Tupelo DNOW
2017

Main Sessions-

Friday Evening- 7 PM

Saturday Morning- 11 AM

Saturday Evening- 6 PM

Cost $50: this fee is set by the Youth Minister's Network. Thirty dollars goes toward event fees and twenty dollars goes to each church to help with its own costs. All churches are supposed to agree to charge this amount for their students.

Location: Tupelo Furniture Market, Building 6 (back)

Speaker: Jamey Dickens

Jamey is the director of the high school ministry at Buckhead Church in Atlanta, Georgia. He graduated from the University of North Carolina where he founded 180 Ministries, a multi-campus movement inspiring thousands of students towards deeper worship and devotion. His greatest passion is to show students that knowing Jesus is the greatest thing on the planet and inspire them to live radically for Him. He and his wife Sara live in Atlanta, GA with their dog Kobe.

Worship: Hunter Leath

Host Homes-

Homes will not be divided based on grades alone. Attendees will factor into home groups also. If at all possible we do not want a home group smaller than 4 students or greater than 10. I feel that less than four is too few and can make it harder for the students to open up, and more than ten is too large of a burden for the hosts. ***

Small Group Leaders- (list is subject to change due to student work schedules)

Candice Roach (Ole Miss)

Hannah Wright (Ole Miss)

Shelby Hutcheson (BMC)

How Do We Get Our Small Group Leaders?

Typically, I lean on former students from FBCT and previous churches. I look for leaders who are still actively attending church while in college, and are showing visible fruit in their walk with Christ.

I do allow college freshman to serve, but only if they ask or express interest in helping.

Saturday Activity-

There will be an activity designed to allow our students and small group leaders to have a time to hang out.

Cost Assessment-

The cost for DNOW is set by Tupelo's Youth Ministry Network. All of the cost goes toward the payment of the speaker, worship artist, and equipment. The cost for 2017 is $50. I ask that all of our students bring money ($10) to help with the cost of their meal with their host homes on Saturday night.

Items to Bring-

- Clothes for Saturday and Sunday
- Bible (preferably not a smart phone edition 😊), notepad and pen
- 2 Liter Drink
- Bag of chips or cookies/dessert... (The snacks they bring are the only snacks they will have at their host home)
- Money for Saturday meal ($10)
- Sleep Items- (sleeping bag, pillow, air mattress, etc.)
- TOWEL!!!
- TIP- CHECK WITH THE HOST HOME FOR YOUR CHILD TO SEE WHAT MIGHT BE THE BEST TO BRING!

If your child has any food allergies or medications, please notify Bro. Shandy!**

What We Need From You Parents!

- Transportation Help- if any of you can help transport students it would be a great help. Volunteers would not be expected to help all weekend, but once would be a blessing!
- Prayer needs for your child.
- Check with your child's host home to see what would food/dessert/drink would be best to bring to their home.

Bro. Shandy's Role in 2017 DNOW-

My role will change for this year's DNOW. I am serving as the Co-President of the Tupelo Youth Ministry Network for the current year. This means that I have a much larger role in the production of the large worship sessions that will be held at the Furniture Market. I will not be able to drive around and visit our students as much as I have in the past. I will be working the stage and behind the scenes at the event.

Our students will be my #1 priority, but I am leaning on several FBCT volunteers to pick up my slack so I can be behind the scenes before, during, and after the large worship times. Transporting students is the biggest need! I will still be available for whatever need that your or your child may have!
