Annual Mass Of Anointing On Sunday, April 28

St. Mary Parish will host its annual Mass of Anointing on Sunday, April 28 at 11 a.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 75 West School St., Charlestown.

Concelebrants will be Rev. James B. Canniff, pastor, and Rev. Thomas Brennan, S.D.B. They extend an open invitation to all Charlestown residents.

This community celebration has always been a popular event. It allows those confined at home to physically participate in the holy sacrifice of the Mass. A handicap van will provide transportation for non-ambulatory guests. You may call St. Mary Rectory at 242-4664 for wheelchair assistance.

The Anointing Mass is geared, also, to those who wish to strengthen their spiritual lives and/or those who wish to attend Mass in a unique setting. A light lunch will be served following the Liturgy and John Nolan, organist, will provide musical entertainment.

Main Street A Possible Target For Revitalization

Through the efforts of the Charlestown Business Association, this community is one of those under consideration as a target district to benefit from a program to help strengthen the economic climate in these financially troubled times.

According to CBA Chairperson Annette Tecce, the program, under the direction of the Public Facilities Department of the city of Boston, is a commitment by Mayor Raymond Flynn's Neighborhood Enterprise Initiative Program to revitalize neighborhood business districts to make them a viable part of the community.

CBA chose the business district of Main Street at the target for economic revitalization and proposes to dramatically improve the appearance of the street by encouraging continuity of design, creating new employment opportunities, promoting safety, and stimulating existing and new business growth.

In order to be considered as one of the target districts for the revitalization and to

Patriotic Concert And Dance Benefits 'A Hero's Welcome'

COMMITTEE MEMBERS' efforts on behalf of "A Hero's Welcome" Trust Fund realized almost $2,000 from the fund-raising event at the K. of C. Hall on April 19. This money will added to the fund that will provide a bonus for servicemen and women from Massachusetts who served in the Persian Gulf. Shown (l. to r.) Jim Evers, Terry Ring, Robin Donahue, Ed O'Connell, Darlene McCourt and Julian Regan.

UNCLE SAM, indicating that he wants you, joins Dorothy Slamin Hill, director of the Joseph F. Hill Post 156, American Legion Band of Waltham, and Ed O'Connell, chairman of 'A Hero's Welcome' fund raiser, at the K. of C. on April 19. Hill and her band entertained the gathering with a selection of patriotic marches and melodies and Hill even provided a baton twirling demonstration, a talent that won her a world's championship in the 1930s.

ED O'CONNELL (center), chairman of the local committee whose fund-raising event on April 19 realized almost $2,000 for "A Hero's Welcome" Trust Fund, thanks James W. Conway (left), Commander of Bunker Hill Post 26, The American Legion, and Congressional Medal of Honor recipient Tom Hudner, co-chairman of the fund with State Treasurer Joe Malone, for their assistance with the fund-raising venture. At the event, Conway read a list of the service people from Charlestown who served in Operations Desert Shield and Storm and acknowledged family members of the servicemen that were present.

Open Space Congress To Look At Local Parks

by James Walsh

A community meeting has been scheduled to discuss resident concerns and priorities regarding open space in Charlestown. The Boston Parks and Recreation Department is hosting this meeting as part of the continuing Open Space Congress. Please join us on Wednesday, May 1 at 7 p.m. at Charlestown High School, 254 Medford St., to take part in the Congress.

The Open Space Congress was launched in February when park advocates, community activists, residents and Parks Department staff from across the city met to discuss the future of Boston's open space. Now, residents are gathering at community meetings to discuss concerns and ideas specific to their own neighborhoods. These ideas will then become part of a comprehensive Open Space Plan to guide the Boston Parks Department for the next five years.

Charlestown's neighborhood parks have changed significantly over the past five years. Based on your input at community meetings, the city of Boston has worked to make our parks clean, safe and active. Still, unresolved issues remain and your input is needed now more than ever.

Several improvement projects are in progress or have recently been completed. Barry Field underwent $86,000 in turf maintenance. The Doherty Playground has a new tot lot and basketball courts and as a result has become a popular spot for activities such as concerts and sports clinics. Hayes Square will be completed by June 8, in time for an opening celebration.

Once a park is in proper condition and frequently used, local associations and nearby residents contribute to park maintenance and programming. Friends of the John Harvard Mall plan events for the community and help maintain their park. Friends of Winthrop Square are new partners with the Parks Department. St. Catherine Church contributes a great deal to maintaining and planning for Barry Playground and Hayes Square.

Come to the community meeting on May 1 and help take our park system to the next level of excellence. (James Walsh is the regional administrator for Charlestown in the Parks Department.)

Main Street Revitalization

(continued from page one) benefit from the resources available from PFD, the strong backing of the community is vital. Members of the Main Street Committee will circulate petitions of support within the next few weeks. The Charlestown Business Association members request that all residents and merchants unite with the organization to express their support for the proposed project.

Please sign the form below which indicates that you support the proposed economic revitalization of Main Street in Charlestown and believe this is an important step in the financial health of our community and mail it to the CBA.

HOW LOCATION AFFECTS VALUE

There's an old saying in real estate that there are three big factors that determine a house's value: location, location, location. What makes a property well located?

First, there is the fashionable factor. Some neighborhoods are just trendier than other and command a higher price tag. A beautiful home on a congested street may sell for less than its counterpart on a quiet cul-de-sac. Convenience to good schools, transportation and shopping can also increase property values. Many buyers want a home that is an easy commute to their workplace, and they may be willing to pay top dollar to cut down travel time. Just as location will influence strongly what you will pay for a home, it will also determine its resale value.

For professional advice on all aspects of buying or selling a home, talk to the professionals at Monument Properties. Come by our offices at 85 Warren St., Charlestown or call us at 241-5900.

SCHOOL SPOTLIGHT

Collegiate Athletic Scholarships Available

Over 100,000 collegiate athletic scholarships are available each year to male and female high school and junior college student athletes. Contrary to popular belief, students don't have to be all-state to qualify. Much of this money goes unused. A new publication with forms, sample letters, and tables of factual information is available for student athletes. It takes them step-by-step through the important process of getting an athletic scholarship and includes college and conference listings.

For information on how to get a collegiate athletic scholarship, sent a No. 10 self-addressed, stamped envelope to the National Sports Foundation, 612A Willow Drive, P.O. Box 940, Oakhurst, N.J. 07755.

Members Of Peer Ministry Program

Fourteen students at Don Bosco Technical High School in Boston have become members of the Peer Ministry Program in collaboration with Mount St. Joseph Academy in Brighton.

The group works on several projects during the school year and conducts monthly leadership training sessions. There will be an overnight retreat in May to close out the year.

Spring Bazaar

The Muriel S. Snowden International School at Copley, 150 Newbury St., Boston, will present a Spring Bazaar on Saturday, April 27 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. A raindate is scheduled for May 4.

The bazaar will benefit the student activity fund.

The school, a non-profit organization, is seeking any crafters who would be interesting in participating. If you would like more information about the bazaar, please call 267-9805.

News Notes From St. Catherine School

13 Tufts St., Charlestown

Where "There are no strangers, only friends you haven't met!"

• "Just Say No" . . . Jack Marsden and Chris Rizzo recently spoke to students in grades seven and eight at SCS on saying "NO" to drugs. Students were helped in articulating their reasons for saying "NO" to drugs. The emphasis was placed on the responsibility that each student has to himself or herself and to the Charlestown community. SCS offers its sincere thanks to both speakers.

• The Great Mail Race . . . The first grade students, under the direction of Miss Fennell, are currently involved in The Great Mail Race. Each member of the class of 1999 mailed one letter to each of the 50 states. Enclosed in the letters was information on Charlestown and Massachusetts. Questions relating to the number of students, weather, subjects taught and pets were included in each letter. As students receive replies, the particular states are colored in on the Mail

Map. The race is to get responses to all the letters before the students are dismissed for the summer.

• Dance . . . April 12 was a very enjoyable day for children ages 6 to 12 who were at St. Catherine Hall for a dance sponsored by members of St. Catherine Consultative Board. We extend our thanks to all who worked, sold tickets, arranged games, decorated, brought children and cleaned after the dance.

• Reunion . . . The first meeting on our Grand Reunion was held on April 10. Members of the classes of 1940, 1979, 1981, 1986, 1987 and 1991 were present. Committees were formed for set up and decorations, name tags and sign ups, mailing, class directory, clean up and program. Alumni are invited to our next meeting at 8 p.m. on May 1 to share ideas and sign up to help your Alma Mater!

Proud To Be A 'Townie'

15 April 91
29 Palms, Calif. USA

Townies,

Sorry it's taken so long to write. I've been home since 1 April 91. I've been learning and loving the family again, and it's the greatest feeling in the world.

I just want you all to know that as I wear the Combat Action Ribbon and all the other ribbons and medals I have received, they will always bring to mind the love, support and prayers given by you Townies.

In lieu of all the hype given to all of us, let's not forget the sacrifices made by the vets of WWI, WWII, Korea, Vietnam and all the other wars and conflicts in U.S. history.

I would truly love to come home for the Bunker Hill Day Parade, but I just can't afford it. Be assured I will be thinking of you on Bunker Hill Day, and maybe with the "Luck of the Irish" I will show up.

I'm proud to be an American, a Marine and most of all a Townie.

THANKS!

Gy. Sgt. Steve "Deno" Driscoll, USMC

UPDATE . . .

OPERATION WELCOME HOME

by Kathy Giordano

★ Poster Contest . . . "I'm Proud To Be An American! . . . Our Desert Storm Heroes" is the theme of the poster contest being conducted by the Welcome Home Committee for Charlestown children and students attending Charlestown schools. The winning posters will not be judged relative to artistic ability, but every entrant will have a chance for a prize in a "Luck-of-the-Draw" lottery. Posters will appear on a Welcome Home Float in the Bunker Hill Day Parade.

Posters can be submitted by individuals, classrooms or any organized group. Prizes for the drawing will be appropriate to the following age categories: 9 and under, 13 and under and 14 to 18. All posters must be delivered to The Charlestown Patriot office, One Thompson Square by Friday, May 31 at 5 p.m. The winning entries will be drawn on Tuesday, June 4 and the winners will be announced in the June 6 edition of the Patriot.

Drawings should be done on poster board. They should depict what it means to the artist to be an American and how he/she feels about the sacrifices made by the soldiers and their families during the recent crisis. Crayons, markers or paint can be used. Poster board will be supplied if needed.

For more information or questions, please call 241-9511.

★ Welcome Home Committee Meeting . . . Tuesday, April 30 at 7 p.m. at The Charlestown Patriot office, One Thompson Square. The committee consists of a wonderful group of residents from across the entire community, but we'd still like to see you join us to help make "Operation Welcome Home" the best celebration we can offer our "Townie" returning troops.

Activities thus far being planned by the committee include the poster contest, collection of signatures (hopefully from everyone in Charlestown) to be placed on a Welcome Home Parade Float and the decorating of every pole along the parade route with a yellow ribbon. The committee is still soliciting ideas.

Drop by on the 30th and join the fun of planning this special tribute to our 28 "Townie" Heroes.

★ Welcome Home Festivities . . . sponsored by the Bunker Hill Day Commemorative Committee will kick off with a Flag Day Ceremony on Friday, June 14. A band concert, unfurling of the American Flag flown over Mount Rushmore and a message from a guest speaker will take place in front of the USS Constitution in the Charlestown Navy Yard starting at 7 p.m.

A Mimmers Band from Philadelphia will present a concern in front of the Bunker Hill Monument (Monument Square at Monument Avenue) on Saturday, June 15 at 6 p.m. All service men and women who served in Operation Desert Shield/Storm will be invited to sit with their escort in a reserved area in front of the band.

The annual "Nite Before" Chief Marshal's Banquet will be held at 8 p.m. on Saturday, June 15 in the Preble Room in the Navy Yard. Each serviceman/woman and their escort will be invited guests and will receive special recognition for their service in the recent crisis.

The Bunker Hill Day Parade will be dedicated to Charlestown's 27 servicemen and one woman who served in Operation Desert Shield/Storm. Those who have the opportunity to be home will be welcome to join the line of march or ride in the parade. Each member of the military who served in the Persian Gulf will be made a member of the Honorary Parade Staff.

The 216th anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill, June 17 will see celebrations honoring the heroes of the Battle

In Loving Memory of
D.J. SMITH

Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep,
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awakened in the morning hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds,
I am the soft star that shines at night,
I may not be there when you look over your shoulder, but, please know in your hearts I am always there.

So please do not stand on my grave and weep,
Instead remember me the way I was.
We love you.

MOM

Yesterday is a faded tomorrow
Today is a reality of what's to come Tomorrow is a vision of a dream that will soon be, or that we hope to see.
Mom, your faded tomorrows are all gone,
no more pain or hurts for you, my love.
Today is your reality at peace at last with life which you embraced with such love and dignity.
Tomorrow is our vision which you gave to us with your strength and courage in everything that you did.
You gave us a dream — To be proud — walk tall and never look back.
Mom, I will do all of that because it's what you would have wanted, but I will look back to all the wonderful memories of a devoted mother who will be cherished and loved forever by everyone who ever knew

TOWNIE SPORTS LINE

The Nate Hurwitz Tournament

The 69th edition of the Nate Hurwitz Basketball Tournament came to an end this past Saturday with four division being decided. Saturday concluded six weeks of tournament action that attracted some of the state's best players and the action did not disappoint. Here are the final results of all the Hurwitz divisions:

• Girls 16-And-Under . . .
South Boston Boys & Girls Club, 42 — Charlestown Boys & Girls Club, 38

With only five players — Corey Gallagher, Nicole Matson, Kim Weafer, Kristen Connolly and Courtney McLaughlin — Charlestown gave a talented Southie club all they could handle. Congratulations, girls!

• Girls 19-And-Under . . .

Lynn, 57 — Condon, 51

In what only can be described as a classic battle, Condon was unable to throw a knock-out punch and Lynn was able to survive this 12-round match.

• Boys 13-And-Under . . .

Buddies, 49 — South End Boys & Girls Club, 47

The Buddies of New Bedford held off a late South End run and barely survived to capture the 13-and-under crown.

• Boys 16-And-Under . . .

Greater Boston AAU, 42 — Buddies, 37

In a very intense defensive game, Greater Boston was able to come up with the tough points down the stretch and held on for the five-point win. Brian Skerry of Medford was selected as Tourney MVP. Congratulations, Brian.

• Boys 19-And-Under . . .

Southwest Boston Boys & Girls Club, 113 — G.C. Stars, 90

Tourney MVP, Tory Weaver scored 28 points and S.W. Boston was off and running for their second straight Hurwitz title.

• Men's Open . . .

Brennally's, 137 — Fernandos, 125

Jim McCafferey's 54-points led a talented Brennally's team past a sharp-shooting Fernandos team. Fernandos came from 22 points down, but had nothing left at the end.

• Corporate Division . . .

Pepsi, 112 — Mayor's All-Stars, 96

In a game in which 66 fouls were called, Pepsi was able to hold on and win this marathon.

The Fred Sullivan Award for the outstanding Charlestown player went to Jamie Smith. Smith led his team in scoring in both the 16- and 19-and-under divisions. Congratulations, Jamie.

The Briars Award for Sportsmanship was awarded to the South End Boys & Girls Club. Coach Cornell Suttles and his teams made the finals in the 11- and 13-and-under divisions and always display outstanding sportsmanship qualities.

Over his three seasons with the team, McGonagle has collected 24 goals and 33 assists for 57 career points.

Posting an overall record of 8-14-2, which included an 8-12-2 mark against Wesleyan, and two victories to end the season, including a satisfying 5-2 win over ECAC South division finalist Amherst College, highlighted the 1990-91 season.

The son of John and Virginia McGonagle of Monument Street in Charlestown, McGonagle is a 1988 graduate of Boston Latin School where he was a three-time letterwinner and all-star in football, ice hockey and baseball.

At Wesleyan, McGonagle is a government major and a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity. He is the starting third baseman on the baseball team for a second year this spring and through 17 games (the team is 8-9) sports a solid .310 batting average with 10 runs scored and seven RBIs.

KEVIN MCGONAGLE

A forward for the Cardinals this season, McGonagle played in each of the squad's 24 contests and finished third in scoring with 10 goals and 17 assists for 27 points. Three of his goals came on the power play, two were short-handed, tying him for the team lead in that department, and one counted as a game-winner, ECAC North-South division teams, the Cardinals battled hard each time out during the 1990-91 season. Five losses came by one-goal margins, while eight of the remaining nine defeats came by no more than three goals. ■ Sean Farley Honored By B.C. . . . With his college hockey career behind him and graduation rapidly approaching, Sean Farley's award from Boston College is based on a meaningful blend of academics and athletics. Sean was the recipient of the Special Academic Advisors Award presented to a Boston College player who not only works hard on the ice but also works hard in the classroom.

Aspiring young athletes should take note . . . you need to be a good student first and always to be eligible to participate in high school and college sports.

The well-deserved award was presented to Sean at the 39th Pike's Peak Club Banquet held at Conte Forum. The previous and first recipient of this award was 1990 BC grad and hockey player Bill Nolan.

■ Townies Attend Red Sox/Globe Baseball Clinic . . . During vacation week Charlestown baseball standouts Marc Dollosa and Danny Dollosa attended the Boston Red Sox Baseball Clinic at Fenway Park.

Following the clinic the young men and their guests attended the Kansas City-Red Sox game, a 1-0 gem pitched by Roger Clemens. The clinic and the game was sponsored by The Boston Globe.

■ St. Catherine Girls Place Second . . . It was another great day for St. Catherine and for Charlestown at the 8th Grade Girls Olympics as 11 parishes took part in the annual April vacation week competition.

Our young ladies brought home the second-place trophy the first time Charlestown was represented in the event. Congratulations to all the participants and to all the high schoolers who helped at the event. This year's competition was hosted by St. Catherine.

■ It's A Small World . . . Arriving at the Raleigh-Durham Airport in N.C. on my way to a few days rest in very sunny Bermuda, I never expected to run into anyone I knew. Of course I was wrong!

Jack Sheehan, his wife and sister were on their way to Fort Myers, Fla. for their vacation and they, too, had an initial stop at the N.C. airport — same time, same place, same airport. We both even wondered how far we were from Duke University.

■ Bunker Hill Junior Spring Basketball . . . Six teams will be participating in the Bunker Hill Junior Spring Basketball League.

Tar Heels, Wildcats, Running Rebels, Jay Hawks, Blue Devils and the Orangemen begin action this week. These teams will be coached by members of the Charlestown Pride Basketball Team.

All games will be played at the 'Cage' weekday afternoons.

■ Spring Ball Hockey Opener . . . The newly formed 15-and-under Spring Ball Hockey League gets underway on Wednesday at the Boys & Girls Club.

In the 6 p.m. opener, Junior JAFT will face off against the Smurfs.

■ Tip Of The Hat . . . Often times we take a lot of local organizations and a lot of people for granted because they are always there, always doing their job for others. Imagine what Charlestown would be like without them.

This week's Tip Of The Hat goes to the staff at the Charlestown-Kent Community Schools. Your work is much appreciated.

■ Important Scholarship Deadlines . . .

- Graham, Redgate, Hall Scholarship . . . applications due Friday, April 26, no later than 8 p.m., at the Boys & Girls Club;
- Winifred Talbot Duffy Scholarship . . . applications due by Tuesday, April 30;
- Michael P. Quinn Scholarship . . . applications due Wednesday, May 1; and
- Old Charlestown Schoolboys Association Scholarship . . . applications due Wednesday, May 1.

C.Y.O. NEWS by Father Ron Coyne

• Sex, Lies And Gettin' High . . . CHarlestown Against Drugs (CHAD), in conjunction with St. Catherine CYO, the Boys & Girls Club and Community Schools, will sponsor a day for teen-agers on Sunday, May 5 at St. Catherine's School Hall from 1 to 6 p.m. There will be outstanding speakers on self-esteem, drug and alcohol use and abuse, teen-age sexuality, racism and prejudice, and sexually transmitted diseases. The day will end with a supper of pizza/subs and sundaes. We invite all teen-agers from 13 years of age through high school to join us.

• C.Y.O. Baseball And Softball Sign-ups . . . Registration will be held on Monday, May 6 from 6 to 8 p.m. at St. Catherine School Hall for summer girls softball and boys baseball. All divisions are based on age as of Aug. 1, 1991 and a birth certificate is required. Girls softball divisions by age are: 9-11, 12-13, 14-15 and 16-18. Boys baseball divisions are: 13-15 and 16-18. The fee is $15 per person or $25 for a family of two or more and it must be paid at registration. Practices will begin right after registration and games will get underway in June. Coaches will be present at the May 6 meeting and will have information on practice times and fields.

• Adult Mystery Ride . . . A mystery ride for adults will be held on Wednesday, May 8. The bus will leave the church at 6 p.m. and return at 11:30 p.m. The $25 cost will include transportation, dinner and a surprise. Please call Mary Walsh at 242-4096 for reservations.

• Altar Boy Walk-A-Thon . . . St. Catherine's altar boys will walk 15 miles on Saturday, May 11 in an effort to raise funds for a four-day trip to New York City in August. The boys will meet at the rectory on Saturday, May 11 at 8:30 a.m. Parents will be at stops along the route. Each boy has received a sponsor sheet to fill and that money will be put toward his trip. We ask relatives, neighbors and parishioners to support our efforts.

• Trip To New York Open To Family And Friends . . . The altar boy trip to New York scheduled for Sunday to Wednesday, Aug. 18 to 21, is now open to anyone who would like to join us. The cost of the trip is $259 and includes three nights lodging with four to a room, three breakfasts, two dinners, all transportation aboard a motor coach, a Yankees/White Sox game, a day at Great Adventure Amusement Park, a visit to the Empire State Building, NBC Studio Tour, and tours of the Statue of Liberty, the United Nations and St. Patrick's Cathedral.

Any children who would like to help finance their trip are invited to join the altar boy Walk-A-Thon. You must get your own sponsors. Any non-altar boy who would like to reserve space must leave a $50 deposit with Father Coyne at the rectory.

• Help Father Coyne Build A Mile Of Pennies . . . In an effort to get the altar boys to New York City this summer, we are going to try to build a mile of pennies (not literally). There are 5,280 feet in a mile and rolled pennies equal $2 a foot. This means a mile of pennies would add up to $10,560. We are aware that many people save pennies for a rainy day or just out of habit, and we are hoping you might like to donate them to St. Catherine's altar boys. If you are willing to help us out, please leave your pennies (rolled or loose) at St. Catherine's Rectory and we will begin our quest for a mile. This fund raiser will continue through the end of May. Thank you for your support.

• St. Catherine's Girls Outstanding in 8th Grade Olympics . . . We competed against 10 other girls teams in the annual 8th Grade Olympics at West Roxbury High School and captured the second place trophy, thanks to our team members who included: Nicole DeRoeve (named MVP), Desiree Eatherton, Shannon Anzalone, Nicole Matson, Christine Locke, Dedi Arroyo, Jacqueline MacDougall, Courtney McLaughlin, Kristen Murphy, Cory Gallagher, Kim Weaver and Allison Evers. Our coach was Paul Allen.

All referee and scorekeeping duties were handled by teen-agers from our CYO including Beth Golden, Joe DeRoeve, Michael Lyons, Michael Marino, Gordon D'Ambrosio, Brian Wadman, Tom McDonough, Michael Mainey, Jennifer Swales, Tina McDonough, Kerry Gould and Paul Allen.

Finishing in first place at the Olympics was Sacred Heart, Roslindale and in third place was St. Thomas, Jamaica Plain.

• Charlestown Family Day . . . The Adolescent Task Force, comprised of all Charlestown organizations offering programs to young people (including our parish), invites all people of Chalrestown to celebrate a Family Day at the Charlestown High School field on Sunday, May 19 beginning with a prayer service at 12:30 p.m. followed by lunch with families providing their own, games, contests, etc. encouraging families to compete with each other. We will have music throughout the day.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Letters to the Editor must be signed and include name, address and telephone number for verification. The name will be withheld if the writer so requests. Anonymous letters will NOT be published.

Dear Mayor Raymond Flynn,

The purpose of this letter is to tell you about my recently murdered cousin, John "Jay" King, the injustice of his younger brother Chris' unsolved murder five years ago, and his mother's valiant yet seemingly futile efforts to bring the murderers of her two very much loved and missed sons to justice.

Jay was a delightful 27-year-old human being who loved and cared about everyone. He was a people person, the kind of guy you liked immediately when you met him, and I loved him deeply. He had worked summers at Camp Joy with Downs Syndrome children, one of whom was his younger brother Matthew. At family functions and outings he was always entertaining and funny, and very interested in what everyone had been doing since he'd last seen them.

Jay was also a very stabilizing force for his mother after Chris' murder and the unexpected death of his father Champie 10 months ago. His efforts drew his family together once again after his dad's death and he became a pillar for my Aunt Sandy to lean on. Needless to say, Sandy's not doing too well at this point. She had seemingly gotten beyond the unsolved murder of her younger son Chris five years ago, until this third tragedy struck, rekindling her unresolved grief and rage.

I don't know if you have children of your own, but stop for a moment and try to imagine the horror of having them shot dead in cold blood. Not one, but two of her sons died at the hands of thus far unapprehended murderers. It gives one a sense of unease, at best, to know that these murderers are still walking the streets of Charlestown, sitting in its restaurants and pubs and enjoying the fruits of life, while my cousins and their family grieve.

Although no one was ever arrested and charged with Chris' murder, Jay knew the truth about who killed his brother and had confrontations with them. He told his mom just two months before he died that his own life had been threatened. He also told her who issued the threat.

My feeling in a situation such as this is that my lost loved ones will never be forgotten and will always be missed,

An Open Letter From T.A.M.s (Townies Against Murder)

Well, you've done it again. You've taken the life of another young man from Charlestown. This is not just a letter on behalf of Jay King, this is a letter for all the young men and women (unfortunately, too many to mention) who have been murdered in Charlestown. Should I say killed? I don't think so, for there was premeditation. They were murdered because they were an inconvenience in your big scheme of things and because they had the nerve to stand up and remind you what you really are — murderers and lowlife.

I've no doubt that there is no remorse on your part, no guilt; no tears or condolences for the family and friends (of whom there are many) who you have left bereaved and heartbroken. How could there be? You would have to have a heart for that! You (you know who you are) place no value on human life.

Tell me "Hard Guys," what value do you place on your own lives? What about your families' lives? And to the families of these supposed "Hard Guys," you must be so proud to have raised such compassionate human beings. (Please take that comment as snide as it was meant to be.)

Perhaps if boys learned how to be men before they started carrying weapons, there wouldn't be so much tragedy in such a small town. Being a man doesn't mean carrying out vendettas. Being a man takes more courage and honor than that. You have no courage, it's pretty easy to be brave with a gun in your hand. You'll never be anything more than cowards!!

Tell me "Hard Guys," do you think you have friends? You might think so, but you don't. You don't have real friends. You have other lowlife that condone what you do, other lowlife who are wannabe "Hard Guys."

I was born and raised in Charlestown, from the projects on up. I was never ashamed to call myself a Townie. True Townies are always there to support each other in good times and in bad. What I am ashamed to admit is that you "Hard Guys" are Townies! Apparently when they were giving lessons on how to be a True Townie, you all missed the class!

My condolences to the families and good friends of all the young men and women who have been murdered. Sadly, they will never be anything but young because their lives were cut short, cut short by someone who just disregards rules and laws and lives in their own distorted haze.

But you know, someday you'll bury one of your own family or friends. Or maybe someday you'll think about your own mortality and realize that eventually you'll answer to God. That might be "Hard," huh "Guys?"

From a "True" Townie
T.A.M.

Mr. Mayor, I Will Be Awaiting Your Response

but I can never truly put my cousins' deaths to rest until justice has been served. I pray that you will give this situation some time and consideration and perhaps expedite the resolution of this atrocity.

Our Thanks

The people of the Rutherford Avenue luncheon site want to extend a sincere thank you to the members of the Charlestown Healthy Aging Program (CHAP) for the wonderful party they gave at our site on April 19. It was very much appreciated. Thank you so very much.

Sincerely,
Carmela Kupchaunis

Thank You

My Dear Friends,

I wish to thank everyone for your expression of concern and wishes for a speedy recovery after my recent accident.

Your cards, floral arrangements and notes of good cheer have helped me through this difficult time.

Thanks again,

Father Gallagher Will Be Dearly Missed

Dear Gloria,

One night last fall several of us were going in to our monthly meeting at the Mary Colbert Apartments when we were greeted by the late Father Thomas Gallagher. He inquired as to what we were up to. We informed Father that we were forming an organization to raise money for the Charlestown Youth Fund. He nodded and moved on as did we. Twenty-minutes later, Father reappeared and made a generous contribution.

Thank You

Dear Gloria,

I would like to thank my family, relatives and friends for a most wonderful and surprising birthday party. I will never forget the most enjoyable party of my lifetime. A big thanks to all.

Renee Stillman
P.S.: A special thank you to Bob Scalli for the food and great service.

It was completely unexpected, but it should not have been. He was a very warm, caring and generous man and he will be dearly missed.

Sincerely,
Directors of The Charlestown Youth Fund

Thanks For The Party

I would like to thank Bill Cantin of The Ironsides Grille and his staff for all their help in preparing the party of April 14. I also want to thank all my family and friends who attended. I especially appreciate the visit by our guest Chris CHRIS NILAN of the Boston Bruins greets Charlestown Mayor Linda Howell at a recent barbecue at The Ironsides Grille.

Nilan of the Bruins, live and in person.

Also, I wish the very best for Bobby Quinn on his cross-country bike trip.

Sincerely yours,
Your Mayor, Linda Howell

Award Ceremony And Balloon Launch To Mark National Victim's Week

Ceremonies marking the fourth annual National Victim's Week will be hosted by the Greater Boston Chapter of Parents of Murdered Children (POMC) on Saturday, April 27 on Beacon Street in front of the State House beginning at noon.

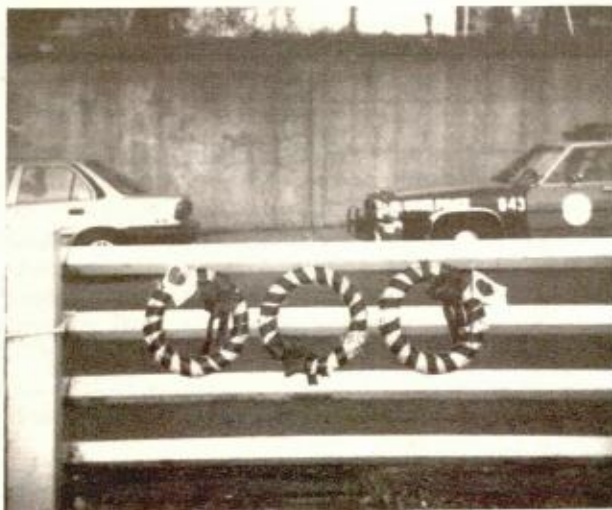

POMC is honoring five individuals for their outstanding contributions to their communities and for the assistance they have given families of homicide victims and other victims of violent crimes. Those being honored include: Judge Mark E. Lawton, Boston Juvenile Court; Sgt. John Deveney of the Boston Police Department; Charles McDonald, reporter for the Lynn Item; and Det. Robert Hickey and Capt. Joseph Coppinger of the Lynn Police Department.

During the ceremonies, Sandy King, a member of POMC whose two sons, Chris and Jay, were murdered on the streets of Charlestown, will read aloud a list of murder victims who were killed in this community over the past few years.

At 1 p.m., 1,000 balloons will be launched from in front of the State House, each bearing the name of a murder victim. The members of POMC extend an invitation to all Charlestown residents to join them for the ceremonies on Saturday. Families and friends of victims of violence may complete a card prior to the ceremony and attach it to a balloon that will be included in the launch.

WREATHS mark the site where Lynne Lavallee, Diane and John Lynch were killed by a drunk driver on Jan. 1, 1982. The remembrances were also placed to recognize National Victim's Rights Week.

Charlestown Recycling Committee by Kathy Callahan

Meg O'Leary has been preparing the "Green Pages," a brochure explaining where and how to recycle various materials. There will also be various activities for the kids.

Plans are underway for the CRC to participate in the Bunker Hill Day Parade. As plans are firmed up, more details will be announced.

The CRC is also selling T-shirts with the CRC logo for $7. If you are interested in purchasing one, contact Colleen Quinn Donnelly at 242-4360. Law Day Celebration At The Charlestown District Court

by Kathy Giordano

The Friends of the Charlestown District Court Committee is sponsoring its second annual Law Day Celebration at the Charlestown District Court on Thursday, May 2 starting at 11 a.m. The day-long celebration will include a series of mock trials by students from the six Charlestown schools and the Charlestown Boys & Girls Club, followed by an awards ceremony in the evening.

According to Martin O'Brien Sr., chairman of the committee, local attorneys have volunteered their time and talents over the past few months to coach the students on the legalities of court proceedings.

The first trial, scheduled for 11 a.m., will see Charlestown High School face the Edwards Middle School. The Harvard-Kent and the Warren Prescott Schools will argue their cases at 12:30 p.m. The third trial on the court docket is St. Catherine versus St. Francis de Sales, scheduled to begin at 2 p.m. Closing out the court proceedings for the day will be the case between members of the Boys & Girls Club, beginning at 3:30 p.m.

The Law Day Celebration will culminate with an award ceremony at 7:30 p.m. followed by a light collation provided by the Charlestown District Court Adult Support Group and the Friends Committee. The public is welcome to attend any of the Law Day events.

Chief Probation Officer Barbara Burke invites community residents who are 18 years of age or older to sit as a member of the jury. If interested, contact her at 241-5251.
