

By SHOSHI HERSCU

I am an independent journalist from Haifa, Israel, who survived a childhood growing up in three different countries: Romania, Israel, and the Ivory Coast where my father relocated us as he worked as a construction engineer for the 'Sonitra' company. Growing up in such varied countries and cultures imbued me with an appreciation for their great diversity and an abhorrence for the mono-culture that is being 'engineered' in today's world, especially in the West. And although, like most of us, I came to trust my parents and their surrogates – education, church, and government – I sensed at an early age that I was being sold 'a bill of goods', or a certain life perspective – and wanted to choose my own.

It was for this reason that after my undergraduate studies in Israel and my release from military service, I chose to obtain my MBA in England (1994–1995). I was interested in international business, and I wanted a more global perspective. After I graduated, I travelled the world and got as far as Australia. I enjoyed the atmosphere, the great diversity of its landscape, but on the other hand, I noticed large numbers of surveillance cameras in all its cities. I didn't know back then that Australia was part of the 'Five Eyes' intelligence-sharing alliance. To me, it was strange as Australia is supposed to be a democracy. I asked others why there were so many surveillance cameras? People told me that it's for 'security reasons', but Australia wasn't exactly a terrorist hotspot. While I wasn't convinced by this explanation, I didn't investigate further.

About five years ago I discovered, to my amazement, the existence of a wide-ranging program aimed at the depopulation of humanity, which includes "spraying us like roaches."¹ These are the chemtrails that have become pervasive in many countries. I ignored this for months until one day I realised they weren't aeroplane contrails but something entirely different. Then I started noticing strange patterns of 'clouds' with weird colours. I started taking pictures and sharing them on Facebook and received some surprising feedback and confirmation. I then began investigating this 'phenomenon' and finally realised that something very bizarre was happening.

Mass Awakening?

THE POSITIVE GLOBAL REVOLUTION & PARADIGM SHIFT UNDERWAY IN THE FACE OF NEW THREATS & PLOTS BY THE CONTROLLING ELITE

I searched for relevant information in Israel and couldn't find any commentary. So I wrote an article for Shaul Cohen's 'Israeli Patriot', an alternative news site, entitled "The Connection between Chemtrails and Agenda 21." This is a plan devised by the UN and signed by 178 countries at the Rio, Brazil Earth Summit in 1992. It promotes world 'depopulation' by employing many means, among them chemtrails (although this term is not mentioned in this plan) – the spraying of heavy metals, pathogens, and viruses carried out by unmarked military aircraft and passenger aeroplanes (normal contrails from aeroplanes dissipate very quickly but not these).

I found much proof for this phenomenon including an extensive list of patents (for "geoengineering," an euphemism for chemtrails) created by many companies,² along with confirming testimonies from workers involved in these industries, as well as those employed in intelligence agencies, like whistleblower Ted Gunderson, an FBI agent who was assassinated. You can check out the excellent Italian documentary entitled "Chemtrails the Secret War"³ or "What in the World Are They Spraying?"⁴ Other evidence includes lab test results⁵ of water samples in areas that have been sprayed (in the USA, Germany, Israel and elsewhere), and The Guardian newspaper published a map of "Geoengineering Projects" around the world.⁶ One day Shaul even told me, "Shoshi, you were right about this. Here, read this article!"⁷ Since then, over 20,000 people have read my online articles that were posted both on the now-defunct alternative news website, Israeli Patriot, and my personal blog on Cafethemarker.com.

When I started this independent investigation, I had no idea there were so many strategies employed for this 'final solution' or the genocide of humanity. The multiple 'weapons' include geoengineering (chemtrails are only one ploy), fluoridation of water supplies, vaccinations, GMOs, and other more subtle means aimed at making us stressed out and distracted by fears and anxieties like the broken financial system. The mainstream media is another tool used to mind-control the masses.

POSITIVE TRANSFORMATION

However, despite the grim reality that I discovered in my research, I also found that a positive shift is taking place at the same time. The 'bad guys' are finally being revealed to the larger public after being protected for decades, and even centuries. We live in historical times, and it's a case of 'the darkest

Your Choice: Take the Red Pill or the Blue Pill?

The red pill represents: Knowledge, freedom, adversity and the brutal truth of reality.

The blue pill represents: Falsehood, security, happiness and the blissful ignorance of illusion.

The terms were first used in the 1999 science fiction film 'The Matrix'. The meme was popularised through alternative media to represent the choice to awake from the consensus reality trance.

hour before the dawn'. We need to bear this in mind, and my forthcoming book focuses on this aspect.

We're heading into a massive positive transformation worldwide. It seems to the vast majority of humanity – which don't know about the war raging behind the scenes – that their world is crumbling because the old and evil social/political structure is falling apart. People are instinctively afraid of change, and especially when they have no idea about the outcome. Not only are there going to be drastic changes in all areas of our lives, but also extremely hard-to-take revelations in the coming 'full disclosure'.

We're fast approaching a total science-fiction reality, or as Corey Goode (a whistleblower who worked twenty years in the secret space program) termed it: a "Star-Trek society." There are technologies already used in secret space programs (such as replicators to produce food like in the 'Star Trek' TV series) or in DUMBS – deep underground military bases – time travel machines, clean energy, advanced medical technology, whose full disclosure will shock us and soon transform our world. This is why it is so important that we become aware of these topics now to prepare us for future shock.

It will be a global revolution and paradigm shift of information and technology, which is why I'm sharing a wide-range of information in my book about our food, science, financial system, geopolitics, education, and even about our history. We have been kept in the dark in the modern Dark Ages. 'Team dark', or the Cabal as David Wilcock calls them, even created social media as a surveillance tool and to have greater control over us. But we turned the tables on them and now we use it to awaken more people. I saw a wonderful posting on the Internet that reflects this idea beautifully:

The government created Facebook, and the social media in general, to monitor our lives and locations... But we changed the game and used it to wake up humanity. Checkmate.

This awakening is a global revolution that isn't only taking place in the US. It is a paradigm shift empowering 'we the people' worldwide; us taking back control of our collective destiny. When you start 'digging' up information about this shift, you start realising why everything is 'topsy-turvy'.

PAEDOPHILES, FALSE FLAGS & FREE ENERGY

I also believe that Donald Trump is being vilified in the mainstream media because he's fighting and exposing the Cabal/Team Dark. The arrests of paedophiles have accelerated recently in the US (about 3,000 since January 2017).⁷ It's Trump's policy to "drain the swamp" of paedophiles and human trafficking, rampant at the top echelon of politics worldwide. Moreover, soft disclosures have also been accelerating including those about the secret 'special ops' training and funding of Daesh (ISIL), the terrorist attacks discovered to be false flag attacks like those in France, which are staged by the government. This doesn't mean it's fake and people don't die. In some, they do die like the 3,000 victims in the 9/11 attack (my sincere condolences to the families of the victims), but in others it's not certain the casualty toll in 'Sandy Hook' or the 'Manchester Terror Attack' at the Ariana Grande concert in Manchester, UK are accurate figures.

People are becoming more aware worldwide of what is actually happening in our reality. They are very suspicious about false flag attacks and search for signs of these immediately after an incident occurs by sharing the evidence online. For example, it took me 1 ½ hours to find out the truth about the 2016 Nice attack in France after talking with a friend who lives there. A sign of the big changes is the accelerated rate of soft-disclosures about paedophilia and ritual sacrifices which is the elite controllers' 'Achilles heel'. People are awakening en masse worldwide and demanding their civil rights back (major provisions of the 2001 Patriot Act in the US were recently extended to 2019),⁸ and are eager to know the truth and demand it. Take the case of Edward Snowden, who uncovered the massive US government surveillance worldwide, and had to take refuge in Russia of all places; Seth Rich – Wikileaks' source; and US Rep. Steve Scalise, who was actively seeking to stop paedophilia and whose shooter was killed on-site – people demand the truth and don't believe the official 'story'.

Free energy technology cannot be suppressed anymore,⁹ like Nicola Tesla's inventions¹⁰ that threaten the moneyed elite by making electricity much more affordable. Recently we watched how free energy can become mainstream when: "Israel's Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu took his Indian counterpart Narendra Modi out on a drive on the Olga beach in the Gal-Mobile. The Gal-Mobile is an independent mobile integrated water desalination and purification vehicle that turns seawater into safe and high-quality drinking water. It can purify up to 20,000 liters of seawater a day.”¹¹ The seawater fuels the car and the byproduct is desalination.

The media's the most powerful entity on earth. They have the power to make the innocent guilty and to make the guilty innocent, and that's power. Because they control the minds of the masses.

Moreover, new economic models like the Ubuntu Liberation movement led by Michael Tellinger are becoming widespread worldwide. The model creates “a totally new system that turns competition into collaboration,” a philosophy known as Contributionism. There is no use for money but “working together to create towns, cities, countries and lives overflowing with abundance, food, arts, music, sports, technology, health, leisure and infinite variety... The first stage of the ‘One Small Town’ initiative is to create food and income generating projects within a community, all run by the power of the community members. In the beginning stages these funds are funnelled back into more produce and income generating projects, until eventually the town is self-sustaining & generating a sizable income through external sales.”¹²

On another front, tribunals are being established for the purpose of prosecuting elite offenders (for committing crimes against humanity), who cannot be prosecuted under the current legal system (the top echelon is above the law under the current legal system). These tribunals are the International Tribunal for Natural Justice (www.itnj.org), Judicial Commission of Inquiry into Human Trafficking and Child Sex Abuse, and the International Tribunal into Crimes of Church and State (or ITCCS) (www.itccs.org), established by Kevin Annett. Their purpose is “to lawfully prosecute those people and institutions responsible for the exploitation, trafficking, torture and murder of children, past and present, and stop these and other criminal actions by church and state, including by disestablishing those same institutions.”

(I systematically explore all the information brought forth in this overview in more detail with documented proof in my book.)

SPIRITUAL WAR TAKING PLACE

It’s a spiritual war being waged against us, and we see some of it playing out on the physical plane. But it’s going to be won in the spiritual realm and manifest here. Despite how the elite and Cabal have used these tactics to define us as animals and not spiritual beings, human consciousness – that operates both on the spiritual and mundane planes – is rising worldwide, both on the local and global level. Their dehumanising of us has failed. Thus, the Cabal will lose their control over us as we claim who we really are – namely, exalted spiritual beings and not low-living animals. This agenda is taught to suppress the basic knowledge of our selves and our true heritage. The human spirit will win.

Some of these revelations may sound like fantasy or science fiction to you, and I can totally relate to this feeling. The information that I’ve shared so far may be rather disturbing. When I went through this same process of ‘awakening’ to our true reality for almost five years, I had to deal with my own emotional reactions and at times clinical depression. However, many readers will have to ‘digest’ these dark insights all at once. I had days when I was so numb with shock and pain that I woke up during the night and cried because I felt so hopeless about doing anything to reverse these trends.

I’ve picked up many tools that I used to help me cope with this shock, like grounding myself by walking barefoot on the beach or on a grass lawn to discharge the static buildup of electricity, sunbathing, daily exercise, and meditating twice a day. Eating coriander (cilantro) and wheatgrass, and taking natural dietary supplements like spirulina and chlorella to remove the toxins from the body. Probably the most important supplement is large doses of antioxidants since stress produces huge amounts of free radicals, and this may help the body cope with these effects.

Sometimes I just chilled out, distanced myself from my research for a couple of days, walked on the beach, and then at home burned incense and lit candles to calm down,

‘to fill up my cup’, and release some of the pain that I felt. Nature has the vibrations that balance our body and can release the tension from too much emotional or mental fixation. Hiking in a forest or even driving along a coastal road will do wonders for you.

For me, the most fascinating aspect of this shift is its culmination in what is called ‘The Event’, or the moment of the final shift – because it’s an ongoing process with no definite date. There are many groups involved worldwide in bringing forth this ‘Event’ and its changeover to fruition.

According to the Prepare for Change website:

It will be a moment of breakthrough for the planet, which will be physical and nonphysical. On the nonphysical plane, there will be a “big wave or flash of Divine energy and light coming from the Galactic Central sun going towards the surface of the planet.” This energy... will permeate the earth and humanity, raising the frequencies of all living entities on the planet.

It will calm humanity in the light of love energy and end duality. It’s a magnificent energy not seen or felt before on Earth. Everyone on Earth will feel and know something has happened. It will be a surprise as to when it will happen, even for us. It’s never happened before. It will not be a major shock event, it will be a positive event.

On the physical plane there will be:

TRUTH IS ONLY VISIBLE TO THOSE WHO ARE ABLE TO QUESTION EVERYTHING THAT THEY HAVE BEEN TAUGHT TO BELIEVE.

- ★ The arrest of the Cabal (already started).
- ★ The reset of the Financial Systems.
- ★ Disclosure – the release of ET information.
- ★ The beginning of a new, fairer financial system with prosperity funds for all humanity.
- ★ NEW Government/Political system, Education system, Healthcare system, etc.
- ★ Awakening of humanity slowly and gradually to the existence of positive non-terrestrial races and our galactic connections.
- ★ Introduction of new advanced technologies.
- ★ The release of [energy for] spiritual growth and healing for every human being on the planet...

And of course we have been gradually going toward the first contact, which is an actual official contact between the earth civilisation and other positive ET races that exist throughout the galaxy. And the Event is a trigger point which begins that process.¹³

MASS AWAKENING

Watching this mass awakening of humanity worldwide throughout these last few years is an amazing experience, as well as observing my own awakening. I mostly follow it in a group on Facebook called the 'Resistance Movement' that thousands of people from around the world join every month.

I see increasing numbers of independent journalists providing excellent intelligence and interpretations like Jordan Sather on his YouTube channel 'Destroying the Illusion' (within less than a year he gathered over 100k subscribers); YouTube channels providing spiritual information about the ascension process like Victor Oddo's 'Channel for the Awakening'; or such alternative sites like Emet Aheret (Another Truth in Hebrew).

People are simultaneously protesting against GMOs, forced vaccinations and other areas of concern worldwide. Unfortunately, many of the more awakened people are only aware of the negative aspects (namely, the genocide/depopulation of humanity) and not of the positive shift already occurring.

Since my awakening to this expanded reality I have come to see humanity in a different light – more positively. I have a much greater appreciation for humanity today than a few years ago. I see a lot of courage, determination, and perseverance in places I never expected to find it, as well as the blossoming of wisdom. I didn't anticipate this new trend and I'm glad it is happening.

I've also recognised that I have a lot of prejudices and that by becoming aware of them I can confront and deal with my narrow-minded attitudes. Some of the people around me don't like when I'm sharing this positive outlook for humanity. They prefer to believe what they are familiar with, the consensus reality, but then they've never tested their beliefs. I did and continue to do so on a daily basis. It's a never-ending process. Songs that once were just catchy tracks to me, like Uprising by Muse or Tonight in Babylon by Brian Adams, suddenly have a completely different meaning. When I listened to them after awakening, I started crying because I was so moved by the truth disclosed in them.
