Ten Candidates Vie For Seven Seats In Neighborhood Council Election

Ten nominees will vie for the seven available at-large seats on the Charlestown Neighborhood Council on Saturday, Oct. 13. Charlestown residents 18 and older will vote for and elect seven two-year term council members at the Kent Community School, 50 Bunker Hill St.

Voting will take place between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. in the school auditorium which is handicapped accessible by means of an elevator from the first floor.

By a vote of the Neighborhood Council on Oct. 2, it was determined that only residents 18 years of age and older will be eligible to vote.

Proof of Charlestown residency is a voting requirement. If you recently moved to town and your name is not included on the current resident list, you may be asked to verify your address with two of the following: rent receipt, utility bill, Massachusetts driver's license, bank statement or credit card bill.

Candidates have the right to have a representative at the polls to stand behind the checkers and question a voter's residency status. A League of Women Voters representative will be on hand to intervene in the event of a challenge, and will have the final say over a voter's eligibility.

Doors to the polling area will open at 10 a.m. and will close promptly at 2 p.m. Anyone in the hall at 2 p.m. will be allowed to vote.

Voting for more than seven candidates will nullify your ballot.

The ten candidates, in the order in which they will appear on the ballot, are:

- Matthew O'Neil Jr., 23 Cross St.;
- Maurice "Moe" Gillen, 8 St. Martin St.;
- Stephen Collins, One Laurel St.;

Police To Initiate Walk And Talk Patrol

by Kathy Giordano

Sergeant Jim Hussey of the Boston Police Department Area A Community Relations Office, announced at the monthly Public Safety/Police Community Relations meeting that a new program will begin in the community that will bring police officers out of their vehicles and onto the streets of Charlestown.

The "Walk and Talk" patrol is in the process of gathering a list of locations that are in need of police presence to eliminate recurring nuisance incidents. Hussey stated that the Community Relations Office will distribute the list of "hot spots" to officers on the 9 p.m. to midnight patrol duty. During that shift, Hussey said, officers will "get out of their car, close the door and spend one-half to one hour in that particular area."

Hussey requests that residents contact his office at 247-4627 and ask for him or Officer Joe McNulty, community relations officer, with information on a particular location that could benefit from a regular visit by a police officer and this location will be added to the patrol. Problems such as public drinking, noisy teen-agers, groups harassing residents or any incident that has created a nuisance in the area will fall under this program. Indicating a time of evening that such incidents occur would also be helpful, Hussey stated.

Charlestown Neighborhood Council Public Safety Committee Chairman Mel Stillman stated that incidents of neighborhood harassment have been reported to him over the past few months. "Residents tell me that teen-agers are causing a public nuisance at certain locations and residents have requested assistance in eliminating these problems. This program will certainly help out. The presence of a police officer has quite an affect on these types of situations," he concluded.

McNulty reported that the number of auto break-ins in Charlestown is on the increase. Peter Looney, Basic Services Committee chairman, noted that residents should remember "not to leave any valuables visible in their car. It only takes seconds to break a car window, open the door and run off with whatever can be carried."

Stillman added that "all items should be locked in the trunk. It takes a lot longer to break open a trunk, time that could alert a passer-by to an attempt to rob the car."

McNulty related that several apartments have been broken into recently. He said that police are looking for a white male around 18 years of age in connection with these incidents.

Other situations discussed at the meeting included 16- and 18-wheel trucks traveling along Main Street.

Stillman stated: "I always know when (Officer) Bollen is not stationed at Sullivan Square. That's when these 2½-ton trucks take short-cuts down Main Street." Stillman informed McNulty that the street is posted, but "truckers in a hurry to get through Charlestown ignore the sign and speed down Main Street to get to their destination."

Moe Gillen, co-chairman of the Neighborhood Council Haul Road Committee, stated that pedestrians have great difficulty trying to walk from Cambridge Street toward The Schrafft Center in Sullivan Square. He said that there are no cross walks painted on the roadways in that area and vehicles do not give pedestrians a chance to cross the streets. "It's an unsafe condition for both pedestrians and vehicles. There have been a few fender benders down there, and I know of pedestrians trying to cross the street who have been hit."

He stated that frequent requests have been made to the Transportation Department for signs, but asked that the Police Department intercede in trying to speed up the process of having the area properly posted. McNulty informed Gillen that he would personally set up an appointment with the Transportation Department to "go to the location and see what could be used to correct the situation."

Topics of discussion at future Public Safety/Police Community Relations meetings are still in the planning stages, according to Stillman and McNulty. Changing the site of these meetings to various locations throughout the community is also being considered. Stillman stated that if there is a particular issue that community residents would like to address at a future meeting, they should contact Judy Evers, community liaison from the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services, at 725-3485 to request that a meeting be scheduled.

HOW TO HELP YOUR REALTOR SELL YOUR HOME

Once your home is listed for sale, it may be difficult for you to step aside and let your agent take over. When prospective buyers arrive, you may want to stand by to point out the closet extenders, the hidden spice cabinet behind the kitchen door, the energy saving storm windows, or the updated copper plumbing. If you really want to help, however, you'll leave the house whenever it is being shown.

We've found that the sales process does not really begin until buyers begin to voice their objections about a property. Sometimes these concerns are serious and would remove your house from consideration. Often, however, people voice objections as a defense mechanism because they really love the house and they want to buy it. We're trained to know the difference. If a seller is standing at the agent's elbow, the buyer won't be comfortable enough to let this process take place, and we could lose the sale. It may be hard for you to do, but it's crucial that you get out of the way and let the agents go to work.

For professional advice on all aspects of buying or selling a home, talk to the professionals at Monument Properties. Come by our offices at 85 Warren St., Charlestown or call us at 241-5900.

Dr. Edward Teller To Speak At Bunker Hill Community College

Dr. Edward Teller will present two lectures for students, faculty and the public this month in the first lecture series of Bunker Hill Community College's Alfred Lee Sklar Memorial Program in Science.

On Monday, Oct. 15, Teller will present a lecture entitled "Invisible Forces" from 7:30 to 9 p.m. in Room E-175. This will be followed on Tuesday, Oct. 16 by a lecture entitled "The Geography of Space and Time," from 10 to 11:15 a.m. in Room A-300. Teller's visit is sponsored by the Bunker Hill Community College Foundation with contributions to the Dr. Alfred Lee Sklar Memorial Program in Science.

"We are honored to have Teller coming to BHCC to take part in our program to promote excellence in science education," said Dr. Piedad Robertson, president of Bunker Hill Community College. "It is an excellent opportunity to listen to a man who has made many contributions to the field of science and has received many honors for his work in atomic, nuclear and solid state physics."

Teller, born in Budapest in 1908, received his Ph.D.

in physics in 1930 from the University of Leipzig. After the Nazis came to power, Teller worked in London and Copenhagen before coming to the United States. He was appointed professor of physics at George Washington University in 1935 and became a citizen of the United States in 1941. The Nazi threat to the world helped lead Teller to work on the Manhattan Project where he spent much of his time working on the possibilities for releasing energy via nuclear fusion.

Teller has also worked at the Universities of Chicago and California, and at the Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory. Since his retirement he has held the positions of director emeritus at Livermore and senior research fellow at the Hoover Institution.

BRA Board Vote Scheduled On Navy Yard Master Plan

by Kathy Giordano
The Boston Redevelopment Authority Board of Directors is scheduled to vote on the Charlestown Navy Yard Master Plan and Zoning at a Thursday, Oct.

11 meeting. Late news of the expected vote came to the Patriot at press time. The report also includes an expected vote that will grant The Raymond Group redeveloper's rights on Parcels

4, 6 and 7 in the Yard's End of the Navy Yard.

The BRA memorandum requests its Board to approve the Master Plan that received a favorable vote by the Charlestown Neighborhood Council at a March 15, 1990 public hearing. The council vote came after months of public hearings on the proposal.

The plan to be submitted to the BRA Board today, according to the report, includes revisions that address concerns raised by historical and preservationist groups after the March council vote.

Concerns raised by the Boston Landmarks Commission, Massachusetts Historical Commission and the U.S. Department of Interior which are addressed in the revised Master Plan are: a height limit of 65 feet within the Historic Monument Area; a height limit of 55 feet for Pier 5; a height limit of 135 feet for the northeastern portion of Parcel 4; re-use of Building 104 for 30 units of affordable housing without adding to its present height; a museum/cultural reuse program for the Ropewalk and Chain Forge buildings; a double-loop interpretive system between the planned New England Aquarium and the USS Constitution; and re-use of Building 75 at its present location.

Benefits outlined in the revised Master Plan include the relocation of the aquarium to Drydock 5/Parcel 5, a bio-medical research center, a 390-room hotel/conference center, a festival market place and over five acres of public open space. Other benefits to the community, according to the report, is the "knitting together" Charlestown and the Navy Yard by providing for 25 percent affordable housing, neighborhood business opportunities, construction and permanent employment opportunities and recreational amenities.

The jobs linkage package described in the Master Plan include more than 3,500 permanent new jobs and 3,400 construction jobs, over $1 million in jobs linkage, more than $6 million in housing linkage and $9 million annually in new property taxes.

The request to the Board also includes permission for the BRA Director to petition the Zoning Commission to adopt amendments to the Zoning Code to incorporate new permanent zoning for the Navy Yard included in the Master Plan.

Rights by The Raymond Group to redevelop Parcels 4, 6 and 7 in the Navy Yard are also scheduled to go before the BRA Board today.

The request includes "amend(ment) to the Land Disposition Agreement to effectuate the development program and execute documents necessary for conveyance of Parcels 4, 6 and 7."

The memorandum also requests "approval of minor modifications to the Urban Renewal Plan for the Charlestown Urban Renewal Area in order to accommodate redevelopment of these parcels."

The results of these expected Board of Directors' votes will be reported in the next edition of the Patriot.

Charlestown Lions Club Selling Light Bulbs For Eye Research

Buying a $20 energy efficient light bulb for $3 is a great buy, but when you also lower your electric bill, protect the environment and help the Lions Clubs raise a half million dollars for eye research, it's a fantastic buy!

The program is called "Lite for Sight" and it's Boston Edison Co. and the Lions Clubs of eastern Massachusetts teaming up between Oct. 15 and Nov. 15 in order to sell the light bulbs for eye research. Lions Club members will sell the bulbs, which normally retail for about $20, for $3, with $2 of that going for the Lions' eye research charities.

Michael Venezia, president of the Charlestown Lions Club, said local Lions Clubs have supported programs for 75 years to prevent blindness, and for the past few years they have sponsored an annual sale of light bulbs to raise money for the prevention and cure of eye disease.

This year the Lions will offer new compact fluorescent light bulbs manufactured by OSRAM Corp. of Montgomery, N.Y. The 15-watt DULUX EL bulb replaces a 60-watt incandescent bulb, lasts 10 to 13 times longer and uses 75 percent less electricity. Each bulb has an average 10,000-hour life expectancy.

The offer is for Boston Edison residential customers only and those customers were mailed an order form in the September billing. There will be a limit of four bulbs per household at the $3 price. People will save $17 off the retail price of each bulb and about $46 in energy costs over the life of the bulb.

Residents may obtain order forms by contacting one of the following members of the Charlestown Lions Club:

Ceremonies Mark Dedication Of The John J. Greateorex Tot Lot

Enthusiastic spectators crowded the area as Greateorex was honored for over 25-years of volunteer service in cleaning, planting and watching over the park — all because he wanted to do it. He did it on his own, and was never paid.

Boston Parks and Recreation Department Regional Administrator James "Stretch" Walsh opened the brief speaking program by welcoming the gathering and bringing the greetings of Mayor Raymond L. Flynn and Parks Commissioner Larry Dwyer. He stated: "We are proud to be part of the dedication of the John J. Greateorex Tot Lot." He then turned the program over to Boston City Councillor Robert Travaglini, sponsor of the legislation to name the tot lot in honor of Greateorex, who acted as master of ceremonies.

Travaglini noted that an occasion such as this dedication was "one of the more refreshing and enjoyable aspects of public service." He said that Walsh and Dwyer were most agreeable that something should be done to recognize the contribution of Greateorex, and they agreed to the dedication wholeheartedly. Travaglini went on to say that the 25-years of service by Greateorex "typifies the spirit that is still in the neighborhoods of Boston. These people are still out there," he continued, "people who care, people who deliver."

In pointing out the contribution made by Greateorex, Travaglini told the gathering: "John has consistently taken it upon himself to make sure this park is clean, suitable and operational for the children. He did this without any recognition, photo opportunities or press releases. Over the past 25 years, John has left his mark here in this park." He also attributed the securing of a fence around the tot lot and monies appropriated to the park as the result of the efforts of one individual — Greateorex.

Rep. Richard A. Voke, Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, was called forward to make a presentation of a citation from the Massachusetts House of Representatives. Voke, in addressing the gathering, which included many hockey players and parents, said: "John, let me ask you a question — do you know how to make ice? How about driving a Zamboni machine?" Each of these questions was met with roars from the audience. Voke added: "We're going to get John down to make sure the rink isn't closed" — a comment that was met with applause.

In a more serious note, Voke spoke directly to Greateorex. "Thank you, John, on behalf of the members of the community, your friends, for making things work. It is the commitment you have made to the youth of this community as well as to the people of Charlestown that we're here to honor. You do it without fanfare, you do it with sincerity — from your heart and it is very meaningful . . . we are going to try to follow your example in these very difficult times and try to make this society just a little bit better." Boston City Councillor Albert "Dapper" O'Neil recalled the many years he has known Greateorex. He stated that over the years "John and I were battling different issues and no one wanted to listen . . . we were always proven right. He is a wonderful human being and I am proud to know him."

During the ceremonies, neighbor Ed Mahan came forward to present Greateorex with a jacket sporting a large Number One. In making the presentation, Mahan noted that the honoree was number one with the neighbors.

Following an assembling of the Greateorex family for a photograph, John took the microphone to respond to the accolades.

Greateorex recalled his life of 80 years as he accepted the honors of the day. He said that the reason he was "up the hill" was due to the "good people I have been associated with such as Carlo and Maryann Ryan, the Mahoneys and every good person in this town who is interested in the town."

"It first started with Maryann (Ryan)," Greateorex related, "who used to observe me going into the park every day, picking up bottles and putting them in the barrels. In her mind she was wondering, 'What is he doing that for unless he's getting paid for it.' Then she realized that I belonged in the town and was doing something for the betterment of the town. Over the years, Maryann said that something should be done for me." He said he told her that he wasn't looking for anything that 'I'm proud to be a Townie living here and that's why I do it.' He said that this didn't satisfy her and she took it upon herself to bring this dedication about. He then presented Ryan with a bouquet of flowers, noting her numerous contributions to the community. She accepted the flowers and stayed at his side during the remainder of the program.

Greateorex shared memories of good times and those times that were not so good. He spoke of trying to enlist in the service and being refused, and of being unable to get a job. On the advice of a friend he joined Teamsters Local 25 and worked as a driver. He expressed pride in his Teamsters' membership.

He recalled the day he met his late wife, Mabel, and the 47 years of happiness they had together raising their family.

In conclusion, Greateorex stated: "I can never thank you enough for this honor. If we have to go into the streets to get something done, such as the repair of Main Street, as long as I am able to breathe, I'll do it. I am not looking for glory, I am only looking to help the good people of this town. I hope that your kids will grow up and respect the town for their benefit and for those who come after."

At the end of the ceremony, attendees were invited to partake in a luncheon that had been prepared by members of the Greateorex family.

Hockey Associations Go To Court Over Decision To Suspend Rink Openings

Representatives of six youth hockey associations were in court on Oct. 10 seeking to halt the action by the Metropolitan District Commission that suspended the early opening of six rinks in its jurisdiction and unilaterally cancelled existing written contracts.

Attorney John Tobin, representing the youth hockey associations of Charlestown, Cambridge, Everett, Lynn, Revere and Somerville, appeared at a hearing before Judge Patrick King in Suffolk Superior Court to plead the case for the youth programs. The complaint cited Secretary of Environmental Affairs John P. DeVillars, MDC Commissioner M. Ilyas Bhatti and the four Assistant MDC Commissioners in the legal action.

In the complaint, Tobin outlined the programs that provide approximately 1,500 youngsters with ice hockey instruction. He pointed out that the programs rent the ice time from the MDC and pay rentals that cover all the operating costs of the rinks. He noted that the MDC had set this year's rental rate at $4,500 per week or $18,000 per month, payable in advance on a weekly basis.

The complaint went on to state that on Aug. 30, the commissioner and associate commissioners voted to approve the early opening of several rinks for the 1990-91 season and provided the programs contracts to be executed, which were returned to the MDC with initial payments of $4,500 or about Sept. 26.

According to the complaint, the commissioner issued a press release on Sept. 28 suspending the early openings, an action that was taken unilaterally without a vote by the associate commissioners. Also, the commissioner ordered that ice that had been made for the Oct. 1 openings be melted down, again without a vote of the associate commissioners.

The programs were notified by commission personnel that because of proposed budget cuts in the near future, the commission will not have the necessary personnel to open the rinks. At the time of the commissioner's action and at the time of the filing of the complaint, lay-off notices had not been sent to any employees of the commission and commission personnel were on duty at the rinks, and preparing for lay offs requires at least 30 days.

It was also pointed out to the judge that programs had made contractual agreements with other groups to use some of the ice time and had collected fees from those groups. Also the programs have paid league fees, insurance premiums, accreditation fees and have purchased concession goods. Hundreds of children have paid ice fees and are being denied participation in the programs.

Tobin stated that Judge King took the complaint under advisement and will try to arrive at a decision by Monday.

Huskies Pop Warner Football

The Everett Huskies met Malden in Pop Warner Football action this past weekend. Approximately 25 Charlestown boys play on the Everett teams.

The D Team put together a long drive in the second quarter with strong blocking in the middle by Jim Kane, Justin Violette and Matt Currier, capped off by a quarterback sneak from Jim Rabideau. The point after touchdown was from Rabideau to Nick Nazzaro. Malden scored a quick touchdown in the second quarter to make it tied at the half. After a scoreless third quarter, the Huskies put together another clock-eating drive with Nazzaro scoring and Mark DeBenedetto getting the point after. The defense, led by Brendan Flanagan, John Hickey, Sean D'Attoli, Bill Henry, Lenny Gardino and Jeff Jagiello, held Malden scoreless for the second half. The final score was Everett 14, Malden 7.

The C Team kept the train rolling again, starting with a 35-yard pass to set up the first score. The Huskies recovered the ensuing kick off and moved down field behind the hard running of Nick DeBenedetto and Rich Leccese. Shaun Spaulding broke a quick opener to the outside to make the score 12 to 0 at the half. Everett's offense stalled in the third quarter but the defense, led by Jim Milliken, Mark Scenna, Vinny Rutigliano and Joe Paoletta held until the offense struck again with a 60-yard score by "Speedy" Spaulding, running behind the red offense, and a fine 40-yard touchdown run by Mark DeBenedetto. The final score was Everett 25, Malden 0.

The B Team's undefeated, unscored on record was challenged again for the second time in as many weeks, this time by Malden. Everett settled the issue quickly with an option play from Anthony Moreschi to Paul Allen who threw to Brian Glinner for a touchdown. The point after was unsuccessful. In the second quarter with the score 6 to 0, the Huskies called the option play again with the same results. Paul Allen made the extra point.

Again, the offensive blocking, led by Dan Naumann, Scott Sullivan, Mike "Animal" Capwell, Mike Syracuse and Brian Wadman was strong. In the second half the Huskies rose up to keep their defense unscored on, led by Chad Matthews, Jeff Quigley, Bob MacMillan, P.J. Eason, Moreschi, backed up by DiFlummollo, Getchell, Lawler, Yandle, Zullo and Houlihan. Everett came out victorious, 13-0.

The A Team played a hard fought football game with good running by Andy Giannosoli, C.J. Farmer and George Rodriguez but couldn't put up any points. Malden intercepted a pass and scored in the first half, making it 7-0 Malden at the half. The Everett defense, led by Mike McNeil, Shaun Berry, Jovan Walcott and Shaun O'Brien was strong. Malden scored again to make the final score, 14-0 Malden.

St. Catherine's Hosts Interparish Track Meet

by Bob DeCristoforo

Columbus Day 1990 was another great day for St. Catherine's of Charlestown. The parish not only hosted the Interparish Track Meet at St. John's Seminary in Brighton, but they were very well represented.

Twenty-three boys and girls between the ages of 7 and 14 traveled to the annual event along with relatives and friends.

They joined over 500 other boys and girls from 16 parishes in and around Boston in six events, which included a 100-yard dash, a sack race, a 50-yard dash, a wheelbarrow race, a relay race and a softball throw.

The top three winners in each event received a ribbon, and the top three teams were awarded trophies. The top boy and top girl who received the most points based on the number of ribbons also received trophy awards.

Representing St. Catherine's Parish were Sabrina Pinder, Kairstein Burke, Joli Burke, Artemi Arroyo, Freddie Arroyo, Clinton MacDougall, Patrick Doe, John Fabiano, Mark Harrington, Jim Verril, Jenelle Ortiz, Kelly Gilgunn, Dede Arroyo, Jim Considine, Francis MacDougall, Mike Dacey, Chris Tamburello, Jim McIsaac, Dave Evers, Nicole DeRoeve, Christine Poole, Melissa Pacheco and Allison Evers.

A special thank you to all those who came to watch, to all those who took part, and to all those who helped to make the day a tremendous success.

Tigers From Charlestown

C.Y.O. NEWS by Father Ron Coyne

• Sign-ups For St. Catherine's CYO Basketball — St. Catherine's Parish will sponsor CYO basketball teams for all young people living in St. Catherine's, St. Mary's and St. Francis de Sales parishes. Girls divisions are under 13, under 15 and under 18; boys divisions are under 13, under 15, under 18 and under 20. The young people must be in the particular age division as of January 1, 1991.

Sign-ups will be held in St. Catherine's Parish Hall on Tuesday, Oct. 23 from 6 to 8 p.m. The cost of registration is $15 per person ($25 for a family of two or more). Each child must bring a copy of his/her birth certificate.

Those who sign up will meet their coaches and will be told when and where their first practice will be held. Games will be played from December through February, followed by playoffs. All teams will be travelling to various parishes to play away games, and home games will be played at local gyms. There is still a need for more coaches. Anyone interested in coaching should call Father Coyne at 242-1750. The registration fee will pay for uniforms and equipment. There will be no other cost to families. Referee fees will be raised through fund raising.

Registration is open to girls 11 through 17 and boys 11 through 19.

• Thank You To The Young People For The All Nighter — Some people would think you need your head examined for attempting to take 70 high-school-aged boys and girls on an all-nighter beginning on Friday evening at 6:30 p.m. and continuing through Saturday morning at 6:30 a.m. We understand the apprehension, but we believe young people will respond well when they are given opportunities to enjoy life in a healthy way and when high standards are set for them.

St. Catherine's CYO wants to thank the teen-agers who took part in this memorable night and assured us by their behavior and responsibility that we will do this again.

The evening began as we boarded buses at 6:30 p.m. and headed to Rollerworld in Saugus where we skated from 7 to 9 p.m. This was followed by movies at the Revere Showcase Cinemas at 9:30 p.m. We then headed to the European in the North End for pizza at midnight. At 1:30 a.m. the buses pulled up to the Boys & Girls Club for some team competition in volleyball, basketball and pool. It was then on to the Malden Bowladrome for a 3 a.m. appointment at the alleys. We arrived at Bickford's for breakfast at 5 a.m. and pulled in front of St. Catherine's Church at 6:30 a.m. Did you notice how quiet it was all day Saturday?

We wish to extend special thanks as well to our chaperones who by their unselfishness enabled us to assure parents that their children were well cared for. Adult and young-adult chaperones were: Bob DeCristoforo, Linda Lacey, Father Coyne, Jerry Buckley, Bill Buckley, Mike Tognarelli, Jay Crowley, Steve Fabiano, Billy Hayes and Joey Porter.

Win Tickets For The New England Aquarium's
'Monster Mania'
Halloween Party

The New England Aquarium and The Charlestown Patriot join together to offer Charlestown children and their families an opportunity to win tickets to the aquarium's popular "Monster Mania" Halloween Party.

Charlestown children between the ages of 3 and 12 are asked to draw what they would like to be for Halloween. Five winners will be selected at random from the entries received, and each will be awarded two adult and two children's tickets for "Monster Mania" that will be held at the aquarium's Central Wharf facility on Friday, Oct. 26 from 6 to 8:30 p.m.

Entries should be drawn on one sheet of 8 1/2 x 11 inch paper using crayons, paint or magic markers. The child's name, address, telephone number, age and school should be printed clearly on the back of the drawing.

The entries must reach the Patriot office at One Thompson Square by 4 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 15. The winners will be announced in the Oct. 18 edition of the Patriot.

"Monster Mania" promises to be an exciting event. Hair-raising adventures are planned for this second annual Halloween extravaganza. Ghosts and goblins of all ages and sizes will join in a bewitching evening of tricks and treats on Oct. 26. Hold onto your broomstick in the aquarium's new exhibit "Prehistoric Monsters of the Deep." Come face to face with the ancestors of the great white shark, the giant squid and the Loch Ness monster. Watch for things that go bump in the night at a special Halloween dolphin show. Masked divers, story-telling, games and crafts will round out this fun-filled evening.

Persons who wish to purchase tickets for "Monster Mania," priced at $8 for an adult and $5 for a child, should call 973-5213 for information and reservations before Oct. 11. Children must be accompanied by an adult.

'The Cocktail Hour' Opens At The Wilbur Theatre

A.R. Gurney's comedy "The Cocktail Hour" opened this week at Boston's Wilbur Theatre at 246 Tremont St., and continues through Sunday, Oct. 28. Noted Tony Award-winning actors Fritz Weaver and Elizabeth Wilson star in the production. Featured are Reed Birney and Jean DeBaer.

"The Cocktail Hour" takes place on a fall evening in the mid-70s. A playwright visits his parents' home with his new play based on the family.

The director of "The Cocktail Hour" is David Saint who is currently staging the pre-Broadway tour of "Fame: The Musical," scheduled to open in New York this winter.

Weaver has appeared most recently on Broadway in another Gurney play, "Love Letters" opposite Nancy Marchand. Other Broadway appearances are "Angels Fall," "The Price," "The Chalk Garden," and "Child's Play," for which he won the Tony Award.

Wilson has appeared on Broadway most recently in the Yale Repertory/Arvin Brown production of "Ah, Wilderness" with Jason Robards, Colleen Dew-hurst and George Hearn. She made her Broadway debut in "Picnic," appearing also in the National Company and in the film.

Birney, who plays John the playwright, made his Broadway debut in 1977, played 'ultra-WASP' Randy Hastings in the original cast of the comedy "Gemini." In 1983, he appeared in A.R. Gurney's "The Dining Room." He has appeared in "The Common Pursuit" and in Noel Coward's "Hay Fever."

DeBaer, who plays Nina, John's sister, has appeared in New York in "To Gillian on her 37th Birthday," "Standing On My Knees," "Suicide in B Flat" and "The Elephant Man." THE BLOOD OF JESUS

There is no forgiveness without it.
"Without shedding of blood is no remission," (Heb. 9:22).
It satisfies the holy claims of God.
"When I see the blood, I will pass over you," (Ex. 12:13).
It makes atonement for the soul.
"It is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul," (Lev. 17:11).
It redeems the believer.
"Redeemed ... with the precious blood of Christ," (1 Peter 1:18,19).
It cleanses from all sin.
"The blood of Jesus Christ ... cleanseth us from all sin," (1 John 1:7).
It justifies the believer.
"Being now justified by His blood," (Rom. 5:9).

My Friend, trust in Jesus Christ as your Savior. He will take away the penalty of sin, and the promises of eternal life as found in the Scriptures will be freely yours.

The Rollback Would Go Too Far

To the Editor,
Barbara Anderson and her Citizens for Limited Taxation are pushing their tax rollback petition, Question 3, on the Nov. 6 ballot and, if the results of the Sept. 18 Primary are any indication, voters are angry and could support the rollback overwhelmingly.

If Question 3 becomes law, we as a people have come full circle from the days of former U.S. Senator and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey who believed in government that helped those in need of help. While dying of cancer in December 1977, he gave his final address on the Senate floor and boldly stated, "The moral test of government is how it treats those who are in the dawn of life, the children; those who are in the twilight of life, the aged; and those who are in the shadows of life, the sick, the needy and the handicapped."

Barbara Anderson may be correct that government can not afford to be all things to all people, but will voters support a rollback that will hurt people? I'm voting no on Question 3 because it goes too far.

Sincerely,
Sal Giarratani

Neighborhood Council Opposes Decision Not To Open Rink

John DeVillars
Secretary of Environmental Affairs
Room 2000
100 Cambridge St.
Boston, Mass. 02202

Dear Mr. DeVillars:

The Charlestown Neighborhood Council, by unanimous action, now request that you rescind immediately the decision to halt the early opening of the MDC skating rink. And that you order their immediate re-opening, as previously agreed with the contract signed by the MDC and the Charlestown Youth Hockey League and other Youth Hockey Leagues.

This decision to not open the rinks leaves upward of 200 Charlestown children out on the streets with idle time which too often becomes filled with drugs and criminal activity.

The community, its parents, its volunteers and its leaders all work very hard to provide a healthy environment for the children of Charlestown. Your decision to close these rinks is a major blow and should be withdrawn immediately.

We urge you to open our hockey rinks.

Very truly yours,
Dennis McLaughlin, Chairman
Charlestown Neighborhood Council

(Note: A similar letter was also sent by the council to L. Edward Lashman Jr., Secretary of Administration & Finance.)

Casus Civilli (Civil War)
On Election Day, Nov. 6, 1990

They want to lower our expectations more and more and more.

They want the state to become leaner and more efficient no matter what the cost to us.

They figure they'll make out alright. They are ready to pay to put out their own fires and pay to run their own mail because they can afford to do it, but they want you to stop looking to the state for aid for education and housing and medical coverage while they seek ever more deregulation for themselves.

Who are they? The Heritage Foundation for one. I heard their representative say on National Public Radio:

"The handicapped risk becoming ineffective malcontents if they expect others to bear their burdens and limit their challenges."

That means those of us who have been receiving 'Human Services' because we are physically or mentally or occupationally or chronologically disabled.

Who else are they? The American Enterprise Institute for another. I read their statement in the Boston Globe:

"The most entrenched clients have to be shaken out of their routine."

That means even those of us who are the temporarily able-bodied and able-minded, employed in private enterprise, who have been asked again and again in the 1980s and now in the 1990s to foot the bill because they say there is no money. No money? State revenues in Massachusetts from business are down, but in 1989, 40,000 businesses in Massachusetts contributed only $556 in taxes to the Commonwealth!

No money in taxes paid to the state? Sure, and that's alright with the Hi-Tech Council. They see nothing wrong with businesses run to pay no taxes as if they were Human Service Agencies.

Don't let them get away with it. Stop the cuts!

Vote NO on PROP 2 which would take away 40,000 jobs in the private sector and increase state government.

Vote NO on PROP 3 which would feather the nests of Hi-Tech CEOs already earning over $300,000 a year.

Vote NO on PROP 5 which would be only a short-run panacea for cities and towns and would abandon the young, the uneducated, the disabled, the retired, the homeless, the poor and the soon-to-be poor.

Elliot H. Rosenberg

Newman Prep School Announces Entrance/Scholarship Exam Dates

Newman Preparatory School has announced that the annual Entrance/Scholarship Examination for young men and women entering ninth and 10th grades will be on Saturday, Dec. 1; Saturday, Jan. 12; or Wednesday, Feb. 20. All exams will be held at the Newman School at 245 Marlborough St., Boston, and will begin at 10 a.m.

The examination establishes eligibility for admission and also determines if a student is able to qualify for a four-year scholarship to Newman Prep. Last year, the admission granted full and partial (half) scholarships to over 30 percent of the candidates, according to Francis L. Donelan, dean of the school.

To register for this exam, a student need only call the school at 267-4530 or 267-7070 and give his/her name, address, telephone number and school presently attending. No fee is charged for this testing.

Thank You For Thinking Of The Servicemen

I sure appreciate the paper (The Patriot) being sent every week. I received the first one today, Sept. 29. It's nice to know the people back home are thinking about us and supporting us. I am with an artillery battalion dug in about 40 miles from the border.

My address has changed from the one you published, it is now:

Gunnery Sgt. S.J. Driscoll
HQ Bat. 5th BN 11th MAR
Operation Desert Shield
FPO San Francisco, CA 96608-5523

I grew up at 20 Mystic St. My wife Becky and children Jennifer, 11, Stephen Jr., 9 and Nicholas Joseph, 4, are now residing in 29 Palms, Calif. My mother, Marge Driscoll, retired to Florida.

I lived in C-Town all my life and was known by the nickname "Deno." I graduated from Charlestown High, class of '75 and joined the Marine Corps in June '75. I attended St. Francis de Sales, grades one through eight. I was an altar boy there also.

Over the years I've kind of fallen out of touch with a lot of my old friends. But I'd like to say thanks again to all the people of Charlestown for their support. I hope to be home soon.

P.S.: I hope to have some pictures soon. I will forward some to you!
