It is important for you to make every effort to find available options for assistance. Try to work with the management at your apartment office. Contact city services (211) or visit their website at 211texas.org to learn about options available to you. Call your utility provider to work out a payment plan.

Requests are handled through email only. Complete all line items on the application, sign it in your handwriting. Email the completed form, and attach all required supporting documentation, to:

assistance@houseofamos.org

It is YOUR responsibility to ensure you have responded to all line items on the application and you have attached ALL of the required documentation. We will respond to your request only if it meets our guidelines for assistance and we have funds available. We are unable to process ineligible or incomplete applications or requests submitted without ALL of the required documentation. Read the application thoroughly.

Assistance is limited to one time in a 12 month period. We do not make partial payments.
