Charlestown Residents Will Get Another Chance To Voyage On 'Old Ironsides'

Some lucky Charlestown residents will have their own day on board USS Constitution on Wednesday, June 17 when the nearly two-century-old ship makes a special cruise as part of a "Salute To Charlestown" on the 217th anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill.

The oldest commissioned ship in the U.S. Navy usually makes one turnaround cruise annually on July 4. It is returned to its berth at Pier 1 facing the opposite direction to allow both sides of the ship to be exposed equally to the Eastern sun and the weather. This turnaround has become so popular that attendees are chosen by lottery for one cruise only. This year, the participants for the "Salute To Charlestown" cruise will be selected by separate lottery.

"This will be the last opportunity for several years for the officers and crew of USS Constitution to say thank you to the residents of Charlestown for all the support and care they have given to the ship over the years that the town has been its homeport," said Cmdr. Richard Amirault, USN, commanding officer of the ship and the 63rd in command since its launching on Oct. 21, 1797.

"This will be Charlestown's special day prior to 'Old Ironsides' going into drydock in the fall for repair and restoration in preparation for her 200th birthday celebration," added Amirault.

According to Amirault, Charlestown residents who are registered voters will be invited to sign a special form and have their names placed in the "Salute To Charlestown" lottery. Sailors from USS Constitution will act as security for the lottery box and members of the Bunker Hill Day Commemorative Committee, Bunker Hill Post No. 26, The American Legion and the Bunker Hill Monument Association will man the registration desk, checking the eligibility of those entering the lottery. To apply, the person must be a Charlestown registered voter.

Voke Hosts Charity Drawing And 'Thank You,' Charlestown Party

Several hundred people packed the Knights of Columbus Hall on May 7 for the second annual "Thank You, Charlestown" party hosted by Rep. Richard A. Voke, House Majority Leader. The $2 tickets had sold fast, and the all monies realized from ticket sales went back to the community by way of a charity drawing.

The music of Andy Healy and his Country Roads Band was not wasted on the gathering, as the dance floor was filled from the start of the evening until "God Bless America" concluded the event.

During the evening, Voke called upon his mother Marion Voke and four of the Charlestown Community Appreciation Award recipients to draw the names of five community organizations who had submitted letters for the charity drawing. Bill McCabe, Florence Johnson, Rosemary Kve-

Two-Day Celebration Marks Grand Re-Opening Of USS Constitution Museum

Navy Yard tours, 19th-century children's games and clew-making are among the activities scheduled at the USS Constitution Museum's Grand "Re-Opening" on Saturday, May 16 and Sunday, May 17. The USS Constitution Museum is located adjacent to USS Constitution in the Boston National Historical Park section of the Charlestown Navy Yard.

The Grand Re-Opening features two major exhibits that comprise nearly 90 percent of the museum's exhibit space. To celebrate the opening of the new exhibits, which relate to the upcoming Drydocking and Inspection of USS Constitution, the museum is holding the two-day event, which incorporates the Samuel Eliot Morison Maritime Festival.

The celebration will kick off at 10 a.m. on Saturday, May 16 with a ribbon-cutting ceremony. The first 200 people admitted to the museum on Saturday and Sunday will receive a free souvenir poster.

Saturday's program will feature Judith Black telling stories, including her own

"Hell for a Picnic: a Young Boy's Search for His Father Aboard 'Old Ironsides'."

Sunday's program will feature storytelling and singing by Joli Gonsalves around the theme of "Cape Verdean Culture: Ship Restoration, Our Lifestyles." Storytelling is at 1 and 2:30 p.m. on both days.

Ongoing from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. both days will be:

- boat-modeling, knot-tying and clew-making for kids (a clew is the woven rope triangle that forms the end of a hammock);

- 18th- and 19th-century children's outdoor games;
- woodcraft demonstrations by student apprentices;

demonstrations by master ship modelers;

- spar-making demonstrations for a 12-foot Cats-paw dinghy which will be on display; and
- display of the USS Constitution Longboat.

Adding to the festivities will be walking tours of the Charlestown Navy Yard and an 1812 Soldiers' Encampment, both presented by the National Park Service which administers the Boston National Historical Park. The USS Constitution will be open, as always, for free guided tours.

The two exhibits opening to the public on May 16 are "A Century of Service" and "A Look Below the Waterline: Preserving 'Old Ironsides'."

Some Grand "Re-Opening" activities are free. Others require regular museum admission, which is: free for children under 17 on weekends only, courtesy of Papa Gino's and the Schrafft's Charitable Trust; $2 for senior citizens and students with I.D.; and $3 for adults.

For more information, call 426-1812.

Some People Will Celebrate Our Grand Re-Opening By Tying The Knot.

Some things just naturally go together. Like our Grand Re-Opening and the Samuel Eliot Morison Maritime Festival. They'll both be happening May 16 and 17 from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. beginning with a ribbon cutting ceremony at 10:00 a.m. Saturday. It's the perfect time to check out the museum's newest exhibits and interactive displays. Or to learn about Maritime life and history through a boatload of festival events. Like Knot Tying, Model Ship Building and more. We hope you can make it. Because these two events were really meant for each other.

SHIFTS IN REAL ESTATE MARKET TRENDS

Last summer your neighbors put their house on the market and had so many buyers that they were on the winning side of a bidding war. Now you're trying to sell, and there's just no action.

The real estate marketplace is highly fickle. Many factors come into play, the most important ones being interest rates and prevailing asking prices. In a strong seller's market, for example, prices tend to escalate. When they reach a certain point, many prospective buyers will begin to say no, and the listing inventory increases. When this happens, sellers who price their homes over the level of previous sales prices must rethink their pricing strategies. If they do not, their homes may not sell. Whether you're buying or selling a home, it's important to remember that the shift from a seller's to a buyer's market can reverse itself very quickly. You can count on us for sound advice on what our market is doing right now.

For solid advice on buying or selling real estate, consult the professionals at Monument Properties. Stop by our offices at 85 Warren St., Charlestown or call us at 241-5900.

• Congratulations . . . to St. Francis de Sales School as it celebrates its 100th Jubilee with a Mass of Thanksgiving this Sunday, May 17 at 10:30 a.m. Bernard Cardinal Law will be principal celebrant and homilist at the Mass. A reception will follow in Bishop Lawton Hall and an open house will take place in the school. All are welcome.

• It's Their Annual Gathering . . . Classmates will once again get together as the Old Schoolboys meet tonight (May 14) and the Old Schoolgirls meet tomorrow night (May 15) . . . Hope one and all have a wonderful time.

• Good Morning, Charlestown . . . Good Morning America will telecast one of this week's early morning shows from the front of the Bunker Hill Monument on Monument Square . . . The taping took place yesterday (Wednesday) around 3 p.m. . . . Doesn't take them long to find the really great spots in America, does it?

• Tip 'O The Hat . . . to Boston Public Works Commish Joseph Casazza. Through his assistance, lights have been installed on the North Washington Street Bridge along the pedestrian walkway adjacent to the site of the ongoing construction, improving the visibility and safety of those who travel the bridge. Thanks, Commish!

• Four Lovely Ladies . . . are celebrating birthdays this week . . . May 17th will be the big day for Mary Wilkins . . . and May 20th will be shared by Carol Connors, Peggy Ings and Ann Dwyer . . . Have a wonderful day, gals!

• "Cheers" . . . will feature the wedding of bartender Woody Boyd in its season finale tonight (May 14th) . . . The story behind the story is that Woody's bride Kelly will be seen in a Priscilla of Boston original wedding gown and matching veil. This dress, shown on the cover of TV Guide (May 2-8 edition), was made at Priscilla's showroom on Cambridge Street, Charlestown. For more info on this dress or the many others offered by this world-famous wedding gown maker, call Robert Kidder at 242-2677.

• 23 Days And Counting . . . The Community Liaison position on the Street Reconstruction project has yet to be filled. We are now winding down the fourth full week of construction and still no one has been hired to look out for the community's concerns . . . Meanwhile, an elderly lady has taken a bad fall trying to get out of her house, sans sidewalk, and residents are looking for answers on handicapped access and parking possibilities . . . When will construction start on the 40 Flights? . . . Folks, this liaison position was promised by the BRA because of the impact of these street projects on residents already living with the burden of the CANA project . . . The countdown continues on the promise made . . .

• May 15th's The Date . . . for wedding anniversaries. Gloria and Jim Conway, Carol and Bob Scalli and Rita and Bernie Kelly all share this spot on the calendar denoting this very special occasion . . . Have a wonderful year, each and all!

• Special Remembrance . . . to a special person. The BRA Board of Directors, at its May 7th meeting, acknowledged the great loss to Boston and, in particular, to Charlestown by the sudden death of Dennis McLaughlin, chairman of the Charlestown Neighborhood Council. The Board will commemorate this sentiment with a special presentation to Dennis' family in the near future . . . Stay tuned for more details.

• Meat Raffle To Benefit The Bunker Hill Day Parade . . . will take place this Saturday, May 16th at 1 p.m. at the K. of C. Hall. Choice selections of meat will be offered, as well as cash and scratch ticket raffles . . . Great way to support this year's parade . . . See ya there!

• Another Successful Event . . . "Best Ever!" according to those in the know . . . was the Charlestown Loves a Healthy Heart Day held last week at the Bunker Hill Mall. A record number of participants came to take advantage of all that was offered. This event has proven to be a mainstay in the community, becoming more popular each year . . . Congrats to all involved.

• They're Back . . . from Myrtle Beach, that is! Stories abound about "holes in one, lots of sun" — the usual nonsense!!!! Special thanks to Ronnie Ridings from Ned and Tommy for the new golf shoes: (There is certainly a story behind that note of gratitude — we'll never tell!)

• Finally, Meg! . . . Little Meg Gallagher has been waiting so long for her tree to be planted at the Doherty Park. Well, she finally got her wish, as well as another tree for her new baby sister Keigan . . . Don't forget to get Pop out there to water them, Meg! We'll be watching!

• At The "Yard" This Weekend . . . Drop by the Constitution Museum for the Grand Re-Opening ceremony

On Thursday evening, June 4 from 5 to 8 p.m., registration for the lottery to be selected for the "Salute To Charlestown" cruise of USS Constitution will be held at Bunker Hill Post No. 26, American Legion Hall at 23 Adams St. (at the corner of Chestnut Street).

The winners will be drawn by Cmdr. Amirault at 9 a.m. on Saturday morning, June 6 at the Administrative Office of the USS Constitution at the Charlestown Navy Yard. They will receive an invitation by mail to participate on the special cruise.

Amirault said that the special place that USS Constitution has in the hearts of Charlestown residents makes such a cruise a natural event as part of the commemoration of the 217th anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill and the 149th anniversary of the construction of the Monument by the Bunker Hill Monument Association.

The Challenge Is Out To Local Businesses To Compete In Road Race

Still fresh from the glow of accomplishment in finishing the Boston Marathon (although rumors have been heard that he is still climbing Heartbreak Hill), followed by some time for R & R in Myrtle Beach, S.C., Ned Rosselle of The Red Store is issuing a challenge to local businesses to put together a five-man (or woman) team and prepare to enter the Bunker Hill Day Road Race.

The race, which benefits the Charlestown Boys & Girls Club, will be run on the morning of parade day, Sunday, June 14. Last year, the team representing McCarthy Bros. Liquors captured the first-place trophy, besting the Marathon Travel team by a mere 35 seconds.

Rosselle doesn't mince any words as he comments on last year's race. He is still critical of Richie McCarthy, captain of the McCarthy Bros. Liquor team, for not being among the team's runners. He said that rumor has it that McCarthy has been in training and, if brave enough, may be racing. Rosselle said that one of McCarthy's team, Frankie Keane, is always running through the streets of Charlestown and he wonders from whom.

As for Marathon Travel, Rosselle said that owner Thom Gilligan is still smarting from his last year's loss to an amateur team and expects that Marathon will put an all-out effort into its quest for the "gold." He said that he is going to watch Thom carefully so that no ringers from the professional circuit will be slipped onto the team.

RICHIE MCCARTHY of McCarthy Bros. Liquors was the object of much abuse following last year's Bunker Hill Day Road Race when his team took first place in the business division without him as captain among the runners. Ned Rosselle of The Red Store holds a sign stating that "Richie didn't make it" while Edith Evans and Devil Mahoney offers comfort to a mannequin supposed to be in the likeness of Richie. Rumor has it that Richie is training for this year's race and won't take any more abuse from Ned.

Rosselle, leaving no team untouched, noted that Ironside Grille had a tremendous showing in last year's race — one runner. His one statement of praise was that runner Billy Smith, was outstanding, but when the team captain Jackie Sullivan didn't even make it to the starting line, how could they expect a win!

According to Rosselle, the Collier girls will probably be running, representing Collier's Market. He added that the Collier boys use the fact that they will be too busy working as an excuse not to run.

Rosselle stated that he hoped more businesses would get involved this year — noting that the proceeds of the race go to a good cause — the youngsters of Charlestown. He added that persons interested in competing (and probably being insulted) should call the Boys & Girls Club at 242-775 for information and applications.

Rosselle is waiting — so racers or would-be racers beware!

Perot Day In Charlestown

Supporters of the yet-to-be-announced presidential campaign of H. Ross Perot have declared Saturday, May 16 as "Perot Day" in Massachusetts.

As part of the signature-gathering drive to get Perot on the state ballot in November, Charlestown volunteers will be collecting signatures from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday at the Bunker Hill Mall.

State law requires that Perot file 10,000 voter signatures by July 28 with town and city halls for certification, in order to qualify for a position on the general election ballot. The certified signatures must be filed with the state by Aug. 27. Early reports suggest that Perot will get on the ballot in most states.

Rep. Voke Hosts 'Thank You' Party: Assists Charlestown Charities

Marek and Gloria Conway, along with Mrs. Voke, did the honors.

The five organizations, which will receive $250 each from Voke, are: Maty O'Neil Scholarship Fund, The Charlestown Teen Connection, Charlestown Youth Hockey, St. Catherine's CYO and The Kennedy Center. All of the other organizations that submitted letters for the drawing will be presented with a check for $100 from Voke.

Voke had also asked persons attending the party to bring along cans and bottles to be given to the Life Focus Center to assist its fundraising efforts in support of programs for the mentally retarded and physically handicapped. Many responded by bringing bags of cans and bottles along with them, and hundreds were turned over to the LFC.

The event could be termed nothing short of a success as residents enjoyed music and refreshments while local charities benefited from the drawing and the donations.

★ Brighton Street . . . Rite Media Inc. will go before the State Outdoor Advertising Division on Thursday, May 21 to petition for the installation of a 68-foot high billboard on Brighton Street.

Strong opposition to the billboard has been heard from residents of the area, as well as from City Councillor Robert Travaglini and members of the Charlestown Neighborhood Council.

The proposed billboard would be constructed at 50 Brighton St. According to Ken Stone, chairman of the Neighborhood Council Billboard Committee, its height would be equal to a seven-story building.

Joe Crisafulli, administrative assistant for the Outdoor Advertising Division, stated that a public hearing is held to consider the placement of the billboard. He stated that anyone interested in voicing an opinion on the matter is welcome to attend.

The hearing will be held at 10 a.m. in the second floor lobby, conference rooms 2 and 3, at the Transportation Building, 10 Park Plaza, Boston.

For more information, call Judy Evers, community liaison for the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services, at 635-3485, or Stone at 242-3073.

★ Bunker Hill Monument . . . Ambulances, Boston Fire Department Engine Co. 41 and National Park Service Police vehicles positioned at the front steps of the Bunker Hill Monument at noontime on Tuesday, May 12 brought more inquiries from residents than answers could be found.

However, after calling BFD Public Relations Officer Lt. Richard Powers, the Patriot was able to find out that a tourist attempting to climb the Monument steps suffered a heart attack. Firefighters and EMTs had to carry the man down the stairs and into a waiting ambulance for transportation to the hospital. The man's condition could not be determined at press time.

According to Powers, Engine 41, which is out of Brighton, was covering for Engine Co. 50 on Winthrop Street which was undergoing routine maintenance at the time of the incident.

★ Charlestown Man Shooting Victim . . . A 52-year-old Decatur Street resident was shot in the head as he attempted to get out of his car. The shooting occurred on Tuesday, May 12 at approximately 9:30 p.m.

The incident happened outside 74 Decatur St. in the Bunker Hill Housing Development. Boston Police Department sources stated that four gunshots were fired into the vehicle, with at least one of them hitting the victim, James Boyden, in the head.

Boyden was rushed to Mass. General Hospital where, at press time, he was listed in very critical condition in the Intensive Care Unit.

The police report that they have no suspects in the shooting, which is under investigation.

★ Summer Jobs . . . The Boston Clean Up Corps, under the direction of the Boston Parks and Recreation Department, is taking applications for summer workers. Teen-agers between the ages of 14 and 17 can call 635-HOPE between 2 and 6 p.m., Monday through Friday, for more information.

★ Charlestown Neighborhood Council Meetings . . .

— The Mitigation Committee will meet on Tuesday, May 19 at 7 p.m. to discuss landscaping plans for the former Revere Sugar Refinery site on Medford Street. The meeting will take place in the second-floor cafeteria of the Massachusetts Water Resources Authority (MWRA) headquarters at 100 First Ave. in the Charlestown Navy Yard.

MWRA Community Relations Coordinator Carrie Fuchs states that equipment has arrived at the Medford Street site to make soil preparations. This equipment had been ordered previous to the postponement of the May 4 CNC meeting, she said, and would not be able to be used for quite some time if cancelled. Fuchs stated that no landscape work will begin at the site until after the Mitigation Committee and residents agree on a landscape plan.

The meeting will be conducted by Chairman Moe Gillen and Vice Chairman Bill Galvin.

— The Charlestown Neighborhood Council Monthly Meeting will be held on Thursday, May 21 at 7 p.m. at the American Legion Hall, 23 Adams St.

The public is welcome to attend all meetings.

★ Public Safety = Be Alert . . . The monthly meeting of the Neighborhood Council Public Safety/Police Community Relations Committee brought out information on crimes that are on the increase in the community and squelched rumors on the number of assaults believed to have happened against women.

Community Relations Officer Joe McNulty reported that automobile break-ins are on the increase in Charlestown. Two vehicles parked at the Bunker Hill Mall were broken into last week, he stated, along with other breaks reported elsewhere throughout the community. He advised residents not to leave personal items exposed in their cars. Items such as golf clubs, radios, clothing and radar detectors, if visible from the outside of the vehicle, make an easy target for thieves.

McNulty stated that residents should also make sure that their homes are secured against house breaks, reminding homeowners and apartment dwellers to make sure windows and doors are locked when they are not at home.

After a reported sexual assault on April 19, rumors have run rampant in Charlestown that up to 11 women have been raped during the past year. McNulty said that just two incidents of sexual assault have been reported to the Boston Police over the past year. One incident, he stated, involved a young boy who was assaulted by a man in a van. This individual was arrested shortly after the incident. The April 19 incident, he reported, is still under investigation.

In addition to these two incidents, McNulty stated that a 14-year-old girl was approached on Polk Street by a man in a red vehicle who tried to pull her into the car. The young girl was able to get away from the man, and fled to safety. McNulty described the man as a white male, approximately 5'8" and driving a small red motor vehicle.

McNulty said that this community is perhaps the safest in Boston in which a woman can walk or jog at anytime. He added that all persons should be alert to their surroundings at all times, no matter where they are, to better ensure their safety.

Residents in the area of the Eden Street Park and the Edwards Middle School reported that conditions have improved since the last Public Safety meeting. The presence of Municipal Police cars parked in the schoolyard "pit" has resulted in the noise diminishing tremendously. Residents have complained for months that youngsters were trespassing on private property, causing disturbances and being a general nuisance.

Municipal Police Sgt. Simone Schafano and Sgt. Diego Flores stated that police cars will be dispatched routinely to drive through the area to check out any problems. According to the officers, arrests will be made if youngsters are caught in violation of the newly posted "No Trespassing" signs, or if caught drinking.

Peter Looney, vice chairman of the Neighborhood Council, asked McNulty to have spray cans containing ribbon-like colored streamers banned from being sold at the Bunker Hill Day Parade. He stated that vendors should be stopped from selling these items because they have become a serious nuisance to marchers and have damaged parade vehicles over the past few years. McNulty said that the Boston Fire Department has sent out notification that these canisters are flammable and should not be sold. He added that he would bring the situation to the attention of Deputy Robert Hayden to be discussed prior to the June 14 parade.

★ Charlestown Street Reconstruction Update . . . The Boston Redevelopment Authority Street Reconstruction Project progresses on Chestnut, Adams and Essex streets and Nearen Row.

Ralph Cunningham, resident engineer with Bryant Associates Inc., the engineering firm overseeing the project, states: "The contractor continues to install water mains on Chestnut Street from the lower end of the street to Adams Street. A couple of extra bends had to be added," he said, "to get through the existing utilities in Adams Street. An electric conduit duct bank was found on top of the water main and had to be removed and replaced to allow for the installation of the new water main."

Cunningham said that the work is somewhat tedious because of the existing utilities, but progressing very well.

Nearen Row work continues to progress toward completion with the installation of the curb and grading work. Residents of Tremont Street inquired as to why no handicapped access ramps were cut into the curbs on Nearen Row. Cunningham informed the Patriot that the cuts will be made facing Tremont Street, not on Nearen Row due to the steep incline of that roadway.

The gas services to the new lights on Nearen Row were installed prior to grading the street, and curb strip was installed for house number 2.

The contractor, John Mahoney Construction Company, Inc., also started work on Essex Street this week, stripping pavement and removing the cobblestones. The drainage was installed at the Rutherford Avenue end of Essex Street, including new connections for the roof drains.

Cunningham stated that the no-parking and leaflet distribution program seems to be working quite well. "Only a handful of cars have had to be towed since the beginning of the project," he said.

For questions or concerns on the project, call Megan Mahoney at 696-8446.

Charlestown Pop Warner Update . . .

The Charlestown Pop Warner Football Board of Directors is happy to announce that they will go forward with plans to have a football program in Charlestown. More than half the boys who signed up to play came to get measured for equipment this past Sunday. This shows they are interested and want to play.

For the players who did not get measured, it is very important that you contact Matt Stillman at 242-3035 as soon as possible.

The organization will be holding a fund raiser on Friday, May 22 at 8 p.m. at the K. of C. Hall, 75 West School St. The group is still behind in the financial department, so it would be more than helpful if there is a good showing for this event. Please look at the advertisement on this page for the list of persons from whom tickets can be purchased. Please call and order a ticket to help out the Charlestown boys so they might once again play football in the town.

The board would like to thank those who made donations to the program this past week:

- Irish American Club of Malden $100
- Bill Stella $50

Donations in any amount are welcome. They may be sent to:

Charlestown Pop Warner
 26 Cook St.
 Charlestown, Mass. 02129

Persons with questions or comments are asked to call Matt Stillman at 242-3035.

BOB D'S BEAT

by

Bob DeCristoforo

■ Andy Puopolo Award . . . Brian Ward of Lawrence Street, a member of the St. Catherine's CYO Basketball Program, received the 1992 Andy Puopolo Award of Excellence.

The award is given each year to a participant in the Charlestown Pride Basketball Camp who exemplifies the qualities that Andy Puopolo exhibited during his life — desire, determination and dedication — to name a few. This is the highest award given by the camp, and it is presented each year at The Teen Connection Awards Night.

■ Night Magic . . . This Sunday, May 17, the Charlestown Adolescent Task Force will be hosting Family Day at the Oilies (Barry Playground) on Medford Street.

It will be a day for an old-fashioned family picnic. There will be games, entertainment and fun. Headlining the entertainment will be "Night Magic," which will be performing at 2 p.m. The actual event begins at 12:30 p.m., so bring your blankets, lawn chairs, lunch, etc. and join the fun. Everyone is welcome.

■ Hayes Square Cup . . . The "Old Timers" lead the series 2-1 as we enter the week. Word from old-timer legend Mike Yandle on the "youngsters'" victory is that "we were just toying with them."

■ Spring Into Summer . . . The Charlestown Community Schools and the Bunker Hill BHA Youth on the Rise Teen Council will be hosting "Spring Into Summer" at the Medford Street gym on Wednesday, May 27 from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

All Charlestown agencies who will be sponsoring summer activities have been invited to register participants for their programs.

Rookie Ball, BNBL, day camp, overnight camp, Parks and Recreation and the Boys & Girls Club are just some of the groups which will be attending. Mark your calendar . . . Summer beings on May 27th.

■ DJ Devils Advance . . . Despite the scoring slump of Mike Walsh, D.J.'s Devils have moved on in the Saugus Hockeytown Ball Hockey playoffs with an 8-4 victory.

Tom McGrath (Cancun Rocky) had three goals, Jason MacDonald had two goals and Ron Poole and Dan Hooley had one goal each, Jim Gillen played the nets.

The next opponent will be Lynn on Saturday.

■ Bunker Hill 18+ Basketball . . . Six teams are needed for the Bunker Hill Basketball League, which will begin its rookie season the last weekend in May. Games will be played in the early evening on Sundays.

Team sponsors are needed at $175 per team. This money will help to cover league shirts and awards. For further details and rosters, see Bob D.

■ Lights Out . . . If you wonder how Local Aid cuts might affect you, as a softball or baseball player. League openings in Boston have been delayed due to the fact that lights in city parks cannot be turned on until May 18. The discussion on Local Aid is now underway. Let your State Representatives know how you feel. A Local Aid Bill is due to go to a vote at the State House.

■ Open Ball Hockey Tournament? . . . Rumor has it that an Open Ball Hockey Tournament is being planned for late May-early June. Greg Jackson has details at The Teen Connection.

■ Bunker Hill Spring Leagues . . . The weather has delayed the openings of the Bunker Hill Spring League, but we are still hoping to put the program in operation.

We are looking for teams or players for the following leagues:

- 12-and-Under Ball Hockey
- 12-and-Under Basketball
- 13 to 16 Basketball
- 13 to 16 Girls Ball Hockey
- 13 to 16 Boys Ball Hockey

See Bob D. for details and to sign up.

■ Opening Night . . . Charlestown opens the 1992 Tom Yawkey Baseball season on Monday evening, May 18 at the Ryan Playground in Sullivan Square, when they host the Shamrocks at 7:30 p.m. This game is sponsored by the 520 Club.

On Wednesday, May 20th, Charlestown will host Somerville at a 7:30 p.m. game at the Ryan Playground. This game is sponsored by the Knights of Columbus.

MEMBERS STEP OUT

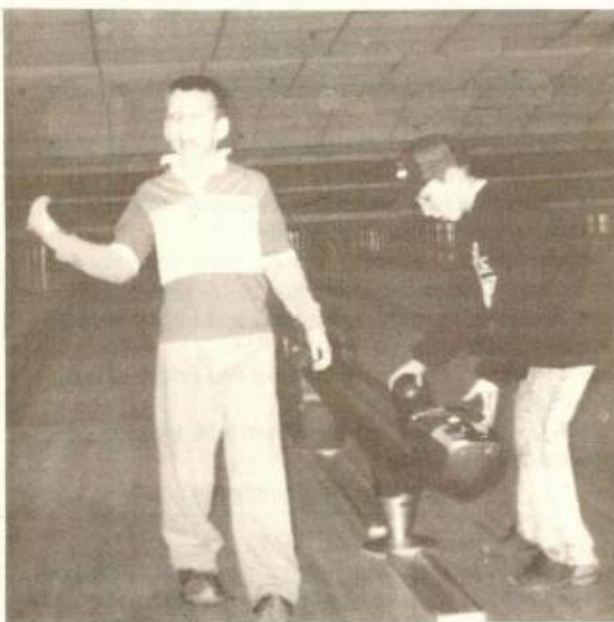

Club members stepped out on May 3 in the Walk for Hunger. Eight members, including Janell Jones, Shawna Dole, Amy Montgomery, Erin Bussell, Jennifer Griffin, Bonnie O'Leary, Shannon Dole and Christine Griffin, along with volunteer Gerard Woods and staff member Eileen O'Brien, completed the walk. They raised $340 to help the hungry while learning some important lessons on life and hunger.

TRI-CLUB SLEEPOVER

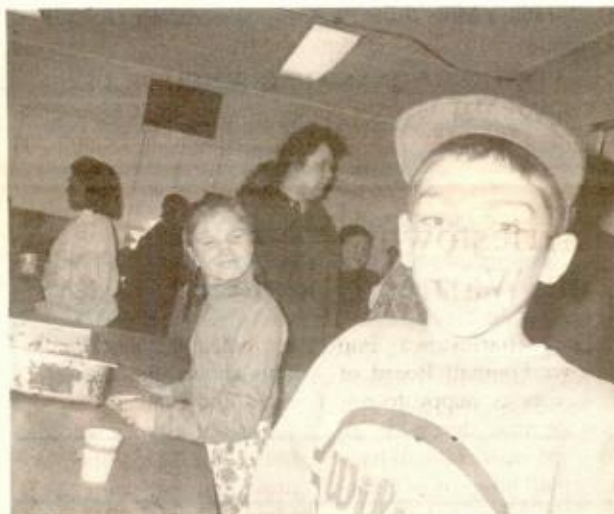

On May 7, the club hosted a Tri-Club Chef's Club sleepover. Members from the three Boston clubhouses — Charlestown, South Boston and Roxbury — received a special tour of the kitchen at Durgin Park, followed by a delicious dinner. In addition, the members went bowling, swimming, played games and watched movies. The sleepover ended in the morning with all going to breakfast. The sleepover was successful in helping the members make new friends.

BOWLING was only one of the many activities of last Friday's sleepover.

THIRD ANNUAL COOK-OFF

The club recently hosted its third annual Cook-Off. Members from the Southie, Roxbury and Charlestown clubhouses joined together and cooked their favorite recipes. All the Chef's Club members did a terrific job. Tastefully, Charlestown was the winner, and the first-place trophy will call the Charlestown clubhouse its home for this year.

The fair will be open to the public from 4 to 7 p.m. on Friday and from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday.

Participants are asked to be at the club by 3 p.m. on Friday to set up their displays.

Thank You

I want to thank all my neighbors, friends and relatives for their cards, Mass cards and telephone calls. It was very nice of them to think of me while I was in the hospital.

I'm home now, on the road to recovery, but I still need treatment.

I also want to thank my three sons for their help.

Sincerely,
James Lynch

My Thanks

Dear Friends:

I would like to extend my thanks to all the people at the Senior Lounge and to all who gave such wonderful gifts for "Queen For A Day." It will be a day that I will always remember.

There were too many gifts to mention that were given to me as "Queen For A Day," but I sincerely say they were all wonderful and useful gifts.

Thank you,
Elvie K. Lacey

Thank You, Rep. Voke

Dear Rep. Voke:

We, Zelma Lacey and Sister Ann Rita Sullivan, coordinators of the Charlestown Healthy Aging Program (CHAP), extend a sincere thank you to you.

It was a joy to be present at the Knights of Columbus Hall on May 7 and to meet with you and your many friends. We especially thank you for the donation of $100 to our program.

We are grateful to you for your continuing support and work for the Charlestown community, especially the elderly.

Gratefully,
Zelma Lacey and Sister Ann Rita Sullivan

CH.A.M.P. Says 'Thank You'

Dear Friends:

The members of the CHarlestown After Murder Program (CH.A.M.P.) would like to thank the merchants who made generous contributions to our Candlelight Vigil. Your generosity was two-fold: it enabled our group to purchase needed supplies and it reaffirmed that our efforts to stop violent crimes in Charlestown has not gone unnoticed and that the victims of murder are remembered.

Our thanks goes out to The Red Store, Jack The Barber, Lori-Ann's Donut Shop and Charlestown Liquors for their cash donations. We would like to thank Kerrigan's Flower Shop for the beautiful carnations, Store 24 for the wonderful balloons and Bunker Hill Florist for the lovely bows used to decorate the church.

Thank you very much,
Trudy Brennan

Voke Commends Artists Exhibit

To Jane Philippi, president, Charlestown Preservation Society:
 It is not possible to overstate the impressiveness of the Charlestown Preservation Society's recent Charlestown Artists Exhibit. While I am continually bragging to state officials and others about the tremendous talent possessed by the people and organizations of Charlestown, I am not sure such talent has ever been more evident than on May 2 at the exhibit opening. The artists should certainly be quite proud.
 Likewise, I hope you, your fellow officers and the entire membership of the Charlestown Preservation Society are pleased with such a huge success. While it was the artists that produced the exhibits, it was the CPS's fine work that really made the evening enjoyable for me. Congratulations!
 As Preservation Week continues, I hope all your activities meet with similar results.

Very truly yours,
 Richard A. Voke
 State Representative

Thanks For Your Generosity

Dear Gloria:
 I would like to say "Thank You" on behalf of the Kennedy Center's Senior Lounge and its chosen "Queen For A Day," Elvie Lacey. We want to express our appreciation

Thanks From The Recycling Volunteers

Dear Gloria:
 The Charlestown Recycling Volunteers would like to thank both Olives and Sorelles for their support of our raffle. Without it, the raffle would not have been the success that it was. The raffle lifted us from being in lots of debt to just a little. Olives provided a dinner for two, and Sorelles gave a picnic lunch for two. Thanks to both of them! We really appreciate it.

We would also like to thank the Patriot for its continued support over the past year. The Patriot has been wonderful in publicizing recycling in Charlestown.

Sincerely,
 Charlestown Recycling Volunteers

and gratitude to those whose generosity will make Elvie feel like a "Queen" for many months.

Our thanks goes out to: Sen. Thomas Birmingham, Blossom's Cafe, Blow-Up Hair Salon, Bunker Hill Community College, Bunker Hill Florist, Bunker Hill Tenants Task Force, "The Charlestown Patriot," Charlestown Preservation Society, Rep. Sal DiMasi, Judy Evers, Fantastic Sam's, Mayor Raymond Flynn, Governor's Alley restaurant, Johnnie's Foodmaster, Jopa's, Kennedy Center Head Start Program and Kerrigan's Flower Shop.

Also, thanks to Lori-Ann's Donut Shop, Mama Maria's, Monument Laundry, Mt. Vernon restaurant, Vincent Muscato, McCarthy Brothers Liquors, Newtowne Food Mart, Tony Pini, Councillor Rosaria Salerno, Salon 44, Mary Stearns, Councillor Robert Travaglini, Tuttle's Cleaners, The Ultimate Touch, Ann Verge, Rep. Area A, Boston Police Department

Monday, May 4

At 3 a.m., the manager of the gas station on Rutherford Avenue was at the front of the building when two men approached him from behind and knocked him to the ground. One of the suspects held him while the other entered the building and stole money from the register.

At 5:30 p.m., an elderly woman was in the parking lot of the Bunker Hill Mall when a man, described as about 28-years-old with a mustache and wearing a baseball cap, approached her, pushed her and stole her purse. The suspect was chased by another resident in the direction of the MBTA Station.

A stolen automobile was recovered on Carney Court.

At 10 p.m., Officer Bollen responded to an apartment at 50 Decatur St. where he met an occupant of the building who had been reportedly assaulted by her boyfriend. student. The assailant, a 16-year-old student, pushed the teacher, causing the teacher to receive minor injuries. The student was placed under arrest by the school police.

An automobile parked in the vicinity of 440 Rutherford Ave. was broken into during the evening. The side window was smashed, and personal items were stolen.

At 9 p.m., officers responded to 153 Bunker Hill St. where they found that a fight had occurred between two residents which resulted in both of them being cut with a knife. One of the individuals, a 32-year-old, was placed under arrest for assault with a dangerous weapon.

Thursday, May 7

Around midnight, Officer Jones observed a 17-year-old at the intersection of Main and Austin streets creating a disturbance. The officer placed him under arrest.

At 6 p.m., detectives from the Drug Unit arrested two men, a 33-year-old Revere resident and a 44-year-old Boston resident, at Union and Washington streets who were engaging in a drug transaction. Two glassine bags containing cocaine were recovered.

A 14-year-old resident reported that at approximately 9 p.m. while she was walking on Polk Street, a man approached, hit her across the face and tried to pull her into a small red motor vehicle. The victim pulled away and the suspect fled. The suspect was described as a white male, about 5'8" with long black hair.

Friday, May 8

During the day, a green Huffy bicycle was stolen from in front of 200 Main St.

Annual Doherty Park Cleanup Set For Saturday, May 16

The annual Doherty Park and Playground cleanup is set for this Saturday, May 16, from 9 a.m. to noon. Children and adults have enjoyed this day for a number of years, and have made tremendous improvements in the park area.

The Doherty Park, earlier called Charlestown Heights, was designed in the late 1800s by the famous Frederick Law Olmsted, architect of Boston's "Emerald Necklace" and many other world-famous parks. The recently formed Friends of Doherty Park are working to raise funds for planning and the eventual restoration of the park's back slope for all to enjoy.

Sponsored by the Charlestown Preservation Society and the Friends of Doherty Park, the clean-up day is funded by Massport and assisted by the Boston Parks Department.

Equipment and gloves will be provided, and early arrivals will get free T-shirts.

Participants are asked to meet at the corner of Bunker Hill and St. Martin streets on Saturday.
