I sent out this message to selected individuals/forum:

Entered a hotel and within 5 minutes came back to my car to see my driver seat adjusted and bent forward (obviously someone entered and hurriedly left even with the hotel security men around).

It is obvious who is behind this. Tell these SECRET SERVICE IDIOTS to come to the open if they have any issue with the opinion(s) I have shared openly in the link below. We are NOT fools to abide by the same laws they disregard:

Just days after I publicized entry into my car, an explosion occurred in my car today shortly after I opened the door. Upon inspection of the car I discovered that the explosion was from an insecticide I purchased few days back (see pics on Pages 2-5).

The car wasn't in anyway hot, it was just close to midday, and I had other similar pressurized cans in the car. Many possibilities....

One thing is certain – THE TRUTH cannot be hidden.
