This weekend would have competed at Dutch Nationals in -59, so we decided to see where we currently stand. Even though I did not hit the numbers I initially aimed for, I am overall happy that I stayed injury free this prep for the very first time minus the small pec issues. Was still able to come in and hit some PRs. Wanted to hit 157.5kg on squat but wasn't there today, I am fine, no injuries, 200kg deadlift will also happen one day. Time to relax, go back to the drawing board, clean everything up and hopefully put it together on the platform if COVID decides to leave one day. The only way is up! Was also allowed to play my own playlist, so Pop Smoke it is boiss🤔
