

Rosie The Riveter, Where Are You?

The Oral Historian at Boston National Historical Park, Charlestown Navy Yard, is attempting to collect more information relating to women who worked at the Navy Yard during World War II. Surprisingly there is little available data on these heroines who made many sacrifices, giving up families, education, careers; some even giving the ultimate sacrifice, their lives, to ensure that their husbands, boyfriends, fathers, sons, and brothers were properly supported in the gigantic war efforts in Europe and the Pacific. We need to record the memories of these indispensable workers so their contributions to our nation's history in times of peril are further immortalized. We want to know the good times, bad times, victories and defeats.

If you were a "Rosie" or know of/about someone who participated in this valiant war effort, please contact Francy Bockoven, Oral Historian for the Park. She can be reached at 242-5681, or leave a message at 242-5664.

Kent Community School Begins Rise Out Of A Dormant Past

by Maria Girvin

It's going to be a slow climb up but for now, the Kent Community School Council is inching its way up out of the dregs of inactivity and financial starvation and it all began to happen with the arrival of Michael Griffin, the Council's Community School Director of the past few months.

Michael has worked in the public school systems of several communities for the past 10 years. He is very enthusiastic about making the school's programs work and very optimistic about adding a slew of others which, for now, are floating in his imagination waiting for funding.

His enthusiasm and optimism is contagious, as one will find when talking to him about his and the Council's plans. His priorities right now are to offer the community children as many sports options as feasible until he can raise the necessary $100 thousand to turn all the Council's plans into reality, thus serving adults as well. "We'll be thrilled to raise $50 thousand," said Michael in a recent interview.

So far, the Council has managed to raise $4 thousand through Vingo Trust which is supporting maintenance of the pool and rehabilitation of the weight room. Godfrey Hyams Trust has promised another $6 thousand to the Council's budget if they are able to match it with $18 thousand through other sources. Michael is undaunted by this task, as he lists the type of programs he wants to see in the schools.

"I'd like to begin some evening courses for adults, but I don't know what. There will be ceramics and sewing we will have weight room training for women and men. We are going to provide programs for adult basic education such as reading and writing skills and G.E.D. certificates. Later we'll have courses that require a flat fee such as gymnastics and dance. The Museum of Science has even collaborated with the Council to offer a 20 week graphic design program, beginning in October.

"As far as the Council is concerned, we can do anything within these schools we want. Sure we have money restraints, but that doesn't mean we can't go looking for money through volunteers while doing the best we can with what we have.

"We have submitted a number of proposals to private foundations, corporations and churches to run a neighborhood center. It's a very adventurous concept but Charlestown definitely has a need for it."

For several years, the ing exactly that. Everyday Michael opens the doors to the swimming pool in the Charlestown High School where the kids line up, hours before the pool opens. He has list after list of names where children, teens and adults are asked to sign in before using the facilities. Michael calls this proof of a need for a community center.

"It makes me wonder what kind of a response we'd get if we had a history of offering a solid program," said Michael.

Presently Michael operates with a staff of five. Together they direct the programs, supervise, help with community outreach, "sweep the floors and fill the tonic chest," said he half jokingly and half serious.

ASSISTANT BUILDING MANAGER Ann Martin helps Michael Griffin with the supervision of the local children who make use of the summer programming being offered at the Charlestown High School.

Kent School Council suffered turmoil within its own group and a lack of leadership. Last year the school was closed as these problems stifled any creativity from the elected residential Council.

The school had only a fraction of the $900 thousand in city funds distributed amongst 17 community schools, with no plans for the future on how to replace a 50% loss in funds. While other schools foresaw the city's austere future, the Kent Council did not and remained reliant on city funding. While the $900 thousand was enough five years ago, it is only considered seed money today.

With the Council facing dormancy, under-funding and other internal problems, Michael arrived from the Mattapan School in Mattapan, his former position there being eliminated due to funding cuts.

Here he has remained, performing all the functions of community coordinator from an office that use to be a storage room and still shows signs of be-

Members of the Council are Monica Auch, Chairwoman, Mary MacInnes, Mary Parker, Margie Kent, Mazie Whelan, Laurie Barrett, Cindy Blakie and Kathryn MacInnes.

Michael speaks proudly of the Council's optimism and feels he has a good team behind him. "But what we really need to know," said Michael, "is what people want to use these buildings for. Look at the facilities we have. We can do anything."

"I could sit at my desk and throw darts at the wall and say this is what the community needs and this is what they don't need, but that's not my role," said Michael. "We're starting at ground zero. We need to know what people want to use these buildings for. We need the support of the community."

According to Michael, the Council's goal is to extend the community school programming into both the Kent School and the Charlestown High School, all year round. He asks

Thinking About Selling?

FIND OUT WHAT YOUR HOME IS WORTH

So far this year Gibson Associates has sold $1,882,000 of Charlestown homes (completed sales, contracts) at prices from $26,000 to $300,000. One thing we're seeing consistently is that home buyers are shopping harder and longer than ever before: It's not uncommon for a buyer to spend 4 to 6 months and see 20 or 30 homes or more before buying.

That means home buyers are very knowledgeable about the home market. SHOULDN'T YOU KNOW AS MUCH ABOUT PRICES AS THE PEOPLE SHOPPING FOR HOMES?

That's the first way Gibson Associates will help you sell your home. We keep track of sales prices and what homes are on the market throughout Charlestown. We can give you informed advice to set a price that will get you the most for your home in the time you have for selling. To get your home sale off to a good start....

Dear Mr. Silva:

I would like to express my appreciation for the helpfulness and consideration shown me by you and the members of your firm during the difficult and trying circumstances surrounding the purchase of my house.

Everyone was more than generous and I am grateful for the many kindnesses extended to me.

I would like to convey my special thanks to Joe Gannon for all his efforts on my behalf and Ethel McGoff who performed beyond the line of duty. If it hadn't been for Ethel's encouragement and warm personal support I am not certain I would have had the confidence to consider making an offer on this house and the endurance to see the purchase through.

I am delighted with my new home and very pleased that I will enjoy the assistance of Silva Realty and especially Ethel's help and able guidance in the rental of my apartments.

Kent Community School Begins Rise

ONE MEMBER of several basketball teams, organized by the children themselves, sinks a basket while practicing for the next game.

that the public attend the monthly council meetings which will be announced in the Patriot and volunteer time toward making programs work or helping with fundraising. Most of all, he hopes that Charlestown residents will make use of the programs, once they are implemented. "If we don't succeed this year, there won't be a next year."

In an effort to raise some revenues, the Council has implemented a membership fee scale as follows: 7-10 year olds, 50¢; 11-17 year olds, $1.00; 18 and older, $2.00; family membership, $4.00; senior citizens, $1.00; and non-residents, $5.00.

In August, the council plans to run a large fundraising effort through a raffle, and pool party. This will center around a decathlon entered by the children who have been frequenting the school's summer programs.

It will be called the Charlestown Olympics, and will be sponsored by the Kent Council, the Kennedy Center, the Boys and Girls Club, St. Francis de Sales, St. Mary's and St. Catherine's. More on this will follow at a later date. The raffle will begin this weekend.

So while the Kent Community Council is on the road to recovery, residents of Charlestown can look forward to enlightening and entertaining programs for the future. "I'm not afraid to offer anything," said Michael. "By this time next year we will have a very solid program and future."

Boston History Unveiled In "The Brahmins"

Emerging from the unpaved lanes and alleyways of colonial Boston with a fortune built on piracy and slave-trading, the Staffords would rise to the top of every social, political and financial hierarchy. There they would remain, at the pinnacle of power for generations to come, at the vanguard of Boston's elite community. They were the Brahmins. From their luxurious landmark homes on Boston's exclusive Beacon Hill, they would make the decisions that shaped the course of history. From the Salem Witch Trials to the Boston Tea Party, from the McCarthy Hearings to the death of Bobby Kennedy, they would play leading public roles. They would build great universities, libraries and museums, leaving their indelible mark on the nation, shaping the tragedies and triumphs of America's destiny.

The towering presence of the Staffords is dominated by the Stafford women. Fiercely independent, courageous, and driven to challenge their own heritage, the Stafford women create an American dynasty that has no precedent in Eileen Lottman's panoramic novel, THE BRAHMINS. This unforgettable story of 300 years of radical transformations and extraordinary grandeur in American history was published by Delacorte Press on July 26th, 1982.

A fisherman's daughter with no education, Emily Stafford is only 17 when she first sets foot in the New World. Although she is so very young, her strength and devotion keep the family together through the first difficult pioneering years. In time, Emily's courage and determination establish the Staffords as a pillar of the social and commercial community, a foundation stone upon which Boston's future is built.

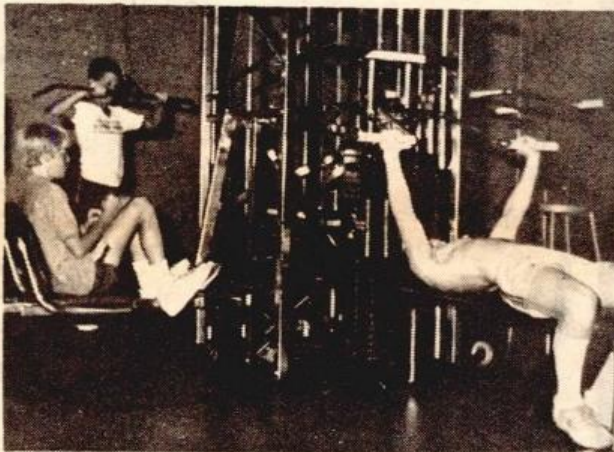

The Stafford's fleet of merchant ships and privateers brings them wealth beyond their wildest dreams, and with that wealth an awesome power. Emily becomes the matriarch, a staunch figure standing behind four generations of Stafford women—women who will wield unparalleled power through their daring, their genius, their eccentricity and radical thinking:

Rep. Dan Pokaski Candidate For Clerk Of Superior Court

State Representative Daniel F. Pokaski of Dorchester recently announced his candidacy for Clerk of the Superior Court, Criminal Division in Suffolk County.

Daniel F. Pokaski, the State Representative from the Fifth Suffolk District, was elected to the House of Representatives in 1974 and has been re-elected by wider margins in each successive term. As a member of the House, Representative Pokaski serves on the following important committees: Election Laws, Government Regulations, Judiciary and the Committee on Criminal Justice.

Rep. Pokaski was born in Charlestown and raised in Dorchester. He attended Saint Peter's Grammar School, Boston Technical High School, and received a Bachelors Degree in Political Science from Boston State College in 1971. Following college, Dan joined the United States Naval Air Reserve. Upon completion of active duty, Dan was a teacher in the Boston Public School system for two and one-half years.

Throughout Rep. Pokaski's legislative career, he has been a vigorous advocate of crime prevention and court reform. Representative Pokaski believes one of the public's principal concerns is the escalating crime rate. He has sponsored and supported many proposals to establish stronger penalties to deter criminal behavior. Among these are tougher criminal laws for shoplifters, drug dealers, car thieves and perpetrators of violent crimes. Last year, Representative Pokaski was particularly pleased when the Legislature passed, and the Governor signed into law, a bill which makes crimes against the elderly a more serious offense in the Commonwealth. Rep. Pokaski has been a longstanding proponent and author of legislation to increase criminal penalties for those who would victimize senior citizens.

As a member of the Judiciary Committee, Rep. Pokaski supported major court reform in Massachusetts. His decision to seek the elected office of Clerk of the Criminal Court stems from his belief that much needs to be done to improve the criminal justice system. Rep. Pokaski stated, "Court reform and other laws have been passed which give the courts in our state the ability to improve their own operations and administration. However, it is clear that passing new laws is not the answer to achieving judicial eficiency. The office of Clerk of the Criminal Court plays a critical role in the implementation of necessary reforms and other important judicial and public policy. I strongly believe that modernization and computerization of the Criminal Court is long overdue and must be implemented without delay."

In recent months, public attention has focused on the effectiveness of the criminal justice system. Rep. Pokaski addressed the issue of public confidence in the judicial branch of government by stating: "If the administration of our court system is not working, a crucial link in the entire system is broken. Prosecutors, civil litigants and the public depend upon their elected Clerk of Court to fulfill the important role of manager of the judicial process."

As a legislator for eight years, Rep. Pokaski cites his leadership capability and his desire to run the Criminal Court "in the best interest of all the people of Suffolk County." Suffolk County includes the City of Boston and the communities of Chelsea, Winthrop and Revere. Rep. Pokaski believes that he can restore public confidence in the criminal justice system through improved managerial techniques.

"The quality of life we enjoy and the right of people to be secure in their homes are jeopardized when any part of our judicial system fails. I seek the elective office of Clerk of the Criminal Court to bring leadership and direction to this important office," said Pokaski.

Townie Tidbits

by Sal Giarratani
STATION 15 RETURNING?

So far Station 6 and 14 in Southie and Brighton, respectively, have reopened, as Commissioner Joe Jordan calls, "full-service substations." People aren't dumb and know Mayor White deserves no credit for the possible reopening of Charlestown's Station 15 in City Square. Remember, he's the guy who shut them down in the first place. Politics is behind the move more than the passage of Tregor.

What good are "sort-a-stations", as the Globe's Jeremiah Murphy put it, when full police service is not restored and station houses remain undermanned. It is show and style not safety or substance.

The mayor's public relations people can use the reopenings and promises of new buildings for press releases but it will still be fodder for criminals.

The most protection Southie and Brighton has had was during the mayor's speech. When he left, the police escort did too. It's all good consumption for the evening news but hardly public safety's finest hour!

The people have been deceived over the past few weeks into thinking proper public safety levels have returned to the neighborhoods, when in fact, they remain at the same inadequate levels.

PALACE POLITICS
I worked for Ronald Reagan in 1980 and now am quite displeased with the policies coming forth from the White House. The Reagan Tax Cut is a big zero. For most working people it comes out to a couple of bucks a week. Somehow, if that's how Reaganomics is supposed to work, God help us from

it. The May 24 issue of U.S. News & World Report revealed that the incomes of the top 100 corporate executives in the United States last year ranged from a mere $700,000 to $2,668,500. Another article in that issue quotes a union leader in Indiana who says, "If it gets worse, I don't know what we'll do. Such conditions are responsible for spawning the Huey Longs and George Wallaces of American politics."

I voted for George Wallace in both the 1972 and 1976 presidential primaries-not because I was a racist-but because he voiced the anger of those on the lower edge of the middle class, neither poor enough to gain the attention of Teddy Kennedy or rich enough to gain Ronald Reagan's support.

In the 1930's people watched helplessly as everything they had evaporated in front of them. But as they dropped toward disaster they noticed some escaped the hurts of an economy gone wild. Then, as now, corporate executives ate caviar while others stood in bread lines. Today, it's cheese and butter lines.

People-ordinary everyday people - are frustrated and want some control over their lives and no politician is there ready to help. Government used to work for the people but now it has gone over to the other side!

TIPPING O'NEILL
Bob Cappucci from East Boston, a candidate for Congress says Tip is out of touch with the mood of America. Wrong on the social issues and wrong on taxing issues. Cappucci is appealing to voter frustration and hopes people take a look at Tip's recent record and retire him in the primary. I wish Bob luck.

EVICTON BAN
Kudos to Councillor Ray Flynn for sponsoring an anti-displacement ordinance in the City Council agenda. His ordinance would ban all evictions stemming from condo conversions.

MID-AMERICA CONSERVATIVES

Under the leadership of Executive Director Red Temple (former Editor of "The Citizens' Forum"), "Mid-America Conservatives" has formulated a political action committee (MACPAC) which spent a busy July involved with the Humphrey-Kennedy debate at Harvard University, the Captive Nations Day Rally at Faneuil Hall and joined in active participation with Mass. Citizens for Life's picketing of the Bill Baird Abortion Clinic.

This Marlboro-based group numbers Yuri Tuvim (Soviet Dissident), Earle Tuttle (Publisher of "The Truth"), Agnes Smith of Dorchester (Political Activist), Marie Sturgis (Pro-Family Leader), Congressman Jim Jeffries of Kansas, and Major General John K. Singlaub (Ret.) among its National Directors and Advisors, and recently hosted Lieutenant General Daniel Graham (of "High Frontier" fame) at a well-attended Newton dinner.

In August, MACPAC plans to target 75-100 cities and towns with a quarter million pieces of literature on Kennedy's voting record regarding human rights, defense, and moral issues, and recently held a major news conference on "Kennedy's human rights hypocrisy," especially with regard to Cambodia, Laos and Afghanistan.

MACPAC has also printed an exceptionally candid brochure capsulizing our Senator's position on Right-to-Life, Prayer in schools, Forced busing, National defense, "Gay Rights," and Fiscal stewardship. If you'd like one, simply ask for the "Christian Voters' Guide (Moral Issues)," and send along a business size SASE to MACPAC, 49 East Main St., Marlboro, Mass. 01752. As it can be expected that national politics will be involved eventually, out-of-staters are invited to request information and the brochure also.

Remembering that it was a coalition of such groups that were the undoing of red-hot liberals George Mc Govern, John Culver, Birch Bayh and Frank Church in the last election, we expect MACPAC will have a high degree of success in at least partly "righting" some of the too many wrongs that have occurred in our great country by helping to elect responsible leadership. You'll be hearing a lot about their endeavors in the coming months. We wish them well ... and, remember, you read it here first!

ANTI-BUSING/PORNOGRAPHY 1-SUPREME COURT

None we know, involved in the anti-forced busing and/or antipornography issues, would entertain or condone the physical action recently taken by Newton Estes upon the person of Justice Byron "Whizzer" White, preparatory to the latter's speech before the Utah Bar Association at Salt Lake City.

We can, however, empathize with the sincere frustration that assumedly brought Mr. Estes to commit such an act. All of us know parents and families who have borne the brunt of the ridiculous social "experiment" known as "Forced" busing, with its displacements and disruptions, physical incidents perpetrated on their children, and the horrible effect it has had on once stable neighborhoods (to say nothing of the damage to the family unit in general), and the promiscuity rampant in our society of 4-letter words, thanks to sex-oriented movies, T.V. and advertising. And the way things are going, shouldn't Mr. Estes plead temporary insanity (a la Hinckley) and pursue the matter (ironically) to the Supreme Court where he can then claim bias of the judges and have the whole case thrown out? That's not as far-fetched as it seems, unfortunately, and says little for our judiciary system!

Permit us this observation in conclusion: A collection of "Hippies," "Yippies," "Pinkos," Clergy (e.g. the Berrigan brothers) and whoever else have broken into selective service offices, burned federal records and draft cards, trespassed on nuclear sites, and on several occasions burned the American flag (others wear it on the seat of their pants) and the media usually refers to them as liberals, progressives or activists. But the N.Y. paper headlining the aforementioned circumstances referred to Newton Estes as a "fanatical right-winger." Pure and simple then, where the media is concerned, it seems a classic case of "it depends on whose ox is being gored" when such events occur. Agree? Disagree? Write this paper and let us know.

E.R.A. - R.I.P.?

Thanks to the following 15 states, the ERA was defeated: Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Nevada, No. Carolina, Oklahoma, So. Carolina, Utah and Virginia - and the following 5 states subsequently rescinded their ratifications: Idaho, Tennessee, Kentucky, Nebraska and So. Dakota.

That should be the end to an obviously unneeded, unwanted piece of legislation, advanced by feminist radicals, using government funds, and given an unprecedented extension of time for enactment, however, that is not the case. "They" have already resubmitted the bill, and the press pictured Ted Kennedy right there in the thick of things. Wouldn't you know it! As long as we're touching most of the bases with this column, why not let us have your opinion on this matter too.

A TIP OF THE HAT TO...

"Gerald B." of Quincy on his appointment as Chief Clerk of the John T. Clark Stevedoring Co. at Castle Island's Conley Terminal (that's me Brudder); to Charlestown's "Gus" (75 years young) Charbonnier on his graduation from Bunker Hill Community College with an Associate Degree in Science; to Edward Curran of D.C., fired as Head of the National Institute of Education" because he proposed to the President that his agency be abolished; to Lydia and Dennis Della Barba of Weymouth Landing on the birth of their first daughter, "Cara Ross" (yes, you read that right...it's my new granddaughter, and fourth grandchild); to Southie's "Super Patriot" Eddy Lunny on general principles, and to I.L.A. National President Thomas W. (Teddy) Gleason, Sr., on his selection by the Ancient Order of Hibernians to receive its John F. Kennedy Memorial Award when the A.O.H. gathers for its biennial convention (August 1-6) at San Antonio, Texas.

AND THE LIGHTER SIDE OF THE NEWS...

Our good friend (and "green thumb" expert) Dick Searle, of Norwell, tells us he recently found a praying mantis while gardening in his backyard. In the interest of entomology, he crossed it with a termite.

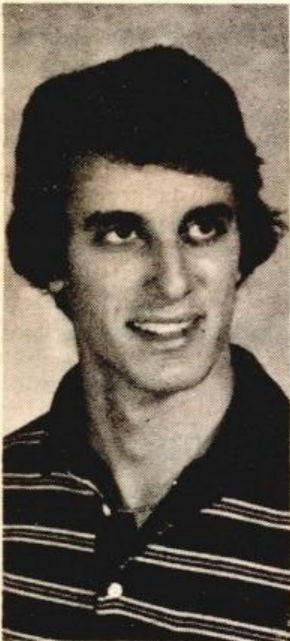

End result: "It" said Grace, and ate his back porch off.

"Tiny" To Conduct Basketball Clinic

Nate "Tiny" Archibald is returning to the Boston-area to conduct three more instructional basketball clinics including one at the Charlestown Boys and Girls Club, 15 Green Street on Thursday, August 5, at 10:00 a.m.

Open to boys and girls of all ages, the clinic is a free admission program and includes instruction in the fundamentals of passing, shooting and ballhandling - three trademarks of Archibald, the man called the "biggest little man in the NBA."

A 12-year NBA veteran, Archibald has been involved with youngsters since he formed the New York Youth Development Basketball League five years ago. For the first time a similar program, directed by Archibald, is being conducted in Boston this summer.

"We want to teach kids basketball skills and also about their environment," says Archibald, "how to deal with health hazards, drugs and eating habits.

Sort of a total approach."

In addition to league play, in New York and Boston, by summer's end Archibald will have conducted instructional clinics in several East Coast cities including New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Washington, D.C. and Baltimore. All of the clinics are sponsored by Eastern Sports Sales.

Lands Opponent With KO

The Fighting Townie, Billy Smith, remains in the winner's circle after knocking out his opponent, Dave DiZoglio, 1:42 minutes into the first round at a recent match held at Freeport Hall.

Hard-hitting punches took DiZoglio by surprise as he landed on his back.

"I didn't tell him to go for the K.O.," said trainer Emil Wilcox of Connolly's Gym. "If you look for it, it never comes. It just happened he had the chance and he took it. And won."

This leaves Billy with a 4-1 record.

Sparkling defensive plays by Paul Hutchins and Sean Locke kept Charlestown in the game. Trailing 8 - 3, Charlestown tied it up in the fifth, fell behind 10 - 8 in the top of the sixth, tied it up in the sixth on Robbie McIntosh's homer, and won it in the seventh when Kevin McGonagle went to third on a passed ball and scored when the catcher threw the ball into left field.

Irish Update

by John J. Walsh

Well, what can I say but that a grand time was had by all!

Some 100 Bunker Hill Irish Heritage Society Members and "Townies" left last Friday on two buses for the Green Mountain Irish Festival in Essex Junction, Vermont. On board the busses were musicians, story tellers, etc. and the four hour trip passed quickly.

Upon our arrival, we were greeted by the Green Mountain Committee and Mr. Summers, the tour manager.

BHIHS President Bernie Kelley and his wife, Rita, did a magnificent job setting up the tour.

On the Festival Grounds, a tent had been set up which appeared to be the size of Charlestown, with a center stage that held the most outstanding talent in the field of Irish music.

There were several thousand people there from all parts of New England. "Townies", ranging in age from nine years old to Senior Citizens, enjoyed every minute of the weekend.

On the last day of the Festival, a standing ovation was given to the "Townies" by the "Celticares Showband" with Mike Connolly, as we left the Fair Grounds.

Among the members our contingent, we were honored to have Maureen Moriarty, President of the Cedar Sports Club and Jack Connolly, President of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, both of whom are "Townies".

A special thanks to members Pat O'Brien and John McGaff for their accordion renditions all the way up and back in the busses (the sing-a-long was terrific).

Also thanks to our Irish Troubadours Danny Ring, Eddie O'Connor, Roger Doherty, the Flaherty brothers, and Peter O'Donnell who entertained us at the poolside and on the bus trips.

Needless to say, next year, God willing, all our members will be anxious to attend.

Fellow member Bob Garvey is home and doing well. He has new Bunker Hill Irish Heritage Society T-Shirts with our official logo for sale. They are a good item for gifts and for fellow members to sport around this summer.

Anyone interested can contact Bob at 242-4071.

On Saturday evening, July 17th, a gala harbor cruise was enjoyed by several Irish Heritage Society members. The trip was sponsored by Boston Irish Northern Aid. There was a full house aboard and it was a great way to cool off on a very hot evening. Music was supplied by Sean Roche's Show Band.

We understand our first President, Arthur Hurley, just completed a two week stay on the Emerald Isle. Hope you had a grand time!

The Constitution and By-Laws Committee is nearing the finish of their proposed changes, which are subject to approval by the governing board and members.

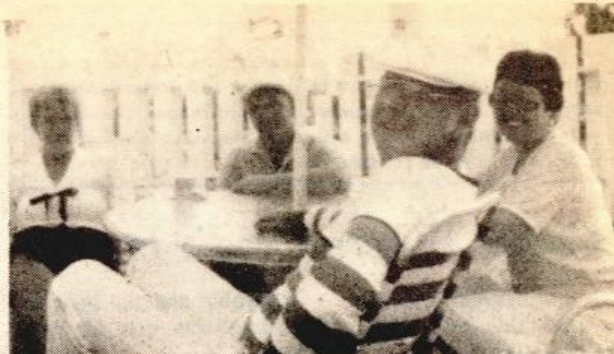

The Committee will announce the meeting date in the near future.

Bermie and Rita Kelly have been host to relatives from Donegal, namely his cousin Nora Duffy and niece Miss Eileen Duffy. Nora and Eileen got little or no sleep, but plenty of Hooley's (parties) and cookouts, not to mention meeting all their cousins here in Charlestown.

Director Jack and Betty Kelly held a recent cookout for their cousins, the Duffys, at their patio nestled amongst the cluster of pine and weeping willow trees, on the north slope of Bunker Hill, overlooking the Mystic River landscape - where the entire Kelly clan gathered to enjoy a full afternoon and evening of fun, food and Irish humor.

The Duffys returned to the Old Sod on the 25th of July with fond memories and pictures to prove it.

P.S. Will someone please tell Betty and Jack to put off the patio lights.

Views On Dental Health

by Jeffrey D. Cohen, D.M.D.

A BETTER WAY TO CLEAN TEETH

Dental plaque is a sticky, invisible film that contains bacteria and is the major cause of tooth decay and periodontal (gum) disease. The trouble with removing plaque from teeth is that you can't see it easily with the naked eye. But there is a way to make the "invisible" show up. Chew a disclosing tablet before brushing your teeth and it will leave a red stain where the plaque is on your teeth. Remove all the red stain and you'll remove the plaque. Here's a five step procedure to use before going to bed each night if you want healthy teeth.

1. Make the plaque visible by chewing a disclosing tablet.
2. Brush your teeth; using a dry, soft-bristle brush without toothpaste. Place the bristles at a 45 degree angle pointing toward the gum. Move the brush back and forth with short strokes. Clean chewing surfaces with short, scrubbing strokes.
3. Use unwaxed dental floss to clean between the teeth and under the gum edges.
4. Rinse and examine the teeth for any remaining red areas.
5. Brush again using toothpaste, concentrating on the areas that still contain plaque. For best results, don't eat again before going to bed.

Letters To The Editor

Letters to the Editor must be signed and include name, address and telephone number for verification. The name will be withheld if the writer so requests. Anonymous letters will NOT be published.

Credit Where Credit Is Due

It is with great pride that I write this letter as a special thanks to C.J. Regan and all his fellow workers who showed their "townie pride" last Friday evening at the pool party held at The Bunker Hill Pool.

There were approximately 250 young people who attended the party which was to raise money for new lighting for the pool grounds and new diving boards for the pool itself. The evening was enjoyable and the general feeling was one of good will.

The entire evening was organized by C.J. Regan and monitored by The Charlestown Board of Trade and The Bunker Hill Pool Staff.

As President of The Charlestown Board of Trade I want to congratulate C.J. and the youth of Charlestown for a very successful evening.

Sincerely,
Joseph T. Flaherty

No Public Access In Formation Of Committee

To the editor,

Recently, the Mayor's Office set up a neighborhood Cable TV task force in Charlestown as it had done earlier in East Boston. I am concerned about the heavy influence on this group due to the large number of people on it identified with the Mayor's Office or the so-called "White Machine" here in Town. However, I feel there are enough independent-minded people on it to perhaps offset any attempts at pressure from City Hall.

I hope politics stay out of the work of this task force as much as possible. But being a realist, one can only expect so much. Cable TV is going to be the most important thing that ever happened to Boston and its impact will be never-ending.

It will be up to the people of the community to constantly let task force members know their feelings on Cable and, most importantly, on the public access channel that is being planned for the people. I am slightly upset that no public access was used to draw up the membership list, instead members were hand-picked by the Mayor's Office. The last thing needed is more politics into an already quite political hot potato.

Sincerely,
Sal Giarratani
Chairman, Republican
Ward 2 Committee

Thank You

Did Not "Respond"

Charlestown Patriot & Somerville Chronicle
"Letters To The Editor"

Dear Editor:

The Rev. Paul F. Donelin, St. Mary's Rectory, Charlestown, stated in his (7/1) letter to the Charlestown Patriot, "responding" to my (6/24) letter, "...today I celebrate the same Mass I celebrated 35 years ago." If the Rev. Donelin is "celebrating" the Novus Ordo service, he is not celebrating the "same Mass" - Latin Tridentine - the One and only True Mass which must be celebrated (as does Fr. John J. Keane) under the pain of mortal sin, as per the dogmatic Council of Trent, which I pointed out in my letter to which the Rev. Donelin did not "respond".

In fact, the Rev. Donelin, did not "respond" to any of the other dogmatic edicts of the Roman Catholic Church, which I brought out. But, he did let it be made known, just how brilliant he is in a few languages (ecclesiastical exhibitionist?! Knowledge of languages does not admit one into Heaven - only knowledge and adherence to the edicts of the dogmatic councils, which must be upheld under the pain of mortal sin.

The dogmatic statements, edicts, and conclusions in my letters are not mine, but those of the Roman Catholic Church, the same Church to which the Rev. Donelin claims to be a member, and to have sworn to God to uphold, under the pain of mortal sin.

Sincerely,
Leo F. Kahian
Third Order of St. Francis

Go To The Correct Source

To The Editor:

The Charlestown Patriot and Somerville Chronicle dated June 24, 1982 had an article by Leo Kahian (Father Keane - Keeping Faith). In printing this article it suggests Father Keane is right and Cardinal Medeiros is wrong and the Holy Father is in error, and I believe in printing this column that you should stay out of religion, but if you must have a column on religion, go to the correct source where you will receive the correct knowledge that will help you, your readers and any other source desirable of knowing the truth.

It is Catholic belief the Holy Father is guided by the Holy Spirit and cannot err in a matter of faith and morals, and that through the holy sacrifice of the Mass we receive God in the Holy Eucharist. We believe God is with us in every tabernacle of every Catholic Church.

All I say about God and our Holy Catholic Faith I believe and could say much more, but what does the Bible say of the Devil or Satan as he is called, very little except "He was a rebel from the beginning."

Thank You

Dear Mrs. Conway:

I was recently rushed from my house to University Hospital, Boston, with the aid of Boston Police and neighbors Mrs. Mary Small and her family. I was given good care and was let home after a week in the Hospital, until that Saturday at noon when I was again taken ill. Mrs. Mary Small and her family helped again as did Mrs. Anne Martin who came to the hospital with me and my daughter. Everything turned out alright.

I do wish to thank them all.

Classic Instance Of Establishment Pettifoggery

The Editor
The Charlestown Patriot and Somerville Chronicle
One Thompson Square
Charlestown, Mass.

To The Editor:

Someone has sent me a copy of a letter by a Reverend Paul F. Donelin of Charlestown, Mass. (July 1, 1982), a classic instance of Establishment pettifoggery. The Catholic Church, especially the faithful of the Roman Rite, surely writhe in spiritual torment and theological confusion. Doctrinal orthodoxy within the Church is hardly to be found, and the majority of those who admit to being Catholic have not the slightest idea of what being a Catholic is supposed to mean. I shall not attempt in a few words to say what volumes cannot contain of the complete ravaging of the Church from the Second Vatican Council. ANYONE who is blind to the unspeakable condition of the Church of these days is bound to have an ostrich in his pedigree. And Fr. Donelin assures us that his soul is at peace, that there is not a cloud in the sky, that all the distress and disorder we see is a mirage. And proof of this is to be found in the fact that he is a student of Latin and Greek and Church history and "the public liturgy," whatever that is.

Fr. Donelin has surely missed his calling. Instead of becoming a priest, he should have become a PR man for J.C. Penny, or a flight attendant for a commercial airline, or a Good Humor man. One thing is certain, he should have found his way into an occupation which requires neither eyes nor ears.

(Rev.) James F. Wathen, O.S.J.

TIME FOR US TO RETIRE

Terrific opportunity to get into retail food business. We now operate a successful Meat Business in Charlestown. If you are ambitious and willing to put in the hours this fully equipped market can easily be converted to a money making convenience store. The business is already here; just add groceries, creameries, etc.

This proposal also includes a building with two apartments and the store. The right party can double or even triple the value of the building and the business in one year and have a fantastic income.

Charlestown Board Of Trade News

The Charlestown Board of Trade will not have a meeting in August but will resume their regular meetings in September.

The Board of Trade has been working closely with Martin Lightsey of The American Safety Razor Company and has spoken at The Boston City Council Meeting in favor of the expansion of the Schrafft's Candy Company plant in Sullivan Square in Charlestown. The new owners of Schrafft's are very interested in the Charlestown community and with the expansion of the plant more jobs will be made available to Charlestown residents. We urge that everyone in the community support this endeavor.

The Bunker Hill Pool is running smoothly with an excellent staff and group of hard working ABCD youths who are under the direction of Kevin Gallagher and Charlie Clabaugh. We anticipate another successful year.

The 520 Club is sponsoring a day of races and competition at the Bunker Hill Pool on August 10, 1982 with a rain date of August 11, 1982. There will be prizes and lunch for everyone so we hope to see a good part of the community there.

The Charlestown Board of Trade would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who participated in the Charlestown Tour for the NAACP earlier this month. The day was a success in many ways, not the least of which was the positive coverage that the television stations gave to Charlestown that day.

TIPS FOR TEETH BONDING

"A new generation of composites" (white fillings that blend with tooth structure). "Esthetic dentistry" with minimal or no drilling of teeth.

Such confusing statements are seen and heard regularly in the medium (newspaper, T.V., radio). What does it all mean? Bonding is the technique of etching teeth, then using a luting agent to retain a laminate or veneer covering over the prepared surface. Furniture manufacturers have been veneering with laminates and luting agents for many decades. Sophisticated methods have now been developed in dentistry to shade these laminates and to seal the material to teeth with excellent bonding agents. Meticulous care must be used to avoid contamination, bubbles underneath the laminate, irritation to the gums and coloring of the veneer.

Some unfounded claims have been made. No doubt there is a place for this development; however, it is not a cure-all. Cases must be selected and prepared carefully. The surrounding tissues must be healthy and the teeth must have all infection removed. If the requirements of good dental preparation are met, bonding may be of advantage for some of the following conditions.

1. To cover stained or ugly colored teeth.
2. To build up fractured corners or parts of teeth.
3. To reshape after an accident.
4. To restore after an accident.
5. To close space between teeth.

The advantages over other techniques are:

1. Minimal or no drilling teeth.
2. Anesthesia is usually not required
3. The bonding may be completed at the same visit.
4. Cost is less than other methods of esthetic dental care.
5. The procedure is reversible, meaning that the bonding can be removed and done again or another technique tried.

However, careful selection of teeth to be treated and screening of the patient is most important for success. Results may be disappointing if the patient does not cooperate by using prescribed methods to care for these restorations.
