Events and calls, direct impact on local and global communities by shaping the direction of Runex protocol development.

Ambassadors asks for questions, weekly calls to showcase your contributions in front of a live audience.

Expert support from the Runex community.

Future Ambassadors - If you are interested in becoming an ambassador, please complete the following steps:

How to get involved?

The goal is to start small and gradually create a decentralized network of ambassadors.

While Runex is implementing the Runex Garden program, the team wants to attract ambassadors for a soft launch over the next few months. If the Runex Garden program is successful and the working groups become self-sufficient, leaders will look to increase the number of ambassadors in each sector.

Prospective ambassadors will be contacted via email and if selected, will be asked to complete a 1 month trial beginning in Season 1 (September 1 through September 31). During the trial, future ambassadors will learn more about their team, provide actionable feedback, ideas, iterations, and plans for how they will develop their audience. It is during this period that ambassadors formulate suggestions and come up with actionable ideas on how to develop their respective audiences.

Once you are accepted into Runex Garden, Runex channels will open in discord and you can start interacting with relevant Runex Garden members.

During this 1-month trial period, you are encouraged to post all Runex Garden related activities in discord. Here you will have access to our documentation and are encouraged to document your workflow.

After 1 month, you may be hired as a Runex Garden leader and become a Runex Ambassador!
