bill: So it's just safer from their standpoint to keep the Democrats in power?

Gideon: "Yes, but the threat from the Republicans is fairly minimal. They always prove to be feckless and most in positions of power within the party are Sovereigns."

Bill: Ok, my second question. Debt forgiveness will be a major selling point for CSRQ, won't it? It's confusing, because the cabal loves debt, and loves enslaving people with it.

Gideon: "Yes, they do, but if you had a better system of enslavement, wouldn't you just do away with the old one and replace it with the better one? That's what CSRQ is."

Bill: So all the world's debt will be forgiven or cancelled?

Gideon: "Yes, a total unwinding and elimination of it. It will be gone. It will be sold to the consumer as a bargain, as a major relief. Many will feel good about that. There's a reason they wanted the Americans to get into so much debt, Bill!"

Bill: I see, they certainly achieved that. It's amazing how all these things tie together. There are so many interlocking confirmations.

Gideon: "They always have reasons for what they do, even if those reasons aren't immediately apparent."

Bill: Not everyone is in debt though. Many people have assets. They will lose their retirements, homes they own, their land, their assets. What about them? How will they respond?

Gideon: "With compliance. How else can they respond? They are outnumbered. The majority do not own anything, Bill. The majority are in debt. The majority live paycheck to paycheck. The majority don't like their landlords and hold resentment toward those richer than themselves. The majority will feel nothing for the asset owners, and be happy they are on the same playing field as them. The asset owners will be expected to simply shut up and go along with it. No one will shed a tear for them."

Bill: Will any of them be sold on CSRQ? I mean, be favourable to going along with it?

Gideon: "I think many of those of a more liberal persuasion will. They will see the Reset as a good thing, take their lumps, tell themselves losing their home is a sacrifice worth the greater good. Many will buy into the climate change philosophy. You're also missing that the collapse will wipe out wealth to begin with."

Bill: I keep forgetting that. I keep thinking of CSRQ in today's terms.

Gideon: "You need to get your mind out of that. CSRQ will happen when things are disastrous economically, not when things are relatively good. Right now, things are stable, there are signs of erosion, but it's nothing close to real desperation. The middle and upper classes will already be seeing their wealth vanish, so losing the rest of it won't be the shock it would be now."

Bill: Looking at the bigger picture, where do the vaccinated fit into the grander scheme? I know we already talked about this, I'm just wondering where the cabal wants them to fit in with CSRQ. They won't be around much longer.

Gideon: "Eight years is a long time, Bill, before they're all gone. The cabal wants to use them to help usher in CSRQ smoothly, and wants them to accept it so others do. They will eventually take the eternal vax nap, but in the meantime, the cabal wants them to be useful."

Bill: Interesting. I'm just trying to envision how all of this plays out. So they want the vaccinated to help support CSRQ and then they want the unvaccinated to comply? How do they think the unvaccinated are going to comply?

Gideon: "They believe many will. They believe when placed under pressure, already feeling the pain of economic collapse, they will accept the terms of CSRQ, if begrudgingly."

Bill: I think a lot of Americans will form communities, and resist. At least, they're always saying that.

Gideon: "The difference between words and actions. Americans are too lazy and accustomed to a certain lifestyle, to throw it all away. Living off-grid, out of the system, will be extremely difficult. Logistically, it won't be easy, and forming communities makes them easy targets. Accepting CSRQ will mean stability and in some sense, safety. It goes without saying, countless churches and Sovereign preachers and pastors will promote CSRQ just like they did the vaccine."

Bill: The ones who refuse and hold out will be targets for vaccination.

Gideon: "Yes, and military intervention, arrests, and so on. A lot will realize there's no winning the battle, so they will join."

Bill: What will be the reasoning or impetus to push this new vaccine, after the Reset?

Gideon: "It's one question I do not know the full answer to, I'm still asking my various sources what they may know. We just know the vaccine will be tied to CSRQ and a requirement, no exceptions, except for Sovereigns."

We think they will put together a compelling reason why it will be necessary, more compelling than Covid. It could be a new pandemic or something else, but they're not going to say, 'This is for extending your life forever and hooking you up to the Metaverse.'"

Bill: True, they always tell you some truth, but not the whole truth. Will people know this new vaccine is different from the old one?

Gideon: "Yes, they will. It is completely different. This is one reason they expect it will be more widely accepted. It won't be an mRNA type of vaccine. They're going to allow the Covid vaccines to take some public criticism and punishment. This may tie into the new vaccine, which is to say, they will admit to mistakes but then claim the new one is better. So they may do something so the unvaccinated will be more open to taking it."

Bill: Will the current crop of Covid vaccinated also take it?

Gideon: "Yes, but they won't receive the real nano-hydra version. It's likely they will be told it's the same thing the unvaccinated are getting, but it won't be. It may be another dose of the mRNA, to ensure their fates are sealed."

Bill: Incredible. But I'm still not convinced everyone will take this nano-hydra. Some would rather die than take it.

Gideon: "They know some won't take it. They have last-resort measures in place, with the drones. Once injected, there are properties within the new vaccine that will induce compliance, by the way."

Bill: I see. Like how scopolamine works?

Gideon: "Yes."

Bill: Have they been able to synthesize scopolamine so its effects last longer? I read this somewhere.

Gideon: "Yes, they have."

Bill: Oh my God. I'm assuming that won't be made public?

Gideon: "Absolutely not."

Bill: You've told me there's more to this new vaccine than just extending the life of the unvaccinated, a lot more.

Gideon: "There is. We'll need to talk about that another time."

Bill: I already know money will be made worthless. I know it's all going away. The money these people covet now, will be worth nothing. They don't get it. I don't think a lot of people following us understand that. Can you do more to explain how this unwinding is going to happen?

Gideon: "They're resetting the system, Bill. It's already over-extended and was slated for collapse in 2008. Even the cabal knows it can't go on much longer. It's worked well for them, but the debt is between $500 Trillion and $1 Quadrillion. Most of the governments are insolvent. What's left are assets, which the cabal plans to simply seize, under the guise of climate change and equality and so on."

Bill: It seems oxymoronic for the cabal to seize all assets and call that "equality."

Gideon: "The cabal makes nonsensical claims all the time, and pushes them as truth. They find this funny, in fact, the power they have in using propaganda to get otherwise rational people to believe in insane things."

Bill: Like that a woman can be a man, and a man can be a woman.

Gideon: "Yes, these are psy ops used to dismantle objective truth. If no objective truth can exist, then they can do insane things, like normalize paedophilia. They are pushing the envelope on how far they can go, in a somewhat free society, but once CSRQ is in place, it will be far easier with little resistance, because those who do resist will have their USDR deducted quickly from their accounts and their social scores will practically go to zero overnight."

Bill: Destroying truth empowers them.

Gideon: "It does."

Bill: How is all this going to be accepted if you have Sovereigns at the top soaking up all the goodies for themselves?

Gideon: "They already do, Bill. They preach about climate change but fly around in private jets. The world is already upside down, and they are getting away with it. Imagine how much easier it will be in a post-Reset world, with more consolidation of control."

Bill: And here I am, forgetting, again, that they won't be making the Sovereign statuses public. So if the public doesn't know that, then CSRQ seems more acceptable.

Gideon: "Of course it does. It will be pushed as a equalization of power and wealth plan. Something people will welcome, praise, not resist or reject! You will have a situation of desperation, and a new plan comes in."

The people who will feel the biggest impact are the upper middle class and upper income asset owners. They won't be thrilled, but they will already see a huge reduction of their wealth to begin with, as the stock market blows up and the markets in general experience capitulation. They will already be used to the idea of their wealth evaporating. CSRQ will finish the job."

Bill: You've said they won't take to the streets, though.

Gideon: "No. They won't be forced out of their homes, not at first. They will pay a minimal monthly rent, out of their USDR allotment. They won't own their home on paper anymore, so this is what they will have to accept."

Bill: Is the world going to look the same? When I go outside, cars will be driving and businesses will be open?

Gideon: "After the Reset and CSRQ is in place? Yes, similar, but some differences. Fewer cars, more consolidation of businesses, far fewer small businesses, more government centers will long queues where people will be getting new jobs, new assignments. More people in big cities, fewer people in small towns."

But there will still be things like baseball games people to go. The cabal will provide escapism, which ties in with the Metaverse. The cabal wants the world distracted, Bill, and unfocused on how their freedoms have been completely taken away."

Bill: You've said the cabal is sort of tired of all the freedoms people have. It seems like this plan just cleans up so many loose ends for the cabal. It brings the whole world into this system that suits them, where they have total control.

Gideon: "Yes, the current system allows for far too much freedom. We spoke about the spiritual reasons for this, but even without those reasons, this was going to happen. They just would not have killed off the vaccinated. Instead, they would have injected them with a nano-tracking vaccine. They did this already, but the main purpose of the mRNA is to kill, not to track. The post-Reset nano-hydra will have a tracking mechanism, which was tested with the Covid vaccines."

Bill: I see, so this was coming one way or another. It just so happens, on the spiritual side, they need their army of sheep on the other side, and not here.

Gideon: "The war on the other side is more important. They believe Earth is already their domain. There is not much of a war or resistance here at all. Losing a few Billion of their sheep here doesn't change their plans here, but it made them change things with respect to the unvaccinated."

In any other situation, the unvaccinated would have simply been eliminated, killed. This would have served to make their control of Earth far easier, but we do not live or exist in just one plane of existence, though this is what the cabal wants you to believe."

Bill: Incredible. There's so much more going on behind the scenes, that if you don't know about it, you won't be able to grasp what's happening.

Gideon: "You have to know the deeper layers and spiritual side of it, to understand it. Most don't."

Bill: The cabal does nothing by chance, do they?

Gideon: "Look at the symbolism on their buildings. Look at the intricate hand signs. Look at the orchestration of something like 9/11. These people aren't playing around, Bill. This isn't a game to them. This goes way, way beyond politics and power."

Bill: It reaches into other dimensions.

Gideon: "Yes it does."

Bill: The more I look at everything, the more I realize we can't win, not this way. Not in exposing it. People are asleep.

Gideon: "We tried the first path, and then we hit a wall. The gatekeepers had some success slowing us down. Now we are on the other path. We have to build up our core group. We have to be strong."

Bill: Should I keep focusing on spreading the word? Should we keep pushing?

Gideon: "No, we have to re-focus. Put your time into our Sovereign family."

Bill: Has the cabal backed off? There's been less pressure the past week. The agents have calmed down.

Gideon: "I said this before, but the cabal realizes we can only make a handful of people Sovereign. They've already had trouble finding the whistle blowers, they've had trouble finding who we made Sovereign. I think at this point, they aren't going to expend resources on us. They know the public is clueless. We got the truth out, but maybe only a few thousand have any grasp of it."

Bill: You also told me you think the cabal thinks that we will succumb to the freedoms and lifestyle of being Sovereign, and not fight or give that up.

Gideon: "Yes, they believe this. I would not be shocked if they find out about us after the Reset, that instead of trying to kill us or eliminate us, they will try to persuade us to join them."

Bill: That's just crazy to me. It speaks to their hubris.

Gideon: "It does. They also want warriors like us here, with them, and not on the other side. They take a lot of pride in converting people like us, bringing people like us to their side. It's a victory. They gain rewards if they can do it."

Bill: Incredible. It makes sense, though. How do we fight them? How do we win?

Gideon: "There is only one way. Our Sovereign group has to be strong, and after the Reset, we have to plan carefully."

Bill: Then this is the most important task before us of our lifetimes.

Gideon: "It's everything, Bill."

Bill: I wish people knew the steps you took to make all this possible. I get people saying to me, "Why don't they just find you." Your guys and you would have never come forward if that was remotely possible. You created so many stop-gaps, closed loops and dead-ends, its ingenious. I wish people knew.

Gideon: "It doesn't matter. We're not here to impress anyone."

Bill: You already beat the cabal, in my opinion. Now we are going to beat them after the Reset.

Gideon: "If we can not become tempted by what being Sovereign will afford us, we can beat them."

Bill: I know one hundred percent I won't be tempted.

Gideon: "Good."

Bill: People think their money will be worth something. They're talking about gold all the time. I shake my head, knowing what I know, knowing what's coming. But I still worry for them. Is there a single thing people can do to prepare?

Gideon: "If they can't become Sovereign or don't want to be, they have to think about life after the Reset and survival. They will be targets. They will stand out. They will be known. There is almost no hiding. Preserving assets will be very hard."

Bill: The best exercise is to tell yourself a hypothetical, that you wake up tomorrow and all of your cash is gone and your bank account is zero. What do you do?

Gideon: "It's extremely difficult to work through that. If you have a small community ready for bartering, you would be OK, but the cabal knows where those communities will be. The Biden Administration is already targeting the Amish. We think it's because they believe the Amish are a model for how sustainable communities can exist, so they are training their agents on how they work and how to later destroy them."

Bill: I saw that. It's so evil for them to attack the Amish. Just another confirmation, though. Every, single move the governments are making seems to line up with preparing for CSRQ.

Gideon: "They've moving many pieces into place in preparation."

Bill: I'm going to let you go. I want to ask you about the time frame right now. Where are we at? Is it coming online soon?

Gideon: "Winter is the earliest possible date. My men said they have scenarios they've had to review where it's brought online by Winter. This confirms for me what I suspected. That is very, very soon, and not in their original plans. I give it a low chance it actually happens by then, because it appears it's being treated as a contingency plan, or back-up plan, and not the actual schedule. It could happen this Winter, but it is not written. I'm expecting some time in 2023."

Bill: Ok, thank you. We'll get this update out, and finish up Part 2 of our other Intel Drop. It's important to people.

Gideon: "I have a lot more to add to that. We'll work on it."

INTEL DROP #16 - WHISTLE BLOWERS UPDATE ON CHANGES IN CSRQ

A quote by Gideon about CSRQ using debt based on personal data. The text is white and set against a dark, starry background with a nebula. The quote reads: "CSRQ WILL USE DEBT BASED ON PERSONAL DATA, NOT MONEY. IT WILL LOCK PEOPLE INTO INESCAPABLE SLAVERY."

"My guys say they are seeing some new things implemented in the Sovereign class sections. They're going to have a hierarchy."

August 28, 2022

Here are excerpts from my conversations with Gideon over the past week. Thank you as always to Michael for helping edit these and cleaning them up:

Bill: You were telling me your guys are seeing some new things in CSRQ, can you get into that?

Gideon: "We're seeing some new things. For one, they're making more people Sovereign, it looks like the total number is nearing 10 Million."

Bill: Why do you think they're making more people Sovereign?

Gideon: "We thought this would happen. More are being brought in."

Bill: I guess 10 Million isn't a lot when it's spread around the world.

Gideon: "No, it's not. There's still millions upon millions of Common class people in positions of power, who still serve the cabal and who desperately want Sovereign status. There are then others who are carefully being introduced to it, and others who simply have no clue and will never be told of it."

Bill: So right now, the Commons who do know about it are working overtime to get Sovereign status? That means they are going to push every possible goal of the Great Reset.

Gideon: "They are motivated. Any time there is a lack of will to follow through, they dangle the Sovereign carrot, so to speak. Or they introduce to a Common the truth of what's coming, and tell them their options. I've heard stories of people rejecting it, but it's rare, as in, maybe two cases of it ever happening."

Bill: Who?

Gideon: "It was an alternative media person, not that well known. I forget his name, I'll have to look him up and get back to you."

Bill: Ok, thanks. Anyway, I kept wondering why all these companies are making bug food now, just out of the blue. It's probably Common class CEOs of these companies being told to, right?

Gideon: "Yes, they are taken aside and told what's coming, and told they'll get Sovereign status if they do well. But it's bad for their brand and business model to do it."

Bill: All kinds of companies have been doing ridiculous things in terms of business model and branding. I'm assuming they all know the end game is at hand?

Gideon: "Anyone who is paying attention knows the corporations are making really dumb decisions, decisions that make no sense. But if you put it in the context of a post-Reset world and CSRQ, then it begins to make sense."

Bill: Blackrock had some program, where they wouldn't invest in a company unless they followed these climate change and sustainability rules.

Gideon: "Yes, ESG, which was really a way of masking a company's preparation for a post-Reset world. It was a very important program. Once it was more widely exposed, they did some damage control, which I found silly. I know what it's really for."

Bill: Does everyone in these companies know what's going on?

Gideon: "No, not all. Usually just upper management, the board of directors, the CEOs."

Bill: What else are they seeing in CSRQ?

Gideon: "They're seeing more in-flows from crypto."

Bill: What changed?

Gideon: "Before, we were seeing a lot of bank wires, transfers of stock, bonds and precious metals ETFs into CSRQ. Now we're seeing less of that, and more crypto."

Bill: Why would they change this behaviour?

Gideon: "I was told that some non-Sovereigns on Wall St. were asking too many questions about these transfers. So they made an adjustment."

Bill: I'd think most of those guys on Wall St. are Sovereigns.

Gideon: "No, there's thousands in varying positions who are not, whether it's Wall St. or financial centres around the world. Certainly at the higher levels they are, but if you're talking about analysts at major firms or asset managers, thousands would not be. You had so many lower level employees noticing these in-flows, since they are totally anomalous. They started asking questions, word was getting around that nothing was making sense."

Bill: It's weird to think the cabal would be threatened by some low-level people.

Gideon: "They're not threatened, it's just logistically not efficient. Not everyone who pushed the vaccines knew they were poison. If employees among the vaccine companies figured it out and started asking too many questions, that would have needed to be dealt with. It never happened at a large scale, just a few here and there, and they were eliminated. With the financial sector, it's too vast, it's literally millions of people, a huge percentage who are not Sovereign or Commons who work directly for the cabal."

Bill: Ok, that makes sense. So they changed the methods. Crypto covers their tracks?

Gideon: "Yes, it does. It's why Blackrock just set up a special division for it. Now they are just seeing massive purchases of crypto, which isn't necessarily unusual for Wall St., it's been totally normalized for this reason. They also changed how it's handled in CSRG."

Bill: How do you mean?

Gideon: "Before, they were simply holding it, but this was causing the price to gain in too much value. Now it's put in and then transferred into what's called a leverage wallet."

Bill: What's that, I've not heard of that.

Gideon: "It moves to a wallet that effectively re-sells, or really loans, the crypto into fiat on the market, but retains the Bitcoin as collateral. In other cases, they short the market. After this change was made, we saw all these huge drops in Bitcoin's price."

Bill: So they don't want Bitcoin's price going way up?

Gideon: "I think if they didn't manipulate the price, Bitcoin would go to $100,000 overnight, because of these in-flows. This would cause retail investors to pour their money into it, probably doubling it to $200,000 overnight. It would reach a Million per Bitcoin within weeks. I don't think it serves their purposes to have that happen."

Bill: I wanted to ask about corporate profits. I've seen huge declines in profits, but also reports that Wall St. is making record profits. What's really going on?

Gideon: "A lot of the numbers being reported are fuzzy numbers, Bill. Everything they're doing is to cover up the wealth being moved in USDR."

Bill: They're not just printing USDR out of thin air, are they?

Gideon: "No."

Bill: We talked about this, but just remind everyone, what was the reason for this?

Gideon: "They're no longer going to use bonds, central bank-type systems or traditional fiat, capitalistic currencies. USDR and how it's being arranged is very different. There will be no debt issued, in the traditional sense."

The supply of USDR is capped. Since it is a digital currency, similar to Bitcoin, it's going to be capped. That's extremely significant. It is also a blockchain-based ledger, and it appears they want fiat moved into USDR as an accounting procedure, rather than simply issuing USDR to Sovereigns."

Bill: Right, I had someone ask me, "Why are they moving money into it?" But you've told me many times, they want an accounting of the Sovereign wealth to be registered within USDR.

Gideon: "Yes, the wealth as it is exists in this framework. It seems to be a way for them to stratify the Sovereigns into a hierarchy, based on the wealth they were able to attain in this framework. Your worth to the cabal as a Sovereign is heavily weighted by how much money you have. So you see some of the new Sovereigns rushing to make money, to move it into USDR."

Bill: That makes sense. I would assume by the end game, they will move everything into USDR.

Gideon: "Everything they can, yes. This would happen during the collapse. In fact, this process seems to have a secondary effect of initiating and producing the collapse effects, it's very interesting how they are doing this."

Bill: You talk about this hierarchy. If I had a lot more USDR, would I have more power?

Gideon: "My guys say they are seeing some new things implemented in the Sovereign class sections, so yes. They're going to have a hierarchy. It will be based on a lot of things. If you're in 'retired' status, which you are, I'm not sure how much it will matter, but it may be the one metric you are judged by, so it may matter a lot. We're not clear. They're making updates to CSRQ right now with these changes."

Bill: Ok, it makes sense they would have a hierarchy. I would think it's based on your service to the cabal, your track record, your wealth and so on.

Gideon: "It will be like that, yes, and your previous ranking in their various secret societies."

Bill: Is me not having been in one an issue?

Gideon: "No, because your data was spoofed with another Sovereign who had previous membership. That said, it's not critical to being Sovereign, because we see at least half a Million Sovereigns do not have previous secret society membership. They had government, leadership roles, and so on, but did not belong to any organization. You would think of them as independent contractors, in a sense, who did work for the cabal, or people more recently made Sovereign who turned."

Bill: Ok, I see. There will be something else in CSRQ, you told me it is a debt-like mechanism but not based on money?

Gideon: "Yes, it's based on the social credit tracking and scoring system. CSRQ will use debt based on personal data, not money. It will lock people into inescapable slavery."

Bill: Right, we talked about how they're getting rid of debt. This will be a huge selling point to the masses, but it's a bait and switch, isn't it?

Gideon: "It is."

Bill: I just saw someone on Facebook get banned because they suggested loans have to be paid back. Facebook banned them! That felt like a confirmation to me.

Gideon: "It probably is, you're going to see a lot more about debt-freedom, debt-forgiveness. It's one way they sell CSRQ, one way they get people on board with it. The vaccinated will embrace it, and some of the unvaccinated will find it appealing."

Bill: This is radical and just incredible, from the standpoint of economics.

Gideon: "It is, but we all think it will work."

Bill: You mean, you and your guys?

Gideon: "Yes, and others."

Bill: Some of your sources?

Gideon: "Yes. One of my sources is an asset manager, very high level. He is telling me how worried he is for the middle and upper classes. He thinks they will have psychological breakdowns. They aren't going to be able to handle what will happen. He sees them scrambling to do something with their money, but they have no clue what's really going to happen.

He knows he can't help them, but he knows about USDR, too. He's in a tough spot. He's tried to give some hints, but in his mind, there's nothing he can really do. Then you have the lower classes, the paycheck to paycheck people, we honestly think they'll be thrilled with the new system."

Bill: That's scary, but I agree now with you. They're going to think it's great, especially the young people.

Gideon: "They have a lot of things in CSRQ for Common classes in terms of the social scoring, in terms of incentives. This has already been extensively trial-run in a lot of online games the young people play. They're already familiar with these types of ecosystems, in terms of levelling up a character, gaining points, or XP."

Bill: I don't know much about that.

Gideon: "It's a very big thing, Bill. You might want to brush up on it."

Bill: What do I need to look into? Online games? What kind?

Gideon: "Mobile app games, which are played by Billions of people, and online multiplayer games. A popular one is League of Legends. All of these games integrate character-based scoring and levelling systems. They've been doing this at a wide scale for ten years, getting every kid into it. CSRQ will use a similar type of system, except you are levelling yourself up."

Bill: Hmm. The vaccinated will accept this. The unvaccinated, where do they fit in?

Gideon: "I think a lot of unvaccinated young people are familiar with these games, too. It won't be an issue integrating them. Post-Reset, everyone is getting vaccinated, Bill. Everyone. So think in terms of that. The only exceptions are the Sovereigns. The cabal thinks only a very small handful will really resist, to the point drones are used."

Bill: Well, they'll resist at first. A lot will resist at first.

Gideon: "Yes, at first. A variety of psychological methods will be used to get them to comply at that point."

Bill: It's very complex, so I forget some of the parameters of what will play out. You had said the vaccinated will need to take the new vaccine, too, but they'll just give them more of the mRNA poison.

Gideon: "Correct."

Bill: It's extremely layered what they're doing.

Gideon: "It's not as simple as the idea that some megalomaniacs want to control the world. It goes far beyond that. It's a spiritual war playing out on a cosmic level most people do not understand whatsoever."

Bill: You told me you think how this new vaccine will be introduced could be very radical and not what we are expecting.

Gideon: "Yes, I don't know exactly how they will do it, but I have suspicions it will be done in a way that is really surprising. It may not use the old, obvious methods."

Bill: How do you think they could sell it?

Gideon: "Their alternative media doctors could market it, the gatekeepers, instead of the usual players, like Pfizer. No one trusts them anymore. The sheep do, but they already took the poison. The point here is to get the unvaccinated on board. They know their drones will work, but obviously they would prefer easy compliance over drastic measures."

Bill: So expect the unexpected when it comes to this nano-hydra, when they introduce it?

Gideon: "Absolutely, yes."

Bill: Someone told me I should watch Ready Player One. That Spielberg film. Did they put some foreshadowing into that?

Gideon: "Yes, they did. That would be one to watch."

Bill: Something that occurred to me that we totally skipped over is that a lot of unvaccinated people are Commons who serve the cabal. They will survive through all of this.

Gideon: "Correct. Not every, single vaccinated person will perish, because a certain percentage got a saline shot. Those would be people in moderate positions of power, ones who will work toward gaining Sovereign status through serving the cabal. You will end up with a society of Sovereigns, vaccinated Commons who received the saline shot, and the rest will be the unvaccinated, that's who is alive now who will be left in ten years."

Bill: Then you have the Third World, which was largely not vaccinated. What is their plan for them?

Gideon: "They're already being slowly vaccinated, and more vaccines are and will be introduced. The intention is to see that level of compliance, so they are suitable to transition to other side."

Bill: Right, right. By taking the vaccine, you are submitting to the cabal.

Gideon: "Yes. But the ones who strongly resist, the cabal wants them here on Earth, to stay, so everything will centre around that. It's a spiritual test. The cabal also needs a workforce to keep the cities running, so millions of Third World people are being brought into the West, flooded into the West."

The Third Worlders are also not as programmed by Western media, therefore they won't be as effective on the other side, even if they are somehow bullied into taking a vaccine. They were never a priority one way or another for this reason. The cabal understands these things."

Bill: Incredible. I've also heard there's a lot of agendas relating to that. Some of it having to do with race mixing. Some of it having to do with a Jewish agenda.

Gideon: "That would relate to some of the plans. This idea of breaking up the family, distorting gender roles, distorting race identity, it all serves a larger plan of creating a trans-human race plugged into the Metaverse, one that is controlled. That, and the world capital will be in Israel.

The interesting thing about some of the Zionists is that they are controlled by higher entities they are not aware of, meanwhile they believe strongly in a extremely inhuman, exclusionary doctrine that places them at the top of the pyramid, so to speak. They are actually part of a cog within the cabal's system, while they believe sincerely they are at the top."

Bill: Mind-blowing. There's a lot more to this we've talked about privately, should we discuss it more in Part 2?

Gideon: "We can save it for that."

Bill: I'm seeing XRP promoted everywhere by the QFS people. This is really crazy to me. The people who claim to be against the bankers are promoting the bankers coin. Can you address that?

Gideon: "It's a typical trick of the cabal. They love to get the good people worshipping their evil, so they have all of these so-called truth-seekers clamouring to buy XRP. We know XRP will have zero value after this. We know the owners of XRP have been dumping their stores of the coin on the markets for years, gaining fiat, and now they are just turning that into USDR. I told you, Bill, the Sovereigns in the Alt Media are going on a sales frenzy to gain USDR."

Bill: I see it everywhere, the sales push. They are pushing gold, silver, XRP, fake Trump bucks, all kinds of things, but you're saying none of them are actually investing in these things themselves?

Gideon: "No, they take the fiat they generate from those sales and buy USDR."

Bill: It does seem nuts to me that the cabal would let people get rich off XRP. Why would they even allow that in the first place?

Gideon: "They wouldn't. So those who are investing in it are presupposing the cabal is going to let them get rich off their special banker coin. That would never happen, and in this case, it won't happen and XRP isn't going to be used in any capacity in the post-Reset world."

Bill: These people are just driving themselves off a cliff. They're morons.

Gideon: "They are."

Bill: You told me you think there is some kind of Ripple tech in use, though, with USDR?

Gideon: "Yes, but it is apples and oranges. It has nothing to do with XRP the coin itself or anything you can buy on the open market."

Bill: I see, well, thank you for addressing that. Let's move on. I keep hearing September is a big month, in all sorts of ways. It lines up with these seven year cycle dates, the Shmita , it's historically a bad month for markets and so on. What do you see?

Gideon: "For the cabal, the meeting in September is important, as we discussed. War is still on the table, a staged war, but they would do that in Winter in the Northern Hemisphere, not now. The bottom could fall out of the markets in September, we are on the brink. I would look at the 28th of September."

Bill: We need our Sovereigns to be ready.

Gideon: "We do."

Bill: I'm bouncing all over with questions, but did you see Jared Kushner talking about immortality? The story was reported everywhere, I mean all over the media.

Gideon: "Yes. Not likely an accident he would come out and say that."

Bill: We talked about this, but the Sovereigns also want immortality for themselves, so will they take the nano-hydra vaccine?

Gideon: "No, they will not take the formulation that will be used for the unvaccinated. They have other methods, methods that use some similar concepts. The reason they won't take the nano-hydra is because it has properties that lead to a person to be submissive, lose their will power, and other effects."

Bill: What other effects?

Gideon: "I'm not at liberty to say."

Bill: Why?

Gideon: "There are limits to what I can say, with respect to the arrangement."

Bill: I understand. Another thing I wanted to ask was that it seemed like the agents backed off, what's going on? I hope it stays like this, knock on wood.

Gideon: "I spoke to you about the arrangement, but left out the details."

Bill: So that was included?

Gideon: "Yes."

Bill: There's still some agents buzzing about, in my opinion.

Gideon: "They have instructions to monitor, not to interfere. If they don't obey, there will be reprimands."

Bill: I wish people knew what was done, the sacrifice you made.

Gideon: "Our Sovereigns can know, I will instruct you when to tell them."

Bill: Sounds good. I still have people attacking me and being negative. What should I do?

Gideon: "They aren't who matters. We're not focused anymore on getting this to the public and stopping it. It can't be stopped. We tried, we failed."

Bill: Well, I don't think we failed at all, I think the public failed.

Gideon: "That's one way to put it. I'm trying to be charitable. You just need to get your mind focused on our family, our people. This isn't anymore about getting information to the public and public relations, trying to answer every question, trying to convince anyone. Don't waste your time on that."

Bill: Understood.

Gideon: "We have a short window of time. We have five now, we need at least ten."

Bill: Should we go ahead with posting the new email?

Gideon: "Yes. Be prepared to use our filtering techniques, the ones I taught you. We've had way too many people we had to reject. Very few are suitable for this, very few can be a part of this."

Bill: Ok. I will do that, but I think what we did before was smart, we had to because of the agents.

Gideon: "We did, and it worked. Since the rules of the game changed, we can finally do what we need to do without the interference."

Bill: I wish I could tell people what's really going on.

Gideon: "You can tell our Sovereigns, some of it. Run it by me first, what you plan to say."

Bill: I will. Thank you for all of this. We will defeat them.

Gideon: "The cabal doesn't think we can or will. "

Bill: They don't know our hearts then, or our souls. The cabal thinks they are all-powerful, but they're not. Only God is.

FAQ – QUESTIONS ABOUT THE FINANCIAL RESET & CSRQ-SM SOFTWARE

What is the Financial Reset?

It is a restructuring of the world's financial system. It will transition the world from a multi-currency capitalistic system to a one-currency centrally controlled system.

When will it happen?

Between four to six months from now and no later than 2024. It appears the timetable to initiate it has been moved up, and we expect it to happen sooner rather than later.

Can it be prevented?

It is unlikely. The CSRQ-SM software and USDR currency system is now nearly completed, and will be brought online once the financial collapse occurs. The public is essentially powerless to stop the coming coordinated events unless a mass awakening takes place.

What does the CSRQ-SM software do?

It manages both social credit scoring and banking transactions. More information can be found here, Gideon's story and Gideon's interview. Facts about CSRQ-SM's class system can be found here. Bill's Daily Intel Drop's also provide critical information, and we recommend reading each entry. It may be helpful to open each link into a new browser window and read through them, one by one.

What is the “class” system in the CSRQ-SM software?

There are four classes, Common, Restricted and Quarantined – and Sovereign.

The first three comprise 99% of humanity. They will all have strict limits on the assets you may own and require mandatory vaccination. They will all have a social and carbon credit score, and all will receive heavy penalties and fines for behaviour that is not approved. The system is similar to China's social credit scoring system, but more robust and stringent.

The Sovereign class comprises less than 1% of humanity. Sovereigns do not have any restrictions of any kind, and they are not required to receive vaccinations of any kind. They do not have social or carbon scores they must adhere to.

How do I know what class I'm in?

If you are a truth-seeker, voted for Trump or have explored any conspiracies on the Internet in your lifetime, at any point, then it is a high likelihood that you are in the Restricted or Quarantined class.

If your political views are more moderate, you have voted for Democrats in the past, and rarely explore alternative media, then you may be Common class.

Who is behind this software and the Financial Reset?

The World Economic Forum, the IMF, numerous central banks and countless leaders and nations. Various groups, from Freemasons, Jesuits, Jewish mystics and so-called Illuminati secret societies are also involved in varying capacities. They are controlled by a larger group whose name is not allowed to be published on the Internet without immediate censorship; as a result, little information is known about it.

Will every nation on Earth use it?

Nearly all nations will use it, with some exceptions. It appears North Korea and some African nations will not initially use the system, but documentation shows they will eventually join it. Venezuela, Haiti, Cuba and a few island nations in the Pacific Ocean are shown as having infrastructure issues in terms of integrating the system and this is being worked on.

Who or what are "agents"?

They are paid skills, disinfo operators and agent provocateurs who work for the cabal. Their job is to infiltrate groups like ours to disrupt them and ultimately destroy them.

They operate based on varying levels, starting with Level 1 (low-level, poorly trained operators who invade groups with toxicity and nonsense), Level 2 (better trained, more sophisticated operators who cause long-term disruptions), Level 3 operators (sophisticated agents who befriend others and try to infiltrate the leadership of the group), and even higher levels than those.

What will happen to my assets?

They will be seized and/or they will simply no longer exist. As there will be only one currency, USDR (which may be re-named; XDR & SDR are possibilities), if you are not able to transition your assets into the new currency, they will cease to exist.

Private property will be seized. Gold and silver will exist, but will be priced in USDR. If you are a Class C, R or Q citizen, you will not be allowed to trade it or own it, therefore its worth for those classes will be irrelevant. Bartering will be banned, and stiff penalties will be put in place for those who engage in it.

What's the best way to prepare for the collapse and Reset?

Presently, there is no way to prepare. In fact, preparation will make you a target. Systems are in place monitoring those who are “prepping” and the military will be used to “remove” those who resist or refuse to participate in the system.

An extremely advanced drone system has been developed by DARPA to neutralize anyone who resists, as well as to deliver vaccines to those who resist. This is described extensively in the other articles on our website. This short film also shows the capabilities of the drones (please note that the capabilities of the drones are much more advanced than what is shown in the film).

Who is “Gideon”?

He has a background in the intelligence field. He has multiple connections between our group and the IT professionals with access to the CSRQ-SM software. He has requested his exact professional background not be disclosed.

Who is behind what you are doing?

We are comprised of multiple patriotic individuals brought together by Gideon to ensure we can coordinate a plan and response to the coming Reset.

Presently, those who are public or semi-public include Bill Sweet, DarkDayz, SurviveTheReset, and Michael, the admin of the official video channels Gideon is using, the admin the WeAreSovereign website, and the admin of the Resist The Reset Telegram groups. Michael also proofreads and edits all posts made by Gideon and Bill Sweet.

A number of non-public individuals are also working behind the scenes to help us and coordinate with us.

Does Gideon have an email, website or social media I can visit?

Gideon does not have any public email, official website or social media links at all.

However, we do post official communications from him in our Telegram announcements channel. The only source of official Gideon communication will be through this website, the Telegram channel and our video channels.

Can you really change classes in the CSRQ-SM software?

So far, the IT professionals have been able to successfully do so, though they have said the process is relatively risky and must be done with care in mind.

Whose classes have been changed?

Gideon's, Bill Sweet's, DarkDayz's, Michael's (the Admin) and a few others among our group have been successfully changed to Sovereigns.

Can I have my class changed to Sovereign?

We are awaiting word from Gideon whether there will be plans to do this or not.

Updates and news about this will be posted in our Telegram. You may also sign up to our mailing list or send Gideon questions on our main link portal, We Are Sovereign.

Emailing us is also a good option if you wish to be considered, you can write to Bill or Michael.

Are you trying to charge fees or sell subscriptions?

No. Our Telegram rules contain an extensive disclaimer about this, and we have also posted on Twitter about this.

Anyone claiming we are “selling” anything or attempting to make money are making misleading and erroneous statements to defame us. Our YouTube channel is also not monetized, so we receive zero income from views of our videos.

In fact, we are trying to expose scammers, like Q Anon leader and child molester Phil Godlewski.
