

Bright Club Edinburgh

Christmas riddle crossword

Solve the anagram of letters in yellow squares to find out

“What tastes better than it smells?”

Across

- 1 Bought by the metre, but worn by the foot (6)
- 7 Traditionally, this man has two or three balls (7)
- 9 So delicate that saying its name breaks it (7)
- 11 This lady is a gem (5)
- 12 Has a neck, but has no head (6)
- 13 Begins with t, is filled with t, and ends in t (6)
- 15 Travels the world but stays in one spot (5)
- 17 Joins two people, but touches only one (7,4)
- 19 The more you take, the more you leave behind (5)
- 20 Often drawn on camels (5)

Down

- 2 A thing with only one hand (3)
- 3 Easy to get into - hard to get out of (7)
- 4 Tall when young and short when old (6)
- 5 Can go up a chimney down but can't come down a chimney up (8)
- 6 Obvious Christmas gift for woodland bears (6,5)
- 8 Has space, but no room - you can enter but you can't leave (8)
- 10 Best way to stop food going bad (3,2)
- 14 Said by surprised pig (5)
- 16 Trees you carry in your hands (5)
- 18 A dry liquid (3)