MWRA Mitigation Committee Continues To Seek Community Input

"I care a lot about the process," stated Allston Street resident Karen Konuch, "and keeping principles before personalities is going to be what makes this mitigation happen. This is at the forefront of my own thinking and I hope it is so with the Neighborhood Council and whoever else's influence touches this mitigation agreement so at the bottom line we have a good solid agreement . . . for those of us who are directly impacted and for all of those folks in the community who will benefit from this agreement."

Preliminary discussions on mitigation measures took place over the past few months as the Massachusetts Water Resources Authority (MWRA) prepared to assume tenancy of the former Revere Sugar site on Medford Street for use as an equipment transfer facility. Based on information gathered at these meetings and using the Winthrop mitigation plan as a model, a draft agreement was prepared by the Charlestown Mitigation Committee as a stimulus to elicit input from residents at Monday night's public hearing.

While there were points of disagreement on several aspects of the draft at the

Receives Access Scholarship

ACCESS, the Boston business community's program to help the City's public school graduates afford college, awarded 82 students "last dollar" scholarships, ranging in amounts from $220 to $3,500. The average grant this year was $1,650. Among the scholarship recipients was Kim Reid of Charlestown.

ACCESS helps students pay for college in two ways. A team of financial aid counsellors guide students through the maze of available financial aid including state and federal grants, student loans, work/study programs, existing scholarship funds. If students are still short the full tuition costs, ACCESS provides "last dollar" scholarships to fill the gap.

First In Series Of Meetings On Proposed Development Of Tudor Wharf

by Kathy Giordano

The Housing and Development Committee of the Charlestown Neighborhood Council met on Tuesday, August 23, to discuss the future development of Tudor Wharf. David Keller of Myerson/Allen, the developer of the parcel, informed those in attendance that the developer requested the meeting in order to include the community's input from the beginning, basic stages of the development process and continue the dialogue right through the completion of the project.

Keller said that an Environmental Impact Study has been filed with the Secretary of Environmental Affairs and a published report will be made available at the Charlestown Branch Library within three weeks for residents to study and make comments to the Secretary. Keller also stated that the developer had recently hired the architectural team of CBT of Boston but as of yet there is no design for the structure.

Tudor Wharf is situated on Water Street at Charles River Avenue, adjacent to the North Washington Street Bridge in City Square. The 300,000 square foot parcel of land has often been referred to as the "gateway to Charlestown" since its location at the foot of the bridge is on the Freedom Trail and one of the first sites visible entering Charlestown from the North End.

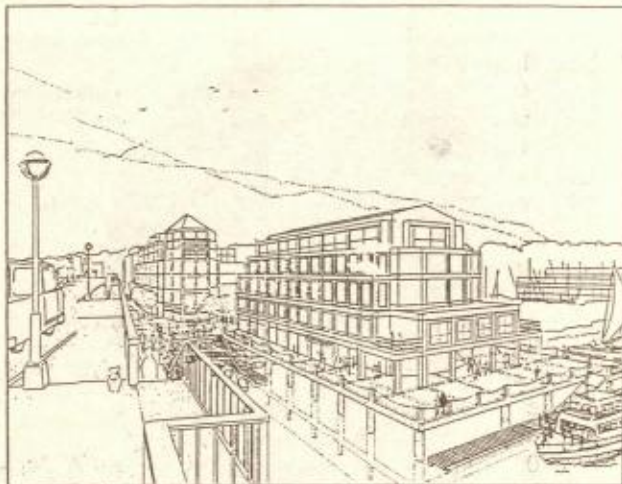

Currently located on the site are the Rapids Furniture building and a box company. These two structures will be razed to make way for the new construction. The developer plans to erect two buildings, both six story structures with a seven story tower connected to the building closest to Water Street. A separation between the two buildings will allow for a walkway under the bridge from the Paul Revere Park.

The height of the buildings was the subject of much concern from residents present at the meeting. Keller stated that the height of the tower would reach 74 feet at its peak and the six-story building would be approximately 60 feet high. When asked the height of Roughan's in City Square, the tallest building in the area, Keller said that it was 72 feet 11 inches to the roof line. He also stated that the Harborpark Interim Planning Overlay District (IPOD) guideline sets a limit of 65 feet while the Central Artery North Area (CANA) project's guideline is 55 feet.

Council member Ken Stone expressed his concerns with the planned building heights at the water's edge, suggesting that developers of all future buildings that will be planned after the completion of the CANA project in City Square will want their buildings to be higher for an ocean view. These sentiments were echoed by others in attendance. Keller said that the developer would be happy with the 65 foot limit set for City Square. Stone suggested that the committee look at the buildings surrounding the site to estimate the desired height requirements that the community would be content with.

Residents were fearful that allowing this developer to build a structure 74 feet high would set a precedent for all future development in that area. Myerson/Allen has stated through their representative David Keller that they are willing to trade off, but at the same time informed the residents that "the more you build, the more we can give back (through linkage money). We need a certain mass to make the project work." That "certain mass" will be surely determined at future meetings.

This meeting is only the first of many planned to discuss the development of the site.

New BHCC President Stresses Active Community Involvement

by Lynn Peters

Budget cuts leave recently installed Bunker Hill Community College (BHCC) president Dr. Piedad Robertson with concerns, while she praises the faculty and staff her retired predecessor Harold E. Shively left behind.

In what Robertson describes as the worst education budget year ever in the state of Massachusetts, the former vice president for Education and Chief Student and Academic Affairs Officer at Miami-Dade Community College in Florida says, "Of all the institutions that provide an open door to education, the community colleges, Bunker Hill in particular, was hit the worst." Robertson says BHCC has $850,000 less to work with which translates to a loss of four or five employees and 200 student seats.

Robertson will concentrate on organizing a foundation to create money for the college, which serves some 7,000 daytime and continuing education students in the area. Without making any personnel changes, Robertson says she has called on the deans to support her efforts to be "less involved internally and more externally."

By externally the 50-year-old Cuba native, means getting out of the confines of the president's office and mixing with the community. On the task force for International Education for the American Association of Community and Junior Colleges and a consultant and committee chairperson for the American Council of Education, Robertson wants BHCC to be more involved with local Charlestown businesses and organizations. She sees possibilities to develop partnerships with businesses to provide or supplement training programs and opportunities to work with parent-teacher groups.

"I'd like for Charlestown to see Bunker Hill as its community college," Robertson says, "To help with issues and problems as well as to share the good times." Daytime students from Charlestown account for about 100 of the 3,000 enrolled at BHCC.

Crediting her father for instilling civic mindedness in his children, Robertson says she was brought up with a sense of responsibility for the community. With her more than 20 years experience in education, she says she has chosen to teach and work administratively with community colleges because of the local involvement factor. All four of her children attended or graduated from their neighborhood community college.

Robertson says she plans to work closer with students and families thinking about college for the first time at the junior high and high school levels, as well as homemakers and women returning to or starting college later. Concerned with the current high drop-out rates and students who need more personalized programs, Robertson's agenda for change and enhancement includes child care centers and technological and medical education programs. The Chelsea extension already has funding for child care.

Since Robertson's move to Charlestown a few weeks ago, she has already had the brush with the town's typical parking woes. She says one of the first things she will do is issue student parking permits, opposite of a long-standing college policy not to, for the open lot BHCC has been using. Robertson intends to continue the fight for the space, which the college community has traditionally felt entitled to. The MBTA has been showing interest in building a multi-level parking structure on the lot for "T" riders.

"My first interest is to serve the students," Robertson says of her plans to discourage commuters from eating up the number of ever-diminishing parking spots caused by construction around the site. "It's an effort to keep people from thinking of us as a parking possibility." Students with cars will be encouraged to use public transportation when possible, Robertson adds.

A resident of the Charlestown Navy Yard now, Robertson says she hopes BHCC will also appeal to her neighbors and that business community. Hoping the differences between the Charlestown and Navy Yard neighborhoods will gradually disappear, Robertson wants the college to be involved there.

Robertson, who is fascinated with her Constitution Quarters apartment, says, "I like the blend of the people and the idea of providing affordable and low-income housing. There is the opportunity for educational and cultural stimulation there too."

"...a one-man consumer watchdog" on your auto insurance rates.

That's how the Boston Globe* describes Senator Fran Doris.

On June 1 of this year, the Boston Globe described Senator Fran Doris, as "a one-man consumer watchdog" on the subject of consumer automobile insurance rates.

The Globe says "Perhaps Doris' finest political hours came...when he joined a lawsuit charging the state's auto insurance rating system with discrimination."

"The insurance companies were forced to drop their practice of setting rates based on a driver's sex, age and marital status..."

"...and had to return more than $50 million in rebates, mostly to urban customers."

And again this year, Fran Doris has taken the auto insurance companies to Federal Court, charging that they discriminate against good drivers because of where they live.

And that's not all he's done. He's saved medical patients an estimated $245 million by preventing hospitals from billing patients for balances not covered by health insurance or elderly MEDEX. He co-sponsored legislation stopping Boston Gas from billing $10 million extra to its customers.

How can Fran Doris accomplish so much on your behalf? Because he has earned the respect of his colleagues as a hard-working FULL-TIME Senator.

No first-time challenger gets that kind of respect. You have to earn it. The hard way.

Then you can get things done...for your district, for the consumers in Massachusetts.

It takes time — FULL time — to become a Senator as effective as Fran Doris.

Remember that on Election Day, Thursday, September 15.

CAPS Flea Market To Benefit Charlestown Headstart

Do you want to have a yard sale, but you don't have a yard? Are your white elephants threatening to stampede? Are your arts and crafts looking for a market?

CAPS, the Charlestown Association of Parents, has the answer to these needs. On the weekend of September 17 and 18, CAPS will hold a Flea Market at the Training Field from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on both days. (If both days are rained out, the Flea Market will be held on the Training Field the next weekend.) Bring your own table or blanket.

A fee of $10 per space per day, in addition to the proceeds of the CAPS bake sale table, will be donated to the Kennedy Center to support the Headstart program.

Reserve your space by calling Barbara Poole at 242-2316 or 925-3364; Connie McNally at 242-1132; or Jane Philippi at 241-8185.

CAPS also welcomes new members. With a current membership of about 120 families, CAPS sponsors numerous family-oriented activities such as picnics, an annual performing arts series, dances and winter skating parties. Dues are only $10 a year per family. If you would like to join in the fun, send a check payable to CAPS to Pat Johnston, 43 Monument Avenue, Charlestown, MA 02129.

*What we would give, if we could say
Hello, Ma, in the same old way.
To hear your voice, to see your smile,
To sit with you and chat awhile.*

*It's lonely here without you, Ma.
We miss you more each day,
For life isn't the same for us
Since you were called away.*

*Each time we see your picture,
It seems to smile and say,
Don't worry, I'm only sleeping.
We'll meet again someday.*

*For those of you have a mother,
Treat her with loving care.
For you'll never know the heartache
'Till you see her vacant chair.*

A million times we've cried.
If love could only have saved you, Ma,
You never would have died.*

Life Behind The Wall

by Ronan FitzPatrick

When not reviewing reports and voting for the good of the town's economy, Charlestown Neighborhood Council member Chris Page seeks asylum aboard his Larson power boat. Docked at the Shipways Marina, the boat was active over the steaming summer months. As he navigated the sleek boat around Pier Eight, the party of three offered their assistance with the nautical charts. A blissful afternoon was experienced by the foursome. Returning to its slip in front of the Marina Command Building and adjacent to the soon to be finished affordable housing complex, Chris and his party relished the late afternoon weather before securing the craft until its next voyage. I didn't observe any drafts on council business, the only drafts visible were the long awaited refreshing ones.

This weekend will be a major one for Warren, a Shipways resident and the love of his life Carla. They will exchange wedding vows and regale in all the traditions of a great reception with family and friends. As the Yard's resident jeweler with an office downtown, Warren didn't have to shop at Shreve, Crump and Low or Tiffany's to adorn Carla's finger. For this precious person, Warren prepared a precious stone from his inventory that was well received by Carla. As this young couple departs on their journey through life together, the very best from the neighbors.

It is heresy for the men and boys of summer to sit on the bench, after all their active participation is paramount for victory. The game that two of the Navy Yard men play revolves around security and observations. Their playing fields are on First Avenue within 70 yards of each other. These professionals would indeed be appreciative of a bench or two. "Townies" Joe Crilley and Jim Kent at their working locations, the Ironsides and Carriage Buildings, certainly deserve a bench for a short respite or monitoring the stream of activity. Always team players, Joe and Jim are a joy to see along First Avenue, sharing their banter and humor. So, if you are in possession of a surplus suitable deacon's bench, contact Joe or Jim. I am sure it will serve the purpose to season's end.

In the best interest of security or overreacting, the security team serving the Constellation Condominiums organization at Pier Seven has drawn the ire of several residents of the close by Anchorage Apartments. On numerous times, individuals were told by security that sitting on the cement wall was forbidden. Keep in mind, the people enjoying the views and gentle breeze from this vantage point are an oar's stroke away from the public viewing sign. Erected to encourage the open public space, the enforcement by the security is a contradiction at best. These residents are exercising a right that is afforded to all. Unless there is some further explanation for the action, the residents should be able to continue their sunset watching with serenity.

As the four contemporary stretch limousines motorized away from Pier Eight with its recently returned passengers having had a marvelous cruise, another contingent arrived. The Pier was extremely busy with foot and vehicle traffic as the recording of the Beach Boy's surfing was blaring from another of a host of cruise boats. A resurgence of economic property is increasing at a fast rate with daily developments and improvements along the piers. Dormant for years, the existing and forthcoming capital projects can only enhance the once fallow acreage.

It has been noticed that a few yachts are for sale at the marinas. Individual judgment must be exercised to determine the value of a purchase. From the Constitution Marina as well as at Piers Six and Eight, there is plenty to scan for the use in the short '88 season and the long '89 one. One with an old testament connotation is the Elyah, berthed at Shipyard Quarters Marina. Endurance and greatness is in the name. Maybe this 28-foot Carver will be just right for the eager boat hunter. If so give a call to S.Q.M. for the particulars.

A proper setting for Connie Christopher's family party honoring her son's recent accomplishment was the recreation room at the Anchorage. A lifelong "Townie," Connie was bubbling over with pride and love after her son, Tony, successfully completed the two day Pan-Massachusetts Challenge. A neophyte at bicycling, Tony prepared for this worthwhile event, benefiting the Jimmy Fund, by doing 80 miles a week.

Among the committee's recommendations are that the election will be held on September 24 and there will be a residency requirement in order to be eligible to vote. Candidates for the Council would be required to obtain nomination papers and secure 25 signatures. Details will be available following tonight's meeting.

Those members elected last year from Charlestown's seven precincts will not be required to seek reelection this year as their terms expire in 1989.

According to McLaughlin, as of November, the Council will consist of 21 members — seven elected from the precincts, seven elected at-large and seven appointed from Charlestown organizations from a process as yet to be determined.

The public is welcome to attend the Election Committee meeting tonight at 7 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 75 West School Street.

In the contest for Clerk of the Supreme Judicial Court for Suffolk County, ONE candidate stands out above the rest — and that candidate is Joseph A. Ligotti

That's because Joe Ligotti is the ONLY candidate with the EXPERIENCE (13 years as an assistant clerk in the SJC) to handle the complex job of running the single justice session of the highest court in the Commonwealth.

If you cast your vote for any of the other candidates, you'll be voting for someone with NO experience and NO qualifications for this important office.

It's as simple as that. So on Primary Day, Thursday, September 15, cast your vote for COMPETENCE in the Supreme Judicial Court.

sparingly attended hearing, there was public support for a majority of the issues.

Committee Chairman Moe Gillen pointed out the disclaimer on the first page of the draft that stated the purpose of the document was for review, alteration and approval by Charlestown residents — adding that the statement did not say approval by any special interest group.

Support was indicated for the sections of the draft relative to environmental issues, enforcement procedures, transportation, utility coordination, road repairs, fire fighting and ambulance service-emergency response plan and access.

A connector road between the Revere Sugar site and Terminal Street and the eventual construction of a dedicated service road extending from Sullivan Square along the railroad right-of-way to the Navy Yard received unanimous support. Resident Elaine McCarthy stated that this was the most important aspect of the agreement and her sentiments were echoed by abutters Gene DeVito, Judy McConnell and Karen Konuch, whose husband, Bob, has submitted a plan to MWRA for such a connector road. Also, Ron Taylor has prepared a map of a proposed service road.

McCarthy added that there should be a push for police to move the trucks in and out of Charlestown.

There were several sections of the draft that were criticized by residents at the meeting.

MWRA Mitigation Committee Continues To Seek Community Input

Longshoremen

Outside the mitigation agreement but included in the draft was a "Statement Of Good Intent" in support of the "jurisdictional rights of the International Longshoremen's Association to waterfront jobs associated with the Revere Site operations."

Council member Bill Galvin took exception to this statement, stating that he "was in total disagreement," although he "was a long-time supporter of unions." He stated that "only a small percentage of Longshoremen are residents of Charlestown."

Galvin said that "if the ILA would guarantee 25 to 30 percent of the jobs on the waterfront for Charlestown residents and enter into a program to actively recruit Charlestown residents, then I would have a different feeling."

Ed Connolly from the ILA, who is also a resident of Charlestown, countered that the union doesn't have a "closed shop — anyone can go down and get an application but there are 250 guys in the hiring hall — 12 gangs — with an average of two gangs called a day." He said, that leaves "185 people loafing each day, no matter what town they come from."

John "Buster" Woods added that the ILA members "aren't becoming fat cats — they are fighting for survival."

Connolly said that he recently presented the Neighborhood Council with a "petition containing 200 to 300 names of pensioners and widows who live in Charlestown" and derive "their pension and health care benefits through hours worked on the waterfront." Connolly said that he could think of over 100 ILA members who live in Charlestown and would "get a petition [with the names] and bring it back to the next meeting."

The ongoing battle between Galvin and Connolly initially erupted some months ago at one of the early Mitigation Committee meetings. At Monday's meeting, Galvin said, "Ed Connolly and I fight over this all the time. He has every right to support his union and support that right. I support my right to fight for Charlestown jobs for Charlestown people." Galvin added that he questioned whether residents would support the jurisdiction of the ILA "if they knew how few Charlestown people were actually on the waterfront."

One Time Grant To The Kennedy Center

A grant for funds to enable the Kennedy Center to start the rehabilitation of the Old Kent School was the second item in the "Statement Of Good Faith Intent." It was pointed out that this would be a one time grant for an amount not specified in the document.

Prefacing his remarks that he was a long-time supporter of the Kennedy Center and had been a member of their board, Galvin stated that he would not like to see the focus of all this money go to the Kennedy Center. He pointed out that there were numerous "social service agencies, social-cultural institutions and needy nonprofit groups."

Official Mitigation Representative (OMR)

Galvin was not pleased with the apparent delegation of almost total authority to one person, the OMR, to conduct negotiations on behalf of the community.

Grant/Trust

Aspects of the section of the MOU dealing with a request from MWRA for $1 million per year for the life of the project was questioned by several residents.

Galvin said there should be a public hearing relative to how the community deals with the administration of any fund that comes into the town. He recommended one major board, similar to the United Way, where nonprofit groups would present requests, there would be a review process and grants would be distributed on an annual basis.

He also noted that it was unclear whether the principal on such a grant would be disbursed or only the interest, in which case the principal would be available for use in perpetuity.

Connolly disagreed with the format of the proposed board of trustees and Ron Taylor said that the focus should be on those organizations that have no or minimal funding and that the funds should be disbursed

"Isn't it about time the politicians stopped talking about high auto insurance ... and started doing something about it?"

Tom Birmingham thinks so.

"Over the past ten years the big insurance companies in Massachusetts have gotten away with murder. You and other car owners are paying a billion dollars more than you did a decade ago. And who knows how high the companies' profits have grown in those ten years.

"But they just don't quit. They send their high priced lobbyists -- paid for with your money -- up to Beacon Hill to cry on the shoulder of your State Senator about how they are going to pull out of Massachusetts if they're not allowed to hike rates even further.

"Shut down an operation making millions a year? Come on!

"What do the politicians do? Well, they whisper 'yes' to the lobbyists and vote for the pro-industry bill in the middle of the night. Then they go to the TV cameras and the newspapers and tell you about the rebates and Lemon Laws they passed years ago. And you get bills in the mail demanding more -- for last year!

"When I am in the State Senate, I'll have just one word for the insurance companies ... 'NO!'

"My family can't afford business as usual up on Beacon Hill anymore. And neither can yours!"

Family And Friends Join In A "Charlestown Salute To Jim Vesey"

Over 500 friends and family members gathered at the Knights of Columbus Hall on Friday, August 19 to join in a "Charlestown Salute To Jim Vesey."

Vesey is a graduate of Christopher Columbus High School where he led his hockey team to a Catholic Conference title as a senior and won a pair of MVP awards and scoring titles.

He was then off to Merrimack College, making an immediate impact on the Merrimack Warriors hockey program. He led the club in goals, completed his first collegiate season with 30 points and was named Merrimack's "rookie of the year."

Vesey led the team in goals, assists and points during his sophomore year. He was the first sophomore in Merrimack history to be named a first-team All-America All-Star. In addition, he was an ECAC All-Star.

In his junior year, Vesey

East Tournament MVP.

Vesey's college hockey career culminated with his being named the East winner of the Hobey Baker Memorial Award — the top college hockey award in the United States.

Now its off to a career in professional hockey with the St. Louis Blues — but not before this town could tell Vesey how proud the residents are of his accomplishments and wish him well.

Master of Ceremonies for the event, Mike Donovan, stated, "It was a great tribute — indicative of the esteem in which Vesey is held. The 'Salute' was organized in two week's time for an August night in the middle of vacations and the hall was packed."

Dennis McLaughlin chaired the "Salute" committee, assisted by a dedicated group of residents. Bob Wallace handled the ticket sales.

Thanks To Ted Horne

I would like to say thanks to Ted Horne for all the many times he has gone out of his way to help me during the last eight years as the maintenance man of the Mary Colbert Apartments. I am sorry to see him go.

A big thank you to my Maid of Honor, Christine, and to my Bridesmaid, Mandy.

Thanks again,

A Special Thank You

A special thank you to the two courageous young gentlemen passing by 21 Oak Street on the Saturday morning of July 23, who rescued us from the fire.

We didn't know who they were, but they saved our lives.
Our sincerest thanks,
George and Loretta Connolly

P.S.: Also, thank you to the Boston Fire Department. You did a wonderful job.

Russ Smith Deserves Thanks

Dear Editor,

Now that the Courageous Sailing Center is coming to an end for the summer, I think Russell Smith, the program's director, deserves a big thanks from the community and the city, for the great job he has done. He organized the qualified staff and the numerous kids who enjoyed the summer. If it wasn't for Mr. Smith, these 80 to 95 kids a day wouldn't have learned to sail and beat the heat waiting for the pool to open. You did a great job, Russ!!!!

Responds To Letter

Dear Senator Doris:

I read with interest your letter which was addressed to me but which appeared in the Letters to the Editor of the Charlestown Patriot on August 18, 1988.

In your letter you attempted to excuse your refusal to debate me by suggesting that there were no "issues of substance of which the voters of the district necessitated more information."

With all respect, this statement merely reflects how out-of-touch you have grown from the concerns of the voters of the district in general and of Charlestown in particular.

I have gone door to door throughout Charlestown and there are plenty of issues the voters want to hear about here.

Like auto insurance. Charlestown drivers pay the very highest auto insurance rates in the state. What have you done over the past ten years as vice-chair of the Insurance Committee to end the discriminatory rates Charlestown residents are forced to pay?

To add insult to injury, Charlestown drivers recently received retroactive bills, charging them again for insurance coverage bought and paid for years ago. Yet, on July 16 at 5:00 a.m. you voted to push through a pro-industry insurance bill which would have guaranteed insurance companies the right to continue retroactive billing. Believe me, the voters of Charlestown want to hear the explanation for that vote.

As I go door to door in Charlestown, I hear constant complaints about the lack of housing which working people can afford to buy. The lack of affordable housing threatens the very fabric of the community and is an issue which Charlestown residents want some answers on.

Once again, I must call on you to reconsider your refusal to debate and to rejoin the American political process by agreeing to open discussion of the issues that are facing us now and in the years ahead.

Very truly yours,
Thomas F. Birmingham

Proud Of Tom Jackson

The people of Charlestown should be proud of Tom Jackson for the help he gave the two seniors who had fallen on the wet pavement at the Wednesday night concert at City Hall Plaza. It had rained and the concert had to be stopped. It was postponed until the next night, August 18th.

One lady in particular fell and Tom grabbed her, but not before the lady had done considerable damage to her leg. Another lady fell and banged her cheek and leg.

Tom stayed with both ladies until the ambulances arrived. Not just stopping there, he went to the hospital with the ladies and stayed with them to make sure they were alright.

An afternote is that on Thursday night when I was at the concert I met the lady that had hurt her cheek and leg. She was able to come home, but I understand they kept the lady with the injured leg in the hospital. Neither Tom nor I got that lady's name, but I would like to thank Tom myself for the good job he did. We'll make you a doctor yet, Tommy.

Too often people have a negative view about us "Townies." I'm sure both ladies have a different opinion about the people of Charlestown now. Thanks, Tom, for a job well done.

Appreciate Park Department Help

Mr. William Coughlin
Parks and Recreation
Boston City Hall
Boston, MA 02201

Dear Commissioner:

I am writing this letter on behalf of The Friends of the John Harvard Mall for the purpose of expressing our appreciation. Over the past year, we have had the pleasure of working with the Parks Department maintenance crew assigned to our area. Every time we have met them in the park they have been hard at work and courteous. Furthermore, on many occasions they have gone out of their way to accommodate our needs and have displayed a genuine interest in the Mall's condition.

As you know, maintaining a park is a very labor intensive endeavor and finding good people to meet the challenge is not easy. I can assure you that in Mr. Louis Lauria, Mr. Edward Sicilano, Mr. James RiCupero, Mr. Louis Geata and Mr. Robert Dacey, the people making up the above mentioned crew, the Parks Department has found such people. We consider ourselves fortunate to have them in our neighborhood and look forward to working with them for many years to come.

Sincerely,
Thomas V. Desmond, Director

Massport Defeats Little League In Benefit Softball Game

by John Curtin

Massport defeated Charlestown Little League managers, coaches and officers in the Fourth Annual Benefit Softball Game by the score of 6-2. This friendly rivalry between Massport and the Charlestown Little League organization benefits the youngsters of Charlestown Little League.

It was a good fast game. Massport played a great defensive game and capitalized on five runs after two outs. Charlestown led 2-1 up to that point.

Not taking anything away from Massport, but our players did great considering we only play one game a year. They made several great plays, but it was not our night.

Number One Massport man Dave Davis did a good job at first base. We had to take it easy on Phil Orlandella who was playing third base. If we got him mad, he might close the airport. It was nice to see Bill Lynch again. He won his letter in the Charlestown Little League.

Massport Roster: Tom Coleman, Bill Lynch, Jim Conso, Phil Orlandella, Dave Davis, Chris Ferraro, John Spellman, Steve McHugh and Dorothy Connolly.

Charlestown Little League Roster: Pat McKeon, Rick Curtin, Pete McGill, Bill McKeon, Robbie McIntosh, Paul Allwood, Paul Kavenaugh, Keith McKeon, Lester Boyce, Kevin Connolly, Sheri Krol, Bill Smith and John Curtin.

Umpire: Ed Greator
Scorekeeper: Bob Murray

Our sincere thanks to Massport for their generous check!

Note: Metro Police Officer Bill Connell expressed his apologies for not attending this annual event. He said that even though he had it on his calendar, it slipped his mind and he was most disappointed as he truly enjoys this game.

Charlestown Town Team Wins Third Football Game In A Row

Quarterback Paul Soracco ran for one touchdown, threw for another and tossed a conversion pass to lead the Charlestown "Townies" to a shutout victory over winless Tri-Town on Saturday, August 20 at Tri-County Regional High School in Worcester.

The first touchdown came in the second period on a two yard run by Soracco. A PAT kick by John Toyias made the score Charlestown 7, Tri-Town Tigers 0.

The second and final touchdown of the game was on a 25 yard pass from Soracco to Leo Boucher. A PAT pass from Soracco to Jeff McCarthy resulted in the final score of "Townies" 15, Tri-Town 0.

Charlestown is currently in fourth place in the Eastern Football League (EFL) standings with three wins and two losses.

Charlestown quarterback Paul Soracco received honorable mention as EFL Player of the Week.

Several "Townie" players are among the EFL stat leaders. Jeff McCarthy is in fourth place in pass receiving with 170 yards for an average of 17.7; John Toyias is fourth in placekicking for a total of 11 points and is also third in punting with nine for 345 yards; Jim Donovan is fourth in kickoff returns with four for 97 yards; and Bob Allen is first in sacks with four with Alan Roycroft and Lenny Bellino both credited with three sacks each.

Charlestown has a Bye this week. The next "Townie" Football Game will be on Friday, September 2 at 7:30 p.m. when they face Cape Cod at the Charlestown High School Field on Medford Street.

Pop Warner Organization Seeks Equipment From Last Year's Players

Leo Boucher, president of Charlestown Pop Warner, has issued a plea for all of last year's players to return any football equipment belonging to the organization that they still have in their possession.

Boucher said that much of last year's equipment has not been returned and the organization has to know what they have so that they know what to order for this season. He said that equipment should be returned to the Charlestown Community School at 255 Medford Street.

According to Boucher, running practice was scheduled to start on Wednesday, August 24 and that coaches will have notified the players by that time. He said that hitting practice will not begin until the players are fully equipped as the risk of injury is too great unless they are properly outfitted.

Boucher stated that the applications from registration are ready to go and the coaching staff is set — all that is needed is the return of equipment. Any parents with questions should call Bob McGann at 242-2770 or Leo Boucher at 242-3726.

BHA Basketball: A Charlestown Success!

by Bob DeCristoforo

Over the past few months I have been most fortunate to direct the Boston Housing Authority (BHA) Basketball program in Charlestown.

The Clinic League was held at the Kent Community School for an eight week period. The first part of the program was a relatively rough basketball camp with emphasis on conditioning and fundamentals. The 'camp' was then divided into four teams led by Captains Steve Power, Roger Britton, Michael Connell and John Rivers.

An All-Star team was selected by the players to represent Charlestown in the BHA Jamboree held at Wentworth Institute in Boston. Members of the All-Star Team were Roger Britton, Dave Matson, Steve Power, Billy Hayes, Mike Connell, John Rivers, Steven Fabiano and Derek Gallagher.

After the regular nine game season, a playoff and championship series was held. In the semifinals, Team Rivers defeated Team Power and Team Connell defeated Team Britton. In the championship finals, Team Rivers defeated Team Connell.

With the help of Andy Puopolo/Massport, the BHA and the Charlestown Teen Connection, all participants received awards. Steven Fabiano was named League MVP, Danny Martell and Bill McKillop shared the UnSung Award, and Ron Harrington was named the Most Improved Player.

Special awards were presented to those players who took part in some special area wide tryouts for the '88 Bay State Games, the A.A.U. Youth Team and the US Youth Games. This delegation included Steve Fabiano, Bobby Chase, John Rivers, Roger Britton, Rori Doherty, Steve Power and Ron Harrington. This is the first time such a large group of "Townies" took part in these Tryouts.

A special congratulations to Roger Britton who qualified among the top 25 in the Bay State Games Metropolitan (Boston) Team Tryout.

Through the BHA, we also had the opportunity to put a Charlestown Team in the Fast Break '88 League at the Fens on Saturday mornings and as an off shoot of the program, many of the All-Stars will be involved in playing some games around the city for the remainder of the summer.

The success of this relatively new basketball program in Charlestown should mean even greater success in the future. My thanks to all those who helped to make the program go, and a very special thanks to all the young people for participating. Charlestown Pride certainly abounds in them, and they have made the past few months very enjoyable for me.

Participated In The Ninth Annual Pan-Massachusetts Challenge

John Eldredge, Dan Rozen and Shauna White of Charlestown and Tony Christopher, formerly of Charlestown, completed the 1988 Pan-Massachusetts Challenge (PMC) sponsored by Bank of New England. The 194-mile bicycling event raised more than $800,000 for the Dana-Farber Institute's Jimmy Fund.

More than 900 individuals participated in the two-day event, which began on Saturday, August 13, in Sturbridge and ended on Sunday, August 14, in Provincetown on Cape Cod.

The riders spent Saturday evening at the Mass. Maritime Academy in Buzzards Bay where they enjoyed food and entertainment, compliments of PMC. Each rider was required to secure a minimum of $600 in pledge sponsors to participate in the event.

Charlestown Based Ski Club Formed

A new organization, The Consitution Ski & Recreation Club (CSRC), has recently been formed by a group of residents. The purpose of CSRC is to provide skiers, sailors, tennis players and other sports participants a chance to meet others with the same interests and to organize ski trips and other activities.

The club emphasizes the social benefits of participation and will provide instruction for raw beginners and intermediate levels. Members will receive a quarterly newsletter, invitations to socials and eligibility for group rates on ski trips and other adventures.

The first official activity will be the Wild World of Sports Party, a social at Champions Sports Bar at the Marriott Copley Place, on September 8 beginning at 8 p.m. This social will benefit the Special Olympics by raising donations for their April Trip to the International Winter Special Olympics in Reno. The celebrity guest will be "Eddie the Eagle" Edwards, the infamous and colorful British Olympic Ski Jumper.

Ski trips are already planned to Zermatt, Aspen, Park City (Utah) and a couple of weekend trips to New England areas.

Membership is open to everyone and is not limited to residents of Charlestown. For more information and a membership application, contact CSRC at 242-7848 or stop by Marathon Tours & Travel at 108 Main Street.

Charlestown Little League To Hold First Annual Awards Banquet

The First Annual Charlestown Little League Awards Banquet will take place Saturday night, September 10 at 7 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 75 West School Street. All players will receive an award.

To make this a success for the kids, we must have the cooperation of the parents. It is important that you attend. You will receive tickets in the mail. The players, managers, coaches, officers and invited guests will not need tickets.

We are assured that one or more of the Red Sox players will be there. Invited guests include Jim Walsh from the Parks and Recreation Department, Senator Fran Doris, Representative Richard Voke, City Councillor Bob Travaglini and others.

Metro Police Officer Bill Connell will be the Master of Ceremonies.

Extra tickets are available by calling John Curtin at 241-7522, Bill McKeon at 241-9066, Beverly Johnson at 242-2439 or Lester Boyce. You may pay at the door. Tickets are $5.00 each.

LITTLE LEAGUE MEETING

There will be a Little League meeting on Wednesday, August 31 at 8 p.m. at Memorial Hall on 14 Green Street. All Little League personnel must attend. It is a very important meeting.

Thank you,
John Curtin

Draft Memorandum Of Understanding

A draft Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) concerning mitigation measures being sought between the Massachusetts Water Resources Authority (MWRA) and the Charlestown community was prepared by the Charlestown Mitigation Committee as a basis for discussion, review and alteration by the residents of Charlestown. The highlights are presented here and comments are welcome.

Comments should be forwarded to Judy Evers, community liaison, Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services, Room 709A, Boston City Hall, Boston, MA 02201 (telephone 725-3485) by Thursday, September 8.

Statement Of Good Faith Intent

The Charlestown Mitigation Committee recognizes that while it serves the interests of the community as a whole, there are special areas of concern which have been identified over the course of the mitigation meetings.

Therefore, as a Good Faith precedent to the acceptance of the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU), we ask for the support from the MWRA and the City of Boston for the following issues:

I. The rehabilitation of the Kennedy Center's Old Kent School, via an initial commitment of grant monies, to enable construction to begin immediately.

II. Consistent with existing tradition, we support the jurisdictional rights of the International Longshoremen's Association to waterfront jobs associated with the Revere Site operations.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING DRAFT I. ENVIRONMENTAL MITIGATION

A. Facility Size and Use — The size of the facility will be limited to the former Revere Sugar site leased by Massport to MWRA for pier facilities. The piers will be used exclusively for the transportation of construction materials necessary to build the new primary and secondary wastewater treatment facilities ("treatment plant") at Deer Island. The MWRA will not transport excavated material, debris, or sludge, etc., from Deer Island through these piers.

B. Rodent and Vermin Control — There will be prior to demolition an in-place rodent and vermin control program which will be under close supervision by Inspectional Services Department. This program will continue throughout the term of the agreement.

C. Odor Control — The facilities must be designed so as to eliminate any detectable odors and to control detectable or nondetectable emissions as necessary to protect the public health.

D. Noise Control — Construction operations will be limited to the hours of 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. and such operations will conform to Residential zoning standards. Soundproofing of immediate abutter residences will be afforded within an agreed upon radius of the site.

E. Hazardous or Flammable Materials — Hazardous or flammable materials will not be transported to or from the site, nor stored at the site.

F. Separation Area — The MWRA will construct and maintain a significantly landscaped berm which will act as a buffer zone between the facility site and its Medford Street perimeter, consistent with existing Amstar landscaping. The landscaped area will be between Medford Street and the railroad right-of-way, and no parking will be permitted in the separation area. On site parking will be provided for site personnel, for visitors to the site and for others conducting business in connection with the operation of the facility.

G. Enforcement Procedure — All contractors to the MWRA will be required to sign a certificate stating that they understand and will comply with the conditions of the MOU. Furthermore, the MWRA will agree to repair any damage to personal property, residential property, community property, or other faulty facilities immediately regardless of their pursuit of legal remedies against a contractor or supplier.

II. IMPACT OF CONSTRUCTION AND OPERATION OF FACILITY ON CHARLESTOWN ROADWAYS

A. Transportation

1. The MWRA will construct and use a connector road along the existing railroad right-of-way from the Revere Site to Terminal Street. The MWRA will also coordinate with the proper agencies and authorities for the construction of a dedicated service road from Main Street to Chelsea Street.

2. Trucks traveling to and from the MWRA site must use an approved truck route. The existing peripheral alternate truck route to Medford Street will be utilized. No MWRA contractor, supplier, or other vendor truck traffic will be operating on Medford Street. No aggregate will be transported or stored at the MWRA site. Marshalling site(s) will be established outside of Charlestown. Escort procedures, signalization and signage and related traffic issues will be enforced subject to community review. The MWRA will limit truck traffic to off peak hours of 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday and no traffic will be permitted on weekends or holidays. No MWRA trucks will be queued on Medford Street in compliance with Transportation ordinances for the City of Boston.

B. Utility Coordination — All long term site facility work will be coordinated with appropriate agencies to enhance permanent improvements to existing utilities impacted by readying the site for MWRA use.

C. Road Repairs — Any Charlestown streets disturbed due to the construction of piers or other MWRA site activity will be rebuilt.

III. PUBLIC SAFETY AND ACCESS CONSIDERATIONS

A. Fire Fighting and Ambulance Service-Emergency Response Plan — Recognizing that second response service from neighboring communities will be impaired, the MWRA will coordinate emergency response plans acceptable to Charlestown and the Boston Fire Department.

B. Access — The MWRA will provide the Mitigation Committee with site facility access and cooperate in providing tours requested by Charlestown residents. A 24-hour information and complaint "hotline" number will be established which will include an individual's name who will be identified to handle community inquiries. Public information bulletins will be released periodically, detailing construction schedules and progress of site operations.

C. Dispute Resolution — The City and the Charlestown Mitigation Committee and the MWRA intend to resolve all disputes under this MOU to the best of their abilities in an informal manner. To accomplish this the City, through its Mayor, and the MWRA, through its Executive Director, and the Charlestown Mitigation Committee, through joint selection, shall each appoint an Official Mitigation Representative (OMR) to represent them in all initial discussions and negotiations concerning this MOU.

The City and the MWRA and the neighborhood of Charlestown will attempt to resolve disputes through informal communication among the OMRs prior to proceeding to the formal dispute resolution procedure consisting of three stages and a section on Exhaustion of Remedies.

(NOTE: Persons interested in the details of the Dispute Resolution section will find copies of the complete draft at the Charlestown Branch Library.)

IV. EXTRAORDINARY CIRCUMSTANCES

The parties recognize that the MWRA must comply with the existing and future court orders and schedules which may directly or indirectly affect MWRA's ability to undertake, complete or perform in a timely manner its responsibilities under this MOU and which may require the MWRA to take actions or cease activities which may result in violations of the terms of this MOU. The MWRA shall not be deemed to be in default of performance of the terms of this MOU if a violation is caused by actions, omissions, or cessation of activities required directly or indirectly by court order.

V. NON-ENVIRONMENTAL MITIGATION

A. Jobs and Job Training — The MWRA will establish a job training program in Charlestown. The MWRA will advertise all employment opportunities in local Charlestown papers. Job Fairs will be held at the minimum of once a year in Charlestown for local residents.

B. Grant Program — In recognition of the total impact of facility construction and long duration of operation, the MWRA will agree to fund a grant directly to Charlestown of $1,000,000 per annum for the life of the agreement. Grant recipients will include institutions, organizations and other non-profit entities to be determined by a formal grant review process. The grant funds will be escrowed in a trust fund to be administered by a Board of Trustees consisting of representatives from the MWRA, City of Boston, a Charlestown banking institution, a Charlestown business and an individual Charlestown resident.

(NOTE: The last two sections on Force Majeure and Notice Requirements may be found in the complete draft at the Charlestown Branch Library.)

Applications are now being accepted for the Charlestown City Roots Alternative High School GED program. This program serves 16 to 21 year olds. The program begins on September 8 and classes are held from 8:30 a.m. until 1:30 p.m.

EPA Report On Pier Construction Finds No Significant Environmental Impact

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency has proposed that no environmental impact statement be prepared for a project involving construction of piers and staging areas associated with the cleanup of Boston Harbor.

The Massachusetts Water Resources Authority (MWRA) proposes to construct piers at the Fore River staging area in Quincy, piers and staging areas on Nut Island in Quincy and at the Revere Sugar site in Charlestown, and a personnel shelter at Deer Island.

These facilities will be used in connection with the construction of a secondary wastewater treatment plant on Deer Island and the demolition of a primary treatment plant and later construction of a headworks facility on Nut Island.

The Revere Sugar and Fore River piers and staging areas will be used for transporting materials and personnel to Deer Island. The water transport facilities will mitigate traffic related impacts associated with the construction projects.

EPA's review of an environmental assessment prepared by the Massachusetts Department of Environmental Quality Engineering's Division of Water Pollution Control determined that the project would not cause significant adverse impact to the environment.

Comments on this decision may be submitted to EPA by September 11 and sent to EPA, Water Division, Room 2103, J.F.K. Federal Building, Boston, MA 02203.

The finding of no significant impact is available for public review at the above EPA office, at the office of the Massachusetts Division of Water Pollution Control in Boston and the Massachusetts Water Resources Authority office in the Charlestown Navy Yard.

Birmingham's "People's Campaign" Reaches 10,000

State Senate candidate Tom Birmingham has announced that he has knocked on the doors of over 10,000 voters since beginning his campaign in May. His wife, Selma, has knocked on almost as many, and scores of campaign volunteers have visited thousands more homes in the district.

Birmingham noted the enthusiastic and encouraging response he has received from voters across the district. "People have been very receptive. After ten years, the people of our district finally have a chance to choose who their next State Senator will be. People are excited because they are tired of 'business as usual' in the State Senate."

Birmingham extended a special thanks to the people of Charlestown. "It's been a pleasure renewing old acquaintances and making new ones here."

Covering a total of 194 miles from Sturbridge to the final destination of Provincetown, Tony had high praise for the organizers and the droves of anxious well wishers along the gruelling trail. For those who know Connie, the "C" stands for calorie consumption, from which Tony benefited with the result being his true girth. His preparation and first trip yielded a weight reduction of 40 pounds, much to his satisfaction. As Tony stated, "A dual contributor, first in assisting the much heralded Jimmy Fund and secondly improving my general fitness and longevity."

A 1970 graduate of Boston Latin School, Tony advanced to Columbia University where he was awarded a B.S. in Chemistry on June 14, 1974 and onto an M.B.A. from Stanford in 1981. His career has taken him from New York City to Denver, Colorado and onto his present position with Scientific Micro Systems in Cupertino, California. His corporate staff executed duties will continue to be discharged with acumen, but his free time will be further disciplined with his zeal for racing. Tony has fond memories of his days at the Harvard School, especially the fourth grade where he was blessed to have "Townie" George Murphy as his teacher. He strongly believes the values George inculcated allowed for his success at Latin and his eventual career achievements. Tony looks forward to 1989 for the 10th Annual PanMass, which will become an annual for him. He extended many thanks to all that were so generous in their pledges. Although Connie was busy encouraging the festive group to "manga," Tony maintained his discipline. We wish you a safe return, Tony, you are a sterling product of Charlestown.

Talking about trips, Mary and I will be traveling to Pocasset for our annual vacation. When in the neighborhood, drop by, or check in at our house away from home, the Chart Room, for a spot of tea or whatever your fancy. To all, enjoy the balance of the season. See you on September 22nd!

MWRA Mitigation Committee Continues To Seek Community Input

Other Considerations

McConnell suggested the development of a revolving loan fund. This would be available to Medford Street residents to protect their homes from noise and vibrations.

Connolly stated that the MWRA should be urged to match the offer of Massport to split the cost of the access road feasibility study.

An expansion of jobs and job training to MWRA contractors was suggested by Moe Gillen.

Procedure

Gillen said that he would like more community input into the draft, the highlights of which may be found on page 16 of this week's Patriot and copies of the complete draft are at the Charlestown Branch Library for review.

Any comments should be submitted by September 8 to Judy Evers, community liaison, Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services, Room 709A, City Hall, Boston, MA 02201 (telephone 725-3485).

The Mitigation Committee will review any comments and present the draft with any revisions to the Neighborhood Council at the September 13th meeting. It was suggested that Gillen request a special meeting of the Council to discuss this agreement.

Once the draft is approved by the community, it will be brought to City's Transportation Commissioner

Richard Dimino, still in the form of a draft, for inclusion in the City's mitigation proposal to be negotiated with MWRA. It is Dimino who will eventually sign the mitigation agreement on behalf of the City and the Charlestown community.

Children's Films

The Film Program for Children will be presented at the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main Street on Tuesday, August 30 at 3:30 p.m.

The features will be "Dog Watch," in which a rat wreaks havoc with Pluto's guard work; in "My Grandson Lew," a little boy remembers happy times shared with his grandfather; sailing off in a wooden shoe, three children seek adventure in "Wynken, Blynken and Nod;" and crossing the United States border, Paco the hound-dog gets lost in "The Wetback Hound."

The suggested readings in conjunction with these films are: Grandpa's Slide Show by Deborah Gould, Galley and Galleons by Walter Buehr and Wynken, Blynken and Nod by Eugene Field.

Connors Appointed Program Director Of Headstart And Day Care

The Kennedy Center is very pleased to announce the appointment of Maryellen Connors of Elm Street as Program Director for the Headstart and Day Care Programs.

Connors has a long history with the Kennedy Center's Headstart program. She began her career in 1974 as a teacher, was promoted to Head Teacher, earned her bachelor's degree at Leslie College and then became education Supervisor for the program in 1985. She will assume her new position on September 1.

Headstart classes will open this fall in classrooms made available by Father Thomas Reilly at Saint Catherine's School. This space will provide a comfortable and convenient environment for the children until the Old Kent School renovation is complete.

Fundraising for the school is continuing. In conjunction with the Charlestown Preservation Society, plans are being developed for renovation of the exterior of the building and grounds.

The Board of Directors of the Kennedy Center invites individuals who are interested in participating in the planning committee for the exterior renovation to attend the first committee meeting on Wednesday, September 21 at 7 p.m. in the Kennedy Center offices at 27 Winthrop Street. For further information, call Kate McDonough, Executive Director at 241-8866.

News From The Charlestown EDC

This past Saturday the Charlestown Economic Development Corporation (CEDC) began to distribute applications for the Main Street Townhouses lottery to be held in October of this year. This lottery will give 13 first-time homebuyers a chance to purchase one of these new houses. In order to qualify, applicants have to meet certain income guidelines set by the Massachusetts Housing Finance Agency.

Until September 15th, applications will be mailed to anyone who writes to the Charlestown EDC, P.O. Box 20, Charlestown, MA 02129. Please include a stamped, self-addressed envelope in which the application can be mailed back.

Save your questions for Thursday evening, September 8, when there will be a public meeting at 7 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Charlestown. At that meeting, detailed floor plans and construction features will be presented, and questions about the lottery will be answered.

September 15th is the deadline to get your application. After that date no more applications will be given out. Completed applications must be returned by September 30th. That is the last date applications can be accepted by the EDC for inclusion in the lottery. We anticipate the lottery will occur sometime in October. That date will be widely publicized.
