5-minute romantic updo tutorial for special occasions like Valentine's Day and weddings. If you are using hair extensions, you can clip your four-clip wefts together and then add your three clip wefts which will create two sets of "super wefts" into this hairstyle to make it even more full and luscious. Prepare work:

- A clear elastic band
- Several bobby pins

Step-by-step Tutorial for Romantic Updo

1. Tease the hair on crown of your head with a comb to create some extra dimension and volume.
2. Grab some side pieces from around your face and leave them out.
3. Divide all the rest of hair into three separate sections.
4. Braid hair with three strand braids.
5. Use clear elastic band to secure hair, and then create a small loop at the end to help with the rolling process.
6. Grab the braid's bottom and then roll it upwards towards your head.
7. Secure the braid with bobby pins once the braid is at the top of your head.
8. Gently tug a section from the outside of your braid.
9. Secure the edge of the braid to your head with a bobby pin, giving a fuller look to the bun.
10. Repeat step 8 and 9 on the other side of the braid and at the top.
11. Twist the front pieces away from your face, and tightly wrap each section around your bun, and use a bobby pin to pin the ends on the underside of your bun.
12. Gently curl any remaining pieces around your face with curling iron for an extra romantic look.
