Hey parents! We're closing out our Moses series with the story of the Ten Commandments he received from God. Sometimes we may struggle to make the right choice, but we can always look to God for answers.

Take some time to ask your child the following questions this week.

1. What is a rule you have to follow at home?
2. Is it hard to follow the rules?
3. Who can you ask to help you make the right choice?
