

What is the purpose of the writing, speaking and business youth program?

All of these methods are an increment part of communication. Our goal is to offer challenging yet fun ways to enhance the communication skills of our youth.

What age group does this program target?

We have 3-year-olds who have completed and published a book. Our target age group is 8- to 17-year-old. However, if your child can follow instructions, he or she may be eligible for enrollment

What skills are taught in the program?

We teach a long list of skills: listening, focusing, creative writing, public speaking, financial literacy, business development, kidpreneurial skills and much more.

Are there any prerequisites for joining the program?

No prerequisites are needed.

How long does the program last?

Programs begins one month after school year starts and ends in late April of the following year.