The year 2020 hasn't started that well with the pandemic Covid-19 entering our lives. But, getting frustrated or depressed isn't the solution. Locked down in our houses, we need to be mentally and physically healthy in a comfortable environment. Why not make some changes in your home?

Let's start with curtains as they bring comfort and charm in a house. There are a variety of curtains available with different styles, fabrics, colours and patterns and purchasing the right one shall beautify your room.

Are you sceptical of ordering designer curtains online? What are the trends for 2020?

Story@ home has a range of curtains which can make your home look stylish. We have come up with a few of curtain ideas for your rooms.

- The _living room_ is the space wherein you welcome guests so ensure that you have attractive curtains to please them—wide curtains with a translucent fabric of different hues, denser curtains with decorative elements. For 2020, interior decorators prefer materials like silk and linen-cotton with natural prints. Plain curtains with unique design styles can complement any room of the house. Bamboo curtains are also popular as it blocks the sunlight entering the living room, keeping it cool.

- When we choose curtains for our kitchen, we want natural light to enter the room. So, selecting light shaded curtains shall be advantageous. Curtains which are light and translucent which do not have decorative details and complex shapes shall enhance the space of your kitchen. For 2020, designers suggest silk, velvet, muslin and brocade curtains.

- Calm colours like sand, beige, green, blue, etc. get coolness in your bedroom. You should prefer fabrics that are not prone to dust and are well-cleaned. To set the mood romantic, light rosy or crème coloured curtains shall set the mood right. Avoid bright coloured curtains as they create restlessness in the room.

- Curtains for the children's room should be bright and colourful so that it makes your children feel energetic. For under 6 years age children, pastel-coloured fabrics so that it gets a soothing environment in the room. Opt for Roman or short curtains so that your child cannot pull it off easily. For older children, bright colours are usually advisable. But asking your son or daughter about their taste shall be a good option as it can vary from child to child.

Just like you update your devices, you need to update your décor as well. Try out these trendy curtains in the year 2020. Furthermore, banana straw shutter shall bring a natural touch to the contemporary styled environment. Also, wooden bind with silk curtains shall bring cosy feel to the room without blocking the natural light.
