ABAWD PARTICIPATION AND REFERRAL NOTICE

Arizona has a 3-month time limit for certain adults who receive Nutrition Assistance Benefits in a 36-month period. These adults are called Able Bodied Adults without Dependents (ABAWDs).

ABAWDs can get Nutrition Assistance Benefits in only three (3) months out of 36 months unless they qualify for an exemption, meet certain work requirements or participate in an employment and training program. Your benefits will end following your third (3rd) full month of benefits unless you meet the requirements in this notice.

This notice will tell you:

1. The exemptions to the 3-month time limit.
2. The work requirements for those who do not meet an exemption.
3. Information on how to participate in an employment and training program.
4. Good cause exceptions to not work or not participate in an employment and training program.
5. How to regain eligibility if you reach your time limit and become ineligible.
6. What your reporting requirements are as an ABAWD participant.

EXEMPTIONS TO TIME LIMITS FOR ABLE BODIED ADULTS WITHOUT DEPENDENTS (ABAWD)

If you meet one or more of the following exemptions, please let us know immediately so we can correct our records. Allowable exemptions are:

- ☐ Is a migrant or seasonal farm worker who will be going back to work within the next 30 days.
- ☐ Lives in a geographically exempt area. (Inside Apache Junction, on a reservation or outside of Maricopa, Pima and Yavapai Counties).

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO

If one of the above exemptions applies to you, please complete the form above and return it to us using the methods below. If you claim one of these exemptions, you may be required to show proof of the exemption.

WAYS TO MEET THE WORK OR EMPLOYMENT AND TRAINING REQUIREMENTS

If you would like to continue receiving Nutrition Assistance benefits, you must meet one of the following requirements each month if you do not qualify for an exemption:

1. Works 80 hours per month. This includes any combination of:
 - Paid work
 - Self-employment
 - Volunteer work
 - In-kind work: working in exchange for food, rent, or other needs. Proof must include the value of the work and the number of hours worked.
2. Earns 30 times the Federal minimum wage (or a total of $217.50) weekly, regardless of the hours worked;
3. Participate in an approved Nutrition Assistance Employment and Training activity a minimum of 80 hours per month; or
4. Participate in a combination of work and an approved Nutrition Assistance Employment and Training activity for a minimum of 80 hours per month.
5. Can show good cause for not meeting work requirements. Good cause is explained in this notice.

If you are meeting any of the above work requirements, please let us know immediately so we can update our records. Any full month that you either are not exempt or you do not meet the work requirements will count toward your 3 month limit, unless you contact us and participate in an employment and training program.

You should visit an office as soon as possible to begin the work and training requirements. You may visit a Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Employment and Training Program office any weekday, Monday through Friday, at 9:00 a.m., 11:00 a.m. or 1:00 p.m. without making an appointment. This appointment may last up to four (4) hours. Bring a resume if you have one. If you do not have a resume, you can bring information that is used to develop a resume, such as your previous work experience, education and volunteer activities. Every month that you wait will count toward your three (3) month time limit.

If you are not exempt, are not working, and are not participating in an employment and training program, then your eligibility for Nutrition Assistance will end following your third (3rd) full month of benefits.

GOOD CAUSE TO NOT WORK OR PARTICIPATE IN AN EMPLOYMENT AND TRAINING PROGRAM

In some cases, a person who is employed and who has been meeting the 80 hour requirement may have good cause for missing work and not meeting the work or participation requirement. Good cause is a temporary situation that is not in the person's control. Some examples of good cause may be illness, illness of a household member, lack of transportation, household emergency or natural disaster. If you think you have good cause, please let us know immediately using the instructions above.

REGAINING ELIGIBILITY

If you lose eligibility for not complying with work and participation requirements, you may regain eligibility. To regain eligibility, you must qualify for an exemption or meet any of the work requirements listed in this notice within the 30 days from the date you reapply. To remain eligible, you must meet an exemption or continue meeting the work or participation requirements for each month you are receiving benefits.

REPORTING CHANGES

Reporting requirements are changing. You are required to report when your income changes to 130% of the Federal Poverty Level or above. You must report when your work hours fall below 80 hours per month if you are working. These changes must be reported within 10 days of the beginning of the month following the change. It is your responsibility to inform us when you think you qualify for an exemption.
