YOUR VOTE DOES COUNT

We are living in a time of change. The challenges of the present and future are awe inspiring. If we, the concerned citizens, are to continue to have an influence on the destiny of our country through our constitutional form of government, we must be able to voice our support for candidates and programs that stand for what is right and just and this can only be done at the ballot box.

Voke Has Earned Support In Re-Election Bid

Democratic voters in the Second Suffolk District, which includes Charlestown and all but one section of the city of Chelsea, will be called upon next Tuesday, September 18th to cast their ballot in the Democratic Primary for their Representative to the Great and General Court (House of Representatives) of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Richard A. Voke has served this district in the House of Representatives since the redistricting of the Commonwealth occurred in 1976, and has served well during the past eight years as a strong, concerned, independent, articulate voice on Beacon Hill.

Voke has worked closely with the community on many vital issues—coordinating city, state, federal and private agencies to address the concerns of the community. Voke worked with community residents on such issues as the health and safety hazards on the sandblasting of the Tobin Bridge; the environmental and health concerns regarding the proposed change to coal as fuel at the Boston Edison's Mystic Plant; the monitoring of air pollutants in the community; the proposed asphalt plant in the City Square area—to name just a few. He has been responsive and sensitive to projects and policies affecting the community. Voke has attended and participated in community meetings and forums, offering assistance personally and from his position as Representative to initiate response and solutions to local concerns.

Voke has provided an active constituent services office, including weekly evening office hours held for the past several years in the Charlestown community, where he or a member of his staff have been available to discuss issues and concerns with residents on a one-to-one basis.

Voke's ability has been noted on Beacon Hill in his appointment as Chairman of the Health Care Committee for the House of Representatives. As chairman, he oversees issues regarding health, home care, medical payments, health professional registration, elderly and youth services. In relation to his work with health care and the elderly, he received a 100% rating from the Boston Elderly Commission and an endorsement from Frank Manning, President of the Legislative Council of Older Americans.

Voke has an outstanding attendance record in the Legislature, being recorded on over 90% of the votes taken — the highest of any House Committee Chairman.

Voke has proved himself a responsible, responsive Representative of the people in this district.

The Charlestown Patriot endorses the candidacy of Representative Richard A. Voke for re-election to the House of Representatives from the Second Suffolk District and urges voters to support him on September 18th.

Coleman Rally Set For Tonight

The following is a press release submitted by the Coleman Campaign Committee.

A final five-day campaign blitz that will bring State Representative candidate Phil Coleman to each precinct in the combined Charlestown-Chelsea legislative district begins tonight, Thursday evening, September 13, with a Campaign Rally and Dance at the Knights of Columbus on Charlestown's West School Street.

Event Chairperson and Campaign Treasurer Robert Coleman says the Rally will kick-off at 7:30 p.m. and tickets will be available at the door. He describes the event as the perfect opportunity for any of the "undecideds" to come out and hear candidate Coleman who will address the Rally at approximately 9:15 p.m.

Treasurer Coleman also says his candidate brother will continue to showcase alternative and new approaches to the job of State Representative while citing the deficiencies offered by the incumbent. He notes a 15-hour-a-day campaign schedule will keep the candidate and a dedicated group of volunteers busy through the conclusion of balloting on Tuesday evening, September 18.

"Since the first day of this campaign, Phil has said that he is campaigning for the job of State Representative and not simply against an important incumbent," adds the Treasurer. "This campaign and this particular approach has allowed us to discuss the role of the Representative as a full-time advocate for Charlestown and Chelsea and we intend to pursue this positive theme right through to the end of the campaign."

In his speech, Coleman is expected to re-emphasize his call for full-time representation that continues beyond the conclusion of the annual legislative session. He will also repeat his call for establishment of the District Legislative Review Committee which he is proposing as a means of making the Representative's actions more reflective of true community opinions while creating a means of direct resident participation in the actual writing of legislation.

Other issues and concepts that Coleman will address include his call for "on-the-street" accessibility and his concept for guaranteeing accountability through an elaborate schedule of monthly community meetings in both communities of the district.

Is he confident of victory?

"Very much so. We have accomplished a great deal in this campaign. We have illustrated the need for establishing dialogues among the government agencies responsible for labor recruitment as a direct response to the unemployment problems affecting Charlestown and Chelsea. We have noted our idea of establishing the same type of dialogue with the major employers in the District. We have also addressed the need for direct involvement with the youth and elderly and we have clearly illustrated how a pro-active State Representative can do a better job of presenting the needs of this District to all levels of government."

Continues Coleman, "And we have certainly proven to our neighbors in Chelsea that having the State Representative in your community is no guarantee of quality and dependable service. So all and all, I would say that we have offered a message that will be well received on election day."

Diet Workshop

The Diet Workshop is pleased to invite you to come to learn how to eat out and stay on a diet. Many of us know how to eat, many of us know how to diet, few of us know how to eat out and stay on a diet: the goal of the Diet Workshop is to help with this dilemma.

A free September Slimmer Diet will be given to all attendees at Diet Workshop meetings held in the Charlestown Community Center on Thursday, September 13, 1984 at 7:30 p.m.

On behalf of the Community Center, I would like to thank the Preservation Society for their recent donation. Their generosity will enable us to do over our kitchen. A special note of appreciation to Kathryn Downing, who in many ways was responsible for this donation.

Lastly, the Community Center would like to make an appeal for any scrap material and lace. If you can help us, it would be greatly appreciated.

PHIL COLEMAN

Accountability and Availability for Charlestown and Chelsea

To the People of Charlestown:

On Tuesday, September 18, you must decide between the merits of my year-long candidacy and the eight year Incumbency of our present State Representative. Before you do so, I ask that you truly think about the message we have offered and assess our potential for the future against the performances of the past.

This is what I want you to think about:

We in this District have the resources and talents to be among the most admired and respected Districts in the Commonwealth. But why are we the last to benefit from such resources?

The answer is our need for a full-time elected official who will know when to be a friend and neighbor and not simply another politician. The answer is our need for an advocate who will never fear the loss of political leverage because he chooses to ask all residents to help make our communities better places to live. The answer is our need for a leader who will effectively present our problems to all levels of government while working with new and longtime residents alike to insure that we all benefit from the expertise, activism and commitments of our neighbors.

I want to be the answer. I want to be the source that brings to this District the full-time attention that we deserve.

Take a good look around and ask yourself if we need a change. If you agree, support this call for change and improvement by supporting my candidacy with your vote next Tuesday.

Together, we can be part of a new voice for Charlestown. Our future is in your hands. Make it a better one by joining this effort for a better community and a better lifestyle for all.

Sincerely,

Phil

Ticket Deadline September 16th For St. Francis de Sales Jubilee 125 Anniversary Banquet

Plans have been finalized for the St. Francis de Sales of Charlestown Jubilee 125th Anniversary Banquet. September 16, 1984 will be the final day for ticket sales. The Banquet Committee and Ticket Committee, along with all the other committees, have worked very hard to make this banquet a huge success. The response thus far from parishioners, Charlestown residents, friends, families, and former parishioners has been overwhelming.

September 16th has been appointed for this deadline because of the work involved in setting up a banquet of this magnitude. The Jubilee Banquet will be held on Friday, October 12, 1984 at Caruso's Diplomat on Route One in Saugus. Entertainment for the evening will feature Dick McManus and the Irish Revolution. There will be a prime rib dinner served at 8:00 p.m. following the cocktail hour from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. For those who wish to dance may do so until the early hours.

There will be for those who prefer not to drive; a bus transportation to and from the Caruso's will be available for the price of $2.50.

The committee anticipates attendance of over 1,000 persons, so they urge all those interested to reserve a seat or two, maybe even reserve a table for ten.

Tickets are $20.00 per person and $200.00 per table.

Under the guidance of Reverend Daniel Mahoney, the committees have worked hard to make the 125th year of St. Francis de Sales a memorable occasion.

For tickets call: Co-Chairpersons, Essie

Martin at 242-1625 or Gus Charbonnier at 242-1877; Sue McKeon at 241-9066; or Barbara Swales at 242-2557. Tickets may also be obtained at the St. Francis de Sales Rectory at 303 Bunker Hill Street, Charlestown.

St. Francis de Sales Jubilee Anniversary Mass

St. Francis de Sales 125th Anniversary Mass will be celebrated on Sunday, September 30, 1984 at 11:30 a.m. The Most Reverend Archbishop Bernard Law will preside and preach at this joyous celebration.

A Homecoming Reception will be held in the Bishop Lawton Hall immediately following the Mass. Co-Chairpersons, Dot Collins and Bridie Lynch, of the Homecoming Committee have worked hard for the past six months to make this event successful.

So mark the 30th of September down on your calendar and come celebrate with us a Jubilee Mass to commemorate the 125th Anniversary Mass of St. Francis de Sales Church of Charlestown.

Registration For Adult Education Program

The Boston Central Adult High School, located in the English High School Building, 77 Avenue Louis

Pasteur, Boston, offers adult students an opportunity to earn a high school diploma comparable to that offered by accredited day high schools. High school graduates who need special courses to enter college or institutions of higher learning may also enroll. For those students who are interested in improving or learning new skills, we offer typing, shorthand, book-keeping, office practice, etc.

Also, instruction in Basic English and Citizenship for all persons who have little or no command of the English language and/or need instruction to receive their citizenship is offered.

Registration will take place from September 17 to September 20, from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. at the school. Classes will begin on Tuesday, September 25, 1984 and will be held every Tuesday and Thursday from 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. The registration fee is $1.00 for the residents of Boston.

To Benefit Jubilee 125 T-Shirt Sale

St. Francis de Sales Jubilee 125 Anniversary Committee will have T-shirts and sweatshirts in both children and adult sizes on sale over the next few weekends to help defray the cost of this joyous Jubilee occasion.

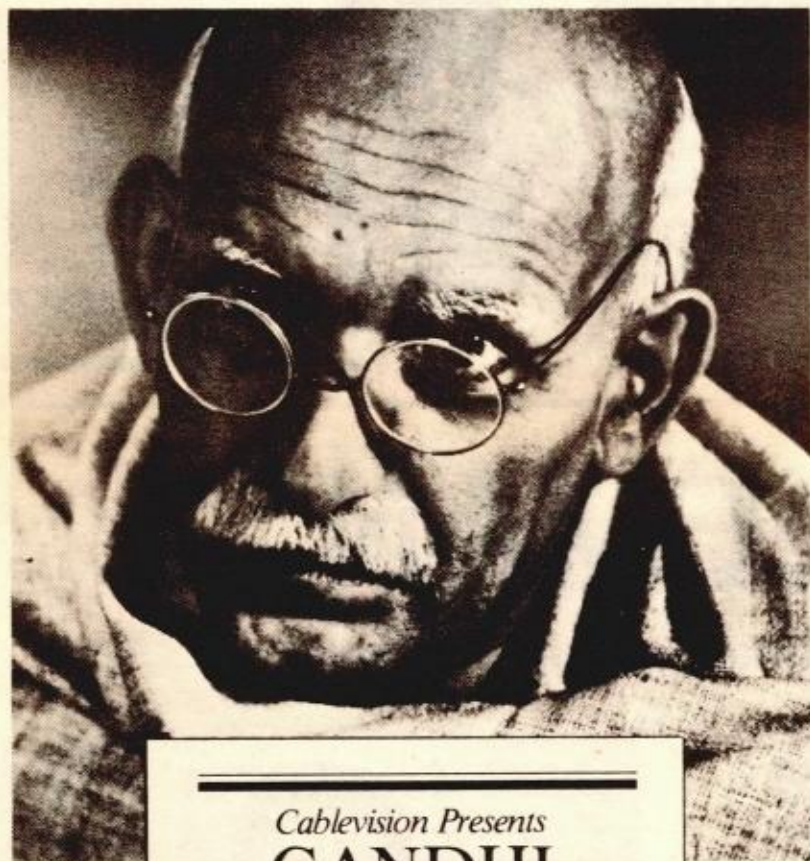

The design of St. Francis de Sales Church accentuates these items. This will be the only time this design will be sold to the public. Some people may want them for relatives who may not have been able to come from far away for this Jubilee Celebration or may simply want them for the memorable occasion or maybe just to wear, but for whatever the reason, they are truly a beautiful design displayed on quality merchandise.

If you would like one for a relative, friend, birthday or Christmas present, or just for wearing, remember that they may be purchased after the masses at St. Francis de Sales, or call 242-0428 or 242-1985 for the colors and sizes of your choice.

Local Chapter Of The Alliance For The Mentally Ill Being Formed

The Alliance for the Mentally Ill (AMI) of Massachusetts, Inc., is a statewide coalition of more than 29 local Alliance for the Mentally Ill chapters. Until now, there has not been a chapter for Charlestown residents to belong to. However, through the efforts of the Community Mental Health Unit of the Bunker Hill Health Center and the Erich Lindemann Mental Health Center, a chapter is now being formed.

The Alliance is an organization for the families of the mentally ill who are interested in improving the conditions and treatment available for their seriously troubled family members and relatives. Organizations like AMI have been instrumental locally and statewide in improving the conditions and care of the mentally retarded and of those afflicted with various types of physical problems. However, due to the stigma associated with mental illness there has not, until now, been any such group for the mentally ill. As a result, when decisions are made at local and statewide levels about how to allocate resources for human services, the mentally ill have often been left with little monies to support the services they need.

In the past few years, groups have finally begun to form across the nation to correct the neglect of the mentally ill. AMI groups exist as local, independent chapters which function within the context of the statewide AMI coalition, which in turn is a member of the National Alliance for the Mentally Ill.

The local Alliances are groups of concerned family members and citizens who meet for the purposes of mutual support and of advocacy for the rights and care of the mentally ill. "Sharing and caring" is the way they describe their efforts to provide compassionate support and understanding for the families of the mentally ill; they want family members to know that they are not alone. They also seek to educate themselves and the public about what mental illness, and in particular, what long term mental illness is. They also want to help the public realize that people with mental illness are often less dangerous than the average person. Finally, they also actively seek to improve housing and hospital conditions for the mentally ill and to better treatment programs. They do this through working with legislators, area boards, and community support systems. Each group is self-governing and self-directing within the state coalition.

The state Alliance, AMI of Massachusetts, is governed by a 15 member board of directors elected by delegates from the affiliated local chapters and mandated to carry out the objectives of the organization as a whole. It is active in state and federal legislative matters and assists local chapters through a newsletter, workshops, consultations, a speaker's bureau, and an annual conference. Some of the problems that the AMI of Massachusetts is addressing at this time include: a) insufficient funding at both state and federal levels for both the care of the mentally ill and research into mental illness; b) ineffective care problem for the mentally ill in Massachusetts when other states are trying innovative programs which could improve conditions and possibly cut care costs in the long-run; c) inadequate, sometimes non-existent, community programs to enable improving patients to live successfully in the community; d) lack of proper medical care for the mentally ill whose physical care often also suffers because they are in poorly funded and staffed programs; and e) below standard hospital care in Massachusetts where many state institutions for the mentally ill are not accredited, leaving staff and patients trying to function in poor conditions and leading to the possible loss of insurance monies that could help improve the care of the mentally ill.

For those who are not aware, long term mental illness is a catastrophic disorder whose origins are still poorly understood. It is characterized by disturbances of thinking, feeling, and relating, and afflicts over 55,000 people in Massachusetts and more than 5 million people in the United States. This means that nationwide about 15 million family members live with an affected person. Mental illness is the number one reason for hospital admissions in this country, of which more than one quarter are for people with long term mental illness. The disorder occurs in all classes and ethnic groups in equal proportion and is found all over the world.

The local chapter now being formed is for the family members of the mentally ill residing in Charlestown, Chelsea, Revere, East Boston, Winthrop, the North End, Beacon Hill, and the West End. There will be an organizational dinner and get-together in late September. Any interested family member can get more information and arrange to be invited to the organizational dinner by calling either Dr. Mark McCormick, Unit Chief, at 242-5760, or Ms. Anne McDonald, RNCS, Director, Aftercare Program, at 242-5780, both of the Community Mental Health Unit, Bunker Hill Health Center.

State Students Financial Aid Available

Senator Francis D. Doris has announced that $50 million dollars in State Student Financial Aid Funds will be available this fall to assist Massachusetts students going to college. The State Legislature recently approved the $50 million State Student Aid Budget, increasing funds for student aid by $16 million over last year.

According to Senator Doris, the increased aid will mean help for 10,000 more students in the coming school year. In addition, the size of individuals awards will be increased. Students will receive awards ranging from $360 to 1320 depending upon their family resources and where they go to college.

During the 1983-1984 school year, 799 students in the district (Senator Doris represents Revere, Everett, Chelsea, Saugus and Charlestown) received a total of $727,960 in scholarship money. During the coming school year with the increased funding those figures will increase to the benefit of the college bound students.

The Chancellor of the State Board of Regents lauded Senator Doris for his support of this important program by commenting, "Your efforts have brought significant help to young people in your district and throughout the Commonwealth."

Senator Doris stated, "I urge all students to apply for a State Scholarship. The increase in this year's budget allocation for scholarships will mean more students will be able to participate in the program."

Students interested in information should call the State Scholarship Office at 727-9420.

Facts About Drugs - F.A.D.

How do we communicate with our kids about drugs? Last week we suggested to first: remember yourself as teenagers; second: what are your attitudes towards teen drug use; third: educate yourself. Step four is communicate. The average family spends two minutes a day in open communication (which is not talking about chores, use of car, or what we have for dinner.) If you set aside ten minutes each day to focus on your child (simply watching, listening, considering) you will be ahead of the game.

There are ways of talking and listening that we can learn that will help. First: listen patiently to you child, not thinking about your next response. Withhold that quick response, and give the child all the time he/she needs to talk. Second: try repeating back to the child what he/she said, adding how you think he/she feels about what he/she said. Then the way is open for the parents response.

"I" messages are another technique in communication. Instead of: "Turn down that music, you have it blaring every night!" Try saying "I really have trouble relaxing in the evening when that music is so loud." "I" messages are successful because they do not attack or criticize the child. It gives a child a chance to respond to your feelings. This takes practice, but we can learn how to do them.

Honesty, respect, and acceptance are elements that are necessary for good communication. All parents can check themselves in these area. It is possible to not accept a child's behavior and yet accept the child. There is a big difference between: "You are a liar" and "You lied to me today."

Clarity, timing, trust, consistency, and sense of humor are all ideas important to communication.

In drug conversations, be calm and natural. If you have done your homework, you will probably know more than your kids - except the experience! Listen to your child's viewpoint, correct misinformation, and be firm in requiring certain behavior. Be patient and respect confidential material. Confront the subject together. Don't confront each other.

Next week we will look at what to avoid.

Senior Citizen Spokesman Endorses Voke

From the Office of Representative Richard A. Voke

Frank Manning, the leading spokesman for the rights of our senior citizens, and President of the Legislative Council for Older Americans issued a strong public endorsement of Representative Richard A. Voke's candidacy for re-election.

Citing his achievements and contributions on behalf of the elderly, Mr. Manning pointed to "Representative's fight to control Medex insurance rates, his successful effort to increase funding for the home care budget and his amendment to the State budget which allows elderly nursing home residents to keep more money for their personal needs".

Representative Voke was very honored and moved by the endorsement stating, "Frank Manning and I have worked together to convince others that our precious elderly need the helping hand of a compassionate government so they can live independently with dignity and pride in their own homes for as long as possible".

Mr. Manning concluded his written statement by referring to Representative Voke's leadership on elderly affairs as chairman of the Legislative Committee on Health Care and he applauded him for the 100% rating Voke received from the Boston Elderly Commission. "The people of Charlestown and Chelsea have every reason to send Richard Voke back to the State House as their State Representative so he can continue his efforts to improve the quality of life of our senior citizens"

OPEN LETTER TO PHIL COLEMAN

Dear Phil,

Over the past weeks you have attacked and distorted my record. In doing so, you have told half truths and un-truths. I have ignored your efforts to detract from my performance because your statements were so absurd.

However, your flier of Monday night does a disservice not only to you and me but more important, to the people of the district.

You state "Our representative voted NO on House Bill (H6694) on October 4, 1983 - a bill providing emergency assistance programs for the poor and homeless."

Phil, throughout my career in government I have been devoted to helping the elderly and the disadvantaged. That's why Frank Manning and the Legislative Council of Older Americans have endorsed my candidacy and the Boston Elderly Commission has given me a 100% rating.

That's why I voted YES on House Bill (H6694) on October 4, 1983 as shown by the attached roll call vote.

Yea and Nay Supplement JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE.

Finals Fall Tryouts For Babe Ruth Baseball

The Charlestown Babe Ruth Baseball League will hold its final fall tryouts for the 1985 Baseball season on Saturday, September 15, at 10:00 a.m. at the Ryan Playground. No birth certificate or registration fee is necessary at this time.

The Executive Committee is very disappointed at the poor attendance at the first two sessions. Of the forty Little Leaguers who recently became eligible for Babe Ruth, only one (a girl) appeared for the tryouts. It is hoped that this number will increase now that summer is over.

Columbus Is Ready For Charlestown In Football Opener Sunday At Hormel

The word is out, the Football Friars of Christopher Columbus High School will be ready, when they host the "Townies" of Charlestown High this Sunday afternoon at Hormel Stadium in Medford. The 1:30 p.m. game is the opener for both schools and this clash only rivals Thanksgiving for tradition.

"There will be a lot of 'Townies' on both sides of the field, and this only adds to the excitement of the intense rivalry", states Athletic Director Bob DeCristoforo of Columbus.

There is a new Coaching Staff at Christopher Columbus this year, and three of the members, including Head Coach Bob Beckwith, are from Charlestown and they are good friends of the Charlestown High Staff.

Brother against brother that what is happening at the DeAngelo household in Charlestown on Sullivan Street as Vinny DeAngelo of Columbus will be up against his brother who plays for Charlestown, and all across the town friends will be going against friends. The bragging rights for C' Town are at stake, and the winner doesn't let his rival forget about it all year.

This particular game represents one of the things that is best about high school sports, DeCristoforo continues, "while the rivalry is intense, after the game the friends remain friends!"

The Friars are coming off a very frustrating season last year, and they are anxiously awaiting Sunday's opener. This is the largest football turnout the Friars have had in a number of years, and all the coaches are pleased with the steady improvement the team has had since practice began the last week in August.

Captains Ralph Rizzo, Michael Wallace and David Gillis have done an excellent job to date, and they are "just as anxious to get going." Other returning lettermen include Mike Nee, Dan Dearden, Paul Luzaitis, Vin DeAngelo, Charles LoGrasso, Tim Doherty. Dave Christopher, Bill Vraibel, Tim Steadman, Brian O'Donnell, and Dana Guy. Players to watch might be Jimmy Donovan, Mike LoPriore, Danny Toscano, and Kevin O'Donnell.

The Football Friars would like to thank Phil Coleman, who is sponsoring this Sunday's game. Phil is also a graduate of Christopher Columbus High School.

SPONSORS COLUMBUS FOOTBALL OPENER - Phil Coleman, candidate for Representative, presents a check to Christopher Columbus Football Captain Ralph Rizzo and Athletic Director Bob DeCristoforo for this Sunday's Columbus Charlestown football game. Phil is a '67 Columbus Alumnus. He has joined other area people and organizations as a Columbus Game Sponsor for the 84/85 Athletic Year.

Pop Warner Corner

Charlestown Pop Warner Football D Team won last Sunday's game by the score of 34 to 0. The entire team played an excellent game. Good luck this week at Everett.

The C Team lost 13 to 0. With a little better offense this week, they should do better.

The B Team lost 33 to 0. This team has not had much of a chance to practice with full equipment. They should be ready to give a good effort this Sunday.

The A Team lost 36 to 6. This team has only two or three players back from last year's team. They are a very young squad and will get a lot better.

We would like to thank everybody who helped out on Sunday. A big thanks to Matt Stillman for chalking the field and doing a lot of running around all week.

MEETING

There will be a Pop Warner meeting on Monday, September 17, 1984, for coaches, board members, and anybody who would like to help out for the rest of the season is invited to attend. The meeting will be at 7:00 p.m. at Memorial Hall, 14 Green Street.

They must be returned with 25 signatures by Friday, September 21st.

The Community School Council is comprised of neighborhood residents, elected democratically each year to two-year terms. It is responsible for overseeing all Community School Programs operating at the High School and Kent Community Schools. Members are elected for precinct and at-large seats. There are three at-large and seven precinct seats up for election on October 2nd.

The pool and gym at the High School Community School will re-open Monday, September 17th at 3:00 p.m. There will be open swim every afternoon from 3:30 to 5:00 p.m. Adult swim will be Monday through Friday from 5:00 to 6:00 and 8:15 to 9:00 p.m.

If there questions on any of the above, please call 242-2770 weekdays after 9:30 a.m.

The Kent/Charlestown Community School has set its fall schedule of new course offerings. Included in the following article are descriptions and schedules of the components of the program. Courses are broken down into three different categories: 1) High School Diploma and Equivalency courses, 2) College Credit courses, and 3) interest or hobby. For further information about any of the programs, contact Joe Travis at the Community School at 242-2770.

City Roots Alternative High School

City Roots is an alternative high school program that helps students pass the GED tests or gain an external high school diploma. It is geared for 16 to 21 years old who are out of school and are also seeking part-time employment while in the program. The staff also helps students to make decisions about career plans, educational counseling, financial aid, S.A.T. information, apprenticeships program information, etc. It help students prepare for the world of work, find a job, interview for a job, resolve on-the-job conflicts, and advance to higher positions once they have a job.

If you are between the ages of 16 and 21, a resident of Boston, and have not completed your high school education and are not presently enrolled in a public or private high school, then you may be eligible and appropriate for the City Roots Program. There are no tuition or book fees. Call Barbara Hanson or Joe Travis at 242-2770 for more information. Classes run Monday to Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Super Softball September

Can the Roxbury Hawks retain their title as Boston's best softball team? Will the squad from "L" Street shake their "second place" curse this year? How will the Park League Champions fare against neighborhood winners?

Stay tuned as the 1984 Mayor's Cup Softball Tournament, opening September 12th, answers these questions and again decides who will have the bragging rights as the best softball team in Boston. "You're the best only if you can prove it" "that's our motto" explains Sports Coordinator Walter Pisarski.

Annually the survivors of a grueling double elimination tournament

(Commissioner's Cup) which features the pennant winners of the 35 Park Leagues become the Park Champions. The Park Champions then host the Mayor's Cup Tournament inviting the championship teams from recognized neighborhood leagues to compete.

All this includes the Women's Park Champions who are hosting a Mayor's Cup for a neighborhood women's champions. The Roxbury-North Dorchester Community League Champs, the TKO's, easily took top honors in '83 and the RNDCL promises a tough scrap to any challenges waiting to unseat them.

The external diploma program is designed specifically for adults who want a Boston high school diploma. Students work at their own pace in small classes and in individual tutoring sessions to prepare for the three tests and five take home tasks required in the program. The tasks include projects that deal with life such as:

- finding and keeping a job
- learning about careers
- knowing health and safety standards
- using resources in the community
- understanding government and law

When students have completed all of the tasks at an acceptable level of mastery, they are awarded a Boston high school diploma. There are classes available for the E.D.P. both morning and evening.

G.E.D. Preparation Classes and Testing

To receive the certificate, a person must pass the five multiple-choice exams: reading, writing, social studies, math, and science. With the help of teachers and tutors, students work with materials that are similar to the actual G.E.D. tests. The G.E.D. testing is held at the Community School every other month. Unemployed? Need work? The Boston Job Exchange may have a solution. Right now there are more jobs than eligible candidates to fill the positions.

- If you are:
- certified as a homemaker/home health aide

 - want to earn a competitive salary
- then call the Personnel Office, 426-5555, to arrange an interview.

Visiting Nurse Association of Boston

100 Boylston Street, Boston
An Equal Opportunity Employer

A general recruitment drive will be held for Charlestown job-seekers at the Charlestown High Community School on Medford Street on Friday, September 14th from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. On-the-spot interviewing and registration will take place during those hours. A recent recruitment drive in Charlestown has already resulted in the successful placement of several clients.

The Job Exchange is looking for qualified applicants to fill full-time and part-time openings in Boston businesses. Entry level positions for nurse's aides, shipping clerks, secretaries, restaurant workers and sales clerks are among the many available around the city. While pay usually starts at about $4.50 an hour, on the job training promises a change for upward mobility.

The personnel placement service is free for Boston residents; individuals must prove residency by bringing a driver's license, learner's permit with current address, recent utility bill, current apartment lease, Boston library card or hospital identification with address.

To qualify, individuals must have one of the following characteristics:

- consistent work history (defined as remaining at previous jobs for at least six months to one year with no unexplained extended periods of unemployment);

- a high school diploma or GED;
- previous skill training (either from a vocational education program or from a previous job).

The Job Exchange is a collaborative effort of the Neighborhood Development and Employment Agency (NDEA) and the Boston Private Industry Council. Over 700 Bostonians are put into satisfying jobs annually. Paul Grogan, NDEA Director, attributes the Job Exchange's success to a "strong effort from both the public and private sectors that work to provide the best possible service to City residents."

Job Exchange Employment Specialists are organized into four teams, each reflecting a specific industry focus. Banks, Insurance and Business Services; Hotels, Restaurants and Retail Services; Hospitals and Universities; and Manufacturing, Utilities and Communications. Teams work together to screen applicants, identify job openings, match individual clients with employer requirements, arrange interviews and provide follow-up assistance to insure a successful match. Teams confer regularly, exchanging information on applicants and job openings to promote matches by full utilizing all company contacts and client pools.

The Job Exchange has established reciprocal working relationships with community groups and the business sector. Community organizations provide access to job-ready clients who benefit from business contacts developed by the Job Exchange. Businesses in need of personnel benefit by receiving qualified, pre-screened entry-level workers thus lowering recruitment costs and reducing employer turnover rates. First source agreements between businesses benefitting from City development assistance give the Job Exchange prior notification of job openings. Such agreements promote jobs for Boston residents and help participating businesses achieve hiring compliance goals.

Beyond the cost-effective direct job-placement which the Job Exchange provides for both the NDEA and PIC, the Job Exchange serves as a successful example of the potential for collaborative efforts between the public and private sectors.
