Have you ever stood on Pier 1 in the Charlestown Navy Yard on the morning of July 4 and watched the guests board USS Constitution for a journey out into the harbor on the nearly two-century old ship and wish you could be aboard?

lute to Charlestown turnaround cruise on Saturday morning, June 15. This voyage will kick-off the official celebration and commemoration of the 221st anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill.

Commander Michael C. Beck, USN, commanding officer of USS Constitution, has arranged this special turnaround in conjunction with the Bunker Hill Day Parade and Commemorative Committee to thank Charlestown residents for the support and care they have given this historic ship over the years it has been here. Beck invites residents to sign a special form and have their names placed in the Salute to Charlestown lottery with registration taking place at the Bunker Hill Post 26, The American Legion Hall, 23 Adams St., (corner of Chestnut) on Saturday morning, May (continued on page 16)

Carolyn Sideman, Monument Properties

SELECTING A REALTOR

When you've decided that it's time to buy a new home, finding a Realtor to help with your search is an important first step. Many advice books say start with the car. The bigger the car, the better the agent! While you're going to be spending a considerable amount of time in the agent's car, it's important to be comfortable with the person as well as his or her automobile.

Look for an agent who is willing to listen when you explain what you're looking for, and who knows the market well enough to find it for you within a reasonable time frame. Knowledge, professionalism and experience are all important, but a smart aggressive rookie agent may be in a position to provide service quality that rivals that of an industry veteran. If you don't know of any Realtors, ask friends for referrals. Word of mouth advertising is the best kind for any real estate professional.

For solid advice on buying or selling real estate, consult the professionals at Monument Properties. Call us at 241-5900 or stop by our office at 85 Warren St., Charlestown.

Oh Holy St. Jude, Apostle and Martyr, great in virtue, and rich in miracles, near kinsman of Jesus Christ, faithful intercessor of all who invoke your special patronage in time of need, for you I have recourse from the depth of my heart and humbly beg to whom God has given such great power to come to my assistance. Help me in my present and urgent petition, in return I promise to make your name known and cause you to be invoked. Say three Our Fathers, three Hail Marys and Glorias. Publication must be promised. St. Jude pray for us all who invoke your aid. Amen. This Novena has never been known to fail. I have had my request granted. Publication Promised.

Greatorex Recipient Of Golden Apple Award

Greatorex is a Algebra and Trigonometry teacher at CHS.

If a building can have a heart and soul, then Charlestown High's is Pat Greatorex.

Although his "job" is to teach, his life is dedicated to the school and its students. He arrives at 6 a.m. and leaves at 7 p.m. He coordinates the buses to make sure students are safe arriving or going home; he tutors students; he attends School Site Council meetings; he unofficially mentors other teachers; he goes to the prom, and well, you get the picture.

Greatorex was born and raised in Charlestown. The neighborhood is with him; he's taught the children of his boyhood friends. "I like inner city kids; its what I am. It's very rewarding for me to see them succeed. I want them to know education is necessary and worth while. I try to get to them on a personal level and make the subject matter a little relevant to what's going on in their lives."

Greatorex, who has spent his entire 25-year teaching career at Charlestown High School, is the son of Anne and Fred Greatorex of Charlestown. He and his wife, the former Maureen Burke, still reside in Charlestown.

Jeanne McCabe of Dedham, a teacher at the Clarence R. Edwards Middle School, is also a recipient of the Golden Apple Award.

CWEC is an independent advocacy group that promotes quality and equity in the Boston Public Schools for all students. Since 1987, Golden Apples have been awarded to 136 BPS teachers; many become state and national finalists in "Teacher of the Year" competitions.

The teachers received their awards at a gala dinner at the Boston Park Plaza Hotel on April 29.

Charlestown's 10th Annual Preservation Week Historic Park Clean-up On May 11

The city of Boston's Historic Burying Grounds Initiative (HBGI) and the Charlestown Preservation Society (CPS) are collaborating on a community clean-up of two of Charlestown's historic open spaces. Each year the clean-up is scheduled during the National Trust for Historic Preservation's Preservation Week.

Celebrated across the country, the theme of the 1996 Preservation Week is "Preserve Community." With this theme in mind, the goal of Preservation Week is the "creation and preservation of communities in which past and present are partners, reminding us of our heritage and enriching the places where we live and work."

Scheduled for Saturday, May 11, the Charlestown clean-up will focus on two of Charlestown's historic landscapes: The Phipps Street Burying Ground, a 1630 historic site; and Doherty Park, an 1891 Olmsted Park, formerly known as Charlestown Heights. These sites are integral features in Charlestown's built and natural landscape.

Participants will meet at the Phipps Street Burying Ground at 8:30 a.m. The group will then proceed to Doherty Park mid-morning. Tools will be provided by the Boston Parks and Recreation Department. Participants are, however, encouraged to bring work gloves. Coffee, juice and donuts will be served.

Owned and maintained by the Boston Parks and Recreation Department, the Phipps Street Burying Ground comes under the auspices of the HBGI. Celebrating 10 years of sound preservation practice, the HBGI is dedicated to the comprehensive restoration, on-going conservation and heritage interpretation of Boston's 16 historic burying grounds.

Charlestown Pictorial Quilt To Be Raffled During Preservation Week

A highlight of Charlestown Preservation Week will be the raffle of the Charlestown Pictorial Quilt, a magnificent and colorful sample of contemporary folk art depicting familiar Charlestown landmarks. This project, sponsored by the Charlestown Preservation Society, chaired by CPS board member and star quilter, Lillian MacAlpine, and creatively supported by artist and graphic designer, Joe Trepiccione, has been in the works for months.

Talented volunteers have designed, hand-sewn and quilted familiar Charlestown sites, creatively interweaving the past and the present in the appliqued squares that comprise this one of a kind quilt. Historic and familiar scenes within the quilt include the Bunker Hill Monument, the USS Constitution, the Muster House at the Navy Yard, the Warren Tavern, and the Training Field, as well as other well known local sites. The proceeds from the quilt raffle will benefit the Charlestown Preservation Society.

The quilt will be on display at all Preservation Week events. The winning ticket will be drawn at the Charlestown Preservation Society's Historic House and Trolley Tour Reception on May 18.

Preservation Week events include two distinct tours that will visit one group of homes

Friday evening and a different group of homes on Saturday. The Candlelight House Tour is scheduled for Friday, May 17, from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m.; the House and Trolley Tour is set for Saturday, May 18, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The 1996 Art Exhibit of Charlestown Artists will be held from May 4 to 18 at Building 5 in the Charlestown Navy Yard; a library lecture, a one-woman dramatization of three women artists by Robin Lane, will be held Thursday, May 16 at 7 p.m. at the Charlestown Branch Library; and a book sale will be held at the library on Saturday, May 18.

Raffle tickets for the Charlestown Pictorial

Quilt and for the house tours are available at: A Wild Flower, 73 Main St.; Artisan's Cafe & Gallery, Bunker Hill Mall; Bunker Hill Florist, One Thompson Square; Kerrigan's Flower Shop, 223 Main St.; and Biga Breads Cafe, 197 Eighth St. in the Charlestown Navy Yard.

Raffle tickets are $2 each. Because each house tour is different, tickets for each will be $20 per person, $18 per person if purchased in advance. The cost for senior citizens for each tour will be $10. There will be no admission charge for the Artists' Exhibit or library lecture.

For addition information, call the Preservation Society at 241-7500.

McCabe Announces Candidacy For State Representative

To the residents of Charlestown:

Please allow me to introduce myself and state my intention to seek the nomination as the Democratic party candidate for the office of State Representative for the Second Suffolk District.

I am the son of the late Rose "Dot" and Bernard "Barney" McCabe and have been a resident of Charlestown for more than 50 years. My wife is the former Peggy Hartigan and we have two daughters, Maureen and Lynda.

I attended St. Francis de Sales Grammar School and St. John's High School in North Cambridge. I graduated from Northeastern University with a Bachelor of Science degree in science and law enforcement, and received a Master's degree in education from Boston University.

I spent almost 32 years with the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. From 1960 to 1986, I served with the uniform branch of the Massachusetts State Police and retired as a lieutenant colonel, Office of Staff Operations. I was then appointed Commissioner of Public Safety for the Commonwealth, a position I held for five years. I am now employed as a department head at Emerson College in Boston.

As you can see I have spent most of my adult life in the area of public safety, service and security.

I am a member of the Charlestown Neighborhood Council and serve as the co-chairman of the Public Safety Committee. I am a member of the board of directors of the Dennis McLaughlin House, a program for women in transition. I am a former chairman of the Charlestown Emergency Fund Committee and past president of the Bunker Hill Associates.

CANDIDATE for state representative Bill McCabe with his mother, the late Rose "Dot" McCabe.

Having had the pleasure of serving this nation in the United States Army and the commonwealth in the State Police, I now look forward to meeting with you in order that I might gather your support to allow me to serve you in the legislature.

In the next few weeks I will be announcing a series of gatherings to further introduce myself and exchange views and ideas with those of you who would wish to know me better.

Sincerely,

William McCabe
(political announcement)

CREATE YOUR OWN CAPITAL GAINS TAX CUT

Earlier this year, it seemed as if investors would be treated to a capital gains cut. Now it isn't clear when - or if - that cut will come. If you can't wait for tax relief from Washington, here are some strategies you can use right now to trim your capital gains.

- Sell assets with the highest tax basis, since high-basis assets generate the smallest capital gain. This strategy is especially effective if you have stocks, bonds or mutual funds that were purchased in different blocks at different prices.

- Use high-basis assets to make family gifts. Hold onto your low-basis assets, since these will be "stepped-up" to market value when you pass away. Because of this step-up, neither your estate nor your heirs will pay capital gains tax on the built-in appreciation. Your age and health are factors to consider.

- Consider a tax-free exchange. This is one of the few big breaks left in the tax law, but the rules can be tricky. Basically, you're allowed to exchange a business or investment property for another property of the same "nature or character," such as exchanging an apartment building for an office building. On an exchange, the taxes will be deferred until you dispose of the new property.

- Make an installment sale. For example, if you sell real estate, consider taking back a note instead of selling for cash. Capital gain is taxed as you receive your note payments, while a cash sale triggers 100% of your gain in the year of sale.

- Consider establishing a charitable remainder trust. You donate an appreciated asset to charity, and the charity is able to sell the asset without paying capital gains tax. You receive income from the charity based on the full value of the asset, as well as an income tax deduction for a contribution to charity. The charity keeps whatever is left, after its income obligation has been met.

CYO & ST. CATHERINE'S NEWS

BY FATHER RON COYNE

▲ St. Catherine's Begins Process For Selection of New Pastor - The Archdiocese of Boston wants to do all in its power to select the best person possible to become the new pastor at St. Catherine's. This process is now beginning and one of the most important aspects is an open meeting with Bishop John Boles (regional bishop) and the personnel board from the Archdiocese at St. Catherine's Church on Monday, May 20 at 7 p.m. sharp.

Our Pastoral Council has drawn up a parish profile for the Archdiocese which expresses our history and present status as a parish community. This meeting will allow those involved in choosing the new pastor to have an accurate picture of the leadership needs of St. Catherine's. This is an opportunity for parishioners and community residents to express the qualities sought in the new pastor.

I encourage very strongly that as many people of all ages as possible attend this meeting. It is an attempt by the Archdiocese to receive valuable input from the people of Charlestown. We know how important the Church and Catholic education is to the future of Charlestown and we can express our priorities in a meaningful way with those responsible for the selection.

Because St. Catherine's is the center for so much community as well as parish activity, I urge community leaders and those impacted by St. Catherine's to be present.

Every time a pastor leaves a parish, this process takes place. We invite you to be part of the process by joining us in St. Catherine's Lower Church on Monday, May 20 at 7 p.m.

▲ Super Bingo At St. Catherine's - Reserve Tuesday night, May 7 for the first Super Bingo at St. Catherine's. All prizes are based on 150 players. If we sell more tickets, prizes will be adjusted. The cost is $50 per person. You may register at St. Catherine's Rectory with $50 cash (no checks will be accepted, nor partial payments). Prizes range from $100 to $500. There will be raffles and lots of fun and surprises. We invite you to join the excitement and be ready to play at 7 p.m. Doors will open at 4:30 p.m.

▲ Altar Servers Bike-A-Thon - In order to help our altar servers (and many other young people interested in our trip to Washington, D.C.) to raise funds for the trip, we will hold a 20-mile bike-a-thon along the Charles River on Saturday, May 11 beginning at 9:30 a.m. Each child will be asked to fill a sponsor sheet with family, friends and neighbors willing to support them by offering them, for example, 25¢ per mile, which would equal $5 for 20 miles. Each child must have his/her own bike.

▲ Summer Trip To Washington, D.C. - We are planning to take St. Catherine's altar servers and any other children, teenagers or families on a 5-day trip to Washington, D.C., Sunday through Thursday, July 7 to 11.

Included will be the Red Sox vs. Orioles game at Camden Yards, two full days in D.C. touring and a full day at Six Flags Amusement Park in New Jersey. Also included are four nights lodging, four breakfasts, three dinners, plus motor coach. The cost is $329 per person, based on four to a room. A deposit of $50 is due at the rectory.

CHAD Junior Bowling League News

Charlestown Little League

by John Dillon
McCarthy Brothers Wins Championship!
 The two best teams in the CHARLESTOWN Against Drugs (CHAD) Junior Bowling League rolled off for the championship of the year last Saturday, and as you might expect, it was razor thin all day.

The American Legion team held a two-pin lead after the first string, with Sean Reilly bowling a nice 84 for the American Legion and Sheilann Williams bowling a 76, 13 pins over her average. After the second string, the American Legion increased their lead to 14 pins and McCarthy Brothers had their work cut out for them. Richie Burns got hot for the American Legion in the second string bowling a nice 84, but Marianne Kissane threw a 67 to keep pace for McCarthy Brothers.

The third string was nip and tuck all the way. Craig Gaudette had an 80 string for the American Legion and Michelle Williams also had a great 61 string for the Legion, but Jon Paul Awbrey and Casey Durham were not to be denied. Jon Paul bowling a 79 and Casey putting the match out of reach with a terrific 74, (which was 14 pins over her average) captured the Championship for McCarthy Brothers by 9 pins.

Top bowler for the American Legion was Sean Reilly with 237 and Richie Burns was runner-up with 234. Top bowler for McCarthy Brothers was Sheilann Williams with 221 and Jon Paul Awbrey was runner-up with 208.

Craig Gaudette bowled

the most pins over his average for the American Legion and received a Red Sox watch.

The bowler that knocked down the most pins over her average was Sheilann Williams of the McCarthy Brothers team. She also received a Red Sox watch.

Congratulations to the McCarthy Bros. and American Legion teams - you both had a fantastic season!

The bowling banquet will be held at noon on Saturday, June 1 at the Legion Hall, 23 Adams St. Members will receive trophies and CHAD T-Shirts.

Pee Wee C Team Brings Home The Cup

The 1995-96 winter may have closed the Charlestown rink, but did not dampen the spirit of the Charlestown Youth Hockey Program. Nomadic at the end of the season, the Pee Wee C Team was still able to find enough ice time to keep their skills up and bring home the championship cup in their division, from the Lower Cape Youth Hockey Tournament in Orleans.

Players Erica Birmingham, Parker Brickley, Will Dammin, Billy Durette, Thomas Johnston, Eddie

Mullen, Stevie Simensen, Daniel Stone, Mark Doe, Derek Garceau and John Pope are to be congratulated on their efforts and sportsmanship.

Although unable to attend the tournament, players Eric Alday, Jeff Lynch, Henry Frechette and Pat McLaughlin are also to be congratulated on making this year such a memorable one for players and parents alike.

Thanks go out to our great coaches S.W., A.C. and Brent McLeod.

LET US BRIGHTEN YOUR DAY!

◆ Bay State Games . . . 1996 marks the 15th anniversary of the Bay State Games. Applications are now available. Tryouts are May 26 through June 23 and the game finals are from July 10 to July 14 at MIT, UMass/Boston, Harvard, Boston College, Boston University and the Reggie Lewis Center. The competition is open to both men and women in various age categories and there are many events. Don't hesitate, get an entry booklet and let your game begin!

◆ Spring BNBL . . . Toga is the team to defeat, Bobby Krol is not a bad basketball player and "Sheenan Fans" is the most improved team as the Spring BNBL got back into action at the Eden Street Park. Question of the week: Has the MacAttack quit?

Standings: Toga 4-0, Neverminds 3-1, Bombers 1-1, MacAttack 1-2, Sheenan Fans 1-3 and Underdogs 0-3.

The Player of the Week: Bobby Krol

◆ Pro Line . . . Tommy Fitzgerald and the Florida Panthers sent our Boston Bruins golfing, wrapping up the series 4-1. In the regular season stat department, Tommy had a fine year with 13 goals, 21 assists and 34 points. Tom had three assists in Round One!

The Winnipeg Jets are history, but in their final series, they did give Detroit a little run before bowing out. Detroit won the series 4-2. Keith Tkachuk finished the regular season with 50 goals and 48 assists (98 points). Next stop, Phoenix, and get use to the name "Coyotes."

◆ Walking Papers . . . The Walk for Hunger takes place this Sunday and you can sign up at the registration tables Sunday before you begin the walk. Charlestown will have many "walkers" and there is always room for more. Remember the Walk for Hunger, sponsored by Project Bread, does benefit some of our local food pantries and organizations.

◆ Charlestown High Lights . . . The Baseball Townies began the week undefeated. The Townies beat Madison Park 14-4 behind the strong pitching performance of Rene Amador, who struck out 12 batters. Hitting stars were Co-Captains Chris Guerrero and Jeray Winder, each hitting long home runs, and three hits each. Gabe Soto also added a single and two doubles boosting his batting average to .647. Charlestown added Hyde Park to their "Hit List" later in the week, and Coach Sheeran is having some fond memories about his last undefeated season in 1984. Can this history repeat?

Congratulations to the CHS students who competed in the recent State Science Fair; to the CHS students and staff who will take part in Sunday's Walk for Hunger; and the Teen Empowerment Youth Peace Conference at the Boston Park Plaza Hotel.

◆ Congratulations . . . to Pat Greatorex, a teacher at Charlestown High School, and a good neighbor. Pat received the prestigious "Golden Apple Award" at the Boston Park Plaza Hotel on April 29. How fortunate we are that Pat chose a career of helping our young people to grow, and he chose to do it right here in Charlestown!

◆ Tip Of The Cap . . . Over the next few months, many will say in their own special way, "thank you" to Father Ron Coyne and to Rep. Richie Voke. Let me be among the very first. You are two fine men who have set standards by actions and not words, and you have found a special place for young people in all that you do. For them too, I offer a sincere thank you. May your future be just as great as the present you have given us. You have truly made Charlestown a better place.

◆ Mini Champs Celebrate . . . Russell Grogett and his Championship Ball Hockey Team celebrated their victory crown with a special trip to the Bruins - Panthers Game 4 Playoff Game at the FleetCenter. It was the Bruins' only playoff victory, and we all had a great time.

◆ Tidbits . . . Joe Burns loves chicken fingers . . . Kenny Giordano's debut "on the ice" at the FleetCenter was a success . . . Hey Muz, your Canadian friends asked, "Did you get enough fromage??"

Smile!

Second Annual Clougherty Pool Volleyball Tournament To Be Held On June 1

The Volleyball Tournament is an event to raise money to extend the pool season. Last year was a big success. We were so successful because of the generosity of businesses and individuals in Charlestown who are always there for each other. Many teams have signed up, but we still have openings for teams. Time is running out, so don't wait too long!

The date has been set for Saturday, June 1 and the Horseshoe Tavern will be there to defend its title. If you didn't enter a team last year, you missed out on a lot of fun. Don't miss out this year.

If you have spoken to anyone, I'm sure they told you how much fun they had. We hope you will be part of the day.

Please call JoAnn Doherty at 242-8532, Janice Devlin Locke at 241-3890, or David Whelan at 242-1604 to pick up your roster. All donations can be sent to JoAnn Doherty, 25 Belmont St., Charlestown, MA 02129. We hope you can make a donation, if you are unable to do so, just come on down and enjoy the day. Volunteers are always welcome.

Plans Presented For Development Of Housing At Thompson Square

by Lynn Peters

The Charlestown Neighborhood Council Development Committee voted to recommend endorsing the proposed Thompson Square Condominiums as presented by local architect Jack French of JW French Associates at an April 29 community meeting. The committee's recommendation to the full council next week will include reservations, however, on truck type, delivery schedules and traffic congestion around the redesign of Gimbels Liquors.

A May 23 meeting on the proposal has already been scheduled for immediate abutters to discuss their concerns with the Development Committee and designers.

French said the street-level commercial space and proposed housing was designed "as the edge of Town Hill." The brick building would include re-facing the existing liquor store so that the facade would wrap around its Main and Warren street corners.

The Thompson Square development would include 16 residences. Nine townhouses, five condominiums over the liquor store and two condos in the existing rear parking lot would make up the new housing. The building's highest point from the ground to a cupola, resembling that of the Navy Yard's Muster House, would be 60 feet.

Underground parking for 32 cars would also be included, as would an enclosed dumpster for the liquor store's use.

Residents expressed concern to committee chairman Tom Cunha and members Ken Stone and Mel Stillman about trucks and well-designed delivery schedules for the liquor store. Cunha said that there were particular concerns about the proprietor not using tractor trailers and how delivery trucks are routed and scheduled for the location.

The Thursday, May 23 meeting for abutters will be held at 7 p.m. at the Mary Colbert Apartments, 20 Devens St.

Old Schoolgirls Reunion

Just Talk, Says City On Sox

by Lynn Peters

A modern-day Paul Revere has been heard galloping around town warning, "The Red Sox are coming!"

But, according to city officials, today's town crier is not getting his "one-if, two-if" signals from them. The word is that there are no serious discussions going on about building a new stadium for the Boston baseball team on the former H.P. Hood Inc. site on Rutherford Avenue in Charlestown.

According to Tom O'Brien, Boston Redevelopment Authority chief of staff, if the city were approached for this particular site, there would be many official processes that a developer would have to initiate.

The 23 acres are zoned for industrial use, and any changes in use would require zoning variances. In addition, a full Article 80 and Mass. Environmental Protection Agency study would have to be completed.

"The BRA would offer full community participation," O'Brien said, should any Charlestown stadium ideas come to fruition.

Eyebrows were raised in April when an unnamed high-level source reported that the Red Sox might be considering the Rutherford Avenue property, which was recently purchased by investor John A. Kaneb after he bought a percentage of the team.

A following Boston Globe business section article read: Sox investor's site eyed for stadium. Kaneb was quoted as saying that there was no connection between these two investments.

To date no new information has come about, and, officials seem to be saying that they do not know how such a rumor got started.

City Councillor Diane Modica spoke with the three major story characters, Kaneb, the Sox's John Buckley and the BRA's Marisa Lago last week.

"It appears that there's a lot of speculation on the part of the reporters," Modica said. "They are in a kicking-the-tires mode at this point in time."

The Charlestown site was one of six locations that might be generally feasible for a new ballpark, Modica said. Three South Boston, one Roxbury and one Allston-Brighton sites were also identified. And Mayor Thomas Menino has also publically stated that he would like to see an expansion of Fenway Park, including stadium parking.

"I hope I'm not being misled," Modica said, "but I made it very clear that Charlestown would have serious concerns."

"I would say that the community would be adamantly opposed," said Charlestown Neighborhood Council Chairman Peter Looney.

Fenway Park, home for the Red Sox for some 88 years, is one of the oldest and smallest ballparks in the country. It occupies only about 7.5 acres in Boston.

The former Hood plant sits on two land parcels and is being offered at $25 million, approximately $55 per building foot, through the commercial real estate company Whittier Partners in Boston.

Matters Of The Heart

The "MGH Bunker Hill Health Center Loves A Healthy Charlestown - Prevention is The Key" spring event is just around the corner. Since 1986, the MGH Bunker Hill Health Center, it's Community Advisors Board, Johnnie's Foodmaster and the Lions Club have been working together to help the community understand the importance of prevention and early detection of diseases.

On Thursday, May 30 from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m., Johnnie's Foodmaster will once again be the site for what is becoming an annual spring event - "Charlestown Loves A Healthy Heart Day." There will be demonstrations and information available in the areas of nutrition, exercise, stress reduction, therapeutic massage, smoking cessation, substance abuse, personal safety, osteoporosis, breast and cervical cancer, domestic violence, organ and tissue donation, asthma, diabetes, women's health and immunizations. There will also be a variety of food demonstrations throughout the store.

For the first time, attendees will have the opportunity to donate blood at the MGH Bloodmobile. In addition, the Lions Club Eye-mobile will be providing eye exams for the detection of cataracts and glaucoma. There will also be free screenings for cholesterol, glucose, blood pressure, hearing, posture and cancer risk. Attendees will be able to see the damage the sun has done to their skin by using the American Cancer Society's Skin Analyzer. MGH Police and Security and McGruff, the safety dog, will be fingerprinting children for identification purposes.

The MGH Shuttle will be providing transportation from elderly sites in the community to Johnnie's. Call 724-8135 one week in advance.
