Nicole DeRoeve Selected 1995 Charlestown Rose

Excitement filled the Knights of Columbus Hall the evening of June 2, as the families and friends of the four young women awaited the results of the judging of this year's Charlestown Rose Contest. Shortly after 9 p.m., the name of Nicole DeRoeve was announced as the 1995 Charlestown Rose.

This is the 13th year that the Charlestown-to-Charlestown Committee has sponsored this event where a young woman of Irish heritage from the community is selected to represent Charlestown in the Western Rose Festival in Charlestown, County Mayo, Ireland in August. DeRoeve will receive a trip to Ireland for herself and her chaperone to tour the country and attend the festival.

Besides DeRoeve, this year's contestants included Shawna Pelton, who was named runner-up, Christy Lane and Cheryl Lyman.

The contestants arrived at the hall early Friday night and drew numbers to determine the order in

Modica To Kick-Off Re-Election Bid June 11

Boston City Councillor Diane J. Modica will kick off her re-election campaign for the office of District One Boston City Councillor on Sunday, June 11 with announcement ceremonies in each ward of the district.

Plans call for the first announcement ceremony to be held at noon at Lo-Presti Park in East Boston, followed by a 1 p.m. ceremony at North Square in the North End, and concluding with an announcement from the steps of the Bunker Hill Monument in Charlestown at 4 p.m. The public is cordially invited to attend.

"My 1993 campaign was about empowering the people of this district," stated Modica. "With their help, I am very pleased to see the beginning of several positive initiatives underway in the district," continued Modica.

Modica cited her support for the re-establishment of the East Boston Ferry, the award of the Main Street Revitalization

Program to East Boston, the re-opening of a police sub-station in Charlestown, increased police presence in the North End and replacement parking for Fulton Street during the Third Harbor Tunnel-Central Artery construction, as important beginnings for the district.

Modica, a first-term Democrat, was elected to the Boston City Council in November 1993 running a strong platform of public safety, economic development and transportation.

PACKING UP TO SELL

Your agent has just gone through your home and has many suggestions about how to make it look terrific. It sounds good, but you're feeling a little overwhelmed by all of the work involved in clearing out and packing up possessions you've accumulated over the years.

Go through and decide what to throw out, what to give away and what to keep. Be ruthless! Remember that you can get a tax deduction for anything you give to a charitable organization.

Pack up whatever you do decide to keep that you aren't likely to need between the time you list your home and the time you move. This has two important benefits. First, if it's packed in a box and stored neatly away, it will help you maximize your storage space and keep your home uncluttered, thereby increasing the chances that it will sell more quickly for top dollar. Second, you'll have to pack it up when you move anyway, and doing it ahead of time will give you a head start toward making moving week almost a breeze.

For solid advice on buying or selling real estate, consult the professionals at Monument Properties. Please call us at 241-5900 or stop by our office at 85 Warren St., Charlestown.

★ Charlestown Historic Trail Update

. . . The Charlestown Neighborhood Council/Charlestown Preservation Society proposal for ISTE funding has survived the first cut. The Metropolitan Area Planning Council has recommended the Historic Trail Plan for funding sometime after fiscal year 1996. All the proposals recommended now go to the state's ISTE Committee where final decisions will be made. The timetable for that decision process is not known at the moment.

The city has suggested that planning continue and work to arrive at a final set of civil engineering drawings for the proposal. The ISTE committee will be meeting within the next month to draw up preliminary plans with volunteer civil engineering and landscape architecture professionals. A community meeting will then be convened to review and amend the plan. The objective must be to shoot for an October time frame to have finished and properly certified drawings. Stay tuned!

A drop-off site to dispose of household hazardous waste will be set up at the U-Mass/Boston Campus on Saturday, June 10 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

It's time to clean out your garage and basement and safely dispose of: pesticides, solvents, oil and latex paints and stains, photography chemicals, etc. This site is for household waste only, no commercial waste will be accepted. Bring items to the drop-off site in their original containers, if possible. Do not mix products or bring radioactive materials, asbestos, gas canisters, batteries or explosives.

Please note that aerosol cans are not hazardous waste when empty, therefore spray cans will NOT be accepted. Motor oil and automotive batteries are recyclable and will NOT be accepted at this collection. Information on their safe and proper disposal can be provided.

To get to the drop-off site, take the expressway south to the JFK/U-Mass off ramp and follow the signs to Morrissey Boulevard and U-Mass/Boston. The collection site will be held in the parking lot on the front side of the campus in the Service parking lot - just follow the signs.

For more information, call the city of Boston Environmental Department at 635-3850.

★ Deadline For House Painting Grants . . .

Homeowners who want to take advantage of a new program that will provide house painting grants and summer jobs for teenagers have until June 15 to apply. Applications for the program, called Teen-Works can be obtained by calling the city of Boston Public Facilities Department at 635-0600.

★ Temporary Detour . . .

For the next three to four weeks, Atlantic Avenue from State Street to Cross Street, will be one-way northbound. Atlantic Avenue will continue to carry two-way traffic south of State Street.

Traffic headed southbound on Commercial Street will be directed onto the Surface Artery southbound via a temporary connector road at Cross Street (near the Mercantile Mall).

Other traffic moves in the area will remain unchanged:

- The Surface Artery will continue to carry north/south traffic between State Street and Cross Street.

- Traffic headed to the Callahan Tunnel entrance will continue to be directed to the Surface Artery northbound at State Street.

The detour is made necessary by the beginning of construction of the new underground Central Artery.

Voke Moves To Assure Charlestown Crime Fighting Funds

Vowing to continue his crusade to give local law enforcement professionals the resources they need to fight crime in Boston, Rep. Richard Voke has succeeded in getting another round of community policing grants approved in the House's annual spending plan. Should Voke's plan make it through to final adoption, Boston would be again guaranteed to receive $1,921,885.50 to aid the local police department in putting a more neighborhood-oriented touch on their public safety efforts.

"Throughout the country, community policing has proven to be an effective tool in the war on crime. Getting law enforcers onto the streets and into our neighborhoods not only serves to beef-up our public safety presence, it also helps to empower residents, encouraging them to work together with their police to provide a tag-team which can wrestle criminals into submission," stressed Voke.

Given that Voke's budget also provides increases in general local aid, educational aid and water and sewer rate relief, news that community policing would again be supported was welcomed by public safety advocates and municipal officials. While Voke says his top priority remains the returning of as much state support for local government as possible, being able to guarantee that more police officers remain on the street is an accomplishment of which he feels there can be no greater.

"Far too many people in our society are prisoners in their own homes, afraid to go out of their houses or afraid of what may be coming into their houses. Certainly a basic tenet of government is to provide for the health, well-being and safety of each and every resident. Although historically reserved for municipal responsibility, I could not be more pleased to seek to guarantee in another tight budget year that Boston will automatically receive additional state support to come to the aid of our law abiding citizens," added Voke.

Quick to point out his appreciation for the outstanding efforts the Boston Police Department continues to offer, Voke says it is important that public policy officials and residents alike never take safety for granted.

"It certainly takes each and every one of us to not only be law abiding citizens, but to also be the eyes and ears that help a relatively few men and women see and hear what is happening in our entire community. Committed to keeping such a goal in focus, I hope these community policing grants foster greater relationships in the name of a safer Charlestown," concluded Voke.

Parents be prepared:

Summer may seem to be many months away and fall even longer away. Before you know it, however, you will be at the dining table filling out forms for your child's summer camp and school. Don't forget you need to have the required camp and school physicals. Further, your child's immunizations must be up to date.

Every year at the Bunker Hill Health Center (BHHC) hundreds of children need to have camp and school physicals around the same time. The only way we can ensure that all children receive their physicals in time for these events is by urging parents to schedule appointments early. For camps beginning in July, that means calling now to book an appointment.

In order to help meet this extraordinary demand, the Pediatric and Adolescent Unit will offer extended hours beginning in June. The unit will be open Wednesday evenings from 5:30 to 7 p.m. and on Saturday mornings from 9 to 11 a.m.

Below is a list to help you remember which immunizations your child needs to attend camp or school. By age 4 years:

5 doses of DPT; 4 doses of OPV; 4 doses of Hib; 2 doses of MMR; and 3 doses of HepB.

Edwards Middle School Students To Give Presentation At Boston City Hall

Software services firm Keane Inc. is sponsoring a presentation by students from the Edwards Middle School in Charlestown on how to solve problems in their community. The presentation is open to the public, and will take place on Monday, June 12, from 10 to 11:30 a.m. at Boston City Hall.

Twenty-five seventh and eighth grade students have spent 10 weeks working to solve problems in their community - including gangs, violence, pollution and drugs - as part of the Program for Young Negotiators (PYN) Neighborhood Project. They will present their solutions to these community issues at the PYN Neighborhood Summit. Legislators and community leaders, including City Councillor Diane Modica, chairperson of the Youth Services Committee, will attend the Summit to hear and respond to the concerns and solutions of young people. The students will also receive a tour of city hall.

"The City Council is pleased to work with the Edwards Middle School, Keane Inc. and the Program for Young Negotiators to help empower students with problem solving and communication skills that prepare them to be effective citizens," Modica stated.

As the Edwards Middle School's corporate partner, Keane is sponsoring the PYN Neighborhood Project, a multi-disciplinary community awareness negotiation program. Students learn negotiation skills for 10 weeks in a Young Negotiators class, and then apply those skills to solve community problems over the following 10 weeks.

"This project is building a bridge between the community and the classroom," commented Bruce Richman of PYN. "It provides young people with an opportunity to learn negotiation, and then use that skill to solve various social problems in their neighborhoods."

The advanced class from the Edwards Middle School is the latest addition to PYN's track record in the Boston Public School system. By the end of the school year, 20 Boston Public School teachers, 48 volunteers and 600 students will have been trained in negotiation.

The Program for Young Negotiators was developed by the Consensus Building Institute Inc., a not-for-profit organization located in Cambridge, and founded to improve the theory and practice of dispute resolution in the public arena.

Keane Inc. is a $350 million software company that designs, develops and manages software for corporations and healthcare facilities. The company provides its services through its headquarters in Charlestown, and through a network of more than 40 branch offices in major cities throughout the US and Canada.

Money Matters

"Let us assist you in your financial planning"

HOW MUCH LIFE INSURANCE DO YOU NEED?

Good financial planning requires a periodic review of your life insurance. At least once every five years, you should meet with your professional insurance advisor to review your life insurance needs and your coverage. You should also contact your insurance advisor when there are changes in family (deaths, births, divorces) or major financial obligations.

How much life insurance should you have? There are a number of methods used to make this decision, and they range from a simple multiple of five or six times your annual income to a more complicated (and more accurate) projection of future needs for your family. Here is one method for estimating how much life insurance you need.

- First, make a list of debts you might want to eliminate with the insurance proceeds, such as credit card balances, car loans, and your home mortgage. Add estimated amounts to cover college education for your children and any other special needs.

- Second, estimate the future annual living expenses your family would incur on its own. Subtract these amounts: your spouse's net annual take-home pay, income from investments, and social security survivors' benefits. The difference between the projected expenses and the projected income is the amount you need to cover with insurance each year. Multiply this amount by the number of years that your family will need the income.
- Finally, add the total of debts and one-time expenses calculated in the first step to the projected annual needs from the second step. The result is an estimate of the amount of life insurance you need.

If you need help with the calculations, let us assist you and your insurance advisor in planning for the security of your family.

as master of ceremonies.

Following an interview with each of the contestants, the judges turned their scoring sheets over to the tabulators and the winner and runner-up were determined. The tabulators were Joseph Scott, CPA, Cork Ireland, and Robert Sammonds, project manager, The Flatley Co.

The overseer of the contest was Eleanor Smith, who has carried out the duties of that position since the contest's inception.

As the gathering awaited the announcement, a buffet was served by Scalli Caterers, and Andy Healy and his band began the entertainment. The contestants were individually escorted into the hall and introduced to the gathering and then seated with their families to await the announcement.

In her remarks, 1994 Rose Kolleen Hayes thanked Alice and Arthur Hurley for the wonderful tour of Ireland. She called 1994 Mayor Michele Cannizzaro the "best mayor" and wished "all the Roses" well. Judy Evers, community liaison from the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services, presented a proclamation to Hayes on behalf of Mayor Thomas Menino. Hayes and Cannizzaro presented a gift to each of the contestants.

It was then up to 1995 Mayor Tom Donahue to announce the Rose. He first introduced the runner-up Shawna Pelton and then made his announcement of DeRoeve as the 1995 Charlestown Rose.

DeRoeve, in relating her feelings on Friday night, said the judges were very kind. She said she started out a little nervous, but they made her feel comfortable, plus the questions they asked were, for the most part, based on her application. She did say that the room where the interview took place "had to be over 105 degrees."

The Rose said that she felt fairly comfortable after the interview, but her nervousness increased as the time for the announcement approached. She said she heard Donahue announce Pelton's name - and then he said, "Come up, Nicole" and she remembers her sister screaming in her face that she had won. She said it was a great time, particularly with all her family there.

Her excitement mounts as she speaks about what is in store for her this coming year - meeting people, being in the parade and, of course, the trip to Ireland. She said, "There is much to do with many wonderful people - I am looking forward to an exciting year - along with Tommy as the mayor."

DeRoeve is a recent graduate of Arlington Catholic High School. This year she will work as a Nanny, planning to go college in 1996.

She is the daughter of Peter and Kathaleen DeRoeve and the sister of Christine, 25, Peter Jr., 24, and Joe, 21. Peter Jr. will be her escort on the trip to Ireland, a trip neither of them have been on.

Her main objective during the year is to encourage young women to compete in next year's Rose Contest.

PROUD PARENTS of the new Charlestown Rose, Nicole DeRoeve, congratulate her and wish her much happiness during her year. Shown is her mother Kathaleen and her father Peter.

THE HIGHLIGHT of the annual Charlestown Rose contest is the naming of the young woman of Irish ancestry who will carry the title of Charlestown Rose from here in Charlestown, Mass. to Charlestown, County Mayo, Ireland, where she will compete in the International Western Rose Festival. On June 2, four young women competed for the coveted title, with Nicole DeRoeve capturing the crown.

BOB D'S BEAT BY BOB DeCRISTOFORO

◆ Carmen's In The House . . . Carmen Nunez joined the BHA Youth on the Rise staff a few months ago, and was assigned to the Bunker Hill Housing Development joining Bob D. at the Bunker Hill Teen Center.

CARMEN NUNEZ

In a few short months she has made an outstanding contribution to all our young people. As she is sitting reading this, she is probably getting very emotional and turning red, two very human characteristics! Truth is, she does excellent, quality work, and she is very much appreciated by all she works with, and for. A special tip to the hat to Carmen Nunez!

◆ BNBL '95 . . . Paul Martell tells us that the 27th annual Boston Neighborhood

Basketball League (BNBL) is scheduled to open the week of June 26. Rosters for the 15 & under, and 19 & under leagues are now available, along with information concerning the Women's Division. Rosters are due back no later than June 22.

◆ Rookie Ball . . . Boston Red Sox Rookie Ball begins in Charlestown in early July. Girls and boys 6 to 9 years of age and 10 to 12 years of age are encouraged to register for this instructional, fun league. Registration will take place from Monday, June 12 through Friday, June 23 at the Charlestown Community Center (635-5169). Registration will be taken in person or over the telephone. Participants will be notified who they are playing for, and when they are to report, no later than June 28. Please follow all date requirements. This is important for a smooth league operation. Bob DeCristoforo is the program coordinator. All T-Ball players and minor league players are encouraged to register.

◆ Old Colony Hoop . . . The Charlestown Pride Basketball Team opened their Sunday League at Old Colony on a winning note. This is the third year Charlestown has participated in the Old Colony-South Boston League. Veterans Derek Gallagher, Jason Gallagher, Mike Connell, Greg Jackson, Danny Ryan and Leo Boucher led the Charlestown charge.

◆ RBI Baseball . . . Our 1995 RBI Baseball opener is scheduled for Saturday morning on the road. This is the second year Charlestown will be represented in the league, which is sponsored by Major League Baseball, and the Boston Red Sox. I am pleased to see that Timmy Gallagher and Joe Brennan have shown an interest in playing. This brings the roster total to 12 players, and we hope to add just three more. The roster is limited to 15 players. Anyone still interested must see Coach Gallagher and get to practice this week.

◆ Basketball Clinic . . . The Boston Parks and Recreation Department will host a FREE basketball clinic this Saturday, June 10 at the Doherty Park on Bunker Hill Street from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. The clinic is for youngsters 8 to 14 years of age. The rain site is the Charlestown Community Center. This would be another good way to get ready for BNBL.

◆ Track And Field . . . The first big city-wide track and field event of the season takes place this Saturday morning, beginning at 10 a.m. The John Thomas Track and Field Event for youngsters ages 8 to 16 years of age will be held at White Stadium. You can sign up the day of the event, but get there early. For further details, call 635-4505. (John Jones, take note of this event).

◆ Rainbow II . . . The Bunker Hill Youth on the Rise Program will host Rainbow II this summer for young people 6 to 12 years of age. This year we are collaborating with the Charlestown Summer Collaborative Camp. If you live at the Bunker Hill Housing Development, and are interested in this summer-long program, call 242-7056. Space will be limited and registration will take place on a first-come, first-served basis. After we fill the spots, a waiting list will be maintained!

◆ Tidbits . . .

- Congratulations to the new Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fitzpatrick.
- Good luck to John Cowan, who has left for the service.
- Hello to PJ and Chris Brennan.
- Was Jill Doherty practicing a new dance step on Saturday evening?
- Frankie Stillman Countdown - 9 days!

Boston Neighborhood Basketball League To Start 27th Season

Boston Mayor Thomas M. Menino and Boston Community Centers' Executive Director Evelyn Riesenbergh are pleased to announce the return of the Boston Neighborhood Basketball League (BNBL) to neighborhood community centers and parks.

Run by Boston Community Centers, the league involves 3,500 youth with games played at 25 sites across the city. BNBL officially starts on June 26.

The Boston Neighborhood Basketball League is the oldest organized basketball league in Boston. Divisions include Men's 19 & under, Women's 19 & under, Boy's 15 & under and Girl's 15 & under. New to BNBL is a Boy's 13 & under Citywide League and a Girl's 13 & under Citywide League.

"The start of BNBL is identified with the start of summer," said Menino. "The league offers good, clean fun for the players and great entertainment for the many spectators. BNBL has been quietly providing a safe and healthy alternative to the streets for decades and I'm pleased to support it."

Reisenbergh added, "Boston Community Centers is very proud of this program. I am constantly amazed at the number of people who

Save $1,000

When You Paint Your House This Summer!

With the new TeenWorks program from the City of Boston's Public Facilities Department (PFD), you can save as much as $1,000 on the cost of painting your home. If you're an eligible Boston homeowner, all you need to do is hire a Boston teenager (aged 16-20) to paint the exterior of your house this summer. The City will provide grants of up to $1,000 to pay one-half the cost of hiring the teenager for seven weeks.

TeenWorks also offers these benefits: rebates for $100 in free paint; job training; workshops on housepainting techniques; and discounts from partner hardware stores on other painting materials and supplies.

Eligible homeowners must have an income below 120% of area median income ($63,700 for a family of 4), and participating youth must be from a family with an income below 80% of area median income ($40,200 for a family of 4).

Homeowners must provide a safe working environment for their youth worker and provide reasonable supervision.

To get your application, call PFD at 635-0600, or pick up an application at a participating hardware store. Applications will be available May 22 and can be submitted through June 15.

It's first come, first served in this demonstration limited to 200 participants, so hurry!

Thank You

To my Charlestown Friends and Family:

I would like to express my gratitude for all those involved in my being selected as the 1995 Charlestown Rose. To those on the Charlestown-to-Charlestown Committee, Charlestown's Mayor Tommy Donahue and all the well-wishers throughout the town, I thank you.

It has only been a few days since my reign began and the outpouring of congratulations has been overwhelming, to say the least. I didn't realize that so many people knew me!

I hope to live up to the high standards that other Rose recipients have created before me. I plan to bring a sense of spirit and enthusiasm with me to Ireland and hope to bring back many long-lasting memories.

Again, thank you for providing me with this unique educational opportunity.

Yours truly,
Nicole M. De Roeve

Parade Chief Marshal And World War II Veterans To Be Honored At June 16 Banquet

Bunker Hill Post 26, The American Legion, in cooperation with the Bunker Hill Day Parade Committee and Bunker Hill Council No. 62, Knights of Columbus, will hold their annual "Nite Before" Banquet at 8 p.m. on Friday, June 16. The dinner will be held at the K. of C. Hall, 75 West School St.

Guest of honor will be Tom Hickey, a World War II Army veteran of the Battle of the Bulge, who is Chief Marshal of the 1995 Bunker Hill Day Parade.

A full-course turkey dinner will be served by Marty's Caterers, and Richard DeLuca's Band and Vocalist will play and sing World War II era music.

This year's Bunker Hill Day Parade commemorates the 220th anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill and the 50th anniversary of the victory of World War II. It honors the dedicated men and women who served in the U.S. Armed Forces during that war, especially those from Charlestown.

Each World War II veteran, World War II Gold Star Mother or Widow attending the banquet will be presented an original World War II memorial coin designed for the committee by Tom Gorsuch (TOG).

Charlestown veterans, Gold Star Mothers or Widows of World War II who may have some financial difficulty in purchasing a banquet ticket, are asked to call Banquet Chairman Jim Conway, in confidence, at 242-6187.

Tickets are $20 and may be obtained by contacting Arthur Hurley at 242-2724, Paul Morceau at 242-4781, or purchased at the Patriot office, One Thompson Square.

Put Your Old Eyeglasses To Good Use

The Charlestown Lions Club recycled over 1,500 pairs of eyeglasses in 1994, making it possible for many who could not afford to buy eyeglasses to obtain them.

If you have any discarded or unneeded eyeglasses or sunglasses and would like to put them to good use, please give them to a local Lions Club member, drop them off at the Patriot office at One Thompson Square, or call Bud Coleman at 242-2063.

$35,000 is needed to put the Bunker Hill Day Parade on the streets of Charlestown on Sunday, June 18. With the fiscal constraints on the city of Boston, only a limited amount of money is being allocated to the celebration by the city, and each unit is asking for an increase in its fee. Thus, the success of the celebration depends on you - the residents, merchants and organizations. Donations of $25 and over will be publicly acknowledged.

The Horseshoe Wins Volleyball Championship

EIGHTEEN TEAMS competed in the First Annual Volleyball Tournament held recently to raise funds to benefit the Clougherty Pool in Doherty Playground on Bunker Hill Street. Organized by the Friends of Clougherty Pool, the event met with rave reviews and it is expected that it will be a yearly happening. When the dust had settled at the Charlestown High School Field, The Horseshoe carried away the championship trophy. Shown seated is Greg Jackson. Standing (l. to r.) are Tommy Allen, David Jackson, Julie Doris, Dan Ward, Tom "Grasshopper" Jackson and Shannon Lynch. (photo by Kathy Whitehouse)

First Annual Courageous Corporate Challenge This Summer

The Courageous Sailing Center, a 501(c)3 foundation, will launch the First Annual Courageous Corporate Challenge this summer. The center has created this fund raiser as a way to fund the expansion of its inner-city children's program. This summer Courageous Sailing Center, in cooperation with the Boston Parks and Recreation Department, will give 700 Boston children the opportunity to find a better way to spend their free time. Learning the skill of sailing enhances children's confidence and self-esteem. The fund raiser provides a great way for corporations and financial institutions to give support to the youth in their business community. The proceeds from this event will directly offset the expense of this growing children's program.

For a corporate contribution of $2,000 per boat, the Courageous Sailing Center will provide sailing teams from corporations and financial institutions around Boston with eight Monday evenings of racing on Boston Harbor. The series will be held in Courageous' fleet of Rhodes 19s. New sails for this fleet of Rhodes 19s were made possible by a donation from Mellon/The Boston Company. The series runs from July 10 through Aug. 28.

Many of Boston's finest corporations and financial institutions are participating in this racing series to benefit Boston's youth. Included as boat sponsors are: State Street Global Advisors, Boston Stock Exchange, DST Belvedere, First Call, Independence Investment Associates, Wallace, Floyd Associates, CSC, Bank of Boston, Fidelity Capital Markets, Putnam Investments and NYNEX.

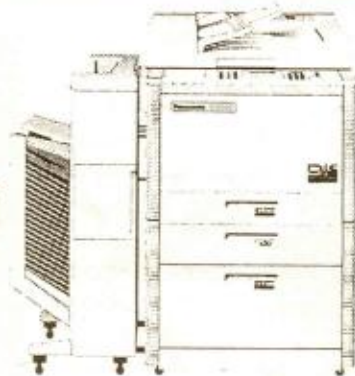

The center is also involved in identifying potential headline sponsors for the annual event, as well as sponsors of food, beverages and products for the competitors. Creative Gourmet will provide hors d'oeuvres for the sailors after their first night of racing. Pensions & Investments, the newspaper of international money management, will sponsor food for the sailors during the trophy presentation. Other food and beverage sponsors are Gabrielle's on the Waterfront and Rebecca's Catering. For more information on the Courageous Corporate Challenge, please contact Jane Howell Peugh at 631-1326 or Bryan Peugh at 242-3821.

The Courageous Sailing Center, located on Pier 4 in the Charlestown Navy Yard, is open from May through October, and provides frostbite sailing programs from December through April. Weekend, weekday and combination memberships are available, as are a series of lessons for all levels. Sailing is free to all children ages 8-20.

For general membership information, please call the Courageous Center at 242-3821.

In addition, she was invited to attend the 1995 "President at Pops" concert at Symphony Hall in Boston on June 7 with Filene's President and CEO Gene Kahn and Chairman Joe Melvin. Navy Guided Missile Frigate Makes Port Visit To Charlestown

The guided missile frigate USS Samuel Eliot Morison (FFG 13) will visit Charlestown, June 16-20. Samuel Eliot Morison is visiting Boston in support of the 220th Anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill (June 17, 1775). The ship will be berthed at Pier 1 in the National Historical Park section of the Charlestown Navy Yard.

The public is invited to tour the ship as guests of the commanding officer between June 16-18 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The Oliver Hazard Perry Class ship is 445 feet long, 45 feet wide and can reach speeds in excess of 28 knots. Samuel Eliot Morison carries a crew of more than 170 officers and enlisted members. Cmdr. Tom Daniel Jr. is the commanding officer.

Samuel Eliot Morison is designed to provide protection for military and merchant shipping, amphibious task forces and underway replenishment groups. To accomplish its mission, the ship is equipped with digital computers that provide rapid evaluation of potential threats detected by radar, sonar and other shipboard sensors. Samuel Eliot Morison's weapons include both surface-to-air and surface-to-surface missiles, a 76mm rapid-fire gun and anti-submarine torpedoes.

The ship is named in honor of Rear Admiral Samuel Eliot Morison, one of the nation's most distinguished naval historians. Born in Boston and a faculty member of Harvard University for more than half a century, Morison was first and always a sailor.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt, who had a lifelong taste for naval history, accepted Morison's proposal to be the Navy's historian during World War II, based on actual participation.

In May of 1942, the professor was commissioned a lieutenant commander of the Naval Reserve and given a set of orders permitting him to move about the world at will. The result of his three-year tour of duty in the Atlantic, Mediterranean and Pacific theaters of war was the celebrated "The History of the United States Naval Operations in World War II" (15 volumes).

As a naval historian on active duty during the war, Morison earned seven engagement stars and the Legion of Merit.

Agnes Speaks At U-Mass/Boston Awards Banquet

On June 14, Peter W. Agnes, First Justice of the Charlestown District Court and Chairman of the Mass. Trial Courts Standing Committee on Dispute Resolution, was the guest speaker at the annual awards banquet and graduation of the Graduate Program in Dispute Resolution at U-Mass/Boston.

Agnes earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Philosophy from Boston University School of Liberal Arts and continued his education at Suffolk University Law School, graduating with a Juris Doctorate degree.

During 1982, as chairman of the Mass. Bar Association's Criminal Justice Section, Agnes drafted and was instrumental in the Supreme Court's adoption of a rule change to prevent prosecutors from trying to get information without court approval from lawyers about clients who were targets of criminal investigations.

In 1986, Agnes was appointed by Gov. Michael S. Dukakis as Assistant Secretary to Public Safety and helped establish and manage the Statewide Anti-Crime Council. Agnes also worked closely with prosecutors and police in implementing the 1986 drunk driving law which established the first statewide breath-testing program using infrared technology. Three years later, he was appointed as Chief of Operations in the governor's office.

In 1991, he was appointed the First Justice of the Charlestown District Court and in 1993 was appointed by the Supreme Judicial Court to chair the Standing Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution which is developing a plan to establish dispute resolution alternatives throughout the trial court.

Agnes' recent publications include, "Accreditation and the Unfinished Business of Court Reform," (1994) and "Alternative Dispute Resolution: Developing the Rules of Engagement," (1993).

Agnes was presented with the Award for Distinguished Contribution to the Field of Dispute Resolution by the program director, Prof. David Matz.

The Michael Patrick Quinn Scholarship Fund is delighted to announce that Corey A. Gallagher has been selected as the 1995 award winner. Joining an outstanding group of 15 males and 11 females, Corey is the third Quinn scholar from Maignon High School. She follows Tracy McGrath, Class of '82 and Jean Marie Puliafico Halley, Class of '84, from a school dominated by tradition and success.

As the youngest child of James and Lois Gallagher, Corey resides at 97B Thirteenth St., Charlestown with her brothers, Derek and Jason.

While at Maignon, Corey was the quintessential scholar-athlete. Maintaining a solid grade point average coupled with high class rank, she still had the energy to ever excel in the athletic arena. A Catholic Central League all-star for two years in volleyball, Corey pursued a tremendous career in softball. Selected an all-star for three years, Corey captained the team in her junior year.

A legendary wizard on the basketball court, placing on the all-star team for four years, as well as the team captain for two years, she was also the team's most valuable player for four years. Culminating her spectacular career in basketball, Corey was selected as a 1995 Boston Globe All-Scholastic as a forward.

Retrieve your calculators for the following: Corey set her school record for points - 1,855, rebounds - 800, and this year she averaged 27.8 points, 10 rebounds and four assists. At the annual sports banquet, her number 31 was retired, a truly monumental accomplishment. Recognition was once again given to Corey with the Nicholas "Bud" Ricco Good Sportsmanship Award for academic and athletic excellence which will occupy a most prestigious place in the Gallagher home.

Membership in the Charlestown Boys & Girls Club College Club, the Charlestown Teen Connection and the Charlestown CYO has served Corey well.

It is most appropriate that Bentley College in Waltham will be Corey's college home. Founded in 1917, this 110-acre campus will be able to gather her statistics with their outstanding business program. A career in marketing is planned by Corey with her September enrollment with the Class of 1999.

The extended Quinn family sends all their kudos to Corey A. Gallagher as she embarks on her college career, and thank her for being the respected and extraordinary youth that makes us all proud.

Good Work Recognized

So many negative articles are in the press these days, so let us look at one that is very positive. While we sleep, one man, whom we put in office, is planning bills that will benefit women.

Recently, Majority Leader Richard A. Voke has contacted Chairman Bosley to support Bill # 2329. Its goal is to create equal balance in the workforce for women. It is too important that those most qualified for jobs, regardless of gender, should be hired.

Other efforts of Rep. Voke with regard to gender bias, have been to increase minimum wage. He also worked to secure a grant of $5.4 million to research and combat breast cancer. Another topic on his agenda has been domestic violence. He is very much aware of the work entailed in this area and in the area of gender bias.

We commend and thank Rep. Richard Voke and join with him in his efforts to help all, children, the elderly and all consumers. CHAP and coordinators are truly grateful.

Thank You

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Bryan McGonagle Scholarship Committee and the Charlestown Youth Hockey Association for selecting me as one of the recipients of the first annual scholarship in Bryan's honor.

This scholarship will not only help me in continuing my education at Fitchburg State College, but is just as important to me because of the person the scholarship is in memory of.

I will do my best to make sure that the opportunities that you are helping me with are fulfilled. And as always, whenever I am home from school, I will help in anything that is needed during the hockey season or at the annual Bryan McGonagle Tournament.

Again, thank you and a special thank you to Barney and Mike.

Money Matters

by Nicholas C. Pino

"Let us assist you in your financial planning"

WILL YOUR BUSINESS SURVIVE YOU? (Planning for Business Succession)

Passing a family-owned business to the next generation can be rewarding. With proper planning, business owners can enjoy a comfortable retirement, secure in the knowledge that their children will prosper from the thriving business they are leaving behind.

Unfortunately, most business successions don't happen that way. Two out of three family businesses don't survive passage to the next generation. The ones that succeed usually share this trait: the business owners recognized the need for planning for their departure and allowed enough time to carry out their plan.

Elements of a successful succession plan should include an estate plan, a management-continuity plan, and a financing plan.

An estate plan can ensure an orderly transfer of the business to family members and should provide for meeting the estate tax liability that comes with it. Estate taxes can reach as high as 55 percent. The estate plan can also include steps to reduce this tax liability.

A management-continuity plan can identify successors and ensure their training. If several family members are involved in the business, their various skills and levels of participation should be addressed.

A financing plan can ensure that money is available to meet the conflicting demands of the family, the business and the government. Life insurance is often used to pay the estate taxes or to finance a buy-sell agreement. Banking arrangements should be kept current to cover cash needs of the business in transition.

Each of these elements, as well as other parts of the succession plan, should be tailored to the business owner's situation. Early planning is essential for success. Contact our office if you'd like assistance.

Mystery Of A Shell Solved At The Charlestown Branch Library

by Tess Francesco
Adult Librarian

Have you ever wondered where some of the "stuff" in your attic comes from? The staff at the Charlestown Branch Library does.

The library has a cannonball inscribed: "Shell from the Rebel gunboat Alabama which lodged in the Kearsarge's side without exploding in the memorial engagement off Cherbourg on 19th June 1864. Presented by James R. Wheeler, of the City. Acting Master of U.S. Gunboat Kearsarge to the City of Charlestown November 21, 1864."

A mystery regarding the background of this donation has been solved. At the same time, a wonderful bit of knowledge about Charlestown history has been added to the library's files.

In February, Harold Wheeler, a descendent of James R. Wheeler, called the library asking if the cannonball was still there and if he could make a visit to the library to see it. He offered to bring material about James R. Wheeler and his involvement in the battle between the Alabama and USS Kearsarge with him. On May 18, Harold Wheeler, great-grandson of James R. Wheeler, came in to the library to see the cannonball. Pictures were taken and the library staff got a chance to hear the story.

James Ruthven Wheeler and his wife Sarah Charlotte lived in Charlestown with their two young sons, Albert and William, from 1860 to 1866, according to Charlestown City Directories. Before his visit, Wheeler didn't have this information and didn't know why Charlestown was selected as the donation site.

James spent most of this time at sea as an Acting Master for the U.S. Navy. According to family records, Albert and William attended schools here.

James Wheeler was a captain in the Merchant Service and volunteered his services to the U.S. Navy in April 1861. In October 1861, he was appointed Acting Master, and joined the Kearsarge on Dec. 20, 1861. The ship was commissioned in January 1862. She spent most of her time chasing down Confederate raiding ships. In 1864, the notorious Confederate raider, Alabama, was in Cherbourg, France, its crew hoping to dock for major repairs. This request was denied by an uneasy French government, and Alabama was forced into the English Channel to meet her fate with only minor repairs.

James Wheeler had been ordered by Captain John A. Winslow to go to Cherbourg to spy on the Alabama and inform Winslow when Alabama was ready to leave port. Meanwhile, Winslow prepared the Kearsarge to leave her port in Flushing, Netherlands to engage the Alabama. According to National Archive records: "Acting Master Wheeler was back on board, and officer of the day, and signed the Log after the battle between the Kearsarge and the Alabama on Sunday, June 19, 1864."

Alabama had captured so much bounty in her two years at sea, 1862-1864, that she had effectively raised marine insurance rates for the Union side, according to William M. Fowler Jr. in his book, 'Under Two Flags.' With a weakened ship, Alabama's captain, Raphael Semmes, and his men fought courageously, but, according to Fowler, many shots missed their mark.

THE MYSTERY of a cannonball in possession of the Charlestown Branch Library was recently revealed by Harold Wheeler to the library staff. Shown is Adult Librarian Tess Francesco and Wheeler.

"Those that did hit sometimes failed to explode, including one that actually dug itself into Kearsarge's stern post and then failed to detonate." The Kearsarge won the battle, sinking the Alabama with a shot which hit the engine room. The Alabama sank with 26 men listed as dead.

James Wheeler continued to serve in the U.S. Navy until December 1866, when he was given a medical discharge. In 1869 he was appointed to the post of Consul to Kingston, Jamaica. He died in April 1870 in Kingston, and his remains are buried there.

The battle between the USS Kearsarge and the Alabama took place on a June day, 89 years after the Battle of Bunker Hill. One-hundred and thirty-one years after the naval battle, it is gratifying to have the mystery solved and to have added information to the Wheeler family history.

Note: As the story of the unfired cannonball and its lodging in the side of the USS Kearsarge 131 years ago on June 19th, the fourth ship named after the Kearsarge Mountain in Merrimack County, N.H. made headlines.

It was the USS Kearsarge (LHD 3), christened on May 16, 1992, a multi-purpose amphibious assault ship designed to carry a mix of 30 Marine helicopters and jet attack Harriers, and 800 members of a Marine expeditionary unit which made headlines this past week in the rescue of Capt. Scott O'Grady from the woods of Bosnia.

Boston Neighborhood Basketball League To Start 27th Season

Boston Mayor Thomas M. Menino and Boston Community Centers' Executive Director Evelyn Riesenbergs are pleased to announce the return of the Boston Neighborhood Basketball League (BNBL) to neighborhood community centers and parks.

Run by Boston Community Centers, the league involves 3,500 youth with games played at 25 sites across the city. BNBL officially starts on June 26.

The Boston Neighborhood Basketball League is the oldest organized basketball league in Boston. Divisions include Men's 19 & under, Women's 19 & under, Boy's 15 & under and Girl's 15 & under. New to BNBL is a Boy's 13 & under Citywide League and a Girl's 13 & under Citywide League.

"The start of BNBL is identified with the start of summer," said Menino. "The league offers good, clean fun for the players and great entertainment for the many spectators. BNBL has been quietly providing a safe and healthy alternative to the streets for decades and I'm pleased to support it."

Reisenbergs added, "Boston Community Centers is very proud of this program. I am constantly amazed at the number of people who tell me that they 'played BNBL' while they were growing up. Not only has it taught good sportsmanship over the years, but it has created a lot of friendships."

In Charlestown, games are played at the Charlestown Community Center, 255 Medford St. If you have not already joined a team or have any questions about BNBL, call Boston Community Centers' Central Office at 635-4920.

BOB D'S BEAT BY BOB DeCRISTOFORO

◆ Officer Ted Boyle . . . Boston Police Officer Ted Boyle is the Area Youth Officer assigned to Charlestown for the past three years. He is a real caring person, and I was fortunate to meet him when he was a student at Christopher Columbus High

OFFICER TED BOYLE

School. He has become a friend to many young people in this town, and is what a policeman is all about. He has brought many programs into our local schools, and many leagues and tournaments have happened because of him. Winter street hockey and summer basketball are just two to think about. They wouldn't happen without Officer Boyle. The summer league programs I am mentioning this week wouldn't be thought of. Without Officer Boyle they couldn't happen. If you ever go to a meeting and hear that the police aren't doing what they can for our young people, please mention Ted Boyle. He's a good man.

◆ Summa Cum Laude . . . Boston University's Walter Brown Arena was the sight of Sunday's Boston Latin School's 360th graduation exercise. Hard to believe that this was my very first Latin School graduation, but it was important for me to be there to celebrate the accomplishments and the achievements of so many of our very special young people: Danny Gibbons, Adam Olsson and Colin Swales, to name a few. A Boston Latin School diploma isn't given - it's earned, and each of you have earned something very special. Don't let what you have earned go to waste. Congratulations to the Boston Latin School Class of 1995, we're very proud parents and friends!

◆ Boston Hoop It Up . . . Registration forms are now available for the Boston Hoop It Up 3-on-3 Basketball Tournament scheduled for July 22 and 23 at the Square One Mall in Saugus. Hoop It Up is the official 3-on-3 Streetball Tournament of the NBA. If you are 10 or older, you are eligible to play. The deadline for the Boston Shootout registrations is Friday, July 14.

◆ Yawkey Talk . . . Upcoming Charlestown Pride Games are: Friday, June 16 - vs. Brannelly's at Healy Field; Monday, June 19 - vs. Hyde Park at Ryan Field; and Thursday, June 22 - vs. Roxbury at Ryan Field. All games start at 7:30 p.m.

Special thanks to Sheet Metal Workers Local 17 who have helped to sponsor a game.

◆ Bunker Hill Day Weekend . . . This is a very special weekend in Charlestown. It's a time when family and friends get together to have a good time. As we all celebrate this week, let's remember to do it with a whole lot of Charlestown Pride! Have fun, be safe and have a great Bunker Hill Day Weekend.

◆ Rookie Ball Reminder . . . Registration is now underway for the 1995 Boston Red Sox Rookie Ball League. Forms and information may be found at the Charlestown Community Center or by calling 635-5169.

◆ RBI Baseball . . . The Charlestown Cardinals have moved to the American League Division for the 1995 season, and this means many new opponents. Wednesday night is RBI Night in Charlestown, and home games for this 16-, 17- and 18-year-old team are scheduled for 8 p.m. at Ryan Field. Boston has been chosen to host the East Regional Tournament this year, and the finals will be played at Fenway Park in mid-July.

◆ Shane Fisher . . . Shane represented Charlestown in a big Regional Street Hockey Tournament in Leominster over the weekend. Shane played on our Charlestown undefeated city-wide Friendship League Championship Team during the fall and winter. He was picked as a League All-Star to participate on the traveling all-star squad. He was the first Charlestown player to take part. Are we proud? Yes!

◆ Summer Sports Leagues?? . . . Rollerblades, street hockey tournaments and a hoop league are some of the programs I hope to put together this summer. Interested team representatives should see Bob D. I would like to be ready by the first week of July.

◆ Off To Japan . . . Jamie Carroll, a junior at Muriel Snowden International High School in Boston, will be spending five weeks in Japan this summer. Jamie won an essay contest on Japan, and will join seven other young people from the USA in what should be a unique adventure. Jamie is the proud son of Mary and Jimmy Carroll. Jamie leaves Boston on July 5.

◆ Tidbits . . .

- Jamie Carroll's favorite line at Fenway Park - "Girls, girls, they just love me."
- Timmy Gallagher, did you find the door?
- Birthday best to Frankie Stillman.
- Congratulations to Dave Martell on his significant educational achievement.
- Special congratulations also to all our Charlestown High and Latin Academy graduates!
- Have you turned in your BNBL roster yet?

Smile!

The second annual Navy Yard Neighborhood Association Spring Cleanup and Cookout the end of May, brought between 70 and 80 people out to weed, rake, sweep and prep the streets for the street sweepers and work in the park. The result was a sparkling, clean Navy Yard for everyone to enjoy, including the half million tourists who visit here annually.

The turnout included not only residents, but members of the National Park Service and the crew of the USS Constitution.

The cookout which followed was a success, serving in excess of 100 people, including those taking part in the cleanup and also visitors to the Courageous Sailing Center's annual Spring Open House.

The cookout serves both to thank those who took part in the cleanup and to boost the programs of the Courageous Sailing Center which is a non-profit, joint city-state agency focused on working with inner city youths as a principal objective of its function as an urban-oriented sailing center.

Navy Yard Neighborhood Association Spring Cleanup And Cookout A Success

The Historic Tugboat 'LUNA' Arrives At The Charlestown Navy Yard

Right on schedule, the Boston and national landmark Tugboat Luna arrived recently at its new home at Pier 3 in the Charlestown Navy Yard, where it will be docked for restoration work.

Under a consent order issued by Suffolk Superior Court, the Luna Preservation Society (LPS) had to remove the vessel from Boston Graving Dock drydock by March 28 or lose ownership of the tugboat to the Metropolitan District Commission.

The Luna was successfully towed out of the dry-dock, its hull swathed in PVC roofing to help reduce water intake. After removal from the drydock, the Luna floated for 24 hours in Jeffries Cove in conformance with Coast Guard float test requirements before being towed down the channel to Pier 3.

"We're elated to have ownership of the vessel and see her tied to the pier. Now the work of restoring the tugboat to her past glory can really begin," said Douglas Randall, president of LPS, a non-profit organization formed to save and restore the vessel. The Luna was the nation's first commercially-owned diesel electric tugboat, and the last remaining of its kind. The flagship of Boston's tugboat fleet, the Luna worked continuously in Boston Harbor through the Depression, World War II, and into the late 60s, helping to dock such ships as the USS Constitution.

The tugboat will be used as an educational resource to teach Boston's maritime history, and engineering and maritime restoration techniques.

Exhibit On The First Battle Of International Importance Fought By Americans To Open At Charlestown Navy Yard

"Siege at Louisbourg, 1745: New England and the Struggle for World Empire" will open Wednesday, June 28 at Boston National Historical Park at the Charlestown Navy Yard, next to USS Constitution. Parks Canada, (Atlantic Region) and the U.S. National Park Service, in cooperation with a consortium of New England historical institutions, are presenting this free exhibit, which will be open from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. seven days a week. After Labor Day, the exhibit will close at 5 p.m..

Two-hundred and fifty years ago, Royal Gov. William Shirley, whose home is now a museum on Shirley Street in Roxbury, organized an expedition of New Englanders to attack the mightiest French Fort in North America, the Fortress Louisbourg. The New Englanders won the day. While colonists had engaged in successful military operations prior to this, the capture of Louisbourg represents the first time that American arms successfully challenged and significantly affected the affairs of European powers.

Today, the Fortress of Louisbourg National Historical Site is North America's largest historical reconstruction. Located on Cape Breton Island, Nova Scotia, it faithfully depicts what life was like for the French colonists of 1744.

To commemorate the 250th anniversary, the Parks Services of both Canada and the U.S. are using the occasion to expand the awareness of Boston's visitors and residents about life in colonial times.

The multi-media exhibit will feature an impressive collection of artifacts, photos, portraits, models and much more. Several special events are being planned in the Boston area surrounding the exhibit. On June 18, King's Chapel on Tremont Street is re-enacting the service given at the church when victory was declared. Strawberry Bank in Portsmouth, N.H. is planning a "send off" on July 8 and 9 for the period costumed soldiers who will take part in a Grand Encampment to be held in Louisbourg, and the Shirley Eustis House, 33 Shirley St. in Roxbury, is conducting a symposia in the fall.

Louisbourg itself is planning numerous activities including an Acadian festival from July 21 to 23, a Grand Encampment with over 1,300 historical re-enactors attending from across Canada and the U.S. which includes a visit of the Tall Ships from July 28 to 30, and craft and wine shows all summer long.

For more information on the festivities in Louisbourg, call 1-800-565-9464.
