JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES

AFTER

A photograph of a single-story brick building with a dark tiled roof. The building is constructed of dark brown bricks. On the front wall, there is a sign that reads "KINGDOM HALL OF JESUS'S WITNESSES" in white capital letters. Below this sign is a smaller blue sign with the text "JW.ORG" in white. The building has a small entrance on the left side, flanked by two small potted plants. There are two small square light fixtures on the wall above the entrance. The building is situated on a paved area, and a larger brick building is visible in the background under a cloudy sky. White navigation arrows are visible on the left and right sides of the image.
