DUFOUR CATAMARAN 48 DESCRIPTION

The Dufour Catamarans 48 maintains the Dufour identity codes, in particular with the lines of the hull and their inserts, the shapes of the portholes and the deck plan free from any hindrance. The flybridge is a key element of this project. Designed as a second cockpit, the outdoor living space is considerably enlarged.

The three winches of the mainsail, jib and gennaker are easy to reach.

A functional cockpit as an extension of the living room.

The large French door opens fully for full communication with the lounge area.
