Bunker Hill Post 26 Holds Veterans Day Mass

OFFICERS AND MEMBERS of Bunker Hill Post 26, The American Legion, and its auxiliary, elected officials and friends honored veterans of all wars, those who are now serving in the Armed Forces and those who made the supreme sacrifice, at a Veterans Day Mass at St. Francis de Sales Church on Nov. 6. The "USS Constitution" and the Charlestown High School Air Force JROTC color guards posted the colors at the ceremony at which Rev. Daniel J. Mahoney, pastor, officiated. The St. Francis de Sales Choir provided the inspirational music. Among those in attendance were Rep. Richard A. Voke, House Majority Leader; Boston City Councillor Diane Modica; Cmdr. Richard Amirault, USN, commanding officer of "USS Constitution;" Cmdr. Robert L. Gillen, USN (Ret.); Judy Evers, community liaison, Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services; Maj. Arthur Gaetjens, USAF (Ret.), head of the CHS JROTC program; Paul Morceau, Post 26 commander; and James W. Conway, Legion Past National Historian and Veterans Day chairman.

Modica To Hold Hearing To Address MBTA Issues

District One Boston City Councillor Diane J. Modica, chair of the Council's Committee on Commerce and Transportation, will hold two hearings in Charlestown to address MBTA issues in Charlestown. The first hearing will be held on Monday, Nov. 14 at 2 p.m. at the Anchorage Apartments, 103 Ninth Street in the Charlestown Navy Yard. This hearing is to discuss the need for bus service in the Navy Yard.

The second hearing will take place on Tuesday, Nov. 22 at 6 p.m. at the Golden Age Center, 382 Main St., Charlestown. The topic of this hearing is Sunday bus service on Main Street. Currently there is no service on Sundays for the Main Street area.

Modica stated, "Many residents have expressed their concerns regarding the lack of bus service because there are several elderly developments in the Main Street area. Many of the elderly rely on public transportation for mobility and with the holiday season fast approaching, Sunday bus service will not only be utilized, but is necessary."

"Though there are approximately 1,500 residents and 3,500 employees in the Charlestown Navy Yard, including one elderly housing development and another to open in the near future, there is no bus service within the Navy Yard and this ridership issue must be addressed," said Modica.

Representatives from the MBTA, the Boston Transportation Department and the Elderly Commission have been invited to attend. Please make every effort to attend the hearings and lend your support to the community.

Persons Alone On Thanksgiving Welcome To A Special Dinner At The Legion Hall

by Jeanne Davis

Bob and Carol Sweeney, in cooperation with Bunker Hill Post No. 26, The American Legion, are inviting all their old and new friends to a family-style Thanksgiving Day Dinner on Thursday, Nov. 24, at the Legion Hall, 23 Adams St., at the corner of Chestnut Street.

This is the third year that it has been held at the Bunker Hill Post 26, American Legion Hall.

Prior to 1992, the dinner was held at Sweeney's former restaurant on Bunker Hill Street and has always been a great success.

It has provided joy and togetherness for local residents who have no family, are estranged from them, or live too far away to join with them to share Thanksgiving Dinner. This special dinner at the Legion Hall will help them share the special tradition and spirit of Thanksgiving.

Again this year, not only will the Sweeney's, the members of Bunker Hill Post 26, A.L., and friendly volunteers be serving dinner from noon to 3 p.m. at the Legion Hall, but they will also be delivering meals to shut-ins unable to get out to the hall.

If you know of anyone who will be spending a lonely Thanksgiving at their home, please give Sweeney a call at 438-3584 or Jeanne Davis at 241-9511 by Tuesday, Nov. 22, or leave a message on the answering service at the Legion, 242-2646, to make arrangements for the person to join the gathering or, if the person is a shut-in, to see that a little Thanksgiving is delivered to him or her, courtesy of the Sweeneys and Post 26, A.L.

Willing workers are needed on Wednesday evening, Nov. 23 at 7 p.m. to peel and pare vegetables, stuff turkeys and to set tables. Also on Thanksgiving Day, workers will be needed to finish preparing the food, welcoming guests and delivering meals.

It is a great Thanksgiving as you give your time to make it a special day for others.

'Townie Santa' Looks To Community For Support Of Elderly Christmas Program

Although the weather continues to be relatively warm and the Thanksgiving Turkey is yet to be purchased, a group of residents have been meeting and planning for a Christmas program for Charlestown's elderly.

Christmas can be a very sad and lonely time of year for the needy, elderly shut-in. While the rest of us may be gift giving, card writing, and simply caught up in the tinsel and glitter, there are others for whom Christmas is just another lonely day.

In Charlestown, however, residents remember the true meaning of the Christmas season. Through "Townie Santa," elderly, needy shut-ins who may otherwise be alone or forgotten, receive a visit from "Santa," who could be anyone, but represents everyone, and lets the person know, yes, we remember you. In its 13th year, Townie Santa, through donations and an evergrowing number of volunteers, provides some 120 elderly with a hot turkey dinner and boxes of gifts, and this year the delivery will be on Sunday, Dec. 18.

Townie Santa was born from a conversation between four Charlestown residents in November

PACKING UP TO SELL

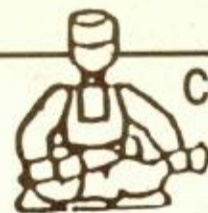

Your agent has just gone through your home and has many suggestions about how to make it look terrific. It sounds good, but you're feeling a little overwhelmed by all of the work involved in clearing out and packing up possessions you've accumulated over the years.

Go through and decide what to throw out, what to give away and what to keep. Be ruthless! Remember that you can get a tax deduction for anything you give to a charitable organization.

Pack up whatever you do decide to keep that you aren't likely to need between the time you list your home and the time you move. This has two important benefits. First, if it's packed in a box and stored neatly away, it will help you maximize your storage space and keep your home uncluttered, thereby increasing the chances that it will sell more quickly for top dollar. Second, you'll have to pack it up when you move anyway, and doing it ahead of time will give you a head start toward making moving week almost a breeze.

For solid advice on buying or selling real estate, consult the professionals at Monument Properties. Please call us at 241-5900 or stop by our office at 85 Warren St., Charlestown.

Mayor's Cup Tournament Finals To Be Aired Again On Cable

In case you missed the original taping, the Mayor's Cup Youth Hockey Tournament Finals will be replayed on Sunday, Nov. 13 on BNN TV, channels A3 and A23. The games will be shown at 9, 10 and 11 a.m., starring the Mites, Squirts and Pee Wees, in that order.

The tournament, which was played from Oct. 8 through Oct. 23, was a real showcase of talent that exists in the Charlestown Youth Hockey Program. All the final games were played between Charlestown and South Boston. Some very familiar names took to the ice for both squads.

On the Townies' side of the ice, names like Corey Cedorchuk, John Grzelczyk, Dan McGoff, Gene Lawrence, Dennis Devlin and Jeff Fidler brought back some great memories of some of Charlestown's outstanding athletes from years past.

For the Southie team, names like Kevin Coughlin, Mark Flaherty, Joey Cappelano and Bobby Noonan kept up the Southie tradition that their fathers had helped to create.

If you want to see some of the finest young hockey players in the state, you won't want to miss this telecast.

Charlestown resident, Kevin Burke, was responsible for producing and directing the finals of the Mayor's Cup Tournament. Kevin has produced a number of events both in and out of Charlestown. He is considered by many to be one of the top sports production men in the business.

Brian Wallace, who did the play-by-play for the finals, would like to apologize to Tim O'Connell. Brian would like Tim to know that there are four quarters in basketball and three periods in hockey.

Junior CYO News

The first Junior CYO event was a success! Thirty-six 9- to 12-year-olds golfed the night away at miniature golf and topped the night off with ice cream sundaes.

Two activities are planned for November. The first, a Harvest Dance followed by our fourth annual sleep-over will be held on Friday, Nov. 18. For the past three years, the sleep-over has been for third, fourth and fifth graders, so all third graders are invited to attend even if they are not yet 9 years old. The cost for the evening is $10, which includes dinner, snacks, games and prizes. Permission slips can be picked up at St. Catherine's Rectory and are due back Tuesday, Nov. 15.

The second activity is a Scavenger Hunt which will be held on Sunday, Nov. 27 from 1 to 5 p.m. The cost is $2 and pizza will be served. Sign up at St. Catherine's Rectory.

Wood Completes Marine Recruit Training

Marine Pvt. Ronnie G. Wood, son of Edward F. Sullivan of 67 Dunstable St., Charlestown, and a 1993 graduate of Madison Park High School in Roxbury, recently completed recruit training.

During the training cycle at Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris

Island, S.C., recruits are taught the basics of battlefield survival, introduced to typical military daily routine and personal and professional standards.

All recruits participate in an active physical conditioning program and gain proficiency in a variety of military skills including first aid, rifle marksmanship and close-order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline are emphasized throughout the cycle.

Although the Marine Corps is scaling back, its investment in high-quality recruits continues. The Marine Corps has more than 38,000 job openings this year.

St. John's To Hold Its Annual Fair, A 155-Year Tradition by Lawrence Henry

St. John's Church in Old Charlestown, 27 Devens St., will hold its 155th annual Church Fair on Saturday, Nov. 19 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Fair committee member, Rindy Stangel says this year's fair will be "more crafts-oriented, less of a jumble than it sometimes is." Sale tables will include baked goods, games, toys, gifts and handicrafts. The sale is always a good place to pick up special Christmas ornaments and gifts.

In another difference from previous years, the sale portion of the fair will be held downstairs rather than upstairs in the parish hall. The upstairs hall is still being repaired from the recent minor fire.

Holding the fair downstairs will "be closer, but it'll be cozier," Stangel says. "It'll also be easier for some of the older people in town. They won't have to climb stairs."

St. John's will serve its traditional turkey lunch, a preview of holiday meals to come. "It's a little early for turkey," Stangel laughs, "but it'll get everybody in the mood for Thanksgiving and Christmas." The turkey lunch always includes homemade apple pies.

The St. John's Fair Journal will be handed out at the church on Saturday. The journal includes stories about St. John's, the Christian faith, and about Charlestown. "As always, we want to thank our journal advertisers," Stangel says. "Without them, the fair just wouldn't be possible."

1982, centering around the idea that something should be done for the shut-ins. In less than one month's time, this group expanded, money was raised, meals cooked and 48 baskets were delivered.

The four probably never anticipated that their discussion would be so contagious. Townie Santa has a unique way of drawing residents together who may not otherwise share similar interests. One reason for the attraction, states a committee member, is the simple fact, Townie Santa is a good cause. Another reason may be that inbred Charlestown responsibility of taking care of one's own. Or, more importantly, it may be that joy one receives from giving - something too personal for words. Whatever the reason, the number of volunteers grows with each passing year.

Townie Santa welcomes back a faithful contingent each year and expands with new faces from all parts of Charlestown. Some of them deliver the boxes, others pack them and others do the work behind the scenes. Last year, there were volunteers from as young as 6 to over 75 years of age. Almost 300 people donated either time, money, gifts or services in 1993 whereas the first year, there were about 25 volunteers.

Beginning each fall, letters are sent to merchants, businesses and organizations within and affecting Charlestown, seeking contributions to the Townie Santa fund. Canisters are also placed throughout the town for coin and bill donations. Articles begin to appear in The Charlestown Patriot inviting residents to come to organizational meetings, or to submit the names of those they feel are in need of a visit from Townie Santa, or to send in monetary donations. All donations are publicly acknowledged in the Patriot, however, as many as 10 percent of those who contribute wish to remain anonymous, donating just for the sake of Christmas.

In 1982, the Townie Santa fund was approximately $1,000. In 1993, this figure rose to more than $10,000. However, this does not truly reflect the total in donations received, since no value is placed on the gift donations. All the money received, with the exception of postage costs, goes directly to the packages.

"People wonder how much we give out in these boxes," related a committee member. "Well, just ask anyone who had to deliver one of them to a person living on a third floor, and they'll tell you how heavy these boxes are."

Those who are considered eligible are persons over 60 years of age who are shut-in with limited finances and family contact.

The selection of the names of recipients for a Christmas package is not an enviable or easy task. There is a screening committee who researches the names that are submitted and determines who will receive a basket. And despite the screening committee doing an excellent job, there is always someone else who also deserves a basket.

"You never get everyone," said a committee member, "You often hear later that we missed someone, but that's through no fault of the screening committee. This is why we ask the cooperation of agencies and residents in submitting names - and we are asking that the names be submitted by Monday, Nov. 21 to allow us an opportunity to finalize the list of recipients before it gets too close to the day of delivery."

If you know of someone who would benefit from a visit from Townie Santa, please take a moment to fill out the coupon elsewhere on this page so that the person may be considered for a visit from Santa.

An important fact to remember is that the idea behind Townie Santa is to bring some Christmas cheer to the elderly shut-in. A committee member concluded, "These boxes do more than supply a person some much needed household and personal items - they tell the shut-in that we, the community, haven't forgotten them."

The next Townie Santa meeting will be on Monday, Nov. 14 at 7 p.m. at the Mary Colbert Apartments, 20 Devens St.

Birthdays Remembrance November 10th

Adam ...

Although I never had the good fortune to have met you, I feel very close to you. And there is one thing I do know, and that is no one was ever more loved by their wonderful Mom and Dad, Pam and Bill, Brother Peter, devoted Grandmother Helen, numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

The terrible tragic circumstances of your death are more than family and friends can bear. But the wonderful memories you left behind are what is giving your family incredible strength. You were truly a wonderful person and may God bless you on your Birthday and every day. And may the Blessed Mother hold you in her arms in heaven as your mother did here on earth.

Love ... Sandy King

Serving The Fleet' Exhibit At The Charlestown Navy Yard

On today, Thursday, Nov. 10 from 5:30 to 8 p.m., the Boston National Historical Park will preview at the Charlestown Navy Yard its new exhibit, "Serving the Fleet," chronicling the 174 years that the Charlestown Navy Yard was a Navy ship building, repair and production facility. Since 1974, the Charlestown Navy Yard has been a district of Boston National Historical Park, and this exhibit preview is a tribute to the work and workers of the Navy Yard.

This exciting new exhibit tells the story of the work that was accomplished in the Navy Yard, starting in 1800 when the yard was established through the "age of sail" to the end of the 19th century, and into the 20th century and the "age of steam." Starting in the 1830s, Navy Yard workers produced prodigious amounts of rope in a 1/4 mile long "ropewalk." Workers in the yard also invented and manufactured a new type of anchor chain, "die lock" chain, in 1926. From then until 1974, most of the anchor chain used by the United States Navy was made in the Charlestown Navy Yard.

During the World War II era, over 300 ships were built here, with 50,000 workers in the Yard in 1943, including 8,000 women. The Charlestown Navy Yard was most noted as a ship repair facility and continues in this function today as USS Constitution undergoes an extensive restoration in its historic dry dock.

Invited guests include many former Navy Yard workers and other friends of the National Park Serv-

The tournaments are over, all trophies have been awarded and the fans have gone home. But before we end the 1994 season, we must thank those people who gave their time and support to our worthwhile causes.

In particular, we would like to thank Gerry Malone for sponsoring The Dunny Cup. Gerry contributed to the tournament by purchasing the game shirts, all food and also the trophies for the winning team, JAFT, and the MVP, Ronnie Poole. Most importantly, we appreciate his giving of his valuable time and his concern for the good of the community.

Jimmy Donovan was a person who gave us so many laughs and so many good times in his short life. In return, we will keep his memory alive through the James F. Donovan Scholarship Fund by helping the community through scholarships for our youth and donating to various Charlestown organizations that Jimmy Donovan loved.

Thank you all for allowing us to bring you these contests in memory of our good friend, Jimmy.

Charlestown Catholic Elementary School News

"Let The Games Begin!"

And so, with the same phrase which commenced the Olympic games of Ancient Greece, the students at Charlestown Catholic Elementary School held their second annual field day on the campus of Charlestown High School on Oct. 28. And just as the Ancient Greeks set aside all other activities, including wars, and declared a time of "Holy Peace" to be observed during the Olympics, so too the students, staff and parents of Charlestown Catholic Elementary School set aside all other activities to celebrate and give thanks for the success of the school by participating in a day of athletic games.

By participating in this field day, however, more than a day of athletics was observed, for this second annual celebration was a testimony of the school's existence as an educational entity. No longer is Charlestown Catholic the "new school" in Charlestown, but rather an academic institution with a history and tradition, complete with an alumni who return to reminisce about the "old days," a vibrant present and a future (witness the children's planning for next year's field day).

It is for the gift of existence that the Charlestown Catholic "Games" were observed. The activities began at 9:30 a.m. After an introduction and instruction by Father Ron Coyne, pastor of St. Catherine's, the students proceeded to assigned areas of the field.

Events for field day were organized so that specific grades would compete, these were Kindergarten to grade 2, grades 3-5 and grades 6-8. Individual winners of events from each grade competed with other first place winners within their level. Parent volunteers supervised the games and helped students move from one area to another.

Later, hot dogs and juice were prepared by more parent volunteers and each grade, in turn, availed themselves of the sustenance. The day was enjoyed by all, and was an example of the spirit and harmony which exists at Charlestown Catholic.

At the close of the games, Father

Coyne offered a prayer of thanksgiving for the success of the day and for the contribution of all who helped plan and organize the activities. Thanksgiving was also given for the ambulance staff who volunteered their services.

The field day ended with the announcing by Father Coyne of the winners of the events and the first, second and third place class trophies. They are as follows:

The success of this field day is one of many indications this goal is being achieved

Pop Warner Corner

Charlestown Pop Warner's A-Team clinched a playoff spot last week after defeating Framingham 25-12 to end their regular season with a 5-3 record.

On Sunday, they opened the playoffs in Needham against the Needham War Hawks. It was a defensive battle during the whole game. Charlestown scored in the third quarter with a 30-yard touchdown by Jimmy White, capped off also by Jimmy with the point after conversion.

Charlestown's defense held Needham for the remainder of the game to give the Townies the 7-0 win. Charlestown will play in the division finals this Sunday, Nov. 13 against the Mattapan Raiders at 1:30 p.m. at White Stadium in Roxbury. If you see anyone that is on the team, wish them luck and let them know they have the support of the community because they are the pride of Charlestown.

On another note, the A-Team is also preparing to travel to North Bergen,

N.J., to play on Saturday, Dec. 3, but are in need of funding for travel expenses.

BOB D'S BEAT BY BOB DeCRISTOFORO

◆ Dorchester - No Problemos! . . . Paul Hennessey, Joe Tallent, Shane Fisher and Marc Russell had two goals each as Charlestown rolled over Dorchester 11-0 in city-wide Friendship League ball hockey action on Saturday. Defense was the key, allowing Brian Dole to post his first shut out of the season. Ricky Evers, Jamie Hutchins and Mike Sweeney also had goals for Charlestown Pride.

The standings as of Nov. 7 are: Charlestown 2-0, Brighton 2-0, South Boston 1-1, Hyde Park 1-1, Dorchester 0-2 and Roslindale 0-2.

This weekend, Charlestown will play Brighton, in South Boston at 8:20 a.m. in a big city-wide matchup and the "big boys" will play MEMYO at 2:20 p.m. in the 17-20-year-old division.

◆ High School Notebook . . . Zack Falconer, Liam Kelley and Kevin Fidalgo all had touchdowns, putting Boston Latin back on track. The Wolfpack defeated Stoughton 27-12. Malden Catholic nipped Catholic Memorial 24-22 and BC High defeated Don Bosco 33-6.

Latin Academy picked up its fourth win of the season by shutting out Brighton 30-0. Matignon remained undefeated by beating up on Bishop Fenwick 57-7. St. Clement's dropped Pope John 40-20 and Arlington Catholic stopped Cardinal Spellman 12-7.

◆ An Evening With Red Auerbach . . . Ford Hall Forums are an 87-year-old Boston tradition. In years gone by, I have heard many interesting and well-known speakers by attending these forums. Of course, this free program is a natural event for the Bunker Hill Teen Center's Humanities 101 Program.

On Thursday evening, basketball players Dave Evers of Malden Catholic and Brian Ward of Arlington Catholic accompanied me to the historic Old South Meeting House in downtown Boston for their first Ford Hall Forum to spend a very enjoyable evening with Red Auerbach, the legendary president of the Boston Celtics.

Red could have gone on for hours, and we three basketball enthusiasts would have listened for hours.

◆ Charlestown High Notes . . . The football Townies needed a fourth quarter touchdown by Sean Brown to hold off a late Cohasset fourth quarter surge and roll on to a 18-14 victory. Brown had three touchdowns for the afternoon and Juan Caples had one to sum up the Charlestown offense. Charlestown's record has improved to 5-3.

◆ Weekend High School Football Watch . . . The football schedule for this weekend is as follows:

Friday, Nov. 11
St. John's at Malden Catholic
Boston Latin at Concord-Carlisle
Arlington Cath. at Westford

Saturday, Nov. 12
Catholic Memorial at Don Bosco
BC High at St. John's
Latin Academy at East Boston
St. Clement at Hudson Catholic
Marian at Savio Prep

Sunday, Nov. 13
Lynn Tech at Pope John

◆ Jobs, Jobs, Jobs . . . Are you between the ages of 16 and 22? Are you looking for a job - part-time, full-time, mornings or evenings? If you are, go over to Jobs for Youth, located at 312 Stuart St., Boston, or call 338-0815 for details.

You can also call Danny Ryan, Healthy Charlestown Coalition Coordinator, at 241-3756 or Bob D. at 242-7056 for more information.

◆ Salem Trip . . . Alex Dorojnikov and Chris Carardo joined me on the Bunker Hill Teen Center's annual trip to Salem on Halloween Night, and both of these fine young people quickly realized there are many other ways to have fun on Halloween.

Of course, and as usual, we tossed a little education into this trip by visiting the famed Witch's Museum, and even I was surprised to learn that a young woman from Charlestown had been charged with witchcraft and was brought to trial at Salem.

Salem is a great place to visit, especially on Halloween. As we walked through the town, it was great to see so many people, old and young, families and friends, all in Halloween attire just going out and having a good time. Maybe the biggest surprise of the evening was the fact that we didn't see an egg all night.

A trip to Plymouth will take place in November, around Thanksgiving.

◆ Bunker Hill Rowers Compete . . . On Monday, I was pleasantly surprised to learn that Gilbert Peterson and Alex Dorojnikov journeyed down to Conn. last weekend to take part in the Mystic Seaport Youth Invitational Rowing Competition.

Thanks to the efforts of Ed McCabe and Lory Newmyer of the Navy Yard Rowing Club, and my effort here at the Bunker Hill Teen Center, Charlestown youth have been given the opportunity to learn and experience the art of rowing.

Gigi and Alex were the first members of the Bunker Hill Teen Center program to take part in actual competition.

◆ DARE Hockey League . . . You knew it was only a matter of time - overtime! The week four opener was a classic overtime thriller. Junior JAFT moved into first place, knocking the Carroll Club from the unbeaten ranks. Mike Sweeney's third goal of the game was his best scored with less than a minute to go in the sudden death period, dimming a fine four-goal performance by PJ Hanson of the Carroll Club. Jamie Hutchins led Junior JAFT with four goals.

In game two of the Junior JAFT doubleheader, Marc Russell and Jamie Hutchins combined for 10 goals as the young rookie teams dropped the veteran-laden Any Corner 11-9. Brendan Brennan, Chris Donovan and Steve Linnane had hat tricks for Any Corner.

Shane Fisher (4) and Jimmy Tallent (3) were the big offensive guns as Tidbits toppled Bantam A 12-4. Danny Noonan had two goals for Bantam A and this team will cause an upset during the season.

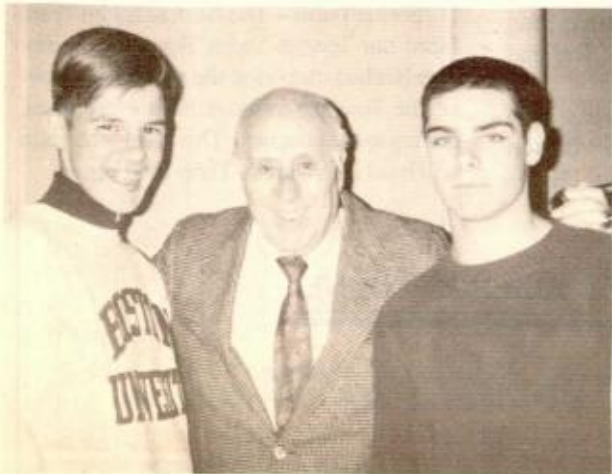

The standings as of Nov. 6 are: Junior JAFT 4-1, Tidbits 3-1, Carroll Club 3-1, Any Corner 2-3, Bantam A 1-3 and Nacka 0-4.

◆ College Board . . . In a hockey game of local interest, Fitchburg State was defeated 5-2 by St. Nobert's of New York. Phil Coleman plays for Fitchburg.

◆ Neighborhood Youth Council . . . Nicole DeRoeve of the Mayor's Youth Council is doing a great job of putting together a Neighborhood Youth Council here in Charlestown. The goal is to have youth councils in each neighborhood of the city comprised of young people from each neighborhood youth organization. Sound familiar? I wonder if Charlestown and the Charlestown Youth Council was a model for this program.

- ◆ Tidbits . . .
- Birthday best to Dave Matson.
 - Samantha was watching the Rocky Series on TV this week. Watch out George Foreman!
 - DJ, what kind of tape do you use when making a knob for your hockey stick??
 - Dave Evers' new AKA - "Vanity."

 - Hello to Paul Hennessey, Hello Lauren.

Mishawum Park And Hud Meeting

Dear Gloria,

Within the last couple of weeks, Richard Dray, owner of Mishawum Park, submitted in writing his intention to sell Mishawum Park. On Oct. 27, Kasmir Koloski, acting regional director of HUD, informed me of this development. The Mishawum Park Tenants Association had already informed the residents that as organized tenants, we can purchase the development ourselves under HUD's Title VI program.

On Tuesday, Nov. 15, at 7 p.m., HUD officials will meet with the tenants in the Community Room of Mishawum Park at 75 Dunstable St., to explain the process. The process is complicated and would be handled by lawyers, engineers and architects. This is a unique opportunity for us and we ask that all residents make every effort to attend this meeting and listen to the facts from HUD. If the tenants don't take advantage of the Title VI program, Dray will sell the property to another buyer and then the future of Mishawum Park would be unclear.

Al Copithorn, chairman
Mishawum Park Tenants Association

Money Matters

"Let us assist you in your financial planning"

NEW MONEY - OLD BUILDINGS

As Washington's appetite for tax revenues increases, fewer tax shelters remain. However, certain types of real estate are eligible for the rehabilitation tax credit.

Specifically, the tax credit is available for the rehabilitation of certain old and historic buildings. A credit equal to 20% of qualified rehabilitation expenditures is available for certain historic structures. To be eligible, the building (whether residential or commercial) must be listed in the National Register or be located in a registered historic district and be certified as historically significant to the district. If the building is not a certified historic structure, it must generally be a non-residential property first placed in service before 1936. The credit for these properties is 10% of qualified rehabilitation expenditures.

Qualified rehabilitation expenditures include renovation, restoration or reconstruction of a building. Enlargement or new construction does not qualify. To be eligible for the credit, the building must be placed in service before the rehabilitation begins and the rehabilitation must be "substantial." "Substantial" is defined as qualified expenditures incurred over a two-year period that exceed the greater of $5,000 or the building's adjusted basis.

As many cities and towns attempt to revitalize their downtown districts, they offer incentives to attract investors. The rehabilitation tax credit is the federal government's attempt to encourage this revitalization by stimulating preservation and continued use of existing structures. If you have a real estate venture you think might qualify, this tax credit is certainly worth exploring further.

TO SEE HOW THIS CAN AFFECT YOU, CALL TODAY!

Runkel Receives Highest State Honor For Public Service

Mary Runkel of Charlestown is one of 41 MBTA employees who received a "Performance Recognition" award for 1994 by the Commonwealth of Mass. from Gov. William F. Weld. Each year, the program recognizes public employees throughout the state who exemplify the highest standards of public service.

"We are proud of the skills and talents of employees like Mary Runkel, who have helped make the T one of the finest transit systems in the country," said Transportation Secretary and MBTA Chairman James Kerassiotis. "Their commitment to excellence and their hard work are the qualities that keep the T running each and every day."

Runkel, Manager, Labor Policy Analysis for the T's Labor Relations Department, works as a team player within her unit to prepare MBTA defense presentations before arbitrators.

"Through research, thorough analysis, and convincing presentations, the Labor Relations Unit is able to achieve favorable rulings from interest arbitrators, and Runkel is to be commended for her dedication and hard work," said MBTA General Manager John J. Haley Jr. In addition to nine individual awards, six groups of employees received the prestigious citations. Recipients range from a motorman-guard crew from the Orange Line to the MBTA's Customer Relations Unit.

"They each do very different jobs," said Haley, "but they share one thing in common: a dedication to superior service for our customers."

The Performance Recognition awards are presented by the governor at a special awards dinner. This year's ceremony was held at Boston's Sheraton Hotel on Sept. 29.

Charlestown Recycling Update
by Kathy Callahan

Good news! Curbside recycling is starting in Charlestown on Monday, Nov. 14.

The work of the Charlestown recycling volunteers has paid off. Curbside recycling is happening this year, thanks to Mayor Thomas M. Menino and his belief in and dedication to recycling.

Literature has been sent out from city hall explaining what materials will be collected weekly in the blue boxes. Each residential unit will receive one blue recycling box with the exception of buildings with more than six units.

All materials must be rinsed clean and tops removed. Labels may be left on.

The following items should be placed in the blue box: glass, clear and mixed colored; metal, tin, steel, aluminum cans and foil / trays; plastic, #1 and #2 bottles / jugs (look on the bottom for the number within the arrows); and empty aerosol cans.

The following items should be placed beside the blue box: Newspapers, brown bags and magazines should be put in brown bags; phone books and corrugated cardboard (waffleboard). Please flatten and tie them with string.

If you have any questions, call the recycling hotline at 635-4959.
