Tobin Bridge On-Ramp Closed For Repairs To Structure

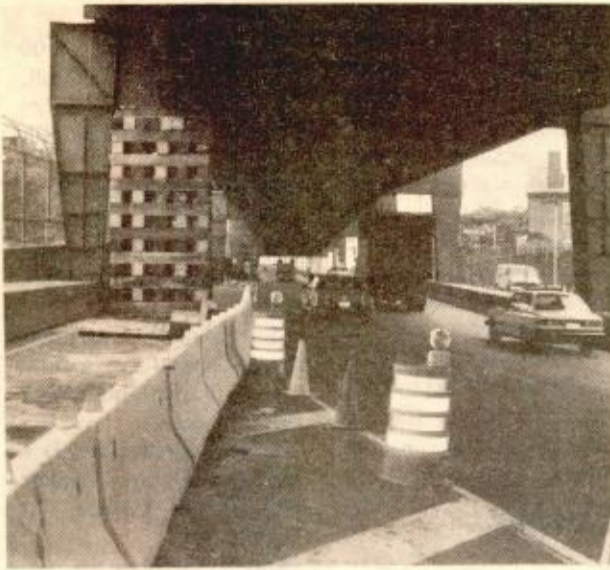

The northbound on-ramp from Chelsea Street and Lowney Way in Charlestown to the Tobin Bridge has been closed following an accident involving a truck striking one of the steel structural supports of the bridge.

On Wednesday, October 1st at approximately 7:00 a.m., a three axle flatbed truck entering the Tobin Bridge from the Central Artery, hit the steel structure, B-5, just north of the entrance ramp from Charlestown onto the bridge.

Phil Orlandella, spokesperson for Massport, stated that, according to the driver of the vehicle, Charles E. Simmons, age 25, of Abington, the vehicle lost its steering control and the brakes locked, causing it to skid as the driver proceeded down the incline from the Central Artery. The truck is owned by the Marsh Construction Company of Marshfield.

It was reported that there were 81 feet of skid marks leading up to the point of impact.

According to Orlandella,

THE NORTHBOUND on-ramp from Chelsea Street, Charlestown onto the Tobin Bridge has been closed indefinitely following an accident on Wednesday, October 1st. Damage occurred when a truck struck the bridge support. The upper level was shorn up and the southbound lane that had been closed was re-opened Thursday. The on-ramp will be re-opened to traffic as soon as repairs are completed.

officials were forced to close one lane of the upper (southbound) level of the bridge until a crew was able to shore up the upper level at the site of the accident. The lane reopened on Thursday, October 2nd.

Massport officials also closed the Chelsea Street on-ramp immediately after the accident.

Orlandella stated that engineers have evaluated the structural damage to the bridge and claim that the necessary repairs can be made. Although Orlandella could make no estimate of the time frame needed for the repairs, he stated that the on-ramp will be reopened to traffic as soon as the repairs are completed.

Police Community Relations Meeting

The Charlestown Police/Community Relations Meeting will be held on Tuesday, October 14th at 7:00 p.m. at the Kent Community School, 50 Bunker Hill Street. There will be a guest speaker from the Drug Control Unit.

All are welcome to attend. Refreshments will be served.

Land Taking For New Roadway Effects Chestnut Street Property

by Marianne Martin

Charlestown residents are learning more and more how much the ten year, or so, reconstruction project of the North Area/Central Artery Routes One and I-93 Interchange is going to cost them in terms of construction and traffic headaches. For those who live adjacent to the highway, this construction will cost them a good night's sleep due to the construction noise, as well as increased dust in their homes. Some may even lose the direct access to their homes they currently enjoy. This much, Robert Spencer, who owns the home at 15 Chestnut Street at the corner of Lowney Way, knew. However, two weeks ago one of his worst fears came true. Spencer learned he would lose his triangular side yard.

Spencer says he has repeatedly questioned engineers and consultants involved in the project about his fear that the lot would be taken by eminent domain because of its close proximity to the highway, and he says, "Time and time again, I was told no land would be taken." However, this promise did not last long, for on Tuesday, September 29th, Spencer was approached by a neighbor who handed him a business card with the name Richard Rooney from the Massachusetts Department of Public Works (DPW)

RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS IN PLANNED COMMUNITIES

If you are considering a house in a planned community, be sure you understand the ground rules set by the owners' association. These covenants can cover a wide range of subjects, including exterior paint jobs, where campers may be parked, where you can walk your dog, and what kinds of shrubs or flowers you may plant in your front yard.

These covenants have their attractions for many purchasers. You don't have to worry about your neighbors doing some types of things that you might find offensive. At the same time, however, they could cramp your style if you're an individualist and wouldn't appreciate possible community interference in plans for your home. If you're buying in a planned community, make your offer contingent on your seeing and approving any neighborhood rules and regulations.

For professional service in buying or selling real estate, contact Century 21, Silva Realty Associates. Call us at 242-7470 or stop by our offices at 142 Main Street, Charlestown.

Each office is independently owned and operated.

Knights of Columbus Annual Charity Drive On Columbus Day

"The Massachusetts Knights of Columbus have a simple philosophy that every child, regardless of race or religion, deserves to live as normal a life as possible. That's why we strive to help the handicapped, retarded and blind in Massachusetts get the most they can from life," announced Grand Knight Thomas C. White of Bunker Hill Council in Charlestown.

"Since 1977 our members have conducted an annual charity drive and once again we will be out in force on Columbus Day Weekend standing in front of local stores and shopping districts soliciting the kind contributions of passersby. We will be easily identifiable by the red and yellow aprons we will be wearing with the words 'Help Retarded Children' emblazoned on both the front and back." He continued, "Residents of Charlestown have been very generous and we Knights of Columbus are extremely grateful."

Grand Knight White emphasized, "In addition, grants are continually awarded throughout the year to handicapped individuals needing financial assistance to purchase wheelchairs or other similar equipment. For information, ask any member of the Knights of Columbus to contact me." He concluded, "On behalf of all the countless number of retarded and handicapped people, whose benefit all this money goes to assist, I want to thank the citizens of our community."

The Knights have been helping the retarded since 1954 when the then Archbishop Cushing of Boston, together with Mother Superior of the Kennedy Memorial Hospital for the Retarded in Brighton, appealed to the delegates at the annual convention to assist by establishing the Knights of Columbus Guild for Exceptional Children. The K. of C. State Council contributed $1000 every month for some twenty years towards this worthwhile charity.

Parents Meeting For Boston Chapter 1 Schools

Parents of Boston school children are cordially invited to attend a meeting on the Chapter 1 program at School Committee headquarters, 26 Court Street, Boston, on Sunday, October 19th, from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m.

Chapter 1 is a federal program operated by the Boston School Department in some 100 schools, public and private, in every section of the city. The program currently spends about $14,000,000 per year in Boston to give extra help in reading, math or English as a second language to eligible children in these schools.

The October meeting is especially planned to tell parents how the Chapter 1 program works. Chapter 1 teachers will describe the materials and methods used in their classrooms, and staff members will explain how schools and children are selected for Chapter 1 service.

The Boston Chapter 1 program recently won national recognition when it was among the first in the country to be awarded the Certificate of Merit as part of the Secretary of Education's initiative to identify successful programs.

An important part of the success of this program over the past twenty years has been the active and informed support of parents of children already in the program. All Boston parents are welcome to attend this meeting. Refreshments will be served and babysitting will be provided.

Charlestown schools taking part in this program include the Harvard/Kent, Clarence R. Edwards, Charlestown High and Saint Catherine's.

For further information, call 726-6200, extension 5214.

The purpose of the series is to host speakers from local agencies and educational institutions. This will give them an opportunity to talk about programs and services on an informal basis. There will be time allowed for discussion each week.

The series begins with Janice Thomas, Recruiter from Bunker Hill Community College. Thomas will talk about the resources that are available to all residents of Charlestown through Bunker Hill Community College as well as the more traditional educational opportunities offered.

BOSTON CITY COUNCILLOR Robert Travaglini presented a certificate to Second Lieutenant Michael Flynn, USAR, representing the Flynn family, citing the fact that the United States Flag raised in the memory of Private Thomas J. Flynn had been flown over the USS Arizona Memorial "in memory of the brave man killed" in action. Shown (l. to r.) James McGrath, Michael Flynn, and Councillor Travaglini.

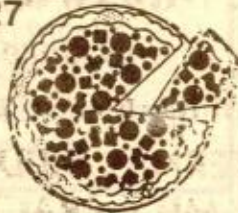

RAISE FLAG: A flag raising ceremony was held recently in the Veterans Memorial Garden on Bunker Hill Street, in memory of Private Thomas J. Flynn, 104th Timber Wolves Infantry Division, First U.S. Army, who was killed November 19, 1944 in Aachen, Germany. The flag, which had been flown over the USS Arizona Memorial in Pearl Harbor, was raised by Second Lieutenant Michael Flynn, USAR, and James McGrath who created and maintains the memorial garden.

An Open Letter To The People Of Charlestown

First, let me thank all of you for the warm reception given Bob Munstedt and the Bunker Hillbillie alumni who performed in the Bunker Hill Day Parade. Many people were responsible for this effort and special thanks should to Tim Walsh and Jim Sullivan for locating former Hillbillies along with organizing practices so the band could perform so well.

For forty years, from 1941 to 1980, Bob Munstedt made a mark on the hearts and memories of hundreds of boys, who performed at just about every function imaginable. The boys performed in nursing homes, hospitals, parades, museums, United Way campaigns, rehabilitation centers, schools, hotels, and even the White House. Many times appearances were scheduled on TV shows such as Johnny Carson, Big Brother Bob Emery, Rex Trailer's Boomtown, Bozo and the course Major Mudd. Needless to say, the reputation of Charlestown as a community was always enhanced by such appearances.

The name "Bunker Hillbillies" is as synonymous with Charlestown as the Bunker Hill Monument, the USS Constitution, and now the USS Bunker Hill. There is a grassroots effort now underway to revive this activity for boys and girls within the clubhouse on Green Street. But let's face it, the Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston is not the Rockefeller Foundation. Tom King, the Director of the Club, has enthusiastically endorsed this effort and will find space for the band within the Club, along with funding the normal operating costs during 1987 and beyond. But this does not buy instruments, which will be needed for the band to perform.

So I am calling on all the people of Charlestown, who clapped and cheered wildly when the Hillbillie float passed by, to make a one-time tax-deductible donation of $5, $10, $15, $25 or whatever you can afford, to get this activity off the ground. $100 will buy a banjo, $50 will outfit the racket squad, $25 will buy a ukulele, $10 will pay for song sheets and booklets, $5 will buy a rhythm instrument, and $1 will buy a kazoo. Donations can be dropped off at the Club on Green Street or by check or money-order mailed to:

Attention: Bunker Hillbillie Fund
I thank you in advance for your support and promise to bring a quality Hillbillie band once again to Charlestown. Your dollars will go directly into a Bunker Hillbillie Fund to buy instruments for the children. Also, if anyone is interested in donating an instrument, that would obviously be very welcome. With your support, on Bunker Hill Day 1987, the "new" and old Bunker Hillbillies will take to the streets to serenade you in appreciation of your interest. Information on registration and tryouts will appear next week.

Sincerely,
Steve Coyne

First Baptist Church To Install Two New Pastors

The 185 year old First Baptist Church of Charlestown is making a bold "restart" which essentially begins with an installation of two new pastors on October 26th.

On that Sunday morning during the 11:00 a.m. service, to which the public is cordially invited, Dr. John M. Wilbur and Mark A. Crosby will officially begin their new ministries at the church. The "restart" of the Charlestown church is part of the "Alive In Mission" program of the American Baptist Churches USA, which is nationwide raising $30,000,000 to establish new churches in unchurched areas and to "restart" some of the American Baptist Churches which have been around for a long time.

in several locations in Charlestown since that date. Its present location, since the late 1960's, has been opposite the Bunker Hill Monument on the southeast side of Monument Square. Its last pastor was Reverend Isaiah Sears, who served the church from 1974 through the fall of 1985. Mr. Sears had also served the church for nine years in the 1940s.

DR. JOHN M. WILBUR

Dr. Wilbur, one of the two new pastors, was the senior minister of the First Baptist Church in Beverly for 25 years. He was its minister during the rebuilding process after the disastrous fire of 1975. More recently, he served as Interim Minister for almost two years at the First United Baptist Church in Lowell. He is the immediate past president of the Baptist Ministers Conference of Massachusetts.

Coming on the pastoral team as Associate Minister is Mark Crosby, a senior student at the Boston University School of Theology. Mr. Crosby will be living in the church building, which is actually a typical Charlestown four-story "brownstone."

At present, the church serves as the site for one of the Headstart programs connected with the Kennedy Center. It is hopeful of establishing a one-day-a-week counseling center connected with the Danielson Counseling Center, which is related to Boston University. The Charlestown Preservation Society also meets at the church on the first Sunday evening of each month. Mr. Crosby has already inaugurated an "F & D" group (Fellowship and Discussion) which is also open to the public. It meets on Wednesday evenings in his apartment at the church, from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m.

In addition to the Sunday morning worship services at 11:00 a.m. (10:00 a.m. in the summer), there is a Church School program for all ages each Sunday at 9:15 a.m. Marion Gray is the Superintendent of the Church School. New children are always welcome.

Jack Alves is the Moderator of the Church and Floyd Emerson the treasurer. Dorothy Slattery is Organist and Church Secretary. The church office at 241-9197 may be called for further information.

The Charlestown church was first gathered in 1665, but was formally organized in 1801 and has existed

Celebrating A Rebirth Of Roughan Hall

by Joe Dove

When it was first opened around the turn of the century, Roughan Hall in City Square was a major business center. Some long-time Charlestown residents will recall when the fourth floor served as a dance hall until it was closed in the late 1930s. Abandoned for some 15 years, the building was long a target of vandalism.

Last year H.J. Davis Development Corporation, in a joint effort with Keane Incorporated, began to restore Roughan Hall. The interior of the structure was gutted and rebuilt and the retail store area is in the process of being restored. A high speed passenger elevator was installed in the office lobby and new heating, air conditioning, electrical and sprinkler systems were added. There are also plans to open a restaurant and a travel agency has opened on the ground floor of the building.

In celebration of the rebirth of Roughan Hall, Keane, Inc. a computer applications software company that occupies all 37,000 square feet of office space in the building, hosted an Open House on June 10, 1986. Hundreds of Charlestown residents showed up to tour the newly refurbished structure. "We were amazed at how many residents came," said Larry Vale, Director of Public Relations. "I guess a lot of them had fond memories from when the building used to house the dance hall and they were curious to see what we had done to it; everybody loved it."

Located at 10 City Square, Roughan Hall was originally designed by architect Arthur H. Vinal and built by local businessman Michael Roughan in 1892. The structure is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and is the only 19th century commercial structure still standing in City Square.

Keane, Inc. is a $42 million software applications company. Actually there are two branches of Keane: the first makes custom software for Fortune 1000 companies. Firms can consult Keane to design and program special applications programs for them.

The second branch produces commercial software packages mainly for hospitals. Keane's programs are designed to handle all computer operations from admissions to billing.

The company currently employs around 100 people, including several Charlestown residents. "It's great," said Marjorie O'Neil, Administrative Assistant to the Vice President. "I only live about five minutes away, so I can walk to work and I get to go home for lunch. I knew if I waited long enough, big business would come to Charlestown."

Other "Townies" employed by Keane include Receptionists/Switchboard Operators Mickey Whouley and Pat Rudy, Administrative Assistant to the Vice President, Kathleen Browne Urquhart, and Frank Tallent of the Accounts Payable Department. Vice President of Keane, Philip Harkins, a former Charlestown resident, said, "I really think that Charlestown is the place to be. It's the gateway to Boston, and we're proud to be part of the restoration of City Square."

Superbowl Saturday

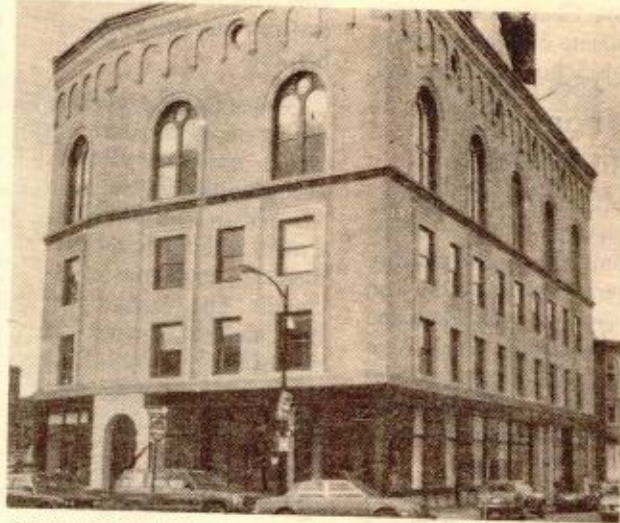

The opening round of the Boston Super Bowl I will be held this Saturday, October 11th, on the Boston Common. This unique flag football tournament will determine bragging rights in Boston as to what section of the City is "King of the Hill".

The Charlestown Townies, coached by Paul Bassett, will take on South Boston at 2:30 p.m., Saturday on the Common. Super Bowl Director Brian Wallace stated, "A Southie-Charlestown game, whether it be in football or any other sport, has a certain flair and magic to it. I'm sure this game will be no different. The name 'Charlestown Townies' still brings back memories of Crash McNeil, Paul Tröy, Teddy Ryan and so many others. We'll just have to see if this younger Townie team can live up to the high ideals for which the original Townies are so well known.

"It will be up to Ed Tucker, George Tighton, Mike Heinonen, John Scadding, Chet Gallagher, Don Lenzi, Leo Boucher and the rest of their teammates to carry on the Townie legend.

"Don't forget Charlestown vs. Southie, Saturday, October 11th at 2:30 p.m. on the Boston Common. Admissions is free and we urge all Charlestown fans to come out and support their team."

Right of Ways Division. The neighbor said Rooney came by "concerning a small land taking." Confused because he was told that no land would be taken, and because he read a quote by Mayor Raymond Flynn, ("who I supported," he said) in the Boston Globe reaffirming that no land would be taken, Spencer called the office of Childs Bertman Tseckares & Casendino, Inc. (CBT) first to see if what his neighbor said could be true. "These people, who made those promises, weren't even aware of this," began Spencer, so he called Rooney.

According to Spencer, Rooney told him that the yard would be used in its entirety by the construction workers, after which, two thirds of the lot would be given back to the Spencers, and they would be compensated for the other third of the parcel which will be used to soften the traffic turn between Lowney Way and Chestnut Street.

Scott Pickard, spokesperson for the DPW, said that the department "never claimed there'd be no land taking. We said there'd be no residential taking, meaning no homes or the need to relocate families." According to Pickard, the only reason for the land taking is to protect the safety of those pedestrians who will be attracted to the walkway which will be built across from the Spencer lot over the highway tunnels, for pedestrian access to Chelsea Street.

THE OWNER of the property at 15 Chestnut Street at the corner of Lowney Way, Robert Spencer, has been notified that a portion of his yard will be taken by eminent domain by the Massachusetts Department of Public Works to facilitate access to a pedestrian overpass to be constructed as part of the North Area/Central Artery project.

According to Spencer, he was told that the land taking is a "fait accompli", and there is little he can do to fight the decision. Regardless, Spencer has contacted his lawyer. "They don't have a right to take my land away. I have plans for the land."

The DPW does, however, have the right legally to take Spencer's land. Pickard explained that the state law permits land taking if it is for public use and benefit.

Spencer will be paid the monetary value of the land by the state. An appraiser, Pickard explained, will assess the land value, and recommend to the DPW Board a price to pay the homeowner. This price, Pickard says will reflect "what a prudent person would expect to be paid for the loss of property."

While Spencer says he knows he will be paid a fair price for the land, he commented, "That's not the point." The loss of the lot of land will result in a decrease in the value of his home as well. "I'm really upset about the land taking, but I am more upset about the way they (the DPW) is handling it. It is unbelievable," Spencer concluded, "If this is happening to me, what else are they going to do?"

Crime Watch And Business Security Programs Discussed At Merchants Meeting

"What police can do on break-ins is minimal — what neighbors can do is monumental — they can help by being the eyes and ears of the police", so stated Chris Hayes from the Boston Police Department's Bureau of Neighborhood Services Crime Watch Program at a recent meeting of the Charlestown Merchants Association.

Hayes, along with fellow officer Robert O'Leary, brought the topics of "Crime Watch" and business security to the luncheon meeting of local business people, held at the Towne Lyne Cafe.

Hayes related his experiences of the past 18 months, since the Crime Watch Program was established. He said that he would "go to any block in the city, no matter what the number of people." He continued, "I don't set any limit on the number of meetings in an area — it depends on the demand on the Crime Watch set up to make an area safer." He reported that he had been in Charlestown on more than 15 occasions, with most of the meetings being in the Monument Square area.

Hayes stated that with the Crime Watch program, people support one another where they may be afraid to speak out alone on certain crime issues. He continued, "If there is a particular problem in an area, I can go to the particular unit that would be involved in that activity with information."

Hayes told the gathering, "With changes in the neighborhoods throughout the city, people have to get to know their neighbors."

Bob O'Leary related that he has been an officer with the Boston Police for 31 years and presently is assigned to the Bureau of Neighborhood Services as a Prevention Officer. He stated that in the past, the police have been reactive with regards to crime — in this day and age, they must be pro-active and assist in preventing crimes before they happen.

O'Leary explained that

There are ways to Prevent Crime and Fear of Crime in your home
on your streets
in your neighborhood

To find out how, please call
Boston Police Department
Bureau of Neighborhood Services
Crime Watch Program
247-4345

his position entails responding to businesses, on their request, and evaluating the building or office, finding out the weaknesses that would make the establishment susceptible to break-ins and subsequently making recommendations to the business person that would make it harder for, according to O'Leary, the "maggots" to break-in.

O'Leary told the gathering that a burglar likes to get in and out with simplicity — sometimes through an unlocked door. He said that they only make recommendations — recommendations which would be cost effective. He stated, "My business is to keep you in business."

O'Leary explained that when he responds to a request by a business for a security evaluation, he walks around the perimeter of the building looking for ways that a thief might possibly gain entrance. He then evaluates the interior as to window security and other possible means of entrance for a would-be thief. He will verbally give recommendations for tightening security, which are then followed up with a written report. O'Leary stressed that this type of survey is done in the strictest confidence, with only himself and the business person having a copy of the recommendations. What the person does with the recommendations is up to him or her.

O'Leary described other programs offered to the business person, such as what to do and what not to do in case of an armed robbery; the problem of shoplifting; and a demonstration that is available to business persons and residents on security and lock systems.

Two of the ways businesses can help a community were addressed by O'Leary. He said that a business could be a "safe place" for a child who is being bothered on the street and the business person could use the telephone to call for help. The second was to assist the Bureau of Neighborhood Services in publicizing their programs by posting signs with the telephone number of the Bureau in the window of their business. O'Leary stated, "We will be glad to help with safety and security — you have to call us."

"TOWNIE SANTA" MEETING

The next meeting of the "Townie Santa" Committee will be held on Thursday, October 16, 1986 at 7:00 p.m. at the Mary Colbert Apartments, 20 Devens Street. All interested persons are welcome.

COMMITTEE SEEKS NAMES OF PERSONS TO RECEIVE VISIT FROM "TOWNIE SANTA"

The "Townie Santa" Committee is seeking the names of needy elderly Charlestown shut-ins who may benefit from a visit from "Townie Santa" at Christmas.

The committee asks that individuals and organizations submit names now — please do not wait until December. Delivery plans must be formulated and purchases made to fill the baskets, and thus the project must be coordinated well in advance of the holiday.

The committee requests that the names of eligible recipients who received a basket last year be re-submitted as well as the names of any elderly, needy shut-in of whom you may be aware.

Don't assume that someone else will take care of this person — the committee needs the help of everyone.

Life Behind The Wall

by Ronan FitzPatrick

The prowess of our "Townie" athletes comes to mind as I gaze out on the Atlantic. For several years, the Boys Club dominated the swimming events throughout New England. Why not have a reunion of these aquatic champions, or at least a competitive swim? Presently, the Boston Light swim is an annual event that attracts a talented and diverse field.

A startoff point at Pier 8 would be an ideal location, with Castle Island as a turning point. What a challenge! I am sure the South Boston rivalry would bring a substantial field. Additionally, two of our own Co-Captained a Boston English Championship team in the 60's — Ed Doherty and Jim Heelen, as well as displaying their outstanding talents for the Boys Club. With the aforementioned as a nucleus, I hope the seed will be planted for a joyous get together. Why not target proceeds to the fine youths of Charlestown for their athletic pursuits? Let's hear from you past stars to make the future brighter for the young "Townies."

A pleasant fall day was enjoyed by many over the weekend. Strolling along First Avenue was Jackson and Irene McGrath. All household chores accomplished; they were taking advantage of the fine weather.

Bittersweet memories are being shared by many a boat owner. With the season rapidly waning, preparations for removal and storage is grimly upon them. The joys of gentle zephyrs is history; but as Annie states, "Tomorrow, tomorrow is only a day away."

Hope to see a pharmacy appear within the compound. Keeping with the health issue, why not a fitness center? Before all is said and done, plans should be entertained for such a facility. The population can support same, all is needed is a good plan. Come on you developers, fill the need.

A Special Lady Turns One Hundred And Eighty Nine

The month of October marks the 189th birthday of the launching of "Old Ironsides," and the USS Constitution Museum is throwing a five-day bash!

In celebration of the event, the USS Constitution Museum, located in the Charlestown Navy Yard, has invited a colorful collection of New England musicians, craftsmen and artisans to come down to the Navy Yard over the weekends of October 11th through 13th (Columbus Day Weekend) and October 18th and 19th, to perform for the public.

Model ship builders, scrimshaw artists, and coopers will be on hand to share their expertise; lessons and demonstrations in knot-tying and wood-carving techniques will be available; and contra dance keepers will demonstrate traditional folk dances, including the Hull Victory Dance. Isaac Hull, USS Constitution's most famous captain, commanded her to victory over HMS Guerriere during The War of 1812. Finally, the Marine Detachment will present military drills, formations, and cannon drills from the 1797-1820 period of American history.

"Our museum bears the name of the ship," notes museum director Richard C. Wheeler. "Hosting a celebration of her launching is both an honor and a responsibility, and we want it to be fun for everyone who visits the Navy Yard."

Wheeler will add a very personal contribution to the activities by Kayaking from "Old Ironsides" at sunrise on October 17th to the Mayflower II in Plymouth and back to the Charlestown Navy Yard at sundown on October 18th. Wheeler is embarking on the 100 mile "Paddlethon" in an effort to raise funds for the museum to purchase a recently-discovered 1822 Sarah Peale portrait of USS Constitution Commander William S. Bainbridge.

The festivities will run from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. daily on both weekends. The rain date for Wheeler's "Bring Bainbridge Back To Boston" paddlethon is the following weekend.

First Annual USS Cassin Young Commemorative Sea Trials

The First Annual USS Cassin Young Commemorative Sea Trials, sponsored by the Cassin Young Association, Boston National Historical Park, and the U.S. Navy will be held on Sunday, October 12, 1986 from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. in Boston Harbor. The event will be visible from the Charlestown Navy Yard and the Boston waterfront.

The sea trials are in honor of the Cassin Young Association volunteers, National Park Service volunteers, and Navy Birthday — celebrating 211 years of service officially on October 13th.

The USS Cassin Young (DD-793) is permanently docked at Pier 2 in the Charlestown Navy Yard, Boston National Historical Park, as a museum ship. The former World War II Fletcher class destroyer will make her first voyage since coming to the Navy Yard in June 1978. She will be towed into Boston Harbor, accompanied by fire boats, out to the vicinity of Castle Island and return. On board will be approximately 250 invited friends of the USS Cassin Young, many of whom volunteer endless time and effort to ward keeping her shipshape as well as many who actually served on board on active duty during World War II and the Korean War.

Ribbon Cutting Ceremony Marks Official Opening Of Blossom's

CHARLESTOWN'S NEWEST restaurant, Blossom's, was officially opened on Friday, October 3rd with a ribbon cutting ceremony. With scissors in hand, Adeline Turco, grandmother of the co-owners Louise Iacobacci and Dyane Silins, who are sisters, made the cut in the ribbon, opening the doors to this cafe, take-out and catering establishment in Building 34, with the entrance at the corner of Second Avenue and Sixth Street in the Charlestown Navy Yard. Shown (l. to r.) Robert Kenney, developer of the building; Joellen Margarita, chef; Adeline Turco, grandmother of the co-owners; Mary Muccini, mother of the co-owners; Louise Iacobacci, co-owner; Dyane Silins, co-owner; and John Leigh, Assistant Director for Harbor Planning and Development for the Boston Redevelopment Authority.

Combat Art Exhibit Runs To October 19

An exhibit of more than 50 paintings by U.S. Navy combat artists from World War II, now on display at the Charlestown Navy Yard, closes October 19, 1986.

The free exhibit, entitled "The Sinews of War," is open to public viewing daily from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., through October 19, at the Visitor Information Center next to the USS Constitution in the Charlestown Navy Yard, Boston National Historical Park.

Learning And Fun Highlight U. S. Conservation Corps Summer Program

by Kathy Giordano

The United States Youth Conservation Corps, sponsored by the National Park Service, recently completed another successful season with a party held in the Hull Room in the Charlestown Navy Yard.

The Corps, consisting of fifteen teens from Charlestown and surrounding communities, not only cleaned areas in the Navy Yard that were in the most need of cleaning, but also learned the basics of landscaping, construction jobs and restoration, in the process.

According to Camp Director of the area Corps, Bill Bradley, "Although the work performed by the Corps, such as replacing sod, cutting down dead trees and the general clean up of the Yard was important and needed, the youth were taught the lasting lessons of being a responsible citizen and the value of conservation."

Crew leader Jim Walker echoed Bradley's sentiments and added that the Corps is "education as well as work, tempered with recreation." He noted that during the summer, the Corps enjoyed a day at Peddocks Island in Boston Harbor, cook outs and softball games, to mention just a few of the activities. Also, the importance of being physically fit was stressed, with a daily fitness program.

Both Bill Bradley and Jim Walker are teachers by profession. Walker teaches in the Occupational Skills Department at Charlestown High School. It is evident that the young people who worked with them this summer admired and respected their leaders, something that cannot be taught, only earned. It was also clear to see that the feeling was mutual.

The U.S. Youth Conservation Corps is an eight week summer program sponsored by the National Park Service. Fifteen crew members are chosen from applications taken in April and May of each year by the Park Service. It is open to both boys and girls and pays the minimum wage. Bradley advises those interested in applying for next season's crew to watch for announcements in the spring and send their applications in early.

SOFTBALL GAME between the Youth Conservation Corp and the Charlestown Explorers was held under the watchful eyes of Officer Steve DaCorta, B.P.D.; Bill Bradley, Y.C.C. Camp Director; and Jim Walker, Y.C.C. Crew Leader.

THE COMMANDANT'S HOUSE in the Charlestown Navy Yard was the site of just one of the fine jobs performed by the Youth Conservation Corps this past summer. The walkway (above) was badly in need of pruning and the Corps did an excellent job, enhancing the beauty of the area for the many visitors of the Yard to enjoy.

OUTSTANDING HITTING, FIELDING AND PITCHING were displayed at the recent softball game held between the U.S. Youth Conservation Corps, working out of the Charlestown Navy Yard, and the Charlestown Police Explorers Post 1212-15, which meets in the Bunker Hill Housing Administration Building.

SPECIAL PRESENTATIONS were made for outstanding service to the Corps to businessman Tony Costa and Boston Police Officer Steve DaCorta by Superintendent John Burchill (left) and Corps Director Bill Bradley (right).

DO YOU NEED A FLU SHOT?

It's flu season again. Influenza or "flu" is a disease caused by a virus that leads to the sudden onset of fever (usually at least 101 degrees), sore throat, and cough. The fever, tiredness, and aches and pains that go along with the flu often last several days. Do you really want to suffer the discomfort of the flu this winter, and do you want to risk missing work and spreading the flu to others?

Influenza is bad enough, but some people go on to get pneumonia as a result of a flu infection. In addition, people with chronic illnesses such as diabetes, heart disease, or emphysema may find that these diseases get out of control when they have the flu. The result is that as many as 10,000 Americans die each year during flu epidemics. To try to prevent serious illness, hospitalization and death, the Center for Disease Control recommends that anyone with heart or lung disease receive a flu shot. Moreover, people with kidney disease, anemia, diabetes or other chronic disease, and healthy adults over 65 are good candidates for the flu shot. Ninety percent of the deaths caused by the complications of influenza are in people 65 or older.

What does the flu shot do? It causes your own body to make antibodies against the type of influenza that is expected to be around this year. The vaccine is made from inactivated influenza virus. It protects against catching influenza; it does not prevent the common cold or other respiratory infections.

What problems does the shot cause? The vaccines used in the past few years have been associated with only a few reactions. The most common reaction, which affects less than a third of people vaccinated, is soreness and redness of the arm at the site of the shot. Occasionally, people will develop mild flu-like symptoms for one or two days, starting within hours of getting the shot. This happens mainly in people who have never had influenza. Most people who get sick a day or two after getting a shot have gotten an unrelated illness, not something caused by the vaccine. Very rarely, people have an allergic reaction to the shot. Thus, anyone with a history of allergies to eggs, which are used in the preparation of the vaccine, should not get the flu shot. There is no increased risk of getting Guillain-Barre syndrome, the illness sometimes associated with the 1976 swine flu vaccine.

The best time to get the shot is in early fall, before you have had a chance to come into contact with others who have the flu and could give it to you. If you are over 65 or have a major medical condition, you should seriously consider getting a flu shot. FREE flu shots are available by calling the Bunker Hill Health Center at 242-5757 for an appointment.

Glory Be! Columbus Shutout 14-0

by Bob DeCristoforo

You have heard about the "Hail Mary" play in football, well this last Sunday, Saint Mary's of Lynn discovered the "Glory Be". The Friars were playing a fairly decent football game. The Friars had recovered their opening inside kick, and going into the second quarter, the scoreboard read 0-0.

Things continued to go the Friars' way for most of the second quarter, and our guys continued to hold the Saint Mary's back field pretty much in check, despite some fine play by ace back, Timmy O'Neil.

Then it happened. The "Glory Be" came into effect. The Friars had O'Neil on the way to the ground, but somehow the football flipped back into the hands of quarterback Derek Dana and he went 15 yards down field for what would be the game winner. David Brown rushed for the extra two and the score was 8-0.

The only other touch-down of the afternoon was scored in the third quarter, as O'Neil finally got loose and went in from the nine yard line.

Due to some key injuries, Coach Marani had to do a lot of reshuffling of players, including Captain Dan Toscano moving to the quarterback position for the injured Mike Rakes. While not pleased with the outcome, Coach Marani was pleased with the performances of those who had to be moved in and around.

This Saturday, the Friars will face Bishop Fenwick in a 1:15 p.m. game at Hormel Stadium.

OTHER NOTES

Our Cheerleaders and Pep Squad continue to brighten what has become some very frustrating situations. All the young ladies should be commended for their performances.

Senior Hockey Update

by Bernie "Scoop" Kelly
MOCK FUNERAL — CANCELLED

Yes, there will be a Senior Hockey League formed for the 1986-1987 season.

Commissioner, Eddie "The Baron" Johnson, is finalizing the necessary details with the M.D.C. Rink Supervisor, Mr. Rodericks, with assistance from Representative Richard Voke's office, to have the Emmons-Horrigan-O'Neil Rink in Charlestown approved for the October 14, 1986 opening.

A spokesman at the M.D.C. Rink Supervisor's office, states that requirements have made necessary the preparation of the ice surface by a qualified refrigeration company, assigned to prepare all M.D.C. Rinks and equipment. The M.D.C. spokesman has assured the League officials that they would make every effort to meet the League's anticipated rink schedule and program.

Commissioner Eddie Johnson had indicated the Senior (No-Check) League will open its 1986-87 season with four teams and will play on Monday or Tuesday nights from 8:00 to 10:00 p.m.

Commissioner Johnson

anticipates a full season schedule of 20 games, culminating with an elimination semi-final, and finishing with a Manly Cup Championship Game sometime in March 1987.

The Senior League Banquet will take place in April 1987.

See you at the rink!

Saint Benedict's Birthday

Saint Benedict's Birthday will be celebrated with a dinner and dance at the Holiday Inn, 30 Washington Street, Somerville on October 17th at 7:30 p.m. For further information, contact Gladys at 666-3293 or Joan at 625-1862.

Children's Films

The Film Program for Children will be presented at the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main Street, on Tuesday, October 14 at 10:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.

The features will be "Hailstones And Halibut Bones, Part II", in which colors show different feelings; a mole needs pants with pockets in "How The Mole Got His Trousers"; take a trip to France with Henri in "Henri's Walk To Paris"; and a boy finds a lost duck in his apartment elevator in "The Case Of The Elevator Duck".

The suggested readings, in conjunction with these films, are: The Monster and the Tailor by Paul Galdone, A Family in France by Mary Regan and The Case of the Gone Goose by Scott Corbett.

New Zero-Interest Loan Program For Middle Income Families

In order to help thousands of Massachusetts middle income families save money on their fuel bills and make their homes more energy efficient, Massachusetts Energy Secretary Sharon M. Pollard has kicked off H.E.A.T., a new state energy program.

Under the new program, the Home Energy Assistance Team (H.E.A.T.), qualifying Massachusetts homeowners and tenants will be eligible to receive zero-interest loans for making energy conservation improvements to their homes. Massachusetts residents will also receive free energy information and guidance from qualified personnel.

Through H.E.A.T., the State Energy Office will pay the interest on conventional loans taken out by middle income and working families who wish to make a wide range of energy conservation improvements to their homes. Among the types of energy conservation measures eligible for the program are attic, wall and floor insulation; replacement or repair of heating systems; purchase and installations of solar domestic hot water systems; storm windows; weatherstripping and more.

To qualify for a zero-interest H.E.A.T. loan, a Massachusetts resident's income must be at or below $51,000 per year for a family of four or $35,700 for a single person.

The H.E.A.T. program will operate with the State Energy Office paying up to $4,000 in interest charges on an individual loan or covering the interest payments for five years, depending on which is less. The homeowner or tenant will be responsible for repaying the principal on the loan, with the state paying the interest directly to the lending institution.

The H.E.A.T. program is being funded by $15 million of an oil overcharge settlement paid to the Commonwealth last March by the Exxon Corporation. In January 1986 a federal court ordered Exxon to repay $2.1 billion to the states for overcharges to consumers from 1973 to 1981.

Secretary Pollard explained that the H.E.A.T. program will operate as a partnership between the state, local community organizations who will administer the program, utility companies and banks.

The H.E.A.T. program will be administered through a network of Regional Program Operators (RPOs) throughout Massachusetts. Residents interested in details of the H.E.A.T. program should contact the RPO in their area or the State Energy Office at 1-800-351-0077.

Matt's Junior "A's" Picked To Win Kent County Hockey Tourney

by Bernie "Scoop" Kelly

A strenuous two hour workout by the Matt O'Neil Junior "A's" at the Walter Brown Arena last Saturday evening, in preparation for their Kent County Hockey Tournament, produced some evidence of fine tuning as Coach Johnny Tibbetts and Assistant Coach Johnny Kelly put the candidates through some precision passing and play-making drills that they hope will win it for them at the Kent County Tournament to be held this coming Columbus Day Weekend at Warwick, Rhode Island.

Coaches Tibbetts and Kelly feel they have the scoring punch to survive the vigorous tournament pressure, and feel our kids will maintain enough team spirit and pride to carry them into the Semi-Finals!

General Manager Eddie "The Baron" Johnson would like to see a "Townie" cheering section at the tournament games to bolster our team's spirits throughout the weekend activities, just as they did during the Charlestown-Southie rivalries at the Boston Arena.

Remember when it was considered "Chic" to be seen at all the high school games? Well, let's start another "Chic Group" and make plans now for the Columbus Day Weekend (October 10 through 13) at Warwick, Rhode Island. Signer Of The Constitution Honored At Recent Ceremony

Charlestown residents joined members of the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) recently at a ceremony at Phipps Street Cemetery, honoring Nathaniel Gorham of Charlestown, Massachusetts, one of the 39 signers of the United States Constitution.

The significance of this ceremony was pointed out to the gathering by Mrs. Eric Hook, State Regent of the Massachusetts DAR. She stated that this is the 199th anniversary of the signing of the United States Constitution and the beginning of the Bicentennial of this document.

Mrs. Raymond Fleck, NSDAR President General, noted that it was an honor to take part in this ceremony and related that this is just one in a series of events that will culminate in Philadelphia on September 17, 1987 — the 200th anniversary of the signing of the United States Constitution. She said that the organization "wants to spread the word of the miracle of the Constitution to the young people of this nation".

Kathryn Downing, past president of the Charlestown Preservation Society, holding her infant daughter, Lydia, welcomed the gathering to Charlestown.

Gloria Conway, a vice president of the Bunker Hill Monument Association, represented James W. Conway, president of the association. She related that Conway was currently in Indianapolis, Indiana securing the data on the American Legion Oratorical Contest, which is based on the United States Constitution and open to high school students throughout the nation.

During the ceremonies, an honor guard was posted with Sons of the American Revolution and Children of the American Revolution taking part.

Also present were several direct descendants of Nathaniel Gorham, including Nathaniel Gorham VII, Gladys Kenney, Dorothy McKay, and Mr. and Mrs. George Gorham.

In addressing the gathering, Nathaniel Gorham VII stated that it is Nathaniel Gorham II who is buried at the Phipps Street Cemetery. He stated, "Our ancestors wrote the most wonderful article of faith ever written — almost 200 years ago and it is still the backbone of the country. It can be amended, but it still goes on."

Also taking part in the ceremony were Mrs. William F. Potter, MDAR State Chaplain, who delivered the invocation; Mrs. James J. Lucas, MDAR State Vice Regent; Eugene Richards, MASAR State Historian; Elisabeth Urbaczewski, CAR State President; Mrs. Harlow S. Pond, MDAR State Historian; and Edward Seeley, MASAR State Chairman of Revolutionary Graves.

Following the ceremony, a flag and flowers were placed at a marker denoting the burial site of Nathaniel Gorham.

Reverend Isaiah Sears, former pastor of the First Baptist Church, delivered the benediction, commenting on those present as "caring, sharing and serving."

An excerpt from the life of Nathaniel Gorham, a noted son of Charlestown, may be found on page 17.

November Ballot Questions 1 And 2 Topic Of Informational Meeting

On Sunday evening, October 19th at 7:00 p.m. in the Bishop Lawton Hall of Saint Francis de Sales Church, 313 Bunker Hill Street, Gerald D'Avolio, spokesperson for the Massachusetts Catholic Conference of Bishops, will lead a discussion on two questions which will appear on the ballot in the State Election on November 4th.

The first question deals with the use of tax monies to fund abortions. The second question would allow services and transportation, the state to provide monetary aid to parochial and other non-public schools and their students in the areas of text books, nursing under conditions to be determined by the legislature.

All interested adults are cordially invited to attend this important and informative discussion.

"There's Something You Should Know"

by Stuart Rumsey
Recently, there have been frequent references to the idea that "children are our future." This being so, the future will be determined relative to how we nurture and prepare our children. In other words, every child has potential to shape our future positively, and each child needs to make the most of that potential.

Every child needs the most nurturing environment possible to realize this potential. That means having the opportunity to be a child and grow slowly but surely into a productive adult. For most children, a secure and stable home life is essential for this healthy growth to occur.

Sadly, many children do not experience such a nurturing home environment. These children experience the trauma of neglect as well as the pain of mental and physical abuse. Too often, many children from our own community need to be taken out of the home for their well being and protection. These children are placed by the Department of Social Services in foster families. Hopefully, the family's problems can be corrected so that a child can remain and grow in his or her family setting.

In 1978, the State Legislature created the Department of Social Services (DSS). Its Mandate is to provide services to families to protect children from abuse and neglect.

There is no question that this is an enormous task. For one thing, the Harbor Area DSS office which services the communities of East Boston, Charlestown, North End, Beacon Hill and the West End, receives over 400 reports of abuse and neglect each year and the numbers have increased steadily over the tenure of DSS. A particularly troublesome problem is that there are so few foster homes in our state. In fact, there is a severe shortage of community families (less than 30) who are available to provide care and support to Harbor Area children.

The small number of foster families is particularly frustrating because it means placing some neighborhood children as far away as Worcester. Not only must these children leave their home, they must leave friends, their schools, their doctors, their counsellors, etc. We, in the community, must meet the challenge and assume responsibility of finding suitable homes for the children that need them.

A task force has been set up to bring the community into action to help solve the problem. The Harbor Area Foster Care Task Force is comprised of DSS Staff, community residents and agency representatives. The task force needs your assistance. Perhaps someone you know might want to become a foster parent were they to find out more about foster parenting. You might know of groups who could be approached by the Task Force for a presentation and discussion of the issue of foster care. If you would like to participate on the Task Force — the Foster Care Task Force needs your support.

If you would like more information on becoming a foster parent, or participating on the Task Force to help recruit foster parents, call 569-8310 and ask to speak to Debbi or Bob. If neither is available, please leave your name and number and indicate you are requesting Foster Care Task Force information.

Nathaniel Gorham, Signer Of The Constitution, Honored At Ceremony

HONORABLE NATHANIEL GORHAM 1738 - 1796

SIGNER OF THE U.S. CONSTITUTION

Nathaniel Gorham, the eldest of five children of packet-boat captain, Nathaniel Gorham and Mary Soley, was born in Charlestown, Massachusetts on May 27, 1738. He attended public schools and at about age 15, was apprenticed to a relative, Nathaniel Coffin, a merchant in New London, Connecticut. Within a few years, he returned to Charlestown to live and to establish his own mercantile business. He was a direct descendant of John Howland of Mayflower fame, and Tristram Coffin of Nantucket. The names of Gardner, Shattuck and Otis were also among his ancestral surnames.

Nathaniel Gorham married Rebecca Call of Charlestown who bore him nine children. They were members of the First Church (Congregational). Among their descendants were the Honorable Charles Francis Adams and the famous Boston minister, Bishop Phillips Brooks.

Nathaniel Gorham gave a lifetime of distinguished service to his town, his state and his country. He was a selectman in Charlestown and a representative to the colonial legislature. He was a delegate to the Provincial Congress and, after the British left, he was a member of the Massachusetts legislature. He was appointed a Judge of the Court of Common Pleas and, nationally, was a member of the Board of War until it was dissolved in 1781. Congress created in its place the office of Secretary of War. (General Benjamin Lincoln was the first Secretary of War, succeeded by General Henry Knox.)

From 1782 to 1783 and 1785 to 1787, he was a delegate to the Congress in Philadelphia that functioned under the Articles of Confederation. From 1786 to 1787 he served as President of the Congress which, at that time, was the highest office in the country.

In 1787, Nathaniel Gorham was one of five delegates from Massachusetts to the Constitutional Convention in Philadelphia. His many years of legislative experience proved invaluable in the framing of the new Constitution. His suggestions were practical and constructive. He believed wholeheartedly in a strong national government. He served as presiding officer of the Committee of the Whole for most of the term of the convention at the request of General Washington. He and Rufus King were the only delegates from Massachusetts who signed the Constitution. King married the daughter of a wealthy New York merchant and had moved to Long Island from Massachusetts before the Convention was concluded.

When Massachusetts was having such a difficult time ratifying the new Constitution, Nathaniel Gorham, as a delegate to the State Convention, was an important force in persuading the delegates to vote in the affirmative. The final vote was very close, but ratification was nevertheless, accomplished.

Nathaniel Gorham did not return to Philadelphia. He lost in his bid for election to the House of Representatives, having been defeated by Elbridge Gerry (who had refused to sign the Constitution). Investments in vast tracts of land in upper western New York State proved unfortunate for Gorham as he couldn't meet the contract payments because of a sudden rise in the value of the Massachusetts scrip. Bankruptcy ensued. He died suddenly of a stroke on June 11, 1796 at his home in Charlestown. On the day of his funeral, the flags in Charlestown were lowered to half mast and the stores and warehouses were closed in the afternoon. The funeral procession was reported in the Boston newspapers "to have been as large and respectable as has ever been seen in that town." He was buried in the Phipps Street Cemetery in Charlestown.

Nathaniel Gorham continued to serve his country up until the time of his death as Supervisor of Revenue for the District of Massachusetts.

ABCD's Fuel Assistance Program Opens October 14th

Action for Boston Community Development's Fuel Assistance Program will start accepting applications from low-income residents of Charlestown on Tuesday, October 14th.

The program is designed to assist low-income households with home heating bills. Tens of thousands of low-income households have received fuel assistance payments through the program which is funded by both the state and federal government. The program cannot cover a household's total heating expense, but it can help defray a significant portion of the cost enabling needy families to keep warm during the winter. Both low-income renters and homeowners are eligible to apply.

To receive assistance under the Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program, a household's total gross income may not exceed the following guidelines:

Household Size	Total Yearly Income
1	9,380
2	12,670
3	13,680
4	16,500
5	19,320
6	22,140
7	24,960
8	27,780

Add $2820 for each additional person over 8

Applicants may apply at any one of the 36 intake sites between October 14, 1986 and April 30, 1987. Constance Carey, ABCD Energy Director, advises all prospective applicants to provide the following information, in order to qualify for this year's program and receive assistance as soon as possible.

- 1) Proof of all sources of income for at least the 90-day period preceding the application for all household members 18 years and over. (Include letters from appropriate schools or colleges if household members are full-time students);
- 2) Social security numbers for ALL household members aged 18 years and over;
- 3) A copy of the most recent bill for the primary source of heat. (If the heat has been shut off prior to application, a copy of the final bill will suffice);
- 4) Either a current mortgage statement (if home is owned), or a current rent receipt (if applicant rents their home or apartment).

In some cases, applicants whose heat is included in their rent can receive assistance. They should provide at least 90 days worth of rent receipts or a letter from the landlord stating the monthly rent for the apartment and how long they have lived there.

Since no applications can be certified without all of this information, applicants are urged to bring these records with them when they apply. Anyone with questions or problems concerning their application should contact the Kennedy Center, 27 Winthrop Street at 241-8866 or the ABCD central office, 178 Tremont Street, Boston at 357-6012.

Substitute Teacher Aide Training Course

Headstart is in full swing again for the school year 1986-87!

While children attend school at the First Baptist Church and the Old Kent sites, many activities await parents and other interested community residents at the Community Center, located at 14 Green Street in Charlestown.

One of the activities planned is Substitute Teacher Aide Training.

This program trains people to work in classrooms as substitute teachers. In the event one of the Headstart or Daycare teachers is absent, it is necessary to have a person work in her place. Taking part in the Substitute Teacher Aide Training Program will qualify you to work as a substitute in a Headstart or Daycare Classroom!

If you are interested in being a substitute, you must attend four workshops and volunteer twenty hours in a Headstart or Daycare classroom.

The workshops will be held on four consecutive Thursdays beginning October 23, 1986 with a discussion on "How to Provide a Safe and Healthy Classroom." The next Thursday, October 30, the topic will be "Dealing with Three and Four Year Olds." The third session will be held Thursday, November 6 and will cover "Talking with Children." The final session will be held Thursday, November 13 and will deal with "Limit Setting."

This program is being reviewed by Bunker Hill Community College for possible college credit.

Call the Community Center at 241-7018 to leave your name and telephone number if you would like to take part in this course.

Babysitting is available for you to attend the workshops!
